"COVERING EASTLAND COUNTY"

VOLUME TWENTY-FIVE

EASTLAND, TEXAS, TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1955

ONE SHOE OFF, ONE SHOE ON—Unlike "my son, John," of the nursery rhyme, Swedish ski jumper Toiro Lauren wasn't caught in bed in this predicament. He lost one ski "shoe" at take-off point of the ski jump at Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany, landed on one ski and finished the run on his stomach, unhurt. Long-lens movie camera caught this high-point of jump.

Eastland Echoes

By Casey
THOUGHT FOR TODAY: "Each must make, ere life is flown, a stumbling-block or a stepping-stone." — (R. L. Sharpe).

Jack Oglesby, Eastland Methodist pastor — whom we knew and loved as one of Ennis' consecrated pastors (guiding light in the building of the beautiful "new church there") had it by grapevine that the Cashehols were moving to Eastland, phoned two or three times before we arrived on the scene, then finally contacted us on the day of our arrival. . . . The sound of the voice of this good friend was music to our ears.

Jack wasn't our pastor, however, as we're Baptists. Which thought brings us to happy recollection of our Sunday school attendance this past week-end, here in Eastland, where we were deeply impressed by the inspiring presentation of the lesson by Judge Collings. . . . The next Sunday we're in town, we hope to stay for the worship hour, and affiliate with the church (First Baptist).

In these times when forces like Communism seek to make it a Goddess world we're drawn closer than ever to the church and the principles for which it stands. Religion should be given its full due, because in this atomic age it is the only thing that will save mankind from annihilation.

Here's one we got a chuckle out of:
The teacher wrote on the blackboard: "I don't have no fun at the seashore" — and asked a pupil, "How should I correct that?" He quickly replied:
"Get a boy friend."

Battle the Great Grippler. Join the March of Dimes!

To say that we are delighted with the friendliness of the people of Eastland is to put it mildly.

HUNDRED AND FIFTY FARMERS IN COUNTY GET FHA HELP IN '54

Nearly 20,000 Texas farmers and ranchers received financial aid from the Farmers Home Administration during 1954, including some 150 Eastland Countyans, George L. Lane, county supervisor, said Tuesday.

"These are families who were unable to get financial assistance from banks and other private credit sources," Mr. Lane explained. Members of the County Committee are Lester Hagerman, Oral Davis and Jack Baker.

More than 46 million dollars was loaned to these farm people. In the nation as a whole, Mr. R. B. McLeish, National Administration, states that the Farmers Home Administration has loaned more than $292,452,800 to the na-

Old Staff Road Not Closed, Court Says

Eastland County Commissioners Monday morning voted to reduce county taxes on two pieces of property and decided that it would not be necessary to deal with a petition asking that the old Staff road not be closed.

The Court reduced property valuations of a lot in Odessa and one in Deadwood. Both had not been rendered for taxation in several years, and had decreased in value, commissioners decided.

A petition from property owners in the area served by the old Staff road asked that the road not be closed. The Court had no intention of closing the road in the first place, Commissioner B. M. Bennett of Gorman, said, and therefore did not need to consider the petition.

What actually happened was that last week the Court voted to tear down the bridge on the old Staff-Eastland road. The road itself would still remain open on both sides of the bridge, but to cross the Leon River it would be necessary to go to the new Staff Road bridge. Reason for removing the bridge now is to make sure that it is salvaged before water backs up from the new dam. If the bridge remains where it is now, it would be inundated when the new lake fills up, commissioners said. The bridge will be moved to a new location just below the Texas Electric dam, where it will give property owners in that area an access across the river.

Two questions that have been confronting the court for several weeks were again not considered. The Court decided not to appoint a county health officer at the Monday meeting and did not make a decision on reducing the pay of constables in the county. Commissioner Henry Carter was absent, and the Court decided to wait until all commissioners were present to make the two decisions. Several doctors have applied for the position of county health officer.

County Judge John Hart presided.

One Mile Strip Will Complete Lake Circle

Work on the final mile of road around Lake Leon got underway today.

County workers began doing grading work on the final section of the county road this morning under the supervision of County Commissioner J. B. (Tip) Arthur and B. M. Bennett. The final section of the road, an estimated one mile strip, is through the C. L. Henderson property. The Water Board made a settlement with Henderson for the right-of-way, and commissioner got the okay at their regular weekly meeting Monday morning.

Besides the new stretch of road Commissioner Bennett said that repair work would be done on another three-fourths mile stretch which connects with the new section.

Mr. Bennett said that completion of the road is expected in the near future, weather permitting. He said that it would be graded. The section will complete a part of the road includes a section recently completed by Collins Construction Co. Total cost for that section alone, including the cost of the new Staff bridge, was $172,568. That section of the road runs from a point four and four-tenths miles east of Eastland on Farm-Market Road 570, south-east six and three-tenths miles to an east-west road intersection, south of Staff.

Feb. 15 the cities of Eastland and Ranger will go together to hold a ribbon cutting ceremony on the new road. The Chamber of Commerce in each city is sponsoring the event, and members of the State Highway Commission will be invited. Plans call for having the program at 3:00 p.m.

"Lunch was enjoyed at Carbon," Higgins explained.

Other places visited included Clinton K. Humphreys, beef calf, Eastland; Joe Grisson, pig, Ranger; John Tom Tibbels, fat pig and gilts, Ranger; David Duncan, pig, Ranger; Lynn Gray, pig, Carbon; Jimmy Burleson, lamb, Carbon; Kenneth Taylor, pig, Carbon; Mackey Rogers, pig, Kokomo; and Charles Caraway, lambs, Kokomo.

Accompanying the group of boys will be Don Hart, Texas Electric agricultural representative, and County Agent J. M. Cooper.

Assistant County Agent Rufus Higgins will accompany one 4-H Club boy to the Fort Worth show Wednesday. Higgins will take Harold Hill to the show, where Harold will show a Shorthorn steer in the Junior Steer Show.

Cooper said that the trip is made annually, giving Eastland County 4-H Club boys an opportunity to attend the Fort Worth show.

Eastlanders Saving Money

City's Fire Record Rated 'Outstanding'

Eastlanders are saving money every day on their fire insurance, E. L. Freyschlag, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Fire Prevention Committee, pointed out Tuesday.

Mr. Freyschlag, owner of Freyschlag Insurance Co., has just completed a five year study of fire records for area cities.

Of the nine cities falling under the survey, Eastland ranks tops. Eastland has a "good fire record" credit of 18 percent. That compares most favorably to nearby Cisco's debit of five percent and Ranger's credit of only two percent. In fact, it makes Eastland's fire insurance cost 23 cents less on each dollar than Cisco's and 16 cents less on a dollar than Ranger's.

Graham came the closest to equaling Eastland's outstanding fire record. That city had a 16 percent credit. Mineral Wells has a credit of 10 percent, Weatherford and Stephenville credits of six percent and Breckenridge a credit of three percent.

The credit and debit ratings are based on a five year average of insured fire losses.

Mr. Freyschlag said that a "careful citizenry" and an "alert fire department" are the two things that can be credited for the outstanding record.

"Our firemen certainly deserve that part of the credit," he exclaimed.

Death Takes J. R. Lusk Here Monday

BURLESON BLASTS IMPORT OF FOREIGN PEANUTS IN TALK

Omar Burleson, representative from the Seventeenth District of Texas, in a statement before a congressional committee, recently blasted the proposal to import 200,000 tons of peanuts into this country in June, in a statement before a congressional committee.

The representative firmly stated, "If it seems inconsistent for one who adheres to the philosophy of free trade, it seems a greater inconsistency that we should come to allow the importation of peanuts when we are controlling acreage, when we are supporting it with a price that will guarantee some sort of a living for the farmer. That is the inconsistency and it just seems to me that it is — I repeat — carrying coals to Newcastle when we think of importing peanuts into this country."

Referring to the distinctive type of farming clientele that he represents, Burleson recalled, "Fundamentally, people from our part of the country, from the South and the Southwest, have always been by necessity free traders. We still are — incidentally, I understand that at one time perhaps that made the difference between the parties in this country, Democrats and Republicans."

Unprotected Market
"We sold our products from the soil on an unprotected market, we bought back from the great manufacturing areas in the north and the east on a protected market. It is just as simple as that. Whether it was an automobile, a radio, or farm machine, or what not, it was bought on a protected market," he said.

Burleson further questioned the inconsistency of the proposed program, by saying, "Rice in Burma, is like carrying coals to Newcastle. The same thing is true with peanuts being brought into this country today."

He charged that the effort to bring in 200,000 tons of peanuts between now and June 1 is for the purpose of depressing the peanut market in this country, and none ther, and that the depression of the market would have no direct effect on the consumer, as those favoring the program had indicated.

Burleson called to the attention of the commission that there is sufficient peanuts on hand in this country to run far into the summer.

June Production

He elaborated, "In south Texas, under normal conditions they will, by the latter part of June, have ready for the market, about 25,000 tons of peanuts. The date here is June 1. Of course, as you know, that is the date in which the request is made. If we can run to June 1, I think that we can somehow, without a doubt in the world, have 25,000 tons of Spanish peanuts ready for the market, which will be produced in 15 counties in south Texas."

"From June until July we will have ten more counties, a little further north, 18,000 acres allotment, which will produce another 25,000 tons, because it is a little heavier production. Then we get up into my area of the country where the crop is a little later, and the season comes on in July and August, and that is where the bulk of our peanut crop will come from."

"It just doesn't make sense that we are not going to have peanuts ready for market," he emphatically stated.

Market Depression
Burleson raised the question, "If we bring in 200,000 tons of peanuts about the first of June, what happens?" He answered the question, "Immediately psychologically the market is going to be depressed. The shellers who have peanuts stored today, paying storage and insurance, and risking damage, which does not occur, are Doubtless the reaction of a new citizen to a community is of more than passing interest. Quite sincerely, the new management of your newspaper unhesitatingly expresses delight with Eastland. How can we do this so soon? Well, one gets around a lot in this profession!

The reasons we are so favorably impressed are myriad. We'll mention a few: The town is attractive and well located, healthful, populated by a high-type citizenry, civic minded, possessing a faith in the town's future—a city of inspiring churches and attractive homes, splendid schools, and thoroughly reliable institutions and business concerns. And, of extreme importance as a heart-warmer for the newcomer, is its cordial spirit.

Perhaps you consider that we like Eastland. We certainly do!

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

INCOME TAX BREAKS FOR INVESTORS

Taxpayers who receive income from stock dividends will benefit from changes made by the 1954 revenue act. This act provides for the partial exclusion of dividends from gross income. The first $50 of dividends received by the taxpayer will be excluded from his gross income. If the spouse of the taxpayer also receives dividends, the first $50 of those dividends will likewise be excluded. Thus it is possible to exclude a total of $100 dividends from gross income.

If the stock is held as community property, it is considered that one-half of the dividend goes to the husband and one-half to the wife. Amounts received from co-operatives, life insurance companies, mutual savings banks, and building and loan associations are often called dividends. However, for the purpose of this exclusion, they are not considered to be dividends and may not be excluded.

Another provision concerning dividends is a credit against tax. The income tax liability is computed in the normal manner. However, from it may be subtracted a credit equal to 4 percent of the dividends received after July 31, 1954. This credit cannot be computed on dividends received before August 1, 1954, nor on dividends excluded from gross income. The credit cannot exceed 2 percent of the 1954 taxable income.

Under the former law, 3 percent of the proceeds from annuities was included in gross income, and the remainder was excluded until such time as the nontaxable portion equalled the cost of the annuity.

Under the new law, at the time the first payment under the annuity is received, the taxpayer determines from a table the number of years of his life expectancy. This he divides into the cost of the annuity, and each year thereafter, he excludes from gross income that portion of the annuity payment which represents cost.

If the annuity is to be paid for a certain number of years instead of for life, that number of years is used instead of life expectancy to determine the portion which shall be excluded.

In the past, a person who had the foresight to build up a retirement income from private sources was penalized in that he had income on which he must pay a tax, whereas the person who received only Social Security benefits did not have taxable income. The 1954 revenue act attempted to remove this inequity, and it has provided a credit against the income tax of persons receiving retirement income.

In certain cases, proceeds from insurance policies constituted taxable income where there had been a transfer of ownership. The new law eliminates this under a few selected instances of transfer of ownership.

Heretofore, the interest element of an installment payment of insurance proceeds went untaxed. Now, interest in installment payment will be taxable, but if the proceeds are payable to the taxpayer's spouse, the first $1,000 of $25,442,174 from the Farmers Home Administration during 1954 under this program and have repaid $19,481,219 of it.

Also, a total of 1393 livestock producers have been advanced loans totaling $15,742,620 since the beginning of the Emergency Livestock program in August, 1953. "In spite of the drought in most range areas, these same livestockmen have been able to repay more than $5,000,000 of their loans," McKay emphasized.

Procedure was worked out McKay states, in a meeting this week which was attended by Senators Price Daniel and Lyndon Johnson, and Congressmen George Mahon, J. T. Rutherford, W. R. Poage and O. Clark Fisher, and members of the Staff of the National Administrator, Mr. McLeish, which had the wholehearted approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Ezra Taft Benson's office. This procedure is in keeping with the intent of the law in making emergency livestock loans, McKay advised, and that this procedure which was agreed to would permit the ranchmen to retain a percentage of their ewe lambs or heifer calves, depending upon the nature of their operations to replace cull breeding animals so that the herd will be maintained in the proper level and thus safeguard the security interest of the first lien holder.

In addition to the Emergency and Special Livestock Loans, the Farmers Home Administration lends money in its regular programs to farmers operating family-type farms for operating expenses, equipment and livestock purchases, for the development of Soil and Water resources, and for farm purchases, farm enlargements from appropriated funds, giving special preference to veterans. Insured mortgage loans were made for building and improving houses, barns, etc. and land purchases are made to all eligible farmers from these insured mortgage funds.

Mrs. Omar Burleson To Be Installed As New Congressional Club President

MRS. OMAR BURLESON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24—Texas, she is expected to run it with as friendly a "giddyap" as one would expect from a lady whose smile is as warm as West Texas sunshine.

Elected without opposition, Ruth Burleson will serve for two years—the tenure of the 84th Congress—in an organization which is, in every sense, bi-partisan. Indeed, it is even more bi-partisan than its counterpart on Capitol Hill, for under its constitution, the presidency must rotate between parties and the committee chairmanships must be allocated equally according to party and geography.

Mrs. Burleson replaces Mrs. Lawrence Smith, wife of the Wisconsin Republican.

She will be installed Friday, January 21, at a simple tea for the 535 members, but her first send-off will be on February 2nd when she and the Congressmen are host and hostess for President and Mrs. Eisenhower at the annual club reception in their honor.

A heavy-schedule of reception, in honor of the new Speaker of the House, teas honoring the wives of the cabinet and the diplomatic corps, are held in addition to the club's weekly Friday meeting where speakers of newsworthiness and timeliness appear. Such top-flight guests as Secretary of State Dulles, Ambassador to Italy Clare Boothe Luce, Lady Astor, Kathleen Norris, and others have spoken.

It is these meetings which are arranged to be of interest to visiting constituents and they serve a useful purpose in enabling the Congressional wives to have a special way of entertaining a visitor from the home district.

The club was founded by Congress, but it is entirely self-supporting from dues and from the sale of The Congressional Cookbook, a collection of favorite dishes of members.

Ten Texas ladies were among the club's incorporators back in 1906 when the move started to furnish an organization which would make life in the National Capitol more pleasant for the wives of the Congressmen and Senators. Among the Texas ladies who were the instigators were Mrs. John Nance Garner and Mrs. Albert Sidney Burleson, whose husband, at one time Postmaster General of the United States, was a distant relative of Rep. Omar Burleson.

On May 30, 1908, Congress passed the act creating the club but it left itself a way out, in the event the ladies didn't behave themselves. One stipulation read: "Congress reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal the Act."

By 1914, the club had a clubhouse and held its dedication reception in honor of President and Mrs. Wilson. The clubhouse was made possible by the late Mrs.

John B. Henderson, wife of a former Congressman from Missouri, who gave the land and signed the notes for the construction.

Mrs. Burleson is the second Texas lady to head the Congressional Club. In 1910, Mrs. N. W. Gregg, wife of the Congressman from the Palestine district, was president.

For the past two years, she has been club treasurer, a post, incidentally, which Mrs. Garner held in the early days of the club.

She is a poised speaker, getting her experience on the backend of a sound truck during her husband's first campaign for Congress.

She takes to the golfish bowl life naturally for, as the daughter of a Texas Baptist minister and married to a public figure, her life has always been under public scrutiny.

Her father, the late Rev. R. D. DeWeese, was minister of the Anson Baptist Church for many years. She still follows the basic philosophy which she learned from her mother, "There's good in everybody if you'll only look hard enough."

This has given her a uniquely happy-hearted approach to people in a town which is noted for its quick and sharp tongue.

Rink Party Is Held Recently For Methodists

Thirty members and guests of the Intermediate Department of First Methodist Church here met Saturday morning for their regular monthly social at the skating rink in Cisco. They were chaperoned by Mrs. F. H. Toombs, Mrs. Bill Walters Jr. and Mrs. Jackson C. Oglesby. The group returned to Fellowship Hall here for a paper sack lunch and games.

County-Wide 4-H Show Planned By Adult Leaders

The girls 4-H Clubs adult leader training meeting was held Thursday morning in Eastland. A demonstration on choosing linens for the home and making pillowcases was given by Miss Julia LaFaye Mason, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent. The leaders will present this demonstration in the second club meeting of the month. Plans are in progress for a county-wide pillowcase show to be held the last of March.

Methodist To Hold Family Fellowship

The third meeting of the series of Family Fellowship at the Methodist Church will be held Wednesday evening beginning at 6:30 with a covered dish supper.

Each family is to bring an ample dish of vegetable, salad or dessert. Meat and drinks will be furnished by the church. A nurse will be provided for small children.

Leaders for the occasion are Homer Smith, presiding; John Goode, recreation; Mrs. Ed F. Willman, devotional leader; Mrs. Art Johnson, program; and Mrs. O. O. Mickle, supper chairman. All members and friends of the church are invited, a church spokesman said.

Thursday Art Club Meets In Dabney Home

Mrs. Allen D. Dabney was hostess Thursday afternoon to members of the Thursday Art Club at her home, 605 South Seaman.

Each of the members brought their canvases and spent the time working on studies and helping each other.

Mrs. W. W. Walters, president, presided and members discussed a trip to Fort Worth to visit the art exhibits now on display. They also discussed the purchase of a miter box.

Members present were Meses Frances Urban, Homer White, Dave Mitchell, Louie Corbell, H. B. MacMoy, Joe Tow, Walters and the hostess, who served chocolate cake and orange nut cookies and coffee.

Guests were Miss Lou Ann Corbell and Mrs. Don Parker.

Homemaking Chatter New Spring Styles Will Feature Old Favorites—Navy Blue, Black

By Home Demonstration Agents
As we look through magazines we begin to get glimpses of the many new spring styles. We view our old favorites, navy blue and black coming out in many smart looking suits and dresses.

A very attractive look is the small touch of white on black suits. Some of the lighter colors that will be favorites this year are the ice pastels—ice pink, ice blue and lemon ice. And have you ever seen so many pink checked gingham dresses. These are especially pretty when worn with contrasting beads. Along the accessory line we find navy blue, black and the new shades of red and brown becoming to our old and new dresses.

Remembering the fact that pretty food also appeals to us we like to make our mashed potatoes a golden yellow by mashing in a few carrots with them. The carrots can't be tasted and this is a good way of getting our much needed Vitamin A. Although a good choice of plentiful foods is available, the homemaker is urged to compare prices of foods that furnish similar nutritive value before she buys. Even though certain food will be plentiful during the year, shoppers should check market prices from week to week for seasonal foods. The best values are obtained when food is at its highest production.

After our holiday shopping spree, our thoughts began to turn to making a budget. We found that by taking a month of average living expenses and listing each dollar spent, we can find places to cut down. All of the family can sit around a table to help plan the budget. Each member of the family should have a chance to voice his opinions and wishes. Starting the list of what we want, we first put down the necessities of life—food, shelter and clothing. Under these we put any house rent or payment, grocery and clothing expenses and any other such expenses. Then we put down any debt that we might have, such as car payment. What to put after these is up to the individual family—church contributions, children's allowances, recreation, car expenses, newspapers, etc. If Sister wants a new bike, we might set aside a small monthly fund for that. We have found that unless we stay within our budget there is no need to have one. Therefore, we set up our goals to be obtained through a budget. These goals can range from a summer vacation to a college education for the children. We have found also, that if we "just save for the future" it is better to set aside a certain amount each month. Realizing that a budget we make now may not fit our needs a year from now we keep it so flexible that it can be added to without much strain.

'Short-Cut Cookbook'—Special Feature Of January Magazine

A new "Short-Cut Cookbook" utilizing a wide variety of the prepared precooked, and ready-to-eat foods found in today's markets—has been prepared by Food Editor, Helen McCully, for the January issue of McCall's. Designed to "dramatize the scope of these wonderful, modern foods," this special 8-page editorial feature contains 1288 recipes that "prove that one short-cut food combined with another adds up to delicious eating."

In her introduction to the "Short-Cut Cookbook," Miss McCully writes: "When the American housewife shops her super market, she has a choice of 4,693 short-cut foods—the most dazzling array of foods the world has ever seen. These amazing short-cut foods have revolutionized cooking habits in every home in the United States. A boon to everyone, they're worth their weight in gold to the woman with a job, the mother with small children, the bachelor who likes to cook himself a meal, the husband on his own, and the new cook facing a stove for the first time."

New and exciting recipes for main dishes, vegetables, salads, desserts, and quick breads are included in McCall's "Short-Cut Cookbook." In addition, there are many suggestions for "dressing up" or adding new flavor to old favorites.

McCall's "Short-Cut Cookbook," with its emphasis on the wide range of food products found in today's super markets, was the inspiration for McCall's proclamation of January as Supermarket Month. Supermarket Month, which has received the endorsement of leading government and civic officials, was inaugurated by McCall's to pay tribute to the men and women of this vitally important industry which has helped to make America the best-fed country in the world.

Mrs. Dudley, State President, Gives Federation Program

Mrs. L. E. Dudley of Abilene, president of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, reviewed "The Iron Mistress," by Paul Wellman, Thursday afternoon when she was the Thursday Afternoon Club's guest at their Federation Day program.

"The Iron Mistress," while not new, is a classic in its field. It is the story of James Bowie, the Texas hero. The story is really a personification of the explosive frontier life in Texas. The Iron Mistress is the famous Bowie knife, and the story tells of the making of the knife and the part it played in the life of Bowie.

Mrs. Dudley, famous for her reviews and much in demand over Texas for club and church programs, held her listeners spellbound with her telling of Wellman's story.

Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, leader for the afternoon, introduced Mrs. Dudley and also Mrs. Hart Shoemaker, president of sixth district, also from Abilene, who made a short talk. She presented each a copy of Kahill's "The Prophet."

Mrs. Tom Wilson, new member was introduced and welcomed. A tea honoring the distinguished guests followed the program. The table was laid with a white Madeira linen cloth and was decorated with a huge arrangement of red and white carnations placed before a background of white burning tapers. Mrs. Frank Castleberry, president, and Mrs. Frank Sparks, president elect, presided and poured. Red and white carnations were also used on the dining table, which had been prepared with a pink linen cloth and decorated with a pink Carnation French Heather arrangement.

Present other than the honored, guests were the officers of the club including Mesdames. Frank Sparks, Arthur Murrell, J. M. Perkins, Cecil Collings, Milburn S. Long, Frank Horton, M. A. Treadwell, Frank Lovett, I. C. Heck and Earl Conner, and the hostess.

Attending were Mesdames M. A. Treadwell, Wilson, Castleberry, Robt. Perkins, Percy S. Doane, of Hudson, Mass., Don Russell, Sparks, Arthur Murrell, D. L. Kinnaid, Milburn S. Long, Cecil Collings, Turner Collie, Horace Horton, Herman Hassell, Jay Whatley, H. C. Westfall, James Horton, I. C. Inzer, I. C. Heck, Frank Crowell, B. W. Patterson, Frank Lovett, Dave Fiensy, Carl Jones, R. E. Sikes, Ben Hamner, Samuel Butler, E. R. Townsend, D. L. Houle, Earl Conner, W. P. Leslie, J. M. Perkins and the hostess committee.

Mrs. Frank Castleberry hosted a luncheon honoring Mrs. Dudley and Mrs. Shoemaker at her home 209 South Oak Street, preceding the club meeting. Mrs. Castleberry served a turkey dinner. Guests were seated at the dining table, which had been prepared with a pink linen cloth and decorated with a pink Carnation French Heather arrangement. Present other than the honored, guests were the officers of the club including Mesdames. Frank Sparks, Arthur Murrell, J. M. Perkins, Cecil Collings, Milburn S. Long, Frank Horton, M. A. Gift Tea Honors Mrs. Ed Haines Recent Bride

A group of friends hosted a gift tea Friday evening honoring Mrs. Ed Haines, the former Jane Ann Jernigan in the home of Mrs. J. L. Owen, 501 East Sadosa.

Friends called during the hours seven to nine and were greeted by Mrs. Frances Zernial, who presented each to Mrs. Owen, then to Mrs. Jack Jernigan, mother of the honoree, the honoree and to Mrs. Katherine Haines, mother of the bridegroom, and to Mrs. Ione Bownds, who directed each to the register, presided over by Mrs. J. E. Turner.

Mrs. M. G. Cartwright was in charge of the gift display, which was artistically arranged in one of the bedrooms of the home.

A pink and green color theme was used. The bride's table was covered with lace, underlaid with pink taffeta. Green iced cake squares and frosted punch was served. Mrs. Sidney E. Seale laddered the punch and Mrs. Harlan Denny served the cake. Assisting were Misses Sylvia Sullivan and Merle Craig. Pink Gladiolus decorated the table and were used for decorations of the home.

Other hostesses included Mesdames W. J. Broussard and Mrs. Clyde Young.

Eighty friends called or sent gifts.

Mrs. Haines has returned to her studies in Eastland High School and Mr. Haines returned to North Texas State College in Denton, where he is a student.

Used to be you didn't see a young man at the wheel of a Cadillac very often. Most of the proud and happy people driving Cadillacs showed at least a little gray at the temples. But things are changing. In fact, it isn't at all unusual any more for a man in his thirties to move up to the "car of cars." There are two basic reasons for this. In the first place, success is coming much earlier now to a great group of young men than in years gone by. Men are going into business and the professions with fine technical training which starts them off at levels they used to be years in attaining. And, secondly, the news of Cadillac's remarkable economy is spreading far and wide. Actually, once a man feels justified in making the initial investment, he is economically on sound ground when he selects a Cadillac. First of all, he can keep it and drive it with pride for almost any period of years he may elect—for its endurance is beyond all practical measurement. Upkeep is remarkably low—and few cars of any size or price will run farther on a gallon of gasoline than a Cadillac. And even when it comes to the purchase price, there is much to be said for the "car of cars." There are twelve models of other makes which actually cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac. Thus, it is small wonder that more and more people in a younger age bracket are making the move to Cadillac. It has simply become a logical and practical thing for them to do. So, if you feel that you are ready for a Cadillac—remember that achievement—and not age—is the criterion.

Cattle Dislike Taste Of Grub Medicine

Free-choice of phenothiazine may someday help control cattle grubs but several problems regarding its use must first be solved.

Main drawback to phenothiazine is its taste. Cattle do not like it and a practical way to feed the product has not been found.

Its future may hinge on whether research can "chocolate coat" phenothiazine and guarantee that animals on the farm will consume enough to produce a grub killing effect, says Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian of College Station.

In preliminary tests, a definite drop in the number of grubs was noted among cattle fed 2 grams of phenothiazine daily free-choice in protein supplement.

"With need for further testing, no recommendations are being made now," Dr. Patterson says.

If phenothiazine should prove an effective grub-killer, it would be a significant step in the control of the costly parasites.

A recent report from Fort Worth says meat packers are receiving more "grubby" cattle now than a year ago. In some cases, infested calves are running 10 percent above last year. Grubby calves usually sell $1 to $2 a hundred pounds less than those without grubs, Patterson adds.

Mrs. Artie Liles and Mrs. Ray Hatton visited last Friday in DeLeon with Mrs. M. Z. Stovall, who is critically ill in the DeLeon hospital.

Mrs. Stovall is the sister of Mrs. Liles' father, W. H. Boone.

Cake of the Month

Happy for the modern homemaker, party cakes are speedily made with modern cake mixes. Speaking for itself is this special birthday cake accompanied by party cupcakes—all made with two packages of cake mix: one yellow and one devil's food. Top each frosted cupcake with a colorful candle to light the way to many, many more Happy Birthdays.

Marble Cake with Candle Cupcakes
1 package Swans Down Yellow Cake Mix
1 package Swans Down Devil's Food Mix
Chocolate Frosting
Butter Almond Frosting

Prepare cake mixes as directed on packages. Spoon half of the yellow batter into paper baking cups set in muffin pans. Use half of the devil's food batter in the same way.

Put large spoonfuls of the remaining yellow and chocolate batters alternately into two round 9-inch layer pans, which have been lined on bottoms with paper. With a knife, cut through batter in a wide zigzag course to marble. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 20 to 25 minutes for cupcakes and 25 to 30 minutes for layers. Cool cakes.

Spread Chocolate Frosting between layers, over top and sides of cake, and over tops of yellow cupcakes. Prepare Butter Almond Frosting. Put a little of this in a paper cornucopia to write "Happy Birthday" across top of cake. (If frosting is too soft to use in tube, add a little confectioners' sugar.) Spread rest of Butter Almond Frosting on chocolate cupcakes. Insert a candle in each cupcake. Chocolate Frosting. Measure 6 cups sifted confectioners' sugar.

Cream 6 tablespoons butter; add part of sugar gradually, blending well. Mix in 1/2 teaspoon salt and 4 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted. Add rest of sugar, alternately with about 1/2 cup milk, until of right consistency to spread, beating until smooth.

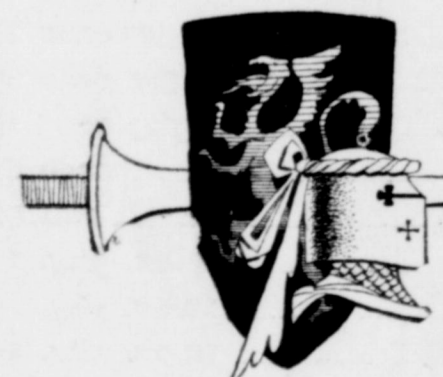

Butter Almond Frosting. Measure 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar. Cream 1/4 cup butter; add part of sugar gradually, blending well. Add dash of salt. Add rest of sugar, alternately with about 3 tablespoons milk, until of right consistency to spread, beating until smooth. Add 1/2 teaspoon almond extract and blend.

MIX TRICKS: You can bake the cake and cupcakes a month in advance, frost, and freeze. Just remember to put the frosted cakes in the freezer to set before wrapping in freezing paper; and to remove this paper as soon as the cakes come out of the freezer, before they begin to thaw.

What's Ahead for the New Year—

... is the 64 dollar question. Locally, we are plagued with problems of crop failures, readjustments in industry and an ever increasing shrinkage in buying power. Nationally, it may be more uncertainty and propaganda. On the brighter side people seem to be more concerned about what ails them. When we reach the point of concern—or alarm—we usually wake up and do something. So whatever problems may lie ahead let's keep the home fires burning. Keep adequately insured in 1955 and play safe by buying only old line insurance.
