Many Records Are Topped In Abilene Meet

A. C. C. Wins From Teachers
 75 To 41; In Dual Contests

ABILENE — Five T. I. A. records were bettered, one equaled, two Southwest Conference records beaten and on world record approached here yesterday in a dual track and field meet which Abilene Christian college won from North Texas State Teachers College of Denton 75 2-3 to 41 1-3. It was the swiftest meet ever held on an Abilene track.

A stiff wind aided the sprinters and hurdlers. Bill Weems of A. C. C. was responsible for the best performance. He ran the 220 in 20.8 one fifth of a second slower than the world record held by Roland Locke of Nebraska and a tenth second faster than Cy Leland's Southwest Conference record.

Jimmy Lawrence of A. C. C. beat the Southwest Conference record of 23.5 held by Brown of Southern Methodist by a tenth of a second in the low hurdles. Lawrence holds the T. I. A. A. record in 24 flat.

Even more surprising was Lawrence's winning leap of 23 feet 6 inches in the broad jump. It was almost a foot better than the T. I. A. A. record.

A. C. C. took eleven first places, tied for another. Lawrence with 12 points tied with J. D. Moore, Denton, for high point honors. Moore beat the T. I. A. A. record in the high hurdles, winning from Culpepper, his teammate, in 15.1. Culpepper set the conference record of 15.2 last year. The finish was so close spectators could not determine the winner until the judge's decision.

Worth Watkins, clearing 8 feet 2 inches, beat the T. I. A. A. mark. The A. C. C. relay team tied its mile record for the T. I. A. A., winning in 3 minutes 22 seconds, three records slower than the time at the Drake relays last week.

The summary:
 Shot put — Adams, A. C. C.; Moore, North Texas, 44 feet.
 1 mile run — Simmons, A. C. C.; Hunter, A. C. C. 4:47.
 440 yard dash — Weems, A. C. C.; Watson, A. C. C. 50.3 seconds.
 177 yard dash — Hayes, North Texas; Lawrence, A. C. C. 19 seconds.
 Discus throw — Moore, North Texas; Adams, A. C. C. 125 feet 2 inches.
 120 yard high hurdles — Moore, North Texas; Culpepper, North Texas, 15.1 seconds. (beats T. I. A. A. record).
 880 yard dash — Gray, A. C. C.; Simmons, A. C. C. 2:00.8.
 Pole vault — Wright and Herring, North Texas, and Smith, A. C. C.; tied, 11 feet.
 220 yard dash — Weems, A. C. C.; Hayes, North Texas, 20.8 seconds. (Beats Southwest Conference and T. I. A. A. records).
 Javelin throw — Cooper, A. C. C.; Adams, A. C. C. 155 feet.
 2 mile run — North, A. C. C.; Davis, North Texas, 10:30.4.
 220 yard low hurdles — Lawrence, A. C. C.; Malone, North Texas, 23.4 seconds. (Beats Southwest Conference and T. I. A. A. records).
 High jump — Watkins, A. C. C.; McDonald, North Texas, 6 feet 2 inches. (Beats T. I. A. A. record).
 Broad jump — Lawrence, A. C. C.; Herring, North Texas, 23 feet 8 inches. (Beats T. I. A. A. record).
 1 mile relay — A. C. C. (Weems, Watson, Simmons, Gray), 3:22 (Equals T. I. A. A. record).

Lovely Tea And Linen Shower Held By Lucille Reagan Circle Of 1st Baptist WMU At Church

Linen For New Dormitory Brought By Friends Of Missionary And Presented In Attractive Floral Setting; Entertaining Program Rendered

A beautiful tribute was paid to Miss Lucille Reagan Wednesday afternoon at the First Baptist Church when the circle, named in her honor gave a linen shower for her dormitory in Nigeria, West Africa, where Miss Lucille is doing missionary work.

The entertainment rooms were made beautiful with wild flowers used in profusion. The tables were centered with vases and bowls of fragrant flowers. Punch was poured from a beautiful crystal bowl on a table overlaid with lace on which were scattered perfect rosebuds.

A program fitted to the occasion was rendered with friends of Miss Lucille taking part. Miss Virginia Peden opened the numbers with a group of violin selections followed by a negro dialect reading given by Billie Ruth King.

Mrs. Mercer gave a piano solo and Mrs. Cornelson a group of songs. Mrs. McNew and Miss Day sang a beautiful duet. Mrs. Frazier, the accompanist for the afternoon, also rendered a group of piano numbers, appropriate to the occasion, one of which was an original composition.

Mrs. Harry Stalcup sang a solo. The salon orchestra composed of L. A. Wright, Miss Iona Deane, Wayne Matthews and Evelyn Jones, played soft music during the serving hour.

Many beautiful and useful linens were brought to the shower by friends of the absent honoree.

The members of the Lucille Reagan Circle, who acted as hostesses for the afternoon, were Misses J. J. Schultz, D. J. Dooley, Viola Bowles, J. D. Graham, C. C. Coffee, J. W. Aderholt, S. C. Bennett, Harry Stalcup, L. L. Gulley, L. I. Stewart, J. C. Smith, G. H. Hayward and W. D. Cornelson.

The guests were Misses B. Reagan, Beulah Davis, Hilda Finney, of St. Louis, K. S. Beckett, J. A. Jackson, R. V. Hart, Robinson, R. E. Day, Jess Andrews, J. Tom Mercer, H. C. Pyrant, W. R. Douglas, J. Agnell, Gibson; Misses Corinne Day, Angeletta Russell of San Angelo, Virginia Peden, Verbena Barnes.

Inning was the bright spot of the game. Chicago counted once in the second inning on a pair of hits. In the third inning, Hack was on third and Herman on second when Moore drew on base on balls.

Brenel, Pirate catcher, whipped the ball to second on the fourth ball and Hack tore home. Flet's double in the fourth helped the Pirates to a run. Jurgas secured the game for the Cubs in the ninth when he hammered out a triple to right with two on and two out.

Chagnon relieved French at the start of the inning and Richbourg and Grimm stepped. Jurgas drove them home.

the MAN HUNTERS BY MABEL McELLIOTT

...IN HERE TODAY
SUSAN CAREY, 19 and pretty,
works in the office of ERNEST HEATH, architect. JACK WAR-ING, Heath's assistant, tries to make love to her but is discouraged. Susan lives with her aunt, who is unusually strict. RAY FLANNERY, employed in the text office, makes friends with Susan and confides her ambition in life—to marry a rich man. Susan is secretly in love with BOB DUNBAR, millionaire's son she met at business school. She hears rumors he is to marry DENISE ACKROYD, debutante. Susan refuses an offer of marriage from BEN LAMPMAN, serious-minded
young musician. At a week-end party given by Denise Ackroyd,
Ben and Bob fight over Susan.
She runs away and, meeting Ernest Heath, asks him for his protection. He escorts her back to the Ackroyds, thereby incurring his wife's displeasure. Later Heath informs Susan his wife intends to sue her for alienation of his affections. Waring manages to save the situation, by means of a letter involving Mrs. Heath
in an affair with another man.
Ray is heartbroken, telling Susan that "SKY" WEBB, who has been showing her attentions, has married.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXIX

This was the moment Susan had dreamed of all these weeks, but now that Bob stood before her there was a curious unreality about it. Her heart pounded painfully. He looked thinner and in some subtle way older.

She managed to say calmly,
"Will you sit down? I'll see if Mr.
Heath is in his office. I'm not quite sure."

She knew perfectly well he was not in but she must do something anything, to delay this man. Wildly she sought about in her mind for a way to keep him talking. Then she felt ashamed. Her hands were ice. She returned to the outer office and looked straight at Bob.

"I'm sorry. He's not there," she told him. "He usually is by this time but perhaps there is a message I can take."

The young man stood up. No,
it was quite all right, he informed her. He would give Heath a ring later.

It seemed to Susan that there must be something she could do to retain him. She was starved for the very sight of him yet now that the opportunity lay before her she was like one stricken dumb. They might have been utter strangers,
these two young people.

Dunbar's hand was on the door knob. He was thanking her in and spoke about the weather. Today she did neither.

"Hurry, hurry!" Her footsteps kept time with the words. A traffic light delayed her at one corner.
The policeman seemed maddeningly slow. It seemed ages before she found herself again in the elevator
of the office building.

Bob would still be there. He would be coming out of Mr. Heath's room as she took off her hat. They would have just a moment together, but he would finish what he had meaningless phrases for her trouble. Then suddenly as on that far-off summer day in the restaurant

at the Blackstone that spark of understanding flashed between them. Susan caught her breath.
The young man stared at her. She was all in brown today. Simple wool frock cut at the neck to show her creamy throat. Little, sensible brown oxford. She waited for the words she felt certain were to follow.

"I want to say again that I'm sorry for what happened, that night."

"That—she had not dreamed it!
She looked up at him, her eyes flashing and darkening with the emotion that possessed her.

"It's quite all right. It wasn't your fault."

The stern lines of his face relaxed. "I was a bit high, I know,
but it's no excuse."

She wanted to reach out and touch the rough fabric of his overcoat. What she did was to flick her lashes demurely downward and say nothing.

"You ran away," the boy accused
her. "Why did you do that?"

"I don't know. It seemed a good idea at the time." Susan smiled and the old friendliness was re-established. Strange it was, thought Susan, that with some people the most foolish little phrases take on a new and shining meaning. Whatever she said to Bob, or he to her,
seemed fresh and curiously their own.

"Look here, won't you—"

What he meant to say she was not destined to know because at that instant the rear door was flung open and Mr. Heath bustled in. Susan's heart sank. The perfection of the moment was gone,
never to return. Blissfully unconscious of anything unusual in the situation, Heath held out his hand to Bob Dunbar. Luckily for his peace of mind he had not recognized Susan's escort that night in the lane. Bob was merely the son of an old friend.

Heath did not notice that Miss Carey was flushed and bright eyed but then she was a very pretty girl and that was quite natural. Susan had to stifle her disappointment as she watched her employer
lead Bob into his private office.
She found it impossible to keep her mind on her work. She could hear the low murmur of the two voices and her whole being tingled with excitement. What was it Bob had started to say?

She prayed, "Dear God, give me
another chance to talk to him!"
Her heart pounded.

When Pierson returned from lunch she glanced up, scarcely seeing him. He spoke to her twice before she realized his remarks were directed to her.

"I said you'd better go to the bank right away. It's almost three," Pierson repeated in a faintly acid tone.

She glanced at the clock. It lacked but 10 minutes of the hour. The voices in the private office still rang and fell. As Susan struggled into her coat she added another prayer to her list.

"Please let him stay until I come back. It's not much to ask."

You could not run on La Salle street. People would look at you and think you were mad. But you could walk sedately and quietly with a heart racing like a wild thing? How slow the teller was behind the bars! With that maddening deliberation he made the entry. Usually Susan smiled at him started to say. Susan hesitated before turning the knob, savoring the flavor of anticipation. Then she flung the door open, trying to remember just how she behaved on ordinary days.

Quickly she went to the closet and hung away her coat. She would not look in the direction of Mr.
Heath's private office. It would all happen easily and naturally. She would be patient. As she crossed the room to give Pierson the bank book she was conscious of the extreme quiet of the place. She would not ask. She would not!

Pierson looked at her curiously.
"The boss said to tell you he'd be back at four."

"He's gone?" Susan's voice sounded unreal to her.

"Yes, Galloped out with that colored suit just after you left."

The girl's steps went drearily
across the room.

"Why? Did you want to ask him something?" Pierson couldn't help being inquisitive.

"No. It was nothing," Susan said
without hope. "Nothing at all."

She waited for the telephone to ring. The first day she was sure Bob would call. It was perfectly simple because he knew the number. She had so much to say to him that she could hardly wait. Then as the days passed Susan came at last to the realization he wasn't going to telephone. She told herself she was a fool. In her saner moments she was firm and brisk and decided as to how she would mooch around over a lost love,
but not here.

The stress began to display reminders that Christmas was at hand. Each time Susan went to the Miltons' she found Rose absorbed in mysterious heaps of crepe
de chine, lace and sachet. Mrs.
Milton had confided to Susan in an unguarded moment that Terry intended to give Rose a ring for Christmas.

"But I thought she didn't want to be married for ages?" Susan said, surprised. Mrs. Milton's laugh was exuberant.

"Don't believe all you hear," she advised. Then her tone dropped, became confidential. "I'll tell you how it was," she said. "Rose has been stringing Terry along—you know all about that—for two years.
She kept talking about careers and I don't know what all."

"I still don't see—" Susan began,
but the other interrupted.

Mrs. Milton warmed to her story.
"Well, it was all right as long as Terry played tame duck," she said, relishing the words. "They would have their Sunday and Wednesday dates as usual and whenever the poor boy tried to be serious my fine
lady would put him off and talk about her chances of making a trip to Paris. Well, that was all right!"
Mrs. Milton paused for dramatic effect.

"And then what happened?"

"Didn't some cutie from over in his neighborhood make a dead set for Terry? He began to call up every now and then to break a date.

Of course I know what it was all about but Rose didn't. It would take a horse to fall on her. I was the one," pursued Mrs. Milton with satisfaction, "to tell her which way
the wind blew. My fine young lady didn't like the idea of losing Terry.
She went to a little trouble for a change and—well, you see what happened! They'll be married before Lent."

"You're glad, aren't you?" Susan asked.

"Glad? I should say I am," said Mrs. Milton roundly. "I have no patience with these old maids who hang on to their jobs forever and think they can keep a beau dancing. Now what I want next to hear," she admonished, "is just such news about you."

Susan shook her head. "I'm never going to marry," she said.
"Never!"

Do you inhale?

"Why bring that up?"
—the cigarette trade asks!

FOR years there has been generally a striking avoidance of the word "inhale" in cigarette advertising. Why? Goodness only knows! For everybody inhales—knowingly or unknowingly! Every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

That's why it's all-important to be certain that your cigarette smoke is pure and clean—to be sure that you don't inhale certain impurities.

Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question—for it has solved the problem! It gives you the protection you want... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

"Fifty million smokers can't be wrong!" So whether you inhale knowingly or unknowingly—safeguard your delicate membranes!

Art Exhibit Open 2 Days For Visitors

Prints Hung In Women's Club House; On Display All Day Long

Lovers of pictures—and who doesn't belong in that class—are missing one of the treats of the season in not viewing the prints which the Arno Art Club is exhibiting in the City Federation Club House for Thursday and Friday. The admission of one dime goes to buy pictures for the schools.

The new setting afforded by the club house presents the pictures in a more intimate and attractive surrounding than the school building made possible.

The pictures are being used both morning and afternoon. The hours are 9:30 to 12 and 2:30 to 5. The exhibit closes Friday.

It is surprising how many modern artists are included; also how many Western themes, such as the covered wagon, the desert, the Indians, are shown.

The prints are large, the colors are splendid, the pictures are well mounted. This is an opportunity that children, and certainly every adult in the city, should take advantage of; if he does not he will regret it later.

Among the artists and their pictures are the following: Earnest Dorn, "The Aspen Grove"; Willard L. Metcalf, "The North Country"; John M. Gahble, "The Desert Flower"; J. M. W. Turner, "Grand Canal—Venice"; Vincent Van Gogh, "Sunflowers"; Dwight W. Tryon, "Before Sunrise, June"; H. Teller, "Nature's Melody"; Jan Vermeer, "The Letter"; Edward Henry Potthast, "Mother and Children"; Raphael, "Marionna of the Chair"; Alfred Sisley, "River Landscape"; Michael Angelo, "The Creation of Man"; Sir Joshua Reynolds, "The Age of Innocence"; J. Francis Murphy, "The Hill Top"; Innes, "Old Orchard"; Rockwell Kent, "Winter in Maine"; Childs Haslam, "Golden Afternoon"; Charles C. Curran, "Children Catching Minnows"; Robert Wesley Amick, "The Indian Rug Weaver"; Alexander Wyant, "Early Spring"; Gustave Wiegand, "Indian Summer."

A balanced dish

There's nothing like PEP Bran Flakes. With milk they're almost a perfect food. Rich in whole-wheat nourishment. Healthful because they're just enough bran to be mildly laxative. And the flavor—why it's the famous flavor of Pop. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

A Few Short Cuts To 3 Meals a Day

By EDWINA NOLAN
Three meals a day! A thousand meals a year! It's a never-ending problem for housewife and mother. But there are innumerable short cuts in solving the problem.

Every homemaker knows that it is the actual cooking of meals which is most confining. She can double up on this time-consuming process by planning menus for two or three days ahead and by cooking in quantities sufficient to form the foundation for two or more meals if she has proper facilities for keeping food. Here is how the plan works out:

- (1) Enough potatoes are boiled to mash for dinner and to serve creamed or au gratin the next day.
- (2) Enough spinach is cooked so that there can be a cream of spinach soup for another meal and spinach and egg au gratin for supper or luncheon.
- (3) A whole ham is boiled, cooled, and put in the electric refrigerator and at dinner time it is given the final half-hour roasting and served hot; the remainder being made into ham and macaroni casserole for another dinner, and devilled ham sandwiches for luncheon.
- (4) Twice as many apples as will be needed to serve with roast ham are baked. Thoroughly chilled baked apples with a custard sauce make a delicious dessert; or they may be reheated and served with cream.

(5) Soft custards are made in larger quantities because they have many uses and they keep well in tightly-covered jars. With such preparations made and the food tucked safely away in the electric refrigerator, assuring proper preservation, most of the work is done for the day. In as short a time as 20 or 30 minutes it is possible to have dinner on the table.

employees under direction of Jesse Maxwell, local representative, could be moved to Midland any day without cost to the company for airport rental.

American Airways Wednesday announced it would immediately move headquarters of the southern division from Dallas to Fort Worth, where it will spend $150,000 for hangars, headquarters building and other facilities.

The Big Spring Airport corporation was organized and the port bought and improved for the purpose of obtaining the principal air mail and passenger stop between Fort Worth and El Paso.

Massie

Convicted Friday. The four defendants were found guilty of manslaughter last Friday after a harrowing trial in which Mrs. Massie told of the attack made upon her last September 12 and Lieut. Massie admitted they had brought Kahahawai to the Portesue home to obtain a confession from him.

He said Kahahawai admitted the attack and that then his mind went blank. The next thing he knew, he said, was when he was being taken to jail.

The defendants were scheduled to be sentenced next Friday. Virtually no one except the usual employees of the judiciary building were present when the quartet was brought there for sentencing.

Circuit Judge Charles S. Davis pronounced the maximum penalty, 15 years at hard labor. Under the law the jurist was forced to give the maximum penalty. The minimum to be served is later fixed by the territorial prison board.

Jones, Lord, then Massie and finally Mrs. Fortescue received similar sentences. In reply to questions of Judge Davis, all answered they had nothing to say before sentence was passed.

They then were committed to the custody of the sheriff and permitted to go across the street to the palace where Governor Judd's office are located. Within an hour the commutation was announced. For the first time in weeks each smiled happily.

Massie was present radiant in a bright blue dress. Darrow said he had been informed of the governor's intention Monday.

Capt. Ward Workman, Massie's commander who has been the custodian of the defendants at Pearl Harbor since they were arrested January 3, said Massie, Jones and Lord would retain their status in the navy unchanged.

He said the order committing them to custody of the sheriff of Oahu if they had been sent to prison, even for an hour, Workman said, federal action would have been necessary to clear their records and restore them to their status in the navy. This view was concurred in by Lieut. Johnson, who represented the navy on the defense counsel.

Anticipates Transfer. Workman said he anticipated orders at an early date transferring Massie, Jones and Lord to duty elsewhere.

The abrupt termination of the case probably will mean all the Massies and Fortescues will leave Hawaii permanently. Mrs. Massie probably will not remain to testify at the retrial of the assault case in which the remaining four defendants accused of attacking her will be tried. Plans for the retrial now are under way. Asked concerning her plans she referred all questions to Darrow.

"I am going to advise her to leave," Darrow said, "she has been through enough here. What is the use of her testifying again in this assault case. She has given her testimony twice already."

He said Mrs. Fortescue probably would leave Honolulu immediately.

Smoot

Chairman Smoot asked the treasury to prepare estimates of what the bill will yield as it now stands. If the more than billion dollars necessary to balance the budget is found, he said he would ask the committee Thursday to report the legislation to the senate.

If more money is needed he said that would be sought promptly and he confidently predicted final action Thursday. While an advocate of the sales tax, he conceded this did not have enough votes in committee.

Senator Reed (R. Pa.), estimated the senate measure now provides $300,000,000 less than the house bill just re-written. He wants the sales tax. It was generally admitted, however, that no one knew precisely the status of the measure.

All Made Permanent. Earlier, the committee had voted to make all the excise taxes, including the postal increases, permanent. The house limit of July 1, 1934, for the life of these rates was eliminated.

The end of the day's labor found a motion pending by Senator Bingham (Rep. Conn.), to substitute the entire treasury procedure proposed by Secretary Mills for the re-written measure.

Bingham offered his motion as a substitute for one proposed by Senator Walsh (Dem. Mass.), to incorporate the house income, corporation and inheritance levies and the treasury program on excise rates.

Thus after more than ten days of labor the whole job may be undone again. These motions will be voted upon tomorrow.

In rapid order, import duties on coal, oil and copper were shot into the bill.

4 Cent Copper Rate

The copper rate was put at four cents a pound, and made compulsory.

The oil duty was cut down from one cent a gallon provided by the house to one-half cent. Senator Connally (Dem. Texas), first sought the one-cent rate. His complex oil schedule, including gasoline and by products, won finally by 40 to 9.

The vote switched about on the various items, but the republican majority for the most part supported all. Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, republican independent, voted against all the import duties. Senator Connally voted for all.

Indians Take Another One

Three Home Runs Bring 8-7 Victory To Detroit Nine

CLEVELAND (AP)—Robbed of a shutout victory by Johnny Burnett's two successive fumbles at second base, big Clint Brown nevertheless held St. Louis to six hits while the Indians were pounding out 15 singles for an 8 to 3 win Wednesday.

The game closed the Indians' western stand and they go to Philadelphia tomorrow to open against the Athletics with a record of ten victories in their last 11 games.

The Indians had a field day against Sam Gray and Wally Hebert. Montague collected a perfect score at bat, getting two hits and a walk, starting a squeeze play and sending three runs across. Willie Kamm hit for three out of five and scored four times, while Myatt continued his hitting streak by getting three out of four and scoring twice.

Save for the third inning when Burnett's two errors on easy grounders allowed St. Louis its three runs, the Browns were in a position to score again only once. That too, was in the third inning when Brown purposely passed Goslin to fill the bases with two out. Rick Ferrell grounded out to Browns to retire the side and pull the big Indian right hander out of a ticklish situation.

Score by innings: St. Louis ..... 000 300 0—3 Cleveland ..... 020 320 100—8

TIGERS 88, WHITE SOX 7. CHICAGO, (AP)—Three home runs by Detroit Wednesday brought an 8-7 win over Chicago in the final of the series. Outhit, but managing to make the most of their blows off Thomas, the Tigers retained third place by the victory.

John Stone won the game in the seventh inning when, with Johnson and Rogell on, he hit a home run into the right field stands to give Detroit the one-run margin. Earlier Gehring hit for the circuit with two on base and Walker got a round tripper with the sacks empty.

The White Sox hit Wyatt hard in the first two innings, but he hurried until the seventh and received credit for his fourth win of the season. Detroit ..... 000 301 400—8 11 2 Chicago ..... 140 020 000—7 13 0 Wyatt, Herring and Hayworth; Thomas and Berry.

Homer In 12th With Bases Loaded Wins For Spudders; Beaumont Rookie Whips Panthers, Steers Win

By The Associated Press WICHITA FALLS — Furman Owens, young Wichita Falls Spudders catcher, socked a home run with the bases loaded in the last of the 12th inning here Wednesday to break up a stirring mound duel between Lester White and Ralp Judd and give the Spudders their second win in a row over the Houston Buffaloes, 7-4. In the first of the 12th the Buffs had pushed over a run to break a 3-all tie resulting from Bo Euller's home run in the sixth inning, a blow that put the Spudders back in the game.

Score by innings: Houston ..... 010 200 000 001—4 Wichita Falls ..... 110 001 000 004—7

EXPORTS 7, PANTHERS 3. PORT WORTH—Linwood Rowe, recruit from Eldorado, Ark., high school, was more than the Fort Worth Panthers could stand here Wednesday and they fell, 7-3, before the Exporters in the second game of the series.

Dick McCabe started for the Panthers but was blasted from the mound in the fifth inning when the Exporters scored six runs. Four came as a result of home runs by Rowe and Paul Esterling each finding a runner on the paths. Beaumont ..... 000 000 010—7 11 0 Fort Worth ..... 111 000 000—3 7 1 Rowe and Reiber, McCabe; Terry and Steinecke.

SPORTS 8, COISAIERS 4. SHREVEPORT — Shreveport moved into a tie for seventh place in the Texas league Wednesday by beating the Galveston Buccaneers, 8 to 4, for the second consecutive time. George Hollerson was credited with the victory and a homer in the seventh inning with two men on base made his pitching work easy. Carroll pitched seven innings for the Buccaneers and retired for a pinch hitter. Tubbs finished for him on the hill. Galveston ..... 003 000 100—4 11 3 Shreveport ..... 101 002 40x—8 10 0 Carroll, Tubbs and Hungling; Allen, Hollerson and Schang.

STEERS 4, INDIANS 3. DALLAS — The Dallas Steers were forced to play 12 innings of hard fighting baseball here Wednesday night before beating San Antonio, 4-3. Sam Langford's single to right field, scoring James from second, ended the ball game.

At a meeting of board of stewards of the Methodist church, following prayer meeting services, Wednesday evening, J. B. Sloan and Ira Driver were elected as members of the board to succeed W. T. Strange and J. W. Bradley, who resigned.

SPORTS ON PARADE

By CURTIS BISHOP

The Mexican Tigers, under the leadership of Skipper Hernandez and including such baseball powers as Albert Garcia, Raymond Cruz, Pete Fierro and Juan Vega, will make an appearance on an Abilene diamond this afternoon, meeting the Abilene Mexican club. The reason for the event is the celebration of Cinco de Mayo. Subia Gomez will probably occupy the mound for the locals.

The Tigers remain in Abilene for another day, according to one Leon something or other, depart for San Angelo for a couple of games with Conch clubs, visit Marfa for two days, and then come home.

The benefit football game between the Senior-Fresh and the Soph-Junior teams has been postponed until Friday week, we have been informed, in order to allow the respective clubs to further condition themselves. We cannot discover whether it will be played under the new rules or not, but think maybe not. Lloyd Forrester scowls and declares himself in favor of bloodier scrimmages and more of them, and Forrester, you know, is on the Senior club. On the other hand W. L. "Squaky" Thompson gives it as his opinion that it is going to be a pass and touch game and that he personally is in favor of it as he is due to be of the Soph-Junior stars.

One helpful young man suggested that a rule be instituted making it illegal to poke a player in the stomach since it was beer season. He did not, although the comment is unnecessary, quite make the first club last year.

Attendance at the benefit grid contest is necessary in order that the Bovines receive letter awards for their basketball activities. Long since has the athletic treasury been drained of its last resources, and eight sweaters, not to mention awards for the Coach, George Brown, are still to be ordered. The "B" Association, a society of lettermen in the high school, gave a benefit ball at the Crawford last evening, and were successful in putting on a good appearance. Gerald Liberty and his orchestra practically donated their services to the occasion, but at that we understand there was little or no profit from the venture.

The state tennis tourney opens today on the Austin courts with a raft of district champions on hand. Last year Leo Brady of Abilene won the singles and Grey-Baxter of Austin won the doubles. Our personal nomination this year is either a youth named Kahn of El Paso or Kamrath of Austin for singles honors and Kamrath and Weller of Austin in the doubles.

The nearest thing to a representative we have is the Iatan girls combination, winners of both district and bi-district championships this spring.

We have learned further concerning this Mr. Haas, instead of Haas, that is burning up the course here, and who shot a 65 the other day instead of a 68. He is a former Tulsa University athlete, an intimate friend of Ole Bristow's, and a driving phenomenon.

One story about him is quite interesting. He and Bristow teed off No. 4 on the local eighteen, and Bristow's drive carried some three hundred yards straight down the fairway, coming to a stop just where the dog's curves to the right. Bristow smirked.

"I guess that's a pattern for you, pal," Haas shook his head. "A boy's drive, pal." And he proceeded to send one past Bristow's mark by a full forty yards.

Big Spring owes a lot to Oklahoma. Perhaps the best way to repay the debt is for everybody to vote for Alfalfa Bill Murray for president.

Prove their quality again

"I should be licked for driving these roads"

Montgomery Ward & Co., Chicago, Illinois.

Sayville, Long Island

Gentlemen: As a salesman I drove my Buick Master Six this year a little over 18,000 miles. Every kind of driving from the New York City traffic with sudden stops and quick starting to three months of long hot runs in midsummer to the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania. I should be licked for driving some of those sharp stone mountain roads, but the best trout fishing is where roads are so rough the other fellow is afraid to drive there. This fall I've been up scrub-oak roads rabbit shooting and that driving is hard on tires too, but thanks to Riversides, they stay with me. During the entire year, and 16,000 miles, not one of the Riversides got more mileage per dollar expended than he can in buying Riverside tires.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Cronk

This interesting letter from Mr. Cronk is one of many hundreds we file. It was entirely voluntary—sent to us without solicitation. Nothing was paid for it. It is a genuine expression of gratitude for meritorious service.

and now we offer 6 PLY RIVERSIDES at 4 PLY PRICES!

The new 6-PLY Riverside Mate is the greatest tire value that we have ever offered. An even better Miles-Per-Dollar value than the tire Mr. Cronk praises. For here are the lowest prices at which we have ever sold a 6-PLY Heavy Duty Riverside Tire. Think of this: 6-Plies From Bead to Bead at the Usual Price of Other 4-Ply Tires!

Riversides are one of America's most famous tires. For 20 years we have supplied them to the motoring public. They are of the highest quality it is possible to produce. They are built by one of the world's largest tire companies. They are backed by a new unlimited guarantee—the fairest and most liberal ever put on any tire.

We'll match Riversides on the road against any tire and beat it in price. So why be satisfied with other 4-Ply Tires when you can buy full 6-Ply Riversides for the same money!
