Olney Savings Association Files Application To Locate Branch Office In Eastland

Olney Savings Association, Olney, Texas, has filed application with the State Savings and Loan Commission of Texas for the approval of the establishment of a branch office to be located at 200 S. Seaman St. in Eastland, according to a legal notice appearing in this issue of the Telegram.

A hearing on the application has been scheduled for the 15th of September at 9:30 a.m. in the offices of the Savings and Loan Department of Texas, 1010 Lavaca, Austin. In the event a written protest is received on or before September 5, the hearing will be convened for the limited purpose of setting a future date to take testimony and receive evidence from all parties of interest.

If no written notice of intention to appear in person or by attorney to protest said application is received by the Savings and Loan Commissioner from one or more persons by the 5th day of September, the hearing may be dispensed with by order of the Savings and Loan Commissioner. Earlier applications made by Olney Savings and Loan Association and Southern Savings Association of Brownwood for a branch office in Eastland, were refused by the State Commissioner, following the objections filed by several financial firms in this area.

Olney Savings has branch offices in Jacksboro, Bridgeport, Nocona and Seymour. A record growth, aggressive financial institution, the firm reportedly has grown from a nine million dollar organization in 1968 to some 60 million dollars today, having increased some seven and a half million since the first of this year.

Unconfirmed reports are that Olney Savings and Loan will merge with First Federal Savings and Loan of Ranger, with state approval of the merger already final, and federal approval pending.

It is generally understood that the Olney firm has purchased the entire northwest corner of the 200 block of S. Seaman St., and plans to build a new building with extensive landscaping, drive-in window services and other additions.

Donations Needed For New Fire Truck

BY STEVE HAINES
Eastland Volunteer Firemen are still hard at work collecting contributions for their new rural fire truck.

The truck is causing the organization to raise some $3,700 for rigging cost which is paid to the Texas Forest Service in Lufkin, who is the supplier of the truck.

Volunteers have been doing some door to door collecting for contributions but due to man power and other time availability, the club will be mailing letters to almost every household around the Eastland area.

Send your contributions to: Eastland Volunteer Fire Dept., Eastland, Texas, 76448

This truck can only be paid for if the citizens of Eastland and Eastland County can pull together in helping the volunteers. Please give.

Bomb Jaycees

Eastland Jaycees and Ranger Jaycees met Monday night in Ranger for a slow pitch softball game featuring the two organizations in competition.

The game ended with a score of 42-18 in favor of Ranger Jaycees.

The game was less than closely matched with Ranger Jaycees sending balls over the fence almost every time up. During the first several innings, the Ranger Jaycees completely dominated the game, but as the fifth and sixth innings arrived, Eastland had managed to come up with a few runs.

Lone Star Gets 1st Reading

Reluctantly and partially in self-defense, the Eastland City Commission approved on first reading a request by Lone Star Gas Co. for a rate increase.

After a long discussion of the request, the commission approved the first reading, reasoning that if the 19 cents a thousand increase isn't granted now, that the company could conceivably go to the Railroad Commission and possibly get even more, and even perhaps retro-actively.

In other business the commission okayed a land lease with Tri-City Ready Mix for expansion; approved a tentative agreement for operation of Lakeside Country Club; okayed the establishment of a city planning board; and agreed to sell water to the Westbound Water Corp. to serve some 75 customers west of Eastland.

All commissioners were present except Commissioner Bill Hoffmann who was out of town.

TAX BOARD
The Commission will sit as a city tax equalization board Thursday, August 21, from 9 to 11 a.m. at the City Hall. Some 22 taxpayers are scheduled to appear.

Ralph Cain, manager of Lakeside Country Club, was first to appear before the Commission at the Monday evening meeting at City Hall, asking (1) for a lease agreement on the club, and (2) for a lease for an acre of land across the road from the club where he plans to erect a large modular home so that he can live close to the club and thereby help patrol and watch the club facilities. He was advised that the details of the leases can be worked out between Commissioner Mike Siebert and himself. In a further discussion, he asked for a decision on who is to patrol the property, and it was established from the city charter that since it is city property even though it is outside the city limits, that it is the responsibility of the City Police Dept. to patrol that area.

Mr. Curry, owner-manager of Tri-City Ready Mix which operates on a lease of some four acres of city property, asked for about four additional acres to be used for the installation of a new sand-washing process - which he is installing. He asked for and got permission for some 200 feet on the east and north sides of his existing lease property. Details are to be handled by Mr. Curry's and the city's attorney.

Local Lone Star Gas Co. District Manager Wilbur Simmell appeared asking for the gas rate hike. He first appeared in June asking for a 10 cent a thousand increase due to the then temporary railroad commission approval of a city gate-rate increase between the company's transmission and distribution system. At the June meeting, the matter was tabled for further study. However, a final decree was later handed down by the railroad commission which actually proved higher, and Mr. Simmell did not appear before the local commission in July because his company was redrawing their rate proposal.

After a long discussion of the situation, including alternatives and compromises, etc., the commission passed the measure on first reading. Another reading is necessary and a 30 day waiting period before the new rate goes into effect. Mr. Simmell explained that the original request would have increased the average gas consumer's monthly bill by 65 cents. The present increase would hike it by about $1.30, he said.

(The early 1975 interim gate rate was set at 94.19 cents a thousand, and the June rate is $1.0399 per thousand, and Mr. Simmell showed a chart which showed that the company would, if the rate is not approved, result in a $103.83 operating loss at the end of this year, based on its 1974 statement. (Its gas cost would at the present rate be $12,258.09 and its net 1974 net profit was $12,154.26). Mr. Simmell was asked to leave the commission chamber quite a while during part of the commission discussion.

Commissioner Dale Bakker asked specifically if the rate was negotiable, and Mr. Simmell explained that it was not since the railroad commission had set the rate, based on the recommendations of the group of Texas cities (of which Eastland is a member) requested.

He explained that the rate hike has been approved in 22 cities in the Abilene region; lacks a final reading in four cities; was tabled by Cisco and Ranger; and is yet to be brought up in Abilene and Sweetwater.

In other business the commission authorized Chairman H.V. O'Brien to execute a right of way easement with Texas Electric Service Co. across city property north of town to take service to an oil rig operating there.

Mike Collins Retires As Salvation Army Rep

The man, woman or child down on their luck is losing a key contact.

After 15 years of dedicated service, Salvation Army Director Mike Collins is retiring as the No. One front-line contact for those in need. He'll still serve on the S.A. committee, but after so many years of hearing bad stories, helping when and where he could, he thinks, rightfully, that it's somebody else's time.

A successor will be named. Speaking to members of the Eastland Lions Club at noon Tuesday, Mr. Collins explained some of the problems, the heartbreak and the occasional satisfaction he's experienced in his years of service.

A busy man to begin with (bank vice president, county historical association chairman, as well as vast private businesses of his own), Collins has spent many weekends, more holidays than he and his family really care to remember, helping people who are down on their luck.

Transients and locals alike have been directed toward Collins... a hot meal, clothes, school supplies, a tank of gas, a helping hand. These have been funneled to him by churches, the welfare offices, the police, individuals.

More than once his family has taken in waifs in need of shelter.

The S.A. is a United Fund agency, but it doesn't start there, or end there, he explains. "For too many years, maybe, our philosophy was to 'get 'em out of town'."

"I've seen 'em in the jails, the hospitals, and what have you. We've never cared whether their daddy was a drunk of what the circumstances were. We've tried to see each one as a person who needed help. A child. A young mother. A man on the bum. They're human beings, and when it's all said and done, it's a humanitarian problem, and I think it's a problem that the churches should be concerned with."

Only one church gives to our local benevolences and that's only $200 a year. "There's never enough money to go around. We're nearly always broke."

Of the Salvation Army money he keeps a third, sends two-thirds to S.A. headquarters, usually gets a third back, and looks on the remaining third as "insurance against the day when the Army might be called in for really big help."

It's not just the matter of money, he said, and I wonder if the churches are falling down in their responsibility to their fellow man.

Enrollment Up At Eastland Schools

Enrollment is up in the Eastland School system.

Elementary opened the 1975-'76 school year with 433 students, as reported by R.O. Baze, principal. First grade has 77, second grade 62, third grade 55, fourth grade 70, fifth grade 67 and sixth grade 71.

The morning kindergarten class has 31 pupils and the afternoon class 32.

Harold Price turns in a count of 77 seventh graders and 62 eighth graders for a total enrollment of 139 in Junior High.

Mrs. Ima Ruth Taylor reports what she says is, to her knowledge, a record enrollment of 285 students in E.H.S.

Total enrollment thus far is 857.

NATIONAL DIRECTORY of Bicentennial events has arrived here and been placed for your use at Centennial Memorial Library... You'll be hearing local Bicentennial news and plans from local Chairman Emmett Lasater soon... It's time to be mapping plans.

THINK KINDLY of Darby McCrary of the local Goodyear Store. On a recent fishing outing, he lost his gear when a really big one took the bait. Darby says finder may keep rod and reel, but he'd sure like the fish.

LOCAL OFFICE holders were treated to a barbecue dinner with all the trimmings at Mel's Bar Bar - B - Q in Ranger Tuesday evening and it was a super treat. No program, just good food and good visiting. Eastlanders who haven't tried Mel's have missed a bonus. You'll find the neat, clean restaurant one block east of the red light on right side of Highway 80 in Ranger.

WE ALL need to compliment Mr. Curry out at Tri - City Ready Mix who's expanding with a new sand - washing operation at his plant northwest of town.

ORDINARILY WE don't regularly read Advisor Ann Landers, but one of her letters this week speaks volumes:

Dear Ann Landers: I'd like to ask the American people a few questions. It's a matter of economic survival to me as well as MILLIONS OF OTHER "little people" who have small stores.

Who do you ask to cash your checks? Who do you ask for credit when things are tight? Who do you ask to take ads for your organizations, yearbooks and programs? Who do you ask for contributions for your church suppers, raffles, etc.? Who do you call after hours when you need a special item? Who do you ask to put up your posters for special events?

It's your 1 local, hometown small businessman. After all, he's your friend, your neighbor.

But when you want to make a purchase, how often do you drive past his place of business and go to a giant store thinking you might save a few cents, without giving your local merchant a chance or even comparing his prices?

We are competitive with the biggest stores price - wise and our services are often better. But we can't survive much longer. When we go, you'll miss us. - - Too Many to Name.

Dear Too Many: Your letter reflects one of the major social and economic problems of our times. It's becoming more and more difficult for the small, independent businessman to survive. I wish I knew the answer.

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Governor Dolph Briscoe has assigned top priority to curbing soaring state governmental spending and thwarting predictions of a major state tax bill in 1977.

At the same time, the governor said all his political options for the future remain open, although he emphasized he is making no present plans for a third term.

Briscoe's predictions that the state can avoid a tax bill in two years fly in the face of forecasts by Texas Research League and Comptroller Bob Bullock. TRL only a week earlier said the legislature may have to raise $750 million to balance the next budget in view of 1975 spending levels.

However, Briscoe stated: "I am optimistic that we can meet the fiscal needs of the state for a third term without new and additional taxes. We can't do it unless we try. That is our No. 1 priority. I will work toward that end."

Briscoe said he is hopeful the new Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations will point the way to how to economize, increase efficiency and reorganize government effectively.

As for his own plans, the governor said it's too early for serious talk about a third term. But he acknowledged the subject has been discussed in private conversations — "just passing the time of day."

Hospital Savings

A new $1.8 million state-federal program aims to save Texans who have to go to hospitals $14 million a year.

Three centers will be established to make group purchases and collections for hospitals — the statewide center in Austin, with regional offices in Abilene and Texarkana.

The centers will try to reduce hospital management and bring about better distribution of other health personnel.

At the same time, Texas Hospital Association announced 189 hospitals have indicated they will participate in a proposed THA-backed hospital company.

Texas State Insurance Board set an August 21 hearing on the Texas Hospital Insurance Exchange application for charter.

Democrats Moving

Texas liberal Democrats are getting organized for the 1976 presidential preference primary, while, at the same time, challenging legality of the primary.

Democratic National Committeewoman Billie Carr of Houston and others are inviting Democratic presidential candidates to a September 20 meeting here. The group calls itself "Texans for Somebody Else"—somebody else, that is, besides U. S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen or Alabama Governor George Wallace.

Ms. Carr and others filed a challenge with the national Democratic Compliance Review Commission, contesting the 1976 presidential primary act, passed by the legislature this year, was largely to help Bentsen.

AG Opinions

Notice of meetings under the Open Meetings Law must be specific on subjects to be discussed, Attorney General John Hill held Hill said general phrases such as "new business," "old business" and "regular business" do not meet requirements.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded Comptroller Bob Bullock should not release information on amounts of sales or use taxes paid or owed by an individual prior to a "final determination."

Texas Youth Council can furnish information on child abuse cases to the Texas Interagency Task Force on Youth Care and Rehabilitation under proper limitations on distribution.

There is no state agency with authority to license facilities to store human bodies.

A landscape architect must renew his license by August 31 each year to remain eligible to practice.

A paid fireman, who also serves as a volunteer fireman, may participate in pension plans covering both positions.

Appointments

Six new State Parole Commissioners are Edward Odus Johnson of Austin, Gilberto de Leon Jr. of Uvalde, Helen Copitka of Houston, Don R. Stiles of Grapevine, Paul F. Cromwell of San Antonio and Paul J. Mansmann of Fort Worth.

Reagan Houston III of San Antonio is the sixth gubernatorial appointee to the Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations to study governmental economy, efficiency and reorganization.

R. Doug Lewis has been named executive director of the Republican Party of Texas, succeeding Zack Fisher of Memphis. John Barclay Armstrong of Kingsville was appointed to a vacancy on Texas Animal Health Commission created by death of John Biggs of Vernon.

Philip K. Maxwell of Dallas is the new chief of Atty. Gen. Hill's Consumer Protection Division. Lee Clyburn of Conroe heads Hill's new Anti-Trust Division. Mike Barron of Groesbeck is assistant chief of Anti-Trust.

C. A. Dickerson of Rosenberg was appointed criminal district attorney for Fort Bend County and Lawrence L. Barber Jr. of Monahans as district attorney for the 143rd judicial district.

Lieutenant Governor Bill Hobby named Senator Max Sherman of Amarillo to the Governor's Energy Advisory Council.

Rusk County Judge James Porter was selected by the governor as prime sponsor for the Manpower Planning Council East Texas Region.

Short Snorts

Actual start of the Senate impeachment trial of 229th District Judge O. P. Carrillo may be delayed until September 22.

Texas liberal Democrats have filed a challenge of the Texas presidential preference primary law and proposed 1976 party delegate selection procedures.

Top brass of the Republican Party will be in Dallas September 11-13 for the 18th biennial convention of the National Federation of Republican Women.

Texas farmers produced a record wheat crop and the second largest sorghum crop ever, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported.

An end to the slide of the Texas economy is in sight, according to a Texas Business Review report. Industrial production is up for the second straight month.

Texans are paying higher long distance rates—but not nearly as high as requested originally by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Use it wisely.

This is a gas meter. It's fairly easy to read and check to see if you're using natural gas wisely.

There are five dials on the meter face. The smallest dial is a test dial . . . and it's not included in the actual reading. The remaining four dials are divided into ten segments, using the number the hand has just passed for the reading. When a hand is between numbers, always use the smaller number.

The reading for the meter pictured below would be 3 4 5 7. The last number is in "tenths," so your final reading should be 345.7 THOUSAND CUBIC FEET.

It's our intention to read every accessible gas meter every month on or about the same day. You may want to informally check your natural gas usage each month to see how much you can save. Practicing conservation in your home is a good way to get the most efficient use of nature's cleanest, most desirable energy source — natural gas.

If your monthly home meter readings remain low, you're conserving natural gas. And today . . . that's the name of the game!

Inflation Catches Up With State Department Of Highway

And Public Transportation

AUSTIN—The harsh realities of inflation have caught up with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation. But many motorists haven't yet got the message.

A letter received recently at the Corpus Christi district office of the state agency illustrates the problem. It reads:

"Why is it that in Karnes County, Texas, the sides of the highways are so poorly kept. They never mow them anymore and the way it looks the weeds are so tall you can hardly see the pavement.

"With all the good equipment the State Highway Department has seems they could keep the roadways half decent and not a disgrace to the Taxpayers of the State and County."

Several years ago, inflationary pressures were pushing up the cost of maintenance operations of what was then the State Highway Department.

Department officials looked for ways to trim costs and an easing of the long-time mowing operations standards appeared to be the best—and quickest—way to save money.

For many years it had been Department policy to mow highway right of way from fence line to fence line. A new policy—defined as "strip" mowing—was evolved. This meant mowing a "strip" five to 15 feet outward from the outside lane of the highway as necessary for maximum safety and conformance with height standards.

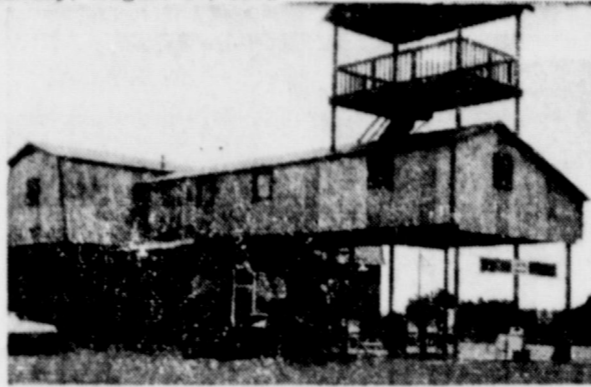

Fence line to fence line mowing is completed only once a year, and is deferred until the early spring wild flowers have matured seed—usually about six weeks after the height of their blooming period.

The results have been as expected. Projections indicate that the Department has saved approximately $11.7 million in mowing operations since the new policy was adopted. Mowing cost $14 million last year.

Despite the push of inflation—in some years reaching double digit levels—percentage of total maintenance costs dropped from 14 to 12 percent for mowing in 1969-70 and has held at 12 percent with the exception of 1971-72 when it rose to 14 percent of total maintenance costs.

Some beauty lovers take exception to the delays in spring time mowing. Actually, the delays insure that nature will be allowed to take its own course, letting the seed pods mature and the seeds fall. Thus, nature prepares for next spring's roadside displays of colorful wild flowers.

Texas Tours

Lake Leon Offers Ideal Camp Area

By PAULINE CRITTENDEN

Camping families who make a Texas Tour to Eastland County will enjoy Lake Leon. Just speeding through the West Texas landscape on IH-20, one would never suspect that just a few miles away is this oasis with 35 miles of shoreline, providing fishing, boating, swimming and water skiing. From the Ranger exit, Farm Road 2461 leads to where cabins are available. Also, the fresh catfish (farm-grown and not frozen) are popular with residents from miles around.

CABINS ARE ALSO available at the Lake Leon Lodge on the south side of the lake. Bear in mind that all these are fishing-camp type cabins, adequately but quite simply furnished; don't expect wall-to-wall carpeting or other luxury accouterments. There are also three public campgrounds on the lake. Complete information on all these may be obtained by writing to James H. Johnson, Route 2, Lake Leon Dam, Eastland, Texas 76448.

Golfers, put your clubs in for your Eastland County tour. While I am not a golfer myself, I'm told that the course at Lone Cedar Country Club is quite challenging; it is open to non-members on payment of a greens fee. Take the "Old Staff Road" (watch for the water tower) off F. R. 570.

TWO EASTLAND County towns were prominent in the North Texas oil boom of the '20's: Ranger and Cisco. A Texas Historical Marker in front of the T. & P. station in Ranger marks the site of the gusher that inaugurated the Ranger field. By the way, an old Rex Beach novel, Flowering Gold, is based on the Ranger boom and is still interesting reading today. And notice that there is still much of the old brick paving in use; even more has been covered with concrete.

ment of Frank Robertson, who had been Executive Director for 23 years. James McCracken of Cisco continues with the Executive Committee as immediate past president, along with R.E. Manchee of Houston, representative of the Lions Council of Governors.

Since the camp opened 23 years ago, more than 16,296 blind, deaf and physically handicapped children have enjoyed two weeks of summer fun.

At the height of the oil boom, young Conrad Hilton came to Cisco with the intention of purchasing a bank. When he tried to book a room at the Mobley Hotel, he was informed that none was available.

FACETIOUSLY, the owner-manager remarked, "If you'll buy the hotel, Mr. Hilton, you may have my room."

Whereupon, Hilton did exactly that, and thus became one of the world's most famous innkeepers rather than a banker. (At least, that's how the story was told to me.) Now privately owned, the Mobley still stands at the west end of Cisco's main street.

With the current interest in coal as an alternate energy source, it's worth a stop at Thurber as you return to Dallas via IH-20. Commercial production of coal began at Thurber in 1888 and continued until 1921. Once a thriving town of 10,000, Thurber is now an authentic ghost town. The Smokestack Restaurant was once a drug store; the Exxon service station is a replica of a coal tippie. The menu (from Victor Cornelius, naturally) at The Smokestack gives an interesting summary of the town's colorful past. With an estimated 127 million tons of bituminous coal still in place, who knows? Some day Thurber may return to its former glory.

Instead of continuing on IH-20, I turned off on Tx. 108 to Stephenville, a happy choice of route—sparsely traveled, it winds through pastures carpeted with wildflowers and inhabited by contented bovines.

Many Cattlemen May Be In Trouble

COLLEGE STATION—Nearly four out of 10 cattlemen are in "bad" to "moderate" financial trouble. Those in "bad" shape (about one out of 10) probably won't survive financially, according to a survey of 300 bankers across the nation.

And these lenders say that almost 20% may not survive another year of calf prices equal to those of April-May 1975, reports Dr. John A. Hopkin, Stiles professor and head of Texas A&M University's Department of Agricultural Economics.

Hopkin presented these facts as part of a report to the American National Cattleman's Association Board of Directors at its recent mid-year meeting in Denver. He made the study in cooperation with lending institutions in the U.S.

"The Texas Agricultural Extension Service and ANCA should encourage continued heavy culling of cows in order to halt the increase in cows and total cattle numbers", says Hopkin, who is chairman of ANCA's Council of Economic Advisors. "Such culling should be done while supplies of competitive meats are down."

Although agricultural lenders will have access to sufficient funds to finance agriculture, some cattlemen will have difficulty qualifying for adequate credit, warns Hopkin.

Many cattlemen have obtained or will obtain needed liquidity through re-financing of real estate. But Hopkin recommends that ANCA join with universities and lending institutions in informing cattlemen and bankers of the merits and mechanics of the revised Emergency Livestock Loan Program. Producers may obtain more details from the Farmers Home Administration or local Production Credit Association.

Also, he warns, it is unlikely that cattle numbers and price fluctuations will be eliminated, and financing programs should consider cash flow requirements of individual operations over the entire cycle.

Even though Americans are eating record amounts of beef, the industry is still in trouble, says Hopkin. He attributes the conflicting currents that are causing this to high prices of feed and other supplies and record numbers of beef cattle, with larger numbers currently moving to market off grass.

Until this large inventory of beef animals is worked off, cattlemen can expect relatively low profit margins, says Hopkin.

Recent Burglaries Under Investigation

Criminal investigators in at least seven area cities were busy Monday completing paper work involved in clearing up what an Abilene detective called a burglary ring specializing in Citizens Band Radios.

At least 31 cases of car burglaries—in which the radio equipment was taken—have been cleared up with the arrest of three suspects, Detective Roger Dickey of Abilene said.

Felony car burglary charges were filed in one of the cases Monday.

Bobbie Joe Linaham, 31, of Rt. 1, Abilene; Rex Burke of Abilene and James Hollis, 18, of 1254 S. Crockett, Abilene, were charged in Callahan County with the Thursday burglary of a car belonging to Gregg Atkinson, 17, of Clyde. Dickey said that he expected the investigation to clear up 20 similar cases in Cisco, Ranger, Eastland, Baird, Albany and San Angelo, as well as 10 cases in Abilene.

By noon Monday, three CB radio units had been recovered. Dickey added that he expects "a large percentage of recovery" on the other missing units.

Dickey said that stolen radios had been sold for "very low" prices since the middle of July. Late Monday, Adult Probation Office officials in Abilene said they would file a motion asking for revocation of the probation given Linaham on April 21.

Linaham had received a two-year probation, prison term after admitting the theft of a CB radio from an Abilene man's pickup, courthouse records show.

Eastland Police Chief John Morren is investigating the drug store burglaries here.

Officers Elected For Crippled Children

KERRVILLE—Sam Pagan of Shamrock was elected president of the Texas Lions League for Crippled Children, Inc., at the League's August Directors' Meeting.

Other officers elected were: James Ward of San Antonio, first vice president; Herbert F. Barsh of Waco, second vice president; James H. Wheeler Jr., of Abilene, third vice president; Chester E. Stout of Carthage, secretary, and Albert W. Brown of Sherman, treasurer.

J. L. McPherson, Houston, became the camp's new Executive Director, upon the retirement of Frank Robertson, who had been Executive Director for 23 years.

James McCracken of Cisco continues with the Executive Committee as immediate past president, along with R.E. Manchee of Houston, representative of the Lions Council of Governors.

Since the camp opened 23 years ago, more than 16,296 blind, deaf and physically handicapped children have enjoyed two weeks of summer fun.

Rehab Center To Develop Patient Network

With the sum of $36,000 from the Regional Medical Program of Texas (RMPT), the West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene will continue to develop a rural rehabilitation patient referral network in the West Texas Planning Region through March 1976.

The project, which began in August 1974, has been initiating and developing an organized system for educating physicians and other health personnel in identifying orthopedically and neurologically handicapping conditions, improving interim care prior to admission to rehabilitation facilities and developing a referral system for the stabled patient to existing facilities.

During the 1974-75 fiscal year, the project conducted a series of workshops for health care professionals on six topics including stroke evaluation and management and assessment and management of children with developmental delays.

The center also developed 12 videotapes to aid in rehabilitation of patients suffering from conditions such as cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy and spinal cord injury and developed a monthly newsletter.

The West Texas center also developed and published a Big Country Directory of Services to Serve the Handicapped. The publication lists purposes, services, addresses, and phone numbers of various organizations and associations in the 19 county planning region.

Project activities for fiscal year 1975-76 will include providing consultation to 21 rural hospitals in the West Central Texas Planning Region and providing and educational consultant service for special education teachers involved with pediatric moderate to severe physically handicapping conditions. The latter activity will involve a series of four or five workshops. At the completion of the pilot program, an in-depth workshop will be held for all special education teachers in Education Service Center Region XIV.

An evaluation of the effectiveness of the first year's effort can be measured by the fact that between January and May there was an increase in patient treatment at the Physical Therapy Department of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center of approximately 415 treatments per month.

Highlights Of Proposed Constitution

A NEW CONSTITUTION FOR TEXAS

Frustrated by the eleventh-hour failure of the 1974 Constitutional Convention to approve a proposed new state charter, Senate and House leaders meticulously planned and activated the legislative machinery needed to produce success in the 64th session.

Using the same basic document rejected by the 1974 Convention as a beginning point, legislators streamlined it, extracted most of its sore political teeth — including all references to right - to - work and a state income tax - - and expeditiously adopted it by an overwhelming vote.

The 1974 Convention devoted six full months of committee debate and floor action to development of a document which ultimately was rejected by its own members.

In 1975, the Texas Senate granted final approval to substantially the same document in just six hours of debate; the House of Representatives took twice as long (12 hours) to do the job.

Highlights of the proposed new constitution are presented below:

If approved by Texas voters on November 4, 1975, the new constitution will:

Require the legislature to establish procedures to reduce the number of property appraisals in each county to one; this single appraisal, and no other, will be used by all jurisdictions in the country for tax purposes.

Establish a special mandatory homestead exemption of at least $3,000 for all elderly persons 65 years of age or older;

Reduce to 1,500 (from 5,000) the minimum population required by any city to be eligible for home rule status;

Authorize any municipality to levy ad valorem taxes for purposes other than debt service in an amount not to exceed $2.00 - $100 assessed valuation; limits on city debt will be set by the legislature, and services regardless of age, race, creed, color, place of geographical origin, or financial circumstances. A large portion of the funds for the operation of the Center comes from the Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children of which Charlie Morris of Abilene is general chairman. Morris has named area chairmen who call on their friends and neighbors to cut out a calf, pen of calves, livestock or any kind, or even cash to be earmarked for this annual event.

Unify many elements of Texas' judicial system, though municipal courts will continue to function in conformance with standards prescribed by the legislature.

In announcing this year's chairmen, Morris stated, "With the market showing improvement, we feel optimistic about the prospects of a real good Round-Up." Morris went on to say, "Even with the market conditions so poor last year, the Center had one of the best Round-Ups to date due largely to the extra effort of the chairmen". Last fall's series of sales raised almost $150,000 for the operation of the rehabilitation facility. "If friends all over the Southwest will show the same concern this fall, the West Texas Rehabilitation Center can wind up the last quarter of the year on a sound financial footing", Morris added.

Do You Remember

BY HERMAN DEMPSEY

One of the young promising men in the community went off to the war and was selected to serve in the Air Force. His talents and ability were such that he was assigned to a fighter plane cadet group. He learned quickly and thoroughly. He was qualified for a fighter pilot in the U.S. Air Force. It was a very short time before he was flying his missions along with seasoned pilots who learned to respect his performance and his attitude towards his comrades. A special assignment called for him to fly low over a known enemy concentration of weapons and ammunition. He was to drop his bomb load and destroy as much of the equipment as he could then get out and return to his base. He dropped the bombs on target as the big bombers should have done had they been available. Then he felt he should use up some of his own ammunition as he left the location. He was raking the enemy ground crews with his machine gun fire when anti-aircraft fire knocked out his plane. He managed to maneuver away from the area before having to bail out. He landed in a wooded ravine while his plane went on some two miles before crashing in an open field where it burned completely. Our pilot hid his parachute in the brush and made his way up the ravine even with his sprained ankle. He came to a farm house where he sought help. He found two middle-aged ladies lived in the house and one of them spoke broken English. She had been to the States where she had had nurses' training. They agreed to do what they could for the boy so long as they could before the enemy came for him. They cared for his ankle, gave him good food, and kept him hid from passersby. After the enemy had passed and the friendly forces came through the country, our pilot elected to remain with the women as long as they would let him. They all decided things were not so bad now and he could help with farm chores. Finally the word came the war was over and he decided to go home. He promised to return to see his friends as soon as possible, but never found the time or opportunity.

Qualify for a $1,500 tax deduction. Next year... every year.

If you work for yourself, work at a small firm, or work for a large corporation, there's a new law that could save you a lot of money. Here's how: if you're not currently participating in a qualified retirement plan (most Americans aren't), you can set up your own Individual Retirement Annuity. Contributions to your annuity, up to $1,500 a year (or 15% of your earned income, whichever is less) are fully tax deductible. 100% of your I.R.A. is subtracted from your gross income when figuring taxes.

It's like giving your own money to yourself. And deducting it, instead of paying taxes on it as usual. Some call it a tax shelter.

Your Southland Agent can answer any questions you may have. Send him this coupon... it'll be to your benefit. Next year, and every year 'til retirement.

Eastland Jaycees Hold Business Meeting

In a regular business meeting of the Eastland Jaycees, a motion came to suspend the Texas Peanut Pageant this year from the calendar of events. The meeting was called to order at 8:00 a.m. by President Don Baird. Following the reading of minutes and treasurer's report by treasurer Tom Holland, President Baird called on the carnival report which the Jaycees sponsored the week prior to the meeting. Carnival Chairman Steve Haines gave a report on the amount of money brought in and also the amount which the Jaycees will owe. The final figure showed that the Jaycee organization could be brought out of the red with the profits of the carnival.

Discussion was then turned toward the upcoming Labor Day Rest Stop which the Eastland Jaycees and Jaycees across the nation participate in. The rest stops provide motorists with refreshments to help driving from becoming too hazardous. This year's chairman for the Eastland Jaycees will be Monty Howard. Funeral Director at Arrington Funeral Home.

The rest stop will start Friday, August 29, at 6:00 p.m. and last through Labor Day, the following Monday, on the parking area of Reuben's Interstate Gulf, just south of Eastland.

After all discussion concerning the Labor Day rest stop, questions then were brought before the membership about the Texas State Peanut Pageant which is held each year by the Eastland Jaycees. The pageant had been having some strong debate as to where the location should be set and causing some worry from the club whether or not financial aspects which surround the pageant would justify holding the event. Also a large amount of speculation to whether or not the people of the area would support such a pageant this year after the Peanut Producers of the area had taken a back seat in the interest of the Queen title.

Thus a motion from Eastland Jaycee Mel Herweck came onto the floor to not hold the Texas State Peanut Pageant for the year 1975. Followed by a vote which showed the majority of the club in favor of the motion. After the vote, President Baird adjourned the meeting at 10:00 p.m. and reminded all members to participate in the softball game which was held in Ranger Monday night.

How Do You Rate Eastland Today?

Eastland evaluated itself a few years ago, found its strong points (and its weak spots) and in all, gave substance to a measurement of itself. Some have suggested that now, on the eve of what is believed to be vast industrial expansion, it might be well for the citizens of Eastland to take another measuring look at the city and its facilities. The Chamber of Commerce conducted the Community Improvement Survey in the late '60's. Undoubtedly some of the figures would come out differently today, and perhaps some things have been changed. At that time some 276 citizens took the time to fill in the questionnaire and return it to the chamber for tabulating. Eastland as a place to live got "yes" votes from 265 people (11 no's); 232 yesses for a good place to work (32 no's); and 155 yesses for a good place to shop (114 no's).

Only 110 affirmed that they would be willing to work on a committee to help effect improvements. In the general categories, citizens were asked to rate facilities and services as being either good, average or below average. Four general areas were surveyed: community facilities and services; city services and facilities; school system; and industrial growth. Here's how Eastland rated in the last survey: (How would you rate it today?)

The local student was Lonnie J. Basham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Basham of 1416 South Lamar. Basham received a Masters in Education Degree with a Physical Education major.

Report On Westbound Water Corp.

Report by Yeatts and Decker, Inc., Consulting Engineers, on Westbound Water Corp.

We are in the process of completing a feasibility and preliminary engineering report for the Westbound Water Supply Corporation. We have made a preliminary layout, cost estimate and determined the water requirements for the proposed distribution system. The project appears feasible, subject to agreement for purchase of treated water and funding through the Farmers Home Administration.

The Westbound Water Supply Corporation is a non-profit rural Water Supply Corporation, organized by 330 rural residents in the western portion of Eastland County and the extreme northeastern portion of Callahan County, including Putnam, for the purpose of providing water to its members through a collective water distribution system to be financed through the Farmers Home Administration. The proposed system will be similar to the existing Olden, Morton Valley and Staff water systems now operating in the eastern portion of Eastland County.

Water is to be purchased from the City of Cisco to serve the majority of the system, or some 255 customers located west and south of Cisco. The Cisco City Council at their council meeting on August 12, 1975, approved the request from Westbound Water Supply Corporation for the purchase of water.

The Westbound Water Supply Corporation would like to request purchase of water from the City of Eastland in order to serve approximately 75 customers located between Eastland and Cisco and to the north-west and southwest of Eastland. Water from Eastland could be received from the City's existing 8" line near the intersection of Valley and Folts Streets and metered at that point. The water corporation line would proceed south along a county road out of the City Limits to a proposed air-gap storage tank and pump station.

The storage tank would physically separate the City water from the Westbound Corporation system, and provide storage for the corporation's customers while the pump station would provide required pressure to the system.

Water requirements to serve 75 of the proposed Westbound customers with water from the City of Eastland are as follows:

Flow at Master Meter--75 GPM
Average Daily Use--15,000 gallons
Maximum Daily use--45,000 gallons

Average Monthly use is 900,000 gallons
Average Yearly Use--5,400,000 gallons.

We would appreciate the City of Eastland considering the sale of water to Westbound Water
