BIRTH OF OUR ANTHEM

Francis Scott Key, an American lawyer, received permission from President James Madison to ask the British to release his friend, William Beanes.

He was detained on this mission while the British bombarded Fort McHenry, key to the Baltimore defenses. The shelling started on the morning of September 13, and it continued for 25 hours. During that time, the American flag with its fifteen stars and stripes remained proudly waving.

At the sight of the flag still flying on the morning of September 14, Key scribbled THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER on the back of an envelope

PARENTS AND PUPILS

Sending a youngster through college these days is very educational. It teaches his parents how to do without a lot of things. A little learning is a dangerous thing, so beware of bringing home a bad report card.

With all the alcohol and drugs being consumed today, you could call this the Stoned Age.

Students, like boats, toot the loudest when they're in a fog.

I John 2:22-2! And who is the greatest liar? The one who says that Jesus is not Christ. Such a person is antichrist, for he does not believe in God the Father and in his Son. For a person who doesn't believe in Christ, God's Son, can't have God the Father either. But he who has Christ, God's Son, has God the Father also. So keep on believing what you have been taught from the beginning. If you do, you will always be in close fellowship with both God the Father and his Son. # Brenda Daniel And Robert Hoyle Exchange Vows In Double-Ring Ceremony The groom is a 1969 graduate Miss Brenda Lee Daniel became the bride of Robert Randall Hoyle at 8:00 p.m. August 16, 1975, in the Oakwood Terrace Baptist -Church in Euless. Rev. Joe Bob McGinnis of Euless performed the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. Marcell Daniel of Austin and Mrs. James D. Lewis of Eastland. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Hoyle of Hillsboro.

The church was decorated in multi-color flowers of yellow, pink. orange, gold, and green. On either side stood a candelabra. holding seven candles. decorated with greenery and flanked by baskets of multi-colored flowers. White bows on the pews completed the decor.

Organist was Jo Ann Collins of Euless. The music was the traditional wedding march and "There Is Love" sung by James Tennison of Arlington, who accompanied himself on the guitar. The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather. James Dwight Lewis, of Eastland.

The bride wore a floor length gown of silk organza and chantilly lace. It had a mandarin collar with a tucked bodice and lace and button effect: long. full, sheer sleeves with deep chantilly cuffs. A white satin ribbon accented the fitted bodice and was trimmed with a white satin bow, featuring a tiny flower of seed pearls on either end in center front and back. The skirt had a deep pleat which opened in a readingate effect trimmed with chantilly lace, and extended to a chapel length train with chantilly lace edging. Her fingertip veil featured a face veil and was gathered onto a matching coronet crown trimmed with seed pearls. Each layer of veil was outlined in chantilly lace and decorated with pieces of lace. The bride carried a colonial bridal bouquet of yellow and white daisies and baby's breath of pink, orange, yellow, green and gold. She wore a gold diamond pinkie ring, a gift of the groom; a blue garter, a gold locket given to her mother by her father when they were dating; a gold bracelet borrowed from her mother, and also earrings made accented the dress.

Adams of Arlington, Sandy Thompson of Breckenridge Nancy Werley of Eastland and Mrs. Danny Daughtry of Hillsboro, sister of the groom. Bridesmaids wore dresses identical to the Matron of honor, but featuring a butterfly color which formed cap sleeves in place of the jacket. Bridal attendants carried bouquets of yellow daisies, white daisies, and baby's breath. Each bouquet was dressed in ribbons of one of the five colors used in the bride's bouquet. They wore vellow hats, each trimmed in ribbons matching their bouquet and three white daisies. Candlelighters were Dwight and James Lewis of Eastland, brother of the bride; Curtis Malone, Richard Hanson and Lannie Yeager, all of Arlington. Each wore a boutonniere dyed to match bridesmaids ribbons. They wore tuxedos with shirts the colors of the bridesmaids ribbons.

Ushers were Billy Daniel of Eastland, brother of the bride; and Larry McBeath of Arling-

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a floor length dress with long full sleeves of yellow trimmed in white lace. She wore white accessories. Her corsage was of vellow roses and white carnations.

The mother of the groom chose a sleeveless, belted full length dress of orange and white with matching long sleeved jacket. She had white accessories. She also had a corsage of yellow roses and white carnations.

The reception followed in the clubroom of Hidden Valley Apartments. The bridal portrait was featured on an easel just inside the door and was highlighted by a spotlight. Members of the houseparty were Claudia Cutler, Mrs. Michael Kelly and Mrs. Steve Brenning, all of Arlington. Each wore a multi-colored corsage. The Bride's table was covered with white lace over a white cloth and apron, and was decorated with an epergne of summer flowers and five white tapers. The four-tiered cake was decorated in flowers and leaves of green, yellow, pink, orange and gold, and was topped with a bride and groom in an archway of daisies. Yellow punch, the bride's bouquet, and crystal appointments added to the Sorrowful expressions are heard with blended emotions of shame and regret every time one hears of an assassination, murder or a violent sudden death. ... Panicky pleas and promises all too often pantomime identical words and letters heard so many, many times before. But the vicious repetitions continue. Human life these days seems to be a cheap commodity.

This attitude is a sad indictment of our times. The indictment is even more disgraceful in connection with traffic and highway deaths. Why - - WHY is it that so many people fail to realize a steering wheel attached to three tons of automobile steel is far more dangerous, far more LETHAL than any trigger action gun ever invented? Why - - WHY is it that peoole seem so indifferent to the horrible fact that in just the last thirty years - - we repeat - - in only THIRTY years, Americans have splashed more blood on highways and killed more people by automobile, than those killed on less bloodied battlefields in ALL our wars since 1775?

For your own protection, and for the safety of others, remind yourself of this every time you get behind the wheel, especially on week ends or holidays.

Do You Remember BY HERMAN DEMPSET

Many of the families in the local communities were saddened by the loss of members of the family and friends in the war. However, there were young men who went into the service and assigned to units where they learned to perform work that was to serve them well after the war was over.

Some of these men were assigned duties in using heavy construction equipment. Also the maintenance and operation of large trucks that were used in the movement of battle equipment.

One of the young men who was required to work with heavy equipment building roads, campsites, airplane landing strips and other work requiring bulldozers, enjoyed his work so much that when he returned from the war, he obtained a tractor and started doing dozer work on a contract basis. He built earthen tanks for farmers in the community. He dug mud pits for drilling wells. The demand for his services increased so much that he had to hire another dozer operator who operated during the day. This gave the young man an opportunity to line up new jobs during the day and with some rest. operate during the night, to keep up with his jobs. Gf course, it was not long until he had to get another tractor. Pipeline construction was on the increase all over the country and soon this young man's tractors were clearing right-ofways for pipeline construction. Due to the shortage of pipeline construction contractors, he saw the opportunity to expand his business by the purchase of certain types of equipment required for this type work. Not long thereafter, he had enough equipment and experienced personnel to handle complete pipeline construction jobs. His high quality work and fair dealings soon developed his reputation to be one of the most desired contractors in the country. With the best equipment available in his group and the most competent personnel in his crews, he had no trouble in producing the type work the companies demanded. With his association and good work, he was able to build his financial status to a degree respected by all in the communities.

Based on latest FPC figures, Texas Electric's residential rates are 27% below the national average.

The average family uses about 750 kilowatt hours of electricity per month. Based on the latest Federal Power Commission figures. Texas Electric's rates for this much electricity are about 27% below the national average.

But the costs of producing your electricity are going up.

New supplies of Texas Electric's major generating fuel - natural gas are harder to get and much more costly. So we're turning to lignite coal and nuclear fuels. While these fuels cost less than new supplies of natural gas, plants that use them are considerably more expensive to build than gas-fired plants. This means electricity will have to cost you more.

But we're working to keep your rates reasonable by using fuels that will keep costs lowest in the long run.
