AMBASSADOR OF the Week campaign just completed by the Telegram proves that there are a lot of friendly, efficient sales and service people in Good Old Eastland Town. And, too, there are many, many people who do indeed appreciate these folks. In the ten week program, people were selected to be named Ambassador of the Week, and the campaign could easily have been run for twice that long. There were hundreds of nominations from people throughout the town.

Winners were Velma Dalton, W.B. Ensor, Murray Kimmey, Jo Hubbard, Mrs. Bill England, Clyde Benton, Wyndle Armstrong, Glenna Hudson and Mrs. Ann Jernigan.

Among the many others who were nominated included: Mrs. Gladys E Edwards, Mary Sargent, Darlene Fox, Wilma Ruth Cagle, Mary Jo Fox, Gregg Sedillio, Mrs. Bob Jones, Phil Kendrick, Mrs. K.C. (Zoma) Edmonds, Pete Tucker, George Carter, Jone McFarland, Wanda Weathers, Bobby Gailey, Mary Jiminez, Louise Stansell, Mrs. J.C. Poe, Phillip Arther, Bertha Wilson and Gladys Farr.

Congratulations are due all.

Some 2,000 Exes are expected to attend the Homecoming with registration to begin Friday, June 20, at 10 a.m. at the Elementary School where Mrs. Ima Ruth Taylor will be in the Elementary school cafecharge. torium with a band; and at the All tickets for the barbecue old gym where a sock hop with a and dances will be sold at the half weeks.

Lone Star Gas Company's local manager, W.L. Simmel, requested the Eastland city officials to enact an ordinance increasing the residential and commercial retail gas rates 10 cents per thousand cubic feet.

The adjustment is requested to offset the increase in the city gate rate to 94.19 cents per thousand cubic feet which was authorized by the Texas Railroad Commission on May 1. 1975, he said.

The increase in the city gate rate authorized by the Commission is consistent with the position taken by the cities in their testimony at the hearing in March.

The cities' presentation indicated that Lone Star needed an increase in this amount to provide a reasonable rate of simmel explained that the city gate rate applies to natural gas delivered by Lone Star's Transmission Division to its distribution division for sale to residential and commercial -

Simmel said the increase will raise the average residential gas bill in Eastland by about 65 cents a month.

The requested rate increase follows a Texas Railroad Commission emergency order giving Lone Star a temporary increase in its city gate rate due to the company's increased costs for gas purchased to serve custo-

Lone Star officials noted that the latest figures available show that in February, 1974, its average cost of gas was 30.68 cents per thousand cubic feet. and that it more than doubled to 72.29 cents by February, 1975.

Austin--Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that the proposed new constitution could cost Texas taxpayers a billion dollars a year. In fact, Bullock said, if some provisions such as water pro ects were carried out to the fullest the total costs could run more than $11 billion.

The cost report by Bullock's office was requested by five state senators.

The report showed that proposed revisions would directly cost state government $100 million a year in actual expenditures and would cost taxpayers another $53 million a year in new taxes on such intangible property as bank deposits and stocks.

Local taxpayers could get hit for an estimated $771 million a year under provisions calling for local property tax equalization and increased homestead exemptions for the elderly, according to the report.

which has just returned from an over 500 mile tour of the area to the southwest of Eastland and Cisco, advertising the Kendrick Religious Pageant "THE LIFE OF CHRIST". This caravan stops at all newspapers, radio and TV stations and shopping centers and downtown areas of each town regardless of size, and passes out brochures about the production. Other trips are scheduled for the other directions until the entire State of Texas has been covered. The summer productions of the Kendrick Religious Pageant "THE LIFE OF CHRIST" is now in its second week. The pageant which covers the complete life of Christ, beginning with the birth, covers the baptism, preaching, healing. passion, crucifixion and resurrection of our Lord and Savior. This production is a very inspiring and spiritual presentation by a cast from all walks of life, religious denominations, and professions and the performance is of professional standing. Even if you have attended the Easter productions many times, you will definitely enjoy this presentation as many changes have been made in order to make it as near realism as possible.

23rd Rodeo Season Opens With Record Attendance

The 23rd season of the Rising Star Rodeo summer series opened on Saturday evening. June 7, with a record attendance according to David Harris, president of the Rising Star Roping Club, sponsoring organization for the rodeo.

The downtown parade was headed by the Rising Star Roping Club, led by the Club Sweetheart, Kasey Maynard. Several area riding clubs from Comanche, Gorman, Callahan County and May participated in the parade, along with indivi-dual riders, motorcyclists, bicyclists, and future firemen on the city fire trucks.

A highlight of the event was a horse and buggy owned by Mr. Jack Williams of Brownwood. The Callahan County Rough Riders were awarded first prize in the parade judging and the Rising Star Roping Club won second place.

narrator and members of the Rising Star React Club assisted in directing traffic during the parade. Parade judges were Mrs. Bob Shults, Mrs. Don Boyett and Mrs. George Steel. Entries in the various rodeo

(b) An offense under this section is punishable by a fine not to exceed $200.00.

XI. An appearance under this ordinance is made by payment of fine or by posting appearance bond in an amount set by the City Judge and approved by the Chief of Police of the City of Eastland on or before the appearance time. Appearance time is on or before the fifth day following the date of violation. XII.

It shall be an affirmative defense to prosecution under Paragraph 5 of this Ordinance that at the time of violation the parking meter applicable thereto was not in working order.

XIII. It shall be an affirmative defense to prosecution under this Ordinance that the vehicle involved was then engaged or being used in an emergency of such a nature as to involve substantial risk of injury to person or property.

(a) The City Manager is hereby authorized to lease, on behalf of the City of Eastland, parking zone areas for the purpose of loading and unloading. Such leases shall be made to owners or managers of businesses only. Each business establishment shall be entitled to lease one parallel or two diagonal parking zone areas.

(b) Provided, however, no parking zone areas in or on the following portions of parking zone streets shall be leased:

(i) Seaman Street from its Southeast and Southwest intersection corners with Main Street to its Northwest and Northeast intersection corners with Commerce Stree;

(ii) Commerce Street from its Northwest and Southwest intersection corners with Seaman Street to its Southeast and Northeast intersection corners with Lamar Street:

(iii) Lamar Street from its Northeast and Northwest intersection corners with Commerce Street to its Southwest and Southeast intersection corners with Main Street) (iv) Main Street from its Northeast and Southeast intersection corners with Lamar Street to its Northwest and Southwest intersection corners with Seaman Street. XV.

(a) The fee for lease under Paragraph 10 of this Ordinance is $50 per parking zone area per annum. No lease shall be granted under this Ordinance until said fee has been paid to the City Secretary.

(b) Persons holding valid leases under this Ordinance shall be exempt from the provisions of Paragraph Five of this Ordinance.

XVI. No type of permits, leases, or other parking privileges shall be granted except as contained and set forth in this Ordinance. XVII.

The City is hereby authorized to enter into a contract for the purchase and installation of parking meters and to pay for same from the receipt obtained by the operation thereof as far as possible. Said means of payment shall be in addition to any other purchasing powers heretofore granted to the City by Charter or otherwise.

XVIII. The Police Department of the City of Eastland is hereby given the responsibility of enforcement of this Ordinance and shall make due complaint of any violation under this Ordinance. XIX.

The provisions of this ordinance are cumulative of all other ordinances, regulations or rules, or parts thereof, governing or regulating the same subject matter: all such ordinances, regulations or rules in conflict with the provisions herein are expressly repealed to the extent of such conflict.

Should any portion of this ordinance be unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect any other part hereof, but the same shall remain as if such unconstitutional or invalid portions originally had been deleted from this Ordinance. XXI. The City Secretary is hereby directed to publish the descriptive caption of this Ordinance, together with the penalty provisions herein in the length time and manner provided by

The fact that the City of Eastland has no adequate means by which to regulate parking in the City of Eastland and has no adequate penalty for violation of parking regulations, and that such facts endanger the public peace, health and safety, creates an emergency requiring the suspension of rules requiring an ordinance be not passed on the day at which the same is introduced, and requiring that this Ordinance become effective upon final passage and publication as required by law and charter, and it is hereby ORDAINED AND ORDERED this 17th day of March, 1975.

Republican Women Sponsor Contest

The Republican Women's Club of Eastland will sponsor an essay contest for high school juniors and seniors as part of the Bicentennial celebration.

The contest will be part of the Heritage '76 division. Cash prizes will be awarded to the winners.

Eastland became a state and national Bicentennial community Saturday with presentations by U.S. Rep. Omar Burleson and Sen. Lloyd Bent-

Other Heritage '76 projects in Eastland include a 1776-1976 section to be created in the Eastland Centennial Library. The goal will be to raise $1,776 to purchase books about local, Texas and national history. The project will be sponsored by the Thursday Afternoon Study

The Eastland Historical Society will be in charge of the dedication of historical plaques honoring early settlers.

In the Festival division the Eastland High School reunion has been designated a Bicentennial event. The reunion, ## which is held every five years,

will take place June 20-22. The Eastland Boy Scouts will sponsor Flag Day ceremonies at the Post Office on June 14.

In the Horizon '76 category, fund raising projects will be held to purchase a directory for the lobby of the courthouse. The projects will be sponsored by the Eastland County Home Demonstration Clubs.

The City of Eastland, Civic League and Garden Club will repair and modernize Eastland Park. They will use a master plan drawn by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept.

Texas Electric Service Co. will pay for the printing of stationery for the Eastland Bicentennial Commission.
