

Carbon Reunion Friday & Saturday To Highlight Busy July 4 Weekend

Life of Christ
To Be Presented
At Amphitheater

The Kendrick Religious Pageant THE LIFE OF CHRIST is, according to some of those in attendance at the past performances, "The most heart-warming, spiritual uplifting presentation ever seen".... "Most moving production, everyone in the nation should see it," says a man from California; "Follows the scriptures exactly as it is in the Bible" says a very learned Bible instructor and Sunday School Teacher from the Church of Christ in Big Spring, Texas; "Fantastic, marvelous, superb, a most outstanding production, every church, regardless of denomination, should be supporting this production and bringing groups of all ages to view it" a Baptist Minister says.

These are but a few of the reports coming to the Kendrick Family about the production each Friday and Saturday at 9 p.m. from now through August 16.

During the past several years, the Kendrick Amphitheater always presented a JULY 4th WILD WEST SPECTACULAR* due to the State of Texas wanting them to present the Life of Christ through the summer as a tourist attraction, and since July 4th is on a Friday, the presentation this year will be the religious production of the Life of Christ. We do hope you will remember that God had a larger hand in building this country than anyone, and hope you will attend the presentation on the 4th of July.

Motorists Cautioned

Gov. Dolph Briscoe called on Texas motorists to exercise special caution over the Fourth of July weekend and to observe the 55 mph speed limit. Noting the predicted death increase, Gov. Briscoe said his office has implemented a well rounded media campaign to help make drivers more aware of the dangers of holiday driving. "Besides this heavy media use, increased enforcement of traffic laws will be evident. We also urge the motorist to make use of the many rest stops.

Briscoe went on to say it was most important for drivers to volunteer to drive with care. He said 46 people were killed over the holiday last year and the number will likely increase over this next Fourth.

CofC To Begin Certificate Awards

A continuing program to recognize and reward civic improvements will be initiated by the Chamber of Commerce as the result of action by the board of directors this week.

The Chamber will present certificates to deserving firms and individuals on the recommendations of citizens. President Emmett Lasater proposed the project and the board gave unanimous approval at the Thursday board luncheon.

In other business the board discussed the need for airport improvement in view of the need for good airport facilities for the city. The board approved sending Chamber Manager James Wright to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Texas First seminar to be held in Stephenville on July 10.

Mgr. Wright reported that the chamber successfully helped the EHS Reunion hold a good reunion and sold $315.00 to gether on worth of plates, coins and books at the event.

The board approved contributing up to $35.00 to Special Events Chairman Wade Freeman to help conduct a Little League All-Star game here this summer.

The board okayed Wright's attending the West Texas Chamber manager's meeting in Odessa in September.

Present were President Lasater, Mgr. Wright, vice president Otis Coleman, Wilbur Simmel, Veon Howard, Jim Hogart, Mrs. B.W. Robertson, Walter Hall, M.L. Terrell, Ray Winnegar, Don Martin, Frank Sayre, Jay Staggs and H.V.O. Brien.

Dear Editor:

We are all home now...but the memories will linger on and on! The Reunion was fantastic in every way and the miracle workers of the Old Home Town will not be forgotten for all the time, effort, and expense they put in planning and executing such a grand time for everyone. A young friend I was talking with, after services at the church in which she and I were raised; said it all when she said to me, "You know, these reunions are just like I have always pictured Heaven...when you get there; you will know and live everyone."

Thank you, Eastland, for a glimpse of Heaven.

State Representative Joe Hana of Breckenridge will be the featured speaker for the event. Representative Hanna, currently serving his third term as a state representative in the Texas House of Representatives, will speak on the symbolism and heritage of the American flag.

The pageant has involved a large number of community residents in production and presentation. The Rising Star Chamber of Commerce is the sponsoring organization of the program, with the Rising Star High School Senior Class of 1976 in charge of presentation.

Vacation Closed

Vassarette of Munsingwear, Inc. will close at the end of the work day, June 26, for the annual vacation, and reopen July 14th.

Commission Hearing

The Eastland County Board of Equalization met Tuesday and Wednesday under Judge Scott Bailey with no disputes from those appearing on taxes set.

The Board will meet again July 11 in regard to mineral interests, utilities and pipelines.

The 76 flags, all of which have been hand-made and painted by local residents, are representative of early influence on our United States, and portray the heritage of the stars and stripes. The flag parade will include discovery flags, colonial flags, state flags, and newly-designed Rising Star school flag, and the American flag.

Narration about each flag as it is presented will be read by members of the '76 senior class, with Clark Smith as master of ceremonies. The 76 flags will be borne by children and young people of Rising Star community.

The originator-producer of the festival of flags is Mrs. Carl A. Smith. It is an idea she conceived several years ago, while teaching school in Alaska. The collection of data and historical facts compiled in the program has been in progress since her original idea some years ago. Mrs. Bobby Burns, sponsor of the '76 senior class, will direct the pageant presentation. Musical direction will be handled by James Steel, who will direct the Community Singers, a choir composed of people throughout the Rising Star area who enjoy singing. Mrs. Rex Hudson will accompany the choir on the organ, and will also play background music throughout the presentation of the flags. The organ is being provided by Kendrick Music Co. of Eastland. Soloists for the pageant will be Mrs. Clyde Griffin and J.C. Housel.

Persons from throughout the Rising Star vicinity are invited to come and share in this beautiful presentation as part of our nation's Bicentennial celebration.

Cisco Wrangler Belles To Appear On NBC-TV Special July 3

The Cisco Wrangler Belles of Cisco Junior College will be one of the featured attractions of the "STARS AND STRIPES - SHOW", a television patriotic spectacular to be seen on NBC-TV on the eve of Independence Day, July 3, in prime time at 7 p.m. CDT. The Belles will join a host of show business celebrities in the TV special, including Bob Hope, John Davidson, Anita Bryant, Charlie Pride and Juliet Prowse.

The pretty coeds from Cisco, Texas, will perform a feature dance routine in the show, and they will participate in the opening and finale of the telecast.

The Wrangler Belles have become nationally-known since making two appearances in New York's Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade-in conjunction with the CJC Band.

Director of the Belles is Mrs. Pat Owens. Mrs. Patty Harper is choreographer, and Mr. Eric Ritchie, CJC Public Relations Director, is the group's coordinator.

The "Stars and Stripes Special" will be taped on June 29 before a live audience of approximately 12,000 in Oklahoma City at the huge Myriad Arena. The Wrangler Belles will arrive in Oklahoma City on Wednesday, July 25, to begin rehearsals.

In addition to Hope, Davidson, Pride and Misses Bryant and Prowse, the show will feature the Mike Curb Congregation, Les Brown and his Band of Renown, the Strategic Air Command Band, which will provide music for the Belles' routines, the Stars and Stripes Chorale, and sports stars Mickey Mantle, Craig Morton, "Mean Joe Green", Terry Bradshaw, Johnny Unitas, Steve Owens, Chuck Knox and Barry Switzer.

Producer of the show is Dick Schneider of New York, who is also producer of the Macy's Parade in New York and the Tournament of Roses' Parade in California. Executive Producer is Lee Allen Smith, an Oklahoma City broadcasting executive who several years ago originated the idea for the televised patriotic extravaganza.

The show is already getting a great deal of advance publicity and build-up. The Wrangler Belles, along with others to be in the special, were mentioned on the "Tonight" Show on NBC-TV recently, and tickets for the show's taping have been in great demand for more than a month.

A Warning To Delinquent Taxpayers

AUSTIN—Comptroller Bob Bullock said Tuesday that some 1,100 delinquent taxpayers in the Abilene area owe $600,966 in state sales taxes and $480,203 in city sales taxes. The back taxes owed in the Abilene area are part of $59 million owed by an estimated 70,000 delinquent sales tax accounts statewide. Bullock has assigned a special task force in his office to set up an aggressive collection system. The Abilene area delinquents are those under the jurisdiction of the Abilene district field office which covers Mills, Comanche, Brown, Coleman, Eastland, Callahan, Taylor, Nolan, Mitchell, Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Stephens, Haskell and Stonewall counties. The Abilene office is at the 1st State Bank Building, Room 213, 4th and Oak St; the telephone number is (area code 915) 673-7849. "We are zeroing in on all delinquents with whatever steps are necessary," Bullock said. "A word of warning to the wise should be sufficient." The Abilene area delinquents date back to 1966 and range from a few dollars to one case owing $49,082 in state sales taxes, Bullock said, and $4,543 in city sales tax. Another Abilene area delinquent, Bullock noted, owes no state sales tax, but owes $371,013 in city sales taxes. Bullock said the Abilene and area delinquents, just like the rest of the state, "show no pattern and certainly no reason why these accounts were permitted to stay that way." Area-by-area reports on delinquents will be released for the rest of the state as soon as they are prepared, Bullock said. His special task force includes personnel from the Comptroller's legal, sales tax and field operations divisions as well as from Bullock's personal office. Bullock was warned that many of the delinquencies "may be so old that we'll never get the money."

STATE BEAUTIFICATION AWARDS

What The Cities Did To Win:

Cameron began its long-term improvement program in 1971 with the receipt of the Federal loan for urban renewal, but the culmination of the program was reached in 1974, when almost 2,000 citizens representing the chamber of commerce, municipal government, civic organizations, schools, women's groups and churches worked together to complete 17 specific goals. The activities included completion of a downtown mall, restoration of two city parks, landscaping of public and residential areas and the securing of additional doctors to broaden health services. Providing opportunities for the youth of Cameron was given priority through the organization of livestock and broiler shows and the construction of playgrounds and sports fields, demonstration gardens and a greenhouse, nature trails and lake in a refurbished city park. Churches, schools, clubs, the Highway Department, Folk Fete, Inc., and the chamber of commerce joined with the city and county authorities, and the community planning commission in the improvement of their properties. Residential areas were also improved by owners who then gave volunteer service on civic projects. In short, Cameron has entered a new era in accomplishment, in beautification and in citizenship.

Devine has been designated a national Bicentennial City, and has programs underway in each Bicentennial category --Heritage, Festival and Horizons. One of the most important projects is the restoration of the Opera House, built in 1905, to its original intended use. Also being restored is a blacksmith shop which has been an integral part of the community since 1900, and a junior high school which is being rejuvenated as a community center.

The Devine Chamber of Commerce spotlighted unsightly areas of the town on film and coordinated improvement of both residential and business areas. The entire downtown area is being revitalized as a "specialty shopping district," retaining the flavor of the Old West and early Devine.

Poverty improvement beautification and renovation has led to broadening the economic base of the Devine trade area. Several new businesses have located here, and the Southwest School of Art and Design has been established. Streets are being repaved; and improved water system is planned.

Tourist are being invited to Devine by way of a handsome new brochure prepared and distributed by the Bicentennial Committee. It is hoped that many come to Devine during 1976 to participate particularly in the Spring Art and Crafts Show and an expanded Fall Festival.

Mount Vernon's year-long improvement program began in early 1974 under the sponsorship of the Rotary Club. This service club became interested in a beautification project aimed at the total community participating. The club's project was to restore the downtown plaza for the city's centennial celebration in 1975.

Using the theme, "Our Plaza Restoration," community groups, schools, women's clubs, and business interest raised more than $13,000 for the renovation of the downtown plaza.

Repairs were made to the plaza's gazebo, sidewalks refinished, benches replaced, and the grounds were landscaped to enhance the new appearance of the plaza.

With everyone pitching in to help, the community-wide beautification program spread throughout the city. Businesses and houses began to receive new coats of paint and the city's parks became targets for landscape projects.

Churches, schools, clubs, the Highway Department, the chamber of commerce and city and county authorities joined with the Rotary Club in the improvement of downtown Mount Vernon's new appearance in July 1975, which officially kicks off the nation's Bicentennial year.

Driving force behind Eagle Pass's year-long effort was the Eagle Pass Chamber of Commerce which formed a continuing Beautification Committee to make beautification a constant concern among the citizens. Ecology and cleanup clubs were organized in the elementary and secondary schools to involve youth, and the community adopted the idea of a "Spring House Cleaning" as an annual affair.

The chamber's beautification committee undertook as one of its first projects the landscaping of highways at entrances to the city, the general cleanup of these areas, and screening of junkyards. A permanent welcome sign surrounded by a landscaped desert garden was constructed by volunteers at the intersection of U.S. Highways 57 and 277. Approaches to the International Bridge were also cleaned and new signs in Spanish and English were provided.

The town is involved in a continuous campaign to remove blight and improve the general appearance of the city, including paving of all streets.

With cooperation between private individuals, community organizations, school groups, and local government, the people of Eagle Pass are optimistic about its continuing program for community improvement.

Tyler's successful beautification program with the theme, "Festival of Progress," began in the spring of 1974 when the Tyler Area Chamber of Commerce assembled leaders from a host of organizations and formed the City and County Clean-up and Beautification Committee. The program that was to involve hundreds of civic-minded organizations and individuals in Smith County began with a week-long cleanup drive.

GORDON SPOT

Each year at this time we receive potato plants which have small green fruit resembling young tomatoes. Usually the grower wants to know if the potato plant has been crossed with a tomato. The potato "fruit" are generally called potato seed balls and are the result of pollination and fertilization of potato blooms. The seed balls contain the true seed of the potato and each may contain from 100 to 300 seed. The seed resembles miniature tomato seed without being fuzzy.

Some potato varieties produce an abundance of blossoms while other bloom sparsely. Contrary to a commonly accepted notion, tuber formation is not dependent upon flowering. Potato plants will form tubers without any flowers ever appearing on the tops. The notion that tuberization depends on flowering arose because unfavorable climate such as hot and dry growing conditions, which are normally unfavorable for flowering also retard or even inhibit tuber formation.

Peanut growers must face many hazards and risks during a growing season. Blowing sand caused considerable damage to young peanuts in early June in this country. Many had to replant. There were some in the Carbon area who replanted just in time to have part of the stand washed out by four inches of rain last Wednesday evening.

After putting a lot of hard work into that vegetable garden, it's important to harvest crops at the proper time.

Produce that is picked too soon can be either too tough or too tender and often lacks in flavor or substance. That which

RJC Library Grant

WASHINGTON* D.C. --Congressman Omar Bursleson announces Office of Education approval of a $3,918 Library Resources grant to Cisco Junior College for fiscal year 1975.

Grantees are accredited institutions of higher education, eligible branches of such institutions, and other public and private nonprofit library agencies whose primary function is to provide library and information services to institutions of higher education on a formal cooperative basis.

Little Jeannie went on an errand to a wealthy home. Because she was so excited over its beauty and bigness, the kind woman took her on a tour.

She showed Jeannie the luxurious furniture, the imported carpets, the priceless paintings, and asked, "Don't you think these things are lovely?"

"I do," answered Jeannie. "What a beautiful home for Jesus to visit. Does He ever come here?" "I'm afraid not" confessed the woman.

"We have a small apartment," continued Jeannie. "We don't have any carpets or pretty things. But Jesus comes and makes us very happy." The woman told her husband what Jeannie had said. He replied, "I have often thought we ought to thank the Lord for His goodness and ask Him to come and live with us. But I haven't done it."

Every one should. For one thing the Lord wants to do is to dwell with man and in him. He stands knocking at the door of the heart, saying, "If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in."

Receive Him into your life now. And He will say, "Here will I dwell; for I have desired it" - Psalm 132:14.

Then a beautification program began in earnest; the city's rose garden was enlarged, Arboretum, Inc. was created, and many public areas were landscaped. A woodlands trail and nature-study park were opened, and Tyler's many residential parks were improved.

A community-wide drive brought about the removal or renovation of many dilapidated houses, and an environmental control office was created to maintain constant surveillance of natural surroundings within the city. Trash pickup in the city and solid waste disposal facilities in the county were expanded and improved.

Finally, plans for long range projects were designated and publicized so that clubs and service organizations may select activities within their competence that contribute to the overall betterment of Tyler.

The Committee for a Greener, Cleaner Fort Worth was formed early in 1974 to coordinate all community improvements underway by various private and public groups in Fort Worth. The committee, representing several facets of Fort Worth life, not only joined in an intensive campaign to carry out projects already underway, but also promoted environmental awareness in the entire community.

By the end of the year, the number of organizations involved had multiplied from the 30 who participated in the committee's founding, and included also many schools and individuals. Projects ranged from a "Litter Pickin' Day" and recycling programs to landscaping of public areas and historic building restoration.

Fort Worth's city government has been closely involved with the Greener, Cleaner Committee since its founding. Councilwoman Marget Rimmer served as general or honorary chairman, and on the steering committee were representatives from the Public Works Department and Park and Recreation Department.

Business and industry, Carswell Air Force Base, 93 garden clubs, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, women's organizations and civic groups, environmental organizations like Audubon and Sierra Clubs, and Fort Worth public schools all took an active part in Greener, Cleaner Committee projects throughout the year.

is harvested too late may also be tough, fibrous or squashy, depending on the crop. Once produce passes its peak of maturity, its flavor begins to decline.

Many vegetables can be easily picked or snapped off the stalk or vine. However, care should be used not to damage the plants. It may be best to use care to avoid stepping on vines or breaking stems when harvesting vegetables.

Harvest vegetable crops when the foliage is dry to avoid spreading disease spores that may be present. Wilted plants should not be harvested since harvesting creates wounds which increase water loss from the plants.

Freshly harvested vegetables should be moved to a cool location and preferably placed in the refrigerator. They should be used as soon as possible, whether they are to be consumed as fresh vegetables or are for canning or freezing.

MONICOWALES WARD

Do You Remember

BY HERMAN DEMPSEY

A family from the sight land country bought a place in a sandy soil section of another community. They were real proud for now they could have a beautiful garden and a yard that would be attractive to all who came by their new home. The sandy soil would be easy to work and would grow anything they decided to plant. The weather at the new location was ideal for their plans. They could hardly wait of their heavenly place of beautiful enjoyment.

The man was very cooperative and readily agreed to give them the information they desired. The problem was caused by the presence of moles, a soft-furred burrowing mammal that burrows through the mealy soils in search of earthworms for food. They were told to get ride of their moles, they need only to put moth balls in their underground tunnels. The folks were very happy and hurried to their new home to start the eradication process late that same afternoon. The mound of dirt was pulled away from the entrance of the tunnel and three moth balls were dropped into the tunnel. The next morning, they came out to discover the mound of dirt was rebuilt and the three moth balls were neatly placed on the top of the mound. The folks did not give up easy. The man obtained a rubber hose and fixed one end to the exhaust of his oil pickup truck then placed the other end in the tunnel. After about thirty minutes of feeding the carbon monoxide gas from the exhaust into the hole, he felt it should kill all the moles in the neighborhood. A week of inactivity passed, then the moles came back in numbers. The folks gave up, sold out and moved away.

Onus Dick is shown visiting with Nannie Allmon during the visiting which followed the "Pot Luck" Supper at Northview Nursing Center. During the period following the meal, Mrs. Ruth McDonald entertained the group by playing several numbers on her accordion.

You don't like the way the country looks? Don't just stand there bemoaning the mess. Pick up a broom, a shovel, a rake! Start where you are and do what you can. Begin with your own back yard... your own street... then look at your neighborhood... your town. Pick up after yourself. Ask others to do their part. A lot of little litter is what makes a monstrous wasteland. Stop it before it starts.

Thoughts
 From The Living Bible

For it is by believing in his heart that a man becomes right with God; and with his mouth he tells others of his faith, confirming his salvation. For the Scriptures tell us that no one who believes in Christ will ever be disappointed. Jew and Gentile are the same in this respect: they all have the same Lord who generously gives his riches to all those who ask him for them. Anyone who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved.

Pamela Jo Pierce, Dan Dyson United In Marriage Sat.

Pamela Jo, and Danny Jim Dyson, were united in marriage, Saturday, June 28, in a double ring garden ceremony, at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Arthur, of Eastland.

Officiating the wedding was the bride's father, Rev. Wallace R. Pierce of Thalia, Richard Rossander of Eastland assisted until the bride was given away.

An archway centered under a grove of oak trees, was decorated with greenery and spring flowers. Bouquets of yucca plants decorated the area.

Organ music for the occasion was delivered by Mrs. James Thackerson of Cisco, and guitar vocalist, James Tension of Arlington, who sang the popular "Your My Best Friend"; "There is Love," and ended the ceremony with a prayer, "Wither thou goest I will go."

Accenting the outdoor setting was bridesmaid, Nancy Werley, wearing a yellow taffeta gown, overlain with spring floral nylon, and Matreon of Honor, Laura Pierce, sister-in-law of the bride, wearing a baby blue taffeta gown, also with a spring floral nylon overlay. The dresses were offset with floral lace, crisscrossed on the bodice of the gown, with matching chokers.

The floral lace also set off the band of the wide brimmed picture hats, that each attendant wore. They each carried a yellow daisy, with yellow and white streamers.

Best man for the occasion was brother of the groom, Ed Dyson of De Leon, Groomsman was Leslie Sharp of Gorman.

Ring bearer Calvin Golder, followed up the men attendants, carrying a white satin pillow, lined with white nylon lace. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Golden of Eastland.

Leading the way for the bride, with a sprinkling of spring flowers, was flower girl, Shalee Rossander. She wore a pink full length dress, with a pink picture hat. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rossander of Eastland.

The bride was arrayed in a soft white crepe gown, with a full length floral nylon lace, gently draping the shoulders. The low scoop neck, off set the full gathered bodice, wide white floral lace sleeves added to the softness of the gown. She wore a cathedral veil, lined in floral nylon lace. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers, and baby's breath. The gown was designed and made by the brides mother.

Receiving and seating guests prior to the ceremony, was brother of the bride Troy Bruce Pierce of Odessa; and Greg Boles of Eastland.

Mrs. Bobby hazard of Eastland, was receptionist for the wedding and for the reception that followed.

The bride's mother, Betty, brightened the occasion wearing a green double knit skirt and blouse, with lace bodice and sleeves. As the bride's mother she was presented a corsage of pastel carnations.

The groom's mother, Thelma, wore a smart two piece suit of double knit; a sleeveless open weskit and pleated skirt. This was offset by a multi-colored spring blouse. As the groom's mother, she was also presented a corsage of pastel carnations.

Both mothers were presented memorial bracelets at the wedding rehearsal, Friday, June 27, by their son and daughter.

A reception was held in the back yard of Mr. and Mrs.

Arthurs home, following the ceremony. Serving at the reception was Lana Sharp of Gorman, and Pam Dyson of Cleburn, niece of the groom.

The sterling silver cake knife used at the reception, was a gift to the couple, given by the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Arthur.

A gift of two matching wedding goblets, with the bride and grooms names engraved into the glass were used by the bride and groom as they made a toast to their future, at the reception.

Danny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace R. Pierce of Thalia, and is a Jim Ned High School graduate. She is a bookkeeper for G&H Electric Co. of Eastland.

Danny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Foye Dyson of De Leon and a graduate of De Leon High School. He is employed with Vassertte of Munsingwear of Eastland.

The couple will make their home in Morton Valley, following a short trip.

Visitors

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.M. Hunt over the Homcoming weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Hunt of El Cajor, California.

Historic Circle Proves Fine Bicentennial Trip

BY GAY NELL O'BRIEN

What better way to begin celebrating our Nation's 200th birthday than to devote your vacation to a "Bicentennial" trip.

Looking for a relatively 'close-to-home' self tour with short, interesting circle drives between points of great historical significance? Ideally the time for this particular trip where you'll find excellent accommodations is spring or early fall.

From Eastland drive via Waxahachie with its interesting old homes to Corsicana, the first city in Texas to be piped with natural gas with its old Pioneer village and on to Crockett, named for hero of the Alamo and through the beautiful Davy Crockett National Forest and Angelina National Forest.

You'll travel through Orange, Texas, after a night enroute and stop in Lafayette, Louisiana. Plan to spend at least two nights here. In Lafayette you'll meet your first "Cajun", short for French-Acadian, people who settled Louisiana from Nova Scotia. Spend a day driving the well-known circle below Lafayette.

You'll want to visit Avery Island and the Tabasco Sauce plant where the Jungle Gardens are located and ice cream salt is made from this island of salt.

From New Iberia take the road up to St. Martinville where Longfellow's "Evangeline" comes "alive". You can visit the old church and "Evangeline's" grave in the church yard as well as the old oak tree where "Evangeline and Gabriel" were said to have finally met after leaving Nova Scotia. Longfellow's account of the story is quite different to the alleged French-Acadian's.

In New Iberia, "Shadows on the Teche", once a town house for several sugar cane plantations is an interesting attraction. It retains its original flavor and has a beautiful view from the back pillared balcony overlooking the Bay on Teche and giant oaks draped in Spanish Moss. (Teche means "snake").

In a drive from Lafayette to Houma, you'll find time for visiting the plantation homes. One you'll not want to miss, with its spacious gardens and huge oaks draped with Spanish moss is Oak Manor, once a sugar cane plantation. Almost in ruins except structurally after the Civil War, hurricanes, etc., it was bought and completely restored in 1926.

Several movies have been made here--the latest, "The Drowning Pool" with JoAnne Woodward and Paul Newman, now being released.

Enroute from Oak Manor near Franklin to Houma via Morgan City you'll notice much fishing and off shore drilling activity. It's an oil boom area.

In New Orleans, plan to stay in a hotel (many new ones have been added) in the Old French Quarters downtown. Take a streetcar to the Garden Section of the city where you'll see many more antebellum homes.

Make a point to stop by the Chalmette National Battlefield and cemetery on your way to Biloxi. You'll hear about the Battle of New Orleans in 1815. The peace settlements, being made in Europe after the War of 1812, were slow in reaching here and as a result 2,000 British died but only 28 Americans.

At the beach resort of Biloxi, Mississippi, you'll see the old historical lighthouse and Beauvoir, the last home of Jefferson Davis, the only president of the Confederacy.

Northeast from Biloxi, you'll love Vicksburg's beautiful National Military Battleground where over 2,000 Union soldiers are buried. The breath takingly beautiful forested, winding 16 mile drive is completely descriptive of the battle and siege of Vicksburg, the key to the Mississippi and the ultimate outcome of the war. Markers pinpoint various trenches, approaches, battles, etc. On the green rolling hills are statues and monuments to various batteries and regiments and well as heroes of various battles.

Towering monuments to individual states for their part in the battle are outstanding. The Texas monument has six gardens.

In Vicksburg, you'll also find the Old Courthouse Museum, which withstood the siege, an interesting attraction with its Civil War prizes.

A street marked tour of Vicksburg takes you to historical points of interest. You may visit several antebellum homes.

One pre-Civil War plantation mansion retored with most of the original furnishings, etc., is Cedar Grove. Originally the huge front lawn overlooked the mighty Mississippi.

The owner and builder of this mansion, a cotton and lumber giant, remained during the entire siege even though Union troops occupied the home, which was converted into a union hospital.

His wife and children were able to find shelter behind enemy lines, likely caves where women and children lived.

Returning home via Shreveport, takes you near several interesting old Texas cities such as Marshall, Longview, and Tyler.

Visitors

Visitors in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Jerri Powell and the Curtis Youngs this week were Mrs. Powell's sister, Mrs. Charles Horton of Farmington, New Mexico; her niece, Mrs. Tony Roshier and her husband from Oneonta, New York; a niece, Mrs. Bill Crow from Ft. Worth, Texas.

Mr. Roshier, who had expressed a desire to see some "Texas Longhorns," was taken on a tour of Ed Sargent's Ranch.

There was a time when man was "run down" from hard labor. But today he is "wound up" by hypertension. He has shifted his emphasis from the spiritual to the material. He believes if he has enough money, education, power and recreation, then he will be satisfied.

The writer of the 131st Psalm felt that way. But something was lacking. He turned his life over to the Lord and found what he wanted. Then he was changed.

Look at his attitude. He said, "My heart is not haughty, nor my eyes lofty." To enter the higher life, one must go to a step lower down. Humility puts a man where the Lord can bless him and make him a blessing.

Listen to his ambitions. He said, "Neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me." The desire for power in excess led the angels into sin. The desire for knowledge in excess led man into sin. Set the goal high, but be sure it has the approval of the Lord.

Look at his actions. The rebel became reconciled to the Lord and resigned himself to His will. Then he found rest, for he said, "I have quieted myself." It is the Lord's will that His children have the best. Why take the second best?

The Light Touch

By Clint Bray

Some of the new movies are so violent, they should be rated by blood type.

If you believe some ada, the new motorcycles and small cars are getting more miles to the gallon than our lawnmower.

Isn't it sneaky how they call it a tax return? As though your money were going to make a round trip.

There's no catching up with housework. You go to bed with everything done, but while you're sleeping, sheets are wrinkling, dust is settling, and stomachs are getting empty.

The accent today may be on youth, but the stress is definitely on the parents.

At Bray's in Eastland and Ranger the accent is on Pleasing You When We Sell You Clothing.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Willard L. Griffin of Eastland. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Siddall of Freeport, Texas.

Organist was David Gilbreath

She wore a diamond lavalier necklace that her mother wore for her wedding and belonged to her maternal grandmother. She wore a blue garter, a gift from Mrs. L.W. Dalton. The sixpence in her shoe was given to her by a former teacher, Miss Verna Faye Johnson. Her bouquet was a white butterfly orchids and baby's breath on a white bridal Bible accented with streamers of ribbon and pearls.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Burt Montgomery of Henrietta, Texas. Bridesmaids were Jo An Baker, Becky Hanna, and Mrs. Don Griffin all of Eastland.

Attendants of the bride wore full length dresses of blue eyelet over blue underlining. The flared short sleeves and empire bodice were outlined with white lace trim. They wore identical gold and white necklaces at the plain square neckline.

Best man was Carl L. Siddall, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, of Leesville, Louisiana. Groomsmen were Gary Griffin and Alta Loma, Steve Landers of Alvin, and Bryan Haygood of Garland. Ushers were Don Griffin of Eastland, brother of the bride, Thomas Smartt of Cisco, and Eddie Reasonover of Orange, nephew of the bridegroom. They also served as candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a full length dress of dotted pink sheer over pink underlining styled with a high neckline, fitted empire bodice and attached sheer ruffled capelet. She wore white accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a full length dress of floral knit and matching jacket with wrist length sleeves. Letters to the Editor

CIRCLES?

I overheard a conversation the other day, no meaning to pry. I listened with full scrutiny. In my silent observation I noticed a tone of disgust for what they termed as "A Revolution in California". Not knowing what or to whom they were speaking of, it set my mind to wonder.

And fly it did smack dab in the middle of a discussion of whether or not the colonies should withdraw from their mother country. The plans were carefully made. All at the delegation quickly adapted to arms for the battle had just begun. The ground work had been laid, the wall established, the cracks were being filled, and the holes covered up.

Great Britain and her fine gentlemen were, over tea, speaking of "how there was this uh-huh Revolution in the colonies" and some said they were in arms and ready for battle and laughed.

Well you know, if you read your history, they did and separated from the mother country. Oh, you know what they wanted? Have you ever heard of such things? Religious freedom! And the taxes they say were too high and uncalled for. And they didn't want soldier (British) in their homes. And the right to be free from someone's rules and regulations that did not apply to them.

And some cried because they died in war and some ran from it for safety. But the men wore scars and limped and came back without eyes.

They tried to see but caught some color and a little vision. Because seeing inside there was greed and selfishness and hate. And buy my slaves, here come the militants or kill all the left wing intellectuals. Let's go on strike, blame the politicians, eliminate the weak because they're ineffectual. And what does this mean? Well it's the fact that nobody gives a damn any more.

Here's what I call "Revolution". You know, if people were'n concerned about themselves or minded their own business, nothing would get started. Wait a minute! It sounds like circles, but that's what it is. I think the colours are getting clearer now.

Anyway, let's see if we can get a fresh start at this Revolution. Distinguished Mr. Jefferson related. No country should be without its internal revolution every 20 years. That means get rid of the ferment and put new berries on. In other words, clean up our own back yards.

As a great American hero once said, "We spend all our time helping some foreign country or telling them we're the best and we're the greatest that we have no time for ourselves." Will Rogers also said, "If the world had an egg laying contest and we sent a representative, he could lay more eggs than any of them."

Well this is my point. We are the best country and the greatest and no country should be without a revolution every 5 years. You see, that's why the constitution is set up the way it is. So we can change. "We," that means you and me. I'm not saying we don't need rules and regulations. But I think we should change from time to time to meet the need of the people.

People, you know you're interesting. There are about 20 million of you in this great land of ours. All of them think differently. All live and act as individuals. I hope. Each one as his own master, with the exception of the other one. But when it comes down to it we're all Americans and in the same boat. With every year change take place, or should I say every minute. And when the revolution comes on you or I may not like it! But you know, that's why we have change. That's what it's all about. And I want to tell you. I'm proud to be an American even if some of you would think so, if you heard my thoughts. There is only one thing I can say. Keep on thinking free. Robert Clements

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

BY MONTY HOWARD

The 4th of July holiday is celebrated with no special religious significance. This lack of religious attachment is contrary to the customs, beliefs and behavior of our forefathers. In blunt language, some of them would turn over in their graves if they saw how we celebrate the holiday.

We owe gratitude to God for having placed our forefathers on earth at that particular time in history. They fought for human rights; for freedom against tyrannical rule. After they won the struggle, they considered victory NOT as rights won by them, but as God given privileges they were permitted to proudly participate in.

What sort of men were Washington, Adams, Madison, Franklin, Jay, Jefferson, Hamilton - and all the rest? Watch for the illustrations next week that answer the question. It will be interesting. Don't miss it.
