3 One-Act Plays Have Been Cast At Civic Theatre

Three one-act plays for another "Evening of One Acts", instead of the two that were originally planned, have been cast by Eastland Civic Theatre director, Virginia Russell.

Because of an unusually large turnout at try-outs last week, the decision was made to do an additional play and to postpone the dessert theatre. Plans are to incorporate it with the Shakespeare Birthday Festival on April 23.

The three plays selected are all classics, two from the American Theatre and one from the British Theatre.

They are "The Trysting Place", written by Booth Tarkington in 1925; "The Importance of Being Earnest", written by Oscar Wilde in 1895; and "The Flattering Word", by George Kelly in 1916. All will be costumed according to period they portray.

Do You Remember When?

By H.L. Duncan

In those days back then, people would get sick with colds, fever and many of the common ailments known to them from experience in the community.

The doctors and hospitals were few in the county. People seldom went to a hospital in some distant town. The doctor called at the home in his horse-drawn buggy in case the home remedy failed to get the desired results. The children during winter months were required to wear a piece of asafetida attached to a string around their neck hanging down to their lower throat and upper chest. The asafetida ward off colds, sore throat and flu. In the case one developed the need for a laxative, the dried leaves of a cassia plant called senna that was raised on the farm was used to make senna leaf hot tea which was most effective. In case of an open wound caused by accident, black pepper was applied liberally to stop bleeding and aid healing. When one was bitten by a poisonous snake, a tourniquet from rawhide strap, sharp pocket knife to slit the fang marks and a bucket of kerosene oil for soaking the bitten area provided the remedy.

Doctors had to stay all night many times in the home while waiting to deliver a baby. The neighbor lady served to assist the doctor in these cases. She would stay and help until the mother was able to work again. When someone had a tooth to be pulled, it seemed there was always a man in the community with some Sears Roebuck forceps and would pull the tooth for free.

Could It Happen Again?

To Be Honored

The ceremonial and parade to be staged in Longview Saturday is dedicated to Melvin Lauren (Mel) Lobaugh, of 1705 Pine Ridge Drive, a retired oil industry personality and one of the most active Masons in East Texas.

He is a native of Lancaster, Ohio, in which city he was born Aug. 18, 1910. He came to Texas when his family moved to Eastland in 1919. He attended schools in that city and also the advanced management school at Northwestern University.

Most of his business career was spent in Venezuela, where he was with the Creole Petroleum Corporation. He married the former Miss Pauline Hudson in 1944 and they returned to the United States in 1959.

He was raised a Master Mason in Longview Lodge No. 404, AF&M, on Nov. 17, 1960, and last year, he was awarded a life membership in recognition of his contributions to the lodge.

Those included the chairmanship of the lodge committee on the Masonic Home and School Development fund-raising campaign; chairmanship of the committee on the annual Masonic Public School Week Program, and his service as a member of the committee on attendance for Masonic funerals.

In March, 1961, he took the Scottish Rite work at Dallas and transferred his membership to Waco when that Valley was created, and in which he was awarded the rank and decoration of a Knight Commander of the Court of Honour in October, 1971.

While a member of the Dallas Scottish Rite bodies, Lobaugh was member of the 9th degree team. On his demit to Waco, he joined the degree teams for the 14th and 18th degrees, and also is a member of the membership committee.

The Waco bodies presented him a life membership in 1971, and for the last 10 years, he has been secretary-treasurer of the Gregg County Scottish Rite Association.

In the York Rite, Lobaugh is a member of Longview Chapter No. 177, Royal Arch Masons; Longview Council No. 116, Royal and Select Masters; and Longview Commander No. 86, Knights Templar.

As degree master of Sharon Temple, he conducts the degree team training. Sharon Temple's team has earned a wide reputation for excellence and proficiency.

In other fields, Lobaugh is a member of the advisory council for Roy L. Bagley chapter of DeMolay, and since August he has been district governor for DeMolay chapters in Longview, Kilgore, Lufkin and Nacogdoches.

New Owners For Mode O'Day

Sale of Eastland's well-known women's fashion store, Mode O'Day on the west side of the square has been announced by owners Mrs. J.U. Johnson and Miss Minnie Lay.

Purchasers are Mrs. Johnson's son and family, Billy C. and Ethleen Johnson, who have moved back to their home here after having lived in West Texas for a number of years.

The change of ownership became effective Friday, Jan. 31, but the new owners have announced that the policies of the store will be maintained.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson live southwest of Eastland. They have two daughters in school here, Kathy, 16, a Junior, and Karen, 12, a sixth grader, and two boys Billy Joe of Dallas and Jimmy of Eastland.

As part of their introductory announcement, the Mode O'Day store has special Dollar Day items advertised in this issue, and will give away free a $50 wardrobe in a drawing to be held Friday, Feb. 28. Registration begins free Monday, and is open to all over 18 with no purchase necessary and one doesn't have to be present to be eligible to win.

In expressing their appreciation to their friends and customers, Mrs. Johnson and Miss Lay said that the wonderful people of this area have made their store a success and that they happily recommend the new owners, and invite all customers to continue to make the store their shopping center.

The new owners said that they recognize the responsibility they have to maintain the high quality of value and service which Mrs. Johnson and Miss Lay have maintained over the years.

Mrs. J.U. Johnson opened the Mode O'Day store here in 1948 and was joined by her sister, Miss Lay, in 1960 when she sold her stores in Wichita Falls and electra to come to Eastland. Miss Lay has been associated with Mode O'Day since 1940, she said, and will continue to assist the new owners as is needed.

Friends and customers are invited to come and get acquainted with the new owners.

Heavy License Plates To Be Sold

Purchasers of some 9,500,000 license plates for 1975 will get an extra-heavy non-corrosive steel license plate that will have to do for five years. For the next four years, through 1979, each winter the owner will simply stick on a 1x2 inch adhesive "validation tag" properly identified.

A few classes of motor vehicles will have to go by the old routine: dealers, state officials, members of the Legislature, radio operators, purchasers of "personalized" plates and anyone else who has to have a specific car number.

To get the heavy 1975 plates, we'll go to the county tax office between Feb. 1 and April 1--or mail in our renewal notices with an extra $1 per vehicle beginning Feb. 1. The $1 covers postage and handling. (Remember to do this, if at all, by March 1, so the plates can be mailed back in time for the deadline).

Helping Hand Needed

The 29 year old man of Carbon, Paul Williams is in need of a kidney transplant as a result of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Williams makes his way to Abilene three times a week to be hooked up to a kidney machine for five hours each trip.

He is the father of two children: Paul Jr., who is nine years old and Karen who is 10 years old. Paul is married to the former Bonnie Dell Graham of Eastland.

The family is under a financial burden at the present time with Paul not being able to work and bills piling up, not to mention the operation costs that is in the very near future.

Contributions for the family may be sent to: Paul Williams Fund, care of Ed Sargent, Box 363, Eastland, 76448. Or may be sent to Paul Williams Fund, care of Eastland National Bank, Eastland, Texas. James Reid and Ann Johnson are handling the deposits. All donations are appreciated.

THE WAIT IS OVER FOR "THE SOUND OF MUSIC"

The most popular motion picture of all time, "The Sound of Music," 20th Century-Fox's screen version of Rodgers & Hammerstein's Broadway hit, will open its first general release in five years at the Majestic Theatre.

Winner of five Academy Awards including Best Picture and Best Direction, Robert Wise's production of "The Sound of Music" stars Julie Andrews and Christopher Plummer, and co-stars Eleanor Parker, Richard Haydn and Peggy Wood. The Todd-AO and DeLuxe Color musical was produced and directed by Wise. Richard Rodgers wrote music and lyrics for two new songs for the film production, which has a screenplay by Ernest Lehman.

Wise took his cast and crew to Salzburg, Austria, to film the story of the famous Von Trapp family singers against the authentic background of the world-famed "City of Music." They spent 11 weeks filming in many of the city's landmarks such as Mirabell Gardens, Nonnberg Abbey, Winkler's Terrace and the Mozart footbridge.

During the course of the location shooting, which occupied virtually one-half of the production schedule, "The Sound of Music" company utilized historic Frohnburg Castle, now a dormitory for music students at the Mozarteum, to simulate the Von Trapp villa. The actual home of the family was occupied by Gestapo chief Heinrich Himmler during World War II and is now surrounded by a high wall, making it useless for filming purposes.

The famous Salzburg Music Festival scenes were shot in the most spectacular of the city's landmarks, the Felsenreitschule or Rocky Riding School. The stage of the vast amphitheatre is backgrounded by scores of arched tunnels carved out of the rocky mountain that surrounds the city, forming an impressive backdrop for the climactic scenes of the film.

Julie Andrews stars as Maria, governess of Von Trapp family in 20th Century-Fox's "THE SOUND OF MUSIC" showing at the Majestic Theatre.

Bullock Announces Rebate Policy

Bob Bullock, State Comptroller, has announced an additional savings for consumers purchasing new automobiles that qualify under any of the current factory programs giving rebates to customers.

Mr. Bullock, ruling that the current factory rebate programs constitute a reduction in the price of a car to a customer, has forwarded instructions from his office to the 254 tax assessor-collector throughout the state to accept Seller, Donor, or Trader's Affidavits (Form 40-2.90) that reflect a reduction in taxable value of a vehicle equal to the amount of factory rebate allowed. The Comptroller's decision follows IRS guidelines.

GORDON SPOT
BY DE GORDON

Proper pruning can turn a tree or shrub into a beautiful plant specimen while improper pruning can result in headaches and "butchered" plants.

Nearly any tree or shrub must from time to time be pruned so it will maintain a desired size or shape or to remove dead or diseased branches.

There are about six reasons for pruning plants. Dead or injured limbs should be cut out as soon as possible with a sharp saw.

A second reason is shaping. Many shrubs, trees and roses should be shaped to conform to the original idea you had when you planted them. To encourage spreading, remove the plant's leader; for upright growth, prune side branches. For more open space in the center, remove some branches back to the trunk's interior; and for compact growth clip the ends of all branches.

Pruning encourages more abundant blooms on flowering plants.

Some plants need thinning to allow light and air to reach the interior.

Another reason is to develop larger flowers. Removing small buds that come out beside larger ones strengthens the remaining larger buds, thus causing larger blooms.

Pruning encourages new stem growth. New stem growth results from pruning outward growth back toward the main stem. Top pruning will increase foliage and branches toward the sides. Pruning will increase foliage and branches toward the sides. Pruning roots will stop plant growth somewhat but will develop more fruit and blossoms.

Along with the "why's" of pruning comes the question of "when" to prune. The time to prune any shrub or tree depends on when the plant blooms. Spring-blooming deciduous species are pruned after the blooming period as are some evergreen types. Pruning induces the formation of flower buds for the next season. Summer and fall-blooming shrubs are usually pruned in the late fall and winter. New growth comes out by spring, bearing new flowers. Evergreens such as ligustrum, pittosporum, euonymus and others where flower production is not important can be pruned anytime.

Always remember that there should be a reason or need before any plant is pruned.

Now is a good time to prune fruit trees. They should be trained by pruning from the beginning to be a sturdy well-shaped tree. The three-limb open center system of training is recommended for peaches. In mature trees pruning should consist primarily of keeping the center of the tree open to sunlight and maintaining tree height of about 7 to 8 feet.

A mid-winter beef cattle short course will be held at Ranger Junior College Feb. 3, 4, and 5. Three Extension Service specialists will conduct the short course which will begin at 7:30 p.m. each night. The Monday and Wednesday night sessions will be in the library auditorium while the Tuesday night session will be in the Science lecture room. Monday's program will be range management, Tuesday's program will be on outlook of cattle situation and Wednesday's session will be on improved pastures.

MRS. YOUNG THIRD GRADE
Nancy and Kimberly were absent Monday. We got a new reading book called Mysterious Wisteria. William Shoemaker moved to Columbia. Our leaders this week were Kathaleen Kincheloe and Brad Hobbs. Shawn Alsop's mother showed us some films that they took on their vacation. Everybody liked them. Brad Hobbs brought some old bones that he found for Show-N-Tell. He didn't know what kind they were. Kim High brought a picture of a horse that her mother painted. It was very pretty. We had to stay in one play period because it was muddy. We had an English test Thursday. The one with Best Citizen was Manuel and Manners was Scot.
Lorrie Smith

EASTLAND MEMO:
What a common yet interesting sight to see the Meadowlarks along the shoulders of highways, and to catch the burst of two white tail patches when they take flight. Sometimes it seems you will run over them, but they will not fly. Insects must be plentiful along these shoulders to attract the birds. The Western and Eastern Meadowlark nest, eat, breed, live and abound in grassy lands, always a cheerful sight. This bird was so highly regarded at one time by some well meaning folks that they wanted him to replace the Bald Eagle as our country's symbol. Not having reached that position, nevertheless the Meadow Lark is the State Bird of a number of states.
He has a brownish head and body streaked with black and white, a bright yellow throat and breast, and has a black V on his chest. The western specie differs only in being paler, and having a more beautiful song. Both are residents in some parts of Texas year round. This 9 to 11 inch bird eats mostly insects such as the cutworm, beetles, caterpillars, grasshoppers and some weed seed.

The Meadowlark is not a lark, but a Blackbird, and is a partial migrant in large flock gatherings during winter movement. They do when settled, stake out a territory of about 7 acres to the pair, and fiercely guard this area. These polygamous fellows are hostile competitors for mates, putting on a show of puffing, fluffing feathers, and animated flight to win their nesting partner. Nests are built on grass mostly, being a cup in the ground, with a rough interlaced astrodome overhead. Sometimes passageways are built to and from the nest. Three to seven white eggs spotted with brown and lavender are incubated two weeks. The babies virtually demolish the nest before being able to fly. Father takes care of the little ones while mama starts a nest for a new brood. The Meadowlark does not seem to be attracted to yard feeders or bird baths, but we had a report a couple of days ago of some visiting a yard on Eastland's west side. There are always surprises when watching the birds.

On Jan. 12 in the morning with the unannounced snow, we listed Cardinals, Blue Jays, a Robin, House Sparrows, Harris Sparrows, Field Sparrows, a Yellowshafted Flicker, Inca, Mourning and Ground Doves, Titmice, Starlings, Chickadees and a Blue Bird around our feeders and bird baths within a 5 minute period. These visitors added some warmth to that cold morning.

Cisco Junior College will offer fourteen different community service courses to people in the general area of Cisco during the current spring semester. Vocational-Technical Dean Gerald Bint has announced.
Bint said the classes would be mostly night courses meeting once per week for ten weeks, and that most would be designed primarily for adults, although some are open to children.
"We are following up our initial community service courses which were quite well received during the first semester of this school year with fourteen more classes which we hope will be of interest to a wide variety of area citizens," Dean Bint said. "There will be everything from knitting to oil painting and from trampoline acrobatics to choral singing," he continued. "any anyone interested in anything we have to offer is urged to register and participate in one or more of these classes. Each course will carry a small tuition fee to cover the basic costs of producing it," he said.

ST. FRANCIS CATHOLIC CHURCH
The theme for the masses in area churches this week will be the presentation of Our Lord. Just as the Holy Spirit revealed the divinity of the infant Jesus to Simeon and Anna, God reveals himself himself to us in everyone we meet and in the glory of His Creation.
Just as for the two old people in the Gospel, God's reality becomes the most important thing in our lives if we truly walk in the Spirit. All pettiness and selfishness disappear in the light of love and self-denial which the presence of God brings. We must live as Simeon and Anna did for the coming of God in our lives - for when God gets an invitation from us to come into our hearts, the old world of materialism becomes unimportant and we begin to grow into the mature Christians God wants us to be.

Man Arrested For Harassing Phone Calls

Friday morning, about 8:10, a little excitement broke loose in downtown Eastland.

Earlier in the morning a young Cisco man was arrested for making harassing telephone calls. He had been brought to the Eastland County Jail where he was held until time to go before the justice of the peace.

As his rights were being read to him by the judge he fled from the room and ran down the street.

Eastland Fireman Ronnie

White knew who he was and that he was wanted by the police so he apprehended him. He is now in County Jail under bond and charged with fleeing from an officer and making harassing phone calls.

Forrest L. Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tucker, was promoted to the rank of Sergeant on January 1, 1975. Sgt. Tucker is serving in the United States Air Force and is presently stationed at Fallon, Nevada.

The 575,000 kilowatt Unit #1 at the new lignite coal-fired Monticello generating station is now in operation. Right behind it and still under construction is Unit #2, which will have the same capacity.

Introducing Monticello: The newest in a whole new generation of power plants.

The first 575,000 kilowatt generating unit at the new Monticello power plant near Mount Pleasant, Texas, is now in service.

Monticello is the second lignite plant Texas Electric has built in cooperation with two other electric companies. The first, Big Brown, is near Fairfield and has been in operation for three years now.

These lignite plants are an important part of Texas Electric's system. We're building them because new supplies of natural gas and oil, our traditional fuels, are hard to get and extremely expensive.

In 1975, about 20% of our total generation will be fueled by lignite coal. By 1980, we'll add two other units at Monticello and four at a new site near Martin Lake. Lignite will then account for almost one-half of our total generation.

Power plants that use lignite fuel are much more costly. But lignite itself is less expensive than other fuels. Its use will help us keep the price of electricity from increasing as much as it would if we tried to depend on expensive new supplies of natural gas and oil.

At Texas Electric we're continuing the orderly development of our power system so that you'll continue having the electricity you need.

New lignite plants like Monticello are helping do the job.

Cattlemen's Association Organized In Eastland County

Thursday evening, Jan. 30, marked the organization of the Eastland County chapter of the Independent Cattlemen's Association (ICA). Around National Bank of Cisco to here directors of the Taylor and Nolan County chapters of ICA tell about their experiences with the ICA, and the effect they feel it can have on the state, and eventually the nation.

Visiting Eastland County, and helping to organize it, were Boyce Lynn, a director of Taylor County; Ray Booth, chairman of the Sweetwater-Nolan County chapter of ICA; Mrs. Liz Johnson, Mrs. Sue Lynn, Sonny Springer, and Don Moore.

T.A. Cunningham is the present President of the ICA and one of the primary driving forces behind it. He visited Nolan County in mid-November and organized a chapter the very night he visited. But the men of Nolan County didn't take Mr. Cunningham at face value, they checked his background thoroughly before inviting him to speak.

Don Moore, the main speaker at Thursday night's meeting, laid the facts on the table when he stated that cattlemen have known for some time that, in order to survive, they need an organization. The small organizations which have been developed have not been effective simply because of a lack of membership. The men and women in Washington listen to the groups who have a large membership and support behind them. Mr. Moore reminded the audience about how effective labor unions have been, largely because they have huge memberships backing them. All of the visitors to Eastland County have heard Mr. Cunningham speak and know that he is the kind of highly successful businessman who can talk to Congressmen and get his point across. Mr. Cunningham is also dedicated to the interests of the ICA as shown in the fact that he, along with several others, donated $10,000 each to get the ICA started.

As one of the first steps on the ICA, Mr. Cunningham and some others did some investigating to find out why the price of cattle is so depressed. They found that imported beef is about twice what USDA is reporting it to be. Last year USDA reported 1,312,000,000 pounds of imported cattle, but investigation by the ICA shows that the actual figure on imported cattle is more like 2,668,297,000 pounds.

The ICA apparently has the facts and figures to substantiate their claim because during their trip to Washington they were able to convince Senator Bentsen that the ICA's figures were closer to the truth. (A Senator Bentsen did some investigating of his own before accepting the truth about what the ICA is saying.)

Mr. Moore touched upon some of the legislation that has been before Congress, and will probably be before it again, such as the Federal Land Use Legislation which failed to pass by only four votes last year. As the legislation now stands, much of it is detrimental to farmers and ranchers. It is to get legislation favorable to the cattlemen and ranchers that a large organization is needed. The basic function of the ICA is to find out what cattlemen need and try to get it for them. The county organizations will be the ones to give suggestions to the state and the state will take it up with Washington.

Right now, the counties are joining on a donation basis and dues are what each man or woman feels he can afford. Regular dues will probably be set after 60 percent of the counties in Texas join the organization. The county keeps 10 percent of the dues and sends 90 percent of them to the state headquarters in Goliad.

It is interesting to note that, out of all the people connected with the ICA, there are only three salaries paid in the entire state. These salaries go to three clerks who work in the state headquarters offices. The other money is used for large, but necessary expenses such as the trip to Washington.

Temporary officers and directors were elected Thursday night. Chairman is Jim Choate of the First National Bank of Eastland; vice-chairman is Bill Harrison; secretary is Charles

Commission To Begin Taking Claims Monday

The Texas Employment Commission will begin taking claims for extended unemployment benefits February 3, 1975, it was announced today.

Unemployed persons who have filed initial claims for benefits within one year prior to January 26, 1975, and who have exhausted those benefits, are eligible to file a claim.

Payments will be made at the same rate as for regular unemployment insurance, but the total extended benefits will equal only 50 per cent of regular benefits. However, a new federal program may pay extended benefits in the same amount as regular extended state benefits.

Persons claiming unemployment insurance benefits as ex-servicemen or ex-Federal employees are also eligible for these extended benefits.

Extended benefits are available only so long as the rate of unemployment remains at levels specified by law.

Claimants who file for extended benefits on or before February 19 may file claims backdated to include January 26, 1975, if they meet the usual requirements for drawing unemployment insurance.

Claims for extended benefits may be filed at the nearest Texas Employment Commission office.

Clark; and treasurer is Grover Hallmark of the Eastland National Bank.

A number of the people present Thursday evening now have in their possession a membership roster which is similar in form to a petition. These people will be enrolling members for ICA. If you didn't make it to the first meeting, sign up now as a member and be sure to make it to the second meeting. Any of the officers will be sure to have a membership roster, or give them a call and they can probably tell you several people who do have one. Each of the banks will have a roster in their building and the Cisco Press will also be signing up members.

Writing Club In The Making

A writing club is being organized for those of you who are interested in becoming professional writers, but haven't quite made it. Come and join the rest of us in an organizational meeting Tuesday evening, Feb. 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Cisco Chamber of Commerce building.

At the first meeting, as well as attending to organizational items, there will be a discussion of the workshop and contest being sponsored by the Abilene Writer's Guild. Anyone can attend the workshop or enter the contest whether or not they belong to the Abilene Writer's Guild.

The first meeting of an Eastland County area club will also be an informal workshop. Interested people are invited to bring a story, poem, or article they have been working on and share it with the others attending the meeting. If you are interested in entering the contest, bring what you would like to enter. It is always helpful to have a second opinion on anything you write.

The Abilene Writer's contest has four major classifications: adult fiction, juvenile, poetry, and articles. Anyone may submit one writing to each classification.

To learn more details about the contest, and the February 8th workshop, attend the organizational meeting Tuesday evening, Feb. 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Cisco Chamber of Commerce.

BULLOCK ANNOUNCES REBATE SALES TAX POLICY

Bob Bullock, State Comptroller, has announced an additional savings for consumers purchasing new automobiles that qualify under any of the current factory programs giving rebates to customers.

Mr. Bullock, ruling that the current factory rebate programs constitute a reduction in the price of a car to a customer, has forwarded instructions from his office to the 254 tax assessor-collectors throughout the state to accept Seller, Donor, or Trader's Affidavits (Form 40-2.09) that reflect a reduction in taxable value of a vehicle equal to the amount of factory rebate allowed. The Comptroller's decision follows IRS guidelines.

Franchised dealers throughout the state applaud this far-sighted action by Mr. Bullock which will allow consumers an even greater savings on those factory-designated rebate models.

Eastland Civic Theater Adds to Community

BY HELEN WALLACE
Virginia Russell has an enthusiasm that must be contagious. Her enthusiasm is in relation to the theater, and she has passed it on to the citizens of Eastland, as well as those in surrounding areas. Mrs. Russell is the director of the Eastland Civic Theater, and owner of the Bell-Hurst Playhouse, located on her ranch near Eastland.

This outbreak of enthusiasm began in 1965, when the Civic League and Garden Club of Eastland planted an idea in the minds of the people of Eastland. The idea was mostly hope, and not much else at the time.

Mrs. Russell was asked by the two clubs to direct a play, in the hopes of raising money, and hopefully, to launch a community theater. With Mrs. Russell's expertise, her skillful directing brought about a real success.

The three one-act plays presented were sell-outs, and following the final performance, the Eastland Civic Theater originated. The plays were performed in the elementary school cafeteria, so the next item on the agenda was to find a permanent home for their theater.

In February 1966 the group presented their first production in their new playhouse, a converted chicken house, located on Mrs. Russell's ranch. The chicken farm was operated by the late Joe Weaver, Mrs. Russell's father. The hatchery, once echoing the cheeps of baby chicks, was remodeled, and turned into a playhouse. It was named the Bell-Hurst Playhouse, taken from the name of the ranch.

The members of the theater group attended rummage sales, and damaged-freight stores, and found many usable items. The seats, originally at Morton Valley School, were later used at a former Eastland Negro school, before settling down to their third and present home, The Bell-Hurst Playhouse.

Mrs. Russell is not an amateur to the theater. She is a highly experienced person in her field. In addition to taking a master's degree at the University of Texas and having two years advanced study in the School of Drama at Yale University, she has acted in professional theaters, and has served as guest director for the Dallas Little Theater.

She was resident director of the Little Theater of Tulsa, directed at the "Theater by the Sea," at Matunuck, Rhode Island, and has taught for a year in Mississippi. Mrs. Russell has also directed summer theater, and has been the director of the Bell-Hurst Playhouse since 1965.

"The most exciting thing that ever happened to me," said Mrs. Russell, "was my first trip to Europe. I went to Athens and saw the birthplace of the theater, and I've never been the same."

Asked why she contributes so much of her time to a non-paying job of directing, she explained, "We all forget self, and work together to create something worthwhile. People become a part of fascinating situations, and they learn to cooperate, becoming more unselfish. Producing plays brings culture to our town, and you are able to see live theater. The participants are able to see tangible results in a short period of time."

"She (Mrs. Russell) knows what she is doing," said Jack Germany, who has been with the theater group since its origin. He acted in one of the first one-act plays presented, joined the Eastland Civic Theater group, and is still an active member. "She maintains a quality of production indicative of her talent and experience."

Mrs. Russell has written five one-act plays and has had one published. When she directed her published play for the first time, it was presented in a barnyard located on the battlefield of Vicksburg, Mississippi. The spectators sat around on the fence, thoroughly engrossed, enjoying the production.

"We raised and showed registered quarter horses when my sons were younger," Mrs. Russell explained. "We only have one stallion and several mares now. One of the mares had a colt Sunday. We thought that we would name it Roberta Lee, since it was born on Robert E. Lee's birthday."

Mrs. Russell's family came from West Virginia. She was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, but came to Texas when she was just a little girl. "My boys were born in Austin, so they are both Texans," she added. Her sons are John, of Eastland, who is an accountant, and Joe, an attorney in Corpus Christi.

Rangers Sign Eight Players

The Texas Rangers have signed eight players to 1975 contracts, it was announced today by General Manager Dan O'Brien.

Pitchers David Clyde and Steve Dunning, Outfielders Willie Davis and Joe Lovitto, Catcher Bill Fahey and Infielders Mike Cabbage, Leo Cardenas and Jim Fregosi have agreed to terms.

O'Brien also announced that Jackie Moore, who has been the Rangers' first base coach, this year will manage Pittsfield, Mass., the Rangers' farm club in the AA Eastern League.

"We are anxious to have Billy Martin's style of play instilled in our youngsters", O'Brien said. "Moore is familiar with what Billy wants in regard to instruction and will be valuable in that capacity. Jackie will be back with us later, but right now we feel that he can be of great service to us in Pittsfield." Moore previously managed at Jamestown, N.Y., in the New York-Penn League in 1968 and 1969.

Del Wilber, who has led Spokane to two successive Pacific Coast League championships, again will be at the helm there. Rich Donnelly, who has been named the Western Carolinas League Manager of the Year for the past three seasons, will pilot Anderson, S.C., in that league. Anderson replaces Gastonia, N.C., as the Rangers' club in the Western Carolinas League this year.

Joe Klein, assistant to Farm Director Hal Keller, will manage the Rangers' Sarasota entry in the Gulf Coast Rookie League. A manager for Lynchburg, Va., of the Carolina League, a newcomer to the Rangers' farm system, will be named later.

Moore will be with the Rangers in spring training along with Coaches Frank Lucchesi, Charlie Silvera, Art Fowler and Merrill Combs. Also assisting in camp at Pompano Beach, Fla., will be Klein, Donnelly, Scout Dick Gernert, Minor League Pitching Instructor Sid Hudson and Jim Piersall, who will work with the outfielders.

The Rangers, who broadcast on two stations last year, will have a 22-station network this season. WBAP of Fort Worth-Dallas again will be the flagship station. Other stations will be announced shortly.

Marketing Quotas To Be Used

The US Department of Agriculture announced official results of the December 9-13 referendum, confirming that peanut growers have approved use of marketing quotas for peanut crops to be produced in 1975, 1976 and 1977.

Final tabulation showed 97.0 percent of growers voting approved continuing quotas for another 3-year period. The vote was 42,317 for and 1,294 against, for a total of 43,611 ballots.

The total vote in this referendum compares with a total of 43,641 cast in the December 1971 referendum on quotas for the 1972, 1973 and 1974 crops. The favorable percentage vote in the 1971 referendum was 97.4.

Since more than the necessary two-thirds of farmers voting approved quotas, they will continue in effect for 1975, 1976 and 1977 peanut crops.

Peanut marketing quotas have been in effect since 1949. Since growers now have approved quotas for another 3-year period, it will not be necessary for them to vote again before 1977. Under the quota program, marketing penalties will apply to "excess" peanuts of growers who do not comply with acreage allotment. The marketing quota penalty is equal to 75 per cent of the price-support level for peanuts.

Price support will be available to eligible growers who comply with their peanut allotments. The law directs peanut price support under quotas at a level between 75 and 90 percent of parity, with the minimum depending upon supply.
