TEXAS LEGISLATURE NOW IN SPECIAL SESSION

Hoover Appeals For Observance Of The Laws

CLARION CALL FOR RESPECT FOR ALL LAWS IS SOUNDED

Tremendous Number of Killings in U. S. Referred to—Many People Believe Laws Made for Those Who Choose to Obey Them.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Following is the text of President Hoover's address at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press here today.

"Members and friends of the Associated Press: I have accepted this occasion for a frank statement of what I consider the dominant issue before the American people. Its solution is more vital to the preservation of our institutions than any other question before us. That is the enforcement and obedience to the laws of the United States, both federal and state.

Many Municipal Improvements Now Going On

Twenty-Five New Fireplugs, Nearly Two Miles of Water Mains Included in Eastland's Program.

R. L. Taylor, who was recently awarded the contract by the city for laying 4,400 feet of 12-inch water mains, 3,500 feet of eight-inch and 1,600 feet of six-inch water mains, will begin this week pouring concrete and next week will start laying the mains, H. O. Tatum, city manager, stated this morning.

In connection with this work, the city is putting in 25 new fire plugs, the work of installation being done by employees of the city.

The fire truck ordered some weeks ago by the city has been shipped and is due to arrive in Eastland within the next few days.

Installation of a new electric pump at the city pumping station near Lake Eastland, which is now underway, is also included in the city's program of improvement for the water system. This pump will be the second electrically driven pump in operation at the plant.

There also are two gasoline motor driven auxiliary pumps in use.

The work of enlarging and improving the main plant of the city's sewerage disposal system, which has been underway for the past thirty days, is progressing nicely and should be completed within the next twenty days, according to the city manager.

The work being done on this plant consists largely of the installation of the Sims Process of sewerage treatment. The amount being expended will approximate $10,000.

Splendid Publicity Is Given Eastland

A publication that enjoys a wide circulation gives almost half the space in its current issue to Eastland.

The article and pictures cover 10 pages. The editor of the Radford Grocery News makes the comment that it is one of the best issues that has been published. The magazine is issued by the J. M. Radford Grocery company.

Two Judging Teams At College Station

C. H. Colvin, vocational agriculture teacher in the Eastland schools, accompanied by two judging teams from the Eastland High school, left Eastland early Sunday morning for College Station where the A. & M. poultry and dairy judging contests this week.

HIGHLIGHTS OF SPEECH

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN, U. P. Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, April 22.—President Hoover today called upon the press of the nation to throw its influence unreservedly into the fight for law enforcement.

He asked for a quickening of the public conscience on the whole problem of lawlessness. He represented prohibition enforcement as merely a part of the problem, declaring that only 8 per cent of felony convictions last year came from that source.

"Its solution," he said, referring to the problem of law enforcement, "is more vital to the preservation of our institutions than any other question before us."

"If law can be upheld only by enforcement officers, then our scheme of government is at an end.

"No individual has the right to determine what law shall be obeyed and what law shall not be enforced.

"If a law is wrong, its rigid enforcement is the surest guaranty of its repeal. If it is right, its enforcement is the quickest method of compelling respect for it.

"The duty to enforce the laws rests upon every public official and the duty to obey it rests upon every citizen."

The president's address, his first since he entered the White House, March 4, was delivered at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press, at the Waldorf. His audience was composed almost entirely of newspaper editors and publishers, representing every section of the country.

Like the message to Congress last week, President Hoover's address was brief. Its 2,000 words dealt with but the one subject.

Beautification of Section Starting

The city officials are working on plans for the removal of the unsightly rubbish from the grounds in the eastern part of the city near the Leon river bridge.

There are also a number of "squatters" on these grounds that will be asked to move as the city is desirous of cleaning up the entire grounds.

Joe Welch, of the Welch Tank Company, who recently purchased six acres of land adjoining the city, is improving it. He is erecting cobblestone structures of native stone and plans to eventually build a tourist park and camp there.

BOXING TO DRAW A LARGE CROWD

The series of boxing matches being staged at the Eastland city hall have been attracting large crowds and the program scheduled for Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock is receiving greater interest than any heretofore scheduled.

A feature will be between Ed T. Cox Jr., of Eastland, who weighs 200 pounds, and Billie Jenne of Carbon, who weighs 240 pounds, and a fast and furious battle is anticipated.

No admission is charged for these bouts, but a free-will offering is taken.

German Envoy Is Back From Berlin

PARIS, April 22.—Dr. Hjalmar Schacht returned from a hurried trip to Berlin at 2:33 p. m. today with the fate of the reparations conference depending on whether he will modify his attitude sufficiently to permit negotiations to continue.

Dr. Schacht's spokesman insisted that he had not brought back a new German proposal after conferring with members of the cabinet in Berlin, and had never intended to bring one back. He expressed hope, however, that the delegates would not declare the conference ended.

Faces Charge in Millionaire's Death

It was no gentle push, but a powerful, smashing blow that felled Arthur Morgan Smith, Cleveland millionaire, so that he died later of a fractured skull. So said a witness for the state when Samuel E. Bell, wealthy Baltimore oil man, was released in $10,000 bail to await action of a grand jury on a charge of manslaughter. Here you see Bell, derby in hand, leaving Homicide Court in New York.

THRILLING SCHEDULE FOR MAVS

Eastland Gridsters Will Invade Sweetwater on Sept. 28 to Open Season—Mineral Wells Gabe on Turkey Day.

A feast of games will be served up to the eager fans of Eastland next fall.

The Mavericks' official schedule, completed at the recent session of the Oil Belt district chiefs, provides for nine conference games as there are now 10 members of the district and each team will meet all the others.

First official game will be played on Sept. 28 and from then until Thanksgiving day, the Red and Black machine will play each week with the exception of one open date.

Sweetwater, one of the new members of the district, will usher in the season. This game will be played away from home. Then come Ranger and Breckenridge, then an open date, to be followed by Big Spring, Brownwood, San Angelo, Abilene, Cisco and Mineral Wells.

The schedule, as announced by Supt. Bittle, follows: Sept. 28—At Sweetwater. Oct. 5—At Ranger. Oct. 12—Breckenridge at Eastland. Oct. 19—Open. Oct. 26—Big Spring at Eastland.

Nov. 2—At Brownwood. Nov. 9—At San Angelo. Nov. 16—Abilene at Eastland. Nov. 23—Cisco at Eastland. Nov. 28—Mineral Wells at Eastland.

Battle In Mexico May Be Held Soon

JUAREZ, Mex., April 22.—A force of 12,000 federals commanded by General Juan Andres Almazan moved westward from Casas Grandes today for a decisive assault on the rebel armies concentrated in the State of Sonora.

Almazan's troops expected to engage the rebels at the western end of Pulquito Pass, near the Chihuahua-Sonora boundary. The pass was reported to have been mined with 500 pounds of nitro-glycerin, carried away from here by the rebels when they fled before the advancing federals.

Eastland Man to Be Instructor in Univ. of Illinois

A high honor has been bestowed upon James Isbell of Eastland who has been tendered a teaching fellowship at the University of Illinois.

This recognition is extended because of his high scholarship at the University of Arkansas where he will graduate next month. Young Isbell, a graduate of Eastland High school, was on the honor roll throughout his four years here, and has been an honor man throughout his university career.

He will receive his bachelor of arts degree this spring and then will take up graduate work at the University of Illinois, one of the greatest educational institutions in the United States, and he will be an instructor in languages.

The fellowship provides a handsome salary to the brilliant young man, who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Isbell. His younger brother, Harris, is a sophomore in pre-medical work in the University of Arkansas and his sister, Miss Elizabeth, is a sophomore in the University of Texas.

FLASHES

By United Press. NACOGDOCHES, Tex., April 22.—Rats are believed to have started a fire which destroyed the $12,000 high school building at Chireno, 17 miles east of here, Sunday night. The fire consumed all the school records, the school library and all equipment. Arrangements were made today to use the churches of the town for the balance of this school term.

NATCHITOCHEs, La., April 22.—Surprised while in the act of robbing the safe of a local grocery store early today, three unidentified bandits escaped after a running gun battle with two policemen.

VERNON, Tex., April 22.—Verner Donohoe faced 25 years imprisonment today, the result of a district court jury decision yesterday when he was found guilty of murdering Herman Walden in February. Walden's body was found in the Minnas creek breaks Feb. 15.

DALLAS, April 22.—A joint quarterly conference tonight of Methodist Episcopal Churches, South, will open the convention of the Dallas district of the North Texas conference. More than 1,000 clergymen and laymen representing 25 churches will be here tomorrow.

METHODIST REVIVAL IS BEGINNING

Tennessee Preacher Will Deliver His First Sermon Tonight—Morning Services As Well As Evening Services Each Day.

Dr. E. P. Anderson, pastor of the First Methodist church of Springfield, Tenn., will arrive in Eastland on the Texas & Pacific "Sunshine" this afternoon for the purpose of conducting a two weeks revival meeting at the local Methodist church.

Dr. Anderson is one of the leading pastors and evangelists of the country, but has never been in Texas before. He has served as a delegate to the Methodist General conference.

During the revival, which opened last night with a sermon by the pastor, the Rev. George W. Shearer, services will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning and at 8 o'clock in the evening, Dr. Anderson speaking at both hours. The choir will be led by Mr. Pierce.

Lower Rating For 7 Dairies Here Possible

Six Are Grade D and One Is Grade C Though All Are Listed At Present As A—Warning By Officials.

There are six Grade D dairies in Eastland; one Grade C and three Grade A, declared H. E. Hargis of the State Health Department who has completed an inspection visit here.

He is emphatic in stating that something will have to be done immediately by the dairies to deserve the rating that was given them sometime ago or they will be de-graded and given the rank that they are now entitled to.

Jay Phillips, city sanitarian, added that all the dairies are listed officially as Grade A but that if they do not bring themselves to this standard at once, the dairies will be given a new rating and this will be published.

All towns in Texas having the standard milk ordinance are being rated by M. M. Miller, United States government inspector. There are over 60 such towns in the State and if the situation here is not improved, Mr. Hargis said that Eastland was likely to rank about sixtieth. The city received publicity earlier that was very favorable and he urged that the publicity that will come from the U. S. department official's list will likewise be favorable.

Sinclair Rehearing Refused by Court

WASHINGTON, April 22.—One of Harry Sinclair's few remaining chances for evading a three months jail sentence for contempt of the Senate faded today when the Supreme court refused him a rehearing of the case in which it decided two weeks ago that he was properly convicted.

That's One Way To Discourage 'Em

LAGRANGE, Texas, April 22.—A robbery attempt in the Morgan Mercantile Company store here frustrated Sunday night when Willie Morgan, a member of the firm, shot and wounded Charles Randall, who claims residence in San Antonio. One pellet from Morgan's shotgun struck Randall in the leg. He was arrested and placed in jail.

WEST COLUMBIA, April 22.—A joint funeral was to be held today for three West Columbia citizens who were caught in an undertow and drowned at the mouth of San Bernard river, twenty miles south of here, Sunday.

MESSAGE OF DAN MOODY IS CONCISE

Governor Submits a Number of Topics to Lawmakers in a Brief Communication Today.

AUSTIN, April 22.—A resolution calling on Senators Morris Sheppard and Tom Connally to oppose the confirmation of former Gov. O. B. Colquitt as member of the railroad mediation board was offered at the opening of the special session of the 41st Legislature this afternoon by Rep. S. E. Barnett of Greenville.

Colquitt's confirmation is opposed on the ground that he is not a Democrat and that the place on the board held by former Gov. Neff belongs to a Democrat under the non-partisan board system.

Colquitt was a leader of the "Hoovercrats" in Texas in the last general election.

The resolution will be acted upon after organization steps are completed.

AUSTIN, Tex., April 22.—The governor's message was a short one. He said:

"To the members of the 41st Legislature:

"It is my desire to first submit for your consideration subjects under which I believe legislation may be passed that will improve departmental economy and efficiency. Therefore, the following subjects are respectively submitted for your consideration:

"(1) The enactment of laws providing for the concentration of the Texas prison system, and the improvement of said system along modern and scientific lines.

"(2) The enactment of laws with reference to the handling of prisoners confined in the State penitentiary, including the adoption of an adequate parole law.

"(3) The enactment of laws carrying into effect the amendment to Section 8 of Article VII of the constitution. (Board of education.)

"(4) The enactment of laws to place the selection of subordinate employees of the State government upon a merit basis.

"(5) The enactment of statutes to abolish the terms of several district courts of the State and to provide that such courts may hold sessions in any county of their several districts at any time to be determined by the judge of such court, and to otherwise simplify and reform the procedure in civil cases.

"Respectfully submitted,

"Dan Moody,
Governor of Texas."

Talk on "Better Homes" Campaign

Attendance at the Eastland Rotary club today was somewhat lighter than usual, many of the members being out of the city.

Julius Krause, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Joe Gibson, entertained the club with three vocal solos. This, with a talk by Earl Bender on the "Better Homes" campaign, which opened Sunday and will continue until April 27, constituted the program for today's meeting.

Earl Bender, acting in the stead of Pres. Joseph M. Weaver, who is absent from the city attending a Rotary convention in Oklahoma, appointed as the program committee for next week's meeting, A. H. Furse, Bill Gupton and Earl Johnson.

Attention was called to the fact that the meeting two weeks from today would be during National Music week and the president appointed Jack Knox, Julius Krause and "Jinks" Garrett as a committee to arrange a musical program for the meeting on that date.

McCluskey on the Roll

Rep. Augustus H. McCluskey of Texas is on the house roll. This according to law. Now the contest of former Rep. Harry M. Wurzbach will be taken up at the regular session in December. It will be interesting to say the least. Wurzbach is a republican leader; he is political and personal enemies. There is a house republican majority of 60. Politics is a queer game. How will the jump next winter?

De Sun Do Move, Brother Bull

And now John Bull, speaking through Winston Churchill of the Baldwin government, has announced the abolition of the 100-year-old tax on tea, which has been levied since the days of Queen Elizabeth.

It will cost the Baldwin government in revenue about 6,150,000 pounds to reduce the cost of tea to the consumer four pence a pound by the removal of the tax.

In addition to this the spokesman of the Baldwin government announced the betting tax would be repealed. Britons of high or low degree love their tea. They like to bet on the ponies.

Now tea is to be free of duty and betting on the ponies without tax cost the privilege of all Englishmen.

"De sun do move," Brother Bull. It is moving in America.

Alamo City and the Tourists

According to its chief statistician, San Antonio entertained 1000 more tourists this past winter than ever before in its history.

Winter tourists are men and women in excellent financial circumstances. That is, the winter tourists from the north and the west who flock to the tourist cities of the south and the southwest.

San Antonio should be made the ideal tourist city of the southwest. Nature made it a winter playground. Man should do the rest.

Silver Back on the Job

Bob Silver is back on the job. That is, he is back behind the walls of a prison. He was captured by Houston police officers. His captors will receive a reward of $250 offered by the governor.

Bob Silver was condemned to die in the electric chair. A merciful governor commuted his sentence to life imprisonment. A mother's tearful wail won the reprieve.

Bob Silver betrayed the confidence of mother and governor and all those who interested themselves in his case. When an opportunity presented itself he escaped from prison and returned to his wallow in the mire, only to be run down and captured by the hands of the law.

Eastland B. and L. Stock Widely Sold

Inquiries in regard to the Eastland Building and Loan Association and the opportunities it offers are received daily by M. Collier, secretary of the association. These inquiries come from all sections of the United States.

Many of the letters enclose checks for initial payments on stock being purchased.

This morning's mail brought to the association inquiries from Waterloo, Iowa; Orange, Texas; Kansas City and other places. The association already has accounts in Dallas, Albany, DeLeon and various other towns in Texas and in other states.

FOUR ARRESTS MADE

Only four arrests were made by officers during the week-end, one of which were for violations of traffic regulations and one was a vagrancy charge.

WALTER MURRAY, President; U. D. DILLINGHAM, Vice-Pres.; THEODORE FERGUSON, Sec'y-Treas.

OFFICERS DIRECTORS D. D. Dillingham, W. D. Conway, Hall Walker, E. R. Maher, M. R. Newnam, Joseph M. Weaver, Earl Linner, G. C. Barkley, Walter Murray.

BARBARIC. Michigan is now discussing a new capital punishment law. For many years Michigan's severest punishment has been life imprisonment; now, however, it is proposed to install the electric chair, and present indications are that the people as a whole will vote on the matter soon.

There is one clause in the proposed statute, as now drawn up, that does not make pleasant reading. It relates to condemned women. If a woman, awaiting execution, shall be found to be about to bear a child, it is proposed that her execution be postponed until after the child is born. Then, when the child is able to be cared for without her, she shall be executed.

A GOOD CHOICE. Selection of former Vice President Dawes as ambassador to England is sure to meet the approbation of the vast majority of our citizens.

The post of ambassador to the court of St. James is just about the most important in our diplomatic organization. Mr. Dawes, similarly, is one of the country's most distinguished and able citizens. He possesses a solid knowledge of European affairs, is versed in the affairs of finance and trade that bulk so large in modern international dealings, and is in addition a stalwart American who can be depended on always to keep his country's interests foremost in his mind.

From every angle, his selection is a good one.

Country Roads Call to Many Motorists

With the coming of spring, many Eastland motorists are forsaking the traffic-burdened highways of the county for the less-frequented country roads for their afternoon motor trips and are well pleased with the change.

FIRE DOES DAMAGE. Waco, Tex., April 22.—Fire which broke out in the residence of Mrs. Moody Sunday destroyed three houses and partially wrecked another. The fire started in a boarding house operated

CLARION CALL FOR RESPECT FOR ALL LAWS IS SOUNDED (Continued from Page 1.) is the quickest method of compelling respect for it. I have seen statements published within a few days encouraging citizens to defy a law because that particular journal did not approve of the law itself. I leave comment on such an attitude to any citizen with a sense of responsibility to his country. "In my position, with my obligations, there can be no argument on these points. There is no citizen who would approve of the president of the United States assuming any other attitude. It may be said by some that the larger responsibility for the enforcement of laws against crime rests with State and local authorities and it does not concern the federal government. But it does concern the president of the United States, upon whom rests the primary responsibility of leadership for the establishment of standards of law enforcement in this country. "Law and obedience to law does not distinguish between federal and State laws—it is a common conscience. "After all, the processes of criminal law enforcement are simply methods of instilling respect and fear into the minds of those who have not the intelligence and moral instinct to obey the law as a matter of conscience. "The real problem is to awaken this consciousness, this moral sense."

COMMITTEE OVERRULES PRESIDENT

SENATE AGRICULTURE BODY VOTES IN FAVOR OF DEBENTURE PLAN DESPITE THE OPPOSITION OF HOOVER.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The Senate agriculture committee today voted eight to six to retain the debenture plan of farm relief in its bill to be reported to the Senate, despite President Hoover's objections to it.

The first roll of the committee showed seven to five in favor of the debenture plan with three Senators not voting. Later, two absentees were polled, one casting for and one against the plan, changing the total to eight to six, with one absent.

In view of the President's letters, McNary announced he would be unable to report the bill to the Senate today as planned, but would offer it tomorrow.

The majority in the committee decided that notwithstanding Mr. Hoover's prophesies that the plan "will bring disaster to the American farmers," it would stand by its original endorsement of the project, and let the issue go before the Senate.

The vote was reached after an hour and a half's discussion in executive session about Mr. Hoover's letter to Chairman McNary of the committee, vigorously opposing the scheme.

HIGHWAY SIGNS ARE UP. New metal signs, mounted on 10-foot poles and marking the route of State highway No. 1.

Takes Milkmaid's Job. Science has invented the magnetic milker and has thereby done away with a picturesque agricultural character—the milkmaid. Ralph Stodard, of the De Laval Engineering Laboratories, New York, announces the invention of an electromagnetic milker, worked on the same principle as railroad signal systems and pipe organ controls. It is said to milk cows with uniform pulsations and to supply the regularity necessary to contented cows. It has been found to save at least two hours a day on an average dairy herd, and will do the work of three hand milkers.

Three Probes Started After Air Disaster

Six Killed When Planes Crash—Stunt Flying May Have Led to San Diego Tragedy.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 22.—Three agencies began separate investigations today of the mid-air collision between a diving army pursuit plane and a giant air liner which carried two veteran pilots and four passengers to death in a canyon near East San Diego late yesterday.

Army officials of Rockwell field, a coroner and a civic board began inquiries of charges that the collision was caused by the daredevil stunt flying of the army flier, Lieut. Glenn Howard Keefer.

Keefer's single-seated pursuit plane, rolling from a power dive, shattered the left wing of the trimotored Maddux Air Line cabin ship, and went flashing to the canyon, 2,000 feet below. Keefer escaped from the cockpit of his tiny airplane only to be carried to death when his parachute snagged on a wing and tied him to his crashing plane.

The ponderous passenger ship, shorn of a propeller and its left wing crumpling, rolled and circled as its pilot, Maurice H. Murphy, fought to bring it to a safe landing. With a safe landing almost within grasp, the crippled monplane overturned on the canyon floor.

By United Press. AUSTIN, April 22.—Gov. Dan Moody today announced that he will appoint W. M. Odell of Fort Worth as regent of the University of Texas. Though it was generally reported that Beaufort Jester of Corsicana will be named for the other place expiring this year, the governor said that Jester has not been appointed.

This clears a situation that led to a situation rivaling the Mrs. Gann controversy in Washington for Mrs. H. J. O'Hair of Coleman, one of the regents whose term ends, already had reached Austin for the meeting this week.

Friends of Mrs. O'Hair were much mortified to think that she had arrived for the session and might not be able to act. Despite the governor's announcement that there still was one vacancy on the board, Mrs. O'Hair did not meet with the regents this morning.

Sen. Walter Woodward of Coleman said she would not meet with the board. "All vacancies on the board have been filled. There is no woman member," said Woodward.

AUSTIN, April 22.—Legislators who arrived here this morning for the special session of the State legislature found that they will meet behind barred windows. In former sessions, members have escaped from the legislative chambers when they were locked in to maintain a quorum. Since the regular session, iron screens have been placed over windows through which an exit is possible.

Search and Seizure Change Advocated. BY RAYMOND BROOKS. AUSTIN, April 21.—Gov. Dan Moody, while attorney general "urgently requested members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union to make a campaign for the repeal of the evidence clause in the search and seizure law, the organization reminded him in asking him to submit the same repeal measure to the legislature which meets Monday.

Statements by both Mrs. Claude De Van Watts, state W. C. T. U. president, and Mrs. Lulu Twitchell, state W. C. T. U. secretary, were that Moody as attorney general had asked the assistance of women of the Union to secure repeal of this law.

The legislature recently failed to repeal the law which prohibits evidence secured without a search warrant being used in prosecutions. This bill was killed in a house committee. A bill to permit searches of cars without a warrant and of residences with warrants on "information and belief" died in the senate. About 150 chapters of the state W. C. T. U. in Texas are appealing to their legislators and to Gov. Moody for action on these dry enforcement measures at the special session. At the requestor's office it was said more requests had been received for this than any other legislation. "You are not unmindful" Mrs. Twitchell reminded Gov. Moody,

Helen Morgan Dry Agents' Target

"that it was through your advice and urgent request, while you were attorney general, that we waged an educational campaign for the repeal of the evidence clause."

Mrs. Van Watts asserted the "evidence clause" is being invoked in many liquor cases to evade conviction. "We should untie the hands of our courts and sheriffs, or hereafter hold our peace concerning lawlessness in Texas," she declared.

"She told us brandy was her drink. She was intoxicated. She threw fistfuls of dollar bills at the colored entertainers." So Helen Morgan, above, Broadway show star, was described in court by a federal prohibition agent who visited the New York night club at which she was hostess. She was charged with violation of the dry laws as a part of the concerted drive against Gotham night life launched by Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant U. S. attorney general. She was acquitted.

known as the Bankhead, and United States highway No. 80, through the city limits of Eastland, were erected this morning by employees of the State highway department. Signs similar to these are being put up on the various highways throughout the county.

Storm Takes Lives, Flood Is Menacing

HIGHEST POINT IN HISTORY OF MISSISSIPPI RIVER AT QUINCY, ILL. REACHED—22 LIVES LOST IN TORNADO.

QUINCY, Ill., April 22.—The Mississippi river reached its highest point in history here today when it rose to 21 feet. Fully 300 men residing along the levee district were rushed to strategic points to strengthen weakening levees, as word that the Mississippi was on another rampage—the third of this spring—was flashed along sixty miles of levee front.

Answering the plea of officers here, Adjutant General Carlos Black today ordered out Company G, Illinois National guard infantry of Quincy. The troop was assigned to South Quincy district where the water is within a foot of the levee top.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 22.—Relief organizations cared for thousands of homeless storm and flood refugees as survivors of a freakish tornado that swept through three Mid-South States late yesterday prepared to bury dead today.

The latest disaster of the district was a rankish tornado that originated near Wham in Northern Louisiana, swept through South-east Arkansas and then spent its strength. Scores of injured and hundreds of homes in ruins were left in the path of the storm that alternately dipped and lifted over a 150-mile

PARENTS UNDERSTOOD THIS BABY'S LANGUAGE

"We thought we were going to lose our baby, teething," says a Kentucky mother. "He couldn't digest anything and was getting thinner every day. After one of his fretful, crying nights, I thought of Castoria and got some. A few drops made him comfortable, and after a few doses, he seemed like a different baby." Doctors everywhere recommend purely-vegetable, harmless Fletcher's Castoria for colds, constipation, colic and other ills of babies and children, and millions of mothers know its gentle influence is best. Avoid imitations. The Fletcher signature is the mark of genuine Castoria.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

MOM'N POP

NO. 12513 SHERIFF'S SALE

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXIII

When Harold left Huck's rooms he was in a state of mind that bordered on frenzy, but there was no pity, only relentless purpose, in Huck's attitude.

The boy slipped into his own quarters like a wounded animal seeking shelter. He wanted a drink, wanted to drink himself into oblivion. He did, in fact, take one stiff glassful before an ever-present fear asserted itself, and he pushed the decanter aside. "If I go bloated I'll babble," he cried despairingly. "Oh, God, what will I do?"

He threw himself down in a chair and buried his face in his arms. His struggle might have been physical, judging by the way his slender frame was convulsed. But when the paroxysm was over and he became quiet he also became afraid. He couldn't endure being alone, facing things alone. He was afraid of his conscience, afraid he would rush to destroy Huck, whatever the consequences to himself.

He must do something, go somewhere, find someone, get in a crowd. . . no, there would be no crowd. . . he daren't risk it. He wiped the floor now, trying to keep his eyes off the decanter on the table.

NO. 6632 SHERIFF'S SALE

THE STATE OF TEXAS
 County of Eastland
 By virtue of a certain alias execution issued out of the Honorable Justice court of Precinct No. 1 Taylor county, on the 5th day of April, 1929, by R. B. Ford, Justice of said court, upon a judgment in favor of the Higginbotham-Bartlett company, a corporation, for the sum of Two Hundred Thirteen and 32-100 ($213.32) dollars and costs of suit, in case No. 6632 in said court, styled Higginbotham-Bartlett Company, a corporation, versus J. W. Amyx and placed in my hands for service, I, Virge Foster as Sheriff of Eastland county, Texas, did on the 10th day of April, 1929, levy on certain property situated in Eastland County, described as follows to-wit:

All of the oil, gas minerals and mineral substances from, on or that may be produced from, and all oil and gas leases, lease rights and leasehold estates in and to the following land in Eastland county, Texas, owned by J. W. Amyx, to-wit:

FIRST: 320 acres of land, being the entire Thos. R. Fletcher survey, and fully described in oil and gas leases from C. U. Connelley to J. W. Amyx.

SECOND: 80 acres of land out of the S. W. Corner of James Hannum survey, described by beginning at the S. W. corner of said survey, Thence east 475 feet, Thence north 950 feet, Thence west 475 feet, Thence south 950 feet, to the place of beginning, and being fully described in oil and gas lease from C. U. Connelley to J. W. Amyx.

Together with the right, title and interest of the said J. W. Amyx in and to all personal property situated upon the above land or used in connection with the drilling of oil and gas wells thereon, and levied upon by me, on Tuesday, the 7th day of May, 1929, at the court house door of Eastland county in the city of Eastland, Texas, between the hours of ten a. m. and four p. m. I will sell said property at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said J. W. Amyx, by virtue of said levy and said alias execution.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale in Eastland Daily Telegram a newspaper published in Eastland county.

Witness my hand, this 10th day of April, A. D. 1929.

OF COURSE, THERE WAS MILDRED.

He could always go to her, but she was almost as dangerous as alcohol. She made him want to talk, to tell her everything and shift his burden to her shoulders. If that happened the whole world would come toppling down on his ears. Harold had a painfully clear mental image of just how his father would look when he got that forged check into his hands.

"Why did I do it?" he groaned, but he knew well enough. The temptation had come in a moment of madness, a moment when the play in Huck's room had reached a point where it drove all common sense from his mind. He had needed money. Tried to borrow it. None would lend him a penny. His I. O. U.'s weren't wanted, Huck said he was not to play any more.

That had driven him insane. Stop playing when the game was life itself to him? When each moment he was away from the table was torture? When each card he dealt falling as they were called for while he stood off and pleaded with Huck for a loan was like the sight of his drug to an addict?

"I'll get the money," he had screamed, and dashed from the room to return in a few moments with the check that now hung over his head like a sword.

Huck had known in an instant that it was a forgery. He had been waiting for it, had skillfully primed the boy to the pitch of madness that he knew would result in this crime.

Harold's first offense had been more in the nature of a joke on his father than an intention to perpetrate a felony. The boy had stumbled upon the fact that he could duplicate his parent's signature and had done so more to see if he could get away with it than for any other reason.

But Amos Judson had taken a more serious view of the matter—a stupendously serious view, as a matter of fact. And Harold knew that he meant what he said in regard to it. There had been no more forging on the boy's part, but there was his gambling which finally had driven his father to the necessity of curbing his allowance and the threat of prison if his passion led him into crime.

And now Harold had committed a crime. And Huck Conner held the evidence. He had not cashed that check.

"Damn him, damn him, damn him," Harold gritted through his set teeth.

His cursing failed to ease his mind and finally he went up to see Mildred.

Huck, too, had gone to see someone. His destination was the secret poolroom and speakeasy where he'd taken Harold when he "introduced" the boy to the geegees, as race horses are called in the underworld.

Huck shifted the cigar between his roughened lips, clamped his teeth down on it again, and nodded.

"You'll need Lefty Flint," he said when he saw that Huck was waiting for him to offer a suggestion.

you know? If she falls for you

she ain't no better than any other moll."

"She's not falling for me," Huck proclaimed icily. "But I intend to have her and I don't want you or anyone else talking too much. The police haven't got a thing on me—not even my fingerprints—so there won't be any interference from them unless one of her friends makes a squawk. So keep your mouth shut, see?"

"Who you tellin'? How about that kid brother of hers?"

"I've got a Maxim on him," Huck replied. "What do you think I brought him in here for?"

"I got you," Duke nodded. "Well, what you gonna do? Put this guy Armitage in the hospital?"

"Try again," Huck returned bluntly.

"Well, we'll frame him, huh? A little rest in stir while you exert your influence with the little lady. What's the boy's weakness? Wine? Women? Or what have you?"

"Cars," Huck announced tersely.

Duke shifted the cigar between his roughened lips, clamped his teeth down on it again, and nodded.

"I'll need Lefty Flint," he said when he saw that Huck was waiting for him to offer a suggestion.

"Where is he? In New York?" Huck snapped.

"Sure; right here. Baltimore was burning his shoe leather."

TERING THE STORE HAS BEEN OBTAINED.

One is described as being short and heavy-set and wearing dark clothes and a cap. They are said to have been driving an old model Ford sedan.

The robbers took 34 pounds of boxed candy, 26 boxes of cigars, a number of cartons of cigarettes, ice bags, face powder, nail files, shaving brushes, tweezers, and miscellaneous articles.

Miss Mary Lamb, circulation manager, accompanied the boys on the annual outing.

brothered cloth were scattered gold trays of yellow mints. Tea was poured by Mrs. James Horton, and dainty refreshments were served.

An interesting program was presented during the tea hour. Mrs. Hayes opened the program presenting Miss Florence Perkins, president of the Junior Intermediate Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, and Junior member of the church, who gave a very delightful reading by Edgar A. Guest, "If I had Youth," and in response to hearty encore, an original verse, "The Texas Red Bird," a composition of rare phrasing.

Mrs. Hayes extended a welcome to the honor guests on behalf of the Women's Auxiliary of the church, and response was made by Mrs. Serface in which she stressed Young People's work, which will be featured by the Presbyterian church this year.

Mrs. Serface introduced Mrs. Gill, who gave a most instructive address, sketching Jewish history and woman's place then, and now.

The influence of Jesus Christ in woman's environment, and that woman must live their day and generation as fruitful church members. The speaker further stated the plan of the church, the labor, trials and homes that went into the plan; art, education, musical training, all make the spiritual dispensation possible.

The afternoon was a most delightful one and callers included Mrs. R. L. Perkins, J. W. Thomas, J. H. Pangburn, C. J. Sparks, B. Nemir, Jack Meredith, John Marley, C. M. Hardin, J. LeRoy Arnold, J. T. Tabelman, George E. Cross, Jess Taylor, Joe Driskill, H. M. Pangburn, Miss Mabel Hart and Miss Florence Perkins.

tion, displayed by the children, and dolls dressed to represent the foreign missions.

Joyce Lancaster exhibited a Chinese doll and gave the history of the Chinese girl; Ned Colvin, told of the Japanese, illustrated by a Jap boy doll.

Virginia Garrett gave the history of the negro, showing a negro doll by way of illustration; Julia Ruth Gattis described the South American boys and girls.

The entire program carried the thought of giving the Bible to foreign nations.

NOTES AND PERSONALS:
Mr. and Mrs. E. Stallter arrived Saturday night, after a week's outing, four days of which were spent with Maurice Stallter and his wife at Kerrville, and a two days' visit made in Austin and San Antonio, during which they took in all the new shows and had a delightful time, missing all the foul weather. Mr. Stallter leaves for Midland following his week-end visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graves, who spent part of last week with C. U. Connellee, were accompanied upon their return to Dallas by Mrs. Connellee, who spent the week-end, returning to Eastland yesterday.

Misses Babel Kagler, and Beryl Kagler of Oregon State, who have been visiting in Eastland, left for Mart, Tex., to spend a few days with their parents. Miss Beryl Kagler is doing public health work and her sister, Miss Mabel, has been making an extended visit. They were the Eastland guests from Thursday to Saturday of Mrs. George W. Dakan.

Judge and Mrs. Allen D. Dabney spent Sunday in Comanche.

JUNIOR INTERMEDIATE SOCIETY MEETS:
The Junior Intermediate Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church enjoyed a very delightful session Saturday afternoon, conducted by their president, Miss Florence Perkins.

Following the song in ensemble, "Smile and Sing," prayer was offered by the president.

A duet, voice, "Be a Hero," was sung by Horace Horton, and R. L. Perkins, Jr., with Lois Pangburn as accompanist.

The routine business was transacted, followed by the devotional, with a talk on "Truthfulness" led by Barbara Ann Arnold, and completed with a story, with the same title, told by Ruth Pangburn.

Mrs. E. B. Serface, secretary for children's societies and Sunday school classes was presented by Miss Perkins, and made a delightful address in which she complimented the manner in which the society conducted their meeting, and then spoke of the special line of literature, the children should study in their work, and gave them special instructions where to find these references.

The speaker closed the program with prayer. A dainty iced luncheon was served by the hosts, Bill Bohning and Horace Horton, just before the class adjourned.

Guests of the afternoon were Caroline Doss, Grace Thompson, and T. J. Cunningham, Jr., and members present were Barbara Ann Arnold, Ruth Pangburn, Jewell Hyer, Lois Pangburn, Kattie Lee Cottingham, Annabell Loubaugh, Madge Meredith, and Florence Perkins; Bill Bohning, Roger Arnold, Ralph Mahon, Jr., R. L. Perkins Jr., and Horace Horton.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD DAILY WITH UNITED PRESS

Yesterday's Hero—Guy Bush, Chicago Cubs' pitcher who let the St. Louis Cardinals down with three hits, the Windy City nine winning, 4 to 0. Rogers Hornsby smashed out four hits—two doubles and two singles—in four trips.

The Brooklyn Robins dropped their fifth straight game, to the Philadelphia Phillies, 4 to 1, the game being halted by rain at the end of the seventh. To make matters worse, Davy Bancroft was injured in fielding practice and was unable to play.

The Philadelphia Athletics handed the New York Yankees their first defeat of the year, 7 to 4, in a five-inning game stopped by rain. Lefty Grove, who lost six out of seven games to the Yankees last season, was the winning pitcher and Henry Johnson, who beat the Athletics in four out of five games, was the losing pitcher.

Collecting twenty-one hits, the Detroit Tigers beat the St. Louis Browns, 16 to 9. Dale Alexander, rookie Detroit first baseman, and Harry Heilmann, veteran outfielder, each drove in four runs.

Believe Flyer Is Afoot In Desert

SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 22.—The finding of Keith Anderson's missing plane with the body of only one of its two occupants beneath its wings sent six airplanes flying from Tennant's Creek today to search for the other aviator, believed wandering in the desert.

Pilot Brain, who sighted the plane, said he could not land to identify the body, but believed it was Anderson. The other member of the crew, Robert Hitchcock, mechanic, was not sighted although Brain cruised in the vicinity more than an hour.

SURPRISES IN THE BIG TIME RACE

Boston Braves Tie for Lead in National League—Athletics Look Good—Yanks' Hitting Weak—Cubs Going Great.

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, April 22.—Many postponements, a few surprises and unusual events have marked the first week of the major league pennant races.

The Boston Braves and New York Giants are tied for the lead in the National League without a defeat registered against them, while the Philadelphia Athletics and Cleveland Indians share first place in the American League with three victories and one defeat each.

Bad baseball has cropped out in many games, especially in the National League, where the Phillies, Robins, Pirates, Reds and even Giants have been guilty of some of the worst "big league" exhibitions in years.

The Brooklyn club, beset with injuries and hard luck, has dropped five games in a row and is in the depths of despair. Even Val Picinich, the Robins' new catcher, acquired from the Reds in a trade allowed a ball to roll between his legs Sunday, permitting the Phillies to score one of their four runs which helped beat Brooklyn.

Three victories over Brooklyn hoisted the Braves into the joint lead in the National League, while the Giants have seen action only twice, taking two ragged games from the Phillies, 11 to 9 and 14 to 5.

By all rights, the Athletics should lead the American League with a perfect percentage. The only defeat registered against the Athletics came last Friday when Mule Haas lost two fly balls in the sun and they went for doubles, runners scoring with the two runs by which the Yankees won, 2 to 1.

The A's evaded the series Sunday, when Lefty Grove broke the Yankee jinx which beat him in six out of seven games last season. Rain halted the game in the fifth inning, but not before the A's had hung up a 7 to 4 victory.

By taking three out of four games from the Detroit Tigers, the Cleveland Indians are running neck and neck with the Athletics. The Chicago Cubs have lived up to all expectations in their early games and more and more appear to be the club to beat in the National League race.

Three brilliantly pitched games have been turned in by Malone, Blake and Bush and the Cubs' formidable batting order has been delivering in timely fashion.

After Root lost the opening game of the season to the Pirates, Malone held them to six hits and Blake allowed them but four. In the opening game of the series with the Cardinals, Sunday, Bush gave up but three hits. Hornsby led the Cubs' attack with four hits in four trips.

The poor start of the Washington Senators has caused some surprise coming, as it does, on the heels of their brilliant showing in exhibition games against the Giants prior to the season's opening. The Senators have lost three out of four games.

The Detroit Tigers have won only two out of six games but have been doing some healthy clouting, collecting 47 runs and 77 hits.

The Yankees have failed to muster their heavy attack in the three games played, getting 13 runs, but only 18 hits.

The Pirates have scored only 12 runs in four games and to add insult to injury have made 10 errors, being the principal offender in this respect.

Sam Gray, St. Louis Browns' star right-hander, is the first pitcher to turn in two victories. Gen. Crowder, his teammate, was pounded out of the box Sunday by the Tigers when he attempted to win his second game.

Taft's Niece Weds Britisher

Wearing an ivory satin wedding gown, a replica of the dress worn by her grandmother, Mrs. Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, at President William Howard Taft's inaugural ball, 20 years ago, Miss Anna Taft Inghalls of Cleveland, was married to Rupert E. L. Warburton of London, England, in Cleveland recently. The young couple, pictured here, met when Miss Inghalls was touring Europe two years ago. She is a grand-niece of Chief Justice Taft and a sister of David S. Inghalls, assistant secretary of the navy in charge of civil of Cisco, is living.

NEW TEST TO START THIS WEEK

J. Frank Champion, Conway Bros. Pay $25,000 for Tract.
Sale of the J. T. Simmons lease, 10 miles east of Eastland, was announced Saturday by Harry Atwood.

The lease consists of 160 acres with two wells, the combined production of which is 32 barrels daily.

J. Frank Champion, former superintendent of the Prairie Oil & Gas company, W. D. Conway and A. E. Conway purchased the lease.

The lease was owned by Atwood, Bill Morris and others. The sale price was announced at $25,000 cash.

Champion purchased a one-half interest and the Conway brothers one-half.

The Simmons adjoins the Fox lease on which John M. Ghoslen et al. have several barrels daily production.

The Ghoslen interests now have a well going down on the Fox. It had reached a depth of 600 feet Saturday.

Champion and associates will drill up the Simmons farm. Atwood et al. will start a well for the new owners immediately.

AGED CISCOAN FELICITATED ON LONGEVITY

CISCO, Texas, April 21.—Though a slight physical indisposition which relatives feared to aggravate interfered with the birthday reception planned for Dr. W. E. Mancill, 91-year-old Cisco pioneer physician, Friday evening, April 19, the venerable Ciscoan was feeling well Saturday, happy in a multitude of congratulations upon his long and successful life.

Dr. Mancill was born in Covington county, Alabama, on April 19, 1838, the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Mancill. He left his Alabama home in 1870 after serving in the ranks of the Confederate army throughout the Civil War, first as a member of Company "B" of the 18th Alabama regiment and later as a lieutenant in Brady's cavalry.
