

Eastland Halloween Benefit Is Part Of Widespread Project

Eastland Echoes

By Casey

THOUGHT FOR TODAY: "Too bad there are more people who care about who writes their songs than their laws."—J. W. Raper.

As we drove back from Gorman the other night, after the Eastland Mavs took the Panthers 21-0, we remarked to Norm Wright: "Seems that as many or more Eastland people are there than Gorman people." "At least it looked that way," he replied, "there was a great crowd of homefolk who followed the Mavericks down there to cheer them on to a win."

Then we suggested: "You know, it's a fine thing for a town to back its team that way. It's loyalty to a home organization. And that can become a trend, extending to others, as well." Said he: "Right!" — It's something to ponder — and follow through on.

Other day, in the session in which the Chamber of Commerce gave retiring President Virgil Seabery a pretty clock as an appreciation token, we suggested: "It has a face on both sides, Virgil, and that way you can tell the time whether you're coming or going." "Fine," he said, grinning, "because these days occasionally it's hard to make sure which you're doing."

We've had about the prettiest autumn we ever saw. It has hit the peanut farmers just right. Those engaged in other agricultural pursuits have wanted some moisture. There's an old saying (If we recall it rightly) that what's one man's meat is another man's poison; also, "It's an ill wind —"

Some have suggested that in the football season college is a fool deal.

Don't forget to have a bit of change about the place Halloween night to give for milk for hungry children in the Christian Overseas Relief Program. The Y group is spearheading the collection on that occasion, and you'll be contacted.

Eastland's Halloween CROP Trick-or-Treat project, sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y girls, is part of a huge Halloween benefit for hungry children of the world.

At latest count 77 towns and cities in 63 Texas counties have organized for this unique Halloween.

Young people here and throughout the state will canvass local neighborhoods, not for themselves, but in a "trick-or-treat" project for hungry children overseas.

The project is sponsored by the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) in cooperation with various state groups such as the Council of United Church Women, United Christian Youth Movement, local church councils, churches, and ministerial associations. In Dallas, the project is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Dates of the canvass vary in each community but are limited to an evening beginning Saturday, October 29, with most communities — including Eastland — deciding upon Halloween, October 31. Fort Worth youth are planning their drive on November 15.

Young people from the Eastland schools will meet together, conduct a house-to-house adult-supervised canvass, return to their central meeting place turn in the money and then go to the P-TA carnival at the gymnasium. Each youth canvasser will be identified with CROP container bands and other official CROP literature. In Pharr, Texas, girls are planning a bake sale, the boys a "slave" work sale.

Proceeds from these state canvasses will go primarily to distribute surplus powdered milk overseas. Each dollar received will distribute at least $20 worth of government-donated milk; thus, 2,000 cups of milk can be "purchased" for just one dollar.

In addition, Texas will raise enough money to purchase a half carload of powdered whole milk. This is not available as a surplus commodity and will cost upwards of $6,000. It will be sent to Korean hospitals for advanced cases of tuberculosis. Distribution of surplus milk will be carried on throughout the Orient and Near East.

In discussing the project, John Gillies, Texas CROP director, stated, "Here is one way to bring back some sanity to Halloween. Young people throughout Texas are learning that there's lots of real fun in service."

The project resulted in more than $32,000 during 1954.

Bunker Suits To Be Bought For Firemen

Since firemen sometimes ruin their clothing in fighting fires, it was decided definitely at a meeting of the Eastland Volunteer Fire Department Monday night that a fund recently raised through a project of the department will be used to buy bunker suits for those firemen who desire them.

The money was obtained through a boat-give-away project sponsored by the fire department at the time of the Lake Leon opening.

Man Being Held After Theft Of Cisco Pick-Up

Samuel Blake, a negro, is being held in the Eastland County Jail on charges of motor vehicle theft, in connection with the theft of a pickup belonging to J. D. White of Cisco. He was arrested in El Paso.

Blake was brought back by Sheriff J. B. Williams.

Terracing Grows In Popularity In County

Many landowners of this area have recognized the true value of a terrace system on their cropland and are now having terraces constructed or planning to terrace in the near future. Terraces and contour cultivation along with a good vegetative program do much to hold needed water where it falls and in case of heavy rainfall will do much to conduct run-off water to protected outlets in an orderly manner with minimum erosion or soil loss.

Man Burns To Death When Fire Guts Ap't

Ollie Julian (Jude) Davidson, 17, hauler of heavy materials for cash in Co. oil operator and driller here, burned to death in fire which gutted his apartment at 419 S. Lamar street at 10:30 p. m. Sunday.

The blaze occurred in the home of Miss Beulah Speer, retired former Eastland County superintendent of schools, which had been made into a duplex apartment house.

Miss Speer, who lives alone, awoke in time to make her way out a rear door to safety, as the flames had started in the other apartment. She said that she thought she could hear the screams of Davidson in the part of the house engulfed by the blaze.

"I haven't any idea how the fire started," said Miss Speer. "It was going strong when I woke up."

Eastland Volunteer Fire Department fought the blaze for 2 1/2 to 3 hours to make sure that it was completely quenched. The house is a one-story frame structure back of the First Baptist Church.

The alarm was turned in by Howard Bradford of the night police.

"The last time I saw Mr. Davidson," said Miss Speer, "was about 9 o'clock Saturday night. He said that he was going down town to get a sandwich and a cup of coffee and, also, that he planned to go to Lake Leon — as he was a fisherman — and run his hooks' Sunday morning. I wasn't awakened by his returning to his apartment."

Here's One For The Book! Rampaing Wheel Bounds High Into Air, Crashes Ambulance

Ben Hamner, as president of the Texas Funeral Directors Association, gets around considerably but he's never before heard of the type of accident that happened to his ambulance.

Here's what took place: Howard Upchurch and F. N. Wilhite of Hamner Funeral Home — with Mr. Upchurch driving — had taken the body of Ollie Julian Davidson, who lost his life in a fire here, to Ada, Okla., for burial. En route home, while they were approaching a huge truck on an Oklahoma highway, one of the truck's whopping-big wheels came off, some distance up the road.

It headed straight for the Eastland ambulance. Upchurch figured that he had swerved the ambulance out of the way of the stray wheel's path — and especially as a turn was reached and the wheel left the highway. But he was wrong.

The wheel hit a short guardpost at the edge of the highway, bounded high into the air, and plunked down atop the ambulance, damaging it, and glancing on down and crashing a fender. Although worse for wear, the ambulance made it on in home.

Mr. Upchurch says that now he has seen everything.

Star of Shrine Variety Show To Sing Here

Miss Jo Ann Scoles, the picture shown above, will be starred by Moshah Temple's 16-piece professional orchestra, when Moshah's Variety Show performs in Eastland the night of Thursday, Oct. 27.

The event is being staged to boost the Shrine Circus.

In Eastland, the Variety Show will be staged in Eastland High School Auditorium and admission will be free.

Larry McGraw, of Cross Timbers Shrine Club, the organization sponsoring the appearance here, recalls that this is the third year the Variety Show has performed in Eastland.

MISS JO ANN SCOLES

Surviving Mr. Davidson, who was a native of Ada, Okla., are his mother, Mrs. O. J. Davidson, of Ada and five brothers, all living in Oklahoma: Lindsay Davidson of Ada, Albert Davidson of Tulsa, Glen Davidson of Ada, Jimmy Davidson of Norman and G. W. Davidson of Oklahoma City.

He was a member of the Baptist Church.

The body was taken by Hamner Funeral Home, which had prepared it for burial, to Ada late Sunday.

Relatives said that the services would be held at Ada, probably Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Davidson was employed by Irish Drilling at Olney, prior to being transferred to Eastland, about seven months ago.

His mother and brothers drove to Eastland Sunday, upon receiving word of Mr. Davidson's death.

Out-of-town relatives of Miss Speer, who came to be with her Sunday, were: Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Lanier of Abilene, Mrs. Ada Armstrong and son, Jack, of Rochester, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Cox of Rising Star, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hudnall and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bill Hudnall, and Mrs. May Speer of Carbon, Okla. Lanier, Armstrong and Cox are her sisters; Mr. Hudnall is a nephew and Mrs. Speer is a sister-in-law.

Miss Speer was engaged in school work for forty-five years. She was county superintendent of Eastland County for three terms.

This Week's Tilt Last Home Game Until Ranger Fray

Eastland has another game at home this week as the Mavericks take on Rising Star in Maverick Stadium Friday night for their second conference game of the season.

Rising Star lost its conference opener last week to Ranger 45-0 while Eastland was winning its curtain raiser from Gorman 21-0.

Rising Star has lost every game this year with the exception of one in which they defeated Santa Anna 12-7. They lost to May 6-0, to Early 37-0, to South Taylor 12-0, to Baird 31-6, and to Ranger.

It is another ball game the Mavericks are due to win. Not only do the Mavericks have a better record than Rising Star but for once they outweigh an opposing team.

Carl Shelton said he was happy with the results over at Gorman last week but he didn't think the Mavs played their best game against the Panthers.

The Mavericks were given excellent support in the game with Gorman on the part of local fans. There were by far more people there from Eastland than from Gorman. Nearly every seat on the Eastland side of the field was filled by local rooters.

The Mavericks made a splendid show of themselves in their red uniforms and made a brilliant-looking aggregation in comparison to the grey uniforms they have been wearing.

The Rising Star game Friday will be the last one at home until the Mavs tackle (ugh) Ranger on November 18.

Radar Continues To Rake In Auto Speeders

Radar's still raking 'em in. In one day recently — Friday — sixty-two traffic violators were rounded up, in a radar campaign from west of Baird to East of Ranger, conducted by the Highway Patrol.

It was a busy fine-paying time, the past week-end, in Baird, Cisco, Eastland and Ranger.

Rotary Views Grid Feature on Monday

Rotary attended football games, the easy-chair route, and transacted considerable club business previously, when it met Monday at the Connellee.

The meeting was presided over by President Bernard Hanna and Grady Pipkin was program chairman, presenting Harold Reese, president of the Lions Club, who showed Humble films, narrated by Kern Tips, and depicting highlight of the Southwest Conference grid season. The conical film, "What It Was, Was Football," preceded this screening.

In the business session, Henry Pullman and Hank Sims were delegated to attend the Monday night Boy Scout Pow-Wow at Breckenridge. The club funded its financial share of organizing the new club at Decatur, for which Bowie is sponsor.

Guy Parker announced the forthcoming Thursday night free Moshah Temple Variety Show here, sponsored by the Cross Timbers Shrine Club, publicizing the Shrine Circus. The Rev. Harvey Kimbler told the Rotarians that it would be appreciated if those not attending that event would come out for the film, "The Great Adventure," arranged for by Earl Stephens, for presentation by the Baptist Brotherhood on the same evening.

A menu committee, appointed Monday by the president, consists of Charles Freyschlag, Jack Frost and Don Pierson.

Guests at the meeting included Rotarian J. D. Lauderdale of Cisco and Guy Parker's guests, Larry E. McGraw and M. H. Perry.

Attendance Is Vital Keep Full Teaching Staff

Supt. Wendell Siebert said today that good average student attendance is extremely important in keeping the teaching staff at full strength.

He pointed out that while absenteeism, has not been excessive there has been considerable fluctuation — although nothing like an epidemic — and other causes of absences, whereas an extremely low average daily attendance could cause the loss of a teacher from the staff next year, as the attendance under the present enrollment isn't far from the border line.

"It's a good idea to give a reminder about this, as I know our people don't want us to lose a teacher," said the superintendent.

District Card For '56 Announced For Mavs

The 1956 conference football schedule for Eastland in the newly created District 10-A has been announced this week as follows:

Oct. 19 Wylie—Here
Oct. 26 Albany—Here
Nov. 2 Open Date
Nov. 9 Throckmorton—Here
Nov. 16 Clyde—Here

This, of course, is only the conference schedule. Non-conference games will be arranged at the end of the present season.

The new District 10-A is made up of five teams, Albany, Clyde, Eastland, Throckmorton and Wylie. The new schedule calls for two conference games at home and two away.

THE PAVING PROGRAM

It's with a lot of satisfaction that we note the hard-topping of a number of additional streets around Eastland. Our town already is favored with an unusually lengthy pavement and it's certainly fine that it is being strung out farther in the present topping program. Strangers in our midst often, in remarking about Eastland's being a good-looking town, refer specifically to the existence of so many paved streets. So they're good for the town—and they favorably impress sojourners in our midst. All the while, they trim down considerably on the dust in the neighborhoods favored and unquestionably add to the value of property in the vicinity. More success to this program!

13-6! Rangers Roar Past Tarleton State

Seemingly despondent after two consecutive losses, the Ranger Junior College Rangers roared back into the thick of the Pioneer Conference race Saturday night by downing the Tarleton State Plowboys, 13-6, in Stephenville. It was more than sweet revenge for the Rangers who were edged by Tarleton 14-13 in a homecoming tilt last year. The Plowboys then went on to sew up the loop favorites to repeat this year.

Sparkplug of the Ranger defense was Eastland track star J. D. Hansen, who suited out only three weeks ago, and turned in a sterling performance at three backfield positions.

Even though he didn't score any one of the Rangers two touchdowns, his yards rushing in 15 attempts kept the Plowboys reeling through the four quarters.

With Hansen leading offensively, Jim McCurry, the Rangers' sole captain, Eddie Joe James, Joe Rosentritt and two starting guards, Buddy Caddell and Teddy Henderson, who saw most of the action at those positions, defensively stymied Tarleton's torrid ground attack.

Ranger took the lead in the contest in the first quarter on a one yard plunge by Sherman Adcock after his teammates consumed 60 yards in a sustained march. Harold Cartwright, halfback, converted.

Ranger added its second and finale score in the second quarter as quarterback Floyd Hacker flipped a six-yard fourth down desperation pass to W. H. White in the end zone. Tarleton had held the Rangers for no gain on the ground in the three previous plays.

Tarleton also got its single tally in the second quarter with Jerry Flemmons, quarterback, on the scoring end after the Plowboys marched 45 yards. Lonnie Woods, Ranger quarterback, played robber on defence snagging two of four Tarleton passes that fell into the Rangers' waiting arms.

The Plowboys had two touchdowns called back on flagrant rule infractions. Both came in vital third and fourth periods.

Rangers used only two passes during the contest but one was good for the final and deciding score.

The Rangers rolled up 212 yards rushing to Tarleton's 133. Tarleton tried 18 passes and completed 11 for 161 yards.

Saturday night's contest was the first conference outing for the Plowboys and made Ranger 1-1 in the loop race they were defeated by San Angelo last week.

Officers' Training Meeting Is Held For Girls 4-H Officers

An Officers training meeting was held Saturday in the Home Demonstration Office in Eastland for the officers of the girls 4-H Clubs. The meeting was conducted by Miss Julia LaFaye Mason, assistant home demonstration agent.

The characteristics of a good officer were named and discussed by the girls. Different officer groups worked out the problem given them of what their officers required of them and what duties they would perform. A correct business meeting was practiced by the girls. It will be used as an example for future meetings.

Miss Mason pointed out that "each officer is a leader in her club and the officer of all clubs work together in training their fellow club members in parliamentary procedure."

Special training was given to the club reporters. The parts of a 4-H meeting to write about were studied by the reporters. Miss Mason gave them several points to use in making their stories more interesting. Each girl wrote a news article about the officers' training meeting for practice.

Golden Glamour Yams

It is the "in" season again—for entertaining that is! For most of our United States, the delightful casualness of outdoor dining is at an end for this year. No regrets for us . . . we can think of many things in favor of indoor meals, either for family or friends. For example, now we can use our best linens, our most delicate china and glassware—things we would never think of taking on a picnic, or even out to the back terrace!

In addition, cooler weather invites more oven cookery—and, with that in mind, we suggest you try this excellent yam recipe with its golden brown coconut topping. It will provide a glamour accompaniment for a baked ham or roast lamb!

COCONUT YAM BALLS

4 cooked medium-sized yams, mashed
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind
1/2 teaspoon butter, melted
1 cup shredded coconut
6 slices canned pineapple

Combine yams, salt, butter, brown sugar, and orange rind. Shape into 6 balls. Add melted butter to coconut, mixing well. Roll yam balls in coconut.

Place pineapple on ungreased baking sheet. Brush each slice with additional melted butter. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 10 minutes. Place a yam ball in center of each pineapple slice. Bake 10 to 15 minutes longer, or until coconut is golden brown. Makes 6 servings.

First Frost Falls Here This Morning

The Season's coldest northern howled into this area Sunday night on the heels of a light dust storm and brought the first seasonal frost here this morning.

Some of the western states were blanketed with light snow flurries and freezing temperatures were forecast as far south as the Texas panhandle.

The front, actually mild, but chilling to the warm-blooded sun-baked Texans, brought no moisture and none was expected as the norther spent most of its force Monday.

With the forecast, "clear and cold," here the past two days, the weatherman has changed the forecast to "clear and mild for Wednesday and Thursday."

The frost here this morning was light and spotty and was not a "killing frost."

First "killing frosts" usually fall in this area around the middle of November, varying a few days either before and after usually.

established a water way to handle terrace outlet water and constructed over a mile of terraces.

Terrace lines have been run for M. S. James, located 4 miles north of Ranger; Irwin Phippen 10 miles northwest of Cisco, D. F. Fambrough, 5 miles northeast of Cisco, and M. A. Abel, in the Staff community. The above terrace systems are now in process of construction.

Mrs. C. K. Miller has recently requested terraces for her farm 7 miles northwest of Eastland, Terrace lines have also been run for Joe Barnett of the Carbon area.

Soil Conservation Service technicians and landowners have also been busy with farm ponds, including making necessary site selections to determine the soil will hold water, that adequate drainage is present and that the necessary spillway can be provided. After a suitable site has been found the ponds are staked, supervision of construction given where needed and the final check is made to determine if the pond is a safe structure and meets all specifications. From this information total yards moved are calculated and this amount certified to the County A.S.C. committee for payment.

Farm ponds have recently been completed on the Burl Turner, Peter Clements Jr., Elemer Berry, Carroll Michael farms of the Mangum - Cisco area. Roy Maynard, T. R. Bryant and T. E. Self of the Carbon area have recently completed farm ponds on their farms. B. F. Hanna and F. M. Spurlen of near Eastland have completed farm ponds. In the Ranger area J. D. Rogers and Veta Peery have constructed ponds. J. H. Reynolds, Grover Cleveland, E. H. Ramsey and M. L. Perdue of the Cisco area have also finished their farm ponds. Ted Hall and S. S. Powers, located north of Desdemona, recently completed their farm ponds.

Mr. Hall also has marked a water way which he plans to establish to grasses in order that he can later terrace his cropland, after the waterway becomes stable. In the Morton Valley area E. A. White has completed his farm pond and Homer White is in the process of building his farm pond and Homer White is in the process of building his farm pond in the Cheaney community, has finished a pond on his farm.

Many people pool their efforts and cooperate in getting conservation on the land.

Of this group the contractors of this area who take much pride in their work and strive to do a top job are to be commended, these men not only do a good job but in a true sense are conservationists. They, like others, see the needs of the land and know the benefits of conserving our soil, plants and water, and that conservation is a must. Conservation is everyone's business since the soil is our only source of food, clothing, and shelter," it was pointed out.

"Supervisors of the Upper Leon SCD and the County ASC committee along with others wish to encourage landowners to plant cover crops. No single practice can do more to conserve our soil and water.

"Plan now to cover up our lands with a cover crop."

Hammers Attend Nat'l Funeral Directors Meet In Boston And Visit N. Y., Conn., Washington, DC

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hamner and Mrs. Hamner's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Norman of Killeen, have returned from an 18-day train trip East.

Mr. Hamner, president of Texas Funeral Directors Association, represented Texas at the convention of the National Funeral Directors Association held in Boston Oct. 10-14. In Boston the Hammers and the Normans stayed at the Hotel Statler, convention headquarters, arriving there on the 8th, two days before the convention for a bit of extra sightseeing in the historical city. On the way there they spent a day in Chicago and another at Niagara Falls.

Mr. Hamner had been invited to serve on the national committee on resolutions at the convention and he headed a delegation of 24 Texans at the convention. An outstanding phase of the convention program, for both Mr. and Mrs. Hamner, was a talk by a Boston citizen, Herbert Philbrick of TV fame in the current and popular series "I Led Three Lives."

The Hammers and the Normans left the convention to go to Westport, Conn., to visit friends and got out of Connecticut, leaving there at 5 p.m. Friday, Oct. 14, just ahead of the floods—and as it turned out, just in time, too, because the trains were stopped between 12 and 1 a.m. the next morning because of high water.

Remember Passing Events—
... like the first dime you ever made, the winning touchdown by the home team or the tears at high school graduation? Yes, we do, just little things and trival, but how they do linger in our memories! And we remember the big events, too, like the Texas City explosion, last June's hail storm in Eastland or the more recent tropical hurricanes on the coast. These familiar disasters pose another question, who pays for them? That's insurance. Don't get caught without it.
