BRADY CENTER POINT

Safe Blown in Brady, Another Safe Blown in Placid, Bank Robbed in Rochelle—One Gang is Pursued by Citizens.

By United Press.
BRADY, Tex., Jan. 30 — Safe blowers entered the store of M. A. Gainer and Co., and blew the safe, securing about $250 in cash and checks.

Considerable damage was done to the postoffice by the explosion and it is presumed that the same cracksmen blew the safe in the Yates store at Placid, 7 miles north of Rochelle. A night watchman in Placid saw an automobile leave the scene of the explosion and head for Rochelle.

Officers are working on several clues and believe arrests will be made soon.

By United Press.
BROWNWOOD, Tex., Jan. 30 — Two men escaped with $300 after gaining entrance to the First State bank at Rochelle, McCulloch county, early today.

Citizens who saw the bandits in their flight obtained a good description of them and gave chase.

Sterling Welcomes an Investigation

By United Press.
HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 30 — R. S. Sterling of the State highway commission, recovering at his home on the Bay Shore at La Porte from a severe attack of influenza, Tuesday afternoon issued the following statement:

"My attention has been called to the resolution passed by the House of Representatives and the Senate calling for an investigation of the highway department.

"The State highway department belongs to the people and the more thoroughly posted the people are regarding the work of that department, the more beneficial it will be to the department, and to the State as a whole. Personally I welcome this investigation of our department and on behalf of the commission I assure the investigating committee of the cordial and active cooperation of the highway department."

Oxygen Fight to Save Girl May Succeed

Little Child Breathes Naturally for First Time in 12 Days and Firemen who Had Been Giving Oxygen Rest.

By United Press.
PERKY, Kans., Jan. 30 — A blue-eyed little girl breathed naturally today for the first time in 12 days and two firemen who have been administering oxygen to her, relaxed a bit as physicians reported she had a chance to live.

Margaret Brown, 7, was stricken with pneumonia a month ago, and 12 days ago her lungs filled with fluid and prevented breathing. Since then Dean Way and A. W. Schuberg, Topeka firemen, have worked in 12-hour shifts in giving her oxygen in sufficient quantities to keep life in the small body.

Medical science, generally, held forth no hope but the rugged firemen, praying for a miracle, would not give up.

A series of operations to give new strength through the transfusion of blood and the removal of the pneumonia fluid with a long hollow needle aided the child in her determined fight for life.

This morning there was a trace of the old-time sparkle in her blue eyes and her small hands arranged her blonde hair and she asked Walter Brown, her father:

"Daddy may I have a toy balloon?"

Oxygen was given her at less frequent intervals throughout the night until gradually the lungs resumed breathing without aid. The oxygen will be given her in decreasing quantities until danger has passed.

MCLOSKEY CERTIFIED AS WINNER

State Election Board Issues Second Certificate to San Antonio Man in Congressional Race—Majority Cut to 319 Votes

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 30 — A second certificate of election will be issued by State election board to August McCloskey, Democrat, declaring him elected as Congressman of the 14th Congressional district.

State Canvass board decided at meeting Wednesday to allow correction of an error in Guadalupe county returns and to accept duplication returns from Bee county. But the board decided that it did not have authority to go into the election muddle in Bexar county that developed out of the Congressional race.

The first certificate issued to McCloskey gave him a majority of 627. The second cuts this to 319 votes. The error in Guadalupe was 725 but McCloskey had a majority of 417 votes in Bee county which saved the election for him.

Babe Ruth's Wife Leaves Him Only $5

By United Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 30 — Babe Ruth idol of countless baseball fans was regarded so lightly by his wife that in death she left him only $5 of the estate he had built up for her.

The will of the late Mrs. George Herman Ruth was filed for probate yesterday. In addition to the Babe, Mrs. Ruth's mother, her four brothers and three sisters were cut off with a $5 bill each.

The rest of the estate was left to Dorothy Helen, the mystery girl who was proclaimed by the Ruths to be their daughter but who now stands revealed as an adopted child. Dorothy is 9 years old.

No mention was made in the will of Dr. Edward H. Kinder of Watertown, Mass., with whom Mrs. Ruth had lived for two years prior to Jan. 11 when she died in a fire which destroyed Kinder's home.

The exact size of Mrs. Ruth's estate was not disclosed.

She was a waitress when the Babe married her, but the home run king provided for her generously. Driving of cars while intoxicated is highly prevalent, the report says.

W. B. Collier's administration as district clerk is praised. The report in full follows:

Funeral services were held at 12:30 this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Williams, 1019 Pershing street. Burial was at Cook Cemetery, 14 miles east of Ranger. The services were conducted by the Rev. H. B. Johnson, pastor of the First Christian church.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ainsworth, who came to this county in 1876, settling near Ranger. She was laid to rest today within a mile of her birthplace. She had been residing in Ranger for a period of 10 years.

Mrs. Weekes was fatally burned when her clothing caught fire while she was alone at her home on Desdemona Boulevard. Screaming, she ran from the house, a human torch.

H. Ethridge, Ranger grading contractor, was passing the place in his car. He leaped from the machine and tore the burning clothes from the woman's body. He summoned an ambulance and the woman was rushed to the City-County hospital.

She lost consciousness within a few minutes after arriving at the medical institution and remained in a state of coma until her death.

CAN OFFICER SHOOT AT A CAR? ASKED

Jury Unable to Decide Case in Which Coast Guardsman Fired on Auto That Did Not Stop, and Fatally Wounded Man

By United Press.
ELMIRA, N. Y., Jan. 30 — A jury in federal court here today was unable to decide whether a coast guardsman may fire at suspected rum runners. It was dismissed and the question must be passed onto another jury.

Glenn Jennings, coast guardsman, was on trial for manslaughter growing out of the shooting of Jacob D. Hanson, prominent citizen of Niagara Falls, N. Y. Testimony showed that Jennings shot into Hanson's automobile when it failed to stop at his command. Jennings insisted he aimed only at the engine with a view to stopping the car, but several shots broke through the windshield and Hanson was fatally wounded.

Boatswain Frank L. Beck, Jennings' superior officer was placed on trial with Jennings on the grounds it was at Beck's command that Jennings fired at Hanson's car.

ROCKEFELLER DOES US A SERVICE.

John D. Rockefeller's fight to unseat Colonel Robert W. Stewart as chairman of the board of Standard Oil of Indiana is a matter of more than passing interest.

When Rockefeller was in his prime as an active business man he was probably the most hated man in the business decalogue. He was in America. Soap-box orators accused him of almost every crime pictured as an unscrupulous, greedy monster, destroying or degrading all who crossed him.

Yet that is precisely what is happening now. Stewart, deciding the matter, has been elected precisely as industrialists of the old school always acted. Rockefeller, trying to punish him for it, represents a comparatively new development—the development of a system of ethics which holds business men accountable to the public for their acts.

Rockefeller has changed mightily since the old days. He himself has appeared before senate committees, and it is not on record that the senators thought him a perfect witness. But he is different now. He has seen that the old school standards could not exist in a modern age, and he has abandoned them.

We find that during the year just closed, Mr. Collier has paid into the treasury of Eastland county more than $7,500 above the expected and salary connected with said office of district clerk for said year. We feel that Mr. Collier is especially deserving of commendation for the excellent manner in which he managed and conducted the office of district clerk, and for the high degree of efficiency and courtesy practiced by him and his deputies during his tenure of said office.

Concrete Across Taylor Soon Laid

Special ABILENE, Tex., Jan. 30.—The concrete pavement on Highway No. 1, the Bankhead, through Taylor county, will be completed by Saturday night if weather remains favorable. It was announced Monday by W. J. Van London, the resident highway engineer. Southwestern Bituminous Company having the contract, are laying the last 3,000-foot strip of 18-foot pavement on the stretch between Big Elm and Catclaw creeks. Work was knocked off Saturday the crews had reached a point 2000 feet east of the Elm bridge, coming eastward to Catclaw. With the usual 20-day period for hardening, the entire highway will be thrown open to traffic by February 20, eliminating the necessity of any detour from the west line of Nolan county to Fort Worth, Dallas and points east. The only detour now used is that running four and one-half miles westward from Sayles Boulevard, Abilene, to a point one mile east of the underpass of the Texas & Pacific railway. Mr. Van London is also supervising work on Highway 30, in Jones county, for the concreting of which the southern two-thirds of the county recently voted bonds. The job is at a standstill, however, due to a controversy over location of the highway from Anson to the Taylor county line. Until that is cleared up route of the four and one-half mile stretch in Taylor county, north of Abilene, cannot be selected.

YANKEES HEADED FOR FOURTH FLAG

New Men are Counted on to Replace Worn Material

As the first of a series of sixteen articles discussed strength to each of the major league clubs. (The St. Louis Cardinals.)

By GEORGE KIRKSEY, United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The New York Yankees will attempt to win their fourth consecutive pennant the coming season and they are counting on five recruits to help them do it. No American League team ever has won four straight pennants. The Yankees had a chance to make it four in a row in 1924 but failed in the stretch and finished a game and a half behind the Washington Senators.

The powerful baseball machine which has swept three American league pennants and two world championships in three years can no longer go on without replacements. The Yankees need new power to retain their baseball supremacy.

They have added fewer recruits than any other club except the Athletics, but Miller Huggins is confident the man he needs most will be found among the 11 newcomers. The five outstanding recruits are Ed Wells, Gordon Rhodes and Floyd Van Pelt, pitchers, Lyn Lary, infielder, and Sam Byrd, outfielder.

Wells, a tall southpaw who has been up before with Washington and Detroit, is looked upon as a certain regular. He won 25 games and lost only 7 for Birmingham, last year's Southern league champion. He is 29 and weighs 185.

Rhodes, who is only 21 and weighs 144, is considered another likely prospect. He won 17 games and lost 10 for the Hollywood Pacific coast league club last season. In 1927 he pitched for University of Utah.

Van Pelt, another 21 year old prospect, won 26 games and lost 11 for the Montgomery Southeastern league club and compiled an earned run average of 2.37 per game.

Ray Sherid, who graduated from Albright college last June and was optioned to Montreal where he won 15 games and lost 8, and Fay Lary, former University of California star, are two pitching prospects. Lary pitched 37 games for the Los Angeles club last season and lost both of his decisions.

Byrd, a speedy outfielder who was with the Yankees last season, is coming back after a successful season with the Albany Eastern league club, where he batted .371 in 150 games, 65 of his 196 hits being for extra bases. He is considered one of the best ball players in baseball.

Among the other recruits are outfielder Elias Funk, who batted .304 for St. Paul; Catcher Arndt Bergens, who batted .335 for Oklahoma City in 115 games; Catcher Bill Dickey, former Syracuse star; Pitcher Lee Craig, who won 3 and lost 3 games for Oklahoma City; Outfielder W. A. Outen from North Carolina State University; George Burns, veteran first baseman purchased from Cleveland and under study Lou Gehrig at first base.

The burden of keeping the Yankees in the American league race will fall more heavily on the younger players if Herb Pennock, Wilbur Moore, and Tony Lazzeri, three stars who nursed sore arms most of the season, have not recovered. During accidents and unforeseen happenings, the Yankees had lined up something like this: Pitcher—Dengough, Dickey, Nowiski. Catchers—Hoyt, Hendrickson, Pennock, Wiley. Infielders—Zachary, Heimach, Kelly, Wells, Van Pelt, and Rhodes. Outfielders—Byrd, Lary, Lazzari, at first; Lary, at second; Durocher, Roberts, and Burns, reserves. Pitchers—Mensel, Combs and Pashal, reserves.

Hook and Slides

Here's Long Sad Story—Clifford, of Detroit, is a former pitching coach at the University of Michigan who, in his younger days, engaged in three hand-to-hand fights with Frank Gotch. He was chief bathing guard of the men in the Belle Isle bathing guard. He was the man in the ring in Boston who won the championship. He had some comment to make about it to Detroit newspaper men and here is what he was saying: "If Sonenberg is a wrestler, I don't know anything about wrestling. I will guarantee you every day, wed, is in a marriage."

BRUSHING UP SPORTS By Laufer

GEORGE EARNSHAW OF THE ATHLETICS IS THE MOST PROMISING OF MAJOR LEAGUE PITCHERS

When Connie Mack assembles his Athletics at Fort Meyers this spring, special attention will be given one, George W. Earnshaw. Earnshaw is one of the best pitching prospects of the American League and incidentally the apple of Mr. Mack's eye. Last year, his first in the majors, George got off to an indifferent start, but in the closing days of the campaign made good the expectations Connie Mack had for him. Earnshaw is a tall, rangy right-hander, and his specialty is speed. None other than Bucky Harris, manager of the Detroit Tigers, says Earnshaw has more stuff than any of his first year pitcher he has seen in years. Harris blames George's wild streaks on the fact the big pitcher takes too little time between pitches and a smart batter can upset him by a little well-timed stalling at the plate. Last year he took part in 26 games, winning seven and losing the same number. While this may not be anything to throw congratulations over, it remains that he came fast during September, and it's likely he'll still have plenty of momentum when they start the season in April. Connie Mack hand-picked Earnshaw from the Baltimore Orioles; the team that gave Lefty Grove, George's illustrious teammate, to the majors.

SPANISH REVOLT QUICKLY CRUSHED

One City is Only Place Where Uprising Makes any Headway and Warnings Dropped from Planes Bring it to Terms Without Bloodshed

By Emilio Herrera
United Press Staff Correspondent
CIUDAD REAL, Spain, Jan. 30.—Ciudad Real was quiet today with Gen. Orgaz and government troops in control of the city. An artillery regiment which had attempted a revolt was held prisoner in its barracks. The rebellion collapsed last night when proclamations were dropped on the city from federal airplanes that Ciudad Real would be bombed if it did not surrender. Failure of other sections of the country to join in the revolution also contributed to the collapse. The rebels withdrew to their barracks at 8 p. m. yesterday and shortly afterward the majority of the artillery officers fled toward the Portuguese border. Two ringleaders were arrested by government troops as they were attempting to reach Madrid in an automobile. Yesterday's revolution was a bloodless affair. According to Gen. Primo De Rivera, Spanish dictator, uprisings were scheduled to occur simultaneously in several parts of Spain but only here was there any serious move.

CARS STOLEN MONDAY NIGHT

RANGER, Texas, January 30.—Operation of car thieves continued in Ranger Monday night, and as a result two automobile owners were reporting losses to the police department last night. The new Ford coupe, belonging to John J. Boen, route 4, Ranger, was taken about 8 o'clock from where it was parked near the Texas & Pacific Railway depot on Commerce street. R. O. Bray had his Chevrolet coach stolen from in front of his home, 905 Odie street. The car was taken after 10 o'clock, Monday night, Bray reported. The lock on the garage of Walter Harwell, 401 South Marston street, was broken sometime Monday night. Nothing in the garage was removed. Harwell was using the car at the time the garage was entered.

Texas and Pacific Railway Entering Rail-Air Service

In recognition of the increasing demand for unified rail-air passenger transportation as a time saving factor in trans-continental travel, and in keeping with its progressive program along other lines, the Texas & Pacific Railway has entered into an arrangement with the Standard Airlines, Incorporated, which will enable passengers using its trains to or from El Paso to fly between that point and Los Angeles, Calif., Phoenix, Tucson and Douglas, Ariz.

The new service will start on Monday, Feb. 4th. The first west-bound airplane will start from El Paso and the first Eastbound airplane will start from Los Angeles on that date. This will be the first regular trans-continental rail and air passenger service to and from California. Single motor Fokker cabin planes, seating six and eight persons, will be used. New ships have just been received from the factory, and have been built with every consideration for the comfort and convenience of passengers, including warmth, ventilation, observation windows, luxury chairs, lavatories, etc., and will be manned by transport licensed pilots measuring up in every respect to the requirements of the United States Department of Commerce regulations. A limited amount of baggage will be handled for each passenger. Trunks will be handled by express between El Paso and destination. Representatives of the railroad and plane companies will give personal attention to passengers at El Paso, thus making the trip a simple transfer from train to plane, or vice versa. Taxicabs will transfer passengers at El Paso between the air field and the railway station.

Westbound Sunshine Special from St. Louis, Memphis, New Orleans, Shreveport, Dallas and Fort Worth, arriving El Paso 8 a. m., will connect with plane departing 9 (mountain time), reaching Douglas 10:30 a. m., Tucson 11:50 a. m., Phoenix 1:10 p. m. and Los Angeles 4:30 p. m. (Pacific Time), or only eight and one-half hours, including stops. Eastbound planes will leave Los Angeles 8 a. m. (Pacific time), Phoenix 1:20 p. m., Tucson 2:40 p. m., Douglas 4 p. m., arriving

Cash and Carry Pyle Wants To Stop in Ranger

C. C. (Cash and Carry) Pyle, the transcontinental foot race promoter, is endeavoring to route his next attempt over the Broadway of America, and wants to have Ranger as an over-night stopping place, according to a letter received by Wayne C. Hickey, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. This time the hunion derby will start from New York and Los Angeles is to be the finishing point. Kenneth Campbell, Ranger boy, was one of the racers last year when the trek was from Los Angeles to New York.

El Paso 5:30 p. m. (mountain time), connecting with the Texan, leaving El Paso at 7:15 (mountain time), with through sleeping cars to Fort Worth, Dallas, Memphis and St. Louis, with car to car transfer for Shreveport and New Orleans.

The charge for air trip between Los Angeles and El Paso will be on basis of less than 10 cents per mile, with 10 per cent reduction on round-trip tickets, and reservations for seats will be handled by the representatives of the railroad or of the air line in the same manner as Pullman space is arranged for. Collections will be made for through trips at initial points and tickets issued to passengers as soon as reservations are confirmed.

The terms of the contract permit the 10,000 cups of coffee to be consumed by any persons delegated by the former owner of the automobile. HOPE FOR WIDE BONDS

Gov. Moore's Action in Rejecting $175,000,000 State Highway Issue Makes Outlook for Passing House and Senate Improbable

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 30.—(UP)—Little hope for revival of the plan to issue state road bonds was held out today following last night's unfavorable report on the proposition by the house committee on constitutional amendments. Vote against the plan was 10 to 5 in the committee. A constitutional amendment to be submitted to the people must get a two-thirds favorable vote by House and Senate.

The plan voted down was the "last ditch" plan of bond advocates. The original proposition for $350,000,000 as advocated by 17 of Governor Moore's highway advisory committee of 31, was whittled down by a new committee of seven to $175,000,000 of which $75,000,000 was to be used to refund counties and road districts for money spent on roads now part of the state highway system.

Concurred opposition was noted when it was realized by the committee that the bonds will become a charge against property, although bond advocates insisted it would never be necessary to read valorem tax to redeem them. A gasoline tax was the primary means of revenue bonds.

Higher learning but the proposed board of education will make recommendations to the governor and legislature on any proposed additional colleges and in appropriations for the higher institutions of learning.

Mayor T. D. Brooks of Waco and others urged elective county school superintendents.

Out Plan on Regulation

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 30.—City attorneys of the larger cities of Texas with City Attorney Rouse of Fort Worth as spokesman laid before a Senate committee last night a dual plan for the regulation of public utilities. Under it, a state board would regulate investment and fixing the rate to be paid a producing company, serving various parts of the state, designating it as "rate" rate. Cities would retain the right to fix the final rate, but the state board would have the right to change with a reasonable return. By questions, Governor Moore attended the hearing. He indicated general accord with the plan. Attorney Joe Warshaw, representing the Texas Power and Light company, advocated one state body.

State Education Plan is Outlined

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 20.—A concrete plan for a state board of education to supervise the entire educational system of Texas was outlined to the house committee on education last night by Dr. O. H. Cooper, who also acted as the representative of Governor O. M. Roberts. The plan, which would create a 50-member board, would be for the supervision of the entire educational system of Texas. It would include the following: (1) Vicks acts two ways at once: through the skin like a poultice, and (2) By means of its medicated vapors, released by body-warmth and inhaled direct to the inflamed air-passages. Modern gymnasiums will be built for high school at Celeste. ALICE — New city hall will be opened soon. CENTER — Hotel extensively remodeled.

M. W. A. Installation. Special invitation to R. N. A. 7:30 p. m., in M. W. A. Hall.

DELIGHTFUL FEATURES ADDED:

The Thursday Afternoon Club will present a full and rich program at their session tomorrow afternoon in the Community Clubhouse, one that has been enriched along its original announcement with special musical phases.

Mrs. James Horton has changed the choice of operas to be read, and instead of that first announced will present the operetta, "The Sunset Trail," (Cadmian) reading groups between illustrations by a violin quartette, composed of Mrs. Wilda Drago Caton, Mrs. Grady Pipkin, Miss Dorothy McCanlies, and Miss Eda Lindsley.

Mrs. Charles G. Notron will be at the piano for the musical illustration of the "Sunset Trail," and Mrs. Drago Caton, will give a violin solo with music by Logan. There will also be a voice solo by Mrs. Grady Pipkin.

The value of this program is unusual and will mark a red letter day in the club's calendar.

CHORAL CLUB:

The Eastland Community Choral Club will hold its usual meeting Friday evening, at seven o'clock in the Community Clubhouse, and it is desired that every Eastland member be present.

This Choral Club affords a fine opportunity to study music and choral work, and is especially of value in this instance, because of the directorship of Prof. Reed, a trained leader and fine musician, instructor of music at Randolph college in Cisco, who gives his services without pay, which he expects to receive only in the attendance and interest of the Club members.

There is nothing that so builds up a town, struggling out of the smaller class into the city class as the number of its arts and public benefits.

In time, in giving these choral concerts throughout this section out of the State, or even only in the adjacent towns, Eastland would receive advertising worth while, that would be of great value, and put her in the limelight. So come along to the Choral Club, Friday night. There are no charges.

QUESTION CLUB MEETS:

Mrs. W. E. Chaney entertained the Question Club very charmingly at her residence yesterday afternoon, when four tables attractively adorned with their clever St. Valentine score books and tallies, seated the guests of the afternoon. Mmes. J. M. Armstrong, E. Johnson, Edward E. Freysehlag, W. K. Hyer, W. L. Gupton, Thomas McManus, Mrs. McManus of Keokuk, Iowa, Mrs. Galbreath of Alpine, Texas, and club members, Mmes. J. N. Beall, Alex. Clarke, A. H. Purse, Joe H. Jones, Curtis F.

Cornelius, S. M. Semple, P. G. Russell, Ed Owen, and Perry Sayles.

Guest favor for high score, a pair of pretty linen kerchiefs, was awarded Mrs. McManus Sr., and a high score favor, a hand-painted chintz card table cover, went to Mrs. Joe H. Jones.

A dainty five o'clock tea was served, of chicken a la king on rosettes, hot biscuits, stuffed peach salad, olives and coffee.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks at 2:30 p. m., with Mrs. I. N. Beall.

CHURCH OF CHRIST RIBLE CLASS:

The Bible Class of the Church of Christ, held a brief session yesterday afternoon, as the pastor, Rev. H. W. Wrye, was on the point of leaving for Abilene, for the bedside of his daughter, Mrs. Cox, who was taken suddenly ill with appendicitis.

Mrs. Wrye has been with Mrs. Cox, the past two or three days. The lesson the seventh chapter of Romans, was handled as an informal talk or analysis, showing the two minds of man, the spiritual and the carnal.

The lecture was a very fine one, and attended by Mesdames R. Rowe, Anna Craig, S. McClenon, White L. Herring, John Sue, L. Harris, and a new member welcomed, Mrs. Mitchell.

The next lesson, will be given Tuesday week as usual.

VOICES AND PERSONALS:

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Johnson of Fort Worth were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Johnson, Monday and Tuesday.

T. D. Hix, of Palo Pinto County, formerly with The Prairie Oil & Gas company, was calling on many of his friends in Eastland yesterday.

Mrs. McManus of Keokuk, Iowa arrived Sunday to visit her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McManus.

Rev. H. W. Wrye returned home Monday night from a visit to his father in Tennessee, who has been very ill, and left the next evening for Abilene called by the dangerous illness of his daughter Mrs. Cox, of that city, who has been operated upon for appendicitis. Her mother, Mrs. Wrye, is with her, and the parents will remain until the patient shows decided improvement.

EASTERN STAR INITIATES:

Before a large delegation of twenty-nine members of the Eastern Star from Breckenridge, and the thirty or more Eastland Eastern Star members, who attended, the worthy matron of the O. E. S., and her officers conducted a very beautiful initiation ceremony for Mrs. L. B. Quam and Mrs. L. A. Thompson at the called meeting of the order, held last evening. Following the regular routine, the chapter served a dainty plate of sandwiches, olives, cake and coffee.

GOLDEN RULE CAMP R. N. A.:

This graceful compliment was deeply appreciated by Mrs. J. P. Tucker (Gussie Tucker).

New Plant For Helium is Soon To Be Operated

By United Press.

AMARILLO. — Operations at the United States government helium plant at Soney will begin about Feb. 1, according to F. A. Vestal in charge of the work here. This station, located about seven miles west of Amarillo, will be the only one in the world after Jan. 10, when the Fort Worth plant will be shut down.

The present unit consists of nine buildings, storage tanks, and equipment necessary to remove helium from natural gas. It will be capable of producing from 35,000 to 40,000 cubic feet of helium a day. The tremendous amount of natural gas required will be appreciated when it is realized that only 1-2 to 1-7-8 per cent of it is helium. The raw gas comes from four wells about 12 miles northwest of the station.

The method of removal is easily understood even by the layman. The natural gas liquefies at a temperature of about 300 degrees below zero, Fahrenheit, while the helium remains a gas until a much lower temperature is reached. The helium escapes as a gas and the liquid natural gas is returned to its normal temperature before it is led into the ten-inch pipe that takes it into the mains of the Amarillo Gas Company.

Shipped in Special Cars

The helium is stored or shipped under pressure. It is sent to concentration points of the army or navy in specially designed tank cars, of which there are only three available.

Each car consists of three tanks, one pyramided on top of the other two, secured together and to the chassis of the car. The drums are about 40 feet long, with an inside diameter of 4 feet. They are cast in one piece two inches thick and are tested to 3,300 pounds pressure per square inch.

For shipping the gas in smaller quantities, steel bottles such as are used for oxygen or acetylene are employed. They are about 180 cubic feet. The helium, when shipped under 2,000 pounds pressure is heavier than air. Special compressors designed for helium or nitrogen are used.

This odorless, non-inflammatory gas, which is the only practical one for use in the big lighter-than-air ships, is also valuable in salvage work where deep sea-diver is used. Nitrogen, which was formerly pumped down with the oxygen to divers, caused a painful ailment known as the "bends" unless the pressure was changed very slowly. When helium is employed men may be lowered or raised five times faster in safety, which was proved during the last submarine disaster.

Woman at 79 Would Sail on Salvage Ship

By United Press.

HADDENFIELD, N. J.—A woman of 79 years is awaiting word from the United States Navy as to whether trials of her submarine lamp have been successful, and whether she will be allowed to accompany the crew of a salvage vessel which will try to recapture a $8,000,000 treasure off the Virginia Capes.

She is Mrs. Emma K. Snyder Rowson.

In 1925 Mrs. Rowson perfected and patented her "undersea eyes," an apparatus installed deep in the hold of a ship throwing a light under water. An inverted periscope enables a watcher to see wreckage for some distance. The Navy Department is now trying her device on the U. S. S. Maryland.

Depending on its success, Rowson has offered it to be used by Chief Boatswain Ernest Becker, of U. S. Coast Guard cutter at Cape May, N. J., who is to lead an expedition to salvage $8,000,000 worth of treasure, including emeralds of the Empress Charlotte of Mexico, sunk in the Merida in 1912. The Merida was rammed 100 miles off the Virginia Capes by the steamer Albatross.

Becker, himself an adventurer, and she has volunteered to accompany the crew on its search for the lost treasure as well as allow the use of her device. Becker said he will be glad to have Mrs. Rowson accompany the cruise if suitable quarters may be found aboard his vessel. He stated it will make experiments and that if the "undersea eyes" are suitable for salvage she will share in the prize.

Cascara is Your Doctor's Choice

When physicians pronounce cascara the PERFECT laxative—why experiment with things that lash the system into action? Cascara, you know, is the bark of a tree. A natural and normal stimulus to the bowels.

The Indians, who used to chew this bark, had no word in their language that meant "constipation!" Perfect regularity is possible today, and to all of us. We have cascara in ideal form; the very delightful tasting candy Cascaret gives us pure cascara. It has helped at least a million people to habitual regularity. Millions of others, unfortunately, have stuck to stronger things and have acquired only the laxative habit. Your first Cascaret will demonstrate how thorough this gentle laxative is, after all. Your next surprise will be the length of time before you need another. Eventually, you'll see that cascaring tends to make the bowels move thereafter of their own accord!

A modern druggist must stock many laxatives, but for your own good the druggist would rather have you ask for the inexpensive little box of Cascarets than anything else.
