Killed and Three Hurt In Crash On Highway

Eastland, Texas, Oct. 29.—The two victims who were killed in an auto which collided with a truck on the highway near Giddings, have been taken to Hempstead hospital for burial. The other passengers of the auto are lying critically in the result of the accident.

S. Fountain, 70, and No. 17, were almost killed when the auto crashed. Buchanan, Gillis Schultze, Ertle Wilson were secured and are being cared in an improvised hospital. The roadside awaiting help was unlighted. Blinding fog from an approaching storm was driving.

HOUSTON, Oct. 29.—Funeral services for Mrs. Wards Maborn, wife of Business Manager Maborn of the Houston Press, were held here today. Mrs. Maborn, 51, died suddenly last night of a heart attack while riding with her son, who was home on a visit from Texas University. Mrs. Maborn had been in ill health for some time but had returned Saturday from Colorado apparently much improved.

Senator Wed 50 Years

Senator Lee S. Overman, 75, for 25 years a member of the United States Senate, and Mrs. Overman, are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary at their home at Salisbury, N. C. They were married Oct. 31, 1878, when Overman was secretary to Governor Vance of North Carolina. Only two other senators—Warren of Wyoming and Simmons of North Carolina—have served longer in that body. Above are latest photographs of Senator and Mrs. Overman.

RANGER STREET PAVING COSTS BEHIND SUIT

Hodges Estate Contests In Court Right of City To Order Certain Street Work.

The suit to stop the city of Ranger from paving West Main street, from Sue to Mountain View street, which was filed some months ago by members of the Hodges estate, Ranger, went to trial this morning in the 88th district court, Judge Elzo Been presiding. Both the plaintiffs and the defendants announced ready when the suit was called.

Work of selecting a jury was started at 11 o'clock and probably will be completed this afternoon. The suit was filed by members of the estate, naming the city of Ranger, members of the city commission, Mayor Thurman and W. E. Burke, paving contractor, as defendants.

The petition cites that "the exorbitant charge" made to pave the streets would place the property at such cost that it would be impossible to realize its possible worth.

The suit had been called for trial twice before but was continued on account of the absence of the plaintiff's attorneys.

SEVEN STATES MAY DETERMINE PARTY VICTORY

Four of Them Probably Would Likely Place Smith Or Hoover in the White House.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON.—Tennessee has 12 electoral votes, North Carolina 12, Kentucky 13, Missouri 18, Oklahoma 10, Virginia 12 and West Virginia 8.

Broadly speaking, they all come under the category of "doubtful" states. By almost any method of computation, Governor Smith needs at least four of them to win the election. On the other hand, it is quite conceivable these seven states might defeat Hoover. The consensus of opinion among political writers and politicians now seems to be that Hoover's chances are bright in Oklahoma, Kentucky and West Virginia and that Smith has an edge in Tennessee, Missouri, North Carolina and Virginia. Even money bets, however, are being made in most of these states.

In 1924 Coolidge carried West Virginia by 31,000, Kentucky by 24,000 and Missouri by 76,900. Davis carried Oklahoma by 29,000, Tennessee by 26,000, North Carolina by 93,000 and Virginia by 60,000.

In these states prohibition and religion seem to be the most important issues, with some difference of opinion as to which is swaying the most voters.

Democrats have been worrying about Oklahoma ever since the Houston convention. Oklahoma votes Republican whenever it likes. It is dry and Protestant. It appears to be sour this year on the Democratic state administration and the Hoover organization. The Hoover organization has functioned more smoothly than Smith's, which has been alarmed by numerous bolts such as those of Ex-Senator Owen and the Tulsa Tribune.

Smith went to Oklahoma to deliver his speech on intolerance and nearly all reports agree that it had no great effect. Some trend back toward Smith lately has been claimed, but Republicans are claiming the state by from 50,000 to 75,000.

Both Hoover and Smith made speeches in Tennessee and Smith's chances were subsequently thought to have improved. Here the Republicans are divided factionally, the Democrats have an effective organization and the racial issue has been dragged in against Hoover. Governor Horton and Senator McCallister, both dry and both re-nominated this year, are leading the fight for Smith. The result is likely to be close.

In Kentucky, which also has the religious issue, both parties are exploiting the race problem. Dry Senator Barkley and the states ticket are warring for Al Smith, but the Republicans are confident and the Democrats only hopeful.

Two or three months ago it was commonly said in Virginia that the state would go for Hoover if the election was then held. Virginia still may be considered doubtful, but there has been a trend toward Smith, according to observers on the ground. Bishop Cannon has been the principal Hoover campaigner, but has been bitterly fought by Senator Glass and Governor Byrd. The religious issue has been worked overtime against Smith and a reaction to it is said to have developed. Many Virginia politicians expect the election there to be the closest within their memory.

Explosion Alarms Subway Passengers

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A passenger dropped a can of some inflammable liquid on a crowded subway train of the Interborough Transit line today and in the resultant excitement 29 persons were injured.

Two were badly hurt and were removed to hospitals, but the others were treated in nearby shops. The train had stopped at the Columbus Circle stop when suddenly there was an explosion and flames shot each way in one of the standing cars. A dense, choking fume permeated the entire train.

He Hasn't the Wings of an Angel

This unusual portrait of His Honor, the Mayor of Newburyport, Mass., was taken the other day at the door of his executive office. If you could see the interior, you would find it furnished with Spartan simplicity. Even the wrought iron grill-work of the door is of plain design, but these things are not the choice of "Bossy" Gillis, who doesn't have the key. The law, it seems, had the temerity to cast His Honor into a common jail, all on account of his having sold some gasoline without a license.

Eastland County Leads Oil Belt Counties In Week's Deep Well Drilling

The sixth Texas Sanitarians' Short School will be held in San Antonio November 7-10, 1928, under the auspices of the State Department of Health, Texas Association of Sanitarians, the American Public Health Association, and the City of San Antonio. A cordial invitation has been extended to city officials, sanitarians, nurses, health officers, engineers, dairymen, lumbermen, civic workers, and sanitation, to participate in the discussions. Jay Phillips, Eastland's sanitation officer and mosquito control expert will attend the meeting.

Alcohol Plant Explosion Costs Life and Property

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.—Two dead, several injured and three demolished buildings were the toll of a blast and fire in the Publicker Commercial Alcohol Co. plant yesterday. The loss was estimated at between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. A blast in a molasses cistern rocked the section of South Philadelphia, where the plant is located. A 100-foot hole was torn in the wall of one of the buildings, in which the plant was located and flames burst out immediately after the explosion.

Alleged Auto Thief Killed and Officer Wounded

WACO, Oct. 29.—One man caught in connection with the theft of an auto was killed and Night Chief W. G. McDonald was wounded in a pitched gun battle between two alleged car thieves and officers here last night. The shooting took place a block from the city hall as the two men left the automobile to enter a rooming house. Officers McDonald and Abbott received word from Temple to be on the lookout for two men who had stolen a car there. The officers met the men at White City and followed them into town. As the men left the car to enter the rooming house, the officers attempted to arrest them and the gun battle ensued.

McDonald was shot through the mouth and Abbott killed one of the alleged thieves. The other made his escape. Identity of the dead man has not been learned.

GRAF ZEPPELIN STARTS ON ITS FLIGHT HOME

Runs Into Storm Soon After Getting Over Atlantic, But Keeps On Going.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the Graf Zeppelin, sent the following radiogram to President Coolidge after the giant airship had taken off on its flight: "On leaving your great country, we beg permission to express our feeling of sincere gratitude for the gracious reception which has been accorded to us by yourself and by the American people."

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The German dirigible Graf Zeppelin was cruising gracefully along the New England coast early today, en route home to Germany on her second transatlantic voyage. The Graf Zeppelin was taken from its hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. shortly after midnight and at 1:04 a. m. its nose was pointed upward and it started its homeward flight. At 3:15 a. m. the big ship cruised over New York City.

From New York City the Graf Zeppelin's course was expected to carry her along the New England coast line to Nova Scotia, from where it will swing out over the open Atlantic on the Great Circle route to Europe—approximately the same route that Lindbergh opened between North America and Europe.

ABOARD STEAMSHIP AMERICAN TRADER, Oct. 29.—The Graf Zeppelin was sighted at 12:15 p. m. Eastern Standard time, in latitude 42 degrees, 55 minutes north, longitude 61 degrees 14 minutes west. A stiff wind was blowing from the northwest with rain and squalls. The wind was blowing 45.

In nautical terms "4-11" is a full gale. The Graf therefore was fighting a wind of almost half force at the hour she was sighted by the American Trader. The position given was approximately 300 miles southeast of Cape Sable, showing steady progress since the dirigible was sighted earlier in the day.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—It was reported today that an American stowaway aged 17 was found at 6 a. m. aboard the Graf Zeppelin while it was over the American coast en route to Germany. The stowaway's name was not given. It was understood he was employed in a law office some place in the United States.

BUCKAROO NO MATCH FOR LOBO

Breckenridge Big Machine Roundly Outplayed in 26-0 Game.

By BOYCE HOUSE.

Gather around closely and you shall hear the story of how Mr. Little proved he could still run and the Cisco Lobos demonstrated, in substance, that the old gray mare is what she used to be. For this is the tale of another good football team—the Breckenridge Buckaroos—gone wrong. They really never had a chance. Only in the closing moments of the first half did they radiate any flashes that would suggest the sparkle they had shown against less powerful foes earlier in the year, when they were rated as a thunderbolt that would crash all oil belt rivals into oblivion. The score of the "crucial game" at Breckenridge Saturday afternoon was 26 to 0 in favor of Cisco. Once more, it was a victory for the "under dog." For Cisco, after the startling tie registered against them by San Angelo, was rated as inferior by one or two touchdowns, to the Buckaroos.

On the first play of the game, Thompson of Breckenridge was hurt and had to be taken from the field. And throughout the afternoon, the big Green and White machine cogs were so sorely punished by the Cisco behemoths that man after man dragged his weary frame from the fray. The only way the Lobos could be put out of the game was by the officials. Anthony, the towering center, was banished near the end of the first half and Little followed him into retirement in the third period. It was a rough game. At that, the roughness was not confined to one side, though the heavy penalties and ejections were.

Cisco was on the aggressive throughout the first quarter but not until the period was ending did their drive develop sustained force. When Boon Magness' punt was blocked, it was the Lobos' ball on the Buckaroos' 32-yard line. Van Horn gained four yards off tackle and Eddleman hit the line on five plays in succession, then Van Horn picked up four yards off tackle to the 16-yard marker as the first quarter ended. To start off the next stanza properly, Little proved that he has not been erroneously referred to as West Texas' most elusive speedster when he made an old-time sweeping run around left end for the intervening 16 yards. He avoided the secondary by the simple method of running faster than they did and was not touched until he had crossed the goal line. Kellogg missed the try for point.

Breckenridge received but two plays were stopped cold, so Boon Magness punted. After Little had returned six yards to the Lobos' 34-yard line, Drive No. 2 started. It was Van Horn four and Little three on an end run, then the husky Eddleman through a right guard for eight and Eddleman two more, then Little five and Eddleman through for 15 yards, and so on. With the ball resting on the seven-yard line, Van Horn tore around right end for four yards and then Little went off left tackle for the score. Once more Kellogg's kick was no bueno. The heady little Lobo quarterback caused the graybeards to wobble however when, on his 43-yard line, he tried a pass and Boon Magness, not satisfied with intercepting it, raced to the Lobos' 29-yard line before he was brought to earth. Bus Ligon, who can handle the pigskin, tossed one to Legion, the end, for 11 yards—which was the first time Breckenridge had made a first down in the game. At this point, Anthony was ordered off the field and Cisco penalized half the distance to the goal which left the Buckaroos with only five yards to cover for a tally. Graham made a yard through the line. B. Magness made two yards around left end. Then Magness threw a perfect pass to Graham, over the goal line, but Graham dropped the ball. After an exchange of punts, the Buckaroos got going again, with Cisco's 46-yard line as the starting point. Bus Ligon shot one to C. Carey for nine yards. Then Boon Magness manifested brotherly affection by losing the ball to Aubrey Magness for 11 yards. Boon threw another, this time to Graham, who dropped it. Boon used T. Carey as his next target and the leave was good for 23 yards. Only two yards needed for a touchdown, but two plays gained nothing and the half was up. As far as Breckenridge was concerned, the game was over. Kellogg returned the kickoff 37 yards and Little went around right end for 16 yards but a punt exchanged followed whereupon Little returned a punt 25 yards to the Buckaroo 21-yard line. In eight plays, Eddleman lugging the ball five times, Cisco had the third touchdown. It was the big fullback who carried it over. Kellogg kicked goal. A few short moments later, Coats intercepted a Buckaroo pass on the home team's 34-yard line. Again the Lobo fullback got busy and, in nine plays, Eddleman toted the mail five of them, the Lobos had another score. Eddleman was the boy who took it over. Kellogg had gotten the range by this time and he kicked goal. A handicap now seemed in order. Anyway, the officials urged Little to leave the field and penalized Cisco to the 24-yard line. Three plays later, Coldwell intercepted a pass on his 17-yard line and Kellogg lost no time in kicking but an 18-yard return by Robin Eddleman brought the ball back as far as Cisco's 32-yard line. However the ball went over on downs on the Lobos' 23-yard line. Chapman began sending in the reserves—some of whom were taller and heavier than the regulars, who were large enough in all conscience. The remainder of the game was dull and dreary though the irrepressible Eddleman on a fake made 11 yards and the Lobos lost a chance to score when, on the eight-yard line, one of the substitute backs fumbled. The crowd was the biggest for the season in the oil belt.

Boy Scouts of 6 Counties to Meet

By United Press. BROWNWOOD, Oct. 27.—Boy Scouts from six counties adjacent to Brown have been invited to attend an exhibit and fair in Brownwood, Nov. 8-10, at which time prizes are expected to be awarded those excelling in leathercraft, the building of bird nests, archery, metalcraft, horn work, whittling, and other work of scoutdom. In this district there are thirty-five patrols or a total of five hundred scouts, most of whom are expected to be in Brownwood during the fair and exhibit. There are nine patrols in Brownwood. Prominent out of town speakers are to be secured, according to Jack Brunberg, scout executive for the six counties. Mr. Brunberg has just recently returned from a scout executives training school held in New York and is prepared to get back into the work here with added enthusiasm. All exhibits to be presented here will later be presented in each of the five other counties of the district, it has been learned.

Whoofus Whiffletree's Wooly Wonderings

Prospects for that Abilene-Waco game to settle the state championship are not so bright this morning. Personally, we don't believe Waco can beat Abilene—for the reason that they won't get the chance. This columnist overlooked it but someone told us that Proxy Anderson assailed us in his column because we reported Garland Hinman as weighing 185. We weighed "Ox" on the scales that Proxy weighed Salkeld—who weighs 170, according to the Abilene writer.

Max Bentley gained more ground than anyone else Friday. He is the managing editor of the Abilene Reporter and News. He raced up and down the sidelines for sufficient yardage to reach from Ranger to Abilene and half way back, if it was placed in a straight line.

Biondy Cross, sports editor of the San Angelo Standard, viewed the game and declared Ranger should have won by two touchdowns. He will probably be here this week to see Ranger and San Angelo meet.

Wes Hodges of the Breckenridge American was another sports writer on hand. Cooper of Abilene was another. During the oil boom, "Coop" was city editor of the Ranger Times.

The game was broadcast by the Abilene station through a hookup by phone from the press box. And, speaking of the press box, Five Chief Murphy receiving a rising vote from the pencil pushers. Due to his vigilance, the press box was made safe for the press men. For the first and only time in the big game, anyway—there was actually room for the men who earn their living by writing about the games. Heretofore numerous individuals other than newspapermen have been in the press box which meant that the writers had to stand on seats and otherwise be Ranger fans are proud of every lad who wore the Maroon and White. They held the team bearing the colors of last year's almost state champions to a tie—and really deserved to win the game.

Four ungrateful daughters of a Brooklyn man, all of them married but their ninety-year-old father into the street. For three days he wandered hungry and penniless sleeping in the subway and synagogues, and finally collapsed from lack of food. The daughters have been arrested. MRS. OUTWARD EASTERN STAR GRAND OFFICER

Mrs. L. J. Lambert and Mrs. W. Z. Outward returned Saturday afternoon from the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, which closed a successful several day session last week, attended by two thousand visitors, and with business meetings held in the Liberty Theatre, El Paso.

Mrs. Outward was complimented by being appointed assistant district deputy grand matron of Texas. The worthy grand matron, Mrs. B. J. Esterling, paid her the compliment of introducing her personally. The appointment carries with it the supervision of eleven counties and twenty-nine chapters and is for one year.

Mrs. Outward gained her Eastern Star experience during her Eastland residence of some seven years, having been a member of the Order five years. She succeeds Mrs. L. J. Lambert, who has made a splendid record in this office.

Mrs. Outward stated that the entertainment for the visitors was very lavish.

The next grand chapter meeting will be held next October in San Antonio.

ALPHA DELPHIANS MEETING

There was a small gathering of the members for the meeting of the Alpha Delphians, Saturday, as four or five were out of the city and several were ill. The preparatory reading and Homer's Life was converted into a round table study, led by Mrs. N. N. Rosenquist.

president. Camp organization was explained by Mrs. John Harrison, and the balance of the program was given as planned with the exception that Mrs. A. J. Campbell substituted in the story of Diana and Achilles. Members present were: Maud N. N. Rosenquist, John Harrison, B. M. Collier, J. C. Day, W. R. Faribairn, D. J. Fiensy, John May, A. J. Campbell and Miss Sallie Morris.

The Odyssey will be studied at the next meeting on November 10.

WILL FORM DANCING CLUB FOR ELKS

A dancing club is being organized by the entertainment committee of the Elks Club and admission will be by invitation only.

One does not need to be an Elk to attend, but requests for invitations are expected and these should be in writing and addressed care of Entertainment Committee, Elks Club.

WEST WARD SCHOOL HALLOWEEN RECEPTION

Fully three hundred children and one hundred and ten adults passed through the doors of the West Ward School Building, Saturday night. They were received by Principal Bolos, and entertained by the faculty staff, each of whom was in charge of some booth, side show or other attraction.

Decorations of autumn leaves and boughs added their graceful beauty. A thriving business was done in the cafeteria, where about $15 was realized from the sale of their wares.

Two entertainment features were very popular, a dancing and singing stunt by the Glee Club Girls, with Mrs. O. M. Hunter at the piano, and the girls in very pretty costumes. Personnel: Laura and Frost, Edna Marie Stout, Aubrey Bravner and Dorothy Day.

In the wrestling match, managed by Sidney Smith of the Society of West Ward, the boxing bout was won by Doss Simmons, and the wrestling match by Joe Backbee.

Several interesting bouts and matches made up the program, which everyone seemed to enjoy, but the fun and excitement was at its height when the closing of the evening contest for King and Queen was about due.

Edna Marie Stout was elected Queen, and Carry Bean as her royal consort. They were crowned with appropriate ceremony, and each presented an attractive prize.

The exact amount cleared from the entertainment will probably run between $120 and $150. The usual booths made attractive with arches of foliage and crepe paper.

The stairways were enlivened with autumn leaves and halloweek shades, and the entire school transformed by the use of seasonable decorations.

NEAL SAMUELS CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. D. Samuels, of 1005 West Main Street, entertained a number of little friends of their son on the occasion of his seventh birthday last week. A beautifully arranged party was given at the family home, which rivaled halloweek deities of witches, cats and boggy faces, the latter shading lights, creating a spooky affair by the semi-glow, and a green background for the witches and cats. After the lovely birthday gifts had been presented and inspected a spider web contest was led by Raymond Newman. An apple biting stunt furnished lots of amusement. A prize was awarded to March Walker Jr., in the black cat contest.

Several other halloweek games followed. The children were served refreshments at the dining room table, a riot of orange and black streamers festooned by little cats, witches and moon motifs falling from the ceiling luster, screened by a boggy face, with orange and black crepe paper falling to the four sides of the table, laid in panels of these shades, and decorated with a lovely birthday cake holding seven lighted tapers.

The guests included Austin Williamson, Jr., Robert Ball, Jack Gouley, March Mathew Jr., James E. Rogers, Raymond Newman, Raymond Treadwell, Adelle Kimbrough, Elinor Simmons, Brotha Maye Kimbrough, Charlotte Ball, Lela Kimbrough, Mary Rogers, Almarena Bazen, Nadine Kimbrough and Mapell Rogers.

Mrs. Samuels was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. A. W. Williamson and Mrs. March Walker.

DEMONSTRATION AT CHURCH OF CHRIST

One of the most brilliant and spectacular demonstrations the ladies of the Church of Christ have staged was that of Saturday afternoon, when the story of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah was told in vivid terms by Mrs. Tom Harrell, who demonstrated the destruction assisted by Misses E. Hurley and Bogguss.

Two tables were required for the terrain. The arrangements to produce the burning cloud and dropping flakes of fire, including one city which it destroyed, were most ingenious and very mysterious to the onlookers.

Mrs. Harrell told of the visit of the angels to Lot, and persuading him to leave the city with his wife and two daughters, on account of the coming destruction. Let's wife disregarded the injunction and looked back at the city and was turned into a pillar of salt. The destruction of the city was seen, which made a wonderful and magnificent lesson.

There were eighty-five children and forty adults attending the impressive demonstration. All were received at the door by Mrs. Shelby Smith. Rev. H. W. Wrye, the pastor, prefaced the program with prayer. The congregation sang "Sweet Bye and Bye."

FIDELIS MATRONS CLASS TO ENTERTAIN

Members of the Fidelis Matrons

Bible Class and the husbands will be entertained Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the E. Y. P. U. Cottage. A program will be arranged by Mrs. R. A. Mead, chairman of group number 1, and a group of assistants, including: Mauds, C. H. Colvin, Terrell, Jess Seibert, Walter N. Hart, A. O. Cook, A. W. Wright, and Hugh Owens, hostesses for the evening.

SUNBEAM BAND MEETS

Mrs. W. T. Turner spoke very interestingly of the Sunbeam Band, and its recent meeting Saturday morning in the Baptist church, when fifty-four members were present, and a program on "Courage" was given. The children arrange their own programs and are rapidly learning to get them up in good shape. They learned a new song Saturday morning, "Music Hath Charms for the Weary," which they sang in church Sunday morning.

A story on "Courage," one of the Hero sets, was told by Mrs. Turner, who was assisted by Mrs. Ghent Sanderford in chaperoning the class.

Next Saturday morning, the study subject will be Mexico, and each child has been requested to bring something from Mexico, if they have it, to demonstrate the lesson in hand.

FOR LARGER BAYLOR

The appointment committee for a larger Baylor will meet in Eastland tomorrow morning at nine-thirty o'clock in the Baptist church coming in the course of their itinerary.
