Williams Tells How To Enforce Prohibition

URGES TEXANS TO BE LOYAL TO DEMOCRACY

Congressman Guinn Williams Makes Splendid Appeal For Support of Democratic Leader.

Although the audience gathered Friday night at the City Hall to hear the Hon. Guinn Williams of Decatur, member of congress from the 13th Texas representative district, urge loyalty to the democratic party and praise Governor Al Smith, democratic orator of such ability and prominence was not as large as an orator of such ability and prominence was entitled to address, the warm night was in large part responsible. Mr. Williams spoke for more than an hour and made an address that was interesting, forceful, logical and appealing.

Called from the north where he was speaking in support of democracy, Mr. Williams said he was touring North and West Texas at his own expense, making an average of two speeches a day. He declared himself an original "dry" and an earnest temperance advocate. He blamed the republican party for failure to enforce the prohibition law and he blamed also many who call themselves prohibitionists. He said they wanted prohibition for others, but not for themselves.

"If you will live half as dry as you talk and vote it will help enforce the law," he declared.

Mr. Williams said it was embarrassing to be called on to ask Texas democrats to be loyal. He declared there was every reason why they should be loyal, picturing Governor Al Smith as a leader who would stop abuses of the federal banking system that had become menacing under republican administration, bring relief to the farmers they were unable to obtain from the republicans, and enforce prohibition. He made a strong and earnest appeal to avoid religious prejudice, declaring it belittles a people.

Mr. Williams aroused much enthusiasm among his hearers and many remained after he had concluded to meet him and thank him for his splendid address.

Bob Shuler To Speak In Eastland Night of Oct. 13

Those in charge of the Anti-Al Smith forces in Eastland county have received word that Rev. R. P. Shuler, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, Los Angeles, California, will speak in Eastland at the City Hall, Saturday, October 13th, at 8:00 p. m.

Rev. Bob Shuler is a speaker and orator of note and well known all over Texas. He came to Texas as when a young man and started his ministerial career in this state, where he was a pastor of some of the leading churches until he was transferred to the Trinity Methodist Church at Los Angeles, where he has been for the past 7 or 8 years. He took the place of Dr. C. C. Selemann in Los Angeles, when Dr. Selemann left the Trinity Methodist Church there to become president of the S. M. U. at Dallas.

Farmer Wounds Man In Order To Protect Home

NOCONA, Texas, Oct. 6.—An unidentified man was shot and wounded when he and two companions, one of them a woman, attempted to force their way into the home of Z. G. Gardner, a farmer, living near here.

PROCLAMATION

Fire Prevention Week, October 7th to 13th, 1928
The above dates have been designated as FIRE PREVENTION WEEK throughout America. And, as the citizens of Eastland are so familiar with the destruction of fire, I think that we should take notice of the occasion.

You will be interested to know, of course, the causes of most of the fires we have. Three-fourths of them come from CARELESSNESS, and these are some of the things that cause them:
Defective Chimneys and Flues
Hot Ashes and Coals,
Matches and Smoking,
Gasoline,
Spontaneous Combustion,
Rubbish,
Over-Heated Stoves,
Sparks on Roof.
Burning autumn leaves and dead grass is also dangerous.

Always call the fire department telephone number 244 before burning off vacant lots.
PLEASE OBSERVE THESE "DON'TS"—
"Don't smoke in a garage or filling station."
"Don't be careless with your cigar and cigarette stubs."
"Don't leave current on electric irons."
"Don't store oily rags or waste used in polishing furniture."
Fire waste is not paid by Insurance Companies; they only distribute the money that is paid by the people when they buy merchandise. The cost of Fire Tax is concealed in the price of the goods.

If we all use precaution and teach our boys and girls the hazards of fire, we won't be long until the fires will be reduced to a minimum.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH M. WEAVER,
Chairman City Commission

CARNES CLAIMS THAT "I AM NOT ALONE IN THIS"

Alleged Defaulter Placed In Cell With Motley Lot. Seeking Lawyers To Defend Him.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 6.—Clinton S. Carnes, who for nine years was the respected treasurer of the Southern Baptist Home Mission board, occupied a cell in the county jail today with a man under death sentence for murder, an alleged thief, an alien awaiting deportation and two brothers, awaiting trial on murder charges.

Despite his company, Carnes was reported composed and anxious to secure capable lawyers to defend him in his trial for embezzlement of the board funds. The total shortage in his accounts is near $1,000,000.

Carnes continued to insist, it was reported, that "I am not alone in this." He has acquired an unhealthy reputation for newspaper men and is close-mouthed. He still wears the mustache that served as a disguise in the weeks between his disappearance and arrest in Winnipeg.

Hidalgo County Officials Facing Political Attack

McALLEN, Texas, Oct. 6.—County officials were subjected to another blistering attack at a mass meeting of citizens last night. The meeting was addressed by Mayor Kirgan of Weslaco, who charged that two $70,000 seven percent warrants had been used for rivers, creeks and streams in the county.

Gordon Crislin presented what he said purported to be warrants issued for construction of a hospital while the people were led to believe that the hospital was to be built by the city of Edinburg. He charged further that the county had built seven miles of road without a public letting and that the records showed almost $1,000,000 was paid for the work.

F. C. Crouch, a local speaker, said he was willing to make affidavit concerning a conversation with the attorney general of the State, in which the latter said "you folks have a condition that must be corrected" and offered his aid if needed. The meeting closed with a demand that voters defeat the present county administration in November.

ORIENT LINE SOLD TO SANTA FE RAILROAD

Federal Court Approves Deal. Purchase Price $14,500,000. Rejuvenation Assured.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 6.—Sale of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient to the Santa Fe yesterday was approved by Judge John P. Pollack of the federal court. The purchase price of the deal was $14,500,000. The purchaser assumed a mortgage of $2,500,000 held by the government.

For the first time in 17 years the proceedings brought no disputed points. Turning to Cyrus Crane, local counsel for the English interests, who had fought for years over Orient matters, Judge Pollack asked if there were any objections.

"None, your Honor," replied Crane, "except that I might suggest that the papers be appropriately drawn to the Santa Fe Railroad company alias Santa Claus."

MERGER OF TWO BIG RAILROADS SEEMS LIKELY

Great Northern and Northern Pacific Lines, Valued At $2,500,000,000 May Be Linked Together.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Prospects that the greatest merger in railroad history—linking of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific—may be approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission were improved today when submission of a modified plan by spokesmen of the two lines. Attorneys for the two northern roads told the commission yesterday they were prepared to advise acceptance of a conditional offer for the proposed unification that would combine 26,000 miles of line.

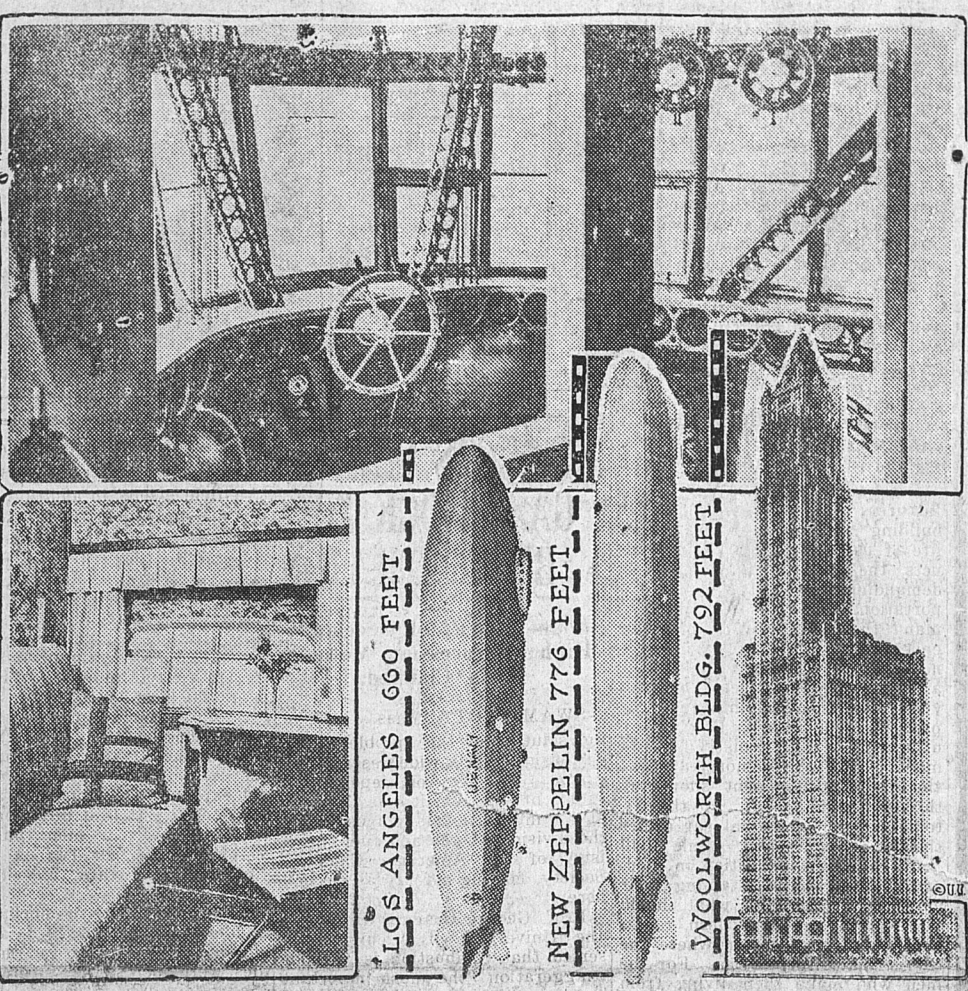

The suggestion was made that the commission approved the $2,500,000,000 merger with reservation providing for later cancellation if a nation-wide railway program is developed. Further suggestion was made that the commission exclude from the merger the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, which is now jointly controlled by the two Northern lines.

STATE HEALTH OFFICERS URGE CLEAN APPLES

Warns Against Use of Apples That Have Not Been Properly Washed and Wiped.

Dr. E. R. Townsend, city health officer, and Jay Phillips, city sanitation officer, have received letters from Dr. J. C. Anderson, state health officer, calling attention to the apple sanitation confronting all health officers of the state. He writes: "Apples are sprayed with a solution of arsenic to kill the insects common to growing apples in the dry districts of New Mexico and Colorado. The arsenic remains on the ripe apple and must be removed, either by wiping or washing in a one per cent solution of hydrochloric acid.

"Of course, this process is somewhat expensive and the small dealers are either trucking these apples uncleaned, or selling to trucksters who bring them into Texas.

Gas Tanks Explode Causing Huge Loss

READING, Penn., Oct. 6.—Damage estimated at $1,000,000 was caused at the plant of the Carpenter Steel company here today, when two gas tanks supplying fuel to furnaces exploded.

Several persons were reported to have been thrown from bed by the explosion and hundreds of window panes were shattered. No injuries thus far have been reported.

MAVERICKS TOO LIGHT TO BEAT THE BUCKAROOS

Eastland Gridsters Play Valiant Game, But Lack the Weight To Break Breckenridge Line.

It is an adage of the prize ring that when a good little man meets the good big man, the little man will lose. The Eastland Mavericks fought as hard and as gamely as any team that ever played on a football field, but they met a team greatly outweighed them Friday.

Eastland's touchdown came in the third quarter and was the climax of an inspiring advance of 60 yards. Connie Smith hurred a pass to Foster for 26 yards. A short pass, from Smith to Cheatham, gained four more. A long pass by Smith for 20 yards was ruled as completed because of interference with the receiver. Smith hit the line for two yards, placing the ball on Breckenridge's 10-yard line. Joe King came out of the line apparently to try for a goal from position. King's foot swung forward but he purposely missed the ball. Brawner tossed it backward to Connie Smith who had come around as the play was in progress and Smith hurred an accurate heave to Cheatham, who was standing on the goal line.

The defensive work of the Maverick line, led by Captain King, was a bright spot of the game from an Eastland standpoint. Though greatly outweighed, the Red-and-Black forward wall repeatedly stopped the Buckaroo attack under the shadow of the goal posts. King, who was in every play, was badly hammered but he would get up smiling, slap his mates encouragingly on the back and jump into the thick of the action again.

Plays Hard Game
Little Connie Smith, Eastland's 130-pound quarterback, epitomized his team's valiant fighting qualities. His streaking returns of punts, several times for 25 yards,

GLASS HOUSE MAY BE BUILT FOR AL SMITH

Will House Democratic Leader When He Speaks On Soldier's Field In Chicago, October 19.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—A house of glass may be used to shelter Governor Al Smith when he speaks here October 19. It is planned to have the speech at Soldier's Field to accommodate the expected crowd.

This seems to be the only solution which Illinois democratic leaders can find for the problem which has faced them since they learned Smith did not like to speak outdoors at night and that the biggest hall available would not be large enough to hold even the persons who have asked for tickets in advance.

Originally Smith was scheduled to speak on October 17, and the Coliseum had been engaged for that night. Then the change of date was received and it was learned that the coliseum had already been engaged for the 19th.

"Bossy" Mayor Is Not Moping Over His Jail Sentence

SALEM, Oct. 6.—Mayor "Bossy" Gillis of Newburyport, declined today to be despondent over anything so slight as a two-months' jail sentence.

The gloom which settled upon cell No. 70 at the Salem jail when he became the occupant, appeared to have been lifted this morning as his honor began his first day of incarceration under a sentence imposed for selling gasoline without a permit.

Tragedy Mars Trip of Joe Robinson Through Texas

AMARILLO, Oct. 6.—The Santa Fe engine drawing the train to which Senator Joe Robinson's campaign car was to be attached here blew up near Pampa, Friday and the engineer was killed. Robinson's car was sent on to Clovis, N. M. with an extra engine.

TEXAS STATE FAIR OF 1928 OPENS GATES

Largest Exposition of Kind In World Draws Crowds To Dallas To Enjoy Attractions.

DALLAS, Oct. 6.—The 1928 Texas State Fair opened today for the benefit of the thousands who are expected to throng Fair Park during the next 15 days.

Gates of the big exposition, the largest of its kind in the world, opened to visitors at 9 a. m. Saturday. The occasion was marked by the blowing of factory whistles and the sirens atop the Adolphus hotel.

As soon as the gates were thrown open, a great crowd of men, women and children poured through. They were soon lost in the myriad of exhibits and other displays which filled the grounds.

The distinction of being the first to gain entrance went to Fred Harold, 12, of Whitewright.

Many of the first day visitors wore golden keys which had been on sale in Dallas for many weeks. The keys admit the bearers to the fair today only. Forty thousand of the emblems had been sold.

Hickman's Fight For Life Carried To Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—William Edward Hickman's fight against a death sentence reached Washington today with the arrival here of Hickman's attorney, Jerome Walsh. Law associates of Walsh, said he had arrived today and believed he would appeal to the supreme court for delay in execution for the murder of Marion Parker, Los Angeles school girl, to permit hearing of an appeal. He was to appear before Justice George Sutherland unless Walsh prefers to address the full court.

Justice Sutherland told the United Press today that he had not seen Walsh and had no appointment for him, but that he would be able to hear him today if the lawyer sought a hearing.

Explosion Shatters Windows At Borger

BORGER, Texas, Oct. 6.—Scores of plate glass windows were broken and hundreds of smaller windows shattered here last midnight when 600 quarts of nitroglycerin, of the Atlas Glycerin Co., near here, exploded. A check today failed to reveal any casualties, company officials said.

ARMY CAPTURES GRID GAME AT WEST POINT

Texas Methodist Outplay the Soldiers, But Fail To Make Enough Points. Score 14 to 13.

Playing true to form, S. M. U. opened slow in the game with the Army at West Point, Saturday, and almost before it was realized by supporters of the Texans what was happening the Army had scored two touchdowns and kicked two goals, making a total of 14 points, according to reports from the game.

Then S. M. U. woke up and played ball so fast and furiously that the Army never had another chance. Before the end of the first half S. M. U. had also made two touchdowns, but, unfortunately, had missed one goal, so that the score at the end of the half stood: Army 14, S. M. U. 13.

There the score stayed throughout the remainder of the game. The Army was outplayed by S. M. U. and could not possibly score, but the Army, although outplayed, put up such an excellent defense that neither could S. M. U. score. In the last few minutes of play S. M. U. drove the ball 60 yards to the Army's 18-yard line, but there it was held, and soon after the whistle blew.

It was said the Methodists had little hope of beating the army and would be content if able to put up a presentable game. The Methodists did play a splendid game and it is not at all improbable they could have beaten the Army if they had opened with some of the speed they later put into their play.

LONG STRIKE IN THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY ENDS

New Bedford Mills Reopen Monday and 27,000 Operatives Return To Work.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 6.—The New Bedford textile strike ended today at the close of 153 25th week. Reconsidering the adverse decision of last week the operatives voted to accept the manufacturers' compromise offer, under which wages will be cut five per cent. It was a 10 per cent pay reduction that precipitated the walkout last April 16.

As a result of today's balloting, some 27,000 strikers will return to work Monday morning in the 55 mills operated by the 26 corporations affected by the dispute.

The strike, which was the most serious in the long history in this great industrial center, resulted in a payroll loss of $15,000,000.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS

LUXURY IS EQUAL TO BIG LINER

Carpets, Draperies, Easy Chairs on German-Built Dirigible.

By NEA Service.
BERLIN, Oct. 4.—When the great new dirigible Graf Zeppelin takes the air at Friedrichshafen for her first trip to America, the world will get its first inkling of the real possibilities of comfort, safety and luxury in aerial travel. It is named in honor of Count Zeppelin, "Graf" being German for "Count."
Nothing like it has ever flown through the air. The great American dirigibles Los Angeles and Shenandoah are far surpassed. The floating liner of the air is at last a reality. Some idea of its possible speed is given by the estimate of Dr. Hugo Eckner, the designer, that the big ship could fly from Berlin to Tokio in four days.

To begin with, the Count Zeppelin offers far better passenger accommodations than any airship yet built. Twenty passengers can be carried, two to a room, in commodious, Pullman-type electrically lighted and heated. Electric ranges in the kitchen provide hot meals.
Gone are the days of the narrow "cat walk," which featured the Shenandoah's interior living quarters. The hanging gondolas of that airship are present in the Graf Zeppelin, to be sure, but only to house the five powerful motors. The control room is built-in, as in the dirigible Los Angeles; and on the same deck are the passenger accommodations.

776 Feet Long.
The Graf Zeppelin is 776 feet long by 100 feet in diameter—nearly 100 feet longer and nearly 25 feet wider than the Shenandoah, and 116 feet longer than the Los Angeles. Towards the bow, along the bottom, protrudes the forward end of the cabin, running back in a straight line and merging almost imperceptibly with the keel. The great size of the ship dwarfs the five small gondolas so that one hardly sees them at first glance.

Entering the cabin at the forward end, one enters first the control room, where captain, navigator or helmsmen have their stations. Big windows give unobstructed vision straight ahead and on both sides.

Back of this comes the navigation and chart room, extending the width of the cabin and filled with the multitude of dials, gauges, wheels, levers and so on with which dirigibles are guided.
Powerful Radio.
From the rear of the navigation room opens a hallway leading to the back. On one side is the radio room, where there is installed a set powerful enough to keep the airship in touch with land stations throughout a trans-Atlantic voyage. On the other side is the kitchen, with electric stove, coffee urn and cupboards. Besides the kitchen is a narrow thwart-ships passageway leading to a door on the starboard side, through which passengers come aboard.

The main passageway then opens into the largest room on the ship—the main lounge, which also does duty as a dining room. It is a luxurious room, as little like a compartment on an airship as one could wish. A soft carpet covers the floor. Wide windows in the walls provide for sightseeing; they are hung with rich curtains. There are cushioned arm chairs and circular tables as in the parlor of a fine hotel. At meal-times this becomes the dining room, where passengers can dine as comfortably as in a hotel. During the rest of the day it is a lounge. Big cushioned sofas run along two walls.

From the rear of this compartment opens the passageway leading to the staterooms. There are ten of these, five on each side. Each one has an upper and a lower berth of the Pullman type. The walls are papered, and there are curtains on the windows, a built-in table and a stool in each room. Beyond the staterooms are two roomy washrooms, one for men and one for women. At the very back the passage opens into the interior of the vast envelope itself.
Uses New Fuel.

It is not alone in size and luxury that the Graf Zeppelin is a new departure in the world of aviation. The German engineers have devised a new gaseous fuel for its motors; a fuel that weighs no more than air, and that consequently makes no difference in the ship's weight when it is exhausted. The present practice of valving out hydrogen to make up for the loss of weight as fuel is consumed will be done away with.

Among us the Graf Zeppelin is, however, it will not be long before still another super-airship comes to surpass it. The British are now building a veritable giant, the R-100, which will go even farther along the road of size and luxury.
The R-100 will carry 100 passengers and have three decks, or floors, in its living quarters, all built in to the hull. The lower deck will house the crew and working quarters. On the second deck will be a dining room big enough to accommodate 50 diners at once, flanked by staterooms, with a roomy promenade running around on the outside. A wide staircase will lead up to the third deck, where there will be more staterooms and another promenade deck on which passengers can lounge at their ease in deck chairs as comfortably as they do now on the ocean-ships. Here will be the main deck of the dirigible.

In its overall dimensions the R-100 will not look larger than the Graf Zeppelin. Its length will be even shorter—709 feet—though its diameter will be 133 feet. It is planned to equip it with diesel engines which will burn heavy oil.

MAVERICKS TOO LIGHT TO BEAT BUCKAROS

gave thrills as he sidestepped or suddenly picked up speed to cause a burley Buckaroo who had launched himself with full force through the air to clutch at vacancy and hit the ground with a thud. Smith's passing was as brilliant as could be asked of any one. He punted, he hit the line and he ran. Then on defense, he cut off several touchdowns—in fact when ever the ball-carrier got by him, it was because there was at least one and sometimes two interference runners to shield the man with the ball.

The Maverick running attack could never get started and the Breckenridge line was too heavy for any headway to be made on plunges. Lobaugh, who was called back to do some of the punting, got off several for 40 yards. Cheatham, who went into the game in the last half although a bad injury should have kept him out, played in stellar fashion and scored the Maverick touchdown. But there is no need to call names—every man gave his best. They were meeting a team that was superior in experience, in age, and in sheer strength.

First Touchdown.
First Breckenridge touchdown was made on a pass from Boyce Magness to Graham for 13 yards. Magness went off right tackle for 30 yards for the second marker. In the second quarter, Graham went around end for 78 yards and a score. After an Eastland pass had been intercepted, Magness made a long end run and then Ligon threw a pass to C. Carey for a touchdown. Aubrey Magness, who had gone into the game for his brother, went off tackle on a spin play 20 yards to score. He kicked goal—the only one kicked during the game though Breckenridge was awarded another point when Eastland was offside. A good return by Carey on a punt led to another score—Ligon, A. Magness and finally Carey carrying the ball. The score at the end of the half was 38-0.

A 15-yard penalty for interference by an Eastland player with a punted ball paved the way for another score, Smalley putting the ball over. A blocked punt gave Breckenridge the ball on Eastland's one-yard line and A. Magness carried it over. Eastland then took the ball in its own end of the field and went straight down the field on passes for a touchdown in the third period. The final Buckaroo score came in the last quarter on a 25-yard pass, A. Magness to Graham.

DALLAS WOMAN DYING IN HOUSTON HOSPITAL

By United Press.
HOUSTON, Oct. 6.—A small blonde, about 25 years of age, giving the name of Louise Gray, of Dallas, was dying in a hospital here today from a bullet wound through her body.

She registered at a hotel here Friday as Mrs. L. Boyd of Bryan. Early today, guests in a room nearby heard a pistol shot and summoned officers. She was found dressed in negligee lying on a bed. A bullet from a .38-caliber pistol had passed through her body. At the hospital she reluctantly told physicians that her name was Louise Gray of Dallas. Despite urging, she refused requests for information.

OBSERVATIONS.

The lamentable episode at the State university, which cost the life of a young man, doubtless will result in a more stringent supervision of the fraternities if it does not result in their abolition. The taxpayers of Texas are spending millions of dollars in the maintenance of the public institutions of learning and some of the taxpayers, themselves not so fortunate as to have received university training, think that too much emphasis is placed on the social side of life and too little on the actual classroom work.

The numerous outbreaks in the prison system, culminating in the destruction of several buildings that were set on fire by inmates, in part at least due probably to the maudlin sympathy that is showered upon lawbreakers by many members of the public. The long debate that the governor has had with himself as to whether the law should be carried out in the case of the Fort Worth bandit, may have had its effect too among the other prisoners who doubtless feel that if the jury's verdict was to be interfered with in one case, their own captivity might well be cut down.

Eastland county, one of the great oil-producing areas and more recently proclaiming itself "the egg-basket of Texas," lays little claim to cotton production and yet the figures published a day or two ago show that this county has ginned more cotton than many of its neighbors—including Nolan, Taylor, Jones, Jack and Young.

The fact that, in an agricultural contest open to all the counties of Texas, sixth place is at present held by Eastland county is a distinction of which the county may justly be proud. The contest extends over a period of years and is conducted by the State fair.

Breathes there the football fan whose soul so dead that he does not envy the good fortune of Wilbourne Collie. He is going on one of the four special trains that will convey Texans to West Point for the S. M. U. Army game. Incidentally, he doubtless will see one or more games of the world's series as well as viewing many other attractions on Broadway.

PENROSE AND QUAY FOR SMITH.

Perhaps no more striking evidence of the surprising re-alignments that the present national campaign is bringing about could be found than in the announcement not long ago that Penrose and Quay—names to conjure with in the G. O. P.—are supporting Governor Smith.

Penrose, who lives in Colorado Springs, is the brother of the late Boies Penrose, long regarded as the republican dictator of Pennsylvania. Penrose is a millionaire mining engineer and last year offered his home as the summer residence of President Coolidge.

Quay is a son of the late Senator Matthew Quay, a generation ago a pillar of conservative republicanism. Quay was a republican but followed Roosevelt in the 1912 campaign when he was a Roosevelt delegate to the convention that nominated Taft.

The son of another United States senator has come out for Smith. He is Charles W. Clark, who is president of many business organizations and has extensive mining properties. His father was a member of the senate from Montana and constructed, a number of years ago in New York city, a residence that cost $7,000,000 and was a marvel of that age.

Another noted man to announce his support of Smith is Jerome Davis Greene, banker associated MUSIC CLUB OF EASTLAND OPENS SEASON 1928-29. The Music Club of Eastland opened their year's study with program on Friday afternoon and entertained the members and their friends in the Community Clubhouse, where they were received by the president of the club, Mrs. T. J. Pitts, and the officers, Meses. Joseph M. Perkins, Grady Pipkin, John M. Mouser, B. D. Hampton, B. B. B. Bickerstaff, Jep Finley Little and A. J. Campbell, who were charming afternoon frocks of early fall style.

The registry table was presided over by Miss Gretchen Overton, treasurer of the club.

The assembly room was beautifully adorned with many bouquets of roses and marigolds, a large basket of these blooms standing near the grand piano draped with a bright hued scarf and a bowl of roses.

At intervals program numbers were given, which opened with the club singing the "America the Beautiful."

Mrs. B. B. B. Bickerstaff interpreted the Staccato Etude (Rubenstein) piano, in masterly vein. Mrs. Virgil T. Seaberry's lovely voice was heard to good advantage in "Come Back to Erin," by Clari-bel.

The president's message was given by Mrs. Pitts in her pleasing and sincere manner. The jolly Arkansas Traveler, Mrs. Grady Pipkin's violin number, was given with verse. Mrs. Charles G. Norton was accompanist for the afternoon. A dainty refreshments of brick ice cream with macaroons was served, Mrs. S. P. Rumph, assisting.

Club members and guests attending were Meses. F. O. Hunter, K. L. McDonald, C. G. Norton, R. C. Hunter, B. D. Hampton, Loventhal, S. P. Rumph, J. A. Caten, Fred L. Drago, J. B. Johnson, B. B. B. Bickerstaff, Frank Lovett, Bert McGlamery, Carl Springer, Earle Johnson, James Horton, H. B. Clifton, H. T. Johnston, W. J. Herrington, B. M. Collier, T. J. Haley, H. O. Tatum, C. B. Frost, J. M. Perkins, Jep F. Little, W. T. Turner, Grady Pipkin, V. T. Seaberry, Ghent Sandford, A. J. Campbell and J. B. Overton.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATIONAL
The meeting of the Cisco Association of the Annual Baptist Association will be held in Albany next Wednesday and Thursday and those attending will represent the fifty-three churches in the association. Mrs. W. T. Turner of this city, will speak Wednesday evening on "Old Tasks for the New Day." Rev. W. T. Turner follows with a missionary sermon. About fifteen people are expected to attend from Eastland.

not. Hostesses will be Tom Harrell, Earle Johnson, and W. A. Weigand. Mrs. Harry Sample will preside over the registry table. Meses. C. D. Swearingen and W. A. Weigand will be the public invitation committee. Assisting in various other ways will be Meses. Joe Driskell, George Glascock, Curtis Kimbrell, Jack Williamson and Joe H. Jones.

JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB
The Junior Music Club of the South Ward School, which will be federated in the junior juvenile department of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, and which was sponsored by Mrs. A. F. Taylor, in charge of the music studio of the South Ward School and Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, president of the sixth district T. F. M. C., met Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Taylor, where an enthusiastic meeting was held by the young people and the organization perfected.

In compliment to Mrs. Taylor, who had a small music club, called the Scale Runners, a few years ago, the club was named South Ward Scale Runners.

The study subjects will be as outlined by the Federation, and a program will be presented by members at each meeting. Meeting will be held on the first and third Tuesday of each month in the South Ward School music studio at 4:05 p. m., and fines for tardies will be levied.

"Dues are very nominal, being ten cents per member per month. The absentee committee is composed of Miss Earline Pitzer and Ruby Nell Bean.

The club will meet October 16th, and hostesses will be Meses Deipna Maye Blair, Frances Caywood and Ruby Nell Bean.

Officers were elected as follows: Miss L. G. Tucker, president; Miss Elizabeth Perkins, secretary; Miss Frances Caywood, treasurer; Miss Delpha Maye Blair, critic; Miss Faye Tucker, reporter.

At Friday's session piano solos were given by Anne Jane Taylor, Ruby Nell Bean and Virginia Johnston.

The hostess served delicious iced grape juice and wafers to: Meses Pauline Bida, Ruby Nell Bean, Pearl A. Kuykendall, Doris Van Geem, Jennean Johnston, Mozelle Wright, Anna Jane Taylor, Vera Watson, Earline Pitzer, Elizabeth Perkins, Faye Tucker, L. G. Tucker, Frances Caywood, Delpha Maye Blair, Virginia Johnston.

Mrs. Taylor, always a most popular and sympathetic teacher, is never so happy as when surrounded by little people and the young folks, with whom she has delightful success in her chosen work.

MRS. R. D. MAHON RECEIVES MORE HONORS
Nora Hefley Mahon, who has a well deserved and established reputation as a poet of the rarer moods, has been notified by the publishers of the Torch Bearer, at Belmont Baylor College, that three poems written by her will be published in the third quarterly issue of the Torch Bearer, out March, 1929. The titles are: "A Book-lover," "My Ship of Dreams," and "Candlelight."

IMPORTANCE OF CHILDHOOD AND YOUTH WEEK
One of the most important weeks of the year, which we lose sight of its fire prevention week and other specified weeks and which one is apt to overlook "Childhood and Youth Week" is the week which the Methodist church and Sunday School of Eastland will observe from October 7th to 14th.

It is well known that no undue estimate can be placed on the value of a good and wide-awake Sunday School. Its influence for good is far reaching. Children and the youth of our land largely form the scholars in the Sunday School, and it is to honor them that Childhood and Youth week is set apart and observed.

"Is not every week childhood and youth week in America?" It should be, at least. The first value is setting aside a week to be thus known and observed is that it gives definitions to that time when adult members of the church and Sunday School, especially parents and teachers, may consider together their most compelling task, the upbuilding of Christian character. In our schools we have Parent-Teacher Associations doing most excellent work, creating a better understanding and spirit of co-operation between teacher and parent.

Teachers of the Methodist Sunday School, are exceedingly anxious that parents of children and young people who attend the Methodist Sunday School shall co-operate with them in their efforts to train their children in the things that are holy and divine. To this end, the teachers purpose visiting the homes of their pupils during this week, and discussing with parents the means through which the teacher seeks a better understanding of the child. In this way parents and teachers will find themselves partners in an enterprise that has but a single end in view, abundant Christian living for every child and young person.

Sunday evening, October 14, a fitting program, that will be published later, will be presented at the Methodist church, bringing to a close this very important week. The general committee is Meses. B. F. McGlamery, S. P. Rumph and Joseph M. Perkins, who have appointed the following committees, who will assist in carrying out the work: Arrangements - Meses. Frank Castleberry, R. S. Harris, H. C. Satterwhite, P. H. Edwards and Miss Julia Elliott.

OBITUARY

William Hart, Sr., died at 6:18 p. m., September 28, in the West Texas Clinic at Ranger, where he had been since September 9. Decedent, who was 79 years of age, had been in good health until one month before his death.

The late Mr. Hart was born September 21, 1849, at Altitude, Ohio. He was united in marriage on December 31, 1877, with Miss Margaret Shepherd of Cameron, Ohio. To this union four children were born: Mrs. C. W. Bowers, now deceased; Birtress, who died at the age of 13; William Jr., and Vernon. In later years Mr. and Mrs. Hart moved to Woodsfield, Ohio, and lived there until four years ago, when they moved to Eastland to be with their children.

Mr. Hart was a loyal and faithful husband and father. He was always cheerful, even after he became blind, 25 years ago.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hart, 803 South Bassett Street, Saturday, Sept. 29 at 4 o'clock p. m., by the Rev. Frank E. Singleton, m., by two beautiful hymns, "Home of the Soul" and "Asleep in Jesus," were sung by a choir arranged by Mrs. Fred L. Drago, a close and dear friend of the family, the singers being accompanied by Miss Wilda Drago on her violin. Many beautiful sprays and wreaths of flowers were placed about the casket. Interment was in the Eastland cemetery.

"Oh, that dear one, how we loved him; Oh, how hard to give him up; But the angel came down for him And removed him from our flock."

Presbyterian Auxiliary; Thanksgiving Day, November 23, in church parlors.

UNIQUE BIRTHDAY PARTY

A most novel birthday party is planned by the Martha Dorcas Bible class of the Methodist Sunday School. It will be held in the assembly room of the church, Friday evening, October 12. The general chairman for the dinner, Mrs. S. P. Rumph, the successful and popular teacher of the class, has assured all that their birthday would be celebrated and has invited them to send the day and month of birth with seventy-five cents to Mrs. E. T. Murray, who will arrange details with Father Time. A delicious menu will be served and a program of music and readings will be presented.

The proceeds will be applied on the $500 pledge made by the Martha Dorcas class on the new church edifice. Everyone is cordially invited to attend and aid this worthy cause.

The chairman is Mrs. S. P. Dumph. Committees: Tables, Mrs. L. A. Constable, chairman; refreshments, Mmes. B. L. Mackall, S. P. Rumph; program, Mmes. R. C. Ferguson and Charles C. Robey; reception, Mmes. Thomas J. Haley, W. A. Martin, R. E. Sikes, C. G. Frost and R. S. Harris.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB PROGRAM

Next Thursday afternoon, October 11, a fine arts program will be given that will provide the beginning or background for the introductory studies of primitive developments of music, to be told by Mrs. W. E. Stallter. The Primitive Development of Literature and Art will be described by B. M. Colie; the "Primitive of Early Life in Religion and Drama," by Mrs. J. C. Patterson. This is a charming and cultural program, and will be followed by continued studies along fine arts line, describing the expansion and influence of the art.

Mrs. Leila Johnston of Coleman, district chairman of Music of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, will probably be with the club next Thursday, as a guest of Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, their president. Mrs. Johnston is a musician and artist of ability. She has recently returned from a trip to India and the club may expect to hear a talk from her on the Art of India.

A communication from Mrs. Perry, president of the Sixth District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, received by Mrs. Perkins expresses the most sincere appreciation for the lovely courtesy of the club luncheon that was tendered him and other officers. Mrs. Perry said she had written an article about the luncheon that would be published in the Texas Federation News.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

Several of the members of the Order of the Eastern Star gathered at the home of Mrs. Luther Bean, Friday, to complete the work on the pretty quilt they have on hands. At noon a luncheon was served, each one contributing some special plate. Those present were Mmes. Tucker, Lindsey, W. J. Thomas, George A. Cross, James A. Beard, D. J. Fiersy, Miss Sallie Morris and house hostess, Mrs. Luther Bean.

GUESTS FROM ARIZONA

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Raines entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Johnson of Cafe Grand, Arizona, from Tuesday to Thursday. A picnic lunch was held at the Cisco Dam on Wednesday. The visitors had expressed a desire to see this dam. The party was accompanied by Miss Ann Lee Snider of Weatherford, niece of Mrs. Raines, who is staying with her through the Eastland high school year. Miss Snider is a student in the high school.

PYTHIAN SISTERS

The Pythian Sisters held an interesting session recently, conducted by their Most Excellent Chief, Mrs. J. F. McWilliams. Discussion of the School of Instruction, to be held in Breckenridge in November, was part of the program. The chair appointed as committees to meet with the Breckenridge committee and plan for the coming visit of the Grand Chief in November at the School of Instruction; Mrs. R. L. Rollins, chairman; Mrs.

Lucas and Mrs. Jacob Ross. This consultation will be held next Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock in Breckenridge.

THE CIVIC LEAGUE'S YEAR BOOK ISSUED

The Civic League of Eastland has issued a very handsome book for 1928-29, which, after the title page of motto, colors, flower and membership, tells the story of past officers, Mrs. P. S. Wolfe, 1917-1918; Mrs. Ora K. Black, 1919; Mrs. P. S. Wolfe, 1920; Mrs. Wolfe and Mrs. D. W. Switzer, 1921, and Mrs. W. K. Jackson, 1922 to 1927.

The officers are: President, Mrs. Earle Johnson; first vice-president, Mrs. Tom Harrell; second vice-president, Mrs. T. L. Fagg; recording secretary, Mr. C. G. Swearingin; corresponding secretary; Mrs. George L. Davenport; treasurer, Mrs. Earl Bender; parliamentarian, Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins; custodians, Mrs. Earl Conner; Federation Counsellor, Mrs. W. E. Chaney; historian, Mrs. C. U. Connelley; chairman of publicity, Mrs. A. H. Johnson; chairman of Better Babies Bureau, Mrs. Tom Harrell; director of community clubhouse board, Mrs. Oscar Chastain.

The club list numbers seventy members. Their phone numbers and street addresses are given.

The committees include: Year book, parks and playgrounds, memorial fountain, courthouse rest room, courthouse lawn, bandstand, yard improvement, filling station improvement, social service, birth tree, cemetery, hospitality and home.

The next meeting will be held October 17. The annual flower show is announced for November second and third.

November 11th is Armistice Day, and special guests will be the county and city officials, American Legion, and Boy Scouts. The re-installation of the Civic League Memorial Fountain, on courthouse lawn will be conducted by Edward S. Prichard, county judge.

The living Christmas tree will be dedicated by the league at Christmas in the annual tree community service on the square. Biennial election of officers takes place on January 9.

ALPHA DELPHIA PROGRAM

The Alpha Delphians will meet next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in the Community Clubhouse. Ancient Tales will form the first program and the preparatory reading will be presented by Mrs. F. W. Cortis. Text reports will be given by Mrs. W. C. Baker, "The Magic Crocodile;" Mrs. Luther Ban, "The Lost Jewel;" Mrs. Beom W. Brewer, "The Tale of Two Brothers;" Mrs. A. J. Campbell "In the Valley of the Accacia;" Mrs. W. B. Colie, "Daphne and Chloe."

Mrs. N. N. Rosenquest, the president, announces that the Delphians will meet promptly at three and close promptly at five p. m.

MRS. WHITE TEACHING FOR LITTLE THEATRE

Mrs. Thurmond S. White, head of the Lalia White Studios, of Shreveport, is to organize a little theatre for the children of Shreveport. According to Mrs. White's announcement, there will be classes offering work in singing, games and Mother Goose impersonations, voice and pantomime for children of kindergarten age. A story-telling hour will be conducted, and one play a month will be staged.

Mrs. White is an artist of unusual breadth and thought, and is a finished pianist, also a brilliant coloratura artist. Her previous experience in chautauqua and concert fields, will aid her materially in her present enterprise. No amateur performance in Eastland ever attracted as much favorable comment as "Springtime," given about six years ago by the Music Club of Eastland, when Mrs. White was the sweetheart of the musical play, and enraptured all, with her beautiful voice, person and grace.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL COUNCIL

The primary officers and teachers, and superintendent, Mrs. F. L. Drago, were hostesses to the Council of the Methodist church and Sunday school, recently in monthly session. The program opened with song and devotion led by Mrs. Drago. Prayer by Rev. Frank Singleton. The business session was conducted by Superintendent J. A. Caton.

All superintendents were present save one. Topics were given by teachers of departments: "Growth of the Child Makes Education Possible," Mrs. E. C. Satterwhite, "The Sunday School and Nurture," Mrs. J. U. Johnson.

Mrs. Bert McGlamery was at the piano for all numbers. Refreshments of sandwiches, tea and cake were served by Misses Jane Rotramel, Virginia Norton, Sallie Hill and Mmes. J. U. Johnson, E. C. Satterwhite and F. L. Drago.

BRIDGE IN HONOR OF CHARMING VISITORS

Mrs. Lloyd E. Edwards was house hostess and Mrs. Walter I. Clark, co-hostess, Friday afternoon, entertaining with bridge in honor of several charming visitors now in Eastland. Fragrant flowers, great clusters of roses, adorned the stands and buffet.

Ten tables were prettily appointed for the game, and at the close of the afternoon molded salad was served with hot rolls, preserved figs, nuts, mints and iced tea.

Favor for high score in bridge a crystal boudoir lamp, was given Mrs. O. C. Funderburk, and the cut-for-all, an Italian pottery pitcher, went to Mrs. Harry H. Porter. A Venetian powder box was the cut-for-all among the guests, and fell to Miss Thiele Hepler.

Personnel of the party: Mmes. Roy Ashe and C. Berry of West Virginia; Mrs. Hepler and Miss Thiele Hepler of Fort Scott, Kansas; Mrs. Megy of Throckmorton, Mrs. Loftin Witcher of El Paso; Mmes. John M. Knox, Drago.

Is Mary There?

OF COURSE she is! All week she has been looking forward to this "Long Distance date." Girls appreciate such thoughtfulness. "Your Mary," too, will thrill at the sound of the telephone bell... will eagerly wait for your call. Station-to-station service makes it reasonable. Just give the Long Distance operator the telephone number, or the name and address under which it is listed—but don't specify a particular person. If you give the number... it's quicker! SAN ANTONIO ADDS 100,000 STREET LAMPS
 SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 5.—In carrying out the most elaborate scheme of decoration ever planned for an American Legion convention, workmen are busy stringing pennants, hanging flags and draping telephone and electric light poles along approximately 60 city blocks in San Antonio, Texas. Nearly every business house in the downtown district is decorating as never before, and when the 1928 convention opens Monday, San Antonio, city of conventions, will be more gaily attired than ever before in its history.
 By day San Antonio will be vivid with its red, white and blue pennants, flags of all the allied nations and Legion emblems, and by night it will glow with brilliant street lights. The skyline will be traced in gay colors as many of San Antonio's skyscrapers will be outlined in lights.

 The Legionnaires are being greeted at the railroad stations with welcome banners and huge American flags. The streets from the station to the downtown district are continuously decorated in their honor. The hotels are flying flags, flaunting banners, pennants and streamers, welcoming their guests.
 Approximately 30,000 feet of pennants, making a continuous overhead canopy, are being used in three main streets alone. All the telephone, trolley and electric light poles throughout the downtown section and along streets from the stations to the business district are draped with American and Texas flags. In the center of the street, flags of the Allied nations are suspended from all of the wire running across the streets. It is estimated that more than 3,000 flags are being used in this manner.
 Never in the history of the city have local business houses and firms been so lavish in their individual decorations. But not all the festivity and gaiety is confined to the downtown sections. Community centers in the residential sections are gay for the occasion, and vast numbers of the residences will be flying the American flag.

 More than 50,000 additional electric lights will be used to illuminate the city streets at night. Another 50,000 will outline nine of San Antonio's most prominent buildings. The effect will be a skyline developed in red, white and blue, or combinations of orange and red; red and green, and other colors.
 Not only are the exteriors of the buildings being decorated but many merchants are devising novel displays in their windows and in their stores to carry out the spirit of the convention. The large department stores are giving special attention to their windows.

TURN ABOUT.
 RICHMOND, Calif.—"We'll do as much for you sometime," said Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell L. Morse of Vallejo, newlyweds, as they thanked Perry W. Jenkins and Miss Alice Rhodes, who "stood up" with them when they were married in Vallejo.

George Davison Playing Football In New Mexico M. I.

George A. Davison, Jr., a cadet at the New Mexico Military Institute and son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Davison of Eastland, is on the squad trying out for the Institute team this year. There are about sixty men out for the team, including several of high school fame from different parts of the country. Coach R. R. Brown says the new football material is unusually good this fall.

The Institute football schedule is as follows:
Sept. 29, Montezuma at Roswell.
Oct. 6, Wayland at Roswell.
Oct. 13, University of New Mexico at Albuquerque.
Oct. 20, N. M. School of Mines at Socorro.
Oct. 27, Clarendon College at Roswell.
Nov. 3, open.
Nov. 10, West Texas, Teachers' College, at Canyon, Texas.
Nov. 17, Texas Tech Freshmen at Roswell.
Nov. 24, open.
Nov. 29, New Mexico Aggies at Roswell.
"Babe" Godfrey, all-southwestern fullback in 1921, 1922, 1923, a varsity man at Louisiana State College for three years and one of the best known football stars in the south, a graduate of the Institute of L. S. U., has returned this year to assist Captain

Personal Experience Maybe Previous to all of the world series matches in what might be called the McGraw period, there have been weighty discussions about the style of pitching in the two major leagues.

For reasons that are usually explained only by—"Well, it is"—the National League has come to be known as a curve-ball league and the American League as a fast ball league.

There isn't much doubt that McGraw is partial to curve ball pitching and his influence may have had its effect in setting a distinctive style of pitching in his league.

The advantages of a change of pace and a style that permits of mixing them up need no discussion, but McGraw seems to have a preference for a pitcher who can twist them against a hurler who can throw them past the batter.

He has given evidence of being crazy about curve ball pitching and this flair of his caused Freddy Lindstrom to remark recently to an American League player:
"I wonder if Mac could have had a terrible weakness against a curve ball when he was hitting. He never led any leagues that I know of."

World Series Game Third This Season, In St. Louis Today

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—The whole city is behind the Cardinals in their fight for the world's championship, and although they lost the first two games to the Yanks, the home town is backing them to win Sunday afternoon, and then to win again and again and yet again.

The Yanks captured the first game play Thursday, 4 to 1. They won the second game Friday, 9 to 3, when the Yanks hit Alexander so hard they compelled him to retire. They were on their home ground. The Cardinals will feel the weight of home support Sunday and are being backed strong to win.

Aggies Win Easily From Sewanee In Game At Dallas

DALLAS, Oct. 6.—Some Aggie supporters may have been apprehensive that the vaunted Sewanee eleven would roll the Texans in the dust, but their fears must have faded away after the first few minutes of play. Sewanee never had a look-in and the Aggies' goal was never in danger. The Aggies piled up their score rapidly in each quarter, having amassed a total of 60 to a goose egg for the visitors at the end of the third quarter. The game ended with A. & M. an easy winner.

LOBOES DEFEAT GRID TEAM FROM EL PASO

CISCO, Oct. 6.—The Loboos and the Tigers met in a hard fight Friday and the Loboos proved the better fighters. The score was 14 to 7 in favor of the Loboos.

T. C. U. DEFEATS SIMMONS, SCORE BEING 19 TO 3

CISCO, Oct. 6.—Simmons was outplayed by Texas Christian University in the game here today, T. C. U. winning, 19 to 3.

NEW YORK

By Wm. M. Myers
New York is unequalled as a model in most things. A motor trip through northern New Jersey, up-state New York and still farther is a series of echoes of the big city. There is the one-arm lunch called "The White Way," and the haberdashery next door with its enormous sign "Broadway Men's Shop" and across the street the tailoring establishment with gold letters announcing "New York Suits and Cloaks."

But in Manhattan it is different. Next door to the English tailor you will find Rue de la Something French shop and across the street a cellar eating place announcing "Italian food as it is in Italy." A Frenchman walking along Fifth avenue is able to read as many shop signs in French as he might along the Rue de L'Opera.

I walked into one of these very Frenchy shops, the other day to see if I might purchase a small novelty for a friend, but the sales-girl who looked quite foreign and chic in her make-up and imported frock laughed when I attempted to talk in French, saying quite simply: "Aw talk English, Mister, there ain't nothing French about this place but the name."

I was never so amazed in my life when the other night I took some friends to a typical Russian dining place on the fringe of Greenwich Village after telling them the proprietors could only talk with "skis" at the end of every word, to have the headwaiter walk up to me, shake my hand and say "Glad to see you, and as luck will have it, we have Irish stew tonight."

I have heard of instances where grown men go to hotel roofs to skip rope, play handball and run around for exercise as they would on a running track. In the Roosevelt Hotel's health institute there are a dozen or more of the city's leading business and professional men who spend hours a week pulling away at the oars of rowboats that never move an inch.

The very said old gentleman who occupies the house next to mine and, who barely nods his head to neighbors, is like a boy among a flock of pigeons. Not so long ago when I was passing through the park I discovered him on his knees pitching corn to a group of pigeons and he was kicking one leg out angrily to keep away the squirrels vainly attempting to get some of the food.

And the haughty old lady I frequently see mornings near the park, at heart is a real motherly soul. Two mornings in succession now I have seen her romping with the children in the park and chatting gaily with their mothers. The haughtiness is just her way, just as the staidness is the way of the gentleman who occupies the house next door to me. And in this respect New York is not unlike any other place, I guess.

World Series Game Third This Season, In St. Louis Today

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—The whole city is behind the Cardinals in their fight for the world's championship, and although they lost the first two games to the Yanks, the home town is backing them to win Sunday afternoon, and then to win again and again and yet again.

The Yanks captured the first game play Thursday, 4 to 1. They won the second game Friday, 9 to 3, when the Yanks hit Alexander so hard they compelled him to retire. They were on their home ground. The Cardinals will feel the weight of home support Sunday and are being backed strong to win.

Aggies Win Easily From Sewanee In Game At Dallas

DALLAS, Oct. 6.—Some Aggie supporters may have been apprehensive that the vaunted Sewanee eleven would roll the Texans in the dust, but their fears must have faded away after the first few minutes of play. Sewanee never had a look-in and the Aggies' goal was never in danger. The Aggies piled up their score rapidly in each quarter, having amassed a total of 60 to a goose egg for the visitors at the end of the third quarter. The game ended with A. & M. an easy winner.

LOBOES DEFEAT GRID TEAM FROM EL PASO

CISCO, Oct. 6.—The Loboos and the Tigers met in a hard fight Friday and the Loboos proved the better fighters. The score was 14 to 7 in favor of the Loboos.

T. C. U. DEFEATS SIMMONS, SCORE BEING 19 TO 3

CISCO, Oct. 6.—Simmons was outplayed by Texas Christian University in the game here today, T. C. U. winning, 19 to 3.

NEW YORK

By Wm. M. Myers
New York is unequalled as a model in most things. A motor trip through northern New Jersey, up-state New York and still farther is a series of echoes of the big city. There is the one-arm lunch called "The White Way," and the haberdashery next door with its enormous sign "Broadway Men's Shop" and across the street the tailoring establishment with gold letters announcing "New York Suits and Cloaks."

But in Manhattan it is different. Next door to the English tailor you will find Rue de la Something French shop and across the street a cellar eating place announcing "Italian food as it is in Italy." A Frenchman walking along Fifth avenue is able to read as many shop signs in French as he might along the Rue de L'Opera.

I walked into one of these very Frenchy shops, the other day to see if I might purchase a small novelty for a friend, but the sales-girl who looked quite foreign and chic in her make-up and imported frock laughed when I attempted to talk in French, saying quite simply: "Aw talk English, Mister, there ain't nothing French about this place but the name."

ATTRACTION SUPREME FOR THE STATE FAIR AUDITORIUM PROGRAM

DALLAS.—Roy Rupard, secretary of the State Fair of Texas, announces that the advance ticket orders and the mail orders from out of town for "The Desert Song" are three times in excess of those of my previous attraction brought to the State Fair as an amusement feature.

"There is a reason for this," says Mr. Rupard. "Hundreds and hundreds of Texas people have already seen 'The Desert Song' in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and St. Louis. They report that it is in many ways the best show we have ever brought to the State Fair. They are telling their friends that we have booked a show that will delight everyone and that the prices being charged are only three-fifths of those charged in the other cities. They are also buying seats for themselves and their friends to whom they want to give a treat, and so the advance orders continue to pile in from all parts of Texas. They come addressed to me at Fair Park and I am filling them strictly in the order in which they are received."

"The Desert Song" is by Mr. Romberg, who composed "The Student Prince." The prima donna is Bernice Claire, of whom John Rosenfield, Jr., a dramatic critic of the Dallas News, who saw the company in St. Louis, says: "She is the most remarkable combination of good voice, good looks and charming personality I have ever seen or heard." There are 100 singers in the company, and the best orchestra ever brought to Dallas with a traveling company.

WHIRLWIND BY ELEANOR EARLY

CHAPTER XII
 Captain Hanna was short and fat and jolly, with a rolling gait and a big, loud laugh.

John Arnold was a pudgy little man and the hair on the top of his head was thin and getting thinner. He had a small, black mustache and a sharp little nose and a tremendous chin. Mr. Arnold was an antique dealer.

Richard Eustis was tall and slim. His hair was light brown and wavy. He wore it rather long and had a habit of shaking it back from his forehead impatiently. His eyes were blue and his skin very pale. His mouth was well-shaped, with lips so vivid they almost seemed to have been camouflaged. He had a crooked little whimsical smile, and one eyebrow quirked up when he talked.

"He looks," thought Sybil, "like a hungry poet. I'll bet Mab would like to cook him a good meal and run her fingers through his hair."

Arnold was one of those people who love to find mutual acquaintances.

"So you come from Boston?" he queried. "Now I used to know a lot of people in Boston. I'm from New Haven myself. Let's see—d you know George Tracy? and the Osgoods?—they're the wooten people. You don't? Well, now, that's strange. I suppose you know Mrs. Young—Mrs. Leon Young? Fine old lady. . . ."

Eustis was quieter.

"I've asked the steward to bring up Martin's," he said. "Perhaps you had rather have something else?"

Mabel was trying desperately to look sophisticated.

"I simply adore them!" she exclaimed.

And when they came she whispered excitedly to Sybil, "Do you eat the foolish olive, or let it lay?"

The captain had left.

"Make yourselves at home," he told them. "I'll be in later."

Eustis, presently, began to devote himself to Sybil. Arnold had Mabel in a cozy corner, chatting of Sandwich glass.

"I've a precious dolphin candlestick I'd like to give you," Sybil heard him say, while Mab looked as if she would like to choke him.

In vain Sybil tried to make the conversation four-sided. Eustis could be positively rude.

"I'm up on antiques," he announced. "And John can't talk about anything else. I'm grateful to you, Miss Blake, for taking him off my hands. By the Lord Harry, I need a little respite. And now, since we're well rid of John, suppose you and I take a little stroll, Miss Thorne. There's such a glorious moon tonight."

"But I thought we were going to play bridge."

"And waste a perfectly good moon!"

"But I'd been anticipating such a nice little game. I'm crazy about bridge, Mr. Eustis."

Mabel, in the corner, interrupted her loquacious companion.

"Run along, Sib, it's too lovely a night for cards. Take my scarf to throw over your shoulders, and don't forget to wish on the moon."

"What did I tell you?" she muttered under her breath, as she flung a bit of flowered chiffon across Sybil's shoulders and grinned despairingly.

They were scarcely out of hearing when Eustis turned to Sybil. "You wouldn't break up an antique twosome like that, would you?" he demanded.

"Why, what do you mean?"

"Oh, your chaperon and my pest here, discussing spinets and lowboys, like a couple of old cronies. Antique fanatics give me a pain."

"Mab isn't a fanatic, and she isn't my chaperon. She's a perfect peach, and she's lady enough not to show it when she's bored to death. And if antique fanatics
