REGISTRATION BIRTHS-DEATHS MUST BE KEPT

Mrs. John Matthews Appointed Registrar In Eastland. Records Of Utmost Importance.

(By MRS. W. J. JACKSON)
Few people in this busy world stop to think out many vital things, especially vital laws that were drawn for the protection and betterment of the human race. At least, in civilized countries. In France, in all foreign countries that have an established form of government, in fact, it is as impossible to escape the duty of registering the birth of every child newly arrived as it is to breathe if you're living. The same rule applies in case of death. Every person who "passes away" has to have that fact duly recorded—also how, when, where and lots of other red tape besides.

For some years Texas has been far behind in keeping these two classes of vital statistics—and, in some small towns, birth and death registrations are ignored almost completely—either through ignorance, or through a most culpable indifference. Many a babe has been found dead or dying in a corn field, or abandoned in a ditch, its parentage unsolved, that, had the birth registration law been strictly observed, as it is meant to be,

Lena Blackburne told his boys his first lecture as the new manager of the Chicago White Sox was that there was one important rule for all of them. They had to be in bed at midnight and out of bed before 9:30 a. m. Several days later, one of his men, a rebel under the previous administration, appeared in the club house before the game with a fresh drop of egg on his vest and the new manager decided to investigate.

Faces Trial As Husband's Killer

Although Percy Eiker, 22, of Gettysburg, Pa., died insisting that he shot himself with suicidal intent, his 20-year-old wife, Helen, mother of their two-year-old son, confessed, police say, to shooting him because of his alleged infidelity. Police discredit Eiker's story of the shooting and have charged Mrs. Eiker with murder.

COUNTY FAIR ARRANGEMENTS ARE DISCUSSED

Men and Women of Eastland Will Work Together To Make Event a Big Success.

Responding to a call issued by Walter Hart and Jess Day, named by the Chamber of Commerce directors to make arrangements for the Eastland county fairs, September 27 to 29 inclusive, a score of Eastland men and women met Tuesday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce and discussed plans. Entertainment features were considered chiefly.

Miss Mary Sue Rumph was named chairman of the night entertainments which are to include six months' "jazz" and "blues" at the opera house of the station decided it would be novel to have Tuttle continue as usual and permission was asked to install a microphone in the county jail.

The county board of supervisors didn't like the idea, and denied permission to install the microphone. So Tuttle will serve his time as any other prisoner and poltry raisers will have to obtain their helpful hints from other sources.

Defendant Becomes Ill, Delaying Her Trial For Murder

BASTROP, July 25.—Mrs. Rosa Waybourne was reported nearly hysterical and very ill by jail attendants today, shortly before she was to take the stand to testify in the "murder for hire" of her husband, W. W. Waybourne, with which she is charged. It was possible that court would be adjourned until she had recovered sufficiently to tell her story to the jury.

Election Returns Flashed on Screen Saturday Night

Eastland returns furnished by the Eastland Telegram will be displayed on a screen opposite the Connellee Theatre Saturday night. The polls close at 7 o'clock and as soon thereafter as sufficient darkness gathers the returns will be flashed. This will probably be between 8 and 8:30 o'clock.

Returns from the state will be gathered by the Texas Election Bureau at Dallas and sent to Eastland on leased wires. Returns from Eastland county will be collected as rapidly as possible by every available means. Because of the length of the ticket the count is likely to be slow, but it will be reported as it proceeds as rapidly as the figures can be collected.

TWO MEN BURN TO DEATH IN ARIZONA FIRE

Gasoline Explosion Makes Them Living Torches. Half-Million Dollars Property Damage.

KINGMAN, Ariz., July 25.—Two men were dead and property damage was estimated at more than $500,000 as the result of an all-night oil fire that was brought under control.

Harry Rogers of Los Angeles and Harold Davis of Kingman became living torches when showered by exploding gasoline, and died from burns.

William St. Charles, who sought to rescue them, suffered serious burns. H. G. Putnam, another rescuer, was less severely burned.

Goldthwaite Girl Dies, Indian Gap Youth Is Sought

BROWNWOOD, July 25.—A state-wide search was started Tuesday night for Bert Mayfield, 2, against whom murder charges were filed late Tuesday afternoon, several hours after the death of Miss Ruby Osborne, 17, of Goldthwaite.

Miss Osborne died in a sanitarium here without regaining consciousness after she was found at midnight last Wednesday on a highway near her home. Upon examination it was revealed that she sustained a fracture of the skull and a broken shoulder.

Attending physicians declared that Miss Osborne received her injuries when she leaped or was thrown from an automobile. Mayfield disappeared from his home in Indian Gap, Hamilton county, 10 miles from Goldthwaite, several hours after the girl was found, and a quiet search was being made for him by officers at the time the death of the girl was announced, resulting in the filing of murder charges against him.

Funeral services for Miss Osborne were held Tuesday afternoon and burial was in North Brown cemetery.

HUTCHISON, Kansas, July 25.—Fearing violence to the state's star witnesses in the Lamar, Colorado, bank robbery two months ago, Sheriff L. E. Alderman, of Lamar, here with Carrol Turley, 18, of Wichita for identification as a suspect in the robbery which resulted in the death of three bank robbers and a Kansas doctor, refused to discuss the case with newspaper men and steadfastly kept secret the names of Lamar citizens who are coming here to view the suspect.

In Hollywood's Passion Play

Pretty Althea Wayne is cast in the role of the Samaritan slave girl in the Pilgrimage Play given this year in the outdoor amphitheater in the hills of Hollywood. This is the ninth year of the play, which is the American equivalent of Europe's Passion Play at Oberammergau. Miss Wayne's costume, like others in the play, is a faithful reproduction of fashions of dress in the day of Christ.

Enraged Man Is Killed, Victim Of His Riotous Anger

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 25.—Apparently angered when he came home last evening to find a visitor's car parked in his driveway, Ralph D. Tidwell, 30, automobile salesman, ran the visitor and car from the premises and then rammed the car with his own.

Both machines overturned, Tidwell was crushed to death and the visitor, Everett Collins, 20, escaped injury. Collins had come to visit two girl relatives of Tidwell.

MAY WHISPER, MAY VOTE, BUT MAY NOT WINK

Al Smith Said To Have Peculiar Appeal To Youngsters, Whose Support Will Be Sought.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The United States Civil service commission issued a formal warning to all federal employees today against participating in the political campaign this fall. The commission stated that government employees under its jurisdiction who violated the rule would be dismissed. "Civil Service employees, while retaining the right to vote and to express privately their opinion on political subjects, are forbidden to take an active part in political management or political campaign," the article said.

It warned that it was criminal offense for political leaders to solicit funds, make assessments against government employees or show discrimination in favor of those who made campaign contributions. Presidential appointees were told not to use their official authority or influence to coerce the political action of any person or body, not to make political contributions or solicit funds for a campaign and not to discriminate among employees or applicants for political reasons.

DEMOCRATS MAY PLAN TO CATCH YOUNGER VOTE

NEW YORK, July 25.—Democratic leaders are planning a special campaign to win the young voters' support for Governor Al Smith. This includes those between 21 and 30 years of age, with special emphasis upon the youngsters who will vote for the first time.

The idea of a special appeal for the younger generation vote came here in a letter from a Western leader who travels extensively and reported strong support for Smith among the young people in the West.

WOMAN KILLED, HUSBAND HURT IN CAR CRASH

HILLSBORO, July 25.—Mrs. Effie Parrott, wife of R. W. Parrott, of Waco, was instantly killed Tuesday when their car skidded and overturned nine miles south of Hillsboro on the Waco-Hillsboro highway. Both were thrown from the car. Mrs. Parrott being killed instantly and her husband being bruised about the head and body. They were en route to Fort Worth.

H. C. Armstrong vs. Myrtle Armstrong, divorce, in 91st district court.

Hooks and Slides

How Could It Happen?

In the second inning of a recent game between the New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians three of the Cleveland young men scored the grand total of one run on three successive singles and three consecutive walks.

Of course, the Cleveland young men lost the ball game and another "lucky" one was marked up for the Yankees.

Here's How.

Second inning. Cleveland. Hodapp lined to Durocher, Summa singled to center and died stealing. L. Sewell singled to center. Bayne lined a single to center. Koenig pulling up at second. Koenig threw out Jamieson. No runs. Three hits.

Third inning. Cleveland. Lind singled to right. Langford bunted safely to third. Lind was picked off second. J. Sewell singled and Langford, trying for third, was out. Burns walked. Hodapp walked, filling the bases. Summa walked, forcing J. Sewell home. Pigras tossed out L. Sewell. One run. Three hits.

Mr. Burns Tells This.

Lena Blackburne told his boys in his first lecture as the new manager of the Chicago White Sox that there was one important rule for all of them. They had to be in bed at midnight and out of bed before 9:30 a. m. Several days later, one of his men, a rebel under the previous administration, appeared in the club house before the game with a fresh drop of egg on his vest and the new manager decided to investigate.

The next day he discovered him in the dining room at late lunch time inhaling a big dish of ham and eggs.

"The next time you order ham and eggs for lunch it'll cost you just fifty bucks. You never eat those things for lunch," the manager said.

Them Last Laughs.

No tears were shed by the ball players or the fans when "Oil" Smith was canned by the Pittsburgh Pirates. "Oil" isn't popular with the players or with the fans or with the magnates.

Here's G. A. Lowe, Olympic 500-meter champion and famous British middle distance runner, who looms as a winner again this year in the 800-meter event at Amsterdam. American runners will have to step lively to defeat him at Amsterdam, according to his time in recent races.

Tuttle was arrested recently on a liquor charge and sentenced to six months in jail. Undismayed, the operators of the station decided it would be novel to have Tuttle continue as usual and permission was asked to install a microphone in the county jail.

Whoofus Whiffletree's Woozy Wonderings

Move over and make room for Brownwood. According to the Cisco Daily News, the Brown county metropolis has decided to join the Class A football ranks after sojourning for the past two seasons in Class B. articles. While the article does not state positively that Brownwood will be in the Oil Belt district, it is presumed that such will be the case for, when the Lions were in Class A, they played in this district. In that event, Whoofus' platform of more teams is about to be adopted. And that's more than can be said of some of these political platforms.

"Dutch" Woodward, well known coach and athlete, is the new athletic mentor of Brownwood High, we believe we noted some time ago in the public prints. There is no reason why Brownwood should not be represented by a strong team. Brownwood is in a football atmosphere as the fame of Howard Payne and Daniel Baker elevens is great. This would serve as an inspiration to the high school boys. It is our observation that Dallas football teams of the various high schools are smart and smooth-running, and we believe this is partly due to the chance the players have to see S. M. U. Mustangs in action. They pick up plays and gain ideas in this way. The same doubtless will be true in the case of Brownwood.

Brownwood will play in Cisco on Oct. 13. If the Lions are in this district, it means that schedules will have to be revised. However, the schedules are so full of open dates that there will be no difficulty. Even Abilene's schedule is not full enough to appease the appetite of Eagle fans, we believe "Prexy" will agree after pondering the menu of official games. The Eagles start flying on Oct. 20—as far as the conference season is concerned, Eastland goes to Abilene on that day. Six days later, Abilene journeys to Ranger. Then there is a hiatus of 14 days to Nov. 9 When Breckenridge goes to Abilene. Then there is another vacancy of 14 days with the Eagles winging their way on Nov. 23 to San Angelo with the intention of picking bare the bones of the Bobcats. The final game is on Nov. 30 against Cisco, on the Lobo field.

Simmons to Play 14 Grid Contests

ABILENE, July 24.—The longest football schedule in the state for any college team has just been announced for the Simmons University Cowboys, which includes 14 games, two of them with Southwestern conference teams and the last, on Dec. 14, with the Olympic club of San Francisco.

The Cowboys play all five Texas conference teams, three of them at home. Texas Christian university and Southern Methodist university will be played on neutral territories, at Breckenridge and Wichita Falls respectively. Following is the schedule: Sept. 22, Decatur Baptist college at Abilene; Sept. 28 or 29, Sul Ross at Midland; Oct. 6, T. C. U. at Breckenridge; Oct. 13, S. M. U. at Wichita Falls; Oct. 20, West Texas Teachers at Canyon; Oct. 27, Daniel Baker at Abilene; Nov. 3, St. Edwards at Abilene; Nov. 7, Southwestern at Georgetown; Nov.

12, Trinity at Abilene; Nov. 20, Austin college at Abilene; Nov. 24, Texas Tech at Lubbock; Nov. 29 (Thanksgiving), School of Mines at El Paso; Dec. 7, Howard Payne at Brownwood; Dec. 14, Olympic club at Abilene.

FOUR HEADLINERS

ABILENE.—Four premier attractions, the largest single series of programs ever brought to West Texas, have been booked by the management of Simmons University to appear at the university auditorium during the coming school year.

They are Sousa's Band, Paul Whiteman's orchestra, Will Rogers and John McCormick. Sousa's band will appear on October 18, Paul Whiteman on November 3, and Will Rogers in April. No date has been set for the appearance of McCormick, but the great tenor will probably be here sometime during the winter.

The attractions are being fostered jointly by the university and the Cowboy Band.

WARNING!

To the Voters of Eastland County

R. Q. Lee will win this race in the first primary unless the voters are prejudiced by 'last minute' campaign stories being put out by certain gentlemen who have deliberately waited until the last minute when they knew there would be no time for Mr. Lee to present the facts in refutation of these charges in a desperate attempt to prevent his nomination in the first primary.

It has come to our attention that the county will be flooded on the last days of this campaign with propaganda designed to prejudice the voters of the county against R. Q. Lee of Eastland county.

For this reason it is necessary for us to call upon our friends to aid us in overcoming this desperate attempt to mislead the voters of Eastland County. We also desire to appeal to the sense of fair play of the citizenship of this county and to reprimand these quasi politicians and put their disapproval upon this contemptible method of campaigning.

Hon. O. C. Funderburk

for Associate Justice

Court of Civil Appeals

[Eleventh District]

Important Office

THE Courts of Civil Appeals are and must continue to be held in high regard by all citizens, for it is to these courts that we all look for unbiased and unprejudiced decisions on matters of law.

An individual may be a plaintiff today, or a defendant tomorrow, but in the Court of Civil Appeals there is never a question of guilt or innocence and no jury of 12 men to share in the responsibility of a verdict; the opinions may only be based on the knowledge of law and its interpretation.

Requires Capable Man

THE qualifications of the man to fill a vacancy are most exacting. It takes more than a man with the desire to do his duty; it takes a man who KNOWS the law as it is, together with a knowledge of the history of all law.

It takes a man with the patience to study, a man who has studied deeply and who will continue to study deeply in order that his decisions and opinions will stand the test of time . . . whose reasoning power and knowledge combine to govern the soundness of his judgment.

Here is the Man

JUDGE FUNDERBURK'S contemporary lawyers concede his ability and thoroughness as a student. His experience as a practicing attorney, as judge of various courts, as assistant attorney general of the State of Texas, and, in his present capacity of associate justice in the Court of Civil Appeals, have combined to make him by far the outstanding man for the place.

He gave up his law practice to accept the temporary appointment, and has filled the vacancy admirably. It is only right, in view of his ability and qualifications, that he be elected at this time.

Hon. O. C. Funderburk, Eastland

Qualified by education and experience plus natural ability---Judge Funderburk is well deserving of your vote

The following voters endorse Judge Funderburk in his candidacy and believe him eminently qualified to continue in his present capacity:
