

HOW TO SAVE $16 BILLIONS—

Peace Guarantee Asked

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—Rep. Cannon (D-Mo) said today that if world leaders can guarantee peace, the United States could save some $16,000,000,000 in the next fiscal year. Cannon, ranking Democrat on the House Appropriations Committee, did his calculating as Chairman Carroll Reece of the Republican national committee urged the GOP rank and file to support efforts of their congressmen to trim what he called President Truman's "outrageously padded" budget.

Pioneer To Start Air Service Into Here On Feb. 19

Truman Stands Firm Against Hiking Rents

Barge Explosion Rocks Galveston

HOUSTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—An explosion caused by the collision of two barges with a passing boat late tonight in the Houston ship channel 20 miles up from Bolivar peninsula rocked Galveston Island, Texas City and suburbs of Houston.

Premier Given Okay

ATHENS, Feb. 1. (AP)—The new Greek coalition government of Premier Demetrios Maximos today received a vote of confidence of 252 to 35 in parliament. The vote came after a five-day debate on government policy.

LAYERS OF BLAZING HEAT ARE FOUND IN UPPER ATMOSPHERE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—Layers of blazing heat have been found in the frigid upper atmosphere, scientists announced tonight. Up to now it had been assumed that above seven miles, the temperature remained constant at 67 degrees below zero fahrenheit.

Soviet Objects To US Plan To Cut Armaments

11-Nation Group To Supervise Program Is Told

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Feb. 1. (AP)—An American proposal for world-wide arms reduction being drafted for presentation to the United Nations Security Council already has snagged on Russian objections, authoritative sources said today. The basic arms-atomic plan, authored by Delegate Warren R. Austin after consultations with President Truman and Secretary of State George C. Marshall, was taken up privately and in advance with the other 10 nations on the council. The Soviet objections developed during a conference between Austin and Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, who represents Russia on the peace making body.

Bandit Holds Up Longview Club

LONGVIEW, Feb. 1. (AP)—A calm, unmasked bandit escaped with $20,000 after a bold daylight holdup at the Business Men's Recreation Club here today.

Trio Found Dead After Snowstorm

JEFFERSON, Wis., Feb. 1. (AP)—A searching party today found the bodies of a man and wife and their 11-year-old daughter huddled under a piece of carpeting along a fence where they died of exposure during Wednesday night's blinding snowstorm.

GROUNDHOGS IN TEXAS MAY SEE CLEARLY DEFINED SHADOW TODAY

If any Texas groundhogs venture into the open today they will probably see a clearly defined shadow. This traditionally is taken to mean that winter will last six weeks more. Chances are, however, according to the best non-marmotian sources, (Groundhogs, woodchucks and marmots are all the same animal) that it will be too cold over most of the state for cozily hibernating groundhogs to bother looking for shadows.

Truman Hails Labor Plan To Stop Strikes

Barricades Rolled Out In Hanging

JERUSALEM, Feb. 1. (AP)—British troops rolled out new barbed wire barricades and merged with police to form heavy street patrols of eight to 10 men today as rumors spread that Dov Bel Gruner, convicted member of the Jewish underground would go to the gallops on Tuesday. Some Jewish quarters in the city were divided into half mile square pens by triple barbed wire.

16 Persons Die As Plane Hits Mountain Top

LISBON, Portugal, Feb. 1. (AP)—Sixteen persons were killed today when an Air France passenger plane crashed into a peak near the ancient Royal Mountain resort of Cintra, 12 miles northwest of Lisbon. One person survived the crash of the Paris to Lisbon transport, which Portuguese authorities said, carried 12 passengers and a crew of five.

Minister Who Married King Has Become Texan

BRENNHAM, Tex., Feb. 1. (AP)—The Church of England pastor who married King Edward VIII and twice-divorced Wally Warfield Simpson ten years ago has become a Texan. The Rev. R. Anderson Jardine and his wife have moved to Brenham and plan to open a Bible institute.

A&M President Blames Hazing

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 1. (AP)—College President Glib Gilchrist insisted tonight that the "trouble at A&M stems from hazing" and suggested that parents of cadets involved "write to their sons urging that they compose themselves, if disturbed, and get on with their studies."

FBI Jails Two Slayer Suspects

ST. PAUL, Feb. 1. (AP)—Arrest of two men charged with murder in the decapitation slaying of Alvin L. Maddox of Mohall, N. D., last August, was announced today by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Plumbers In England Face Pipe Emergency

LONDON, Feb. 1. (AP)—In the wake of England's worst cold wave in 70 years came a watery chaos of broken pipes today. It was the most hectic day in the memories of plumbers throughout the country. Urgent calls for assistance reached Middlesex plumbers at the rate of one a minute. Most of the callers got a curt brushoff. The workmen had more work than they could handle.

Tear Gas Is Used On Rioting Moslems

LAHORE, Punjab, Feb. 1. (AP)—Police fired tear gas tonight into the ranks of several thousand Moslems participating in continuing mass demonstrations against the Punjab government.

Bilbo Says If He Dies His Spirit 'Will Haunt Them' In Washington

New Orleans, Feb. 1. (AP)—Theodore G. Bilbo declared here today that he had no intention of resigning under fire from the United States Senate, and that he would go to Washington to demand his seat "as soon as I am well." "I am going back to Washington if I live," Bilbo declared vehemently from his hospital bed. "If I die my spirit will go back there and haunt the hell out of them."

Reviewing The Big Spring -Week-

Howard county will have a potential voting strength of 5,800 in 1947. This is the conclusion to be drawn from incomplete totals Saturday evening at the tax collector's office. Poll taxes and exemptions may reach the 5,000 mark when all receipts are cleared. Add to that those who hold "permanent" exemptions outside the city limits, plus some soldiers who will still be entitled to a free vote if they have not been out of service 18 months at the time of balloting.

Deafened Now Hear With Tiny Single Unit

Science has now made it possible for the deafened to hear faint sounds. It is a hearing device so small that it fits in the hand and enables thousands to enjoy sermons, music, and friendly companionship. Accepted by the Council on Physical Medicine of the American Medical Association. This device does not require separate battery pack, battery wire, case or garment to bulge or weigh you down. The tone is clear and powerful. So made that you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing as your hearing changes. The makers of Beltone, Dept. 7053, 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement that they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get a full demonstration of this remarkable hearing device in your own home without risking a penny. Write Beltone today. (Adv.)

The Texas Poll—

Only 35 Per Cent For Truman In '48

By The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, Feb. 1. — President Truman's popularity has increased since last December when he forced John L. Lewis to call off the coal strike, but still less than half of the eligible voters in Texas think he should run for re-election.

The Texas Poll finds that almost two-thirds of the people are either opposed to his seeking re-election in 1948 or haven't made up their minds. Only thirty-five per cent say definitely that the Democrats should nominate him for another term.

A representative cross-section of the adult population was asked: "Do you think President Truman should run for re-election in 1948?"

Results show no significant difference between the opinion of Texans who voted for Roosevelt in 1944, and public opinion as a whole, including Republicans, Texas Regulars and those who didn't vote in the last presidential election.

The vote, including all adults:

Yes	35%
No	45%
Undecided	20%

The vote, including only 1944 Roosevelt Democrats:

Yes	35%
No	45%
Undecided	20%

Among those who don't want Truman to run again, only one out of every three has someone else in mind to recommend as Democratic standard bearer. Having answered "on" to the first question, they were asked: "Then whom would you like to see the Democratic Party nominate in 1948?"

Tabulation of results:

Wallas	7.1%
Wallace	3.7%
Eisenhower	2.8%
Connally	2.8%
Rayburn	2.8%
Dewey	1.8%
Stassen	1.4%
Others	8.0%
Undecided	66.0%

Engineers To Aid Laying Pipe Lines

The City of Big Spring has been notified by the Army Engineers' District office in Albuquerque, N.M., that field men will come here soon to help city personnel plan re-location of water and sewer lines at the veterans hospital site. H. W. Whitney, acting city manager, said that several lines will be moved, but the city will not begin the work until the engineers arrive for consultation on new locations.

Vet Complains Wife's Affections Were Alienated

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 1. (AP) Victor T. Mount, Houston, Texas, war veteran who last fall filed suit against F. C. Hall, 70, Oklahoma City oil man for $350,000 for allegedly alienating the affections of Mrs. Mount, today amended his complaint in federal district court by defining the "wiles and blandishments" which he originally charged Hall used to entice Mrs. Mount away from him.

In the amended complaint, Mount alleged that prior to his marriage there had existed "for many years" a relationship between Hall and Mrs. Mount which started in her early womanhood, and that "she was kept and supported by the defendant."

Mount then alleged that Hall continued the relationship after Mount's marriage and that he enticed Mrs. Mount to return to Oklahoma City from Texas by using "past bounties as a means of influencing" her.

Hall had asked Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaught to require Mount to make more definite and certain his charges that Hall used "wiles and blandishments" to entice Mrs. Mount away from her husband. The amended complaint was to meet Judge Vaught's ruling that Hall was entitled to that information.

Living Memorial To Soldiers Set

Initial plans for selecting a shrub or plant to serve as "a living memorial to our soldiers" were made at a meeting of the yard beautification committee of the chamber of commerce Friday night.

Although details of procedure are yet to be mapped, the committee hopes to make the selection by popular vote. Then the committee will sponsor a yard beautification contest with prizes for the most attractive "memorial."

Mrs. L. R. McIntire, chairman of the committee, said the plans would be announced soon and then emphasized at club meetings throughout the city.

Texas Pioneer Dies At Austin

AUSTIN, Feb. 1. (AP)—O. F. Allen, 85-year-old nephew of the co-founder of the city of Houston, died at 9 a. m. here today.

Allen was the nephew of J. K. and A. C. Allen, the men who founded the city of Houston. His father, Judge Harvey Allen, was the supreme judge of Harris County in the days of the Republic of Texas and was at one time railroad surveyor of Texas by appointment from Sam Houston.

He led a varied career. He went to work at the age of about 18 as shipping and receiving clerk at Galveston. Later he went to Florida and established his own Gulf area barge service.

Allen then returned to Texas to become manager of a telephone company at Temple. At the age of 61 he decided to become an optometrist, took a two-year training course and practiced until his eyesight failed him some 12 years ago.

He had lived in Austin with a daughter, Miss Virginia Allen, the past seven years.

Here 'n There

Jenny Lind Porter, 19, senior English major at Texas Christian University has been named to the "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Porter, Fort Worth, and a granddaughter of pioneer Big Spring residents. Miss Porter has authored several poems, some of them carried by Ladies' Home Journal.

Timber Shortages Cut Lumber Output

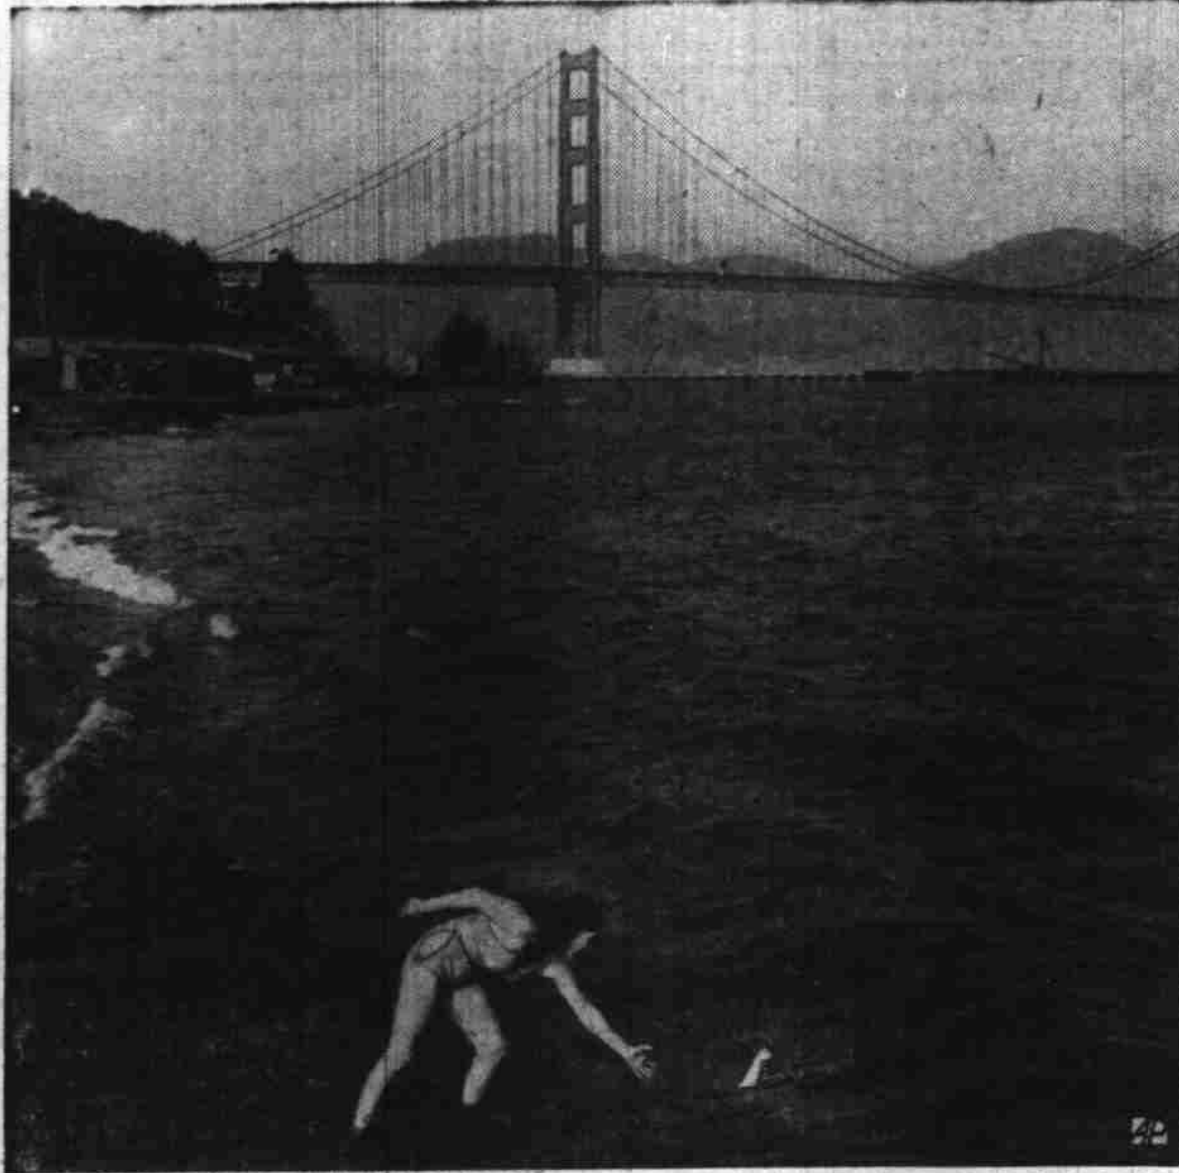

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—The US Forest Service said tonight the nation faces shortages of timber for lumber, paper, cardboard, piling and other uses for many years.

A growing scarcity of good timber, rather than shortages of manpower, equipment and sawmill capacity, will limit production, the agency said in a report.

HUMPTY-DUMPTY FELL

CHICAGO, Feb. 1. (AP)—Wholesale egg prices continued their humpty-dumpty ways this week, with top grades falling to levels fully 20 cents a dozen under those paid as recently as last November.

52-Passenger Plane On Visit

An American Airlines DC-6 airplane, which will be placed in coast-to-coast service within the near future, made a two-hour stop here Saturday morning as part of a familiarization flight to the west coast.

The 52-passenger sleeper craft left New York City on Jan. 17 and since has made stops at Boston, Newark, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, Knoxville, Memphis, Oklahoma City and Dallas.

Aboard were 22 persons, including the chief pilot, Capt. William Dunn, Allen Botsford, AA engineer of passengers and cargo, several technicians and hostesses. The four-engine craft is capable of speeds up to 350 miles per hour and can remain in the air eight hours without refueling. Its cavernous gas tanks carry 3,300 gallons of fuel.

After it reaches Los Angeles, it will probably be sent to Mexico City.

C-C Members Told To Return Ballots

Chamber of commerce members were urged again Saturday by J. H. Greene, chamber manager, to return their ballots for the current directors' election as rapidly as possible.

Greene estimated that approximately 100 votes had been cast Saturday, but pointed out that the rate must be stepped up if all members get their ballots in before deadline.

Only the votes received by Feb. 8 can be counted, the chamber manager reminded. The organization's annual banquet is scheduled for the night of Feb. 18, and the directors named in the election must meet with the holdover directors and organize before that date.

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING—

Local Airports Get Storm-Bound Ships

Airplane pilots in the area were undaunted by the high winds during the past week except for the sudden dust storm Wednesday which served to bring local airports some extra visitors.

Twenty-one transit ships were stranded temporarily at the Munny port, 10 of which were navy twin-engine Beechcrafts. The CAA control tower reported that visibility was down to a quarter of a mile and wind was blowing in gusts up to 72 mph Wednesday.

During the height of the blow, Jack Cook, Munny port manager coaxed the wind to support him as he slumped forward at a 45-degree angle into the wind. He used his coat as a sail.

During the "good days" last week, student pilots at the U&S airport made progress on their respective courses. J. N. Woody Jr. of Stanton and A. C. Wood passed their flight tests and received private pilot's licenses.

Also at the U&S port, Don L. Sprinkle made his first solo flight and Austin Aulds, Vernon Smith and Charles McCubbin made their dual cross country flights during the week. R. F. Forte made his first solo Friday.

Visitors were numerous at the U&S port. Among those stopping during the week were S. V. Painter Jr. of Fort Worth, flying a 1946 Funk, Ray Henderson from Lock Haven, Pa. en route to Walla Walla Washington. Henderson was accompanied by Fred Eberwine of Waukegan, Ill., and Robert Schrader of Jena, La.

A Mr. Mallow and a Mrs. Weaver from Monohans stopped for fuel at the U&S port while on solo cross country flights. H. E. Logsdon of Fort Worth came in for the weekend, flying his new Aeronca trainer, and a Mr. Ross from Tri-City airport in California landed here in his new Sea Bee amphibian for refueling en route from Fort Worth to California.

The Munny port had a distinguished visitor Tuesday when Donald Douglass' "flying office" came through. It is a Douglass DC-3 equipped completely with office furniture, deep carpets and lounging chairs.

Max Fleischmann of the Fleischmann Yeast Co. also stops at the Munny port often. His Lockheed Lodestar is a "flying apartment" with a bed, library, radio-phonograph, desk and refrigerator.

W. T. Ponder, Globe Swift distributor, was here to confer with Vernon Smith, local Swift dealer. The Big Spring Flying Service, which has facilities at the Munny port, now has 30 veterans enrolled in GI flight training courses. Eight students have obtained their private pilots' licenses, and eight are working for commercial licenses. Six others students are now night flying in the Cessna 140. The flight instructors are Jean Westman, and John "Mule" Kayser, chief pilot. Gift Williams, A&E mechanic, and J. W. Kent and L. L. Easley, apprentice mechanics, are installing a loud speaker on one of the Cessnas.

In hanger three at the Munny port, Edwards Aeromotive is busy working on an E17B Beechcraft belonging to Jack Cook and Bill Edwards. Edwards aeromotive has set up a complete repair shop for maintenance of all types of aircraft and engines.

Kingston, Ont., has been designated as the site of the proposed Hockey Hall of Fame.

Services For Pioneer Cattleman Pending

CLEBURNE, Feb. 1. (AP)—Funeral services were pending today for pioneer cattleman Jock Elliott Boog-Scott, 68, who died here yesterday.

Credited with having stamped out foot and mouth disease in Texas in 1924, Boog-Scott died shortly after being interviewed by a reporter concerning that outbreak.

Howard County 4-H Club Steers Qualify At Show

HOUSTON, Feb. 1. — Five of eight 4-H club steers from Howard county qualified for prize money at the annual Fat Stock show here.

Placing highest among the Howard county entries was a heavyweight Hereford fed by James Coates, a 4-H club boy in the R-Bar community. The steer was bred by I. B. Cauble of Big Spring.

A lightweight entry fed by Martin Fryar of the Knott 4-H club, placed 17th in the lightweight Hereford class, and an entry fed by Perry Walker of Center Point placed 18th in the lightweight class.

Two lightweight entries fed by Wayne White of Coahoma placed 19th and 20th, respectively.

The Howard county entries competed with approximately 1,000 other club steers from throughout the Southwest.

County Agent Durward Lewter and the delegation of club boys are scheduled to return to Big Spring Wednesday at the conclusion of the club stock sale.

The University of Minnesota school nursing is the largest of its kind in the nation.

TRUMAN ASSURES NATION'S CAT LOVERS HE DOESN'T DISAPPROVE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—President Truman assured the nation's cat lovers today that he is not against cats—at least the four-legged variety. A reporter jokingly informed the President at his news conference that the Chief Executive was in trouble with cat lovers because they thought he had cast aspersions on them at a recent national press club dinner. The President didn't get it at first, but was reminded that he had told the Press Club that among the many suggestions made to him was one calling for proclamation of National Cat Week. Mr. Truman said that speech was supposed to have been off the record, and anyway he thought some of the requests for proclamations were funny. Then taking a firm position, the President said with an air of finality that he is not against cats, that he is neutral on cats. There are certain sorts of cats he's against, he said, but they have two legs. A woman reporter suggested that they are not all feminine. No, the President agreed, only a small part of them. Somebody quipped he might proclaim a tom cat week but Mr. Truman said he was drawing no line.

New Zoning Plan Cuts Rail Costs

Shipments of fruits and vegetables from points in California to Big Spring are moving by rail at lower rates as a result of re-arranged freight zones, the Texas and Pacific railway has announced. Under the former zone structure, shipments from the West Coast to Big Spring were assessed at the same rate in effect for San Angelo, Sweetwater and other points to the east and south, while rates for Lubbock and some points geographically east of Big Spring were lower. A comparative list of freight rates for peaches and avocados from Los Angeles shows Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, Monahans, Hobbs, N.M. and Lubbock in the $1.20 a hundred pounds zone, while Abilene, San Angelo, Sweetwater and Ballinger are in the $1.27 zone. Under the former schedule, Big Spring was in the same zone with San Angelo. Since the rates for other fruits and vegetables have undergone similar changes, G. L. Brooks, T&P general agent, estimated that the new change would be instrumental in bringing about 11 carloads a week into Big Spring.

EX-CONGRESSMAN DIES
COMMACHE, Feb. 1. (AP)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the Comanche Presbyterian church for Oscar Callaway, former Texas congressman who helped establish the Federal Reserve Bank system. Callaway died last night in the Brownwood hospital.

Poll Tax Receipt Total Due Monday

Clerks of the county tax collector-assessor's office were still counting poll tax receipts which were arriving through the mail Saturday afternoon but the total tabulated already amounted to more than in the corresponding election year, 1945. The aggregate as of Saturday noon was 4,427 as compared to 4,393 for all of 1945. Mrs. Lucille Merrick, spokesman for the department, estimated that between 50 and a hundred of the applications for receipts had not been received. In addition, over-age exemptions ran well ahead of the total two years ago. Tax collector-assessor John Wolcott's records showed 531 exemptions had been granted, as against 147 for 1945. The tax office did a booming business until closing time at midnight Friday. The traffic did not slacken until the late hours and there were calls for the receipts until the doors closed. Regular court of honor for Big Spring boy scouts has been postponed to conform to the National Scout Week observance. H. D. Norris, local scout field executive, announced Saturday. The court was slated for Tuesday night, according to the regular schedule, but it will be changed to Feb. 11. Boy Scout Week will be observed from Feb. 8 to Feb. 13.

Hearing To Limit Several Service Stations Here Hike Gas Price

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—A House judiciary subcommittee today ordered public hearings Monday to speed action on measures limiting the time one may hold the presidency. Nine proposals are before the committee, all constitutional amendments which would require approval of the House and Senate by two-thirds majorities and ratifications by three-fourths of the states. Seven, differing in some details, would limit a president to two terms of four years each. The other two would make the presidential term six years, instead of four as at present, and limit an executive to one term. The issue stems directly from the controversies over Franklin D. Roosevelt's third and fourth terms but Chairman Michener (R-Mich) of the Judiciary committee would go further and prevent political headaches like those which have arisen from the death of a president in office.

Young Demos Set High 1947 Goals

DALLAS, Feb. 1. (AP)—The Young Democratic Club of Texas today had its goal set at 10,000 new members in 1947, each pledged to support a "middle of the road" political role. Just recently re-chartered, the Young Democratic club's executive committee met here yesterday and Chairman Ray Roberts, of McKinney, told the 25 members that "our established path will be between the fences of conservatism and liberalism." Annual membership dues for new members were set at $1 per person and county charter fees at $10 per year. The committee authorized Pete McNeel, of Henderson, club president, to tour Texas in the interests of starting Young Democratic clubs in each of the 254 counties. The present executive committee was certified in December by national Democratic committee man Myron Blalock and state Democratic chairman Robert W. Calvert as the official state Young Democratic organization. It was recognized over a rival group headed by Jack Carter, of Fort Worth.

400 High Schools Take Up Baseball

AUSTIN, Feb. 1. (AP)—Four hundred teams are expected to participate this spring and summer in the Texas interscholastic league baseball campaign. Athletic Director R. J. Kidd said today. Two hundred and fifty schools already have signed up as the league installs a diamond game as part of its big sports program. The baseball rule will go no farther than district championships and there is no set time for district to determine its titles, Kidd explained. The race may start April 20 but each district committee will decide if the championship drive is to be staged during the spring or summer. Districts have not yet been outlined. They can not be determined until all entries are in but each will be limited to about eight schools meaning around 50 districts to stage races.

The Week

date for the premiere of the cantata, "Big Spring," by Frank Grindstaff, a lifer in the Tennessee state prison. The work, said to be a quality semiclassic, is based on Shine Phillips' book of the same name. The T&P male chorus of Dallas will present the work here. For sports fans, the annual Golden Gloves tourney is on tap here Thursday through Saturday and indications are that there will be a fast card. The Big Spring Athletic association is seeking to make it better than last year's success. The chamber of commerce subcommittee on cemetery beautification has come up with some good suggestions, among them one that more people inquire at the city hall of rates for special care of family lots. Another was an invitation to religious and fraternal orders to consider beautification in those sections of the burial ground. A warning to be on the alert in rodent control was sounded by a US Public Health report last week which showed that rodents in the Salubur Draw area from New Mexico to Colorado City have carried fleas infected with bubonic plague. A few cases of this deadly disease have cropped out north of here, and the safest course is to fight rodents which carried the infecting fleas. Announcement by the district highway engineer that survey on the Big Spring - Lenoir - Andrews has been authorized for the Howard county section was well come here last week. When crews can get to it, the way will be opened to another step in preliminary work on the important route. While the response (50 people plus) at the public hearing on zoning was better than some expected Friday, it was not too large considering the scope of the proposed program. The public has once more hearing when the city commission gets the final recommendation from the zoning board. There is considerable talk about beautification just now and it can be beneficial only if it stimulates residents into action. About one more month of ideal planting weather for trees and shrubs and lawn conditioning remains.

Leftist Japanese Appeal To Council

TOKYO, Feb. 1. (AP)—Thwarted by General MacArthur in their attempt to tie up the country with a general strike of government employees, leftist Japanese labor leaders appealed to the four-power council for Japan today to go over his head. This first direct challenge to the supreme commander's authority asked the council to recommend that the 11-power far eastern commission send investigators to study the labor dispute and MacArthur's order of yesterday forbidding a strike.

Important Role Of Foodhandlers Here Is Stressed By Physician

In a statement issued Saturday, Dr. F. E. Sadler, director of the Midland-Ector-Howard health unit called attention to the "important role played by foodhandlers" in public eating and drinking establishments. "Approximately 25 different diseases can be transmitted in the food establishment if the workers fail to observe a few common sense rules in the preparation, storage, and dispensing of food and drink," Dr. Sadler declared. He listed five rules, which he said, foodhandlers should practice: (1) Keep a registered health card in good standing; (2) In dispensing food and drink and in handling eating and drinking utensils, keep fingers out of contact with food, drink, ice, surface of utensil with which food comes in contact and portions of utensils normally placed in or to a person's mouth; (3) Avoid contaminating sanitized utensils; (4) Protect food from exposure to filth; and (5) Use good personal hygiene, keep hair under control and do not smoke on the job or work when sick. "Observance of these rules by the foodhandler will create effective barriers to aid in prevention of food poisoning and infection, protecting to a great extent the health of not only the customer but the foodhandler as well," Dr. Sadler concluded.

Marshall May Use 100 Clerks At Meet

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall told the Russian foreign office tonight he probably will take an official delegation of 100, including clerks as well as advisers, to the Moscow conference of foreign ministers March 10. The State Department also informed the Soviet foreign office that 73 American correspondents, photographers and broadcasters have applied for visas to attend.

Sen. Taylor Asks Taft To Resign

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—Senator Taylor (D-Idaho) tonight charged Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) and other members of the Congressional economic committee with failure to comply with the law and called upon them to do so or resign. Taylor said in a statement that if taking "a clear cut position" on economic matters before the committee "involves personal embarrassment to other offices, he should not have accepted this chairmanship." Taft is considered a possible presidential candidate. The Senate-House economic committee was created by the 1946 employment act. It is required to report to Congress early in the session on economic legislation, and Taylor declared the House "had failed to comply." Taft was not available for comment.

Youth, 19, Admits Helping Escapees

NEW YORK, Feb. 1. (AP)—Kings county District Attorney Miles F. McDonald said today that 19-year-old Philip De Caro admitted he smuggled three hacksaw blades into the Raymond street jail to enable nine prisoners to saw their way out of the old Brooklyn lockup Jan. 2. De Caro and George Gurinovich, 28, one of the escapees, were arrested together yesterday, and later Gurinovich told detectives he financed his 29 days of freedom by a series of robberies.

Attempt To Snuff Out Gas Fire Set

LOGANSPORT, La., Feb. 1. (AP)—Debris was being cleared from the site of a flaming gas well near here tonight as professional oil field fire fighters planned to attempt to snuff out the flames with explosives. The well, Skelly Oil Company's No. 1 Thelma Neal well three and a half miles northwest of here blew out at 3 a.m. today and caught fire. Flames were leaping 50 feet high tonight, causing the derrick to collapse and other metal equipment at the well site to become so hot it will have to be removed before fire fighting efforts can begin.

US And Russian Commanders In Berlin Have Row

BERLIN, Feb. 1. (AP)—The American and Russian commanders of Berlin engaged in a bitter personal exchange over labor policy today in the most serious row that has come into the open since four-power government was established here. In an unprecedented attack on a colleague in the allied commandanture, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, the Soviet commander, aired in the German press the secret proceedings of a commandant meeting and charged Col. Frank L. Howley, American deputy commander, with attempting to "sabotage" a proposed Berlin trade union election. Col. Howley, in turn, declared in a statement that Kotikov of trying to hide the truth. "Have a policy of not washing our dirty linen before the Germans," said another high American official. "This is a plain case of dirty poker." "Never before has a Russian commander, and we have had four of them in Berlin, stooped to insult his allies in the German press," said Howley in his statement.

Agreement On US Military Bases In Philippines Is Set

MANILA, Feb. 1. (AP)—A compromise agreement on establishment of American military bases in the Philippines was reported near today after more than five weeks of negotiations in which the Americans started the Filipinos by offering to withdraw all their forces. This offer, by Ambassador McPresident Roxas and his chief negotiator, foreign secretary Elpidio Quirino. The interchange was credited with strengthening the American bargaining position. Insurance Director Confers On Policies L. D. Barbour of Waco, director of sales for the Southern Farm Bureau Life Insurance company, conferred here Saturday with local farm bureau officials concerning sales of charter policies in the new company. The organization covers five states, Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, Kentucky and Alabama, with headquarters in Jackson, Miss. The company will be ready to issue charter policies soon, Barbour said, and over $25,000,000 in insurance already has been pledged by farm bureau members in the five states. Capt. Lorraine Ripps, an army nurse assigned to Ft. Lowry, Colo., is the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ripps. She plans to continue to San Antonio to visit other relatives.

China Policy Hit

Treasure Hunting For Life Savings

HEREFORD, England, Feb. 1. (P)—Mrs. I. Francis knows what it means to look for a needle in a haystack. She's trying to find 200 pounds ($500) in a tin can somewhere among 200,000 other tin cans in the city dump. She tossed some old cans into the rubbish barrel recently and remembered next day that one of them contained her life savings.

Lemon Juice Recipe Checks Rheumatic Pain Quickly

If you suffer from rheumatic aches or pains, try this simple, inexpensive home remedy. Get a pitcher of lemon juice, a two-week supply, and add to it with a quart of water. Add the juice of 1 lemon. It's easy. The trouble of rheumatism is that it comes and goes. You need only 2 tablespoons of lemon juice in a glass of water each time a day. Often you will find relief. If the pain does not quickly leave and if you do not feel better, return the pitcher to the store and buy another under the name of lemon juice. It is recommended by the U. S. Army Medical Department. Write to Collins Bros. and drug stores everywhere.

Recreation Report For 89 Meets Given

A cumulative total attendance of 3,540 in 89 meetings was recorded for Salvation Army recreational activities during January, according to a report Saturday by Capt. Olvy Sheppard. Boxing, with 28 meetings, drew a cumulative attendance of 1,437. The playground had 1,900 over the month, and 23 other meetings at the citadel accounted for a cumulative figure of 803.

Foster No. 1 Womack Gets 600-Quart Shot

Tobe Foster No. 1 Dave Womack, half a mile south of the discovery well in the Coleman Ranch pool of northwest Mitchell county, cleaned out Saturday after a 600 quart shot. The test is in section 3, block 26, Cuthbert strip. Norman & Roche, having completed their No. 2 S. R. Coleman for 207 barrels, prepared to shoot No. 3 Coleman, also in section 70-97, H&TC, Saturday at 2,850 feet total depth. The test carried 1,200 feet of oil. The operators' No. 4 Coleman drilled at 2,460 feet in lime, topped at 1,844 feet. Butram & Associates No. 1-A Coleman, also in section 70, continued cleaning out operations from a 555-quart shot from 2,615-2,830 feet. At 2,800 feet, the test had a hold full of oil. The Butram No. 1-B Coleman was below 943 feet in anhydrite.

Doswell and Morgan No. 1 R. L. Solomon, section 71-97, H&TC, was at 2,365 feet in lime, top of which was picked at 1,714 feet. Robert J. Wheelock, Jr. No. 1 S. R. Coleman, section 70-97, H&TC, topped lime at 1,669 feet and drilled ahead in the formation below 2,200 feet. It is half a mile south of the discovery well, Burtram (Beavers) No. 1 Coleman. There were unconfirmed reports that the Bond & Harrison No. 1 TXL, half a mile southwest outpost from the East Howard pool, center of section 17-30-1s, T&P, had been abandoned, but depth was lacking. Gutherie & Scott No. 1 TXL, 330 feet from the southeast corner, section 43 29, W & NW, plugged and abandoned at 2,959 feet, failing to locate pay between the Snyder and Chalk areas. The C. A. Camp No. 1 Koberg, south outpost to the Chalk pool, was at 3,600 feet in barren lime.

North Mitchell county got a shallow Sharon Ridge wildcat, an 1,800-foot prospect by I. Wiener, Big Spring and John Odriest on the Hardy lands, 1,650 feet from the north and east lines of section 99-97, H&TC, and Scurry county, had a failure in Humble No. 1 Davis, six and a half miles northwest of Snyder in section 339-97, H&TC, at 7,842 feet. John Pringle and King, Warren & Dye of Midland spotted No. 1 F. J. Steward, a 5,500-foot wildcat 13 miles west of Lamesa and nine miles south of Welch pool production in Dawson county. It is in the C SW SW 105-M, EL&RR. Magnolia loosened a flood of 3,200-foot rotary tests on its Chalk leases, five of them in section 114-29, W&NW, one in section 123 and six in section 124. All are rotary operations. Sun Oil took a 10-year commercial lease from Mr. and Mrs. Jerome S. Stone on 15,770-acre block in central and west central Nolan county, all in block X, T&P, for $1 an acre bonus plus 50 cents annual rental. The tract is 16 miles northeast of Sun No. 1 Allen Jameson, which is a flowing discovery from the Clear Fork at 6,225-40 in northwestern Coke county.

CHISELERS HIT REAL BIG TIME

CHICAGO, Feb. 1. (P)—Jack Stein, manager of a loop hotel tap room, told police the burglars who broke into his office were husky and brazen. Stein said the burglars got into his office by chiseling their way through a wall. They removed a 50-pound safe containing $500. "I can't figure out how it got out," Stein told police. "Employees were in the lobby all night, and nobody saw anybody carrying out safes."

Unequal Distribution Of Funds For Texas Schools Poses Puzzle

By PAUL BOLTON
Herald Austin Bureau

AUSTIN, Feb. 1.—Those who want the Texas Legislature to change the method of distributing the available school fund among the state's school districts are finding complications which may spoil the finish of any proposed apportionment on a straight enrollment basis.

Under present procedure, the state's approximately $54,000,000 available school fund is distributed on a basis of the number of children of school age living within the school district at the time the census is taken, in the spring. This year, the number of children of school age in Texas was 1,500,007. This figure is divided into the total amount of money available, to obtain the amount to be given a district for each school child.

The inequities of the system result primarily from the fact of Texas' large Latin-American and negro populations. Many of the school-age in these groups do not attend school. The result is that in the areas where these groups maintain residence, the actual daily attendance is proportionately much below the area where the population is predominantly stable. This fact—widely known and widely discussed by educators and legislators—shows up most glaringly in any comparison between West Texas on the one hand and the Rio Grande Valley on the other.

The result is that areas where the daily attendance is far below the census, have proportionately more to spend on each child who actually attends school, and the other areas have less. It is this inequity that those seeking to change the system seek to correct.

But the difficulty is revealed to be that any change to a straight daily attendance, or enrollment basis, is liable to penalize those districts which presumably are in greatest need: the rural districts, regardless of the section of the state in which they may be located.

John Olson, director of the census division in the state education department, has made a study of this seemingly paradoxical fact. While not condemning or defending the census method, his study does point up the results of changing to any straight attendance basis. His study involves converting the aid received on a per capita basis, to actual aid received on an attendance basis.

Statewide, last year's census was 1,498,938 scholastics. Average daily attendance was 1,030,119. Actually, therefore, 68.8 per cent of the children of school age put in a full 9-month term. The state money amounted to $53,781,000, or $52.50 for each of the average daily attenders.

Howard county's March of Dimes stretched into a quarter of a mile of 10-cent pieces Saturday night as the annual infantile paralysis campaign closed formally. Residents had dropped nearly $600 into jars maintained for 15 days in the downtown section, K. H. McGibbon, March of Dimes chairman, reported. This did not include the Saturday collection by the city firemen who, for a second time, carried on a demonstration with the VFW iron lung.

In addition, there was about $200 in special gifts to the Howard County chapter and more than $900, the largest single item, raised in a four-day collection by Boy Scouts at the R&R theatres. Altogether there was something like $1,700 or 17,000 dimes in the fund. The National Infantile Paralysis foundation will share in the proceeds and an accounting on the amount to the local chapter was not yet available.

In addition, to the fruits of the Saturday efforts by firemen, aided by Pancho Nail, who handled the microphone most of the day, there will be some proceeds from the 100 containers placed in local business houses. Darrell Douglass, in charge of this activity, asked that store operators bring the cans to his office at Barrow Furniture. Walker Bailey, in charge of the card of dimes collection, appealed for those who have not yet mailed in cards to do so over the weekend so that results from this phase may be tabulated.

You Can Play Duet Without Recording

TULSA, Okla. (P)—Ever play a duet by yourself? Well, Joe Linde, Jr., music student at the University of Tulsa, turned the trick on a clarinet and exclaimed it's "not bad at all."

Linde first played a solo number to test a new recording device; and his teacher, Dean Albert Lukken of the College of Fine Arts, asked him to take a duet part with the recording. "Both of you sound good," the dean complimented.

Fighters, Fans Await First Gong Of Golden Gloves Show

Beak Busting To Get Underway At Gym Thursday, Continue Thru Saturday

Of the 14 fighters who won championships last year, only two will probably be on hand to defend their crowns when the Golden Gloves boxing tournament begins at the high school gymnasium around 8 o'clock Thursday night.

However, the big blowout will not lack for entries—or for entertainment. San Angelo is sending a team of something like eight or ten fighters. Shorty Lawson and his aggressive Abilene prepsters will be back. Midland, Lamesa, Colorado City, Snyder and Coahoma are all expected to respond with several entries. And Trainer George Clutchey is due to have his local punchers in top shape by then.

The two titlists due to try for the blue ribbon again are Donald Webb, one of the most popular youngsters ever to try on the mittens here, and Abilene's Bennett Young. Webb is a welterweight and won his honors in the high school class in 1946 while Young, also a prep entry, wrapped up the bantam laurels last year. Bennett will battle as a featherweight this time, however.

Clutchey, who was the ring-side last night to watch his charges fight in Abilene, expects to have at least ten or 12 boys ready by Thursday. He predicts great things of Jimmy Fedan, a featherweight he may let campaign in the open ranks; Carroll Cannon, a hard-punching bantam; Billy Bob Whittington and Jimmy Epler, two lightweights; and Vernon Smith, veteran middleweight.

The trainer, who with John Williams and Jimmy Byers, has done a good job of whipping the boys into condition, says such operatives as Ray McMillan, 115; Ervis Campbell, 147; Horace Ivey, 135; and Billy Carlisle, 134, will be prepared to go at full speed by week's end.

Stock Seeking Relay Quartet

Track season is still a month away but already Coach Herschel Stockton is expressing concern over who will fit into his relay team.

The quartet no doubt will be built around fleet Ernie Ache, anchor man on last year's stellar team. Bob Hardy will also be back but Stock will have to find someone to take the place of Gerald Harris and Bobby Miller, both of whom have graduated.

James Abbe, whose specialty is the quarter-mile, may work into the picture along with Horace Rankin, a hurdler.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

When the school board meets this week, one of the things that will be discussed is the local coaching situation. Genial John Dibrell and the trustees are on excellent terms but that does not mean he will be returned to the post.

Several job hunters have been in here in recent weeks sizing up the local situation, even though the board has been mute on the problem. Whatever his fate, no man of like station has a better knack for making friends than Dibrell.

Larry Hall, stellar center on Dibrell's 1946 grid team, will enroll in Howard County Junior college next autumn, should that institution field a team.

Joe Pate, the former Texas leaguer who wanted to return here to run the business end of the local professional baseball team, is considering one of two offers to return to the game elsewhere.

Steers Resume Loop Campaign Tuesday At 8

Apparently back in the groove after an unexpected mid-season slump, the Big Spring Steers resume their skirmishing for the 3AA basketball league crown here Tuesday night in a contest with the unpredictable Lamesa Lobos.

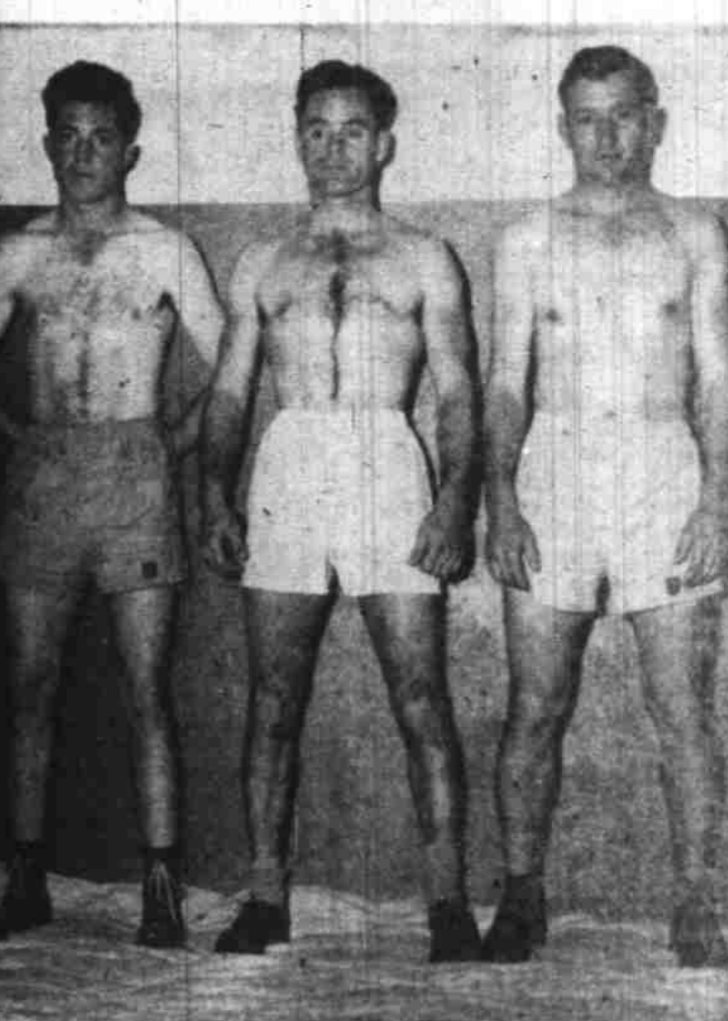

The Steers are sailing along on the wings of a seven game winning streak. They will be favored to make it No. Eight, even though Horace Rankin is hobbling around on a game leg and may see limited service.

Lamesa comes to the village with a spotty record but with an offense that might explode at any time. The Lobos were considered run-of-the-mill until last weekend when they rolled into Abilene and cuffed the mighty War Birds, 26-15.

Defending champion Jimmy Demaret of Houston, Tex., ringling up his second consecutive 66, went to the head for the 72-hole $10,000 Tucson Open golf tournament today with a three-round total of 199.

Demaret's consistent performance enabled him to supplant the half-way pace-setter, Herman Keiser of Akron, Ohio, whose game blew up today.

21B Cage Race Draws To Close Friday Night

The District 21B basketball league race draws to a close this week, after which the teams square off for the regular tournament at Coahoma.

Feature game will pit Stanton, currently setting the pace with eight wins in nine starts, against Coahoma in the Bulldog game. The Canines trail the Buffs by one game and are afforded an excellent chance of catching Trav Green's team.

Other games Tuesday sends Courtney to Garden City and Knott to Forsa. Friday, Stanton entertains Sterling City, Forsa invades Courtney while Coahoma goes to Knott.

Standings:

Team	W	L	Pts.	Opp.
Stanton	8	1	226	182
Coahoma	7	2	264	204
Courtney	6	3	230	214
Knott	4	5	201	216
Sterling	4	5	211	192
Garden City	4	5	210	192
Forsa	0	9	180	312

Yearlings Lose To Lake View

SAN ANGELO, Feb. 1. — Big Spring's Yearlings lost out in the second round of the San Angelo Junior high school invitational basketball tournament here Friday night after breezing through their first round test.

Jim McWhorter's gang was vanquished by Lake View, 18-13. Billy Carlisle led the scoring for Big Spring with six points. Howard Jones had four while James Fanning came in with three.

Brady fell before the Yearlings in the preliminaries, 25-19. In that outing, Jones was the "big boy" with seven field goals. Coach McWhorter used all ten of his boys after his charges had constructed a safe lead.

Odessa loses, 21-18. ODESSA, Feb. 1. — Odessa's Broncos lost a hard fought decision to the San Angelo Bobcats, 21-18, in a District 3AA basketball game here Friday night.

ANGELO RAMS VISIT Hawks Return To Zone Play Here Wednesday

Still after their first Western Zone league victory, Leon Bush's Howard County Junior College basketball Jayhawks swing back into action here Wednesday night, meeting the strong San Angelo JC Rams at 8 o'clock.

The Rams took the measure of Wayland's Jackrabbits, recent conquerors of the Big Springers, but lost a close decision to Amarillo. Bush's troupe invades Angelo Saturday night for a return game with the Rams.

The Hawks will play at least four other games this month, including three conference contests. They take the courts here Tuesday, Feb. 18, against Cisco, after a road trip into the Panhandle that will include stops at Amarillo and Plainview. On Friday, the 14th, they oppose Wayland on the Baptists' own hardwood, then show up in Amarillo the following night.

Only the Wayland game will not be a league go. The locals will probably close out their campaign with a battle against Cisco there Friday, Feb. 28. Bush's team is ship-shape but still short on reserve strength.

Texas Loop Moves To Stifle Gambling

DALLAS, Feb. 1. (AP)—Texas League baseball club owners and officials today passed a resolution barring all persons not in uniform except press representatives from the playing fields and dugouts and banned players from mingling with spectators at games.

The resolution stated that it was designed as "further aggressive action to combat a wave of gambling that is sweeping the country."

Strikes, Spares

The most important part of being in the upper brackets, as far as bowling is concerned, is not getting the ball on the alley but one's approach and delivery. A new southpaw up and coming in local regaling circles is John Henry Day, who is working on a smooth approach. A good bowler never fouls and has a commendable straight-forward delivery. John should hit his stride soon and is due to give the other wronglanders, C. J. Staples and Jack Smith, plenty of competition.

One of the prettiest and most expert of the lady bowlers is Miss Betty Rawlins. She has figured out a good hook and is able to hold her own in competition with some of the better male pin-splitters. Her high score to date is 225 but frequently her marks go above 170.

Thursday night's play was topped off by a heated contest between two San Angelo hot-shots, O. D. Busby and Roy Talley and a Big Spring twosome, Luke "Rooter" LeBlond and E. B. Dozier. The local boys gave them quite a tussle. Dozier whittled out a big 258, high for the evening, but many of the games went over 200. Wives of the visitors engaged in play with Mrs. Vera Dozier and Mrs. J. D. Robertson. The Big Spring women won two of three matches. Virtually all the local regalers will be competing in the annual Couden Sweepstakes, which begin two weeks hence. Some of the

Midland Trims Legion, 54-32

Coming from behind in the final 30 seconds of play, the Midland All-Stars edged out the American Legion team of Big Spring in an exhibition basketball game played here Friday night. The tally was 54-32.

Bill Kelly set a torrid pace for the winners with 22 points while Frank Hardesty paced the locals with nine field goals and a gratis pitch.

Big Spring led at the termination of the first period, 12-10, but Midland had climbed out front at half time, 23-21. It was 30-all at three-quarter time.

Coach Pete Faruqhar will take the Legionnaires to Union Monday night to do battle with an independent club there.

Stanton Fem Cagers Boast Good Record

STANTON, Feb. 1. — Stanton girls' basketball team, which last week won championship honors in the Hermligh tournament, has now finished on the long end of the score in 24 or 25 games.

The Martin county troupe's only loss was at the hands of Friona, 14-15, in the Ropesville tournament the second week in January. The locals trounced Trent, 43-12, in the finals of the Hermligh show.

Four members of the Stanton club made the all-tournament contingent at Hermligh: Edith Davie, Betty Bissard, Frankie Leonard and Lurline Geurin. best male artists in Texas will compete on Feb. 15-16 and 22-23. Cash prizes are in the offing for the winners.

Eddie Houser Paces Longhorns To 51-35 Triumph Over Kermit

Bovines Jump To Early Lead And Coast In

Taking a busman's holiday from their District 3AA play, the Big Spring Steers rolled over the Kermit Lions, 51-35, in an exhibition basketball game played before a small crowd here Saturday night. Johnny Malaise's gang led all the way. They blanked the foe in Round one while accumulating ten points and coasted in from there. Eddie Houser and Capt. Horace Rankin proved a twin gasket threat, getting good co-operation from their team mates to mesh the nets regularly. Houser sank eight field tosses and a brace of gratis throws to lead the field in scoring while Rankin, obviously favoring a bad leg, wasn't far behind with 14 points. Malaise made liberal use of his reserves, as did the Kermit tutor. The Dogies finished out front in their bout with the Kermit Bees, 33-24. It was fairly close until the third inning when the Big Springers packed their margin with ample insurance. Jim Bill Little was the leading man in that one with nine points.

MONDAY NIGHT GRAPPLE CARD FEATURES MART IN AND BURNS

Robin Burns, the Montana menace, and Tulsa's Wayne Martin have at it in the main event of Pat O'Dowdy Monday night wrestling show at the West Texas Auction barn but it may be a newcomer in the Irishman's preliminary bout who attracts the attention of the fans.

That would be Jack Pappenheim of New York City, who goes against the arch villain, Johnny Carlin. Pappenheim came into the Southwest some weeks ago almost unheralded but in his brief stay his press notices have been most laudatory. Dory Detton, who has been privileged to view the lad in action, vouches for him.

Last week's adventure here wasn't a howling success as far as Carlin was concerned. He chanced to square off with Gorilla Pogi and then didn't do his public relations any good by mauling the Bull of the Pampas. The simian-headed one took his lumps for a while and then tired of it.

It finally came to pass that O'Dowdy had to employ all means short of a block and tackle to get Carlin's remains out of the resin of the ring. It was that bad. Pogi bounced the Bostonian so hard against the canvass once a paying customer in the fifth row of the bleachers almost lost his false choppers.

However, that is water under the bridge and here it is another week. If Carlin can subdue the bloke from Gotham, he'll cut a better figure in future billings.

Martin is still unbeaten locally but has had his troubles the last two times out. Against Pogi two weeks ago, the Tulsa was virtually out on his feet when The Gorilla engaged in a swiftest with the arbiter and came out second best.

Against Detton last Monday, Wayne got no better than a draw and there were those in the gallery who thought he was lucky to get that. Everyone is ready to admit,

Ben Hogan Leads Parade Of Stars Into San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 1. (AP)—Led by defending Champion Ben Hogan, professional golf stars follow the winter gold dust trail to San Antonio this week for the 21st renewal of the $10,000 Texas Open championship starting Thursday over the tree-lined fairways of the Brackenridge Park municipal course.

The 72-hole open, the oldest tournament on the winter circuit, will not get underway until Friday, but the star-studded field will warm-up for the main attraction by competing in an 18-hole pro-amateur event Thursday.

Hogan, 1945 PGA champion and last year's leading money winner, is regarded as the No. 1 favorite in the hand-picked entry of 150 players. Bantam Ben Tore apart the 6,400 yard, par 71 Brackenridge layout last year in annexing the title with a record shattering 264. On two previous occasions Hogan had tied for first place in the San Antonio event but had lost in the playoffs. Byron Nelson defeated him in 1940, and Chick Harbert turned the trick in 1942.

Von Rhea Beane To Be Ousted?

SAN ANGELO, Feb. 1.—Von Rhea Beane will not be back at coach of the 1947 San Angelo football Bobcats, if stories picked up by the Standard-Times as 'reliable rumors' can be believed.

The newspaper reported Friday Bryan Dickson had been asked to confirm the report but he insisted no official action had been taken. Beane has indicated he would not be interested in the job unless offered a three-year contract.

Babe Triumphs Again At Miami

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 1. (AP)—Mrs. Babe Zaharias, out to make a "grand slam" of women's golf events this year, won handily the 15th annual Helen Lee Doherty golf tournament today by trimming Margaret Gunther, Tennessee state champion, 12 and 10, in the 36-hole finals.

Mrs. Zaharias, national women's amateur champion, won the Tampa Women's Open by five strokes last week.

KEGLERS AWAIT INSTRUCTIONS

Two teams chosen to represent Big Spring at the American Bowling Congress tournament in Los Angeles next month will shortly be informed by officials of the meeting when they are scheduled to toe the line.

Cosden Refinery and the Douglass Hotel are listed as sponsors of the squads. Representing Cosden will be E. B. Dozier, Pete Howze, C. J. Staples, G. G. Runyan and Luke LeBleu while the Hostler lineup will be composed of Stanley W. Wheeler, Ward Hall, J. D. Robertson, W. E. Ramsey and Jake Douglass.

Douglass will be dispatching a team to the national show for the fifth consecutive year.

Ponies Trim TCU

DALLAS, Feb. 1.—Southern Methodist's Mustangs staged a belated uprising to defeat TCU in a Southwest conference basketball game here Saturday night, 55-36. Ralph Prewitt counted 14 points for the Ponies. Tommy Tomlinson and Roy Pugh collected 12 each.

Two Big Spring Golden Glovers Win At Abilene

ABILENE, Feb. 1.—Lightweights Jimmy Eppler and Billy Bob Whittington will carry Big Spring's colors into the last round of the Abilene Golden Gloves boxing tournament Monday night.

Eppler technically knocked out Horace Ivey, Big Spring, in the first round of their bout Saturday night, after which Whittington bounced Jimmy Walker, Abilene, in the third canto for a TKO.

Three other Big Spring scrapers were ousted from the running tonight. Roy McMillan, bantamweight, was edged by Lyman Grant, Abilene, in a close go. The decision was booed lustily.

Carroll Cannon, gritty little 118-pounder, suffered a TKO at the hands of Stan Thompson, Abilene, in the third heat. Ervis Campbell, Howard county welter, was technically knocked out by Chuck Ryan, Abilene, in the second stanza.

McMillan, who fought at 115 pounds, defeated Marvin Nash, Eastland by decision Friday. Eppler outpointed James McGuire, Abilene. Whittington thumped Bert Cowden, Abilene.

Valley Quintet Cops Tournament

WATER VALLEY, Feb. 1.—Elvin Mathis' Water Valley Wildcats won their own invitational basketball tournament here Saturday night, trouncing Lake View in the finals, 26-10.

The Cats advanced to the finals by beating Norton, 42-16; Forsan, 27-22; and Sterling City, 24-18, in that order.

Lake View, heavy favorites before the tournament began, cleared its semi-final hurdle by thrashing Courtney, 35-26, in a nip and tuck battle.

Bronte won the consolation by outscraping Robert Lee, 39-21. The all-tournament team was chosen by the judges was composed of Bill Kiser, Lake View; and Oscar Dorsey, Water Valley, unanimous choices; B. J. Smith, Courtney; Billy Kubena, Mertzon; and Fred Sandusky, Bronte.

Volley Ball Brigade Launches Workouts

Fifteen members of the Big Spring high school girls' volleyball team have launched workouts under Coach Arah Phillips and will play their first game, probably against Sterling City, within the next ten days.

Billie Jean Younger has been elected captain of the squad, which includes six letter winners from last season's brigade. The 'lasses will play Midland here on Feb. 12 and again in Midland on Feb. 21.

Big Spring's invitational tournament, last year won by Water Valley will be conducted this season on March 14-14. Plans are also being made to take the team to the Water Valley meet.

Northeast Ward Wildcat Tests

By JOHN B. BREWER
SAN ANGELO, Feb. 1.—Stanolind No. 14-A Sealy-Smith Foundation, northeastern Ward county wildcat, made preparations at the week's close to test a promising showing of oil and gas in the Fusselman section of the Silurian, while Stanolind No. 1 C. L. Fisher, southeastern Hale county discovery in the Pennsylvanian, was scheduled to take a potential gauge.

These were among the most closely watched operations in West Texas this week during which a southwest extension to Devonian production in the Block 31 field in Crane county was finalized and a quarter mile south outpost to the Dollarhide field in southwestern Andrews county flowed oil from the Devonian.

Stanolind No. 14-A Sealy-Smith in Ward county recovered 60 feet of gas-cut mud and 150 feet of oil and gas-cut mud on a 75-minute drillstem test from 8,872-9,000 feet at the contact of the Fusselman section of the Silurian and the Montoya, upper Ordovician. An estimated five per cent was oil. Drilling continued to 9,018 feet and the hole was plugged back to 8,800 for the running of casing preparatory to testing.

The prospect is in the C SW SW 3-A-G&M&B&A, two miles east of the Monahan triple-pay field. Stanolind staked No. 17-A Sealy-Smith, a diagonal southwest offset, and No. 15-A Sealy-Smith, a west offset to No. 14-A Sealy-Smith, due to it was reported, to early expiration of production leases. Both tests are projected to 9,000 feet.

Stanolind No. 1 Fisher, opener of Hale county's second pool, leveled off with a flow of 40 barrels of 40 gravity oil hourly before being shut-in for storage. It had tested the Pennsylvanian (reported the Cisco section) between 6,895 and 6,992 feet, the total depth, with 2,500 gallons of acid. The well is in the C SW SW 5-CL-EL&RR, 18 miles south of Plainview.

Staking by Stanolind of a south offset and by Humble and Stanotex of a west offset was expected soon. Expiration early in 1948 of leases in the area probably would result in an active drilling campaign on the north flank of the buried granite mountains extending east and west across the north end of the Permian Basin.

In the Irish (Clear Fork) pool, Hale county's first, 19 miles west-northwest of Stanolind No. 1 Fisher, Stanolind No. 1 S. C. Durrett, diagonal southeast offset to the discovery, had drilled approximately 100 feet deeper into the formation than any test in the area and had not encountered water. It prepared for completion at 5,968 feet. Location is the C SW NW 19-12-HE&WT.

Superior staked location in Cochran county for No. 1 W. W. Cameron estate, proposed 7,500-foot wildcat, 200.2 from the south, 660 feet from the east line of labor 9, league 86, Greer county school land survey, five miles northeast of the Whiteface extension to the Slaughter field.

Humble prepared to start No. 1 Thos. Montgomery, slated 10,000-foot wildcat in northern Crosby county, C SE SE 21-2-Brooks & Burlison, 12 miles north and slightly west of Crosbyton.

Week's Business—

21 Permits Given For Constructing New Homes Here

Although value of construction was off compared to last year, the city issued 46 building permits during the month of January to usher in 1947 with a creditable record. Twenty-one of the permits were for new construction, mostly residential projects, while 10 were for additions. Others included four for moving, six for reroofing, four for remodeling and one for demolition. Total value of projects covered in January permits amounted to $57,135, considerably short of the record for the same month in 1946 which provided approximately $104,000.

Warranty deeds filed in the county clerk's office increased during the past week, when 18 instruments were recorded. They covered property valued at $47,708, bringing the 1947 total up to $153,951. The county tax assessor-collector's office issued licenses for 17 new automobiles and 12 new trucks during the week.

Postal receipts were off approximately $1,000 compared to a year ago. The January total for 1947 amounted to $10,645.81, while January of 1946 produced $11,680.66.

Business was slow at livestock auction sales, with receipts still lagging. Prices were steady, however, and the few consignments moved readily.

QUARTER CENTURY — O. Sam Cummings, Dallas, head of a Kansas City Life Insurance agency bearing his own name, Saturday completed 25 years with the company in Texas. With a record of being the first life agency of ordinary business to carry over $100,000,000 business on its books, Cummings paid tribute to many connected with the agency, including Julia Boyce, Big Spring, who was one of 18 representatives in Texas who qualified for the company's President's club. Miss Boyce placed a quarter of a million dollars business in the first six months, qualifying her for a convention trip to New Orleans. She also is a member of the company's Round Table.

Ships built entirely of aluminum are being planned for the American merchant marine. It is estimated that they would save 50 per cent in weight.

POSING IN NUDE IS CHILLY WORK

PARIS, Feb. 1. (AP)—Unclad models posing in unheated Paris studios henceforth are going to get more pay for their work. The models' union ruled today that for artists who can afford black market fuel, the fee for nudes will remain unchanged at 360 francs ($3) per hour. But, a union announcement said, the charge will be increased by 36 francs (30 cents) an hour "as soon as the model complains of goose flesh."

HERRING SMOKED FAST

PORTLAND, Me., (U.P.)—The Belfast Packing Co., has speeded up the smoking of herring by use of electricity. The fish are charged negatively and the smoke positively, so that now only 10 seconds is required for a job that used to take two hours.

The only 17th century building still standing in Boston is the Paul Revere House, built around 1677.

Czechs Ask Death For Illegal Sales

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Feb. 1. (AP)—The Czechoslovak government, which has been unable to check black marketeering despite mass arrests, asked parliament today to authorize maximum sentences of death and fines up to $200,000 for persons convicted of making illegal sales. A total of 232 persons were arrested yesterday in Prague alone on black market charges. The maximum penalty now is 20 year imprisonment, but it never has been imposed.

The area of Japan proper, including the islands of Honshu, Shikoku, Kyushu and Hokkaido, is less than the state of California. The islands cover 147,707 square miles.

Suave Bank Bandits Net $17,661 Haul
PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 1. (AP)—All available local officers, augmented by FBI agents, searched today for two nattily-dressed men who robbed the bond redemption department of the Valley National Bank of $17,661 in a smoothly-executed holdup yesterday. The bank revised its losses upward from the $14,344 figure announced originally. The robbers, calm and silent, made their haul in some 90 seconds after posing as "bank detectives" tipped of an impending holdup.

Joseph Hill, 73, Succumbs Here

Joseph Bullard Hill, 73, died Friday at 6:30 p. m. in his home following an illness of several months.

Born on Feb. 22, 1873, in Hockley, he had resided in Big Spring for 25 years.

Survivors include the widow; three daughters, Mrs. Timmie McCormick and Mrs. Betty Jo Cordes of Big Spring and Mrs. Alice Thomason of Brownfield; one son, Jesse G. Hill of Colorado Springs, Colo.; three sisters, Mrs. W. A. Elder of Grand Field, Okla., Mrs. Ollie Gross of Lubbock and Miss Dossie Hill of Lamesa; and three brothers, Watt, Walter and Roger Hill.

Time and place for funeral services are pending, and the body is lying in state at Eberley funeral home. Dr. Dick O'Brien and Rev. W. R. Hutchings will conduct services.

Bearers will be Oliver Bates, Gordon Hodgnett, Oscar Watts, Clyde Sykes, Clyde Nations, Avery Deal, Lem Nations and Roy Chandler.

School For Food Handlers To Start

The regular food handlers' school for February will begin Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. and continue for three days at the Big Spring-Howard county health unit, Lawrence J. Wells, sanitarian, has announced.

The course is offered each month to permit new employees of eating and drinking establishments to obtain permanent food handlers' certificates in accordance with the city ordinance.

To qualify for a permanent certificate, employees must attend all of the three classes, Wells said, since no make-up class is to be conducted.

Criticism Of Zoning Plan Offered By Citizens

Members of the city zoning and planning commission accumulated ample material for consideration at its next session when the public hearing on a proposed zoning program was held before more than 50 people in the city courtroom Friday evening.

As expected, most of the testimony introduced before the board dealt with specific problems presented by property owners. Many were seeking information, others offered suggestions and some criticism.

Chairman Dewey Martin explained that the various testimony would be taken under advisement by the board before a final recommendation regarding the proposal was passed on to the city commission.

Before zoning could become operative, the city commission will have to conduct a hearing and legislative proposals into law.

While there was some objection to a zoning program, in general most of those addressing the board expressed themselves basically in favor of a zoning program. Questions were raised about the limitation of C, or apartment zones, business district boundaries south of the present business district, placement of some E (residential business community centers), space clearance which might affect homes with garages attached, space allotments for apartment areas, etc.

In addition, several problems arising out of investments in property for business purposes which might be affected by exclusion from business zones; property acquired for apartment purposes in one and two-family zones.

Several, among them J. B. Collins, R. L. Cook, Harry Stalcup and Dr. J. E. Hogan, felt that the business area should be expanded to the south to allow for growth. Collins also raised the question of more apartment areas and different placement of community center zones. Bill Bonner asked about clearances which would permit attached garages. B. F. Logan suggested provision of an E district in the northeast quarter of town. Betty Farrar, Willard Cullivan, Roy Cornelson, Jake Douglass and other cited specific problems.

An explanation of the objectives of zoning to protect health safety and general welfare was given by S. C. Cooper, member of the engineering firm which made the original zoning survey. R. L. Beale pointed out that various districts along with changes made by the board from engineer proposals and Red Groehl explained the district types and restrictions. Mrs. B. E. Winterrowd proposed the planning committee study some means of expanding building area for the Negro population and urged classification restrictions which would curb intoxicant sales on the Lamesa highway. This, she was told, was outside the province of zoning since it would contravene state law.

Mayor G. W. Dobney said that no plan could be effected without some dissatisfaction, but foresaw the need for zoning to prevent "a hodge-podge city." He said he felt that most problems could be solved but that regardless of the program, "there has to be a start sometimes."

All members of the commission were present including Martin, chairman, Groehl, secretary, Dr. Lee Rogers, Will Carrnike, Joe Pickle, Jess Thornton, John A. Coffee, E. B. McCormick and Beale. In addition Cooper, City Secretary G. R. McClelleny, and City Building Inspector F. W. Betts, the mayor, Commissioner George Mims and Acting City Manager H. W. Whitney attended.

Legislative Digest Service Is Available

The public is invited to take advantage of a legislative digest service available at the Big Spring chamber of commerce, chamber officials reminded Saturday.

The local chamber office receives a printed list of bills submitted in congress each day when the legislature is in session. Furnished by the US chamber of commerce, the list gives the number of each bill, a brief description and the name of the congressman or senator who introduced it.

County Growth Parallels Career Of C. W. Roberts

By JOE PICKLE

ANDREWS, Feb. 1.—When Andrews county approved a contract for a swimming pool in its landscaped park, officials added a master touch by naming it Roberts Park.

This surprised no one except Charles W. Roberts, who has held about every office Andrews and Andrews county have to offer and who, after six years as county judge has become the Andrews chamber of commerce manager.

Charlie Roberts stands as an example of what the energies and vision of one man can mean for a community, for he has been closely identified with virtually every major project which has been developed in the once open range and shinnery country which has been transformed into a rich oil producing area in the past decade.

Andrews has no more ardent booster than Roberts, who, curiously, decided in 1934 that it would be a good "place to starve."

A transplanted Alabamian, Roberts moved with his family to Fisher county in 1908 in time for him to graduate from the McCauley high school in 1912. Then he put in three years at Baylor University before World War I intervened. He spent two summers at West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon before returning for the legislature in 1922.

"I got beat and went back to Baylor," he recalled. Attending intermittently, he got his degree in 1927, having studied journalism under the late Dorothy Scarborough and exposing himself to a year of law.

Charlie Roberts donned the toga of a teacher in West Texas schools which set the stage for a crucial decision.

"I always had a yen for newspaper work," he said, "so in 1934 when I got tired of cashing Sea-graves public school script at 20 to 25 per cent discount, I decided if I was going to starve I might as well do it in a business more to my liking."

So he moved to Andrews and established the Andrews County News in a field where experienced newspapermen predicted freely his starvation program would be expedited.

"They don't know how nearly they were right," he chuckled. With a circulation of 150 and his tongue in his cheek, he proclaimed to advertisers that his paper covered the county like the sand. He made some headway for in 1940 the population had jumped to 616. Then came the real oil play and almost every exploration developed new pay. With the pay, Andrews came awake, with Roberts prodding, and today it is a modern little city of around 4,000 inhabitants.

Roberts' first assignment opened a new vista for the enterprising editor. As a member of the Andrews school board, he concluded the district was too small and poor, so he started a campaign for a countywide district, which taught him something about difficulties as well as how to succeed. Today the district has a $25 million valuation and a dollar rate. Besides having a beautiful school plant, the district also developed a water project costing $240,000, by which the City of Andrews was able to take an entirely ample surplus for its supply.

With vigor and tenacity, he enlisted aid of others in attacking many problems, and with these as some of the results:

Establishment of a bank (Roberts sold most of the stock), a $750,000 road building program for the county, impending state highway projects anticipated at more than a million dollars, a county airport with $15,520 Federal aid for the first year; a 17-bed hospital; 11 blocks of city pavement; a fire truck; extended mail routes; FHA approval for Andrews; the county park. Roberts also dreamed up the Broadway-Big Bend Highway association for a route from Oklahoma City to the Bend country—through Andrews, of course.

When he retired as county judge on Dec. 31, he simply went to work from another angle.

Continually he is working on a project which will compel the board of regents to sell the surface rights, or else give a long-term lease to GIs willing to place University lands of Andrews in cultivation.

He will take time out in February to appear before the Oklahoma state highway commission on his Big Bend road project, then he'll himself back to campaigning for a city sewerage system, community building, library, nurses home, airport improvements. Nothing else has occurred to him at the moment.

CIVIC CRUSADER—When any movement starts in Andrews, it's a safe bet that Charles W. Roberts, chamber of commerce manager and former county judge, is behind it. He went there in 1934 to "starve" and remained to become its chief prodder, promoter and builder.

Roberts was married to Lena Brownlee at Anson, Texas on Dec. 18, 1915 and they have four sons and two daughters. Charles, Jr. had taken over operation of the News, Harold, a 112th cavalry machine-gunner of three years experience in the Southwest Pacific, operated an Andrews service station; James, who spent a year in a German prison camp and 18 months in an army hospital after Salerno, and Wesley, a navy radio

Chicago Youths Indicted By Jury For Hijacking

Two indictments, one of them against three Chicago youths for robbery, were returned by the grand jury in its session at the courthouse Saturday. The jury originally met on Jan. 21 but was summoned back to give special attention to the other cases.

The three Illinois residents charged are Charles F. Grundman, 20, John R. Chaffey, 18, and William S. Hart, 16, who were captured in a matter of hours after they allegedly robbed a store near Fairview about ten days ago. The grand jury considered delaying final action in its case against Hart in that he is a juvenile. However, the youth will have attained his 17th birthday late this month.

The three are wanted in Bowie on a similar count and may be dispatched there after their fate is determined here. The State of Illinois also wants them on a car theft charge.

They have been held in jail here since their apprehension by Sheriff Buck Bennett of Lamesa.

Also returned was an indictment for forgery against a man who is not yet in custody.

Criminal docket has been set for Monday. Seven other indictments were returned in the grand jury's first session last month.

Membership Drive Boosts C-C Rolls

More new members had been added to the chamber of commerce Saturday as the result of the organization's drive which is being conducted by the Round-Up club. Joining Saturday were Prentiss Frazee, Fresh Foods, J. W. Elrod, Peeler Insurance agency, G. E. Gilliam, Wayne Williams, and Cecil E. Edwards. The Round-Up club will continue an intensive membership drive through Feb. 18, date set for the Chamber's annual banquet.

Wedding Vows Read In El Paso Chapel For Lt. Robinson, Barbara McCurry

Mrs. H. N. Robinson has returned from El Paso where she attended the wedding of her son, Lt. William T. Robinson, who was married January 24th to Miss Barbara Ann McCurry, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Adele McCurry of Los Angeles, Calif.

The ceremony was performed in St. Joseph's chapel at 7 o'clock, read by Father Walsh before an altar ornamented with pink gladioli and fern.

Marilyn McCurry, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and was attired in a beige suit with a matching off-the-face hat. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Given in marriage by Lt. Fred Calina, the bride wore a pale green suit and pink flower hat. She carried a nosegay of pink shattered carnations and white candy tuft. The bridegroom was attended by Dr. David W. Haymes of Lubbock.

Mrs. Robinson, mother of the bridegroom wore a black suit with white accessories and her corsage was of gardenias.

RECEPTION
Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the bride couple's home. The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cloth and centered with a bouquet of pink camellias. The bride's sister served the three-tiered wedding cake and Mrs. George Leggett presided at the punch service.

The couple left immediately after the reception for a short wedding trip to Ruidosa, N. M. Mrs. Robinson is a graduate of the Emmaculate Heart High School and of the University of California at Los Angeles, Calif. She did intern work as Oakland, Calif., and served as dietitian at Charity hospital in New Orleans, La., for 18 months.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Big Spring high school, A. & M. College and Southwestern Medical college in Dallas. He served his internship in Charity hospital at New Orleans and is now stationed at Biggs Field in El Paso.

Mrs. J. B. Pickle accompanied Mrs. Robinson to El Paso for the wedding.

Gage Lloyd Ends Study With Review

For the concluding program in a week's series in the Presbyterian School of Missions, Rev. R. Gage Lloyd spoke Friday evening on Africa as it is described in Darwin's book, "Now Is The Time."

Mr. Lloyd pointed out that 55 years ago when missionaries first went into Africa none of the natives could read nor write, even in their own language, in the Presbyterian territory of Kasal. It is estimated now, Mr. Lloyd declared, that 15 per cent of the people of Kasal can both read and write. The church maintains 1200 schools with an enrollment of approximately 40,000. There are 1,800 ministers and evangelists trained to teach the Bible which has now been translated in its entirety into the native dialect.

The speaker stated four things that the Presbyterian church is now striving for. They include higher schools to train ministers and workers among the natives, normal high schools and colleges to equip teachers, vocational schools to give technical training, and agricultural schools to help the people develop their land. It is the plan of the church, he continued, that is so developing the project will not get away from the church, and a spiritual side will be maintained along with the physical improvements.

"The greatest test that ever confronted the Christian church is before us now," Mr. Lloyd concluded. "We are facing the supreme hour of need and opportunity." A. A. Porter presented the devotional. During the week Mrs. H. C. Stipp conducted classes for the youngsters, teaching from the books "Exploring India" and "Tales of India."

Eastern Star To Observe Birthday

The 59th birthday anniversary of the Order of the Eastern Star will be observed here Tuesday at a special program which the chapter will present at the Masonic Temple at 7:30 p.m.

"A Garden of Memories," is the theme of the program which will be directed by Mrs. W. E. Carrilke and dedicated to those who have held membership in the organization for many years.

Monday evening the Eastern Star will hold a study class in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McClenny at 1011 Sturry at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Worrell To Speak

Mrs. C. C. Worrell will be guest speaker at the First Presbyterian church when the century class meets at 9:45 a.m. Her subject will be "Christianity and Homemaking."

white gladioli. White tapers in cathedral candelabra burned along the chancel rail.

Lee Norrel played organ accompaniment for a pre-nuptial solo, "Oh Perfect Love," which was sung by Miss Elizabeth Jannett.

Miss Mary Jane Nicholds of Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Betty Jackson of Fort Worth and Miss Virginia Webb of San Antonio. The attendants, all classmates of the bride at Hockaday School in Dallas, wore tulle and yellow silk taffeta dresses made on tailor lines with cape sleeves and full skirt. Their hats were small yellow caps, and they carried yellow arm bouquets of roses.

The bride's wedding dress was of platinum bridal satin made period style with a sheer basque and drop shoulder line finished in real point applique lace and standing collar. Calla lilies dropped off each shoulder in clusters and the full skirt was over hoops with a separate train falling from the waist line. She wore an heirloom lace point applique veil over a double layer of bridal illusion caught to a halo of satin and lace.

The bridegroom, son of Col. and Mrs. Donald D. McCaskey of San Antonio, was attended by his cousin, Joe Kirby Frazier. Groomsmen were Charles Fakké, Jr., and Clyde Logue, Jr., and ushers included Ed Frazier, Jr., and Smith Kirby.

The bride's mother wore an aqua crepe gown embroidered in gold sequins, and her corsage was of white camellias.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a brown grosgrain tailored dinner dress and her corsage was of tulle and roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held in the Minuet Room of the Hotel Menger. Both the bride's table and the buffet were decorated with white gladioli and delphinium and white tapers.

Miss Wooten, who formerly attended Big Spring schools, has been a student at Hockaday School in Dallas. The bridegroom was graduated from the high school department of Christian Brothers College at Memphis, Tenn., and following two years service in the air corps, he took the West Point prep course at Cornell University. He is now a student at Texas A&M College in Bryan where the couple will be at home.

Proposed projects for the year were announced at the American Business Club's regular meeting Friday. The undertakings, as outlined by Douglass Orme, include continued interest in the ABC Westside Park, with such additions as tennis courts, and basketball courts; sponsoring a scout troop for underprivileged girls; and aiding the high school in building shelters for football players in cool or otherwise unpleasant weather. From the floor came suggestions for backing a scholarship fund for some deserving boy or girl from each graduating class of the local high school, and for bolstering advertising of the Howard County Junior College. Club members will select the year's projects by vote, probably during the next meeting. Roy Reeder gave a discussion on sights in Mexico where he spent the weekend. Announcement was made that HCJC would arrange for club banquets at any time. Harold Salisbury received official club pin and membership card, and Temp Curry Jr. was recognized for his excellent work during the past year in soliciting new members for the organization.

'Triumphant Bachelor' Casting Set For Today

'Triumphant Bachelor,' a comedy by Owen Davis, has been selected by the YMCA Theatre Group for its initial production, and casting for the play will begin at 3 p. m. today in Y headquarters, Mrs. Don Seale, president has announced.

Owen Davis, the playwright, has produced numerous plays which have become Broadway successes, including 'The Nervous Wreck' and 'Ice Bound.' The 'Triumphant Bachelor' opened in the Biltmore Theatre in New York and was acclaimed by critics for its sprightly dialogue and amusing situation.

The plot to the play, Mrs. Seale declared, depicts the actions of three married couples, a young woman, her mother and an attractive and eligible bachelor. In the process of the first act the young woman is involved in a weeping scene with the bachelor offering a consoling shoulder and giving an understanding kiss. The mother, in typical mid-Victorian assumption, took the action to mean that they were engaged, much to the embarrassment of the hero.

To prove that things are not always as they seem the bachelor complicates the marital affairs of three of his married friends. He bet each of them $1,000 that faith of their wives could be swerved. They accepted, and he immediately took steps to test the wives' allegiance to their husbands.

Ralph Cathey will direct the play, which includes a cast of four men and seven women. Parts will be awarded at the meeting this afternoon, and Mrs. Seale and Cathey both urged that all members of the group be present.

The first production of the group has been delayed, Mrs. Seale explained, due to copyrights on the play which was originally selected and cast, 'Dear Ruth.' The popular play by Norman Kasia is now running on Broadway, and a motion picture production is now awaiting release. It is probably that the picture is as yet not released that has prevented amateur groups from presenting the play, Mrs. Seale stated.

MRS. DON SEALE

However, rehearsals on 'Triumphant Bachelor,' will begin on Monday, and the play will be in rehearsal for about four weeks. The date will be set at Sunday's meeting.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By LEATRICE ROSS

Debating and public speaking of all sorts have been receiving a great deal of attention both in Big Spring high school and in the college. BSHS is already selecting its speech representatives for the district interscholastic meeting in May.

In their second sophomore-class sponsored literary offering this year, students at HCJC presented a most well-organized debate Friday afternoon onResolved: "That Howard County Junior College Should Sponsor a Football Team, Beginning This Next Term."

Sophomores Harvey and Hartman Hoosier, negative speakers, opposed freshmen Ray Dunlap and Beans Miller, affirmative debaters. Probably the most entertaining argument brought up during the controversy came from an effort by Ray Dunlap to show that football would increase enrollment. Said he, "We've found that 50 per cent of Ackerly's graduating boys and 40 per cent of Forsan's will enroll in HCJC next term if we have football. These two towns aren't extra large, but there are a lot of places like them. And each boy coming here to play football will have a girl friend — maybe two or three — so plainly our enrollment will increase 300 per cent."

Billy Clanton, soph class president, introduced the speakers. Some 70 persons were present. At high school, eight persons have indicated a desire to participate on the interscholastic debate team. These include Edna Stevenson, Frances Bigony, Betty Jo Burns, Ronald Johnston, Donald Webb, Athol Atkins. The group will be cut to four. . . Billie Jo Watkins has been selected to represent the school in extemporaneous speaking. In addition to attending the district meeting in Midland, she will also go on a practice tour to Sweetwater, San Angelo and other towns in this region.

Pat Duncan arrived home earlier in the week from a naval base in China. . . Wilma Jo Taylor spent the weekend in San Antonio. . . HCJC mid-term finals begin Monday. . . Buzzy Hubbard, Tech student from Coahoma, is visiting Dorothy Brown here. . . Ardis McCasland and Nathan Richardson, both home from Texas U between semesters, have been spending their excess time at HCJC, playing ping pong in the Y and eating ice cream in the cafeteria.

BSHS band will sponsor a valentine banquet in February. Among students newly enrolled in the local high school are Meda Meek, sophomore, formerly from Stanton; Howard Washburn, freshman, Brownwood; Don Williams, sophomore, Odessa; Ruth Edith Johnson, freshman, former resident of Kansas City, Kansas, but more recently from Forsan.

Lex James has been selected by the local Kiwanis club as the first of four junior members which the club will chose. The junior Kiwanians must be seniors in high school and have an academic record of merit. Lex is drum major member of the marching band, and has a grade average of .87 for his four years in high school. . . The other three members will be selected for similar reasons during the next month. Elmo Wasson hosted students of HCJC Friday evening with a dance at the country club. The hall was garbed with streamers of crepe paper in the school colors, red and gray, and miniature "jaws" were pinned at various places on the walls. Decorators were Ernest Moore, Melvin Newton, Evelyn Green, W. E. Eubanks, Mary Ann Goodson. . . Harry Echols will be guest pianist at the ABC Club regular meeting Friday noon. . . Jimmy Tamsitt completed finals at HCJC early so that he might reach Tech in time for the second semester.

P-TA MEET SET J. H. Greene will speak on "Development of Better Citizens," at the meeting Tuesday of High School Parent Teacher association at the high school at 8:30 p. m. Mrs. J. E. Brigham will discuss "Observance of Founders."

Visiting in the Jock Johnson home are her father, Doc Seabolt from Bartwell, and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buford Seabolt, of Hagerstown, Md. Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Fowler have left on a trip to New Orleans, Florida, Havana, Cuba. They will be away for about a month.

TRY THIS AMAZING HOME RECIPE TO TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Right in Your Own Home, You Can Lose Pounds of Excess Weight Without Starvation Diet or Strenuous Exercise

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcel Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two table-spoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. Perhaps you are overweight due to over indulgence in food or the wrong kind of food. With the Barconate home recipe, method, you do not have to starve yourself or go hungry. Just follow the simple instructions given on the label and you should get satisfactory results quickly. The very first pint you make up should show results. Why not slim down your figure without a lot of fuss and bother? Try the Barconate way. Wear your streamlined frocks and slacks gracefully. Remember, if the very first bottle of Barconate doesn't show you the sensible way to lose weight, your money will be refunded.

Arab King Happy With Oil Set Up

CAIRO, Jan. 31. (Delayed) (AP)—King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia told newsmen today he was pleased with new arrangements for developing the Arabian-American oil company.

Arrangements were reported made recently for purchase of 40 per cent interest in the Arabian-American concern by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and Socony-Vacuum. Heretofore Arabian-American has been owned equally by Standard Oil of California and the Texas Oil Company. Additional capital is expected ultimately to boost production from 200,000 barrels daily to 500,000.

Rhubarb was first cultivated for its stalks as food in England about 1820.

'Outlaw' Opens Fri. At State and Texan

A novel booking arrangement brings one of the most talked-of pictures in recent seasons to two Big Spring theatres this week for a simultaneous opening.

Both the State and the Texan will offer "The Outlaw," highly publicized Howard Hughes production. Opening date is Friday, and the State will show the pictures for seven days, while the Texan screens it for three days.

Produced at stupendous cost, even for Hollywood, "The Outlaw" was revised and remade several times, then encountered censorship difficulties to the extent that it has never been released on a national scale.

The personage of all the publicity is beautiful Jane Russell, who has the leading 'feminine' role in the picture. "The Outlaw" is a western melodrama based on the activities of Billy the Kid, and the part of Billy is played by Jack Beutel.

He was only 21 years old when he died, but Billy the Kid was well on the way, even then to becoming a frontier legend. Today, only a few gray haired men and women remember him as a living youth, and even they do not know all of his story. People closely associated with Billy the Kid had a way of dying suddenly and violently and he never talked much about himself.

He killed his first man at the age of 12 stabbing him to death when he reportedly directed a light remark at his mother.

He has been described as loyal to his friends, utterly merciless to his enemies; cheerful and given to laughter, unassuming and a great favorite with the women. He was popular with the Mexicans and a score of senoritas wept when he died. No one ever doubted his courage, nor did they doubt the fact, that when it suited his interests, he could be completely callous . . . a strange and baffling figure, who, had he lived today, would have given psychiatrists much to talk about.

One ancient form of pipe smoking was to instert two horns of a Y-shaped pipe into the nostrils and inhale the smoke directly through the nose.

There are 20,338 bridges on the Pennsylvania highway system, 248 of them covered.

CARY AND NEW GAL—Gary Cooper, essaying a different type of role in "Cloak and Dagger," a melodrama based on wartime activities of the OSS, has also a new screen star as his feminine lead. She is a Britisher, Lilli Palmer. The picture is at the Lyric today and Monday.

EMOTIONAL DRAMA—Deep emotional conflict marks the theme of the suspense drama, "Undercurrent," which is at the Lyric theatre today and Monday with Katharine Hepburn and Robert Taylor in the starring roles.

'Blue Skies' Has Bountiful Quota Of Song Hits

Thirty-two Irving Berlin songs hits, including four new numbers by the famous composer of "God Bless America" and "White Christmas," will be heard in Paramount's new Technicolor musical film, "Blue Skies." The picture is booked for a special three-day showing at the Lyric theatre, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

"Blue Skies" starring Bing Crosby, Fred Astaire and blonde Joan Caulfield, and with Olga San Juan, Billy De Wolfe, Frank Faylen and Jack Norton in the cast, is a cavalcade to World War I when Berlin wrote such numbers as "I've Got My Captain Working For Me Now" and "Oh How I Hate To Get Up In The Morning."

The story of "Blue Skies" casts Crosby as a night club owner who can never settle down and has Astaire in his real-life role as a famous dancer. Miss Caulfield is the girl whose charms provide the love interest and lead to the conflict between Crosby and Astaire. Berlin wrote four new songs for "Blue Skies," two sung as solos by Crosby, "You Keep Coming Back Like a Song" and "Getting Nowhere." The others are "A Couple of Song and Dance Men," a novelty tune to which Crosby and Astaire do a dance routine, and "Serenade to an Old Fashioned Girl," sung in the picture by the very lovely Miss Caulfield.

Our truck will be in Big Spring each Wednesday. Leave calls at Barrow Fur Co.

Hepburn And Taylor Share Star Honors In 'Undercurrent'

The story of two people whose marital happiness is blighted by the mysterious shadow of an unseen rival brings Katharine Hepburn and Robert Taylor together for the first time in "Undercurrent," which is featured at the Lyric theatre today and Monday.

Unfolded with unremitting suspense and mounting step by step to a terrific climax, "Undercurrent" starts with the romantic meeting and subsequent marriage of Ann Hamilton and Alan Garroway, wealthy young industrialist. The marriage at first gives promise of being a happy one, but gradually and inexorably there hovers over the young couple the shadow of Alan's brother, Michael Garroway. What happened to Michael? If he is the villain repute makes him, why are there so many tender undercurrents connected with the traces of his personality? Is Ann in love with Alan whom she married or with Michael whom she has never seen? These are the questions which form the framework of a narrative which sweeps the spectator on from one breathtaking sequence to the next, ending in a climax of surging dramatic power.

As Ann, Katharine Hepburn gives the role of the distraught wife a haunting quality hard to forget. Taylor returns from his three years in the navy to appear as the brooding, jealous, tormented Alan Garroway.

The stars are given admirable support in the work of Robert Mitchum as the elusive Michael, Edmund Gwenn, playing Miss Hepburn's inventor-father, and Marjorie Main as the family servant who does her best to marry Miss Hepburn off. The picture also furnishes an auspicious introduction to the screen for two players from the Broadway stage — Jayne Meadows and Clinton Sundberg, both of whom are destined for motion picture prominence.

Directed by Fritz Lang and produced by Milton Sperling, the film introduces Lilli Palmer, outstanding English actress, in her initial American screen appearance as Cooper's love interest, Robert Alda, remembered for his portrayal of George Gershwin in "Rhapsody in Blue," is also featured while a capable supporting cast includes: Vladimir Sokoloff, Dan Seymour, J. Edward Bromberg, and others.

The screenplay was written by Albert Maltz and Ring Lardner, Jr., from an original story by Boris Ingster and John Larkin.

Gary Cooper In Adventure Film At Lyric

Opening today at the Lyric Theatre is "Cloak and Dagger," first production of the newly formed United States Pictures, Inc. Starring Gary Cooper, the exciting drama of romance, danger and suspense is released by Warner Bros. in celebration of the 20th Anniversary of Talking Pictures.

Recreational Facilities Important

Like many activities, recreation is at a formative period at this season of the year. There are some phases of it which need immediate attention, and certainly all phases can be considered with long range plans. The most pressing problem at the moment is the establishment of a baseball park. A group of individuals interested in re-establishing the sport, have been seeking to raise funds for the construction of a park. It is necessary first of all in order for the city to participate in professional baseball, which, peculiarly, has an attractiveness of its own. Other arrangements for a baseball club are entirely dependent upon park facilities. Besides accommodating league games, the park would stimulate widespread interest in the national past time. The high school team, getting started after a lapse of about 15 years or more, would use the facilities. It is possible that others such as sand-lotters, and semi-pro units would find it available under proper conditions. Certainly baseball is not the extent of our recreational program, but it is popular here and therefore important as a leisure time spectator event. Soon plans should be made for softball play, for this sport continues highly popular. Tennis facilities should be utilized to a far greater extent. Golf courses doubtless are at work on improvements of local links. The city park is being put in shape for use by picnickers, those who want to relax, and by children, who utilize the playground equipment and the swimming pool. The amphitheatre, too, is ready, although it needs a lot of refurbishing. The same is true of the Scenic Mountain State Park. In addition, some thought should be given to development of inter-city playgrounds, of fishing and boating at Moss Creek lake, of riding academies. Besides these, there are many other private facilities such as bowling alleys, theatres, clubs, etc., which can round out the program. All of these things are important, for recreation is important. In fact, it is a requisite to balanced and contented community life.

Case Of Colleges And The Taxpayer

By FRANK GRIMES
Herald Staff Writer

One of the greatest decisions that the current session of the legislature must make affects the future of higher education in this state, and since the capacity of the taxpayers to pay taxes for educational purposes is limited, also affects the future of the public schools. There are two plans. One was devised by the board of regents of the University of Texas and Texas A. & M. College, and approved by the boards of the 14 satellites in the firmament of higher education—Texas Tech, College of Mines, Prairie View University, and assorted state teachers colleges. To get money for badly needed additional buildings, this plan calls for issuance of 15 million dollars in bonds against the income of the University permanent fund, two thirds to go to the University and one-third to A. & M. Then, to take care of the 14 satellites, it is proposed to levy five cents ad valorem tax, this money to be delivered among the 14 on a pro rata basis. Thus the two topflight schools would finance their own needs out of existing university funds, without impairing those funds; while the 14 satellites would get theirs direct from the taxpayers. The 14 satellites of the great university, obviously in need of additional funds, have been squawking for a bigger slice of the pie. Very well, say U. of T. and A. & M., we'll help you get the money—not out of our funds, mind you, for they're sacred to us—but from the taxpayer direct. Squarely into this fight the West Texas chamber of commerce has projected a strong dissent. It agrees that additional funds are needed by all the 18 states of higher learning, but it asks a pertinent question, Why not use the University permanent fund, amounting to $70 million, as the base for issuing revenue bonds to cover the whole program, including U. of T., A. & M., Texas Tech and the rest? Why burden the taxpayer with additional taxes when the common schools are gasping for financial life, and something will have to be done for them or our whole educational system go smash?

The WTCC advances the "Trust Fund Plan" in opposition to the "College Plan" advanced by the boards of regents. It argues that as much as $37 million can be financed by bond issue against the permanent fund, without impairing that fund in the least. If then proposes that Texas U. and Texas A. & M. be given 40 per cent of the money thus raised, while the other 14 schools be given the remaining 60 per cent.

The WTCC plan would not call for the levying of a cent of tax; it would be financed by bond issue against permanent funds, exactly as the regents' plan calls for—except that under the latter U. of T. and A. & M. would take care of themselves, and leave the other 14 dependent on a five cent tax levy for theirs.

Obviously, WTCC, whose membership has been discussing the Trust Fund Plan for months, has a case. Its merit is that it will not cost the taxpayers anything, that it would leave the university permanent fund intact, and that it would give all 16 schools adequate funds for building purposes.

The Trust Fund Plan would appeal to the taxpayers; they might not feel too kindly toward the College Plan of levying a new tax, even if for only five cents, at a time when abolition of all ad valorem taxes for state purposes is a popular dream. If the taxpayers defested the proposal, that would be bad for all 16 colleges.

Since the voters will have to pass on whatever plan is finally submitted to them by the legislature (in the form of a constitutional amendment or amendments) the WTCC plan is the more persuasive of the two, and would be calculated to win popular favor, because it calls for no new tax, whereas the College Plan might kick up a lot of opposition from property taxpayers. Up to a point the two plans are identical. Both propose to use the university permanent fund as a base for bond issues. The WTCC plan would make all 16 colleges beneficiaries of the fund, instead of the two bigshots. And the WTCC plan would not reach into the pockets of the taxpayers for additional money for higher education when the common schools are so badly in need of funds.

Hawaii Still Wants To Be A State

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Hawaii wants to be a state and maybe it will make the grade this year. Maybe.

At least its representative in Congress thinks Hawaii's chances for "some action" are better in 1947 than ever before.

Hawaii has tried to become a state ever since Congress made it a territory in 1900.

Joseph R. Farrington, Hawaiian delegate to Congress, says today:

"The chance for some action this year is more favorable than any time in Hawaii's history."

Farrington expects the House committee on public lands to start hearings within a couple of weeks.

Here is the history which led up to all this:

Hawaii—a group of Pacific islands 2,400 miles from San Francisco—was discovered in 1778 by Captain James Cook, an Englishman.

By the middle of the 1800's Hawaii had its own laws and legislature, under a king. The ruling queen was deposed in 1893.

A Republic was set up then. Congress in 1898 annexed the islands, and, in 1900, made them a territory, the last step before statehood.

It has a governor, appointed by the United States president; two federal judges; a US attorney and marshal; other officials connected with government departments; its own local laws and judges; its own elected legislature, with a 15-man Senate and a 30-man House.

And every two years it elects to Congress a delegate who can represent Hawaii there and introduce bills but who cannot vote.

By being a state, Hawaii would have two representatives and two senators; it would get all federal benefits any state gets; and it would elect its own governor.

Since 1900 the Hawaiian legislature has petitioned Congress 14 times to the territory state.

And last year President Truman urged statehood but nothing happened.

Farrington says the Hawaiians voted 2 to 1 in 1940 for statehood and, if voting now, would want it by 4 to 1 or better.

Hawaii is stepping up its campaign. It has opened a publicity office here called "The 49th State Office."

And, with this Congress only a month old, already various congressmen have introduced a dozen bills to make Hawaii a state.

Affairs Of The World—DeWitt MacKenzie

Keeping The Secret Of A-Energy

By J. M. ROBERTS, Jr.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
Substituting For DeWitt MacKenzie

Foreign policy as well as military security is involved in the newly-displayed interest of Congress and of David Lillenthal in the security of U. S. Atomic secrets.

The international control agreements which we hope to attain would stand as powerful precedents for control of all war, and just to find that such agreements are possible would be an important step.

But the one hope that other countries will surrender sufficient sovereign rights to permit agreement lies in the pressure exerted upon them by our unique possession of this weapon.

considered something which might help lead foreign scientists to the bomb. Presumably it is no longer believed to be a secret. But the point is that, while publication is made now from what were supposed to be "death penalty" files, it hasn't been a secret at all.

Lillenthal is going behind closed doors when he lets the congressional committee in on the details of security and foreign spying. One thing that is likely to come up then is the belief of those responsible for security that they can spot foreign agents and make them ineffective without arrests, deportations and embarrassing hulla-baloos. The Canadians found, however, that zealots at home who opposed the secrecy in principle had combined with Russian spies to produce a situation which could only be handled by direct action.

We don't know that such a situation exists in the United States. Only that the political and military issues involved make the subject worth all the attention it can get.

In Hollywood—Bob Thomas

'In Between' Stage

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Bright-faced Roddy McDowall can't get the kind of movie job he wants these days because of that occupational disease dreaded by screen adolescents—the "in-between stage."

The British lad, now 18, is in an unfortunate position. He is too old to play Cornel Wilde as a boy and too young to enact Betty Grable's boy friend. Or at least so the studios think. "This 'in-between' stuff is absolutely silly," Roddy said at his home, puffing maturely on a pipe. "If I did look a year or two too young, they could add a little make-up. A year or two doesn't make any difference in this business."

Frankly, I'm confused. The flurry of Hollywood divorces, marriages, separations and reconciliations has my head swimming. The situation raises many questions.

For instance, how do the Wynn children know whom to call daddy? Would Laraine and Leo have fared better with the law if, as Bob Hope suggested, they had taken Artie Shaw to Mexico with them as technical advisors? If Greer Garson divorces Richard Ney, who will get custody of their flower garden. And in the Johnson-Wynn affair, who will get custody of Peter Lawford? Who will be Lana Turner's next beau after Tyrone Power?

Anyway, it's more fun than a soap opera.

SHADOW BOXING

Hal Boyle's Notebook

Quaint D. C. Customs

(Hal Boyle has pitched camp in a strange isolated community he discovered on the banks of the Potomac called Washington, D. C. Today our vast pocket Marco Polo presents more of the quaint customs of its inhabitants.)

WASHINGTON, (AP)—My notebook is full of horror this day.

I have just returned to my camp from a day spent in the Great Stone Tepee where the two main Washington tribes—the "Democrats" and the "Republicans"—hold their councils.

The elder chieftains of both tribes, the "Senators," have private elevators to carry them to the different levels. They also have a miniature railroad train to whisk them underground to a separate building where they can hold pow-wow among themselves or brood alone.

The younger medicine men, the "Congressmen," must walk from the Great Tepee to their marble wigwam.

Both tribes appear to practice ancestor worship. Each has set up statues of its previous chieftain about the community and in the meeting halls, and their hallowed names are often invoked.

Now I must relate the harrowing ritual ceremony I witnessed after slipping unobserved into a stone dungeon called a "Committee Room."

August senators from the two tribes were seated in padded chairs behind the sacrificial altar, where the ceremony—known as an "open hearing"—was held.

The victim was led to a table before the Senators, who questioned him at length. The man was a sub-sub-chieftain of some kind who labored in one of the huge government huts; and I could not determine the charge against him. Perhaps sacrilege.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Truman's Air Trips Cause Concern

WASHINGTON.—The spurge of recent air crashes is causing considerable worry to the secret service agents responsible for the life of the President.

The secret service is afraid the day may come when the President's special plane, "The Sacred Cow," may also encounter bad weather or mechanical trouble. They also know something about the President's propensity for taking off, rain or shine, and it keeps them awake at nights thinking about it. When he wants to go someplace, he simply goes.

Result is that a quiet campaign is under way inside the secret service to persuade the President to abandon air travel generally. They want him to take the train — as President Roosevelt did on almost all occasions. FDR enjoyed train travel. It rested him and gave him a chance to get caught up with his correspondence. Truman, however, loves the speed of an airplane. He can get to Kansas City in four hours whereas it would take him two nights and a day by train.

The secret service has never recovered from the scare it received on Christmas, 1945, when Mr. Truman flew home to Independence in weather that had grounded all commercial airlines. However, the President is a hard man to persuade, and his secret service bodyguards are not any too optimistic about the chances of keeping him grounded.

The best thing they can really hope for is a new and larger plane from the War Department in the near future.

IN BRITISH CABINET If a Britisher were permitted to sit in on an American cabinet meeting, a howl of protest would go up from the isolationist wing. However, here is a conversation which Gen. Phil Fleming, chief of the office of temporary controls, had with friends after Gen. George Marshall's first appearance at a cabinet meeting as secretary of state.

"Though George has been a top-flight official in Washington for a long time, this was the first cabinet meeting he ever attended," said Fleming. "At least, it was the first one in this country."

"What do you mean?" Fleming was asked.

"Well, you see, General Marshall began attending cabinet meetings on foreign soil. He was present at three meetings of the British cabinet during the war."

Note—Though Marshall sat at British cabinet meetings, Winston Churchill got sour on his determination to stage a cross-channel invasion and vetoed him as supreme allied commander.

"NO MUD-SLINGING" President Truman's private directions to his staff on harmonizing with the GOP-controlled Congress may be summed up in three words: "Keep it impersonal."

Truman doesn't want any part of those free-swinging, name-calling bouts with the Congress that kept the press galleries scribbling when Franklin Roosevelt was in the White House.

At the same time, he has told the cabinet that he won't duck a scrap when "honest differences of opinion" arise.

"We will have our differences with Congress," the President told his staff recently. "We are bound to have them. However, I am convinced that I can get along with Congress as long as we keep our quarrels on an impersonal basis. Let's lay off the personality stuff."

NEBRASKA UNDERTAKER New Hampshire's sharp-tongued Senator Charles Tobey, is getting the same reputation as another high-principled Republican individualist, the late Senator George Norris of Nebraska. Strangely enough, Tobey's victim is usually the irrepressible Nebraska undertaker, Kenneth Wherry, who succeeded Norris in the Senate.

During the debate on the Senate small business committee Wherry was first interrupted by Senator Allen Ellender of Louisiana, who asked why he had proposed a new special small business committee, rather than extending the old one. Wherry's answer was tortuous and laborious. Finally Ellender blurted out: "My suspicion is that the Senator wants a new resolution adopted so that he can be chairman of the committee, and not permit the Senator from Iowa (George Wilson), who is the ranking member, to be chairman."

Heatedly, Wherry replied that he had known all along this was what Ellender was getting at. It was of no importance to him, he insisted, who was named chairman of the new committee.

"But I think I have seen quite a few articles in the press in which such a suggestion is made," replied Ellender.

"Yes, in Drew Pearson's column," Wherry shot back.

"And we can make a pretty good guess about it," said Ellender, smiling.

"Yes; Drew Pearson, Drew Pearson!" shouted the gentleman from Nebraska.

TOBEY GOES TO TOWN

Later Tobey took the floor and repeated Ellender's charges. The only motive for setting up this committee and for continuing the war investigating committee, argued the New Hampshire senator, was to provide committee chairmanships for Wherry and Senator Brewster of Maine.

"That, Mr. President, is reducing it to the lowest terms. But it is not good enough. The price is too high."

Tobey then recounted that he had been told a day earlier by Senator Bob Taft of Ohio that Wherry and Brewster had appeared before the Republican Steering Committee last November "pleading the cause of special committees."

Wherry asked Tobey to yield, but Tobey, with much to say in a short space of time, refused. Again Wherry interrupted.

"When the Senator had the floor I courteously asked him to yield and he declined," Tobey shouted. Then, as Wherry began to speak anyway, Tobey thundered on: "I shall heap coals of fire on his head."

Again Wherry started to speak, but Tobey drowned him out: "I yield to him—provided he uses his own time."

Without another word, Wherry took his seat. Red-faced, he did not again try to interrupt Tobey. "The senator," was Tobey's parting shot, "is not a good trader."

CAPITAL CHAFF

Alert Senator Brewster of Maine, giving colleagues an off-the-record report of his recent Latin American trip, disclosed that British agents are selling British planes all over Latin America and outselling the USA. They are taking orders for delivery on jet planes which will be far ahead of our transports. In two years, Brewster predicts, the British will force Latin Americans to use British-type instruments for landing, thus making it difficult for American planes to operate on the same fields.

Solons Talking Of Quitting Early

By DAVE CHEVENS
Associated Press Staff

AUSTIN, (AP)—The pulling and hauling has started between legislators who want to get the job done with dispatch, and those who want to stay around.

It is not a new situation in legislative history, but in the current session it started earlier than anyone can remember. The session was hardly a week old before Rep. Claude Gilmer of Rock Springs came up with a resolution setting the final adjournment date for May 13.

Although the matter was tabled in the House, there are ways of reviving it. A determined group of house members will see to it that the folks back home are constantly reminded that one segment of the lawmaking body wants to hold the length of the session inside the 120-day limit.

While nothing has been said in the senate final adjournment, that body has given evidence it wants to get through and go home.

More important legislation was introduced early in the senate this session than ever before in the history of the legislature. Committees were appointed immediately and public hearings were set on controversial bills.

One senator was heard to complain bitterly, but privately, that he has been kept so busy that he hasn't had time to look for a house.

"It probably doesn't matter," he beamed. "At the rate we're going, we'll be back in the old home town before I can get my family moved."

The last general session, which has already gone down in the books of some recorders of legislative history as "The Fumbling 49th" because of its numerous costly miscues and invalidated acts, did not even have the virtue of quitting on time. It ran from Jan. 9 to June 5, a total of 148 days. This was the second longest general session in history.

The longest general session came during the second term of W. Lee O'Daniel as governor. It was the 47th, in 1941. This session started Jan. 14 and ran through July 3, a total of 171 days. The 48th legislature lasted exactly 120 days.

The constitutionally-suggested length of a general session is 120 days. Members of the house and senate are paid $10 a day for their services to the state for that long; after that it drops to $5 a day.

Prior to 1931, they constitutionally suggested length of the session was 60 days and there were more special sessions. There has not been a special session since Coke Stevenson's first—and last—in 1941. That one ran from Sept. 9 through Sept. 19. It passed two laws—the county road bond assumption act and an appropriation bill for its own expenses.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

There is but one FREEDOM, freedom of CHOICE, bound by TIME
He waited a long time — for an accident.
How long shall I wait? 61 Years?
What am I waiting for? An Accident?

If It's Intentional, It Is CHIROPRACTIC
If It's Accidental, Is It A MIRACLE?

Intentional
In 1895, an incident of world-wide historical value took place.
Harvey Lillard became deaf.
He was in a stooped, cramped position when he heard "something pop" in his neck.
He was deaf for 18 years.
In his neck was a large visible bump. Fortunately, it could be seen, otherwise it might have gone unnoticed.
D. D. Palmer* said: If PRODUCTION of that bump PRODUCED deafness, REDUCTION should restore hearing.
He pushed the bump, three days in succession; bump was gone, and hearing WAS restored.
Fortunately that bump WAS REDUCED; fortunately, hearing WAS restored.
That incident started and established a truth heretofore unknown and unused.
Would the average man, upon a single isolated case, have discovered a universal human principle and practice?
Was this man justified in laying down an all-complete, all inclusive, and all-exclusive universal human principle?
51 years have justified that conclusion.

Accidental
DEAF, MUTE FOR 61 YEARS SPEAKS, HEARS AFTER FALL
Seattle, May 29 (UP) — A 64-year-old deaf mute threw away his pad and pencil today and chatted happily with his fellow workers at the Seattle army service forces depot. He was speaking and hearing his first words since childhood.
Claude Berger's silence of 61 years was broken dramatically when he tripped and fell as he stacked boxes at his job. The shock of the fall apparently restored his hearing and speech. As his friends rushed to aid him he said, distinctly, "I feel fine. I can hear a little now."
The significance of what had happened came to him as he was taken to the depot's medical office.
He rushed to a nurse, threw his arms about her and cried: "Thanks to the Lord, I can speak. I can hear."
Berger said he had been deaf and speechless ever since an attack of scarlet fever suffered when he was three years old. — "St. Louis Post-Dispatch", May 29, 1946.
NOTE: If this man's earning power was reduced One Dollar A Day because of his condition, he lost $12,000.00. This is figured on 300 working days a year, and 40 years of useful work. Yes, miracles are expensive.

Howard County Hereford Breeders Association hopes to get catalogues for the annual sale into the mails immediately. Prospects still indicate that the animals offered for sale this year will be in better condition than any offered in previous association sales here. Leland Wallace, secretary of the association, says it is surprising how the cold weather and snow during the first week of January seemed to benefit, rather than hurt, the animals. A good part of Wallace's registered herd was in a pasture several miles from his home when the snow fell, and it was impossible for him to check on them for a period of five days. During this time the animals were forced to subsist on feed Wallace carried to the pasture at the outset of the storm. Nevertheless, they showed no damage caused by the cold, and Wallace is particularly pleased with the thick coat of hair they produced while the snow was on the ground.

Wallace, incidentally, is making improvements at his place, which include a new residence. He hopes to acquire more range land in the future and expand his registered Hereford herd.

In Dawson and some surrounding counties, the 1946 crop of green field peas brought farmers an average of $110 a ton in the hull, T. A. Barfield, Dawson county agricultural agent, reports. The blackeyed pea acreage in Dawson county alone last year was between 20,000 and 25,000 acres. Yields were reported to range from 400 to 2,000 pounds per acre.

Commenting on the value of the peas as a cash crop, Barfield said, "Our minimum price at Lamesa was $80 a ton, and competitive buying boosted the top price paid to $130 a ton. I judge that the average price paid at Lamesa in 1946 was $100 or $110 a ton." The green peas helped Dawson county farmers to restore some much needed nitrogen to the soil, the county agent said, as well as to bring in cash during the last two dry years the county has experienced. Other counties with large acreage to peas included Lubbock, Lynn, Terry, Bailey and Hale. Barfield said some "fabulous yields" were reported on land under irrigation. He believes that Dawson county farmers will be planting blackeyed peas as long as there is a market for them.

Texas farmers applied a record amount of 20,000,000 pounds of poison to cotton fields during 1946 to control insects, according to figures compiled by Charles A. King Jr., extension service entomologist. The last accurate check was taken in 1944, King says, when 14,000,000 pounds of poison was applied.

Texas Bonus Bill For Vets Planned

AUSTIN, Jan. 31. (P)—First appearance of a state bonus bill for World War II veterans is promised in the House when the 50th legislature reconvenes Monday. Rep. Gordon Davis of Waco, author of the bill, said it will call for an appropriation of approximately $600,500,000 to pay bonuses at the rate of $1 per day for overseas service and 50 cents per day for service in the United States. The Davis bill would require a constitutional amendment passed by the electorate to permit payment.

AIR HOSTESSES WANTED
NEW YORK (U.P.)—More and more young women will begin sky careers during 1947, according to United Air Lines, which announces it will employ and train more than 400 new stewardesses between now and the end of June to augment its current staff of 550.
