Football 1974 Closes Out For Eastland Mavericks Friday

Football, 1974, closes out for Eastland Mavericks Friday - when the Herd goes to Comanche to do battle with the Potent Indians.

It'll be a 7:30 p.m. kickoff and should be a fantastic match-up. Eastland stood firm and held off a last minute surge by the Clyde Bulldogs last Friday, coming out with a 7-6 win.

Comanche is the powerhouse in District 9-AA, having already the playoff nod with an outstanding season.

The Indians stack up like this:

Probable Strength-Experience

With the Indians boasting a perfect season it would be a delight to the Mavericks to be the first to defeat them this season.

Eastland has nailed down the second spot slot in 9-AA and undoing the league leader would be a nice way to end the season for the Black and Red. Maverick Tom Morren continues to dominate district scoring honors with a total to date of 122, followed by Comanche Williams with 82.

Saul Pullman Speaks To Rotary Club

Clarification of several points of the new criminal code which went into effect in Texas this year was made by Attorney Saul Pullman for members of the Eastland Rotary Club here Monday.

The old code, he said, had no recommended punishments but the new code categorizes the offenses and punishment ranges for each. The capitol felony offense provides for eight life imprisonment or the death penalty; first degree felony, five years to life; second degree felony, two to 20; third degree felony, two to ten; Class A Misdemeanor, $2,000 fine and/or one year; Class B, $1,000 or 180 days; and Class C, $200 fine.

Attorney Pullman pointed out that defenses usually are based on insanity or entrapment points. Determining the circumstances at the time of the crime, which help determine intent, knowingly, recklessly or criminal negligence.

Ken Reese presided and guests included Bill Williams of Eastland and Ed Baird of Cisco. District Gov. W.O. (Bill) Throgton of Stephenville will visit Monday, Nov. 25, and the club Christmas party will be Dec. 9. M.H. Perry will have the program next week.

"A lot of people believe that the law protects the criminal", Attorney Pullman said, "but I don't see it that way. It's a defense attorney's job to see that the state proves its case, and the burden is on the state."

He also pointed out that defendants are tried a "case at a time", because that's the crimes are committed, "one at a time."

J.D. Clements Services Pend

Former Eastland County Deputy Sheriff J.D. Clements died about 9 a.m. Wednesday at the Veterans Hospital in Dallas. He had been in ill health for a long time.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Killingsworth Funeral Home in Ranger.

All trophy day at Gorman Roping Arena will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday. First to sixth place trophies will be given in every event. Events include Western Pleasure, Pole Bending, Flag Race, Barrel Race and Goat Tying. There are five age groups: 8 and under, 9 to 12, 13 to 15, 16 to 18, and 19 and over. The events cost $2.00 each.

'East End Co-op is Working' for Local Students

Plan A is good; it's working; and it should get even better.

That's the analysis of a new program that's helping exceptional children in Eastland and this area.

Speaking for members of the Eastland Lions Club at noon Tuesday were Cedric Bettus and Johnny Creiger, who are key leaders in the East-End Co-Op which is presently serving 21 schools in seven districts.

The "east-end" designation indicates that it is an extension of the Region 14 Educational Services Center. All Eastland County School districts except Rising Star are participating as well as the Breckenridge and Moran schools.

Plan A provides special education help for ages three through 21. It was created by Senate Bill 230 in 1969 to provide needed help for all youngsters in the state, regardless of the size school they attend. Under the plan, several schools cooperate and are eligible for the services available.

President Otis Coleman presided and guest was Larry Smith.

James Reid was program chairman and introduced the speakers. Monroe Rollins will have the program next Tuesday and Lions Wives are invited to attend the special musical program.

In Eastland some 16 to 20 youngsters are being helped through the program in addition to the some 115 in the contract reading program, Mr. Creiger, counselor, reported.

East-End is making available two teachers, Mrs. E.C. Ragland and Mrs. Herman Alsop, and a teacher's aide, Mrs. Wendell Siebert, in Eastland.

There are 13 main categories of handicapping conditions - which qualify youngsters for the special help. Most of the children have normal intelligence but have trouble understanding some things, or "see things differently".

Postmaster Marcus O'Dell and Postal Clerk Travis Harrell at the United States Postal Service window in Eastland. The Post Office has been upgraded by doing interior and exterior painting, and by refinishing the floors and wood work. There were repairs done to the roof and the building was made water proof. The front and rear steps were repaired. Protective screens were put over the exterior part of the stamp mural windows to prevent deprecation. Glass and screens were installed in the lobby.

CJC Repeats Dinner Theater

The Cisco Junior College Fine Arts Department has announced that its three dinner theater productions presented last weekend will be repeated Nov. 22-23-24, due to the sell-out success of all the shows the first time they were held.

CJC President Norman Wallace highly commended the two directors of the productions, Mary Reed and Fred Mullinax, as well as the dozen college students involved in the revival of the Roof Garden of the College Hotel and production of the three Broadway comedies. The group also received praise from Wyley Peebles, head of the college's Fine Arts Department, and other CJC officials. The productions were termed a "complete success in every respect", and a great deal of community interest was exhibited for dinner theater in Cisco. The shows will be done in reverse order when presented the second time. Director Reed said, "The Odd Couple" will play on Friday evening, Nov. 22. "Butterflies Are Free" will be done on Saturday night, the 23rd, and the series will close with "Barefoot in the Park" on Sunday evening, the 24th. The Friday and Saturday format will call for dinner beginning at 7:00 p.m. and serving will be at 8:00 p.m. on Sunday. The show will of course immediately follow dinner, she said.

The price per person for the combination of the full-course dinner and play to follow will again be $5.00 and reservations must be made no later than noon of the day of the Friday production, and no later than 5:00 p.m. Nov. 22 for the Saturday and Sunday shows. Seating is limited and reservations are required, the directors reiterated. They may be made by telephoning 442-2567.

Ms. Reed and Mr. Mullinax also reminded patrons that "The Odd Couple" and "Barefoot in the Park" could be considered for general or family audiences and that "Butterflies Are Free" is for mature audiences.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY - An early Anniversary gift for the Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Dunlap of Route One, Eastland, came when they were notified by Thrift Mart Manager Bill Williams that they had won the Eastland store's Jack Pot of $350 this week. Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Dec. 8. They're shown here with the big check from the Jack Pot program which continues at the East Main St. Super Market. TEXAS - SIZE RADISH - Mr. Frank Park of 107 E. Hill St. displays a giant radish from his fall garden. Probably a little too big and probably in the ground too long to be tender and sweet, the little icyle radish does show how well things grow in Eastland County soil. Weighing in at two and a half pounds, the begetable measures 16 1/2 inches long and 12 1/2 inches around.

Peanuts Respond To Fertilizer

College Station - Peanut yields in Texas Agricultural Experiment Station trials showed responses to fertilizer applications under both dryland and irrigated conditions in 1973, the fourth year in a row that the crop was planted on the same locations and received the same fertility rates.

The tests were conducted at the Texas A&M University-Tarleton Experiment Station at Stephenville under the direction of James S. Newman, associate professor in charge.

Maximum yields in most tests resulted from 25 pounds of nitrogen per acre applied alone or in combination with phosphorus and potassium. Best yield increases from fertilizer ranged from 115 to 980 pounds per acre compared to untreated peanuts. Increased gross returns per acre were $19.75 to $167.75, according to Newman.

A 25-pound-per-acre nitrogen application, with or without phosphorus, gave the five highest yields 14 out of 25 times at a given location. Phosphorus and potassium without nitrogen had similar yield responses.

A 50-pound-per-acre nitrogen application generally depressed crop output, said Newman.

Micronutrients also boosted yields, but not significantly. This implies that none of the test sites had serious micronutrient shortages, noted the Experiment Station scientist.

The four years of fertilizer testing indicate that plant nutrients will produce different effects on different soils. It is not known if yields will decline under conditions where no fertilizer is applied over a long period or at what intervals application would be most economical. Continued fertilizer research with more soil testing should be helpful in answering such questions, said Newman.

Charles Bronson stars as Vince Majestyk, a watermelon rancher who is being chased by a killer in "Mr. Majestyk," a Walter Mirisch - Richard Fleischer production. The picture will open Sunday at the Majestic Theatre through release by United Artists, an entertainment service of Transamerica Corporation.

Holiday Festivity And Fruit Cake Making Time

College Station - It's fruitcake - making time, and the fun of baking is a big part of pre-holiday festivity.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, looked at the holiday tradition of "fruitcake baking" - and buying.

"One big question is whether to make your own or buy one," she noted.

Good quality ready-made fruitcake is a boon for busy homemakers. They come in all sizes - by the slice, in 8-ounce, one pound, one and one-half pound, up to five pound and over sizes.

DARK OR LIGHT FRUIT-CAKES

Choices range from dark to light types of fruitcake, with both kinds full of fruits and nuts - or for families who like just a hint, the fruit and nuts may be lightly scattered through the cake.

"But whichever type you choose, read the label first to make sure you buy what you intended to buy. Prices for ready-made usually depend on the amount of fruits and nuts they contain. The more nuts and fruits, the higher the price," Mrs. Clyatt said.

COST OF HOME BAKING
The specialist pointed out that if you make your own, cost depends on the recipe.

"Check costs of the ingredients before you bake."

"Of course, costs don't consider your time, patience and the cleanup - or your satisfaction."

CANDIED FRUIT CHOICES
Candied fruits are a necessary part of fruitcakes and a welcome addition to pies, cookies, breads and salads. As you look over the selections of candied fruits, you may want to compare the price with the cost of preparing your own, Mrs. Clyatt suggested.

Come choices are citron, lemon peel, orange peel - available in glaze form covered with a light coat of sugar, or in drained form, with all the surplus sugar removed. Also cherries are packed whole in glaze form, colored green and red.

"Mixed fruit contains four or five diced fruits such as citron, orange peel, lemon peel, pineapple and cherries. Pineapple, packed in glaze form as fingers, slices and diced, colored red, green and yellow is available."

Candied fruit comes in four-ounce containers, but can also be found in larger vacuum jars, cello-packs and bulk containers. The specialist suggested you consider the total amount of candied fruit you will need for holiday baking and buy it in the larger packages - usually more economical.

Stores usually stock candied fruit to last only through the holiday season since the demand is small during the rest of the year, the specialist said.

HOW TO BUY NUTMEATS

Nutmeats are an important ingredient in fruitcakes of all kinds and there are do's and don'ts for buying them.

Mrs. Clyatt's suggestions are:
Buy unshelled nuts that are clean and free from scars, cracks or holes.

with shelled nuts, look for kernels that are plump and meaty, crisp and brittle, and if used for garnish - uniform in size and color.

Unshelled nuts are often, but not always, less expensive than shelled nuts.

Compare costs: two pounds of unshelled tree nuts make one pound (three to four cups) of nutmeats.

"The small, recipe-size packages are generally more expensive than the "holiday baking" size (one pound) packages," the specialist pointed out.

BAKING, GLAZING AND DECORATING

"Bake fruitcakes in foil pans, individual-size glass casseroles, or even in tiny muffin tins. Glaze and decorate them after they've cooled. You can bake them in clean, well-washed coffee cans for unusual shapes," she added.

"For a handsome glaze, heat corn syrup to a roll, rolling boil and spread with a pastry brush

People n' Things

WURSTFEST IS gemütlichkeit...good fellowship in the German manner. That's sort of the slogan for the annual Wurstfest at New Braunfels, and we enjoyed looking in on the big event last weekend.

A visit to their Wursthalle and Markplatz is something that you'll find unique and very entertaining. The hall is about three times as big as Cisco's community gym. Assorted-booths allow you to feast on all kinds of sausage, smoked and crisp or hot and juicy, wrapped in homemade bread. They have strudels and numerous dishes in German style.

They even have a Sausage Dog (Dachshund) Show. Myron Floren of the Lawrence Welk orchestra was there with his accordion last Monday through Thursday to entertain at the big Wursthalle. German bands provided music and entertainment every night.

The Wurstfest was held for the first time in 1961 to promote the sausage industry in New Braunfels. It has grown steadily from a crowd of 2,000 the first year to an estimated 150,000 this year. Visitors come from over the top of the cake. Decorations of nuts and red and green maraschino cherries will cling tightly if first dipped on one side in powdered sugar icing before arranging on the cake," Mrs. Clyatt said.

CARE OF BAKED FRUIT-CAKE

Wrap thoroughly cooled fruitcake tightly in plastic wrap, then in heavy aluminum foil.

"You may want to brush the cake occasionally with fruit juice or cider. Or you can saturate a cloth in the liquid, wrap the cake in it first and then overwrap with plastic wrap. Four to six weeks will complete the mellowing of the delightful fruit flavors," she said.

After the fruitcake is well-seasoned, a home freezer or refrigerator is ideal for storing it. Just be sure the cake is freezer-wrapped, she reminded.

virtually all states and from many foreign countries. And they consumed more than 60 tons of sausage, 10,000 pounds of shishkabobs and many, many loaves of German type bread.

The Dr. Dan Maddoxes were among those attending, and they've been going annually for several years. The Herman Reimers also planned to be there, but we didn't run into them. It was a memorable event even though rain fell during the whole weekend we were there.

Thanksgiving Thanks

College Station - Make Thanksgiving a time for thanks-thanks that your food dollar covers your basic nutritional needs without stretching it to the breaking point, one food and nutrition specialist advised this week.

"Since meat takes the largest portion of your food dollar, a comparative shopping trip is a good idea," Frances Reasonover with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, pointed out.

The specialist suggested you consider the number of servings you will need and the number of servings per pound you can expect from each of the products you're comparing turkey and ham, for example.

"You can expect two and a half servings from one pound of ham with bone in, but three servings from a pound of boneless ham.

"One pound of whole fresh turkey yields two servings per pounds, while one pound of turkey breast or boneless turkey roast gives three servings," Miss Reasonover pointed out.

Nutrition wise, turkey and ham are comparable. Both are good sources of protein--but pound for pound, turkey has a little more protein and less fat than ham. This may be a consideration if you are on a special low-fat diet, she noted.

Thoughts

From The Living Bible
The end of the world is coming soon. Therefore be earnest, thoughtful men of prayer. Most important of all, continue to show deep love for each other, for love makes up for many of your faults. Cheerfully share your home with those who need a meal or a place to stay for the night. God has given each of you some special abilities; be sure to use them to help each other, passing on to others God's many kinds of blessings. Are you called to preach? Then preach as though God himself were speaking through you.

NATURAL GAS
For Years To Come

With all the talk about conservation, many might believe that we have only enough natural gas for a few tomorrows. We'd like to assure our residential and other high priority customers that Lone Star has an adequate supply. Not only for the present, but for years to come.
We were actively engaged in exploration programs long before the energy crisis. And since the crisis, we're exploring even harder to insure your continued supply of natural gas.
Conservation is one way to extend the supplies we now have on hand. And they can last much longer by avoiding wasteful uses of energy. By making it last longer, more time is allowed for new forms of energy to be developed.
Of course new supplies are going to cost more. But natural gas is still the best buy for your energy dollar!
Conserve natural gas. Conservation will help keep the cost as low as possible.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Oct. 11 Mother (she's 76 and does the driving) came from Calif. to take me on vacation to Ohio and W. Va. thus giving my boss and the public two weeks respite.

We passed the Eastland Co. jail where sign reads NO ADMITTANCE which Mother took to be the latest in federal court orders. Just look at the trouble saved if they forbid entry rather than turning them loose after we get a few in!

I picked a few red haws here but Mother said they grew three times as large in W. Va. I didn't see any there but they could be like the town where I grew up. After being gone thirty five years I found the broad street where I played had shrunk to a narrow lane, the miles I trudged through snow to school now took minutes and the great down town area where I earned show money passing out hand bills was no bigger than three good shopping malls.

While looking for haws I found some trees with no fruit and wondered if since there are male trees in persimon and other trees, could there be a haw? For the answer should I

Mr. and Mrs. Herby Fox of Olden visited with her mother Mrs. Pearl Snodgrass on Sunday.

Mrs. Loula M. Pierce of Oklahoma City visited her sister Mrs. J.H. Weaver and Mr. Weaver on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Harle of Henrietta and Mr. and Mrs. Walt Stennett and baby of Cisco visited the Henry Harles on Sunday.

consult a botanist or Roy Clark and Buck Owens?

Really the vacation was magnificent as the miles of landscape from Memphis on made paint store advertising seem drab by comparison. Neither words nor camera could encompass the extravagance of nature. It speaks to the soul!

The upper Ohio Valley is dingy where steel mills are crowded between the steep hills and the river and slag piles towering near dwarf the multistoried houses blackened by years of coal smoke. The smoke which once billowed from the giant stacks has been cut to whisps of steam but the river whose Indian name meant beautiful water is still unfit to swim and the surviving fish unfit to eat.

In the hill country civilization has crowded in with twenty houses where there was one. No one ever offered me a dram of mountain dew! Not that I miss the stuff but just to show you how things change. Guess I could have found a jug for souvenir if I'd the nerve to ask.

My cousins husbands were fine folk from the one who crossed the Hungarian border during the revolt to the one of American Revolutionary stock who drove me all over the W. Va. panhandle and into Penn. to find some butter nuts. Mother will plant some in Calif. and I will plant mine in Texas to see if they can adapt as we have.

The delightful tale of my non Baptist relative who stole a bell to ship to a Baptist mission in Asia and the means of getting it there without paying a cent to carriers on land or sea must wait till I can be sure that not one of those involved would be embarrassed. But it is people that make vacations or life itself worthwhile. Perhaps that is why I find working for Texas Employment Commission so much to my liking.

The morning we wakened to snow on the grass and cars but the roads clear we knew the time had come to make like the ducks and head south leaving half the kin unvisited and barrels of coffee undrunk. Mother had regained most of the weight she spent $400 to loose and we find memory the precious, paradoxical mixture of joy and pain.

To the kin folk who said "Don't wait so long to visit next time." I answered, "If I don't get back before another thirty five years just stop lookin' cause I ain't a comin'."

TESCO Honors QCentury Members

Burl B. Hulsey Jr., president of Texas Electric Service Co., told company employees at a meeting here last night honoring Quarter Century Club members that TESCO is in a strong position today and although it has solid, longrange plans for the future, carrying out those plans will be a big, tough job.

Hulsey said that TESCO is just beginning a major transition from using natural gas for virtually all its generating plants to using lignite coal and nuclear fuels.

"This transition is the most far-reaching and most expensive in the company's history", that are adequate to attract and to pay the cost of this additional money."

TESCO sold $70 million in new securities at a rate of about 8 1/2% in April, he said, and plans to sell $60 million of new bonds in December, expecting to pay about 10% for this money.

Hulsey said that several major utilities recently had been unable to find buyers for their bonds and stocks which forced them to make major cutbacks in their construction plans.

"It won't take long for these cutbacks to result in poorer service to customers," he said.

"There is one basic reason why these companies are faced with serious financial crises and a deterioration of their service. They have not been allowed sufficient earnings to stay financially strong and to keep a good credit rating."

TESCO has a strong financial position and an excellent credit rating at this time, he stated. "The only way we can keep this strong position, so that we can get the money we need, is through rate increases like the one approved earlier this year."

Hulsey said that directly related to the company's financial strength is the effect the proposed state utility commission would have.

"Many of the problems faced by electric utilities in other states have been caused by oppressive, over-regulation by state utility commissions. Utility analysts now recognize that most state utility regulatory laws and methods are out of date, archaic and simply not working."

"When you look at the problems of many electric utilities in other parts of the country--when you look at the record--it's obvious there's something wrong with their system of regulation and something right with ours.

"Our present system of local, close-to-home regulation of our rates and service is working and is working well for our customers. It has resulted in quality service at some of the lowest rates in the country."

"Local regulation is more responsive to local needs and problems because local people, who are themselves customers, can best judge the quality and value of our service."

"The proponents of a state utility commission suggest that a remote group in Austin could do a better job and could somehow reduce rates and reduce the need for rate increases. I can assure you that this defies the basic laws of economics."

"The increasing costs we face must be included in the price of electricity. A state utility commission cannot reduce these costs or solve any of the problems we face. It can't make new supplies of fuel available. It can't reduce construction costs. It can't make more capital available, and it can't reduce inflation."

Hulsey presented award watches to three employees who completed 25 years of service with the company during the year and became members of the Quarter Century Club.

The three are J.M. Smith of Eastland customer services and B.R. Salmon and N.D. Abbott Jr., of the Graham power plant.

He joined TESCO in 1949 at the Leon Plant, and in 1956 became a Customer Relations Representative with the Eastland Division. Division President Frank Sayre joins in congratulating Mr. Smith. ## Light On Falling Cattle Prices

College Station -- Are high imports and low exports the cause of current falling cattle prices?

Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, shed some light on this question with a few facts.

"During January to June of 1974, imports of beef, veal and pork into the U.S. Were down three per cent from last year's levels, while imports of cattle were down 21 per cent," says the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Hog imports, however, were up 184 per cent over last year's levels."

Uvacek went on to say that beef and veal exports were down eight per cent over last year's levels, while pork exports were down 77 per cent. However, cattle exports have gone up 87 per cent, with a 231 per cent increase in cattle exports to Canada.

"Despite these low import levels, except for hogs, and higher cattle exports, the price per hundredweight of slaughter steers, lambs, and barros and gilts has shown a marked decrease during 1974 compared to 1974 levels," he adds. "This should emphasize the fact that current low cattle prices have a much deeper domestic root than foreign trade in livestock would explain."

Grid Season Ends As CJC Plays Ranger Eleven Saturday

2:30 Kickoff Set For Game

The Wranglers of Cisco Junior College will seek revenge for the 23-13 licking the Ranger JC Rangers administered to them in the Peanut Bowl last September when the two teams meet here at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in the season's finale.

Coach Ace Prescott and his Wranglers were seeking to add polish to their attack in workouts this week, hopeful that they can produce enough offense to beat the Rangers. The Wranglers are expected to be at near top strength for the contest.

Long runs by a fast, hard-charging fullback enabled Navarro JC to win a 27 to 0 victory over the Wranglers here last Saturday night. The Wrangler defensive team was impressive except against a few long runs. Twice they stopped Navarro after they got to the Wrangler one on first down. Navarro had a 14-0 halftime lead.

Mark Nash, the CJC quarterback who went out with a shoulder injury two weeks ago, is expected to be ready and likely will play some against Ranger, Coach Prescott said. Richard Penick, the alternate field general is slated to start.

Probable starters with Penick were expected to include Joe Burns, Jerry Robertson and Rocky Hopkins. Gary Sutherland, a regular until injured two weeks ago, is due to be ready and likely will play part of the time.

Poultry Prices On Move Again

College Station--Poultry prices are on the move again--upward one authority reports.

She's Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Chicken, turkey and egg farmers are being forced to curtail production because of high feed costs," Mrs. Clyatt explained.

The price hike follows an expansion of poultry products output earlier this year, the specialist added.

In spite of the current trend upward in poultry prices, there is an accumulation of frozen turkeys in storage--and that should keep their prices from going very high, Mrs. Clyatt said.

"From an economy standpoint, now is a good time to turn to frozen turkey--buy the whole bird or parts."

There is more beef at meat counters with relatively low prices and more of the "leaner beef"

In the line, John Dewitty and Mike Address are due to start at ends with Travis Vaughn and Gregg Nickerson at tackles, James Anderson and Mark Urcuiga at guards and Andy Roden or Scott McCallum at center.

The Rangers have been plagued with turnover problems lately, losing last week to Blinn JC by a score of 20-0. They lost seven fumbles in the game and had one pass intercepted for eight turnovers. The Rangers lost seven fumbles in their game the previous week.

Coach Carlos Mainord reported that his Rangers were in good condition and were looking forward to a good game.
