As the Wednesday deadline approaches for filing for the Eastland Independent School Board, four have filed as candidates.

Filing Friday for Place 2 was Richard Rossander, 31, Eastland insurance executive. He filed for the place now held by board president Bob Perkins. Rossander is married to the former Carol Sue Joplin of Roby. The couple has two children.

Filing Thursday was Mrs. James M. Smith, 45, who filed for Place 1, the position now held by the incumbent Mrs. Jack Germany. Mrs. Germany has been filling the unexpired term of Don Barron who resigned in 1973.

Mrs. Smith is a native of DeLeon.

Pageant Rehearsals Are Underway

The Life of Christ will be presented April 14, at 3:30 a.m. in the Kendrick Amphitheater between Eastland and Cisco on U.S. Hwy. 80.

Members of the cast are progressing nicely in rehearsal for the 10th annual production which is expected to be the largest and best ever presented.

The 1973 production brought the second largest attendance in the history of the pageant with 26 different states represented.

Mail is being received daily from various points over the nation inquiring about the 1974 production. Churches of all denominations as well as Travel Bureau agencies are making reservations to bring groups by car and bus to the performance.

Each year many ask how they could become a member of the cast. If anyone would like to join the cast of near 100 members, contact any member of the Kendrick family. Church denominations do not matter, as anyone wishing to participate in the work of the Lord is welcomed in the cast because the pageant is non-denominational.

Public Invited School Week

Public School Week in Texas is March 4th through 8th.

If parents plan to eat with their children, it is necessary that they send their money with their child so that their names can be added to the lunchroom count for that day.

If too many parents show up without having put their name on the lunch list, then the last pupils to eat may not have anything to eat.

Please cooperate with us in this matter.

There will be an open house at Eastland Elementary School on Thursday night from 7 til 8:30 p.m.

All parents and other interested people are invited to attend.

Portrait Open March 14

ECT production of "Family Portrait" will open Thursday, March 14, at the ECT Theater.

The stage crew for this production is quite a talented group. Mrs. Jack Germany, Mrs. Don Pierson, and Mrs. Tom Wilson, as the costume committee, have the difficult task of creating costumes which are not Biblical, not symbolic, and not representative of the present or any specific period. During the past week they have looked through the costume trunks at the theater and have begun planning how to adapt available costumes as well as how new costumes can be made. Mrs. Pierson also plays Reba, sister-in-law of Jesus.

Mrs. Virgil T. Seaberry, Jr. is properties manager and is borrowing, buying and supervising the building of properties. ECT is fortunate to own a variety of properties, but each production requires the addition of more and different props to the collection.

Mrs. Ralph Stevens is the right arm of the director in her duties as stage manager. She is responsible for, among other things, sound effects, cues, a constant eye on the script, walking through parts, and notifying actors of rehearsals times.

Dan Childress and Bill Dreinhofer are stage carpenters. These gentlemen build the sets and properties and make adjustments and repairs when necessary.

Reservations will not be taken until Sunday, March 10 after 2 p.m. More details about reservations soon.

OVER- THE- TOP AND OUT OF DEBT- - That's the status of Eastland Centennial Memorial Library as Thursday Afternoon Club President Mrs. Dan Childress, right, and Mrs. Inez Bourdeau, left, set the torch to the note, signifying the final payment of the club's $30,000 indebtedness to give Eastland a modern library. When the debt got down to $1800, the "180 club" was established in which it was hoped that 180 people would give $10 or more to clear the debt. Sure enough, as always the people of Eastland came through. It's now a debt-free, tax free public library. (Staff photo by Steve Haines.)

Dear Citizens of Eastland:

With humble hearts the ladies of the Thursday Afternoon Club thank YOU for helping us provide a new library for you. February 26, 1974, was a joyful day for us. WE WERE DEBT FREE.

Eastland has shown again nothing is impossible when the need is proven.

The heart warming donations, small and large, from Eastland people and people interested in Eastland, has shown the desire for a beautiful and useful library, which a city many times our size would well be proud.

In November, 1972, with only courage and a lot of faith, we assumed a debt of $30,000 for this project. With your help, this day, we are paid in full.

May the use of it bring each of you as much joy and pride as it has the Thursday Afternoon Club in giving to you a tax- free, debt- free library. Your continued generosity in the form of memorials will help our club keep it a first class Centennial Memorial Library.

May God bless each of you

TIDBITS

By HVO

PEOPLE CARE in Eastland! As evidenced by many things, not the least of which is the fact that good people offer their services when there are public offices to be filled. And that's good for a town. The pay is zero- minus, headaches are many, but it's jobs that have to be done. Rewards are great though in seeing our town continue to grow and remain a good place to live.

ONE OF everybody's favorite people, Mrs. Ima Ruth Taylor, certainly deserves our thanks. She's doing a wonderful job and we want her to know we appreciate her.

COUNT 'EM: 32 Eastland folks attended the Ranger Chamber of Commerce Banquet at Lone Cedar Thursday evening. That's good neighboring. They were Emory Walton, L.W. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. H.T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H.V. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. James Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Pipkin, Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Connel, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Bray, Judge and Mrs. Earl Conner Jr. Joy Whisenraft, Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Simmel, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Senkel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Staggs.

From Kokomo were Mr. and Mrs. Oran Webb and from Carbon, Jimmy Hughes.

Peopel who are old, blind, or totally disabled and live on a fixed income each month may be eligible for more money through a program called Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

Project Supplemental Security Income- Alert is a nationwide effort to inform the elderly, blind, or disabled that they may be eligible for additional monthly income.

The Taylor County Chapter of Red Cross has been asked by the Governor's Council on Aging to lead this project and assist the District Social Security office by locating those needing supplementary help. We need the help of volunteers in each of our fifteen counties: Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Comanche, Eastland, Fisher, Jones, Haskell, Kent, Mills, Nolan, Shackelford, Stephens, Stonewall, and Taylor.

SSI assistance will be available to eligible persons who live alone and make less than $160.00 a month; a couple making less than $230.00 a month may be eligible.

"You are probably eligible if your income is less than this, and you own very little property or have few other resources", said Miss Olsen in giving further explanation.

Spring is near, and this week's weather has been beautiful. For spring and summer, fashion forecasters are predicting a big accent on accessories. Since rules for dress are passe, accessories define personality and life style. In this era of shortages, fashion-conscious consumers want what's real and basic. This appreciation of reality swings from real goal and silver jewelry to recycled denim.

With necklines important, look for new ways to accent them. Necklaces are gaining the most attention.

Graduated glass beads and irregular wooden beads combine delicacy and texture. Multi-colored, large marble necklaces repeat versatility. - paired with many different-colored garments.

Perennial best sellers, gold and silver chains, provide the tailored look.

Scarves lend soft accent to necklines on dresses and suits. Simple cotton bandana prints and paisleys reflect a conservatism that has hit the scarf market.

One fashion look twists together two scarves of harmonizing colors and drapes them around the neckline. Let two scarf ends show, and hide the others within the folds.

Belts also change garment appearance. The newest fashion look features narrow, braided leather belts.

Profits made by the Adult Leaders' Association from the concession stand is used to sponsor County 4-H activities and trips to County 4-Hers to statewide events. Without this money, our County 4-H program could not operate.

Your support and help in making the Livestock Show Concessions successful will be greatly appreciated.

Eastland County 4-H members are selling WORLD'S FINEST CHOCOLATE March 1-16 to raise money to help build a State 4-H center at Lake Brownwood.

Leadership for the projected 4-H center is being provided by the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation, but members need the help of all area citizens. "Put it all together with a 4-H Center" is the campaign theme.

The educational facility will be constructed on a 78 acre site at Lake Brownwood. It will offer many new opportunities and dimensions for programs and activities.

Project workshops, county and district activities, leadership labs, 4-H leader workshops, clinics and camps, ecology projects, citizenship and international activities will be among activities to be staged at the center.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A tramp was asked, "When you wake up in the morning, how do you shape your course?" "I always turn my back to the wind," he replied. Where he went made no difference. He refused to buck the wind. He always took the path of the least resistance.

He was not like the courageous man of God who prayed in Psalm 119:33 and 35, "Teach me, O Lord, the way. Make me to go in the path of Thy commandments; for therein do I delight."

Some people are destroyed because of ignorance. They do not know the right way, and going is dependent on knowing. There is a right way and a wrong way of salvation, a right way and a wrong way of service. All along the way we need to pray, "Teach me the way."

Other people are despoiled because of inactivity. To Mr. Heinz of "57 Varieties" a minister said, "You're a Christian, but with all of your energy why aren't you up and at it?" He knew what to do, and he determined to do something about it. In a little while he won several hundred men of different varieties to the Lord.

To know and go in God's way - nothing more, nothing less, nothing else.

Drivers Ed To Be Offered Carbon Students

Driver Education for Carbon High School students is again being offered this year. O.C. (Stubby) Warden Supervisor for the Eastland County Schools is instructor for the course.

Class instruction sessions begin January 2 and will end Friday March 1 with actual driving scheduled to begin Monday March 4.

The course was open to students currently in grades 9-12 who were at least 15 years of age on or before January 2.

The classroom portion of the course is 32 clock hours of instruction. Each student then is required to do six hours of actual driving and six hours of in-car observation.

Warden stated that the course is being conducted in accordance with standards for an approved course in driver education for Texas Public Schools. The in-car phase is conducted outside the school grounds and in direct view of the public. It is one of the few phases of public education which is constantly supervised by the taxpayer.

From The Living Bible

And since you don't know when it will happen, stay alert. Be on the watch (for my return). "My coming can be compared with that of a man who went on a trip to another country. He laid out his employees' work for them to do while he was gone, and told the gatekeeper to watch for his return. "Keep a sharp lookout! For you do not know when I will come, at evening, at midnight, early dawn or late daybreak. Don't let me find you sleeping. Watch for my return! This is my message to you and to everyone else."

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

Ever wonder what happens when you call the Attorney General's office with a complaint about what you consider an unfair business practice?

The Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division staff has worked out as system that has allowed us to receive and process more than 4,932 consumer complaints since I took office in January, 1973.

We have recovered more than $232,000 for defrauded consumers in that time. And, in many more cases, complaints were settled before a consumer actually lost money.

Our office in Austin alone averages 225 telephone calls about consumer problems every week, and about 85 written complaint forms come in during the same time span. The Attorney General's regional offices in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Lubbock, and El Paso also receive many calls and letters each week.

Legal work on such a scale requires that our system be efficient, or else complaints might go unanswered or be delayed for weeks or months.

Here is how we go about handling the calls and letters we get regarding consumer problems:

When a complaint is received by letter or telephone, a standard complaint form is sent for the consumer to complete. It gives us the basic facts about the business transaction and provides space for the consumer to describe what he feels happened.

Copies of contracts, sales receipts, advertisements, or other pertinent documents relating to the matter should be enclosed with the complaint form. If it is difficult for a person to get copies, we ask them to send us the originals, which we duplicate for our use, and return to them.

If the returned form indicates that there may have been a deceptive business practice, misrepresentation of a guarantee or warranty, or false or misleading advertising, the case is assigned to one of our Consumer Protection Division staff members, a file is opened, and preliminary analysis is begun.

We realize that for someone with a problem, even a few days seems like a long time to wait, so the same day we receive the complaint form, we send a postcard acknowledgment. This lets the consumer know we have begun to work on his problem.

If examination of a complaint shows that another agency is the one to assist the consumer, or that the Attorney General simply does not have jurisdiction in the matter, we supply the name and address of the appropriate agency to contact. Often we suggest that a private attorney could be of help with legal advice, which by law we cannot give to private individuals.

A complaint received from an area of the state covered by one of our regional offices is referred to that office for handling.

After analyzing the consumer's complaint, the lawyer assigned to the case notifies the company or individual of the complaint that has been lodged and sends a copy of the complaint form so the nature of the problem is fully understood.

We ask that they get in touch with the consumer, and try to work the problem out within two weeks. In many cases, the difficulty will be resolved to the mutual satisfaction of both parties. Often, we consider our complaint process successful when we can serve as a go-between to get the consumer and businessman to solve their problem through mutual cooperation.

If a matter cannot be settled, my staff investigates further, listens to both sides of the story, and tries to solve the difficulty through informal negotiations. Once again, our role ideally is to get the two parties talking.

But if no mutually satisfactory solution is reached, assistant attorneys general confer with the head of the Consumer Protection Division and with me personally to decide if it is necessary to go to court.

Most complaints we receive however, are settled without the need for litigation.

Most complaints My staff members follow up every complaint we receive until some type of settlement is reached, at which time our file is closed.

If you have any further questions about how the Attorney General's office handles consumer problems, consult staff members of my Consumer Protection Division in our main office in Austin, or in a regional office near you.

MISS YOUNG KINDERGARTEN

In kindergarten this week we practiced making our C's and D's. We have painted our letters, made them in clay and traced them. Aslo we used paint in a different way. Miss Young put several drops on our paper and we blew through a straw to create a tree. After they dried we pasted tissue paper blossoms on them. We have been learning about the wind and all the good and bad things it does. We are looking forward to a new month and a lot of sunshine.

MRS. COOPER FIRST GRADE

We finally have everybody back this week after a week of illness. We have been talking about Texas and we are making a little Texas booklet about our state flag and bird. Good manner awards for lunchroom behavior have been given to Brenda Shortnacy, Jerry Don Reeves and Melony Starr.

MISS SIMMS FIRST GRADE

Since Texas Independence Day is Saturday, we learned about our state symbols like the flag, the mockingbird, the bluebonnets and the pecan tree. In reading this week we learned about syllables, and how to sound out words with more than one syllable.

Friday we started a unit about animals that live in the zoo. We also saw a film about these animals. Next week we will study more about these animals.

Our Good Citizens for this week were Ronald Smith and Loretta Nelson. Everyone hopes that Kristi May will get well soon and be in school next week.

MRS. DALLAS SECOND GRADE

We started our cursive writing this week. We have done letters e, i, u, w, j, m, n, x, v. We are studying the four food groups. We have made a book telling about the food groups. We are looking forward to Public School Week. We have been making things for the room. We made string paintings and pictures from seeds and kites.

MRS. COATS SECOND GRADE

Hi! Want to here what we did this week? Well we whached a film and listened to our new book that Mr. and Mrs. Reid gave to us. Jack Lowrance got new glasses. And Jay Thomas had his tonsils out. We made a seed collection and we are getting reddy for public school week.

Kathy Watson

MRS. ALLMAND SECOND GRADE

Monday the class made kites out of grocery sacks and we made pictures out of baking cups. We traced our hand and wrote good things we should do. We have a new boy named Danny Gwinn. The teacher made a little school house of construction paper. and put our pictures in it. We made butterfly and put glider on it. We planted seeds in milk boxes. Mrs. Guttman gave us some books to read. She gave us 18 books to read. We wrote our spelling words in cursive. Reporters Shawn Alsop Craig Potter

MRS. YOUNG THIRD GRADE

Patri Spurlen has been sick. Mrs. Young has been leaving and we have been having a new teacher. For Valentine I made a sack with strawberries on it. Brenda Hull brought some glass with sand on it. When we had snow I was sick and came home. Thursday we did art for your room. And from then on we have been doing homework and work in the room. And our room is pretty. And Joyce Dumas has been sick too. Yours truly Mary Diane McCoy

MRS. TURNER THIRD GRADE

We enjoyed the Valentine party. We are having a Reading Achievement Test this week. Soon we will be getting a new reader. We are getting ready for open house. We fixed the display cabinet this week. We are studying poetry and are writing poems.

Several people were sick the first of the week, but everybody is here today. Bonnie Williamson

MRS. ADAIR FOURTH GRADE

The Lunchroom Awards went to Lesa Poe and Kendall Amburn.

We are getting ready for open house which will be Thursday 7:00 to 8:30.

We wrote stories and illustrated them. We used the title "If birds were People - Watchers, What Would They Name Me?"

Darla Phelps

MRS. GREEN FOURTH GRADE

We have been making finger paint pictures. Almost all of us want to make the underwater scene. In math we are studying how to times for fractions. It is very simple. In adding you add the numerator, and the denominator stays the same. Everybody is back in school. That's good. Melinda Walton

FIFTH GRADE

This week we have been working on our Ecology booklets and posters. We have a lot of nice booklets and posters. Everyone got different titles for their posters.

We got our group pictures last Wednesday. They were

MISS HEARN FIFTH GRADE

Miss Hearn's 5th grade is getting ready for public school week in the subject of Ecology. They are also reading about Civil Right and the Civil War a in Geography and started a math chapter on Number Theory

Vance O'Brien

SIXTH GRADE

This has been another busy week for the sixth graders. Monday we got our "tin can characters" ready for open house next week. We each made a tin can look like a character in our favorite book. Tuesday we had a test on chapters 7, 8, 9 in Science and hope for good results. We checked our Science books in, and got our Health books. Wednesday we started on our first chapter in Health. The band students are getting ready for a concert. Public is invited. And this has been the first week that anybody in our class has been absent. Your friend Norma Rodriguez

We took a spelling test. Then we took a math test and a Science test. Then we took an English test. At the first of the week we had a lot of people absent. At the end of the week almost everyone was at school. Wednesday our English class observed Speech Therapy. We thank Mrs. Guttman for letting us observe her work. We had a vote who got along best with other classmates. Dawn Underhill got first place and Terry McCormack was second. Mark Evatt

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

MARCH 4-8, 1974

THE 120th YEAR OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN TEXAS

Letters to the Editor

Editor:
It was wrong for Congress to provide millions in tax money to finance the sale of over a billion bushels of wheat to our enemy. It is wrong for Congress to set up and support a bicentennial commission in Washington, D.C. which recognizes Karl Marx, Joe Stalin and Angela Davis as having made valid contributions to our way of life. Congress adds insult to injury renders mute the sacrifice of the boys whose light went out in the middle of the morning. It is wrong for us to turn against the man in the star-studded jacket, the striped pants, the square toed boots

1974 TEXAS PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK, EDITORIAL

In Texas, we will be facing many hard choices in the next few years regarding the methods by which we finance our public schools. Will there have to be major tax reforms? Will the state have to provide a larger cost of public education? Yes, Public school financing is in a severe financial bind and major reforms may have to be instigated in order to resolve this problem.

Just how much do you know about your local school district? During Texas Public Schools Week, March 4-8, you are invited to visit the public schools in your area or neighborhood. You are invited to evaluate your local schools. Visit and observe - is there enough funding being provided to assure your child of quality education? Are your teachers experienced? Are your schools being adequately maintained? These are some of the questions you can find answers to during Texas Public Schools Week, March 4-8.

Whether a parent or not, your visit and comments will be most welcome. Show your interest and your concern during Texas Public Schools Week, March 4-8.

The Light Touch

By Clint Bray

Bachelor: a man who, when he accomplishes something, gets all the credit himself.

Worry is like a rocking chair. It'll give you something to do, but it won't get you anywhere.

Feeling young gets to be such a habit that it's hard to part with.

This is the time of year we start to yearn for something green to come up - like money.

Driving instructor to student at end of lesson: "We still have a few minutes left. Shall I show you how to fill out accident forms?"

It's no accident that folks prefer the great new styles at BRAY'S in Eastland and Ranger.

Kindergarten Is Busy Place

The Green Tot Kindergarten, 903 W. Plummer, has been a busy place, making clocks, snowmen, airplanes, apples and valentines.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Walton entertained the children and teachers with a beautiful Valentine party. Valentine cupcakes made by Mrs. Fred Brown were lovely. They used Valentine plates and napkins and served the punch in Valentine cups. The favors were small dishes of hearts and each child was presented with Hallmark eye glasses. They were all thrilled with their bright and happy Valentine party given them by Karen Sue Walton's parents. Their Valentine post office box proved to be very exciting to each tot and they were thrilled when Mr. Lloyd Armstrong delivered their colored picture the morning of the party.

We made shadow pictures of Lincoln, of Washington and of log cabins and hatchets.

We sent Supt. Siebert who has been ill in Abilene Hospital, handmade valentines from each child.

We made Texas maps and pictures of Eastland Co. Courthouse.

The children made puppets and put on puppet shows. Each child took a part in the puppet shows.

This is the last month of Kindergarten so March will be exciting and busy.
