'Portrait' Received NYC Rave

DON'T FORGET this is Public School Week and we're all invited to an Open House at Eastland Elementary Thursday from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Many were visiting this week and having lunch with their youngsters. Wednesday noon when we were there visiting with Miss Opal Hearn's class, we couldn't help but notice how beautifully the building and facilities are being kept. This is true, you'll notice in the hallways, the cafeteria, the kitchen area and all over. The administration, faculty, staff and certainly the youngsters are to be complimented for keeping our new school just like "brand new."

NEARLY 100 years ago (1876) on this date, Alexander Graham Bell patented the telephone, and in that length of time, we've almost become "self-service". If you looked at the little Bell publication Telephone Talk that accompanies your statement this month, you'll find that vast space it devoted to Old Rip and Eastland. Wonder why? In checking we find that this edition goes to 5,671,000 customers in Texas.

They'll read: "Buried Alive for 31 years. In 1897 the small son of Mr. Ernest Wood placed a horned frog in the metal container being sealed in the cornerstone of the Eastland County Courthouse.

"Thirty one years later the cornerstone was opened and the partially dehydrated frog was removed. In a few minutes he swelled up and began to move about. He became famous and even made a visit to President Coolidge at the White House. Eleven months later Old Rip died, some say of pneumonia, and today the remains of the frog who slept longer than Rip Van Winkle repose in a plush lined casket in a special place in the Eastland County Courthouse." Another squib in the little phone paper credits the story as follows:

OLD RIP
In his book, History of Eastland County, Edwin C. Cox rates Old Rip as a major event in the county's past. Cox reports that the cornerstone was removed because the old courthouse was being replaced by a new building. On the appointed day, Cox and other townspeople watched as a group of men pried off the lid of the metal container. "I then saw one of the party reach down and bring to sight a horned frog," Cox writes, "which... was dormant at first but after a few moments showed signs of life." Cox's feelings were expressed by a man in front of him who stood up, brushed his pants and muttered, "Well I'll be... if I had not seen it I would not believe it!"

SCOUTS REPORT that Tater Webb, since he started to Kindergarten, is no longer called that, and prefers to be known as Garrett Webb. That's what schooling does for you.

"Family Portrait" received rave notices following its opening at the Morosco Theatre, New York City.

1. "Lenore Coffee and William Joyce Cowen have written a deeply poignant play... It asks a simplicity of acceptance to equal the simplicity and reverence of its writing". - New York Sun.

2. "A play which in scholarly and reverent fashion stimulates people to make up their own minds as to what Jesus and His family were like is a boon to Christianity". - Elinore M. McKee, St. George's Church, New York.

3. "The reviewer has never been so profoundly moved by any play before! The depth of feeling is simply tremendous. Do not miss it." - Walter M. Howlett, Greater New York Federation of Churches.

4. "The grasp of the heart of Jesus' teaching is most satisfying and the delicate reproduction of the principal characters is beyond any words of mine to praise. While it is artistically beautiful, it is intrinsically wonderful." - Finis S. Idleman, Central Church of Disciples of Christ.

You will have your own impressions of "Family Portrait", so do not miss it. Opening night is Thursday, March 14. Information concerning ticket sales and reservations will appear in the Eastland Telegram Sunday, March 10.

Among The Members

ECT is fortunate to have Bernice Stephen among its members; this veteran of little theater work in Eastland is cast in "Family Portrait" in the role of Hepzibah, a neighbor of the family of Jesus.

Some years ago Mrs. Stephen starred in "Meet the Wife" with Loftin Wicker as director.

A few of her other credits are a production directed by E Eddie Freyschlag and "Night of January 16" given at the Connellee Theater directed by Virginia Weaver.

Bernice Stephen and Virginia Weaver Russell worked together again to present a bill of one-acts at the Eastland Elementary School cafeteria and again in "Junior Miss", the ECT production which initiated the present ECT theater located on the grounds of B Beall Hurst.

Mrs. Stephen, wife of Joe Stephen, is retired from teaching in Eastland Schools; in addition to her acting talents, she is an author and an avid bridge player.

Eastland and ECT are fortunate to have Bernice Stephen among their members.

Library Honors Public School Week

The Centennial Memorial Library proudly honors Public School Week with "a school of yesterday" display. You will see the one-room schoolhouse, the tin dipper, the slate, school bell, oil lamp, McGuffey's readers, the Blue Back Speller and other momentos of yesteryear displayed in our lovely modern Library.

Come visit our Library and see our other displays too; we still have the Alamo replicas, the M Mexican Presidents display and the Japanese in Texas exhibit. Besides many new books, we have added to our personnel. Jana Ragland, a sophomore at Eastland High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Ragland, 714 S. Ammerman, is helping us after school hours on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Lee Johnson, 8th grader, is helping temporarily as he works out his Community Service in obtaining his Merit Badge in Scouting. Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Johnson, 820 S. Ammerman. While you are visiting, look at our new books. Here are some of the latest:

- "April's Grave" - Howitch
- "Come Ninevah, Come Tyre" - Drury
- "So Far From Heaven" - Bradford
- "The Turquoise Mask" - Whitney
- "Burkburnett" - Logan
- "Crown of Aloes" po + Lofts
- "Theophilus North" - Wilder
- "Spring of Violence" - Shannon

Recent memorials: "Burr" - Vidal was given in memory of Jim Isbell by Mr. and Mrs. Mike Collins. "The Late John Marquand" - Birmingham, in memory of Jim Isbell was by Joyce Johnson and "Double Exposure" - Vanderbilt was given in memory of Sara W. Whittington by Mrs. James Horton.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Sessum Wednesday

Mrs. Geneva Sessum, 62, of Gorman, died at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday in Eastland Memorial Hospital. Services were at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Bakker Funeral Chapel.

The Rev. Delbert Smith of the Carbon Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. Joe O'Neil, retired Baptist minister, officiated. Burial was at 2:45 p.m. Thursday at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery in San Antonio.

She was born Nov. 5, 1911, in Cuero. She was preceded in death by her husband, Eulice, in September 1970.

Survivors are one son, Robert Ingram of Austin; one daughter, Mrs. R.E. Falzett of San Antonio; two brothers, Louis Fandergrift of Pasco, Wash., and Ernest Fandergrift of Pine Mountain, Ga.; two sisters, Mrs. G.E. Ostergren of East Hampton, Conn. and Mrs. Ralph Sloan of Sealy and five grandchildren.

The Director Speaks ...

When "Family Portrait" was produced on Broadway in 1939 with Judith Anderson, The New York Critics were moved to report: "a deeply poignant play". "Beautiful and dignified". "honest and straight forward simplicity". "A simple eloquent and reverent picture of the family of Jesus". "written with compassion, simplicity and earnestness." Ministers and churchmen of all denominations - Jewish and Christian - have risen to recommend this play wholeheartedly.

From my study I feel that the aim of the playwrights is deeply reverent, humanistic and sincere - without posturing - without preaching or propagandizing. This stand point is certainly the basis of our Production. As the Eastland Civic Theatre brings this play of twenty-nine characters in seven scenes to life on our stage - we are ambitious; but NOT, (we pray) as Caesar was ambitious. We aim simply and sincerely to present the story of what might have gone on in what might have been Nazareth, Capernaum, and Jerusalem during Jesus three years ministry. The final scene separated from the earlier ones by eight years is a marvelous and touching invention of the playwrights, Lenore Coffee and William Joyce Cowen. They took as their theme the timeless words of Jesus as reported in Mark 6:5 "A prophet is not without honor, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house!"

The spirit of "Family Portrait", being timeless and timeless, our production is set and costumed accordingly.

The manager asked that Eastland telephone users start dialing the local prefix, "629", on all local calls to insure that they continue to receive good service when the change is made.

"Equipment additions and rearrangements necessary to bring Eastland this improved type of long distance service makes this change necessary," Mrs. Gorr added.

"That isn't sauerkraut," pointed out the waiter. "That's noodles." "Oh," apologized the customer. "For noodles, it's plenty sour!"

A customer beckoned his waiter to complain, "This sauerkraut isn't sour enough to suit me."

"That isn't sauerkraut," pointed out the waiter. "That's noodles." "Oh," apologized the customer. "For noodles, it's plenty sour!"

Dial It All

It will be necessary for Eastland telephone users to dial all seven digits of the telephone number when making a local call beginning Monday morning, March 11, at 12:01 a.m.

In the past, it has been possible for local telephone users to dial only the last four digits of the telephone number when making a call in Eastland.

This change to seven-digit dialing is necessary because of preparations now being made to bring Eastland "O-Plus" long distance dialing, according to Southwestern Bell Manager Burnice Gorr.

"Equipment additions and rearrangements necessary to bring Eastland this improved type of long distance service makes this change necessary," Mrs. Gorr added.

The manager asked that Eastland telephone users start dialing the local prefix, "629", on all local calls to insure that they continue to receive good service when the change is made.

Schools Invite Public

Public School Week in Texas is March 4th through 8th. There will be an open house at Eastland Elementary School on Thursday night from 7 til 8:30 p.m.

All parents and other interested people are invited to attend.

Mrs. Day, of Eastland Junior High, issued a special invitation to the parents of the 7th and 8th grade students to visit English room any time Wednesday and Thursday to view projects made by the students.

A special invitation is extended to the public to visit Eastland High School during the week of March 4-8 in recognition of National Public School Week. You are extended a welcome to be served a noon lunch in the cafeteria. The price for a visiting adult is $1.00 and should you plan to eat in the school cafeteria, please call the principal so you may be included in the number to prepare for.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK
The first Texas Constitution, in 1845, authorized support for a system of free schools to provide an equal opportunity for all. This provision has always been a part of the great American dream. In Texas, we have provided vast sums of money to support this dream. The last session of the Texas Legislature took a long look at the Texas Public School system. They wanted to know if some schools were better than others. They wanted to know whether some schools were better financed than others. They wanted to know if some schools had better facilities, better and superior scholastic systems.

When was the last time you took a look at the schools your children attend? Texas Public Schools Week, March 4-8 will provide you with the opportunity to see your schools in operation. During that week, all classrooms - elementary through high school - will be open to the public for visitation. This is an excellent time for you to find out what kind of schools your children attend.

Texas Public Schools are your concern. Your tax dollar goes to support and maintain them. Your children's future rests on the kind of education they are receiving today.

Is your school system providing your child with the values and skills, the means for living productive lives

Pictured above is Eastland's newest member of the Chamber of Commerce, Billie Pettigrew. Billie is the owner and operator of Tony's Cafeteria located on East Main Street in Eastland. She purchased the cafeteria Nov. 12, 1973, from former owner George Webb. Tony's Cafeteria is open six days a week and features specials each night.

Jan Herring Workshop March 11

The Third Annual Jan Herring Workshop will begin March 11, at the Eastland National Bank Building.

The only two week workshop that Mrs. Herring holds in the United States will be the one in Eastland.

She has limited her appearances to one week workshops the rest of the year. Eastland is most fortunate to have her return to the area. She has been so favorably impressed with the hospitality of the people that she is looking forward to being here again.

Her paintings will be on exhibit in the Eastland National Bank March 11-22. Persons interested in attending lectures and classes can get additional information by calling 625-1598.

Born in Montana, Jan Herring now lives in a one-hundred-year old house in Clint, Texas. In private life she is Mrs. Henry Herring, married to a dairy farmer and the mother of three children. Her time is divided between these responsibilities, painting and teaching.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. - Many delegates to the Constitutional Convention think it is now virtually impossible to wind up their revision job by April 7.

President Price Daniel Jr.'s 90-day timetable for the historic task went out the window when debate on the education article dragged over 11 half-day sessions.

Even Daniel conceded as the education article debate droned toward a close that the convention is off schedule. He said he still feels, however, that there is a chance to make up for lost time by speedy action on relatively non-controversial (if any) sections.

More pessimistic delegates are stating now that the whole convention assignment is in jeopardy due to strong feeling on many issues.

At root of the problem, many now acknowledge, is the basic difficulty of getting elected officials to agree on monumental decisions during an election year.

Pressure is mounting for recess until after the May and June primary elections.

Daniel hopes to keep the delegates plugging away at decision making until early April. If it is then obvious that the job is a long way from complete, he probably will go along with motions to take off until after the elections, although he isn't ready to commit himself to that.

Some delegates would like to move up the recess date to March - and head for home as soon as all convention committees have handed in their reports.

NIXON POLL NOTED - An informal poll on the question of impeachment of President Richard Nixon at the January Texas Press Association convention drew the attention of the White House.

According to Margaret Mayer, Dallas Times Herald Washington correspondent: "A call from the White House communications office recently directed the attention of the Times Herald Washington Bureau to a story that, in the opinion of the White House, merited more attention than it had received."

"Publishers of Texas daily and weekly newspapers attending a January meeting of TPA in Austin were asked how they would vote on impeachment of President Nixon if they were members of the House," Mayer added.

"Eighty-nine would have voted against impeachment; one, for," Mayer's story pointed out.

GASOLINE ALLOCATED - The Rio Grande Valley and the Midland-Odessa area, which reported severe gasoline shortages, have received additional supplies through the State Emergency Fuel Allocation Office.

SEFAC ordered 200,000 more gallons sent to the Valley and 869,000 gallons to Midland-Odessa.

The total emergency allocation routed to the Valley now comes to about 925,000 gallons.

Files of a licensing agency containing routine information concerning status of a licensee, including whether or not his license is current, are disclosable under the open records act.

COURTS SPEAK - A 1973 act permitting cities to issue revenue bonds to promote new industries has been, in effect, held unconstitutional by the Texas Supreme Court in a McAllen case.

High Court held Tyler's Peoples National Bank and its officers not at fault in jailing of a man who guarded his property from foreclosure sale with a shotgun.

Representation of a Dallas detective that a confession by a murder trial defendant might benefit the man on trial resulted in reversal by the Court of Criminal Appeals of a death penalty.

A Jefferson County boy with low intelligence won a new trial on robbery charges after appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

APPOINTMENTS - Ken Clapp, formerly of Killeen and Uvalde, resigned his job as special assistant to the governor to serve as Governor Dolph Briscoe's campaign manager.

Mike Willatt of Houston will head Attorney General Hill's environmental protection division, succeeding Robert Davis.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White will serve as chairman of the Democratic party's Affirmative Action Committee to stimulate voter participation.

George Baker of Fort Stockton is acting director of Legislative Property Tax Committee.

William B. Blakemore of Midland is new chairman of the Texas Public Safety Commission and Capt. Bill Wilson of Austin will succeed Capt. Clint Peoples as senior captain of the Texas Rangers.

Dr. Nym L. Barker of Paris, Dr. Robert D. Moreton of Houston and Royce E. Wisebaker of Tyler were reappointed to the State Board of Health.

Thursday Club Through The Years

Library Didn't 'Just' Happen

BY DONNA HOBBS

Today's Eastland Centennial Memorial Library was a long-time 'borning.

The Eastland Public Library originated in the home of a member of the Thursday Afternoon Club, in the year 1916, and since that date has been owned, maintained and expanded by the club.

The first twenty-five years the library was located in a small room toward the back of the Woman's Club building. The Library had accumulated approximately 9,000 books, mostly modern fiction, and children's books.

Later, around 1950, the library did a spring cleaning. They put in custom-made shelving, rearranged desks, added two reading tables, and better lighting.

From 1950 until 1972 not many changes were made. About the only changes were the addition of new books and donation of some old ones. They were still in the small over-crowded Library and glad to receive books, but the shelves started becoming crowded, and there was no room to build any more.

In 1972, the women of the Thursday Afternoon Club decided something had to be done. So they went into action to get a new building.

They purchased the Sledge building in the latter part of Nov. 1972 and repairs started. By Oct., 1973, the remodeling was finished.

In Oct. of 1973, the women of the Thursday Afternoon Club were proud to announce the grand opening of the Eastland Centennial Memorial Library.

The women had a large expense bill ahead of them, but with work and the donations of many citizens, the debt is paid.

At last, after many long years, the citizens of Eastland have a nice, adequate Library. Since its opening at 210 S. Lamar, readership has mushroomed and activities including exhibits, reviews, and social functions are held regularly.

The women have proved that Eastland needed, wanted and would use a modern Library. Visitors are welcome.

Hours are from 2 to 5 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Cushman is librarian assisted by Jana Ragland.

Among Eastlanders attending the supper at Kokomo last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Poe, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Smith, Mrs. Wayne Calton, Mrs. Ima Jordan and Mrs. Ellen Justice.

Jack Black of Brady visited his mother Mrs. Mary Black Sunday.

Eastland 4-H World Famous Chocolate Candy Sale Leaders: Mrs. Arlene Atkins, Ass't. County Extension Agent; Mrs. Everett Plowman, Eastland leader; Mr. Frank Pierce, World's Finest Chocolate; Mrs. Otis Coleman, Eastland leader. Money is to be used for a new 4-H center at Brownwood.

4-H Center To Be Lake Brownwood

"A good leader does not develop in isolation. Now we will have a place to train 4-H adult leaders, thus the Texas 4-H Center is a dream that's coming true."

This was the opinion of Mrs. Floyd Terrell, 4-H leader from Hale County, who told what the 4-H Center will mean to leaders during the groundbreaking ceremony Feb. 22 at Brownwood.

Ronnie Blakely, Hidalgo County 4-H youth who is chairman of the Texas 4-H Council, said the 4-H Center is proof that "140,000 4-H members and 14,000 Texas 4-H leaders can work successfully together for a common goal."

Dr. John E. Hutchison, director, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, emphasized that "development of youth is our most important task. The 4-H Center will enhance our work in this respect. Building of the Center is the realization of a long-standing dream of many people."

In bringing greetings from Texas A&M University and its board of directors, Dr. H.O. Kunkel, dean of agriculture, said the university is a "spirit of learning, doing, and learning"

Mrs. Charles Edwards and Jeannie of Graham visited recently in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Purdom of Carbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tucker, Suzanne, and Melanie visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barron of Dallas.

David Rulo was a weekend visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Trail of Eastland.

Mrs. Gertrude Richardson and Mrs. Ima Jordan attended an Eastern Star School at Hamilton Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Smith visited Mr. and Mrs. F. Forrest Black of Hawley last week.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. L.F. Trout last weekend was Gene Trout of Fort Stockton, Earl Trout of Big Spring and Terry Trout of Irving.

to do. One of the vital things is that we get to work with young people such as you. We look forward to working with 4-H."

T. Louis Austin of Dallas, chairman of the Texas 4-H Foundation, chaired the program, and Lisa Swanson of Breckenridge, 4-H Council vice chairman, gave the invocation. Welcoming the approximately 300 people to Brownwood were Mayor W.T. Harlow and County Judge James Bunnell.

H.T. Davison, Extension 4-H and youth specialist and executive director for the Foundation, discussed 4-H Center plans.

Introductions included 4-H Foundation trustees and district delegations from throughout Texas, representatives of the Herman Bennett Co. of Brownwood, and Matthews, Cumpton and Associates, architects from Bryan.

Following the downtown program, groups traveled to Lake Brownwood for the actual groundbreaking, photographs and a catered lunch.

BAKKER Funeral Home

Dear friends,

There are so many negative influences on our children in the magazines, movies, TV, and music of this dollar-conscious era.

More than ever, we should honor and support our teachers, clergymen, scouting, 4-H leaders, and many others who work against heavy odds to teach and inspire our youth in creative living.

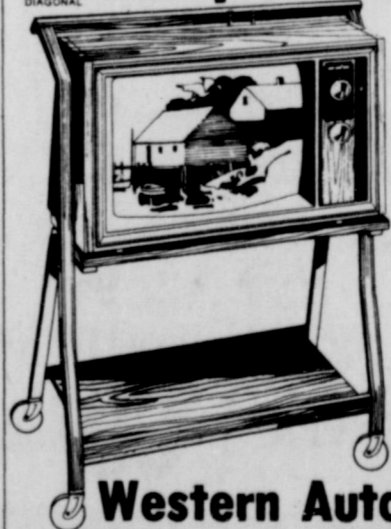

Sincerely,

Dale C. Bakker

Over 200 Guests Attend Crawford Anniversary

Over 200 guests joined in celebrating the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F.L. (Pat) Crawford Saturday afternoon at The Woman's Club.

Study Club Meets

The Thursday Afternoon Study Club met Thursday, Feb. 21, with 12 members present. The program on Nature and Ecology was presented by Mrs. James Horton. "How to Kill a Honey Creeper," her subject was on the Honey Creeper a native bird of the Hawaiian Islands. She told of the White man's coming and bringing the mosquito, its biting the birds causing them to have malaria and bird - pox, and how the Polynesian left the islands in their natural setting but the white man caused destruction. She told of how vacationers and their pollution are destroying our rivers. Also, how the over grazing of the west is making a desert condition.

Mrs. Dan Childress presided during the business session. Reports were heard from different committees. Delicious refreshments of spiced tea and cake squares were served by the hostesses Mrs. Roy Townsend and Mrs. Charles Terrell.

Other special music was by Mrs. Vivian Jones, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Flo Clark, sang two selections which were sung at the wedding. The songs were "O Promise Me" which she sang at the beginning of the reception, and "I Love You Truly" which she sang at the party's close.

EIGHTH GRADE: Bennie Woffard, Rocky Maynard, Sherry Wheat, Mike Simmel, John Hill.

Dick Spalding of Abilene, Dr. and Mrs. MA. Treadwell, Mr. and Mrs. Durel Reid, Mrs. Ima Ruth Taylor, Carl Garrett and Wylie Peebles.

The refreshment table was centered with a large arrangement of spring flowers in a gold and crystal epergne which also held tall yellow tapers. The table was laid with an ecru lace cloth over gold. Spring flowers also decorated the white three - tiered anniversary cake. It was served by Mrs. Ruby Hay of Wichita Falls, who was bridesmaid at the 1924 wedding.

Mrs. Gene Rhodes ladeled punch. Others in the houseparty were Mrs. H.O. Crawford of Huntsville, Mrs. Edith Townsend, and Mrs. Jack German.
