LOS ANGELES NOW HAS TOP TREE
 LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18. (U)—This city, which has a penchant for superlatives, now boasts it will have the largest Christmas tree ever cut in the U. S.

The Downtown Business Men's Assn. specified that the tree, to be erected in Pershing Square, tops the 80-footer erected in New York's Rockefeller Center in 1937.

The U. S. Forest Service found one yesterday in Angeles National Forest, 50 miles away. The tree, more than 80 feet high, was due here today for immediate trimming.

Texas Lawmakers Warns Of Russian Armed Strength
 PAADENA, Nov. 18. (U)—Russia has five times as many planes and armed men as the United States. Rep. Albert Thomas (D-Tex) told guests at barbecue in his honor last night.

Approximately 2,500 persons took part in the eighth annual Pasadena celebration in honor of the Eighth District congressman.

Reluctant "to be serious on such a joyous occasion," the congressman said nevertheless "I cannot miss the opportunity of reminding the people to remain ever vigilant."

"Our peace may be endangered at any moment by the least mistake on the part of the United States or Russia. The only way in which we can maintain peace is by a show of strength of arms. Money must be spent for mobilization to demonstrate that strength."

CAT ENJOYS ITS AIR TRIP
 LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18. (U)—Puss 'n Boots was a piker compared with Connie the Cat.

The feline stowaway was discovered at Municipal Airport when the purr of a TWA Constellation engine changed to a plaintive meow.

Mechanics pulled out the engine nacelle cover and out jumped Connie and her nine lives. She had ridden in the nacelle 1,800 miles from Chicago, often at an altitude of 18,500 feet, the airline said.

GODLESS HAVE NO PRINCIPLES
Pastor Declares Treaties With Communists Useless

Communism exists as a constant threat today and the issue is essentially omnipresent resistance and not necessarily a conjecture on a shooting war.

This was the view of the Rev. E. F. Deutsch, Bay City, who addressed the Lions club Wednesday. He is here this week in a revival meeting at the First Presbyterian church.

Somber warnings to be alert for inroads of communist and socialist patterns were sounded by the Rev. Deutsch. He said that many of the proposals advanced by communist philosophers a century ago had been incorporated into democratic governments and there alone existed the danger of "waking up some morning and finding out we have beat the communists to the job."

Communists, he said, seek to advance their doctrines with burning zeal and "now have more missionaries in every country in the world than the Christian church ever dreamed of having."

Treaties with communist states are worthless, he believed, "because no obligation is of value where the party to it does not believe in a divine God. Nothing is so sacred to them but that they will cast it aside if it gains the (communist) end." At the outset, he said, communists use such democratic terms as democracy, love, brotherhood, etc. to give "style to their garbage."

Tracking the history of communism and socialist philosophy, Rev. Deutsch said that the doctrines had root in materialistic views of a rather obscure biologist-philosopher, Haeckel, whose ideas found expansion through Nietzsche, who created the superman theory of the Nazis, and Karl Marx, who laid the foundation for communism.

The latter theory, he explained, was based upon supremacy of economic factors and thus embraced preeminence of the state as a necessity for complete control of economic factors of production, processing, distribution, etc. in consequence of its nature, he continued, it must grasp at complete control and the ultimate objective is therefore universal control. The fight against this militant philosophy, he asserted, must go on right at home as a matter of diligence to thwart subtle seizure of control.

The Rev. Neal Jones, song leader and youth director for the Presbyterian meeting, sang two songs, accompanied by Helen Duley. A committee composed of Avery Falmer, Bill French, Joe Blum, Fred Stitzel and Rob Satterwhite was named to prepare a Lions club float for the Dec. 3 Christmas parade.

Allied Youth Hold National Conference

"Allied Youth looks to the Future" is the theme of the Allied Youth National Planning Conference opening today at the Inn at Buck Hill Falls, Pennsylvania.

From high schools as far removed as Missouri, Florida, and New Hampshire, members and sponsors of Allied Youth Posts will spend three days, from November 18 to 20, in conference with prominent youth leaders. Purpose of the meeting is to plan for the expansion of Allied Youth's program in 1949.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling, founder and Trustee of Allied Youth and editor of Christian Herald, presents the keynote address at tonight's first general session.

"This conference will be the largest and most representative we have ever had," said Executive Secretary Roy Breg in announcing the meeting. "It is a fitting climax for a year that has seen the greatest advances Allied Youth has made in more than a decade working in the nation's high schools."

The addition of four new Regional Secretaries and a National Counselor to our staff, the rapid opening of new areas to Allied Youth's teen-age program of alcohol education, and the vast improvement of our publications program have highlighted the last 12 months. This conference will give us power to expand even more rapidly in the months to come."

Bolton Takes Over As A&M Head Today

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 18. (U)—Texas A&M College today inaugurates Dr. Frank C. Bolton, as its 15th president.

A familiar figure to three generations of Aggie students, Dr. Bolton came here nearly 40 years ago as a young professor. In 1937 he was named college dean and executive vice president.

Hundreds of his former students, as well as leading educators from several states, were expected here for the 2 o'clock ceremony in Kyle Field Stadium. Twenty-two presidents of colleges and universities were on the guest list.

Dr. Bolton was named last July 10 to succeed Gibb Gilchrist, now chancellor of the Texas A&M system. Gilchrist was to make the formal installation. Dr. Charles E. Friley, an A&M graduate who now is president of Iowa State College, was scheduled as speaker.

A leading electrical engineer, Dr. Bolton did graduate work at Cornell University, the University of Chicago and Ohio State University. Until he was named dean and executive vice president he was head of A&M's electric engineering department. In 1922 he was named dean of engineering.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

It's Your Fight, Toel

Bing Crowley was "boozing" the other day about all that Our Town's doing in the way of sending food and clothes to Europe. Bing felt that those struggling democracies should look after themselves.

But most agreed with Judge Cunningham who said: "So long as any family or individual in Europe is helping hold the line for freedom—against the forces of intolerance—it's common sense, and common decency, to help 'em."

Because that's everybody's fight: To see that individual freedom is preserved in every aspect, big or little—whether it's the right to vote, or the right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer or ale with friends.

And from where I sit, no liberty's too small to overlook. Because the minute one small freedom is threatened, all the others are in jeopardy—just as the minute one small country loses freedom, all its neighbors are in danger!

PARIS POLICE AT WORK — Gendarmes stop parade of war veterans in Paris as demonstrators try to converge on Ministry of Finance to protest increased cost of living.

Video Will Boost Education In U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Radio and television are about to give education a terrific shot in the arm. Educators say this shot will be given at the spot where it will do the most good—where it will help to teach the world's citizens how to get along with each other with less trouble. At the U. S. Office of Education here is the way educators are beginning to see the things to come:

1. Television will become the electronic blackboard of the future—even in the little red schoolhouse. The great events of the day will be brought to the classroom. A class of medical students may witness a delicate surgical operation performed miles away. A whole school may see the President address Congress.

2. There are great opportunities for presenting educational courses in the home. Such classes not only would supplement classroom work but would also offer classes in adult education and specialized courses for the person who has completed his schooling but wants to keep up with developments in his profession.

Educators emphasize the possibilities of smoothing human relationships, and relationships between nations, because programs may increase understanding. This is possible because they can reach many more people than classrooms can, and can reach them throughout their lives, keeping them abreast of events and issues.

There are two ways that radio and television may be popularized. One is for the commercial stations to present educational programs. The other is for schools and colleges to operate their own stations. Already dozens of programs suitable for classroom and home work are offered by commercial radio broadcasters. And hundreds of schools use these programs.

In addition the Federal Communications Commission has just relaxed its rules for the operation of FM radio stations by schools and colleges. Office of Education officials say the important fact about this relaxation of rules is that it means more schools can afford their own FM radio stations.

One official estimates it is possible for a school to obtain a sending station for as little as $2,500 for the transmitting equipment and $2,500 for a studio. Facsimile also is carried on the FM channel. Facsimile will reproduce charts, a page of reading material, maps, photographs, musical scores and many types of educational information in the home.

Convicted Jap Criminals May Seek Leniency

TOKYO, Nov. 18 (AP)—All of Japan's top 25 war criminals are expected tomorrow to ask Gen. Douglas MacArthur for some form of leniency.

American defense attorneys have indicated they will offer petitions in the cases of each, even though some have professed not to want clemency.

The 25 were convicted and sentenced last Friday. Tomorrow is the deadline set by MacArthur for petitions in their behalf. On Monday MacArthur has invited representatives of the 11 nations that made up the international war crimes tribunal to meet with him to consider the court's judgment.

Seven of the 25—including Hiroki Tojo, Pearl Harbor premier—were sentenced to the gallows. Sixteen others were sentenced to life imprisonment and two to shorter prison terms.

Tojo's plea will be based on his defense—that Japan fought a war of defense.

Survives Crash

MANILA, Nov. 18 (AP)—Staff Sgt. C. Shans of El Paso was one of 12 men who lived through the crash landing of a U. S. Flying Fortress Monday. The B-17 was forced down off Alibap Island, 150 miles southwest of Manila. The dozen survivors were flown to Clark Field yesterday for medical attention.

Body, Thought To Be Missing Nurse's, Found

OSSEPEE, N. H., Nov. 18 (AP)—The badly decomposed and apparently bled body of a young woman believed by police to be Ruth Eisenberg, missing Newark, N. J., nurse, was found last night in a shallow grave.

State police said clothing discovered near the body matched that worn by the attractive 22-year-old nurse when she left a Newtown, Conn., home July 20 for a five-day vacation in New Hampshire and Maine. She was employed at the Newtown home as a child nurse. Medical Referee Francis Dube reported a preliminary examination indicated she suffered a crushed skull. The official cause of death and other details were withheld, however, pending further examination.

Dr. Dube said the skull and upper portion of the body were found in the grave and the lower section nearby. Police theorized bones of the lower part of the body had been dragged from the grave by animals.

State Police Major Dwight Comstock asked the girl's uncle, Jerome Eisenberg, a Newark lawyer, to forward her dental chart for purposes of identification.

The lawyer and the girl's father, Ephriam Eisenberg, vice principal of the east side school annex in Newark, planned to come here today to assist authorities.

Pvt. Forte Is A Jan Hero

SENDAI, Japan, Nov. 18 (AP)—Pvt. Salvatore Forte of Hatboro, Pa., was almost as big a hero in Japan today as Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Pvt. Forte saved the lives of four Japanese miners buried in a cave-in for 12 days.

Their families and friends had given them up for dead. But not Pvt. Forte. He was once a miner, himself.

He kept digging doggedly. And he kept a crew of Japanese digging, down through a 100 foot high hill, to reach the imprisoned men.

They were dragged alive from their dank, dark prison today. All were exhausted and were rushed to an emergency hospital set up in a tent at the mine's mouth.

Doctors said they would live. The Japanese, who admire courage and know-how, bowed low today to Pvt. Forte.

Leon Brinkopf Now A Rebel

Leon Brinkopf, Odessa's star third sacker of the 1948 Longhorn baseball league season, has been drafted by Dallas of the Texas league and will report for spring training with the Rebels.

Brinkopf belonged to the Austin club of the Big State league, which had optioned him to Odessa last season.

The flashy infielder hit .338 for the Oilers and was named to the Longhorn league's West team for the all-star game.

Senate Probe Group Unanimously Backs Foot-Mouth Program

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 18 (AP)—A four-member Senate investigation team just back from Mexico plans a unanimous recommendation that the $1,500,000-per-month hoof-and-mouth disease program be continued.

Sen. Elmer Thomas (D-Okl.), spokesman for the Senate Appropriations Committee group which landed here in an Air Force plane, said the final cost will be close to $100 million.

Members of the subcommittee reported satisfactory progress is being made in the joint U. S.-Mexico program for control and elimination of the animal disease.

FEDERAL HEALTH INSURANCE PLAN WILL BE OFFERED NEXT CONGRESS

MIAMI Beach, Fla., Nov. 18. (AP)—A plan for government health insurance "for everybody" will be recommended to the next Congress, a high government official disclosed here.

Arthur J. Altmeyer of Washington, Social Security administrator, emphasized the program will call for health insurance and not "socialized medicine."

Altmeyer yesterday told 100 regional and national officials of the Social Security Administration that the proposal, which would be operated similar to the way workers and employers pay for social security, will be recommended.

He disagreed with the American Medical Assn. which has constantly opposed health insurance as "socialized medicine" and defined health insurance as "a system of spreading the cost of medical care."

"Health insurance won't do away with private hospitals, private doctors or private nurses," he declared.

'DUMB BLONDE' ACTS THAT WAY

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 18. (AP)—An item in the "Women Want Work" Column of a local newspaper said a "proverbial dumb blonde" was seeking a job as a stenographer.

For 24 hours the switchboard of a local hotel buzzes with calls.

"I wanna speak with the dumb blonde," the callers said. "But they weren't connected. The proverbial dumb blonde had forgotten to list her room number in the ad—and also to inform the hotel of her identity."

"Persons having the insurance will be able to pay hospital and medical bills, choosing his own hospital and doctor," he said. "Such insurance will protect people who are caught short of funds or who could not afford the medical care they need."

Construction Work Drops Off Sharply

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. (AP)—The number of new homes on which construction work started dropped sharply last month from the September total. But the 10-month total for 1948 still is well ahead of the same period a year ago.

The Labor Department today reported the October figure was only 72,000 compared with 80,000 in September 94,000 in October 1947. However 1947 saw an autumn building boom contrary to the usual seasonal decline.

Henry Ford Sees A Fourth Round Of Wage Hikes

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18. — Henry Ford II, president of the Ford Motor Co., said yesterday a fourth round of wage increases "is inevitable."

"Workers are going to get another pay boost," Ford told a news conference. "I don't think anything can prevent it."

Ford came here to inspect the Ford assembly plant at nearby Chester, Pa.

The 31-year-old executive, commenting on the probable wage increase, said flatly:

"Prices can't go anywhere but up. If wages go up and materials go up, prices too must go up. There is no place else for them to go."

Would price control help?

"No," Ford insisted. "Price control would wreck the nation—the auto industry included—and ruin the economy."

"It is ridiculous to think that any person sitting in Washington can tell a company now much to charge for its products."

Dulles Urges Unity Of Western Europe

PARIS, Nov. 18. (AP)—John Foster Dulles said today Americans want a strong and unified Western Europe capable of standing up for itself.

In a prepared speech to the American Club of Paris, Dulles denounced as "ignoble" any charge that the United States wants to use Europe merely as a base for achieving world mastery. He said it was absurd for some to claim that the United States wants to dump its surplus goods in Europe.

Dulles, an American delegate to the United Nations Assembly, warned that if western Europe chooses to remain feeble and disunited, its separate pieces may be drawn, one at a time, "into the orbit of the East."

New Greek Regime Takes Over Power

ATHENS, Nov. 18. (AP)—A new coalition government of Populists and Liberals was sworn in today to replace a similar cabinet combination which resigned six days ago under the fire of dissident liberals.

The cabinet again is headed by 88-year-old Premier Themistokles Sophoulis, leader of the liberals. Populist (Royalist) Leader Constantine Tsaldaris also retains the posts of deputy premier and foreign minister.

Americans will not tie their fate indefinitely to a Western Europe that insists on disunity, he said. He emphasized that his speech was not an expression of an official American position.

Dulles said this is a platform of American hopes for Europe: "We want Europe to have so much political strength that neither the United States nor any other power whatsoever will ever be able to use Europe for purposes alien to the free development of Europe itself."

Rayburn To Florida To Meet President

SHERMAN, Nov. 18. (AP)—Rep. Sam Rayburn was scheduled to fly to Key West, Fla., today to meet with President Truman.

Perrin Field said a B-17 was flown here from Washington to take the Texas congressman to the President.

"We want Europe to be sufficiently unified so that, practically, we can work with it."

"We want a Europe that has so much moral and intellectual dynamism that, in the tradition of the Magna Charta and the Declaration of the Rights of Man, it will continue to arouse men everywhere to strike off the shackles that retard their self-development."

"We want a Europe capable of inventing a new industrial revolution that will continue to multiply the productivity of human labor."

"We want a Europe which will again produce great literature, music and art, and such religious movements as have, in the past, inspired and enriched the world."

Texas Furnishes Largest FFA Group

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 18. (AP)—The biggest delegation to the Future Farmers of America convention here came from Texas.

There were at least 550 Texans. Four-hundred came on a special 14-car train.

U. S. Presidential Election Finale Is Long Way Off

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. (AP)—In case you thought the presidential election was over and done with on Nov. 2, you can look forward to the real one in less than a month.

Builders Re-Elect All Their Officers

GALVESTON, Nov. 18. (AP)—The Southern Building Congress re-elected all its officers yesterday but turned down proposed changes in small business building codes which advocates said would have reduced costs 20 per cent.

On Dec. 18, the 531 men (or women) you elected a couple weeks ago will meet in the various states to cast their ballots for the next President of the United States.

But even then the election won't be over until:

1. The governor of each state collects these ballots and forwards them to the secretary of state in Washington.
  2. The secretary of state bundles them off to Congress.
  3. On Jan. 6, the Senate and House meet in joint session.
  4. The presiding officer of the Senate opens the ballot box and starts counting.
- Only then will you learn—officially—that the majority of the electoral college—made up of the same number of people as there are senators and representatives—has voted for Harry S. Truman as the country's next President.

Intercity Truck Drivers Get Boost

DALLAS, Nov. 18. (AP)—Nine thousand intercity AFL truck drivers in Texas and three other states have won a new wage agreement calling for increases of 15 cents hourly and 1-4 cent per mile.

The settlement announced last night after all-day negotiation is subject to ratification by union members. The new rates raise mileage pay to 4 3/4 cents per mile for single axle trailers and 5 cents for tandem axle vehicles. The new hourly rate is $1.25. It is paid while trucks are stopped at loading and unloading docks.

More Than 1,000 Deer Bagged On First Day Of Texas Hunt

AUSTIN, Nov. 18. (AP)—The deer kill on the first day of the season was good despite warm weather, reports from points throughout the Hill Country of Central Texas indicated today.

Marble Falls, San Saba, Llano, Kerrville, Fredericksburg and Austin sources reported a total bag of more than 1,000 deer.

There were only scattered reports on the number of wild turkey bagged.

An estimated 75 to 100 thousand hunters are expected to go after the white tail.

Two ice storage vaults at Fredericksburg had 515 deer and "a goodly number of turkey gobblers" by 10 p.m. Tuesday night. The deer were reported in excellent shape and averaged eight points.

Llano was swamped with hunters seeking day leases after 303 bucks were placed on cold storage there the first day. The largest dressed at 127 pounds.

Llano County Agent C. V. Robinson said Monday night was clear and moonlight, resulting in extensive feeding by the deer. The animals bedded down during the daytime heat of Tuesday. The deer were reported in excellent shape and averaged eight points.

More than 100 deer were placed on cold storage at Marble Falls. Fifty-five deer and seven turkeys were brought into Kerrville, where hunting was said to be off to a slow start. Mrs. J. A. Motte of Orangegrove shot a 10-pointer, the largest number of points reported at Kerrville.

Mrs. Walter Lehrer, Llano ranchwoman, made the first kill reported at Llano. She bagged an eight-pointer shortly after sun-up on her ranch a few miles north of

Folsom Loses First Round Of Demo Fight

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 18. (AP)—Gov. James E. Folsom has lost the first round in his federal court suit to make Alabama's presidential electors vote for President Truman.

U. S. District Court Judge C. B. Kennamer yesterday denied his motion for a temporary restraining order to keep the electors from voting for anyone except Mr. Truman.

The judge did not rule on other portions of the suit. Instead, he set another hearing Nov. 30 to consider them. This will keep attorneys for either side from taking an appeal to a higher court until after that date.

Yet to be decided are the governor's petition for a permanent injunction, a writ of mandamus to make the electors vote for the President and a declaratory judgment defining the electors' duties.

In denying the temporary injunction, Judge Kennamer held that his court has no jurisdiction in the elector dispute. He said he could not find anything in Folsom's bill of complaint to show that the people were denied the right to vote for the President.

AND HE STILL WANTS HIS WATER

MINOT, N. D., Nov. 18. (AP)—George Adams, farmer near Lansford, dug a deep well for water but instead will cook, and heat and light his home with the natural gas he struck at 297 feet.

The driller, certain he had hit water at that depth, put down the casing.

"All of a sudden—whoosh—and the shaft let loose with the gas," explained Adams. He is optimistic about the supply because his well lies between two other natural gas producers that have been serving several farm homes for many years.

"Now all we gotta do is find water," he concluded.

TRAGEDY SCENE—Firemen (top) dig for the body of Francis O'Donnell, 10, as another fireman (foreground) administers to John Whalen, 12, on a stretcher. The two Washington, D. C., boys were buried alive when a tunnel they were digging at play collapsed. Vain efforts were made to revive both boys at the scene and at a hospital. (AP Wirephoto).

Smog Victims Get A Free Vacation

DONORA, Pa., Nov. 18. (AP)—Fifty persons who suffered from the recent smothering fog prepared today to wing their way to North Carolina for a weeks' free vacation.

The travelers, all cardiac and asthma sufferers, 31 to 71 years old, were chosen by Donora health officials. Twenty such sufferers died during four days of lethal fog.

Most of those selected for the trip were eager to go although a few refused because they were afraid to ride in airplanes.

Gifts of Jaycees. The trips are a gift of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at Wilmington and Wrightville Beach, N. C.

The Jaycees are paying $2,000 in airplane fares, in addition to all other expenses. They had been promised free transportation by airlines but the Civil Aeronautics Commission vetoed the plan. Only "emergency" flights can be made without payment the Cab ruled.

"It's mighty nice of the people in North Carolina to do this for us," declared Edward Zimmerman, 61-year-old retired steelworker. Donora townfolk generally joined in approval of the southern offer. "The people down there certainly deserve a lot of credit," declared Town Burgess August Chamber. "I don't know how we'll ever be able to thank them."

Strange Clues Left In Murder

CLEVELAND, Nov. 18. (AP)—Whoever murdered and sexually attacked Mrs. Helen Takacy, 62, he left police in suburban Shaker Heights today a strange pair of clues to ponder.

The evidence of murder and at least attempted rape, said Coroner S. R. Gerber, were unmistakable. Someone, he said, choked her with a necktie and assaulted her late Tuesday night in a dark field.

But what happened after that was not clear. Arthur Smullen, a janitor at Ludlow Grade School, said a tall, slender man approached him and said: "There must be something wrong over there." Then he pointed at the lawn where Mrs. Takacy's body was found.

On the other hand, Leo G. Gorman, a next-door neighbor, said a man of different description rang his doorbell and reported a woman's body was on that lawn. Without elaborating, Shaker Police Chief Bert Tilson said he had a "hunch" who the man is.

Reds Put New Pass System Into Effect

BERLIN, Nov. 18. (AP)—A new Russian system of uniform passes that may seal off Berlin's Soviet sector from the west takes effect today.

A Russian announcement, made last night over the radio and through the Soviet-licensed News Agency ADN, said the new system will apply to the entire Soviet occupation zone and the Russian-controlled area of Berlin.

The Russians said that starting today three kinds of identity cards will be in use: For Germans, for those without nationality and are "foreigners."

Col. Frank S. Howley, U. S. commandant in Berlin, said the Russians had not notified the other powers of the move. He said the action appeared to him to be "more hocus pocus," but added that, if enforced, it could block off the Russian sector.

One-Year Vets Can Now Apply For Commission

Qualified one-year veterans of World War II may now apply for commissions in a procedure termed by the Army as "perhaps the easiest method ever provided." Lt. Ralph Massey, commander of the local US Army recruiting office, said Wednesday.

The Army, which needs 23,000 second lieutenants to fulfill its mission under the current expansion program, is addressing its offer to men between the ages of 19 and 32 who have attended college for two or more years and who have completed at least one year's service in any of the Armed Forces between Dec. 7, 1941 and June 30, 1947.

The two year college requirement specifies that the applicant must have completed two years at a "nationally accredited" college or university.

Qualified civilians between 19 and 28 may still enlist in the Army in the grade of sergeant, specifically for the purpose of attending the Officer Candidate school.

Cane Syrup, Molasses And Sugar Have Become Indispensable Items

Memories of shortages we've had a-plenty during the last two World Wars, but probably the majority of people recall the "sugar shortage" most vividly. Cane syrup and molasses as well as sugar itself have become as indispensable to the American way as soap and water and the other comforts we now deem necessities.

With sugar pouring out of the Deep South at the rate of thousands of tons a year, it's hard to believe it took 70 years to discover a type of sugar cane that was suitable to our soil and climate. Sugar cane's first introduction to this country was in 1750 but not until 1820, when the "ribbon" or "purple" type was planted, was it grown extensively. Since then, new varieties of sugar cane have been introduced, until today the finest cane that can be grown is cultivated on the huge plantations along the Mississippi River and the bayous in Louisiana.

For those interested in how sugar grows, the fields look very much like corn fields with taller stalks. But closer inspection shows the joints of the stalks are closer together and, of course, each fibrous stalk is bursting with juicy sweetness. Fall is the busy planting season, when stalks are placed horizontally in rows 3 to 6 feet apart, where they lie until spring. New shoots sprouting from every joint grow all summer. Then in October when the cane begins to shed its leaves and the joints change to a reddish color, it is ready for cutting. The cutting is usually done by machine except in the small plantations where field men wield large knives called "machetes" strip off the leaves and cut down the cane stalks.

The farm operation is only the beginning of a big industry represented in the processing of sugar cane. Grinding, crushing to remove the juice, separating the cane juice, sugar and molasses all require large factories and both unskilled and high skilled labor, providing work and its resultant financial security for thousands of Southerners.

And the sugar cane syrup itself provides mighty good eating for millions of Americans the country over. Piping hot griddle cakes, French toast and tender waffles swing to the top of the breakfast hit parade when served with rich-flavored cane syrup. Sweet rolls, muffins, and coffee cakes sweetened with syrup are gobbled up almost as fast as they come from the oven. For glamour desserts—chiffon pies, mousses and the like—there's nothing like the delicate flavor of this syrup to give sweet succulence.

Roll up jellyroll fashion beginning at long end; cut in 1/2 inch slices. Place cut side up 1 inch apart on greased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven 400 F., 20-30 minutes, or until apples are tender. # Pilot Tells How It Feels To Fly A Modern Jet Plane

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 18 (AP)—How does it feel to fly a jet fighter plane over the tree tops at 650 miles an hour? "Like riding a magic carpet," says Lt. Col. William D. Haviland, commanding officer of the 159th fighter squadron and one of America's top-ranking jet pilots. You don't hear much noise—just the whoosh of the wind over the cockpit canopy. The din goes out the turbine exhaust behind. "It's exhilarating," Col. Haviland explains. "You're going so fast the landscape just unrolls beneath you. And you've got to think ahead—away ahead—or you're a dead pigeon. When an F-80-C (shooting star) jet screams over, low and wide open, the average onlooker finds it difficult to comprehend such speed. Like trying to describe a color never before beheld.

That explains why a recent show by Col. Haviland's 159th fighter squadron of the Florida air national guard caused the biggest traffic jam in Jacksonville's history.

Col. Haviland also leads the Florida's Rockets, a new acrobatic team of three shooting stars. At the most, several thousand spectators were expected for the display. But the citizenry had got an earlier glimpse of the jets going over on practice flights and then turned out—50,000 of them.

The 159th is one of several score national guard fighter squadrons based at strategic points in the United States. The exact number is a military secret, but officers divulge they could send up thousands of pursuit planes within 24 hours should an emergency rise. Most squadrons are flying F-51 Mustangs and F-47's now, but they are being supplied with jets as fast as they become available.

Col. Haviland, who had 60 combat missions in the European theater during the war, is the airman's idea of a crack fighter pilot. He is a big, smiling, Wisconsinite

Defiant Knutson Is Leaving Congress After 32 Years

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. (AP)—Defiant, defiant and dog tired, Rep. Harold Knutson is leaving Congress proud of a 1928 tree-planting bill—not the multi-billion dollar tax cut he engineered this year.

The 68-year-old Minnesota Republican, storm center of one of the hottest controversies of the 80th Congress, yields his seat in January to a Democrat. He has held it 32 years, longer than any other Republican still in Congress.

Knutson became chairman of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee when his party took control of Congress two years ago. He had been on the committee since 1932.

His bill to cut income taxes was the first one introduced in the new session in January, 1947. It was vetoed twice by President Truman last year.

But Knutson sent it around again in the second session, and Congress overrode a third White House turn-down to put the cut into law.

"That tax bill helped lick me," Knutson told a reporter today in an interview.

He lost to Fred Marshall, a Grove City, Minn., farmer.

"Any Republican would have lost that district this year," Knutson said, "but if I hadn't run for reelection the party would have said I ran out on them."

"The Democrats said my tax bill was a 50-50 bill—gave a horse to the rich man and a rabbit to the poor man. It helped lick me, all right. But it was the best tax reduction bill ever passed by a United States Congress."

Knutson first came to Washington in March, 1917. Congress convened April 2, and on April 6 Knutson cast his first vote—against declaring war on Germany.

He is the only survivor in Congress of the 50 House members and six senators who voted against entering World War I.

"If we had stayed out of that war," he says now, "the world situation would be entirely different. We wouldn't have had Hitler, Mussolini and Stalin."

Out of his whole congressional career, Knutson remembers with most pride a reforestation bill he sponsored in 1928 with Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich.). It provided for systematic tree-planting to restore areas that had been cut over and burned out.

"In the long run," he said, "that will confer greater benefits on the country than any other legislation I ever had anything to do with."

Knutson said the new Congress will have to increase taxes to meet what he predicted will be a $45 billion budget for the fiscal year beginning next July 1. The present budget is approximately $42 billion.

"TASTE GOOD"—Raymond Goff, 16, says the cooking of his 14-year-old bride, Norma, "taste good." They are shown in their one-room apartment in Louisville, Ky., following their marriage Nov. 13. She took sewing and cooking at junior high school, which they both quit two weeks ago, while in the eighth grade. Goff is a $46-a-week laborer in railroad shop now. (AP Wirephoto).

Patman Hits Price Policies

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. (AP)—Rep. Patman (D-Tex.) accused Senator Capehart (R-Ind.) Wednesday of being hypnotized by "selfish, greedy big interests" favoring a basing-point pricing system for industry.

The two have been engaged in a running word battle over national effects of a supreme court ruling banning use of the basing-point system of pricing by the cement industry.

Patman contends the ruling should stand "if you are for small business."

Businessmen, too, have appeared sharply divided on effects of the ruling which upheld a federal trade commission order. The issue seems headed for a sharp battle when Congress convenes next year.

Capehart's Senate Trade Policies committee currently is holding hearings on the pricing dispute. Patman is due to resume chairmanship next January of the House Small Business committee, which he helped set up in 1941.

Patman touched off his controversy with Capehart last month. He accused the Indianan of "putting out a lot of propaganda" in favor of a law to overturn the court decision.

Not so, said Capehart at his committee hearing Tuesday. He read Patman's remarks, then said there was no basis for them. He expressed the view that 16 years of the democratic "new deal" had resulted in "big business getting bigger and small business smaller."

Colder Weather Is Always A Good Time To Ring In More Menu Changes

From now until spring desserts take on a new meaning. Colder weather is always an appetite perk-upper and a good time to ring in more menu changes. Now is the time to look to your file for recipes for heartier desserts. Pies, steamed puddings and dumplings—their day is here.

Let's break down and revel in something sweet and rich. And what could be more toothsome than Apple Dumplings, spicy with cinnamon, bubbling with delicious cane syrup and butter? Or custardy pumpkin pie, each bite better than the last because of its perfect blending of spices and sweetening. Or pudding—fruit filled or bread—each hearty in itself with sugar cane syrup ensuring extra deliciousness.

APPLE DUMPLINGS
2 cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup milk
6 medium size apples, peeled
6 teaspoons sugar
3 teaspoons cinnamon

Sift together, baking powder and salt. Work in shortening with fingertips until consistency of coarse corn meal. Add milk to make soft dough. Place on floured board and knead lightly for a few seconds. Roll to thickness of about 1/4 inch and cut into 6-inch squares to cover the apples. Core apples and place one on each square. Fill each core cavity with 1 tablespoon sugar and 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon. Moisten edges of dough and fold up around apple so corners will meet on top. Press edges lightly together. Place in a baking dish with the following syrup:

3 cups water
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 cup syrup
1/2 cup butter.

Cook until sugar is dissolved. Bake dumplings in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) about 20 minutes. Then reduce temperature to slow 30 degrees F. and bake 30 minutes, or until apples are tender. Baste occasionally with the syrup. Serve warm with cream. Serves 6.

PUMPKIN PIE
3 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup syrup
1 1/2 cups strained cooked or canned pumpkin*
1 cup milk
2 eggs
1 egg yolk
1 egg white

*Mashed cooked Hubbard squash may be substituted for pumpkin. Mix sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger, and salt. Combine with cane syrup and pumpkin; add milk. Beat 2 eggs and 1 egg yolk; add. Beat 1 egg white stiff; fold in. Pour into pastry shell. Bake in hot oven 450 degrees F., 45 minutes, or until inserted knife comes out clean.

DEEP SOUTH BREAD PUDDING
10 slices bread, cubed
2 eggs
3 tablespoons syrup
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 cups milk, scalded
2 tablespoons butter, melted

Arrange bread cubes in a well-greased baking dish. Beat eggs, syrup, sugar and salt together. Add milk and butter. Pour over bread cubes. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven 350 degrees F. one hour or until firm. Top with whipped cream. Serves 6.

SHOVEL and HOE

A Garden Column by Virginia Scott. Presented by the Big Spring Garden Club.

By VIRGINIA SCOTT

Rosa Multiflora Japonica is a long name given to a big bush that bears lots of berries for as many birds as you have in your garden. This plant is primarily used as budding stock for roses, but is useful on large places as background material, especially when supported on a wire fence.

Another good berry-bearing shrub is Photinia villosa. This, also is very large. Viburnum Tomentosa bears berries in the summer; they do not remain long on plant. The foliage is beautiful in August. Large shrub with nice bloom.

THEY WANT TO KNOW
A reader from Georgia says they are not using the broad leaved evergreens that they should, and wants information regarding a north side foundation planting.

We believe that Japanese Holly is about the nicest plant for such a situation. It is hardy, can be sheared to any shape and will grow nicely in the shade. Mahonias will do the same. We have both of these plants on the north side of the house. They came through a very severe winter, last year, without shedding a leaf.

An Illinois gardener wants us to re-list the climbing roses that he recommended during the summer. She lost her note book. The prettiest thing we have seen in yellow is Gold Rush. It blooms in the new wood. Recently, we mentioned Thor the vigorous red rose. Climbing Tailisman is good, so are Dr. Noces and New Dawn.

ROSE PLANTING
There are several ways to grow roses. If you are successful, you do not have to try another way. If you are inexperienced, better read all about it. A good book on roses is helpful. Ask for bulletins from your State University.

If the ground is well prepared, and you have good strong plants, the going is easy. Rose bushes should have their tops cut back at least half way upon being planted. Clip roots off the ends about an inch so they can absorb moisture.

Prepare soil about eighteen inches deep for rose beds. Large holes should be dug for individual plants. Place top soil around the roots with any organic matter that is being used. Avoid fresh stable litter.

Sandy soil can be used by adding organic matter, such as leaf-mold. Red clay soil responds to the same treatment plus well rotted manure. And we do mean well rotted.

Use plenty of water around roots in planting, let soak in before filling holes to top. Keep the place, where under-stock is budded, about an inch below ground level. Two-year old No. 1 plants are the best buy.

PROTECTION
To protect newly planted roses, mound soil as high as possible around them. It is better to get this soil from some other place than to rake it up from the bed. This way, no roots will be exposed. Consult local growers as to when additional mulch should be applied in your section.

Sunday Breakfast Will Be Brighter With Hot Bread

Orange and Grapefruit Cup
Scrambled Eggs with Canadian Bacon
Golden Raisin Crumb Scones*

(Recipe for Starred Dish Follows)
Trouble with leftover bread in your family? You'll never waste it if you make it into crumbs. Dry it thoroughly in a slow oven and then let the youngsters put it through the food chopper (using the fine knife) and grind it into crumbs. Use the crumbs as a coating for fried dishes or put them into such a good tasting hot bread as the following:

Golden Raisin Crumb Scones
Ingredients: 1/2 cup light raisins, 1 cup sifted enriched all-purpose flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/4 cup shortening, 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1 egg, 1/2 cup milk, extra sugar for topping.

Method: Rinse raisins and drain. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, sugar. Cut in shortening with pastry blender, add crumbs and raisins and mix well. Beat egg until pale colored and thick, add milk and stir to combine. Add to dry ingredients and stir together with fork. Turn out one-third of dough at a time onto prepared pastry cloth and roll or pat into a circle (with floured hands or stockinet roller), about 4 inches in diameter. Cut in quarters. Sprinkle tops of wedges lightly with sugar and place on greased baking sheet. Bake in hot (450F.) oven about 12 to 15 minutes. Serve immediately. Makes 12 scones.

DUGONG DONE GONE

Scientist Jilted By Rare Mermaid

DAWWIN, Nov. 18 (AP)—Australian and American scientists are having many unhappy setbacks in their search for rare specimens of Australian native life in Arnhem Land, northern Australia. Here are some of the troubles:

Dr. David A. Johnson, associate curator of mammals at the U. S. National Museum, Washington, sighted a dugong. This is a rare species of marine mammal, the supposed original of the Mermaid.

The dugong was gambling around on a sand bar. Dr. Johnson paddled a canoe out to the bar. His arrival frightened the dugong away. He took a short walk. His canoe disappeared while he was gone. It was a long and lonely night with the dugong playing in the water just out of his reach. Next morning the canoe was returned by aboriginal women who had thought it was abandoned. The dugong was gone.

F. D. McCarthy, anthropologist at the Australian Museum at Sydney, found a rare and valuable fresh water tortoise. Aboriginal carriers guarded it carefully for fifteen miles. Then their appetites overcame their good intentions. They cooked and ate it.

Herbert H. Delgman, associate curator of birds at the U. S. National Museum, wanted a "Warbler." He trekked hundreds of miles carrying elaborate bird catching gear. Not one did he see on this trek. Back in Darwin one morning outside his Darwin quarters, he heard a beautiful warbling note. There, a few feet away, was coveted Warbler. His trapping gear was still further away. He missed the bird.

McCarthy was searching for a cave painting of a Malay prau on Groote Eylandt. Suddenly he saw a fine young rock wallaby. He rushed back towards the camp to tell Dr. Johnson, who wanted such a specimen. Stumbling over rocks he met Dr. Johnson hurrying to tell him he had just found a beautiful cave painting of a Malay prau. Neither found what he wanted.

Dr. Johnson, after many disappointments, caught a fine red kangaroo. He drove all the aborigines away in case they mistook it for food. Then he hung the kangaroo in a tent ready for skinning and went for his knife. When he returned the camp dogs, sitting happily outside the hut, were not hungry. But there was no red kangaroo.

White Horse Ranch Famous For Its Breed Of Albinos

NAPER, Neb., Nov. 18 (AP)—Have you run across any white black-birds lately?

Nebraska's unusual "Ranch in White" has a standing $100 offer to anyone who can add this particular albino to its famous collection of white animals and fowl.

Roaming the picturesque 3,000-acre ranch in north central Nebraska are white horses, white cattle, white dogs, white cats, white coyotes, white deer, white guineas. There are white peacocks, white ducks, white geese, white rabbits, and white canaries.

The buildings, naturally, are white. And if anyone can suggest another method of furthering the white motif, ranch operator Carl Thompson and his wife, Ruth, would be happy to adopt it.

The thing started with white horses—still the first love of the Thompsons. It was 1918 and things were tough in the cattle country. Mortgages hung over farms and ranches like so many dark clouds.

Carl and his brother, M. B. Thompson, found themselves caught in the whirlpool of skidding cattle prices. Foreclosures took away the cattle they were raising and also their land, once valued at $250,000.

About the only un-mortgaged property remaining was Old King and a few colored mares. Bankers considered horses poor security.

Old King was a fine specimen of a stallion. His coat was a beautiful milk white over a pink. Starting over at a new location, the Thompsons put Old King to work. They crossed him with colored mares. From the offspring they selected those colts with the characteristic white hair and pink skin. Eventually they had a breed of all-white stallions and all-white mares.

Unlike ordinary white horses which are born near-black or off-grey in color and become lighter grey as they grow older, Thompson's horses are snow white at birth.

Today the white horse ranch serves as headquarters for the American Albino Horse Club, Inc., members of which are owners and breeders of the so-called albino horse.

The club's national horse show and rodeo is held annually at the ranch. The show business started one summer when Thompson was asked to show a trained white stallion at a county fair. For want of other regalia, he dressed a few cowboys in baseball caps and sent them along with the act. The performance went over so well he soon was sending touring white horse shows on the road every year.

Besides training the horses, the ranch trains the trainers. Graduates are offered a chance to travel with the white horse troupe.

Donat Likes Ups, Downs, No Security

LONDON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Security, said the man is stagnation. He sounded like he knew what he was talking about.

Certainly Robert Donat, for it was that veteran British actor doing the talking, can say at the age of 43 that his own life has been neither secure nor stagnant.

Currently the outlook is bright. Donat's newest picture, "The Winslow Boy," from the smash stage hit by Terence Rattigan, is playing to big houses in London's West End. Americans who have seen it predict it will be a box office success in the United States.

But it has been a long time since he scored his last film hit. And a lot longer since he did anything outstanding on the stage.

He started with a big film winner in "The Count of Monte Cristo." Then, after several mediocre efforts he rang the theatrical bell in James Bridle's "Sleeping Clergyman." On the debit side went another string of efforts until Hollywood skyrocketed him to the 1940 star of the year award in "Good-bye, Mr. Chips."

The war and Donat's own Lancashire stubbornness brought on the next "low."

Donat sent his wife and three children to the United States in order to protect them from Hitler's bombing, but he refused to leave London himself. Arguments with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer over this finally ended in mutual agreement to dissolve his connection with the American company.

The result was a return to the stage and little success.

His wife returned after the war but only to obtain an uncontested divorce. Donat tried out and missed the part of Bill Sykes in "Oliver Twist." He got a bit part—hardly three minutes—in Stewart Graninger's "Captain Boycott."

Then came "The Winslow Boy." Sir Alexander Korda, who always has liked Donat's work gave him the difficult role made famous by the stage star, Emyln Williams.

Donat explains his checkered career by acknowledging that "people call me difficult."

He is apt to receive guests, dressed in unpressed tweeds, an old sweater, a shirt with rumpled collar and tie awry. He will sprawl on the floor to demonstrate the construction of a model ship he and his oldest son, John, are building together. John and Brian and daughter Joanna divide their school holidays between their parents.

Try to steer the conversation into personally prying channels and Donat is off like a deer, talking of other things.

"The creative artist must preserve his freedom if only to preserve the element of uncertainty," he declared. "If the only thing you get out of life is security, the result is stagnation."

Green Is Given Salary Increase At AFL Parley

CINCINNATI, Nov. 18 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor convention yesterday voted $5,000 a year pay increase to President William Green and Secretary-Treasurer George Meany.

The new salaries of the top officers will be $25,000 and $23,000, respectively.

The convention also restored the 18 vice-presidencies which it wiped out a year ago in a fight over the officer status of John L. Lewis.

The mine leader, who withdrew from the AFL as the result of the controversy, had refused to sign non-Communist affidavits required by the Taft-Hartley Act, making nearly 300,000 AFL members ineligible to use the NLRB machinery.

That many workers are under direct supervision of the AFL officers.

Jack Kramer, Boston Red Sox pitching ace, won 20 games and lost 11 for San Antonio in the Texas League in 1938.

GOP's Delay Policy Stand

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Sen. Millikin (R-Colo.) predicted yesterday Republicans will wait and see President Truman's specific proposals to the new Congress before they adopt any opposition policy.

Millikin, who heads the conference of all Republican senators in the present Congress, told a reporter he doesn't think anyone now can forecast what role the GOP will play as the new minority party.

"We'll just have to wait and see what the President proposes," the Colorado senator said. "Republicans differ in their interpretation of the election results. They will have different ideas about how the party ought to proceed."

Mr. Truman made it plain Tuesday that the Democratic platform will be his guiding star in laying out a program for the 81st Congress.

Democratic leaders forecast more solid support within his own party for Mr. Truman's proposals than he got during the present Congress.

Sen. Lucas of Illinois, who is scheduled to become Senate majority leader when Sen. Barkley of Kentucky takes over as vice president, said that so far as he is concerned the Democrats are going to "accomplish as much as possible toward carrying out the Philadelphia platform."
