COLUMN WRITERS, like most humans, get a bad case of the don'ts occasionally. They lose the battle of man against white space and don't get a column written at all. Or worse, they write one that they wished they hadn't.

Or sometimes they get resourceful and sit down and write a column about all the things they can't write a column about and it turns out to be pretty good.

This is what Mr. James Gardner did in the Meridian Tribune recently as he said:

"We could write a column about:

- "Things my wife cooks for dinner - if we weren't already in the dog house and if she ever cooked anything.

- "The mail service - if we didn't make more mistakes than they do.

- "The preacher's sermon - if we had been in church last Sunday.

- "Columns that other newsmen write in other papers - if they didn't do such a much better job of writing than we do.

- "The neighbor's dog barking all the time - if ours didn't do all the barking.

- "Friends and relatives visiting all the time - if anyone ever came to visit us.

- "My mother - in - law talking so much - if we weren't afraid it would encourage more of the same.

- "The school board - if we weren't a member and know how it goes.

- "The City Council not having every street in town in perfect condition and a sewer line to every house - if we didn't know they are doing their best on limited funds.

- "The weather - if we thought it would do any good.

- "How many coffee breaks my wife takes - if we weren't afraid she would take more and longer ones.

- "How high taxes are - if we didn't know how much higher they are in larger cities.

- "Living in a small town - if we didn't know how difficult it would be to rear children in a large town.

- "The problem we have with our young people taking dope - if we had young people taking dope.

- "How ratty and rundown the residences in town look - if we didn't have some of the most beautiful homes and well-kept lawns in the country.

The prolonging of the war in Vietnam - if we thought it would do any good.

- "President Nixon - if we didn't think most people already know about him anyway.

- "Why it takes six days to get a letter to Cleburne - if we thought we could pin it on someone.

- "The price of everything in general - if we didn't ever plan on raising our prices.

- "Why we didn't get a deer during the past season - if we hadn't missed the buck that was standing broadside 60 yards away and if we weren't so thankful for being alive after opening morning.

"You can easily see why you are reading such mish-mash as this. I could write a good column - if there weren't so many reasons I couldn't".

Tom Holmes Seeks Office Of State Senator

"There are two Tom's in the race for the office of State Senator from the 22nd District. The first Tom has been more or less occupying the office for twelve years. As the other Tom in the race" - Tom Holmes - it is my intention to win this office and devote its considerable power to the good of all the people in the district, rather than a privileged few.

"I won't go so far as to say that my opponent has abused the office of State Senator, which he has adorned with great charm and excellent manners, as befits a man of established wealth. But I don't hesitate to point out that he has shown no sympathy at all for the little man - the farmer, the laborer, the blue and white collar worker - but instead has demonstrated great talent and enthusiasm for devising ingenious tax bills of odious character.

"It is almost trite now to say that Austin, the Capitol of the great State of Texas, comes close to being a disaster area. Having spent the past eight years there myself, I have been a witness, but not a participant, to the events

"Early in my career in the House, I learned the hardest lesson of all. And that is how to say 'No'. I said 'No' to special-interest bills; I said 'No' to unfair tax bills; I said 'No' to every foolish expenditure of the people's hard earned money.

Your Chevrolet dealers' new OK warranty. It takes the guesswork out of used car buying.

FEED GRAIN - WHEAT - COTTON PROGRAMS
 Producers are reminded that March 10, 1972, is the final date to sign an intention to participate in the feed grain, wheat and cotton programs. Sign up to date has been slow and a last minute rush is expected. There will be no extension of the final date.
TO AVOID THE LAST MINUTE RUSH, COME BY THE OFFICE AND SIGN UP TODAY.

QUALITY OF SET - ASIDE ACREAGE

The productivity of set-aside acreage must be at least equal to the productivity of land on which program crops are normally produced.
 When acreage set-aside is below average productivity, payments will be reduced.

SKIP ROW RULES CHANGED FOR 1972 PEANUTS

Peanuts planted in a SKIP ROW pattern will be considered solid peanuts for 1972. This applies even through four or more rows skipped.
 The present rules concerning

CROPPING of peanuts remains unchanged. (This is where a competitive crop is planted in strips alternating with peanuts)

SALE - LEASE OF COTTON ALLOTMENTS

Those interested in transferring their cotton allotments by sell or by lease are reminded that a contract between the producer and a broker does not transfer the allotment. The only way to complete the transfer is for all interested persons to come to the office to sign Form ASCS 375 in the presence of and being witnessed by a county office employee. If the cotton allotment is not officially transferred, up to 20 percent of the base could be lost. Final date: APRIL 1.

SALE - LEASE OF PEANUT ALLOTMENTS

If you are going to transfer peanut allotment acreage for 1972 you must have a 1972 yield established for your farm. Come to the office to make this request. Also, the same rules apply to completing the transfer for peanuts that applies to cotton. Come to the office with all interested persons to complete the transfer. Final date: APRIL 1

HOLIDAY - This office will be closed Monday, February 21 in observance of George Washington's Birthday.

Miss Willie Word, Chairman of the County Home Demonstration Council Recreation Committee, and her committee members Mrs. H.E. A very fine day of several tours is being planned.

LEAD IN POTTERY:

The housewife can test her own pottery dishes and casseroles to see if they contain lead. The chief chemist for the Food and Drug Administration recommends the following method as being reliable and accurate. Place vinegar in the vessel and allow it to stand overnight. You should have the vinegar only part way up on the dish so you can easily see if there is any difference in the glaze on the pottery below the vinegar line. If the glaze has been visibly dulled by the vinegar then the pottery does contain lead. If the pottery's finish does change as a result of this test, it is recommended that the dish be used only for non-acid foods. Whether the dish is heated seems to be insignificant.

SPRING FASHION PREDICTIONS

Fashion projects the times, so let's return to nature. Ecology is the key word in spring fashion predictions and actual garments shown to retail buyers at the Dallas Apparel Mart. Through various combinations of patterns, colors and fabrics, a natural spring fashion look evolves.

Shapes and patterns conform to those of nature, whether through the use of accessories, prints, or appliques. Landscape florals, country gardens, mixed bouquets, animal forms and fruit and vegetable motifs abound.

Fabrics are returning to the honest - to - goodness homespun look. Fresh ginghams, seersuckers, denims and piques are gaining dominance. Fabrics seem to come alive with soft and flowing movement.

Clear, bright and natural colors such as sand grass green, sun yellow and poppy red dominate the spring fashion scene.

The influence of nature and ecology now moves into fashion, restoring a cleaner, clearer and purer look than seen in recent years. Today's look is natural. Do you project the times?

The Home Demonstration Agent's office has free upon request bulletins on clothing construction for the home sewer.

Bill Parnell of the First State Bank in Ranger and Grover Hallmark of the Eastland National Bank returned from Texas A&M University last week. The two bankers attended the 20th Annual Texas Farm and Ranch Credit School. They heard some of the leading agricultural credit authorities discuss such subjects as "Economic Outlook", "Financing Agriculture", "Cattle Financing" and "How I Can Handle My Customers' Business".

As a result of the school we think Bill and Grover will be able to serve their customers even better.
 Someone suggested that we include a recommended spray schedule for fruit trees in this column. We are expecting the new guides for controlling insects and diseases in home orchards, but have not received the supply of guides yet. The guides have been written, but are still tied - up in the printing shop.

Since the new guides are not available we're going to give you the spray schedule that has been recommended for the past 10 years.

Fruit trees should be sprayed with a dormant oil spray now to control scale insects. If the newer growth on your fruit trees have a scaly substance that can be scraped off with a finger nail you have scale insects. Mix 3/4 pint of miscible oil 97 percent in three gallons of water.

To control worms and other insects in the fruit apply malathion or methosychlor and wettable sulfur according to the following schedule.

1. Petal fall (when 75 percent of blossom petals have fallen)

2. Shuck split (10 days after petal fall)

3. First cover spray (10 to 14 days after shuck split)

4. Second cover spray (14 to 21 days after first cover)

The sulfur helps to control the diseases that commonly attack fruit. If infestations of fruit-damaging insects occur following the completion of the above schedule, use carbaryl (Sevin). Carbaryl can be used up to one day before harvest.

If you have not purchased your fruit trees that you plan to plant this year you should do so now.

Get your trees from reliable nurseries and insist on disease stock. For satisfactory performances order trees that are adapted to your locality. Just because trees are available, do not assume that they are adapted to the local area.

For peach and plum trees, select year - old plants that are three to five feet high. Apple and pear trees should be four to six feet tall. Such trees will transplant easily and will become established quickly. Excessively large, bare-rooted trees should not be purchased. Often the "bearing size" tree turns into disappointment.

At present, fruit trees with full dwarfing rootstocks, other than apple trees, are not suitable for growing conditions in Eastland County. Plants with dwarfing rootstocks are available in other states but do not produce quality fruit when planted in Texas. Apple trees with dwarfing rootstock bear fruit earlier than standard trees and can be sprayed and cared for more easily.

If you raise sheep or goats don't forget to attend the predator control referendum at Cunningham's Truck Stop east of Strawn on Highway 20, Monday night.

Some farmers and ranchers have had trouble finding Internal Revenue form No. 4797 for income tax reporting. We now have a supply in our office in case you need one.

Short Course

Peanut production will be the subject of a short course conducted in Eastland County during the last two weeks of February. County Agent De Gordon says the first two sessions will be held in the Gymnasium at Rising Star next Monday and Tuesday nights, February 21st and 22nd. The short course will continue in the Gorman High School Auditorium Monday and Tuesday nights, February 28th and 29th. All sessions will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Five of the speakers will be Texas A&M Agricultural Extension Service Specialists. Ross Wilson, Manager of Southwestern Peanut Growers Association and Wayne Eaves, Executive Secretary of Texas Peanut Producers Board will also be a part of the program.

The following is the program for the short course:
 Feb. 21 - Soil Fertility - Dr.

John Chapin, Agronomist Report of the Texas Peanut Producers Board - Wayne Feb. 22 - Controlling Peanut Diseases
 Dr. Wendell Horne, Plant Pathologist
 Peanut Irrigation - Wayne Keese, Irrigation Engineer
 Feb. 28 - Controlling Peanut Insects - Dr. Clifford Hoelscher, Entomologist
 Feb. 29 - Weed Control in Peanuts - Ben Spears, Agronomist

MIGHTY LIKE HER
GRANDMOTHER - Mrs. Jim Harris of Denton (the former Toni Horton) displays her prize weapon, with which she competed recently in the annual mid-winter trapshooting tournament in Las Vegas. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horce Horton of Denton, and granddaughter of Mrs. James Horton of Eastland, Toni is carrying on a family tradition. Her grandmother was the first woman trapshoot champion in Texas and was zone shoot champion two years in a row; her father and grandfather were both avid fans of the sport, and her husband is a factory representative for Winchester.

A feature story, picture page about Toni appeared Feb. 13 in the Denton Record - Chronicle. On the basis of a score of 100, Toni holds an average of 88. A 95 to 97 is considered a good score for the day. She is a registered shooter, which means that her hits are recorded by the American Trapshoot Association and qualify her to enter such meets as the one in Las Vegas and the grand national shoot in Vandalia, Ohio, in August. She and her husband shoot 300 registered targets a month. Like most trapshooters, Mrs. Harris reloads her own shells, a rather involved process that saves money on ammunition.

Predator Control To Be Talked

The proposed predator control referendum will be the topic of a district meeting of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association (TS&GRA) Monday night, Feb. 21. The meeting will be held at Cunningham's Truck Stop at the intersection of State Highway 108 and Interstate 20 nineteen miles east of Ranger. Joe Jackson, District chairman of the TS&GRA, says this is a very important meeting for everyone interested in sheep and goat production.

The state's sheep and goat producers say they are in serious trouble due to the unchecked invasion of predatory animals. If approved when the producers vote March 27 - 31 in a mail referendum, a deduction will be made on sheep and goats marketed to provide additional funds for financing a stronger and more effective predator control program in Texas.

Ranchmen contend that if predators are not controlled more effectively their multi-million-dollar industry will be virtually wiped out.

H.H. Durham, Eastland rancher, says anyone who would like to have a ride to the meeting Monday night should contact him.

8,051 Are Qualified Voters Here

Right now there are 8,051 qualified voters in Eastland County - but that number will be increased before the May 6 Primaries, County Tax Assessor - Collector Edgar Altom has announced.

That total figure is the number that had registered before the Jan. 31 cutoff date, but many others have registered since under new state registration laws.

A supplementary list of voters will be distributed to county election officials on April 5, containing the names of those registered after Jan. 31. The law requires that these be certified 31 days prior to an election in order to be eligible.

Altom received the data processed list this week, and it shows that 480 of the total are under 21, new voters.

Cisco voting precinct continues to lead the county in the number of qualified voters, with 2,219 to date. Eastland follows with 1,929 and Ranger is third with 1,398. Rising Star stands fourth with 1,045.

Other precinct strength at this date are: Olden, 212; Desdemona, 181; Gorman, 805; and Carbon, 262.

The tax office will have to mail voter applications to the data processing center in time for them to be returned here before April 5, so any unregistered should do so now.

County Coordinator James Reid will head up a committee greeting Lieutenant Governor Ben Barnes when he visits Dublin Wednesday, Feb. 23 at 9:40 a.m. on his whistle-stop campaign for Governor.

Three members of the World's Champion Dallas Cowboys - Dan Reeves, Walt

The total county figure will increase, but as it stands now, is behind the record 8,616 registered in the last presidential election year of 1968. Even now though, the total is above the "off-year", last year, when 7,600 signed up as voters.

Persons wishing to have their names added to the supplemental lists should make application immediately in order to get certified by the April 5 deadline. The new law specifies that one can register at any time, and registration

Now Is Time For Soil Samples

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reminds peanut farmers who annually produce about $50,000,000 worth of peanuts in Texas that now is the time to send soil samples for nematode analysis.

Samples should be sent to the Texas Department of Agriculture's DeLeon never ends, but one must be certified 31 days before an election to be eligible to vote in that particular election.

Research Lab, 301 West Navarro, DeLeon, Texas 76444.

Unless controlled, nematodes can cut peanut production sharply, and every precaution, such as the nematode analysis, should be taken, Commissioner White cautioned.

Peanut production ranks sixth in importance of all crops in Texas. Peanuts are grown in 117 of Texas' 254 counties.

Soil samples for nematode analysis should be packed in air-tight plastic bags, should be moist and should have the grower's name, address, field name and location of the sample plainly stated.

This will mark the first time

WE'RE WAITING FOR YOU DADDY - Says pretty Tiffany Mace, 2 1/2, daughter of Air Force man and Mrs. Larry Mace. Larry is on duty in Vietnam.

Missionary To Speak Here

Mr. Allen Jacobs, a Canadian missionary to East Pakistan was evacuated from the Pakistani capital, Islamabad, at the height of the recent clash on December 13, 1971.

Coming out of Pakistan with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jacobs were two of their four children: Teresa 8 and David 14. The Jacobs are missionaries to India and Pakistan. Following a thwarted attempt of insurrection in March 1971, the Pakistani forces gradually strengthened their arms against India. As the war neared the Jacobs were stranded in Islamabad, the capital of Pakistan, when a travel - ban, quarantine, and black - out shut them off from escape. While some foreigners did flee in autos to Kaubel, Afghanistan before the fighting broke out, the Jacobs were under travel - ban and confined to Islamabad.

When the daily air force raids of Indian and Pakistani Air Force fighters turned to bombing missions the Jacobs family was confined to their home. They camouflaged their auto with mud and limbs and hid it under a thickly - leaved banyan-tree. Jacobs later joked on what would have happened if the air force had started bombing trees! While small groups patrolled the streets residents were shut inside their houses with total black - out restrictions. Not even television watching was permitted. Mrs. Jacobs observed that the family had not gone to bed so early in their lives. Bombing was close enough to rattle windows in their house.

On December 8, 1971 the Jacobs received word that British subjects would be evacuated the next day. The Canadian Government had permission to use the Islamabad Air Port for only one day. However, due to air raids, the Canadian Government Plane could not arrive for five more days. Although there were only 80 Canadian citizens in Pakistan the Canadian Government secured passage for 231 evacuees. When the Jacobs were flown to Ottawa, Canada they left behind their car, appliances, books and other household furnishings. They could bring only a few clothes with them.

Mrs. Jacobs was concerned with the medical and health problems of India and Pakistan. She reports that 24 million children are threatened with blindness due to a lack of vitamin A in their diet. In 1967 an estimated two - thirds of the population suffered some sort of dietary malnutrition. Because only about 11 percent of births are assisted by trained personnel the infant mortality rate is high. Many persons live and die in India and Pakistan without ever receiving medication of any sort.

The Jacobs family are longtime friends of the J.E. Pennington family of Eastland. Mr. Jacobs is a former board - member of Western Christian College, Weyburn, Saskatchewan, Canada, where Mr. and Mrs. Pennington were faculty members until recently.

WHY PAY MORE??

MAYBE YOU DON'T NEED INSURANCE
If you don't own a home, furniture, jewelry or a car, you can get along without the services of an insurance agent. But for the most of us, life is not that simple. Modern living has become so complex that the protection of property and personal liability is a major problem and we must be insured. The individual you can always depend on for accurate solutions of your insurance problems is your local agent.

Now's the time to call your air conditioning serviceman.

(Get a checkup before the heat's on.)

Right now your air conditioning serviceman can easily work your call into his schedule and get your unit ready to deliver dependable cooling through the summer ahead.

We know that many people wait until the heat's on to install electric air conditioning or have their units serviced. Later on, your dealer or serviceman may have a waiting list. Although Texas Electric does not service, sell or install air conditioning equipment, we do want you to get the greatest value from your electric service. One way we can help is to remind you to get the jump on summer by calling your serviceman early.
