BENNIE MOSELEY

Bennie Moseley Seeks Office

Bennie Moseley, Ranger policeman, has authorized this newspaper to announce his candidacy for sheriff of Eastland County.

Mr. Moseley has been a member of the Ranger Police Department for the past six years. He has attended a law school sponsored by the West Texas Council of Government and has 140 hours of law enforcement training to his credit and is a certified police officer under the State law.

Mr. Moseley is formerly of Dublin and moved to Ranger in 1961. He is married to Credia Nash of Carbon. The couple are parents of three children. He is a veteran of the U.S. Army, having served 26 months of active duty in Germany. He also attended A&M University in 1968 where he completed the standard course of instruction in First Aid to the injured. He is also a licensed pilot.

Civic League

Mr. John Tilton, Research Biologist with Texas Electric Service Co. in Fort Worth, will be the speaker for the Eastland Civic League meeting Wednesday, January 12.

Mr. Tilton holds a B.S. in Biology from Trinity University and a M.S. in Zoology from Texas University. He has served as Biologist and Fisheries Supervisor with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department in Austin, Houston and Waco. In 1965 to 1968 he served as the Fisheries Advisor to the East Pakistan Agriculture University in Mymensingh, East Pakistan. Prior to his employment with Texas Electric Service Co. he served as a Research Associate for the Department of Wildlife Science at Texas A & M University.

The program will follow the regular monthly luncheon and business meeting which will begin at 12:00 noon. Reservations for the luncheon must be made not later than 12:00 noon on Monday, January 10 by calling Mrs. Marcus O'Dell, 629 - 1395.

Pre-school children will be cared for in Betty Meeks' nursery during the meeting. Mothers planning on leaving children in the nursery are requested to inform Mrs. O'Dell as to how many when making luncheon reservations.

Hunter To Seek Re-Election

Bill Hunter has authorized this newspaper to announce that he will be a candidate for re-election to the office of Constable, Precinct One (Eastland and Olden) in the May Democratic Primary.

Mr. Hunter will issue a formal statement at a later date he said.

A broad look will be made of Eastland - encompassing every avenue - if plans are completed for an all-out Town Hall meeting late this month.

The City Commission will discuss such a meeting at its regular monthly meeting, on Monday, Jan. 17.

Supporters for such an undertaking are emerging from every segment of the community, and a lot of good ideas are expected.

"Now that the highway has gone around us, we're just going to have to build our town into what we want it to be ourselves," one strong supporter for projects suggests.

"Let's don't forget the young people," another urges, as thoughts of a Teen Center are put forth. This could be in conjunction with a Community Center, and provide a clean meeting place for young people to gather.

As each of these ideas is advanced, there comes questions and problems. What about supervision for a Youth Center? Why not let the

Theater To Meet

A General meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in the Civic Theater in Eastland Monday night. The purpose of the meeting is to select the first play production of the year. Everyone interested is invited to come to the meeting, stated Mrs. Virginia Russell.

Ministerial Alliance help on this, comes an answer.

What about vandalism at the City Park Building in the event that building were turned into a Community Center? Would it require a permanent manager or overseer? Perhaps the town is near the point where a chamber manager is needed and this person could be a general supervisor of such facilities.

What about federal money for modernizing the library in the event the Women's Club is moved from that location to provide badly-needed space for the over-crowded library?

What about federal assistance in re-vamping an existing building such as the City Park Building, or starting from scratch with a new building center.

Could not Eastland attract quite a number of small (up to 100 people) conventions of the district and regional variety, if there were facilities available?

Would the men's service club be interested in a central meeting place with kitchen facilities, if one existed?

Renovation of the City Park appears in the cards as the result of cooperation between the City and the U.S. Department of Agriculture through a survey made by the Soil Conservation Office, and for which federal financing conceivably could be available in the future, when the formal master plan is presented. Such financing would be a 50 - 50 basis with the city providing labor as its share of the total cost, perhaps.

These are plans in the works as ideas and thoughts for the future take shape in the minds of residents as they search for a good future for Eastland.

The Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet will be held Thursday, Jan. 27.

Since about the middle of December when people began to realize we hadn't had a genuine hard freeze, nearly everybody I've met has had something to say like, "I bet when winter finally does come, it'll be a dandy," or "I dread January. It's always so very cold when we have a mild early winter."

These were just average guys on the street talking, and they were so right that I wonder why we need the Dale Milfords of the weather world. Maybe Dale realized the common folk had this knack for outguessing the professionals in predicting the weather. For that reason or some other, he resigned his weather job with Channel 8 recently and entered the race for Congress where accuracy is neither needed nor expected.

Well, anyhow, the local sages who predicted bad weather for January certainly turned out to be right. That cold front that blew into Texas Monday bringing wind, snow and sleet was really a doozy. You didn't even have to go outside to note that it had arrived. You could just stand at the window and watch all the cars go by with new dents in the sides from sliding into something on the ice.

The fact that so many untrained ordinary citizens could have been so right about the ferocity of the first winter storm points up something about human nature. When everything is going very smoothly, most people can't stand it. They just know something bad is about to happen. In this case it was the winter storm. It was really a good one.

In fact, it was such a storm that it forced the closing of all schools in the area. Conditions were much too dangerous to send the kids to school. It was barely safe enough for them to get out and skate on the slick streets, which is what most of them did.

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER NEXT WEEK?

No Filing Fees Accepted

Political party officials in Eastland County - along with those of other Texas counties - charged with the conduct of the primary elections next spring, were anxiously awaiting an appeal from a federal court decision at Dallas last summer and hopeful that it would be acted upon by the U.S. Supreme Court before February 7.

That is the date on which candidates in the various political races in the primaries must pay their filing fees. For the moment, County Democratic Chairman A.E. Cawley of Ranger is not accepting even the customary $50 deposit on a candidate's filing fee, although the candidate's application for a place on the democratic primary ballot is being accepted.

As matters stand, the county committee is, in effect, obligating itself to do what it does not see how it can pay for - hold an election without knowing where the money is coming from to hire the clerks and meet other expenses of the election.

The dilemma has arisen as the result of a federal court ruling at Dallas in a case brought by a candidate for Tarrant County Judge against the Tarrant County Democratic Executive Committee, styled Wiscamper vs. Dr. Tomme, et al, in which the court struck down the primary filing fee system as followed for so long in the state.

The ruling held that the filing fees required - $3,500 in the case of an El Paso county commissioner candidate, who joined in the Dallas suit - and $7,000 in the county judge race in Tarrant County - were exorbitant and prevented ordinary people from running for office, and that the policy of making the candidates pay the costs of the primary election was inequitable. The court held that candidates were not entitled to pay any substantial cost of the voting, and that any such system mitigated against the right of most citizens to seek political office and thus limited the opportunities of the voters to exercise an appropriate choice in the selection of a public official.

The case was appealed to the Supreme Court, whose action is being awaited.

County Judge Scott Bailey told the paper Tuesday that he looked for the Supreme Court to uphold the ruling.

In that event party officials must look elsewhere than the candidate's bank account for the wherewithal to pay the election costs.

Bailey pointed out that the court did not object to a reasonable filing fee, but doubted that a measure of the state Legislature providing for a fee up to 4 percent of the four-year salary of an office would meet with favor.

The only and obvious source for payment of the election costs is the public treasury. Bailey suggested that in the event the Supreme Court sustains the lower court, it would accompany its ruling with an order requiring the commissioners courts of the state to pay the bill.

That would be necessary because otherwise, and without legislative approval quite impossible to obtain at this late hour, the county fathers can pay out nothing for which there is no specific authorization by competent authority.

It was pointed out that the cost of primary elections in Eastland County two years ago were not exorbitant, and that the candidates in the democratic primaries were refunded most of the money they had deposited as fees with the county committee.

It was also reminded that the biggest cost of running for office is not always the cost of holding the election, but other expenses incident to the conduct of a campaign.

Meanwhile, as county party officials waited and perhaps sweated a little, candidates were going ahead, hopefully if not merrily, filing for places on the primary ticket - quite a few of them in the race for commissioner of Pre. 3 in Eastland County.

Five candidates have so far made their intentions known and official. Present County Comm'r L.J. (Buck) Collins has announced that he will not seek a third term.

Parking Permits

City Manager Lewis Tiner has announced that parking permits for 1972 are now in at City Hall. Price for the permits is $12.00 per year, and it will expire December 31, 1972.

Permits will be on sale during regular office hours at City Hall.

look who's new

The first baby of 1972 was born at 8:22 p.m. in Eastland Memorial Hospital January 1. The baby weighed 7 lbs. 11 1/2 oz. and was named Christine Leigh Nunez. Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Munez of Strawn.

B&W Broadens Scope

Broadening the medical scope in Eastland and for this entire area is a clinic equal to any in the state, but with a name that makes for a puzzle.

Recognized far and wide as one of the most outstanding diagnostic and treatment centers, is B&W Clinic in Eastland, which has just recently re-located in a new $150,000 building in the south shadow of Eastland Memorial Hospital.

Chief doctors are Dr. H.J. Bulgerin and Dr. B.B. Alexander. "Where does the 'W' come from?" many ask. It's really very simple - Dr. Bulgerin and Dr. B.B. Westbrook opened the original clinic, but Dr. Westbrook moved to Beaumont, and Dr. Alexander joined the clinic in 1958. The name was retained.

B&W opened in September of 1955 in the Petroleum Building, where it operated until August of 1971 when it moved to the new location at 400 West Plummer.

On the ground level, the clinic is expanding its patient level and is presently up to 100 per day - with bright prospects of the addition of at least one, and perhaps two more physicians in the near future.

Both physicians do general surgery on Tuesday and Friday afternoons, and are in the clinic each morning.

Medicare and other expanding government projects foretell an expansion of facilities and need here as Eastland continues to expand its image as a medical center.

"One of the best designed clinics in the nation" is the way visiting salesmen and other professionals see B&W's new plant here, which was years in the planning stage.

"We started planning this right after I came here," Dr. Bob says, "and I'd sure hate to think about going back into the old clinic after being able to work here."

Both Dr. Alexander and Dr. Bulgerin are highly respected throughout the medical profession for their diagnostic and treatment skills.

B&W has an annual average payroll in excess of $80,000, according to Business Manager Mrs. J.W. Eidson, who joined the firm in 1959. Nurse Mrs. Lula Mae Porter joined the staff in 1962, and Receptionist Mrs. Vernon Humphreys joined the staff in 1964.

Mrs. Everett Plowman is another receptionist and Mrs.

LaTralle Stark is in charge of Medicare work. Mrs. Don Baird handles insurance and Mrs. M.H. Miller handles posting.

Richard Rossander and Mrs. Bethel Clark are in charge of laboratory department and other nurses are Mrs. Patsy Miller and Mrs. Billy Adams.

The new clinic contains a complete and modern X-ray and laboratory facility, eight examining rooms, an office for each doctor, nurses station and four business offices and a reception area and file room.

The latter area includes a lounge for the employees complete with coffee facilities, refrigerator, private bath and kitchen area. The modern and spacious waiting area will seat around thirty-five people with adjacent parking area for approximately twenty to thirty cars with a private parking area in the rear for the doctors and the staff. An emergency entrance at the rear of the building with a ramp for an ambulance, is located adjacent to the emergency room, fully equipped, and next to this is a treatment room and EKG room.

Across from these rooms is the laboratory and waiting area for the patients waiting to have laboratory work done.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
NEWS
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20230

Harry Gepp will head the Dallas office from which the Federal Government's Consumer Expenditure Survey will be administered in this area. Percy R. Millard, Director of the Dallas Data Collection Center of the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce, announced today. The Census Bureau will conduct the survey beginning in mid-January for the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor. A major nationwide examination of consumer buying habits, the survey will provide information needed to update the Consumer Price Index (CPI) on which monthly price change data are based.

From headquarters office at 1114 Commerce St., Room 721, Dallas, Mr. Gepp will direct the survey in the following Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas (SMSA's): Dallas, Fort Worth, and Sherman - Denison, Texas; Texarkana, Tex. - Ark.; and Tulsa, Okla.; and in the following counties: Eastland, Gregg, Harrison, all in Texas; Johnston and Pontotoc in Oklahoma; Garland, Craighead, Greene, Clarke, and Pike, all in Arkansas.

The Dallas office is one of 26 that the Census Bureau has established throughout the country to administer the collection of the survey data. The information will replace consumer buying data last gathered in 1960 - 61 by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Census will collect the new data and turn results over to BLS for analysis and revision of the CPI, as well as for development of new average family budgets in line with today's changed buying habits.

A sample of approximately 1,800 households in the Dallas office's five metropolitan areas and ten nonmetropolitan counties will be asked for detailed information on recent expenditures for goods and services.

The survey will be conducted on a quarterly basis over a two-year period (January 1972 - March 1974) with separate samples of equal size (about 900) being interviewed in each of the years. Each household will be in the survey for 15 months or five quarters. Survey period for the first group will start in January 1972 and extend through March 1973. Expenditures will be covered for calendar 1972. Survey period for the second group will start in January 1973 and extend through March 1974 and will cover calendar 1973 expenditures.

Another 1,800 households within the same areas will take part in a supplementary survey that will start in May 1972. Householders will be asked to record daily expenditures over a two-week period in a diary that will be provided them. This diary survey will furnish data needed on the many day-to-day purchases that people cannot be expected to recall over a three-month period.

The households in the area covered by the Dallas office are part of the approximate 50,000 throughout the Nation that have been scientifically selected from a list of addresses to provide a representative sample of all households in the Nation.

Benefits

U.S. Secretary of Labor J.D. Hodgson has notified the Texas Employment Commission that the national trigger for extended unemployment benefits will be in effect beginning January 2, 1972. The first date on which a claim for extended benefits can be filed in Texas is January 10, and claims filed through January 21 may be backdated to January 10. Claims filed after January 21 will not be backdated.

"The extended benefits become payable to individuals as a result of amendments to state and federal law and are payable only to claimants who have exhausted their regular benefits," says R.L. Coffman, TEC Administrator.

A claimant for extended benefits may receive as much as 50 percent of his total benefits. To be eligible for extended benefits, a claimant must not have entitlement to regular benefits in any state or territory; must have a benefit year that ends on or after January 2; must file for extended benefits covering weeks subsequent to January 2, 1972; and must be totally or partially unemployed. He must also meet the conditions required to draw regular unemployment benefits, such as filing a claim, being able to and available for work, and actively seeking work.

Claimants must file with the Texas Employment Commission for extended benefits in the same manner they file for regular benefits.

The cost of extended benefits will be shared on a 50 - 50 basis from the state unemployment insurance trust fund and the federal government.

As required by federal law, the extended benefits program was incorporated in the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act by the 62nd Legislature.

Music Club Holds Meet

The Music Study Club of Eastland met Wednesday, January 5th, at 3:00 p.m. in the lovely and interesting home of Emily and Joseph M. Perkins on 1021 South Seaman Street, a home filled with collectors items collected from every country in our world during their travels abroad. In addition too, the gentleman of the home, Joseph M. is a member of "The Collectors of Antique Clocks Association". His collection of antique clocks is very large. A large number of them are here in the Eastland home which he winds religiously every Sunday morning. The other clocks are in his "Carriage House" office at their home in Gleason Dale, Mass.

The hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. J.F. Francis, Mrs. Jack W. Frost and Mrs. Guy Patterson were attired in pretty hostess gowns.

Upon arrival we were shown to the dining room where from a tea table decorated in an international motif, consisting of a large centerpiece formed by a clever arrangement of items from every country, flanked on sides by two hurricane lamp candles in blue. Mrs. Francis poured coffee and Mrs. Patterson, the cranberry juice punch.

President, Mrs. Russell, gave the welcoming address, read the quotations for the program as follows, "Music, the adaptable medium, is the all-powerful string that ties together both parts of a whole and the whole to the world."

by Ann Boney. Mrs. Russell introduced Mrs. Perkins, leader for the program. Hymn of the month "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" was sung with Mrs. Frost as leader, Miss Jo Ann Baker, pianist. Officers and committees gave their annual reports. Due to the absence of the recording Secretary, Mrs. Gene Rhodes, Mrs. Durel Reid took the notes of the meeting and Mrs. Mike Collins read the minutes for the year. Miss Marcia Griffin, soloist; Miss Jo Ann Baker, pianist gave two clarinet solos as follows: "Adagio" by Corelli and "Sonatina M D Major, Opus 137" by Schubert.

Mrs. Perkins exhibited a full scale map of Australia done in needle point work on linen crass cloth. Each state or country was outlined in color, giving the Flora and Fauna of each in appropriate color. This piece of art was done as she sailed the balmy ocean. Mr. Edward Pietraszek blocked the map for Mrs. Perkins and Mr. Artie Lyles did the framing. Truly a marvelous work of art. Miss Virginia Beall Owens gave a brief account of her life as an airline hostess for the Pan Am Air Lines.

Members present to enjoy the most interesting program were: Mmes. C.L. Bigby, Mike Collins, J.F. Francis, Jack W. Frost, Robert F. Hodge, Donald L. Kinnaird, Sr., A.L. Murrell, Guy Patterson, Grady Pipkin, Joseph M. Perkins, Durel Reid, E.G. Rice, Virginia W. Russell, Frank H. Weaver, and Miss Marjorie Van Hoose. Guest Artists, Miss Jo Ann Baker and Miss Marcia Griffin. House guest of Mrs. Russell, her aunt, Miss Virginia Beall of Clarksburg, West Virginia.

ITEM: Your checkbook may not be an accurate account of the amount of "food" money you spend each week. This is particularly true if you shop in a supermarket. Studies show that non-food items - paper products and similar goods - account for almost 20 per cent of the grocery bill.

4-H NEWS

4-H clubs in Eastland County are preparing yearbooks for the 1972 year. Leaders met in December with the agents to share ideas for the yearbooks. Leaders working with 4-H'ers in this project are Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. Barbara Bostick, Mrs. Twila Carlile, Mrs. Phyllis Kincaid, Mrs. Jean Harbin, Mrs. Johnnie Scott, Mrs. Latone Rodgers, Mrs. Dot Martin, Mrs. Pat Greer, and Mrs. Sandi Herod.

It is time for 4-H members to be planning to give a method demonstration. These demonstrations will be given at County contest held in March. 4-H'ers should contact a leader in their club if they are interested in working up a method demonstration.

Adult Leaders Association will have a meeting on Monday, January 10, at 7:30 p.m. for the purpose of planning several activities that will be coming up in 1972.

All 4-H leaders and parents are urged to attend this meeting. By attending these meetings you show support to the clubs, their leaders and most important the 4-H members. Parents who take time out from a busy schedule, as everyone has, to attend are certainly appreciated for their efforts.

All club officers and County 4-H Council members will be receiving officer training on Saturday, January 15, at 10:00 a.m. at the Courthouse. It is necessary that all club officers attend this meeting. 4-H Junior Leaders will assist in giving training.

Eastland County 4-H will be well represented at the Ft. Worth Livestock Show for 1972. Many youth from the entire county have been feeding livestock to exhibit at some of the major shows.

Entering the Dairy Show will be Kimberly Harris of Rising Star. Beef exhibitors from the county will be: Theresa and Neil Scott of Rising Star; Bennett and Darrell Shortes and William Donham of Nimrod; Caryn Lee, Diana and Charles Clark and Sicily and Joe Heyser of Cisco; and Clint Tucker of Carbon. Cheryl and Bo Wheat of Cisco will be exhibiting sheep at the Show. Paul Campbell, Assistant County Agent, said that all these feeders have done a fine job of feeding and caring for their animals.

A home study course called "Your Pre-School Child" will be offered to interested individuals in the near future. What is a home study course? It's an opportunity to learn more about your pre-school children while you are at home with them. You read each lesson at home at your own convenience. Then answer the short evaluation questions and mail it back.

There will be four lessons in the home study course called "Your Pre-School Child". Each lesson will deal with something different: Babies and toddlers, the importance of play, food and the pre-schoolers, early childhood.

Are you interested? If so be watching the newspaper for additional information on how to enroll in this home study course.

First Aid Treatments for Furniture... "cure" of scratches on "varnished" furniture are simple and effective if you follow these simple remedies: (a) When fine scratches appear use steel wool and turpentine or cleaning solvent. Rub the surface with the grain of wood until scratches disappear. (b) For deep scratches on light finished wood, rub with a broken nut meat as (walnut, Brazil nut, or pecan.) (c) For deep scratches on dark finished wood: paint the scratch with iodine, or color in oil stain. Then apply furniture polish or wax as desired.

CAMP INSPIRATION
By Darrell Basham
Another year has ended 1971 was another good year for the church in West Texas. Your financial support has made it possible.

The men contributed a total of $5,500.00 to the dining hall in 1971. The balance on the project is about 1,200.00 We would like to see this project paid off by March 1, 1972. There is enough money in outstanding pledges to pay it off, if we will just send them in.

Since the West Texas Bulletin has not been sent out since the Annual business, we thought we might bring you up to date on the activities Sept. 11, 1971 - - At the annual business meeting - the following officers were elected to serve until May 1973: Roy Moad, President; Jack Barnes, V. Pres.; Darrell Basham, Sec.; Tres., Rept.: Jim Horn. Membership Chairman: Lee Middlebrooks. Project Chairman: Bill Thompson. Program Chairman. Total income for the year was $7,968.10. The fiscal year was changed from Sept. to May. Not a whole lot of activities took place between Sept. 11, and Dec. 11, 1971. On Dec. 11 the Executive Comm. met in Ft. Worth to discuss and plan the activities of the District Men's Fellowship for the coming months. Briefly, the following is a summary of that meeting. The above officers and wives attended the meeting.

Workdays at the Camp have been set for Jan. 22, and Feb. 19, 1972. At the Jan. 19 workday we will be starting the remodeling of the missionary cottage. This work will consist of ceiling repairs, lighting, wiring, insulating and paneling walls, fixing windows, doors, and running a concrete porch and side-walk. A complete landscape program is being prepared and will be considered this day. Plans will then be made for the Feb. 19 workday. Future workday projects were discussed and many things need to be done about the Camp.

1. Pick up rocks over entire mowing area. 2. Pick up debris around apartment. 3. Trim trees in mowing area. 4. Clean out room in Tabernacle, fix up, paint, and build bookshelves. 5. Fix cracks in Tabernacle stage floor for carpeting. 6. Paint metal work and flagpole at gate. 7. Paint outside of Apt. and Missionary cottage. 8. Update electrical system and improve lighting. 9. Improve roads.

Many other things will come up as Camp meeting dates approach. The roof on the apartment and Missionary cottage has been rebuilt and should end the roof problem we've had so long.

The officers voted to adopt for the men's project, to begin as soon as the dining hall is paid off, the building and improving the roads in and out of the trailer park, up to a cost of $1,000.00. We felt this was a Man's Desiring". The Bride entered to the strains of Wagner's "Bridal Chorus". At the end of the ceremony, with the couple kneeling on the priedieu, Mr. Charles Gwaltney, Minister of Education, sang "The Wedding Prayer". The wedding party exited to "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn.

The Bride was accompanied to the altar by her father. She wore a formal gown of ivory silk organza. The front of the empire bodice, the Victorian neckline, and deep cuffs of the sheer bishop sleeves were of ivory pead, ange lace entwined in ivory velvet ribbon. A full dome skirt swept to a chapel train. Her beaded ivory headpiece held a floor length English illusion veil.

She carried a bouquet of orchids and white roses on a lace and velvet book mark from her white Bible.

Honor attendants were Mr. Gerald R. Burgamy, sister of the bride and Mrs. Wendel Phillips. They wore formal carmen red velvet gown with stand up collar, empire bodice, elbow length sleeves with velvet ruffles lined with an ivory lace ruffle. Their head pieces were matching velvet bows which held an illusion veil. They carried nosegays of pink carnations and bridesmaid's pink rose buds with pink gypsophelia tied with long pink streamers.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Powell were host to the wedding party and guests with a reception in fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church.

The "X" shaped tables were covered with a white satin cloth overlaid with bouffant white tulle. Centered with an arrangement of graduating shades of pink roses in a silver epergine flanked by silver candelabra with pink tapers. Garlands of greenery were entwined in the tulle flounce.

On the right side was the Bride's cake, a delicious white confectionery topped with the traditional bride and groom. Punch was served from a silver bowl.

The groom's cake made of chocolate, was served with coffee from a silver service, on the left side.

The table at which the guests were registered was a round

At your service:
Enough electricity for today and tomorrow.

Dependable electric power in ample supply helps make good living possible today—and is essential for tomorrow's growth and progress—throughout the area served by Texas Electric.

Providing enough electricity to meet these needs will require over $165 million in new construction in the next two years. That's a lot of money. And about $100 million of this will have to be raised in a competitive market at a time when interest rates are much higher than they were just a few years ago.

This, added to other higher costs of doing business, makes the job of planning and building ahead an even bigger task. At Texas Electric, providing enough electricity is a commitment and a continuing effort that keeps us at your service.
