Senator Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells has today announced his intentions to seek re-election from the 22nd Senatorial District to the Texas Senate for the term commencing January 1973. Creighton was first elected to the Senate in 1960 and is now fifth in seniority. During his twelve years in the Senate, Creighton has been chairman of the important Water and Conservation Committee, Privileges and Elections Committee and vice-chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. For the past three sessions, he has served on the Appropriations subcommittee and the Senate-House Conference Committee on Appropriations, as well as the powerful Legislative Budget Board. His conservative beliefs on spending have been evident during these years.

Tid Bits

By HVO

YOUNG FOLKS, better watch out! Your parents were enjoying your music Tuesday night. They went to hear the Dallas Symphony Orchestra at Cisco Junior College's Fine Arts Auditorium, and got a double-bonus in variety, with a generous helping of the famous "Dallasound".

The first section being pretty much what was anticipated, and done up in great style. Rimsky-Korsakov's Capriccio Espagnol is a perfect opener - rousing, and a showpiece for just about every segment of the fine, well-balanced orchestra. Followed by the less familiar Alborado del Gracioso by Ravel, the orchestra had the near-capacity in the palms of their hands, up through and including the beautiful Dance from Salome, by R. Strauss, as the closer for the first half.

During intermission, there was much shuffling of the stage and instruments as a featured drummer and two guitarists moved to the fore, and after the concert resumed, decorum went sailing.

Let it never be said that D.S.O. doesn't play the now sound. Imagine if you can, a full symphonic treatment of modern ROCK. Opening with the up-beat overture to Rock, the big group right on up the ladder. It could have been the big-band sound that we older oldsters remember so fondly: Goodman, Dorsey, etc. It was the big sound, but it was a different music. As Conductor Andhel Brusilow said, the king of music, you tell the kids to turn down or off on their little radios. Our personal pick was the symphonic Delidia.

A good sampling of the Beatles numbers (My Sweet Lord), Tom Jones, and surprise of surprises: five movements from Jesus Christ SuperStar; theme from the new movie Shaft, and also closing with the trombone-featured, rafter-rocking Beginnings made famous by Chicago.

As they say, you haven't heard anything yet...but it was a different night at the concert.

3 School Posts To Be Filled

One candidate has filed in the Eastland Independent School District Board election, to be called for Saturday April 1.

The terms of Don Kinnaird and Bill B. Hart expire and the unexpired term of the late Board President J.T. Gregory is to be filled.

Mr. Kinnaird will seek re-election and Mr. Hart was not available for comment.

Eugene Frost, 39, has filed for the vacancy created by the recent death of School Board President J.T. Gregory.

Filing deadline is March 3. Holdover trustees are Virgil T. Seaberry Jr., Bob Perkins, Winston Boles and Morris Jones.

The election is expected to be called at a board meeting next week.

Frost, administrator of Eastland Manor Nursing Home, is a four-year resident of Eastland, moving here from Brady. He is married to the former Shirley Hodge of Lohn. They are the parents of three children, Randall 13, Janet 13, and Scotty, 9.

Frost, who is seeking public office for the first time is a member of the Lions Club, the Quarterback Club, and is a director of the Chamber of Commerce.

Frost is a member of the Bethel Baptist Church, where he serves as deacon and church treasurer.

Countians Expected At Rally

A large delegation of Eastland Countians are expected to attend the Ben Barnes Home Country Rally in Brownwood Coliseum Thursday, Feb. 3, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

County Coordinator James Reid reports that anyone who would like to attend, who might not have a ride, is welcome to contact him at 629-1751. The county group is urging a good representation from this county at the official kick-off event in behalf of Lt. Gov. Barnes' candidacy for governor.

Top country and western star Ray Price will provide entertainment.

Persons from a 43-county area and as far away as 100 miles are expected for the Barnes statewide opening.

Eastland Countians are reminded that there will be signs on the convention floor designating the various areas and residents from here are being asked to join the county delegation.

You Can Still Register!!

The new registration deadline to vote in the May 6 party primaries is April 5 instead of Jan. 31, Eastland County Tax Assessor Collector Edgar Altom said Monday.

There has been a great deal of confusion about the new voter registration law passed by the last legislature, Mr. Altom said.

"Under the new law, voters can register any time during the year," he explained.

"However, persons must register at least 30 days prior to an election to be able to vote in that election."

Mr. Altom added that the deadline to register for the Nov. 7 general election will be Oct. 7.

Bakker Funeral Home On Schedule With Work

Building his business from the ground up in the best American tradition.

That's Funeral Director Dale Bakker who is working virtually around the clock, getting his new Bakker Funeral Home at 306 W. Plummer St. ready for a scheduled mid-February opening.

And the kind of work Dale's doing is not just pencil pushing and overseeing. 'Course, he's doing plenty of that as any businessman must, but he's also laying to with the hammer, the saw and all the other things that it takes to convert a large, former dwelling into a modern, first rate funeral home and a beautiful asset to the community.

Discovery of a building error is working to Mr. Bakker's advantage. When he was brought up short to learn that he was a 'building a little bit too close to the curb on the west, he did some sharp pencil figuring and came up with even a better approach to providing the top-flight kind of service he envisions for his firm.

"I'm doing my best to offer the best service and I want to be a good citizen and a solid part of this community. I can assure you I'm working hard to do it. Look at the blisters on my hands to prove it," Dale laughs, as he sees progress being made.

It's Winter Again

This jumbo size snow man seems very happy with the job the Bill Wyatt family did on him at 302 W. Sadosa Photo by H.D. Alsop I've heard a little too much about "bridging the communication gap lately. Mind you, I'm all for it - no one knows better than a newspaper man that communication is a vital part of life. It starts with two people that's the minimum number.

In this permissive society we seem to be nourishing, however, it is easy to point an accusing finger at our institutions: "The schools, the churches...they're not communicating with all the people; they're falling down on the job."

It's easy to point your fingers, but maybe you're not really putting the blame where it belongs. Remember, when you point a finger, three fingers are pointing back at you.

One of the primary areas of failure, I think, is the family. It's trite but true that setting an example, the old business of bending the twig in the right direction, is still a pretty good rule of life to follow.

Parents either do the job of providing their children with a set of values, or it doesn't get done. If they don't find such things as God, honesty, integrity, loyalty and duty at home in their own day-to-day living, then it may be too late to pick up some of these fundamental principles at school or church.

Some folks laugh when you suggest that we return to some of the old-fashioned ways of living. There is a lot of yesterday we don't need today, but some of it is worth hanging on to.

The 1929 Dedication Ceremonies for the present Eastland County Court House was the text of Pat Miller's program at the regular meeting of the Eastland Rotary Club Monday, January 31, at Eastland High School. President Saul Pullman presided.

According to the Official Program from the ceremonies, it was "An occasion of two-fold interest, conducted by the general public, with the hearty co-operation of the American Legion of Eastland County". The affair was also a memorial service, as the Court House is dedicated to the men of Eastland County who served in World War I.

In discussing the ceremonies that were held May 30, 1929, in Eastland, Mr. Miller outlined the events of the day:

Committee Meet Thursday Eve

Much ground work is being done by Mr. Durel Reid's Special Committee on Library and Community Center, and a planning session for reports will be made Thursday evening, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the Woman's Club House.

taxation, district filing fees and other matters affected by recent court rulings.

Guessing that Gov. Smith about June 1, "This may pose some problems because about a third of the House and some 17 senators will either be re-elected, ousted or elected to other positions in the May primary.

Rep. Hanna spoke out for annual sessions mainly because the yearly meeting would provide better financing of the state's work load.

"We spend too much of our time fighting 'against' things. I'd like to be working 'for' constructive things," he said.

Most of the state's money goes to education, highways and welfare, he said. "I spend 50 percent of my time helping persons with welfare matters."

President DeGordon presided completely equipped with oxygen and other services, as well as a licensed flying service.

Mr. Bakker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bakker who recently moved to Eastland from the family home in Youngstown, O., and brother to Glenn Bakker, who recently assumed management of Lone Cedar Country Club.

A formal open house, with plans to be announced, will mark the opening of the new business in February.

Mr. Bakker came to Eastland from Temple where he worked in the funeral business for four years. He met his wife Sue, there, where her mother still lives.

A native of Youngstown, he served in the Air Force as an Air Policeman for four years in Korea and other stations. After his discharge, he attended Howard Payne for one year, and graduated from the Dallas Institute of Funeral Directors.

To be offered will be a 24-hour ambulance service

At 36, he is a member of the Eastland City Commission,

REP. JOE HANNA Hanna Speaks for Lions

State Rep. Joe Hanna, called a "straight shooter" by program chairman E.G. Rice, spoke informally to members of the Eastland Lions Club at their regular luncheon meeting at the high school Tuesday.

Touching on a number of topics, Rep. Hanna called this the "period of court decisions" as he spoke briefly on school

Among the reports to be given will be some on existing "possible" sites for a community center. Serving on Durel's select group are presidents and - or representatives from just about every organization in town - including:

Mrs. Beverly Nicholson, Civic League; Mrs. Herman Hassell, Las Leales; Dee Gordon, Lions Club; Saul Pullman, Rotary Club; Bob McCoy, Jaycees; Mrs. J.F. Francis, Thursday Afternoon Club; Mrs. Virginia Russell, Music Club; Mrs. Ginny Mathews, Xi Alpha Zeta; Mrs. Durel Reid, Club House Board; Mrs. Emily G. Perkins, Library Committee; Mrs. Jim Horton, Mayor James Reid's special representative; and Mrs. Herman Alsup, Zeta Phi Sorority.

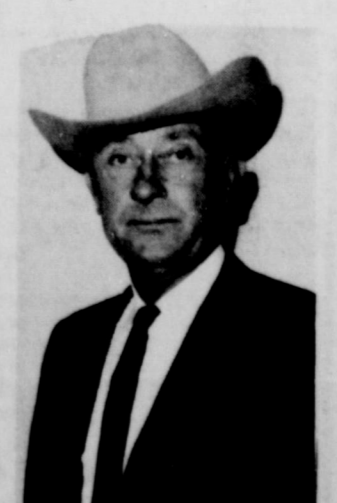

Preliminary reports will be assembled and available for the Town Hall Meeting, set for Monday, Feb. 7 at the Woman's Club.

NAME OMITTED

In the long list of honor students from Eastland High School, the name of Janet Frost, Seventh Grade A Average student, was inadvertently left out, and we think Janet's A Average certainly does deserve recognition.

Tackett Seeks County Sheriff

Bill Tackett, 49 year old Eastland County rancher, announces his candidacy for office of Sheriff for Eastland County.

BILL TACKETT

Mr. Tackett, a five year veteran of World War II, attended Cisco Junior College. He is married, and the father of two children, Michele, 16 and Bill Jr., age five. Mrs. Tackett (Wanda) is business representative of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Ranger.

Mr. Tackett was a candidate for this position in 1952, since that time he was associated with an oilfield equipment manufacturing company for 12 years in a sales and public relation position. He returned in 1963 to his ranching interest in Eastland County. He says he feels he is qualified for this office and hopes to personally contact all of Eastland County voters to ask for their support.

Commander Jesse E. Bethany, executive officer of the Charleston Weapons Station, Charleston, South Carolina, received three medals during ceremonies last week. The medals were awarded by Rear Admiral H.J. Kossler, Commandant of the Sixth Naval District.

Cmdr. Bethany received the Bronze Star for meritorious service while in combat in Vietnam from November 1970 to November 1971.

He was also awarded the Navy Commendation Medal and the Vietnamese Staff Service Honor Medal First Class. He is credited with establishing new movements and cargo clearance procedures and implementing resupply efforts to Cambodia while serving as operations officer of the Military Sealift Command office.

Cmdr. Bethany is an Eastland County native. He graduated from Carbon High School in May, 1942, and entered the Naval service in November that same year. He

Home Demonstration Agent

The Texas Tourist Development Agency, Austin, Texas has developed plans for holding the first annual Texas State Arts and Crafts Fair on the Schreiner Institute Campus, the Kerrville, Texas on May 31st - June 4, 1972. This will be the first such fair for Texas. The Arts and Craft Fair will offer Texas Craftsmen an opportunity to exhibit and sell their arts and crafts.

Applications for entering the Fair are due on March 3rd. Applications for craftsmen in Eastland County are available at the County Home Demonstration Agent's Office, states Mrs. Janet Thomas, Co. Home Demonstration Agent.

The following is some information that may answer many of your questions in regards to entering the Fair.

1. The fair is open, upon invitation, from the Selection Committee, to Texas resident artists and craftsmen only.
2. It is created and sponsored by the Texas Tourist Development Agency with support and assistance from numerous other state agencies, tourist organizations and art and craft groups.
3. It will be promoted and advertised nation-wide.
4. The first-year attendance is expected to be in the tens of thousands.
5. Buyers from national retail outlets will be guests of the fair and will be encouraged to negotiate quantity contracts with exhibitors.
6. The fair will be held in a rural, outdoor atmosphere utilizing tents and displays areas. Hours will be 10 a.m. to dusk.

7. Exhibitors will be provided free space.

8. Accommodations will be available in dormitory facilities of Schreiner Institute, home of the first fair, at reasonable cost. Excellent hotel facilities are available in Kerrville. Camping facilities are available at Kerrville State Park and other locations around Kerrville.

9. Schreiner Institute will provide exhibitor meals at reasonable cost. Concessionaires at the fair will offer a variety of food and drink.

10. Exhibitors will be encouraged to work at and demonstrate their skills during the fair.

11. Everything exhibited must be for sale.

12. The fair will arrange security for exhibits and exhibitors revenues.

13. The fair will charge exhibitors 15 percent commission on all sales made at the fair to visitors. No commission will be charged on quantity contracts negotiated by craftsmen with retail buyers. Exhibitors would be expected to advise fair officials of all quantity contracts so that the success of that portion of the program can be evaluated.

14. The fair will operate several demonstration exhibits and receive, in full, any revenues produced by them. These exhibits will in no way compete with individual exhibitors (i.e., corn grinding operation).

15. The fair is particularly interested in locating "old time" craft skills, i.e., spinning, lye soap making, blacksmithing, etc.

16. The fair will charge admission to visitors (probably $1.00 for adults, $.50 for children).

17. Fair officials will do everything possible to make exhibitors stay as comfortable, pleasant, and profitable as possible.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Gay were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hall of Lawton, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gay and family of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Gay and family of Irving.

Speaker

Mr. Gaither Vanderveer, field representative of La Busqueda The Quest) the Spanish Radio Ministry of the "Herald of Truth" will speak at the evening services of the Plummer and Daugherty Sts. Church of Christ, Feb. 6, at 6 p.m.

Mr. Vanderveer's report will be a general review of the total ministry of the Herald of Truth in the fields of Radio and Television Evangelism. He will report in detail on (the Quest) the Spanish Radio Ministry of the Herald of Truth. It is a five-day a week program that centers largely on a paragraph by paragraph study of the New Testament in Spanish. The program is now aired over 13 stations in Mexico with 12 more to be added as soon as funds are available. Plans have been laid for placing the program on at least one station in each of the Spanish speaking countries in Central and South America by 1975. Evangelism via radio in French and Italian should also progress in 1972.

The Plummer and Daugherty St. Church of Christ sponsors the "Herald of Truth" over KERC, Sunday morning - 8:30 - 9:00 a.m. The local congregation is concerned about La Busqueda because of several years sponsorship of evangelistic efforts in Mexico.

The public is invited to be present for this interesting report.

Health, Safety, and Cultural Arts were selected from a list of programs read by the president.

The club has a project of making 4 - H aprons as soon as the material and pattern is received.

The next meeting will be Feb. 3rd.

Pioneer Club Enjoys Program

The Pioneer Club enjoyed a wonderful day in the home of Mrs. Lorine Crawford, January 27. Every way one turned they saw the handiwork of their hostess. Her most recent accomplishment was the piecing, putting together of five quilts for her grandchildren. They were all made by the same pattern, "The Broken Windmill. Two of them were for single beds, and three for double beds. Each seam was briar stitched with silk thread at every seam.

Besides that, Mrs. Crawford had made two lap robes and some throw pillows, all by the same pattern.

Mrs. Sallie Garrett gave thanks before all sat down to a most delicious meal, pot luck, as always.

Crossley-Thompson

After honeymooning in Acapulco, Mexico, Dr. and Mrs. Gregory W. Thompson, are now at home in San Antonio, Texas, where Dr. Thompson is Interning at Bexar County Hospital. They were married Saturday, January 8, 1972, in St. Francis Episcopal Church.

The altar was banked with white winter bouquets of gladiolas, carnations, and mums with jade foliage, and a Memory candle, used in the ceremony, to create the decor for the impressive double ring ceremony. Adding to the beauty of the decor, the pews were lined with aisle candelabras. In this lavish setting, the ceremony at seven o'clock in the evening was performed by the Reverend G. Richard Wheatcroft and the Reverend Monsignor Alfred W. Raye.

The soloist, Miss Lael Fitzgerald who sang the "Wedding Song" was accompanied by Mr. Robert Lynn at the organ. He also provided appropriate music for the wedding.

The bride, who before her marriage was Miss Carole Ann Crossley, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Crossley, 1714 Ronson Road. Dr. Thompson is the son of Mrs. Gordon Meeter of 209 Merrie Way, and the late Mr. R. R. Thompson.

Escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride chose for her wedding an elegant formal gown of ivory silk satin combined with French lace. Fashioned in the empire silhouette, the moulded bodice was designed with a sheer yoke enhanced with lace appliques and tiny lace edging outlining the yoke. The high Victorian neckline of lace featured the lace edging that also marked the high rise waistline. Full bishop sleeves appliqued with lace, were caught at the wrists with deep cuffs that were finished at the hands with the lace edging that also enhanced the beauty of the sleeves above the cuffs. The full "A" line skirt was embellished with appliques of lace and a band of the lace encircled the bottom of the skirt and around the chapel length train.

Her bouffant veil of silk illusion flowed from a Juliet Cap of matching lace and cascaded softly to elbow length. She carried a fashionable cascade of white pixie carnations, stephanotis and white rose buds with green ivy.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Kay Rhea, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kim Crossley and Miss Connie Crossley, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Jody Jones, Mrs. Debbie Peacock and Mrs. Paula Courtney.

For her attendants, the bride selected floor length gowns of brandy velvet, fashioned with fitted bodices accented with lace bibs, long sleeves with ruffled cuffs of lace and soft gathered skirts. They each carried a single Tropicana rose with rose foliage and baby's breath tied with moss green velvet ribbon. Completing their attire, they wore velvet bows and baby's breath in their hair.

Mr. Paul Thompson attended his brother as best man, with Dr. Happy Settle, Dr. Chip Oswald, Mr. Pick Williamson, Dr. Dennis Larson, Mr. Dave Pace and Mr. Dick Clardy serving as groomsmen. Ushers were Mr. Rob Thompson, Mr. Chuck Worrell, Mr. Drew Patterson and Dr. John Schuesler.

Mrs. Crossley, mother of the bride, wore a floor length formal gown of flowing pink chiffon. The groom's mother chose a full skirted floor length gown of yellow chiffon.

The new Mrs. Thompson, a 1968 graduate of Spring Branch Senior High School is attending the University of Texas Nursing School, from which she will graduate in May of this year 1972. She is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority and the Cordelettes.

Dr. Thompson, a 1963 graduate of Memorial Senior High School, graduated from the University of Texas in 1967, and from the University of Texas Medical School in Galveston in 1971. He is presently serving his internship at Bexar County Hospital, San Antonio where he will remain until June, then to San Francisco, California, where he will do his residency in dermatology.

When the newlyweds departed on their honeymoon, Mrs. Thompson was wearing a navy, white and coral vested suit with navy accessories.

Among the honor guests at the wedding were the bride's maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowell, and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Crossley, Sr.

Bennie Coburn Reports for Duty in Saigon

SAIGON (U.S. Naval Forces Vietnam) - Petty Officer First Class Bennie C. Coburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Coburn of 215 S. Madera, Eastland, has reported here for duty in the Republic of Vietnam.

He entered the Navy in July 1968 and is presently serving as an advisor to the Vietnamese Navy in Saigon.

Coburn will spend his tour in Vietnam working himself out of a job. The U.S. Navy is turning over its assets while training and advising Vietnamese Navymen who are assuming a greater role in the defense of their country.

American Navymen work closely with their Vietnamese counterparts, training them in the use of complicated craft and equipment. Once the Vietnamese sailors develop the necessary skills, the craft and equipment are turned over to their control, effectively reducing the number of U.S. naval forces needed in Vietnam.

Another program instituted by U.S. Navymen to assist the Vietnamese in building a more viable Navy is called Operation Helping Hand. Through this program, American sailors strive to offset the war-inflated economy and improve the austere living conditions of Vietnamese Navymen and their families through self-help projects.

Vietnamese Navymen are taught how to build better housing for their families and how to supplement their meager pay and diet with projects such as raising and marketing pigs, poultry and vegetables.

Although this program was started by the U.S. Navy, concerned civilians have stepped in to assist, and it has since been chartered in Delaware as a tax free foundation.
