Pallbearers at the funeral were Jim Everett, Onous Dick, Jackie Adams and Billy Ray Adams, all of Olden, and C. W. Thompson and Jim Butler of Dallas.

Born on March 31, 1894 in Proctor, she was the former DeAlva Maude McCune and married William Price Edwards July 4, 1915 in Thurber, Tex. He died Dec. 25, 1944.

Survivors include three sons, James R. of Fort Worth, Richard L. of Premon, Tex., and Thomas P. of Olden; four daughters, Mrs. E. H. Fisher of Fort Worth, Mrs. Kay H. Abolishing Office Won't Save Cash Here, Rotary Told

Elimination of the county school superintendent's office in Eastland County would not result in any savings for the county, Supt. O. L. Stamey told the Eastland Rotary Club Monday.

Introduced by I. C. Inzer of Eastland, county school board chairman, Mr. Stamey pointed out during his talk that all the funds for the county school office come from the state's foundation fund.

These were provided, he said, by the original Gilmer-Aiken bill of early 1940. That bill provided that each school with as many as 40 classroom teacher units (CTU) was eligible for a state-paid supervisor. Neither of the schools in this county are large enough to merit a supervisor, he said, but by pooling the total scholastic population, the county is eligible for paid supervisors, to work through the county school office.

If the office were abolished by vote in this county, the credit for supervisors (and funds) would go to expanding systems in the state, he said.

There are presently three such supervisors, a nurse, a librarian, an intemperate teacher, and other assistance, he said.

Supervisors conduct testing and guidance and help arrange such activities as career days at the county schools, he said.

During preliminary remarks in which he described the goals and purposes of schools, Mr. Stamey said that students spent two-elevenths of their Daughter Writes Eastlanders Of Alaskan Quake

Mrs. Jessie E. Richardson of 307 S. Bedford St., received word this week from her daughter and family in Anchorage, Alaska, and according to the letter, the recent earthquake there did only minor damage to the former Eastland resident's home.

Mrs. Robert E. (Frances) Hall of 306 Bunnell St., Anchorage, wrote her mother that the family was just beginning supper last Friday at 5:46 (their time) when the quake began. She described the effect as having lasted "an eternity."

However neither she, her husband, nor either of their daughters, Cynthia, 15, and Deborah, 12, were injured, and the only damage done, was minor breakage of glass in the house.

The quake tilted the refrigerator door open and food stuffs fell to the floor, she said.

Mrs. Hall's husband is an engineer for Anchorage Telephone and Light Co. and the family has lived in Alaska only since July of 1963. Severe damage and casualties have been reported from other parts of the Alaskan town.

County Trustee Election Is Saturday Too

Voters will also be given a county school trustee ballot in Eastland Saturday.

The county board vote will be held in connection with the local school election, at the same location, and judges presiding, it has been announced.

I. C. Inzer of Eastland, is unopposed for re-election. Ross Wilson is the only candidate for a place on the county board from the Gorman precinct. Balloting is expected to be light.

Rally, $100 Give-Away, Bargains Are Eastland Features Saturday

The $100-Give-Away is ready to roll again in Eastland. Saturday afternoon, hundreds of people will flock to the square area to size up the candidates in the forthcoming elections — and be available for part of the $100 worth of Old Rip Scrip to be given away.

It will be the second such event sponsored by the local chamber of commerce this spring. The same amount of scrip was given away in Eastland last month. The scrip is "spendable" for merchandise with any chamber of commerce member in Eastland.

Participating merchants are giving drawing tickets to Eastland shoppers and the stubs are put into a giant drum, from which winning ducats are drawn on drawing day. Originally set at a once-a-month attraction, it proved so popular that the chamber decided to begin holding it twice a month.

The streets were crowded the day of the March drawing, and the chamber office has reported that a total of $36 has been redeemed there. (Winners are given scrip which they may spend anywhere and then the firm re-deems the scrip at the chamber office for cash.)

So far, $16 had been spent at Perry's and $20 at Mode O' Day, it is reported.

Drawings are for one $50 packet of scrip, one $30 packet and two $10 packets. Candidates for local, county, district and possibly national races will be introduced Saturday and given a few minutes to talk. The chamber said that this will give Eastland visitors the opportunity of meeting and hearing candidates in preparation for the upcoming elections.

The stub drum is located at the Eastland Telegram and residents may deposit their stubs there or in boxes provided at other participating merchants. The drawing will be held on the south side of the square. Merchants in Eastland also feature special bargains in their stores the day of the drawing as additional inducement for shopping in friendly, convenient Eastland. Announcements of these bargains are listed in advertising in this newspaper.

There were no absentee ballots cast, it is reported.

IN Good Condition

Mrs. Josie Campbell was reported in good condition at Eastland Memorial Hospital Monday morning following a fall at West Patterson and North Lamar late Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Campbell was reported to have received head injuries.

J. T. (Truitt) Gregory and W. M. (Morris) Jones are the incumbents. They are seeking three-year terms, unopposed.

Gregory is distributor of Borden's Milk and is vice-president of the school board. He is chairman of the Board of Deacons of the Bethel Baptist Church.

A less-than-heavy turnout is expected.

Jones will be asking for his first full term, after having been appointed by the board to serve following the resignation of member Rev. W. E. Hallenbeck last year.

Election judge will be E. E. Layton and clerks will be J. H. Pittman and Pat Crawford. Johnson Smith has been appointed clerk for absentee voting.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

County Fruit Crop Prospects Are Fairly Good, With Variations

The 1964 fruit crop prospects over Eastland County looks fairly good, with from 33 to 50 per cent of a crop of peaches, even after last week's freeze which saw the thermometer drop down to 28 degrees for a few hours according to word today from the County Agents office.

Prospects vary from orchard to orchard and from variety to variety depending upon air drainage, altitude, condition of fruit buds and other factors it was said. County Agent J. M. Cooper and Ben McKinnis, Rural Representative of the Texas Electric Service Co. made the survey Tuesday on five orchards.

Orchards checked in the Flat Woods Community included those of Herman Jordan, Wendell Siebert and Earl Conner Jr. Two orchards on the Herman Schaefer farm near Nimrod and the C. E. Smith orchard near Rising Star were others inspected.

The Jordan, Schaefer and Smith orchards are considered large enough to be of the commercial type.

The apricot and the red leaf plum crops are practically wiped out. Even those small apricots still on the tree showed the internal damage which indicates a sure drop. Pear

H. T. Wilson, president of Eastland National Bank for ten years, is a graduate of the University of Texas and the Colorado School of Banking.

At present he is a director of Eastland County Water Supply District, a director of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, a Rotarian, and member of the Presbyterian Church. He and his wife, Nettie, are parents of two daughters, Shannon and Victoria.

Wilson, new chairman of the board of the Commercial State Bank, has been president of the Eastland National Bank for 10 years. He is a graduate of the University of Texas and Colorado School of Banking.

The new president assumed his duties Wednesday morning. No changes in personnel are planned, Gilliam said.

Creager announced Tuesday he is retiring — at least for the present — from the banking profession with which he has been associated continuously for nearly 40 years. He will, however, remain in the bank for a few weeks to assist Gilliam.

The Commercial State Bank was founded with a capital stock of $25,000 and $5,000 surplus. The institution's capital stock is now $50,000 with a surplus of $50,000. The bank is a member of Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

It was first located across the street from its present location, 121 Main Street, in the building now occupied by L&J Supply Co.

On Sept. 12, 1931 the older Citizens State Bank, established in 1925, and Commercial State Bank were merged under the name and state charter of the latter.

Creager, a resident of Eastland County for 58 years, began his banking career at Gorman in August, 1925 when he entered the employ of the First National Bank, oldest financial institution in Eastland County. He went to Ranger a year later and became associated with the Citizens State Bank.

Creager became a member of the board of directors of Commercial State Bank in 1945 as assistant cashier. He was elevated to cashier in 1938 and became vice president of the bank in 1950. He has been serving as executive vice president since 1960.

Budding Seminar Is At CJC April 15th

The group will re-assemble in the Kent Word Orchard, three miles south of Cisco, in the Leon River Bottom for a practice session and a grafting demonstration.

A supply of the double bladed pecan budding knives and the new plastic budding tape will be available. Cold storage pecan budwood of some of the new popular hybrid varieties such as the Choctaw, Comanche, Wichita and Apache as well as some of the older varieties will also be available for those desiring it.

Mr. Stevenson said that out-of-county folks who want to learn to bud and graft pecans are welcome to attend. Women as well as men may attend. A large number of people from 16 different west central Texas counties attended the school last spring.

TIDBITS . . .

and don't forget to vote, by the way...Mrs. Benton at the chamber office reports that three more dollars in scrip have been redeemed from MacMoy Super Save...Candidates have been sent invitations to appear Saturday...James Wright will be master of ceremonies...The stub drum is at the Telegram.

Mrs. Allgood of 505 S. Ostrom informs that she has found a pair of glasses near the hospital. Owner may have them by identifying, she said. Her telephone number is MA 9-2551...Congratulations to Mr. Glynn Gilliam who has been named president of the Commercial State Bank in Ranger. That town's gain is our loss.

Absentee balloting for the May 2nd primary begins Monday, April 13, at the county Clerk's office. New laws require that absentee voting be done "during regular office hours", meaning that they can't vote you after five p. m....Can you remember when primary were held in July and run-offs in August?...Monday, April 6, is deadline for filing as candidate for the county school superintendent's race.

Mr. Jim Horton and Mr. Ben Hamner will be instructors for a special Rotary indoctrination meeting Thursday beginning at 7:30 p. m. at the White Elephant, according to Mac Beazley, president. The meet is for young Rotarians and they should profit from this leadership...The District Rotary Association meet will be held in Cisco, Friday, April 3, at the Victor Hotel, it has been announced. County Supt. O. L. Stamey said it at Tuesday's Rotary meet, and we concur: "This generation of youngsters is the finest, sharpest one ever."

The county tax office was mighty busy Tuesday — with the last day for sale of auto tags, and a deputy said it would be a few days before the final totals are in. Substations were functioning at Cisco and Gorman. Needless to say, a lot of tags were sold.

FRUIT CROP

crops on young trees look good. Old pear trees, so heavily loaded last fall, had a small bloom this spring and will make a very short crop. Freeze losses in the Jordan orchard on peaches varied from a zero to 100 percent kill but averaged about 33 to 35 percent loss overall. This was also true in the other two orchards in that vicinity. Poor air drainage and low altitude at the orchard near the Schaefer home in the Nimrod area showed a heavy kill by the freeze, with an overall 68 percent loss. His north orchard through on much higher ground showed only a medium loss. His Melba variety of peaches, a white variety of very little acid showed a very little loss as did some of the others.

The Coronet variety in the large Smith orchard indicated a 40 percent loss, the Dixie variety 15 percent, the Frank and J. H. Hale only a 5 percent to 15 percent. The same was true of his Early Wheeler variety. Smith has four of the Elberta varieties some of which had heavy losses whereas others had only small losses. There are more than a dozen strains of the Elberta variety but generally only one or two strains are ever found in a local orchard. The Smith orchard is an exception on this score however it was said.

Some fruit barely singed by the cold and showing no damage now, will drop later on. It is impossible now to foretell how big a percent this will be.

Transportation Is Necessary In Producing Honey

Did you ever stop to think how much transportation is involved in the honey that goes so well with hot biscuits or hot cakes?

Even for bees, the honey business is mainly transportation. If a single bee should fly an average of a mile to a source of honey — making sufficient trips to produce a pound of honey — it would have to fly the equivalent of three times around the world. A tremendous task for even a bee in this age of jet transportation.

But wait, even more transportation is involved. Bee-keeping is becoming mobile. The migratory beekeeper moves his bees by truck from south to north following the blooming period of the best nectra producing crops. The trip north may take him almost to the Canadian border. In late summer, he starts the return trip but on the way makes stops to harvest honey from fall flower flows. Total production for such a round trip may reach a million pounds.

Transporting bees is a fairly simple operation provided everything works as planned. The beekeeper closes the hive entrance at night after the bees have returned from the field. Hive bodies are stapled together for the move and are loaded in stacks on the trucks.

Now bees are important for agriculture for pollinating crops. Research at Texas A&M University shows that seed production from clover can be increased seven-fold when

Seven Foods Are Plentiful For Month Of April

April brings a shower of foods, along with traditional rain showers, as seven foods are especially plentiful, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Such items as beef, cottage cheese, eggs, rice, canned ripe olives, dried beans and canned corn are expected to be abundant, according to the Agricultural Marketing Service, the U. S. Department of Agriculture agency that compiles the monthly list of plentiful.

Egg prices paid to farmers dropped more than 10 percent between mid-January and late February. April supplies are expected to be above those of a year ago, with prices below last year's attractive retail level. As of January 1, canned corn stocks were at a record high, and heavy supplies also should be much in evidence during April.

Substantial January-to-March increases in the number of fed beef cattle have resulted in a much larger meat supply.

Creamed cottage cheese production is expected to exceed last year's 787 million pound record. Dry bean production netted a record 12 percent above average. A record rice crop and the possibility of a record canned ripe olive supply make these big items for April.

Most of these foods are produced extensively in Texas, says the Service.

Foods listed as "plentiful" by AMS are expected to be more than adequate to meet normal trade needs.

Bank trash-free soil around tender plants to protect their roots against cold.

National DAR Leaders Spent Week in Eastland

"Cold War Is War" was the topic of a speech delivered by Mrs. Henry Stewart Jones, DAR National Defense Chairman from Marshfield, Wisconsin, at a meeting of the Charles Crawford Chapter of the DAR last Monday in Eastland.

Other guest speakers include Mrs. Robert V. H. Duncan, president general for the National.

bees are used to pollinate it. Farmers who grow clovers and alfalfa for seed, for example, welcome the migratory beekeepers to their farms.

But it isn't all hot biscuits and honey for the beekeeper. He can run into a peck of trouble in a hurry. When bees are in the vicinity of fields being treated with chemicals for insect control, he sometimes has to make a forced move in a hurry. Otherwise, he may lose an investment running into thousands of dollars.

There are other problems he must overcome by good management but those who profit most from his efforts are the ultimate consumers of the food delicacy which he and his hard working bees provide.

Major Crimes Hit New High In Texas Last Year

AUSTIN — Major crime in Texas soared to a new high in 1963 as a felony was committed on an average of every two and a half minutes during the year, it was reported today by Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety. Garrison said that crimes reported to the Department totaled 229,254 in 1963, representing an increase of 5.8 per cent over 1962, and a hike of 55.6 per cent over the total for 1953. The crime rate per 100,000 population increase from 2,261 offenses in 1962 to 2,393 in 1963. Ten years ago, the rate was recorded at 1,583 crimes per 100,000 persons in Texas. The annual crime report showed an increase in each of the seven major felonies tabulated, as follows: Murder and homicide, up 8.5 per cent; rape, up 14.2 per cent; robbery, up 10.6 per cent; burglary, up 4.9 per cent; aggravated assault, up 4.4 per cent; theft, up 6.6 per cent; and auto theft, up 2.8 per cent. "The constant rise in lawlessness in the past 10 years is a shocking and shameful commentary on the conduct of our society in our time," Garrison said. "The ever-increasing disregard for law and order in this era cannot be blamed entirely on the increase in population, because the rise in crime is consistently outstripping the population increase. "It should serve as a challenge to every responsible Texan to examine every possible means of combating this menace to his community and take appropriate action." The Public Safety Director noted that Texas is not alone in the crime explosion. He said that while Texas suffered an increase of 5.8 per cent from 1962 to 1963, crime in the United States as a whole, as measured by the FBI Crime Index, rose 10 per cent last year. In order to point up the frequency with which crime occurred in Texas during 1963 the DPS Statistical Services calculated that one murder occurred every 8 hours, rape every 6 and one half hours; robbery every 3 hours, burglary every 9 minutes, aggravated assault every 39 minutes, and auto theft every 31 minutes.

Deadline Is Near For Inspection Of All Vehicles

AUSTIN — Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, reported today that some 1,500,000 Texas vehicles have only until Wednesday, April 15, to be inspected as required by law. "In the remaining two weeks of the inspection period, it is possible for the state's 5,100 licensed inspection stations to handle the last minute inspections only if motorists take their vehicles in immediately so there will be no delayed periods between inspecting one vehicle and the next," he said. Rotary Officers To Hold Meeting Soon
 An all-day District Assembly of Rotary Club officers will be held at the Victor Hotel in Cisco on Thursday, April 23, with officers of the 41 clubs in this district attending. Details of the meet will be announced later by Anton White, chairman in charge of arrangements. An adult 90-ton blue whale eats more than a ton of shrimp each day. Behind many "For Sale" signs there is a sad story: A family borrowed more than they could afford to pay for a home, or payments and interest rates were too high; the home had to be sold, often at a loss. POSTMASTER ASKS CAUTION TO AVOID BEING DEFRAUDED

Noting that mail fraud filch millions from the public annually and are increasing, the local postmaster has urged residents take care in responding to solicitations from unknown companies or "offers too good to be true."

The postmaster said that he had received information material from Postmaster General John A. Gronouski about the problem and that the postal service is pressing a strong drive against quackery by mail, and fraud promotions, gyp work-at-home schemes and the like.

It was pointed out that one of the stiffest prison terms ever administered to a "medical" con man was given to Roy Wright DeWelles, of Pass Christian, Miss., who made an estimated $1.5 million peddling a worthless "oxygen therapy" device known as Detox-acolon. DeWelles was arrested after sending out 10,000 postal cards promoting the quack scheme.

In another recent case at San Francisco, Edward H. Johnson, doing business as Comstock Land Company and E. H. Johnson Company, was sentenced to six months in prison, followed by four and one half years probation, for mail fraud. Johnson was also ordered to make restitution of $60,000 to purchasers of worthless desert land near Elko, Nevada. Postal inspectors accounted for nearly fifty investors who signed contracts totaling $250,000 in the belief that the famous Nevada Comstock Ranch was involved.

In Augusta Georgia, Homer

C. Ward pleaded guilty to mail fraud and was sentenced to two years probation for operating a "Faith healer Scheme." Public loss estimated in excess of $2,300.

It should be emphasized, the postmaster added, that most businesses doing business by mail are reputable firms, including many that may not be familiar to the prospective purchaser. However, if there is any doubt, it is best to get information from reliable sources before you act.

"In cases where there is a genuine basis for suspicion of fraud, we would like to have prompt information from the public, and your postmaster will see that appropriate action is taken," it was said.

One isn't enough, really, when it comes to feet.

You might say it takes two to tango, climb stairs or perform the majority of a person's ordinary tasks. People who have lost their feet, or at least lost use of them, may learn to compensate, but their words to two footed friends would invariably be "take care of your feet while you have them."

Feet are composed of the same types of bones, blood vessels, nerves, muscles, ligaments and skin that compose the rest of the body. Feet as easily as other organs of the body, may become diseased. As a matter of fact, some diseases, such as gout, manifest themselves first in the feet.

Proper foot care is essential for general health. And it must be begun early.

A baby's foot grows and develops along with the rest of his body. Not until about age ten is the general structure of the foot completed. Certain details of the formation are not perfected until after the twentieth year of life.

Parents who would be horrified at the thought of mashing a child's finger with a hammer, may be contributing — by neglect — to foot disorders.

Common causes of foot defects are short, narrow shoes; improper style of shoes; shoes that are too stiff; run-over heels and broken down arches; and short stockings that crowd the toes.

Children's feet grow and change at a rapid pace. Shoes and socks may need to be replaced as often as from four to eight weeks with a larger size.

Both children and adults need to give good daily care to their feet. Keep feet clean. Wash them with mild water and soap and dry the skin carefully. Avoid rubbing them too hard with a coarse towel.
