Locating Industry Takes A Lot Of 'Do-It-Yourself' Activities

"Securing industry for your county is a 'do-it-yourself' undertaking," Harry Clark, veteran of 27 years in industrial development and director of the state's industrial commission, told Eastland Countians last week.

Large Number Of Entries In For Pee Wee Boxing

There'll be lots of leather-sliding in the first annual Pee Wee Gloves Boxing Tournament to be staged in Ranger Friday and Saturday, Jan. 15-16.

Jack Allen, Ranger Junior College business manager and director of the two nights of fistic action, said late Friday that the large number of entries already signed for participation indicate that the card will be loaded.

Following elimination bouts Friday night, finals will be unreeled Saturday night. Champion and runner-up in each weight division and class will be awarded trophies, and team trophies will be presented to the championship team and runner-up in both novice and open divisions based on the number of points.

The divisions, according to Allen, will be separated in five pound brackets ranging from 45 to 105 pounds. Contestants must be under 12 years of age to be eligible to compete in the tournament.

day in connection with the "EC-65" seminar in Eastland, Clark said that the success of a given town or area in luring industry depends on the ability of its people to "sell" their town or area to industry.

"Putting Facts and Figures To Work" was the topic of his talk and he cited his own experiences while employed as a researcher for a world-wide firm which specializes in finding plant locations for clients. The firm had found, he said, that within a given 200-mile radius, there would be at least eight towns which would be suitable for the location of certain industry.

"The ability of one particular town to sell itself to the industry, after the industry had been determined if it can make a profit in that particular area, was usually the deciding factor in the location," Clark said.

His example was the first major plant he helped locate, ironically in his hometown of Gulfport, Miss., where Phillips Company built a milk of magnesia plant. He and the town learned later that the president picked the town "because the fishing was good there."

"Our goal at the Texas Industrial Commission and in the "EC-65" pilot program is to make available to you information from experts which you can use to 'sell' your county," he emphasized.

The purpose of the seminars is education — touching five points (community betterment, research, sites, financing and prospects) and after the first four are taken care of, the fifth, prospects will come, he said. And after you have thoroughly familiarized yourself with the first four you'll be ready to "sell" the prospects when they come.

City Bought Lots of Water Last Year

The City of Eastland bought 288,516,599 gallons of water from the Eastland County Water District during 1964, and that's a long drink of water.

The monthly totals are as follows, reports City Manager Lewis Tiner: The first two months, January and February, had the same total of gallons bought, 17,712,200 in March, 17,012,900 gallons; April, 20,313,700; May, 25,847,900; June, 33,804,500; July, 44,207,500; Aug., 35,157,800; Sept., 19,642,400; October, 23,935,299; November, 16,566,800; and in December, 16,613,600, which brought the total to 288,516,599 gallons.

As can be seen, peak usage was in July when the daily average was 1,473,589 gallons. The Water Board guarantees to provide the City of Eastland a maximum of 1,800,000 gallons of water a day.

This availability of excess water over what is presently consumed is being considered by officials during the deliberations on the request by Olden residents for water to be used in their proposed system.

As much as Eastland might want to sell water to Olden, this availability is a vital factor in the consideration, it is reported.

Texas has 207,345 producing wells in 8,000 fields.

ONE OF OUR fellow Fourth Estaters, with tongue in cheek no doubt, composed a list of answers to a questionnaire on what a newspaper subscriber would like to read.

And here, he reports, are the responses to what the average reader desires to see:

1. My name.
2. A front page article showing how crooked the city government is most of the time.
3. My wife's name.
4. A feature article showing 25 ways on how to cheat on income tax forms.
5. My kids' names.
6. A local news item about the affair my neighbor is having.
7. A classified ad offering a new home for sale for $4,000.
8. More news about law-breakers.
9. Less news about law-breakers. I was picked up last night and I should not have to pay a fine.
10. An editorial condemning high school teachers for being too liberal with "F's".
11. A wedding picture of the groom instead of the bride when he is more handsome than she is pretty.
12. A sports picture of me when I bowled 183.
13. More advertisements on things that merchants are giving away.
14. A front page picture of my neighbor being hauled out of the bar by his wife.
15. A front page spread about the deadbeat who lives across the street from me who just had his car repossessed.
16. Forget the last one. I just got word from the finance company that they're coming after my car.
17. More letters to the editor naming the crooks we have in town.

IF YOU DRIVE regularly, how do you compare with the average motorist?

Here are some nationwide statistics for you to use as a yardstick for better driving. The average driver:

1. Has one moving violation ticket every 3.7 years.
2. Has a serious moving violation, such as speeding, every 9.2 years.
3. Has a negligent property damage accident costing over $100 once in 10 years.
4. Has an accident involving a nonfatal injury every 68 years.
5. Would have to drive 16,400,000 miles before having a fatal accident. (The average motorist drives 500,000 miles in his lifetime.)
6. Drives 9,375 miles a year and 1,400 miles on vacation annually.
7. Gets a parking ticket every 2.8 years.
8. Gets a reckless driving ticket every 69.5 years.
9. Gets a speeding ticket every 15 years.
10. Gets a ticket for being under the influence of alcohol while driving every 436 years.

SEE BY THE papers that the M-K-T Railroad has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to abandon their branch line from Waco to Stamford, via Carbon and Cisco of Eastland County. Since the company has lost money on the operation for several years, it seems inevitable that the request will be granted.

This would mean a tax loss to the city, the school district and the county, which would hurt.

We recall that some 10 years ago, the M-K-T announced plans to abandon their passenger trains through this region. A lot of howls went up. A man came to see us, like he did others, and said that he wanted to ask one question.

"What," he said, "would you do if you were losing $245 per day?"

We didn't argue any further... You can't argue with economics.

Early Vehicle Inspection Urged For Area Motorists

AUSTIN — Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Department of Public Safety, has encouraged Texas motorists to "start the new year with a safe vehicle" by securing the 1965 vehicle inspection sticker without further delay.

The Public Safety Director said that approximately one-half of the inspection period has expired and only about one-fourth of the vehicles in the state have been inspected. He added that unless the inspection pace is stepped up, motorists may expect to find the usual waiting lines at the inspection stations when the April 15 deadline approaches.

The inspection stickers for 1965 have been available since September 1, Garrison said, "allowing ample time for all vehicles to be inspected without delay prior to the deadline. There can be no extension of the deadline and vehicles not displaying the new sticker will be in violation of the law after April 15."

There are 14 public inspection stations and one fleet station in Eastland County, Carl Boustead of Eastland, Motor Vehicle Inspection Patrolman, has announced.

They are:

Gorman: Smith Brothers Chevrolet; Rising Star; Butler Motor Co.; Cisco: Rutherford Chevrolet, Graham Motor Co., Huffman Motor Co., and Booth's Garage; Eastland: Allen Auto Repair, Hood King Motor Co., Muirhead Motor Co., City Garage, and Fullen Motor Co.; Ranger: Anderson Chevrolet Co., Crawford's Garage and Mission Garage.

The Lone Star Producing Co. station at Ranger is the one fleet center and does not accept public vehicles for inspections.

Territory covered by Boustead includes Eastland, Callahan, Stephens, Shackelford, Brown, Coleman and part of Taylor counties.

Patrolman Boustead urged county residents to have their vehicles inspected early for their own convenience as well as the inspection stations, to avoid the last-minute rush.

Texas now has more than 5,200 authorized inspection stations over the state. According to Garrison, these stations are ready and capable of handling the remaining un-inspected vehicles without delay provided vehicle owners do not wait until just a few days before the deadline.

He pointed out that the basic function of vehicle inspection is to detect and correct vehicle defects that might cause an accident. He said that last year vehicle defects contributed to fewer traffic accidents than ever before in Texas.

he said, and the thing is to be really ready when one comes along. Those who are, win. He cited Marshall, Tex., as an example, where one man has led the industrialization program so successfully and done so much for the town that he can't afford to leave even for better pay because he has so many good "suspects" working.

Clark briefly outlined the function of the state commission, pointing out that it is a small-budgeted, small-staffed organization, whose goal is to coordinate the work, efforts and ability of the some 217 professional industrial developers and hundreds of civic-minded individuals such as those at the meeting, in working toward the common goal of bringing industry to the state.

"We're in the information, not action, business," he said.

The state's broad advertising program, only recently begun, resulted in 275 inquiries last year, with three definite plant locations resulting. This week a Texas film, financed by private enterprise, will be previewed. It's called "Bob Hope Talks Texas," and features the national-comedian as narrator and is expected to be distributed by a major film distributor and will eventually be seen in over 5,000 theaters across the nation.

Jim Horton, vice president of the Rotary Club, and Leon Musgrove, Lion president, presided at the joint meet. Invocation was by the Rev. Lester Davenport, pastor the First Methodist Church, Eastland.

Larry Milner, West Texas coordinator for the TIC, announced that the third of the five seminars will be held Feb. 4, and it will be a tour of the county, beginning at Cisco at 8:30 a.m., and the theme will be sites. Visits will be made in Cisco, Eastland, Ranger, Gorman and Rising Star, with lunch in Rising Star with a critique by experts of the sites seen.

Approval was given to the "EC-65" steering committee to select an appropriate membership lapel pin, and the replacement of the organization's secretary - treasurer, who has resigned and moved from the county.

It will be the tallest concrete structure in the world, with a minimum height of 650 to 700 feet stretching almost 70 stories in the air. It will be constructed with a capital investment of $4.5 million and have observation decks and restaurants at the top and intermediate levels. # ARBOR DAY IS PROCLAIMED FOR TEXANS ON JAN. 15th Arbor Day, by official proclamation of Governor John Connally, will be observed in Texas, Friday, January 15.

Governor Connally in his proclamation said, "By resolution of the 51st Legislature, the third Friday in January each year was designated as Arbor Day. It was set aside as a day to encourage the planting of trees throughout the State, for pleasure and use of its citizens.

Trees provide Texans with many benefits. From our forests come fibre and wood for our daily needs, with employment and payrolls important to the economic growth of our State.

Trees also supply food and cover for wildlife, aid in regulating stream flow, protect soil against erosion by water and wind, and provide scenic beauty to our landscape.

The economic progress of our State is, to a large extent, dependent upon the forests, a renewable resource. To perpetuate this gift of nature our forests need protection from wild forest fires, insects and diseases.

Assisting in the protection of our useful and beautiful forests is the Texas Forest Service, a part of the Texas A&M University System; this year it is celebrating its Golden Anniversary.

"THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate Friday, January 15, 1965, as ARBOR DAY in Texas, and urge all citizens, especially the public schools, to appropriately observe this oc-

Thurber Natives Remember Duchess By Another Monicker -- 'Wildcat' Warfield

The presence of the Duchess of Windsor in Houston, here her husband, the Duke of Windsor, has recently undergone major surgery, has stirred the memories of former residents of Thurber.

The history of the rise and fall of Thurber, located in the northwest corner of Erath county, U. S. Highway 80 at the intersection of the former Wally Warfield, the Duchess of Windsor, the link connecting the two visits the Duchess made to Thurber when her grandfather, Col. Edward Dickey, was one of the owners of the fabulous coal mine and brick-making operation.

Mrs. Hazel Miller of Steadville, whose husband, Mr. Miller, was an executive in the Texas and Pacific Company, recalls vividly days Wally Warfield spent Thurber as a teen-ager. She would come and stay several weeks in the Colonel's mansion on New York Hill or his cottage on Thurber "Isle." Mrs. Miller said many of the young people thought she was an "oddy" because of her Baltimore background, but I always ended being with her. I invited her to our home for dinner, and she seemed very grateful for being invited.

Mrs. Miller recalled that Thurber was in its heyday the time the future Duchess made her visits. More than 2,000 homes lined the streets of the bustling community, which boasted a population of approximately 10,000. Starting with the discovery of a rich bituminous vein in 1887, Thurber shroomed into a brick-making business that soon became the largest in Texas, refined brick, used primarily paving purposes, soon found its way into virtually every city in the state. When displaced coal, the mines were closed. The clay, a by-product of the coal mining, used to feed the brick ovens, and the two primary industries of Thurber had Thurber itself did not die, just faded into the surrounding areas. The rows of homes, formerly occupied by the miners, did not rot but fell as a monument to ghost town, but they were one by one and moved the many small communities surrounding Thurber. As the houses, so went the people. Many of them moved to other towns in the area and entered occupations completely foreign to the mining ration they had previously known. The executive office of the Texas Pacific company moved to Fort Worth, and Thurber soon became a memory. Today, some people call it a ghost town, but most the oldtimers do not. It is never a town — it was a mining camp first and last, of the property and improvements were owned and operated by the Texas Pacific company. Its purpose was to mine coal. When the coal mining ceased, so did the camp.

Mrs. Miller, who came to Thurber when she was five years of age, smiled as she talked about a midnight frolic with the Duchess in some big, empty sugar barrels. "I was spending the night with Wally. She woke me up after midnight and we went outside and got the barrels. We'd get in them and roll down a steep hill toward the lake. Once I heard her say 'here goes nothing,' and she jumped into the lake," Mrs. Miller said. This type of antic probably led to the nickname "Wildcat" which Colonel Hunter bestowed on the Duchess.

"Little did Mrs. Miller, or any other person in Thurber, realize that their playmate would someday be involved in an international romance with the King of England. A romance that, in 1936, resolved into the now historical decision "My Kingdom for a Woman."

In a move that shook the royal roots of Great Britain, the King denounced his throne and married the beautiful "Wildcat" Warfield.

"I wish I could see her while she is in Texas," said Mrs. Miller, "and talk about the many wonderful visits we had in Thurber."

CJCTV Course Opening Soon

Three new full-time programs will be inaugurated by Cisco Junior College's Technical-Vocational School as the spring semester opens on February 1, 1965, according to an announcement by President G. C. Hogue.

Registration for the semester has already started, and prospects are good that spring enrollment will exceed 450 students, Mr. Hogue said.

The new programs are: Industrial Drafting Technology, Industrial Engine Technology, and Industrial Welding Technology. Director L. E. Jenkins of the T-V School said that each program would require four semesters or two years for completion and an Associate of Arts degree.

The college will have fully equipped shops in readiness for the engine and welding courses, Mr. Jenkins said. The drafting courses now being offered will be expended for the new program, he added.

Eligible for the new programs are students or individuals at least 18-years old with a high school education or the equivalent. High school drop-outs or those who have not been able to continue their high school education will be accepted on approval for certain phases of any one of the technology programs, according to Mr. Hogue.

Approximately 100 jobs for students in the programs are tentatively planned on the campus of the college, Mr. Hogue said. These will be under the College Work-Study Program of the Economic Opportunity Act. This means that students needing financial assistance may work while attending school and meet the majority of their total expenses, Mr. Hogue explained. This will include room and board, he added.

In addition, CJC has National Defense Student Loans available to students, Mr. Hogue said. The college offers a fully accredited program leading to degrees in virtually any field.

The T-V School also has started enrolling students for the Electronic Data Processing program for the spring semester. Anyone interested in the T-V programs or in ## from the hill . . .

By BILL HERRIDGE

I begin this installment of developments from the hill with the taste of Christmas goodies and the memories of another year gone by still lingering. I hope each of you had as wonderful holiday as I.

The final school assembly held before the holidays was presented by the Thespians, Speech and Drama Club. A one-act play, "A Stranger in Bethlehem" by Charles George, was enacted. Among the cast were Jimmy Finley, Jan Taylor, Julie Elrod, Mike Siebert, Sharron Sayre, Steve Clark, and Joe Taylor. Assisting with props, costumes, and script were Sharon Chick, Jeanie Hanna, Cheryl Sosebee Donna Ford Dixie Long Don Griffin Glenn Gray Kenny Cogburn and Butch Phillips. After singing Christmas carols and an encore of the "Little Drummer Boy" sung by the Mav band, Santa Claus, alias Coach Harold Price, along with his helpers, passed out candy to all the students.

Speaking of clubs, a few of the senior boys have been thinking about organizing a men's fraternity. We should like your opinion of this. If you see Colon Cagle or Kenny Cogburn, let them know how you stand on this.

Mr. Foster took a part of his crew to Abilene Saturday to compete in All-Region tryouts. Those band members who are going have been practicing more than average in anticipation of gaining a place in this band, which is indeed an honor.

The seniors had a class meeting Tuesday to discuss the College Board and ACT entrance tests. These tests are a required part of college entrance. Also discussed was a trip to T.C.U. for their annual Career Day. If any of you parents who have a senior in school could lend yourself and your car to the seniors for a worthy and enjoyable day, please contact Mr. Marshall.

We all enjoyed visits with Cy Frost and Barbara Barcus over the holiday. It was good to see them, and we hope they come again often.

Eastland High School Cagers are now leading District 10-A. With an excellent season record, the Mavs and Mavettes promise to come out on top this year. We are all proud of their record, and regardless of the outcome of the season, we stand behind them all the way.

With the thought of Semester Exams heavy upon my mind, I now close this chronicle of happenings from the Hill. Thanks for reading.

Firemen Meet At Mineral Wells

The North Central Texas Firemen's Association met in Mineral Wells last Tuesday night for their quarterly convention.

Ranger firemen won the six-man pumper races, and Breckenridge won for the women. Cisco won the trophy for the best time, 21 seconds, for six-man pumper races for the year. Included in officers elected was W. L. Darr of Cisco, first vice president.

The next convention will be held in Eastland in April.

T. Sgt. Marvin A. Young of Sheppard AFB visited his mother, Mrs. Beula Higgins of Eastland over the holidays and also his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hazard of Eastland.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Young of Wilcox Ariz. visited his mother, Mrs. Beula Higgins of Eastland recently.

New Victor Hotel Plans, Policies Are Announced

Plans for operating the Victor Hotel when he and his son officially take over about January 20 were announced Friday by Robert J. (Bob) Johnson, joint owner with his son. The Johnsons recently bought the eight-story structure from E. E. Bartholomew, owner since last July.

2. Change, in time, about half of the hotel to apartments which can be rented to transients as well as permanent guests.
3. Do some re-furnishing and redecorating.
4. Furnish a private or key club, if desired, by local populace.
5. Remodel immediately the vacant building next to the hotel and incorporate it into the other two dining rooms for a permanent type night club, bringing in such entertainers as Buck Owens, Wanda Jackson, Dave Dudley, Orville Couch and others, if the interest warrants.
6. The dining rooms will be open on Sunday for breakfast, lunch and dinner as well as other days.
7. Provide highest caliber entertainment for local and surrounding people to enjoy music and dancing. It will be necessary for a cover charge for the entertainment stars will cost up to 1500 per night.
8. Conduct an extensive advertising campaign within a 50-mile radius.
9. Participate in any program to exploit the various attractions in and around Cisco, including the lake, swimming pool, etc.

A potted plant makes a lovely gift for a person in the hospital, a gracious hostess or a birthday girl. They also take special care. Florist plants are grown in greenhouses. They are used to conditions there, so for best results they should continue to receive regulated light, heat and water.

A few of the more popular gift plants are listed below with their desired growing conditions:

Azaleas — Keep azaleas in diffused sunlight. They do best at temperatures of 55 to 60 degrees F. Water frequently.

Chrysanthemums — Potted chrysanthemums like full sunlight, temperatures between 60 and 70, and lots of water. Most potted mums are not satisfactory for later planting outdoors. Some new varieties, however, are. Ask your florist.

Cinerarias — Place them in a sunny window. They like temperatures from 50 to 60 degrees F. and frequent watering. Discard plant when the flowers are gone.

Cyclamen — Flowers last about 2 weeks if the temperature is kept at 70, longer at 50 to 55 degrees F. Never let water stand in the crown of the plant flower shoots and bases of leaves rot easily.

Hydrangeas — Provide abundant water and moderate light. After the plant has bloomed, cut it back to several internodes and replot.

Clothes cleaned in a coin-op drycleaning establishment may come out smelling of cleaning fluid. It's a good idea to air the clothes thoroughly before use or storage. Hang them outdoors or in a well-ventilated room — but do not use plastic hangers.

Sometimes enough solvent is left in heavy fabrics or shoulder pads to soften the plastic, even though the fabric does not feel damp. Then the hanger sticks to the fabric so that it is difficult to remove without damaging the garment. The same thing can happen if garments are hung on plastic hangers and exposed to fumes from moth preventives.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Ward last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell of Rising Star. Mrs. Mitchell is a cousin of Mrs. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Turner have returned from a recent visit in San Antonio with Mrs. Robert Turner and children. They also visited in Dallas with Mr. and Mrs. Billy Mitchell and in Grand Saline with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Turner.

SALES TAX TABLE PREPARED FOR USE OF TEXAS CITIZENS

Texas taxpayers may use a state sales tax table as a guideline when filing their 1964 federal income tax returns. Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue said the table is now available.

The table shows the average amount of state sales tax paid by Texas residents and may be used by taxpayers who itemize their federal income tax deductions. Similar tables have been prepared for 36 other states and the District of Columbia.

For the first time since 1960 when the tables were originally issued there has been a general revision of the amounts, Mr. Campbell said. The latest tables are based on summary data showing the patterns of consumer expenditures developed by the Bureau of Labor Statistics from a 1960-61 study. Previous tables were based on a 1950 study.

Previously, tables were revised only to reflect changes in sales tax rates or the commodities covered by the particular state's laws.

The recent study shows that household operations, property taxes, medical care, personal care services, education, and insurance have, for the most part, comprised a larger part of the total consumer expenditures in 1960-61 than they did in 1950. These items are not usually subjected to state sales taxes.

The new tables omit the state sales tax on automobiles purchased, thus providing a uniform treatment of this item for all states. Now taxpayers who purchase an automobile may add the sales taxes paid on the purchase to the amount shown in the table.

The result of the revisions, particularly the elimination of the allowance for autos, has reduced the amount shown on the sales tax tables. The new tables, however, are a more accurate measure of the average sales tax paid in the various states.

Internal Revenue reminds taxpayers that these tables are not required to be used. They are furnished as a taxpayers who itemize deductions on their federal income tax returns but who wish to use a "standard" amount for state sales tax which will not require detailed substantiation. Taxpayers have the choice, of course, of deducting the actual amount of state sales taxes paid. Cigarette taxes are no longer deductible in Texas, due to the tax law change in 1964. The average state sales tax table for Texas tells taxpayers they can deduct 5 cents per gallon.

Discover the difference in the '65 Chevrolets

(As different from other cars as they are from each other)

CHEVROLET — As roomy a car as Chevrolet's ever built.

When you take in everything, there's more room inside this car than in any Chevrolet as far back as they go. It's wider this year and the attractively curved windows help to give you more shoulder room. The engine's been moved forward to give you more foot room. So, besides the way a '65 Chevrolet looks and rides, we now have one more reason to ask you: What do you get by paying more for a car — except bigger monthly payments?

CORVAIR — The only rear engine American car made.

You should read what the automotive magazines say about the '65 Corvair. They're wild about its ride. They think there's nothing else this side of the Atlantic that you just don't know what you're missing.
