Opinions of experts being to the contrary, I still think the city comfinancial support of the city from the chamber of commerce. It puts that organization under a handicap and permits our neighbors both to the east and the west to have a decided advantage.

It's well enough to cut expenses. But there's such a thing as cutting them to where it ceases to be economy and becomes miserly pennywise and pound foolish. If a chamber of commerce is worth having it is worthy of the support of everybody, but when it is supported by popular subscription there is always the feeling on the part of some that certain others are not paying their share. Inciare not paying their share. Inci-dentally the feeling is well founded, too. But when the chamber is supported by a tax levy, the bur-den is evenly distributed and ev-

NO MORE LADIES.

Ladies aren't what they used to be, according to Mme. Louise Tetrazzini, grand opera favorite of yesterday, who has returned to America for a farewell tour. She can't find any, and she is sorry.

But the vast majority of American women-and men, too-are giving three cheers because ladies, in the crinoline, mignonette sense of the nice old world, are not. Pedestals were uncomfortable. Women are having a much more interesting time since they slid down. Men may not adore them so blindly but they like them much better. A lady on a pedestal could never get very close to life.

Elaine, who lived at Shalot, as you may remember, was a perfect lady. When Sir Launcelot rode away without making a return date she lay down and died. That was all a lady could do. But the modern girls, whom Mme. Tetrazzini does not call ladies, have a fairer, broader sense of values. They know what is around the corner. They have been there. And when they receive a blow or two they fight a little harder instead of sitting on a curbstone and Maybe it isn't ladylike. But it's a pretty good form of sportsmanship.

The word lady usually brings a drifting memory of dusky twilights, slim white hands that play with a silver tea service, voices sweet and a little breathless that sing old songs. The word lady has become confused with ro.

The dappointed in a certain Deed of Trust, recorded in Vol. 55, Page 207 of the Deed of Trust Records of Melvin E. Traylor are now preparing to stir up as much support as possible in Texas for each of the question of tying a state content of the question of the question of the political leaders are as flighty as the world is queer.

ANOTHER GERRYMANDER KNOCKED OUT.

Illinois has a republican governor and a republican legislature. In 1931, while the regular session was on, republican legislators enacted a congressional redistricting bill the order of W. D. Conway on the content of the content o which was denounced by democrats and independents as before six months after date, a brazen gerrymander as well as disfranchisement of democratic voters down state as well as in the city of Chicago.

Now the Illinois supreme court by a four to one vote has held that the reapportionment violated a federal law, passed in 1911, requiring congressional districts to be conceedings, which said deed of trust tiguous and to contain as nearly as possible an equal number of inhabitants, thus throwing the April primaries back to the old order and perpetuating the districts as they have been for 30 years.

Covers and creats a lien on the following described land and premises locate in Eastland County, Texas:

Lot 12, Block 5, Joe Young Addition to the City of Ranger, East-

It appears that practical politicians do not control the republican supreme court of the commonwealth of Illinois. The South one-half of Lots republican supreme court of the commonwealth of Illinois.

New York republican legislators were responsible for another braben redistricting scheme. Their plan was declared unconstitutional by a republican supreme court. Texas lawmakers failed to redistrict the state. Now unless the governor calls a special session three representatives must be elected at large and daily the press parades the names of Texas democrats who are willing to sacrifice themselves upon the altar of patriotism and perhaps for the salary attached to the job.

Can you identify these nationally prominent men by their silhouettes? Several are Democratic leaders who have risen to power in the present Congress, and all are active in Washington affairs. Here are some tips to help you.

1-A shrewd strategist, although hot-headed. He's the rising star of Democracy. He raises goats, cows, chickens and becans on his farm at home.

2-Once a jockey, he still loves horse racing and spends many afternoons at the track. A staunch Republican, he has already announced his candidacy for renomination. 3-A roaring wet, who likes to expose scandals, smokes a corn-cob pipe and can toot a trombone.

4-Powerful physically, oratorically and politically. A leading Democrat of the Senate. Did you vote for him in 1928?

5-Son of a famous father, he is winning recognition for his own abilities. He is only 36 and friends CHICAGO. - The Washington say he may be president some day. 6-He is 71, six feet tall, weighs 211 pounds and was once a champion boxer.

7-Probably the most picturesque member of the Senate. Wears exaggerated clothes, but wins many votes by his deliberate theatrics. And those whiskers ought to make him recognizable to anyone! Their names appear on page 3.

World Labor Conference To Plan Insurance

GENEVA. - An international convention requiring every signa-tory state to institute an obliga-tory old age, widows and orphans insurance is to be launched by this year's International Labor confer ence.

In addition the labor bureau has begun the drawing up of a draft project for such a convention to be submitted to the conference.

50 Plans.

Over 50 existing compulsory insurance laws have been carefully examined as a basis of the draft.
One of the principles, which it has found in all these existing laws is that insurance should be compulsory for wage-earners and this will be incorporated into the draft. In investigating the present status of compulsory old age, workmen's, widows' and orphans' insurance, the labor bureau has found that the first steps in this direction were taken by German, in 1889.

First Scheme. First Scheme.

For a long time it remained the only scheme of the kind in existence, but in 1906 the former Austrian empire also established a pension insurance scheme for nonmanual workers.

"I play safe by sticking to LUCKIES"

OH, WHAT A GAL IS MARY! She's one of the genuine beauties that even the camera cannot flatter. Sorrow and professional bad luck followed her for years. Now she's a bride...the studios clamor for her ...the public loves her...and the Hollywood sun is shining. Her new RADIO PICTURE is "MEN OF CHANCE"... Here's to you, Mary Astor! We're glad you smoke LUCKIES and we're grateful for that statement you gave us without a cent of payment.

"I can't afford to take chances with my voice. So I play safe by sticking to LUCKIES-they're always kind to my throat. And I'm doubly grateful for your improved Cellophane wrapper which opens so easily with that clever little tab."

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE-60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.
