Thomas Blanton sent me a cop of the Congressional Record in which he was one of the more prominent characters in a discussion. If I understand what I read of it, the racket came up over a bill to make prescription liquor dealers stop messing with labels and using bottles over again and selling sick folks rotten whiskey.

In the course of the spat be-tween Blanton and Laguardia of New York, they talked on many subjects and the report reads like maybe a stenographer had been maybe a stenographer had been present and taken down an ordinary street corner political discussion. Among other things, Blanton expressed himself as being opposed to Al Smith leading the Democratic national ticket, insisted that he (Blanton) is a declar. Democratic national ticket, insisted that he (Blanton) is a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, deplored the fact that many people think pro-hibition is a failure, insisted that prohibition is being enforced in the District of Columbia, and said that he was, is, and hopes to continue to be a supporter of prohibition.

A few rather catty remarks were passed, clothed, of course, in parlimentary terms and inuendo. It seemed to me that the whole bunch of congressmen were wasting a lot of time holding a political caucus on the floor of the House. You've never heard this column criticizing congress much. The congressmen probably know more about their jobs than I do. But it does seem like discussions of probable candidates for President might be a little out of order for discussions on the floor of the House of Representatives.

OUR CLUMSY CIVILIZATION

Perhaps the gravest charge that can be made against American civilization today is that it is clumsy.

By that, of course, is meant simply that it no longer seems able to adapt itself quickly or easily to changed conditions. Its machinery creaks and rattles whenever it has to realign itself. There is no elasticity.

An extremely homely and commonplace illustration will show how that is.

A menu card from the dining room of a large hotel in Kansas City came to hand recently. It listed, among other things, three club breakfasts. They are worth examining.

One combination, offering cooked cereal with cream, toast and coffee, was listed at 50 cents. The second, offering fruit, a rasher of bacon, toast and coffee, listed at 75 cents. The third, which included fruit, ham or bacon and eggs and toast and coffee, was offered for $1.25.

Now at this moment the price of foodstuffs is about as low as it has ever been. The farmer has to sell his eggs at approximately 15 cents a dozen. The wheat which goes into such items as toast and cooked cereal has hit such a low price that the whole wheat belt is in dire distress. Ham is quoted on the wholesale markets at about 15 cents a pound; choice breakfast bacon, in the same markets, is listed from 15 to 25 cents a pound.

And yet, in a hotel in the very heart of the richest farm-taxpayers in two Northwest Texas ing land in North America, you must pay a dollar and a counties have followed Central quarter for an orange, a plate of bacon and eggs and some Texans in demands for cutting of toast and coffee!

Now all of this, of course, is not exactly anyone's fault.

At Crowell a mass meeting of Any hotel man will assure you, plaintively, that hotel owners are not getting rich these days; indeed, the hotel that is breaking even considers itself lucky. The farmer as was is breaking even considers itself lucky. The farmer, as was fusal of a demand that they re-remarked before, isn't getting the money. The commission merchants and the retailers aren't precisely waxing cent. The court agreed to a 25 per

But somewhere there is a lag, a clumsiness, that lands three cents worth of eggs in the place of honor on a $1.25 served up a petition asking that all breakfast

Our national life won't be healthy until we have found and all possible expenses be lopped some way of cutting down price discrepancies of that kind.

McADOO HAS A TAXATION PLAN

A Californa correspondent writes that the wet demograts of the Golden Coast state are going to nominate William Gibbs McAdoo as the democratic candidate for United States senator in opposition to Senator Samuel Shortridge, republican. If this happens and the former secretary of the treasury wins all the wet democrats and the dry voters in Southern California, it should be easy for him to make a landing. He has taxing plan. His proposal is a 100 per cent income tax on bootleggers and narcotic peddlers. This he says would be one of several ways in meeting the treasury deficit.

While in Brest some of the gobs from the two boats helped the French celebrate Bastile day, or some such occasion, by helping the Frogs drink up a good quantity of cognac and vin rouge and other assorted drink up a good quantity of cognac and vin rouge and other assorted beverages of first one kind and another. There were plenty of pleasantries without anything more serious happening than one of the sailors from our ship misjudging the distance from the dock to the motor-seiler and stamping into the motor-sailer and stepping into the Gironde river and about a dozen others jumping in to try to save him and, in turn, having to be pulled out of the water.

But Bobby's ship was not in Paulliac—if that is the way to spell it—the day about half the crew from out boat swiped a freight train from some Frogs while they were taking time out while they were taking time out to drink a bottle of wine. We were not along as it was our day to stay aboard and work, but we remem-ber we could hear the whistle of ber we could hear the whistle of the switch engine, which had been tied down so that it blew con-'inuously, as two or three hundred sa'lors helped switch a half dozen of 'hose little 40 and 8 box cars joyously over the yards and get them so well assorted that it took the Frenchmen the rest of the day get the train made up again. All of which means nothing at

A day or two later Bobby startmore enthusiastic about them. The stiffness has mostly worn off and all are claiming to feel better than they have in months they have in months.

We have been trying to get up e nerve and the time to take a few of his exercises, but we are afraid we are getting so old that it would make us sore and stiff the first day and we have made so much fun of our wife that we hate to give her an opportunity of getting back at us.

A day or two later Bobby started up his ladies' classes in gymnsium work and for several days there were several ladies—our wife included—who walked around as though they were trying to do an imitation of Charlie Chaplin. WASHINGTON. - An entirely new complexion was noted on the new complexion was noted on the face of the democratic political field after Newton D. Baker's announcement that he is opposed to a League of Nations plank in his party's platform this year. For all intents and purposes, that was the farmer war secretary's unofficial potice that he is in a receptive grood for the nomination.

lenzculbertson is finished, some of the aces that look good now are going to be badly dented.

The wiseacres may all eat to the glory of Jackson and look forward to victory in November, but they won't know where they are until they have heard from Al. It is of course idle to make predictions at this early day, and I won't attempt it. All that need be said just now is that the two-thirds rule will stop any candidate who doesn't have the any candidate who doesn't have the

Does Mr. Smith want another nomination? If I could answer that question I might be able to tell you some things that wouldn't happen when the democrats congregate in the home town of the great Bill Thompson.

It is estimated that fully two-thirds of the 101 members of the democratic national committee are on the Roosevelt bandwagon. If the whole 101 were aboard it wouldn't mean anything. Whoever gets the nomination must bag 770 gets the nomination must bag 770 delegates. If he can't his chances will be about as cheerful as a Chinese morgue on a Sunday morning. Wherefore, some potential candidates are going to be all wet even though they duck the prohibition question.

The call of the Bull Moose is being heard in these parts. Some being heard in these parts. Some old-time progressives are saying that the time is at hand to put the skids under Mr. Hoover. There are those who boldly declare that if delegates pledged to Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania were to be entered in the republican presidential reinverse they could turn dential primaries they could turn the republican convention upside down. One old-time Bull Mooser told me here that he believes a sufficient number of Pinchot delegates could be elected to prevent Hoover's renomination. With the primaries only a few weeks away, that would seem to be a pretty large order to fill on such short notice. Yet stranger things have happened. See what Mr. Hearst is trying to do with Jack Garner. The straight of the Shanghai front.

by the first seed in ternally and the first success over which the battle of 1912 was fought were not half as powerful as the issues which Pinchot delegates could raise today.

In 1912 this gentleman was all for forming a new party; whereas this year he is for remaining in the republican fold and stampeding the animals. When one sees a man as enthusiastic and hopeful man as enthusiastic and hopeful as that in these doleful times, how could one dampen his ardor?

I was not a bit surprised at Sen-ator Couzens' attack on Presiden Hoover's appointment of Thad H. Brown of Ohio as a member of the federal radio commission for the full term of six years, to succeed Ira E. Robinson, who resigned when it became apparent that he was not to be reappointed.

Senator Couzens characterized the nomination of Brown as a "political appointment," and said he was opposed to the president's using the radio commission as ing the radio commission as a medium for discharging political Observing the gentleman from close range, I can understand why Senator Couzens opposes this particular nomination. He hasn't been inspired to believe that the Cun'l will work very hard in bringing the radio monopoly to book whenever the combine violates the radio act, as it did in its patent racketeering.

Mr. Hoover now has two Browns ofrom Ohio in the public service at Washington, the other being the postmaster-general. In fact he seems to be partial to the Browns. Ohio iust now is democratic, Wherefore, the Browns of Ohio.

"I protect my voice with LUCKIES"

THE LOWE-DOWN! Nervel Why Edmund Lowe's a daredevil and a great guy...he was one of the first to wear a HIGH HAT TO A PRIZEFIGHT!

He can get away with it, because he's got the punch and six feet of brown! He's a college graduate. Eddle might have been a big league ball player if the movies hadn'tsnatched him. He's a shrewd business man and has made a fortune. We don't know how much FOX paid him for "THE CISCO KID," but it was worth it. For six years he has smoked LUCKIES. He gets paid plenty for most things, but was paid nothing for his signed statement. We're deeply grateful, Edmund Lowe.

"It's that delightful taste after a cup of coffee that makes LUCKIES a hit with me. And naturally I protect my voice with LUCKIES. No harsh irritants for me . . . I reach for a LUCKY instead. Congratulations on your improved Cellophane wrapper. I can open it."

Your Throat Protection - against irritation - against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE-60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.
