All Ready For Lions Session

Coloradoans Visitors At Local Club's Weekly Meeting

Preparations are complete for the opening of the district 2-T Lions convention here Sunday, members of the club were told by Grover C. Dunham, chairman of arrangements, at the meeting Wednesday noon.

Reports from the various committees bore out the observation of the chairman as chairmen reported that arrangements were complete virtually for every phase of entertaining the guests while in Big Spring.

Special guest of the club Wednesday was Joe Pond, Colorado, deputy district governor. Pond spoke briefly, disclosing that the Colorado convention in a large group. With him were Jimmie Greene, Colorado secretary of the chamber of commerce, and Rev. Dick O'Brien, member of the Colorado club.

Decorations were issued to members of the organization and committees organized to superintend the placing of decorations Saturday night in four places to be frequented by Lion delegates.

Crenshaw Cleared In Case Involving City Building Code

A verdict of not guilty was returned by a corporate court jury today for J. P. Crenshaw, charged with violation of the city building code. The verdict was returned after approximately two hours deliberation.

Charges grew out of an addition which Crenshaw made to his home, which is within the fire limits more than a year ago. The city contended that he had failed to erect a fireproof structure in accordance with the building code while the defense claimed that Crenshaw had conformed to the terms of a building permit issued him.

Wilbur Barcus was counsel for defense while Thomas J. Coffey, city attorney, represented the city.

Mrs. Louis Powell, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. R. D. Matthews, left Wednesday for her home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Walker and Miss Andrea Walker left Wednesday for a motor trip through South Texas.

Engineer Here For Water Survey Work

Penn Livingston, associate engineer of the U.S. geological survey, arrived here Wednesday to assume charge of a ground water survey of the Big Spring area.

Since his appointment to the project more than a week ago, Livingston has been compiling data from the files of the state board of water engineers and other information available on the water situation of this area.

His work is scheduled to require approximately six months. Half of the time will be spent in the field, and about half in compiling information uncovered.

In addition to checking possible underground supplies, the survey will touch upon an investigation of likely dam sites.

Several men will be associated with Livingston at certain stages of the work. He has established offices in the city hall in connection with the engineering department.

Well Rated At 200 Barrels

Wallace No. 3 Bell Southwest Of Magnolia's Mitchell Pool

R. J. Wallace No. 3 A. M. Hill section 12-30-11, T&P, was rated Wednesday at 200.55 barrels following a proration test.

The well, located near the Mitchell county line and slightly southwest of the Magnolia pool in Mitchell county, is bottomed at 2,807 feet. It topped the lime at 2,565 feet and was shot with 60 quarts from 2,565-2,807 feet.

Plugs were drilled Tuesday night on the John I. Moore No. 1 TXI-wildcat test midway between the East Howard and Chalk pools. It drilled in pay from 2,703-25 feet and showed 100 feet of oil in the hole in an hour and a half. The oil pay was bridged for protection and 2,300 feet of six and five-eighths casing run. Interest is attached to the test because of its location and because it is located in the center of three abandoned tests, all of which had good shows.

The last of the three, the John I. Moore No. 1 Snyder was abandoned after pumping as much as 40 barrels a day. Work has been started on the Fleetborn Oil Co. No. 1 J. H. Taylor, a diagonal southwest offset to the Dodson and Duffy No. 1 J. G. Carter estate, small discovery well in north-central Glascock county. Location is 330 feet out of the northeast corner of section 18-33-34, T&P.

Albert M. Fisher, who has been in the eastern markets, including New York, is expected to return to Big Spring Wednesday evening. Mr. Fisher has been in the east in the interest of the Albert M. Fisher company department store.

$2 PAID SCHOOLS ON APPROPRIATIONS

AUSTIN, April 28 (UP)—The department of education announced today release of warrants representing a $2 payment on the current scholastic apportionment and leaving an unpaid balance of $6. The payment totaled $3,125,780. Superintendent L. A. Woods said warrants were not mailed 47 counties because they had not qualified by filing an approved depository bond for the 1937-38 biennium.

NARCOTICS DEALER RELEASED ON BOND

DALLAS, April 28 (AP)—Louis Ginsberg, portly narcotic ring leader who drew the heaviest penalty ever assessed a convicted dealer—50 years—was released from the Dallas county jail today under a $5,000 appeal bond issued by the United States circuit court at New Orleans.

One of Ginsberg's lieutenants, Uhle Eichenbaum, under a 10-year sentence, also was released under similar bail. Howard Dailey, Ginsberg's attorney, said the New Orleans court also had agreed to an appeal bond for Guy Payne, a third convicted member of the ring, and that he would be released upon arrangement of the bond.

ROUND-THE-WORLD AIRPLANE SERVICE NOW IS A REALITY

HONGKONG, April 28 (AP)—A thirty-year dream of round-the-world air service became reality today with the arrival of the Hongkong Clipper from Manila on the first regular flight between the two cities. The clipper, bridging the last 700-mile gap in the America-Asia service, placed the final link in an airplane chain whereby it is possible to encircle the world in less than a month, using scheduled commercial planes.

The craft brought 2,500 pounds of American cargo, including 100,000 letters and newspapers from the United States only six days old.

BRITISH BOXING ENJOYS BOOM

LONDON, April 26 (AP)—British heavyweights, long the subject of impulsive laughter, are moving back toward the traditions of the British ring...

Irish Jack Doyle's decisive victory over King Levinsky, the Chicago fishmonger, coming on top of Tommy Farr's triumph over Max Baer, has given the British heavyweights prestige not enjoyed since the halcyon days of the London prize ring rules.

The King, who met many American heavyweights with more stuff than he showed against Doyle, didn't have a chance against the Irishman. Doyle, a fair boxer, stayed away from Levinsky's swings and cut up the Kingfish from long range throughout 12 rounds.

Introducing: Joe Davis, playing manager of the Midland Cardinals in the West Texas-New Mexico baseball league this year.

Davis is a youngster, only 23, but goes to the Midland club on the recommendations of a man conceded to be one of the smartest, if not the smartest, in baseball—Branch Rickey—generalissimo of the far-flung Cardinal chain system.

Davis is a pitcher, and the first thing that enters a person's mind when they see him is how he could get anybody out, because he is so small. Probably about 5 feet, 8 inches, and will weigh about 150.

He has been playing professional ball for five years and this year was listed with the Columbus, Ohio, Red Birds as a regular until he was sent down here. During his first three years he was with Greensboro, North Carolina, and for the past two years has been with Huntington, West Virginia, of the Middle Atlantic League, a Class-C circuit.

Dawson, a former Big Six conference mile and 2-mile champion, was Jacobs' first contribution to the U. S. stepplechase team at the Olympics in 1932 and 1936.

Probably Jacobs never would have started training stepplechasers had it not been that his all-victorious medley relay team of 1926 missed its event at the Penn relays in Philadelphia that year.

ARE YOU A WEAK WOMAN?

Coach Learns A New Event—His Boys Break The Record

NORMAN, Okla., April 28 (AP)—John Jacobs, University of Oklahoma track coach, who never saw a stepplechase until eight years ago, has developed a man for Uncle Sam's Olympic stepplechase team the last two times and now has another prospect in line for the 1940 Games.

His latest protegee is Floyd Lochner, former National Intercollegiate 2-mile champion and new American 2-mile stepplechase record holder.

With only four weeks of practice behind him, Lochner set a new mark of 10 minutes 15 seconds in the 2-mile stepplechase at the New Orleans Sugar Bowl meet last December.

JOHN JACOBS

and Glen Dawson, former University of Oklahoma star. McCluskey's mark of 10:04.8 had been recognized previously as the American record.

Lochner never tried the stepplechase until last fall, at the conclusion of the fall meets, during which he captured the Big Six conference 2-mile crown.

Uses "Hurdle" Method Coach Jacobs built a course for Lochner to practice on during his last two months of eligibility at the university.

In setting his record, Lochner used Jacobs' new style which substitutes "hurdle" for "jump." Hurdles on a stepplechase course always have interested the Sooner coach, who was high and low hurdles champ of the old Southwest conference 20 years ago.

He had his first chance to test his theory last spring in the Olympic tryouts when he suggested to Manning, present holder of the American 3,000-meter stepplechase record, to try hurdling the bar at the water jump instead of leaping over it.

on top of it and then into the water. Manning tried it, worked on this new form, and a few weeks later set the new American 3,000-meter record of 9:05.2 at Randall's Island in the finals of the Olympic trials.

Entered By Accident Dawson, a former Big Six conference mile and 2-mile champion, was Jacobs' first contribution to the U. S. stepplechase team at the Olympics in 1932 and 1936.

Probably Jacobs never would have started training stepplechasers had it not been that his all-victorious medley relay team of 1926 missed its event at the Penn relays in Philadelphia that year.

They decided to enter the stepplechase, the only thing left on the program. It sounded like the English sport of fox and hounds to the Oklahoma boys.

Anderson Team Tallies In 10th Inning To Defeat Gasers, 4 To 3

In a game played under protest, Ben Daniel's Anderson Devils won their second game of the season Tuesday night on the Muny diamond by defeating the Owens Gasers, 4-3, with a run in the tenth inning.

The Gasers were leading until the Devils tied the count with a marker in the ninth frame, but the Anderson players had the punch to go ahead after they had once tied the score.

Deputy Sheriff Andrew Merrick was en route to Florence, Ariz., Wednesday to gain custody of Donald Allen Drake, alias J. A. Blake, wanted here on a forgery indictment returned in 1935.

He was captured at Florence last week after a two-year search on merit here. Drake, as a "mail order" detective school graduate, is alleged to have passed forged instruments here, and to have later flaunted his victims with letters.

On the return trip, Merrick planned to pick up another prisoner in El Paso.

Versatile Motif
By RUTH ORR
Pattern No. 253
Whether it's a tablecloth, bedspread, centerpiece, runner, or almost any other lacy decoration you want, this motif can be easily used. It is the sort of design that will be handsome on your polished dinner table, and equally charming over a colored blanket on your best bed. For the dinner cloth we suggest No. 29 mercerized crochet cotton, while knitting and crochet cotton is more suitable for a bedspread. The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand illustrated directions, with diagrams to aid you; also what crochet hook and what material and how much you will need.

Shakespeare No Highbrow, But Wrote For The 'Gallery,' Professor Says

Shakespeare wrote not only for the boxes, but for the galleries. Prof. William Strunk, Jr., of Cornell university, noted authority upon the works of Shakespeare, objects strenuously to the idea of "popularizing" the plays of the great dramatist. "For," ask Professor Strunk, "how can 'Romeo and Juliet' be made into a 'popular' version - a play that has been 'popular' for more than 300 years? 'Romeo and Juliet' is a classic only because of its long popularity. The idea that Shakespeare wrote for a bookish few is erroneous. Shakespeare in his own time did not write for a few, he wrote for the people. 'Shakespeare won the favor of Queen Elizabeth, the Earl of Southampton and King James, it is true, but he also won the favor of the popular audiences that filled the Swan and Globe and Blackfriars theatres, and those who later sat in the top galleries of Drury Lane and Covent Garden, as well as those who sat in boxes. 'The same is true today. The galleries appreciate Shakespeare fully as much as the boxes.' Professor Strunk, who spent a year in Hollywood as literary adviser on 'Romeo and Juliet,' starring Norma Shearer and Leslie Howard, does feel, however, that the motion picture can bring Shakespeare to many more than is possible through any other medium. The new picture plays next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ritz theatre. 'The producers of 'Romeo and Juliet,'" said Professor Strunk, "were primarily concerned with doing justice to the beauty of the play and with being faithful to Shakespeare's conception of the romance. They took no profane liberties and permitted no additional dialogue. Every word spoken was from the text of the play. 'Their task was twofold: to present the play in such a form that those to whom its poetic lines are a treasure possession and who may have seen it many times upon the stage will welcome this presentation in a new medium, and at the same time to assure its acceptance by that great part of the public which has never had a chance to see the 'balcony scene' acted and, indeed, may not even have read the play.'

Home Ec Representatives Leave For Homemaking Rally In Fort Worth
Big Spring representatives to the State Homemaking Rally were to leave late this afternoon for Fort Worth where they will attend sessions through Saturday. Two List Applications For Membership In Rebekah Lodge
Two applications for membership in the Rebekah lodge were received Tuesday evening when the chapter met for drill practices prior to the initiation ceremonies next week when Miss Marguerite Bennett and Miss Lois Pendergrass will become members. Plans were outlined for a Mother's Day program. There is $1,000,000,000 worth of silver bullion in the United States Treasury.

Four Aces Club Entertained At Hawaiian Party

A pretty Hawaiian party was given for members of the Four Aces club Tuesday when Miss Agnes Currie entertained at her home in Edwards Heights. All bridge accessories were sent to Miss Currie from Honolulu by Miss Catherine Young. Prizes that were attractively wrapped and decorated with large flowers included what-nots of palms, Hawaiian huts and dolls, and cards designed with Hawaiian scenes. Miniature leis in brilliant colors were presented as party favors. Prizes were awarded to Miss Irene Knauts for her high score, and Mrs. Matt Harrington, Mrs. George Gentry and Mrs. Travis Reed, all of whom cut high at their respective tables. Guests of the club were Mrs. Gentry, Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Robert Currie. Others playing were Mrs. Loy Acuff, Mrs. Charles Frost, Mrs. Ward Hall, Mrs. Ben LeFever, Miss Mary Fawn Coulter, and Miss Enid Arviett.

WANTS HOT OIL LAW MADE PERMANENT

WASHINGTON, April 23 (AP) - Secretary Ickes recommended today that congress make the Connally "hot oil" act a permanent law for conservation of the nation's oil and gas resources. The act, passed in 1933, will expire June 15 unless extended. It prohibits shipment in interstate commerce oil, gas and petroleum products produced in excess of the amount permitted under state laws. A bill making the act permanent has passed the senate and is before a house interstate commerce subcommittee for study. Describing "wasteful" production methods that prevailed before the act was passed, Ickes told the subcommittee the measure had done much to establish orderly production.

New Managers Of Vast Rail Empire Face Govt. Scrutiny

NEW YORK, April 23 (AP) - Three comparatively unknown young financiers embarked today upon new careers as rulers of the $3,000,000,000 Van Sweringen railroad kingdom, with the prospect of close scrutiny of their financial coup by two state agencies. The sale of securities controlling the 28,000-mile railroad system which O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen developed, to Robert R. Young and Frank F. Kolbe, New York stock exchange partners, and Allen R. Kirby, Wilkes Barre, Pa., philanthropist, is subject to the approval of the interstate commerce commission. The three new Titans of the railroad industry who bought George A. Ball's interest from his corporate creation, Mid America, Inc., indicated they had obtained informal Washington approval. Officials in the capital were quick to say the interstate commerce commission would look into the sale. In addition, a full inquiry was promised by Sen. Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, chairman of the senate committee investigating railroad financing. Wheeler said: "This is a typical example of what can be done with holding companies. Billions of dollars worth of property can be tossed around for a few millions dollars. It's absolutely wrong. We shouldn't have holding companies controlling the economic destinies of millions." The new owners promised in a statement to "do all we can to restore values consistent with sound public policy." In financial circles, it was said the sale price was about $5,000,000.

BACK FROM FISHING JAUNT ON COAST

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Eason and Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Eason returned Tuesday evening from a 10-day fishing expedition on the Texas coast at Port Aransas, Corpus Christi and the Gulf of Mexico. The Easons reported excellent luck, catching approximately 500 pounds of fish in many varieties. While at Port Aransas, the Easons were guests of the Humble Oil company for a yachting expedition into the Gulf of Mexico.

Hotel Is "Home, Sweet Home" To Veloz And Yolanda, Dancers

Veloz And Yolanda Frank Grabs All The Easy Parts

By SIGRID ARNE AP Feature Service Writer NEW YORK — Two impertinent black birds are all the "home" Veloz and Yolanda have. They hang their hats just now in a suite at the Plaza hotel on Central park. But soon they'll be off to dance in London's gilt-edged night clubs. They'll hurry back to the Plaza, then on to Miami. That's the way they've lived the whole eight years they have been married. So they haven't a single stick of what other people call home: lounge chairs, towels or potted ivy.

The two black birds (they look like crows and chatter like parrots) fill the bill instead. Veloz and Yolanda haul them everywhere in cages equipped with hot water bottles to keep the temperature right. They call 'em "Schnuckie" and "Gaby." "Schnuckie" waddles about looking wise, and croaking at Veloz: "Nobody home. When do we go out?" "We don't go out much. Veloz and Yolanda are in the four-figure-a-week salary class. There's only one other pair of dancers who rate such money. So the Veloz pair take very good care of their health. Met At Contest When they met they had no thought of spangled dresses for Yolanda; now they confer for hours over such delicacies. She was a little Italian-American high school girl who decided to try her luck at a public dance contest in New York. Frank, the son of a Dutch mother and a Venezuelan father, was working in a credit office. He happened to enter the same dance contest.

They danced exhibitions, earning nothing, rode to the ballrooms on subways, and had coffee and doughnuts afterward. But they kept on until contracts came. Then they realized they had never taken a dancing lesson, and sludged. The "Apache" dance was popular. They walked into a studio and put down $15 to learn it. Then another horrible truth dawned. They had made up so many dances that they couldn't learn any from anyone else. So they got a $7.50 refund. That's the only "lesson" they ever took. They call their dances "routines." They pick up ideas for them anywhere. For instance they went to see Frank Buck's "Bring 'Em Back Alive," and they were so entranced by the fight of the python and the tiger that they created the "Cobra Tango" which they do now at the Plaza during dinner and the after-theatre hour.

Jig-Saws Break Monotony Their work keeps them chained to the hotel. They eat their dinner early, about four in the afternoon, to feel light for their first program at the dinner hour. They hide out in their apartment until the midnight show. Yolanda just had a bright idea about that bliding out. She rushed out and bought Frank four jig-saw puzzles of 300 pieces each. That keeps them busy between programs. Frank grabs all the easy parts. "But he puts together twice as much as I do," she smiles. "Schnuckie" flops onto the puzzle at that point, and announces solemnly "Nobody home." Tomorrow: Helen Jepson and George Possell.

3 Forsan Girls To Represent Club At Rally

Three girls, Myrtle Diester, Emma Hoar, and Josephine Crumley, will represent the Forsan home economics department and the Forsan chapter of Future Homemakers at the state Home-maker Rally in Fort Worth this week-end. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Thomas E. Pierce, their instructor.

The party is to leave here Wednesday afternoon for Abilene where they will be guests of Ruby Campers, head of the home economics department of that school. Thursday they will resume their journey to Fort Worth.

P-T.A. Officers Are Installed At School

Twenty-four major officers of the local Parent-Teacher associations were installed in joint ceremonies Tuesday afternoon at the high school auditorium when more than 100 parents and teachers gathered for the event. Mrs. Hayes Stripling, third vice president of the sixth district of Parents and Teachers Congress, officiated.

The receiving line was composed of the president of the various units. A musical program arranged by Mrs. Charles Koberg included several selections by the school band, a piano solo by Mrs. Anne Gibson Houser and vocal solos by Miss Edith Gay and Ira M. Powell. After the ceremonies Mrs. James T. Brooks, assisted by Mrs. Ira Thurman and Mrs. Joe Fisher, served punch from a large covered table adorned with bowls of wild flowers.

In an address to the group by Mrs. H. W. Smith, council president, she spoke of the hopes and aspirations of the associations for the coming year and urged the unit presidents to put forth every effort toward achievement of the standard goal. The associations have earned only eight of the 12 points necessary for attaining this primary step and the president voiced hope of the groups reaching the first goal and working on the superior one.

Coahoma Club Is Winner In HD Play Contest

Coahoma Home Demonstration club's entry in the dramatic tournament sponsored by Howard County Home Demonstration club won the $2.00 cash prize offered by the group for the best one-act play of the high school auditorium Tuesday evening.

The winning play, "The Innocent Drummer," was presented by Mrs. and Mrs. C. H. DeVaney and Mrs. V. H. Wyatt. Second place was awarded the Center Point players and third place went to the Elbow club. A large audience filled the auditorium to hear the presentations of the eight clubs that included, other than the prize winners, Cramer, Hiway, Overton, Vestmore and Vincent.

The tournament was given to afford entertainment as well as to raise money for the Home Demonstration council. Hoosier Score Highest At 1936 Club Party Mrs. H. C. Hoosier, Sr., and Harvey Hoosier, Jr., were highest scorers Tuesday evening when Mrs. C. E. Shaw entertained for the 1936 Bridge club at her home. Mrs. E. W. Lowmore was bingo winner. Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parker. A refreshment plate was served to Mr. and Mrs. Lowmore, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gage, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hahn, Mrs. Hoosier and Messrs. Hoosier, M. C. Lawrence and C. M. Shaw.

WHEN WE STOP GREASY INDIGESTION WE FEEL JUST FINE Our stomach can't digest grease. Neither can our bowels. They are greasy pipes working with our bile juice, can digest grease. When we get bad taste, headache and that nasty gassy feeling which comes from greasy indigestion, take 1 Carter's Little Liver Pills before each meal and 1 after. Carter's Little Liver Pills bring a large flow of our pancreatic juice and bile juice into our bowels. The large flow of these juices digests the grease we have eaten. Then we send into life new bile and our work like a joyous skyrocket. And if you want this glorious relief from greasy indigestion, get your druggist for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and authoritatively refuse to buy anything else. 20c.

Reading AND Writing By John Selby

I have driven my harassed wife almost frantic for two days by chasing her around the house insisting that she listen "to just one short piece." She thinks the pieces are as good as I think they are but maintains that she has things to do.

All these excerpts worth reading aloud come out of one book—William Dean Howells' "Forty Years on Main Street." This book was written by Mr. White, all right, but piecemeal. It is a collection of editorials and such from the Emporia Gazette, selected by Russell H. Fitzgibbon and handsomely introduced by Frank C. Clough, Mr. White's managing editor.

It contains every sort of prose from the masterpiece written by Mr. White on the death of his daughter Mary to an equally fabulous yarn about the crusade of the Arkansas City, Kans., ladies against the Coca-Cola habit. And all of them suggest, in fact more than suggest, a certain picture. It is of the Gazette building, between the post office and the light company on the street south of Commercial street in Emporia. It is of Mr. White's littered study, and particularly of Mr. White at his roll-top desk rooting in a stack of papers which has been growing for 40 years.

It is of Mr. White pecking at the most peculiar typewriter in captivity, stopping between taps for a chat with any Emporian who wants to chat. And lastly it is of Mr. White as the heart of a little city, a kind of perambulating center of the good life in Kansas. Mr. White's what he wanted and he got it; national fame came as a by-product.

It should be added that Mr. Clough has produced a new high in prefaces. This is because he tells exactly what the stranger needs to know about Mr. White, and then stops talking. Diner was served at foursome tables. Yellow calendulas furnished a decorative note. Mrs. Malone was highest scorer and Miss Emily Bradley was second high. Players were Mrs. Malone, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. P. Teague, Mrs. Jim Zack, Mrs. Tom Donnelly, Mrs. W. J. Donnelly, Mrs. Hazel Sumner, Mrs. Fred Read, Mrs. Constance McEntire, Mrs. Golden and Misses Bradley and Jeannette Barnett.

Mrs. Gene Davenport Guest of Deuce Club Bridge-Luncheon

Mrs. Gene Davenport of Wynnewood, Okla., was the only guest of the Deuce club Tuesday when Mrs. Jimmie Tucker was hostess for luncheon and bridge at her home. The players were seated about foursome tables that were attractively centered with bowls of pink snapdragons. After lunch the afternoon was spent playing bridge at which Mrs. Shellie Barnes scored highest. Mrs. Jimmie Shipman was bingo winner and Mrs. L. R. Terry took the floating prize. Places were laid for Mrs. Davenport, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Shipman, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Watson Hammond, Mrs. B. F. Franklin, Mrs. R. H. Miller and the hostess.

Mrs. Shellie Barnes Is New Member Of Dinner-Bridge Club

Mrs. Shellie Barnes joined members of the Tuesday Dinner-Bridge club in games for the first time as a new member Tuesday evening when Mrs. Glenn Golden was hostess at the Settles hotel. Mrs. P. W. Malone was a guest player. Diner was served at foursome tables. Yellow calendulas furnished a decorative note. Mrs. Malone was highest scorer and Miss Emily Bradley was second high. Players were Mrs. Malone, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. P. Teague, Mrs. Jim Zack, Mrs. Tom Donnelly, Mrs. W. J. Donnelly, Mrs. Hazel Sumner, Mrs. Fred Read, Mrs. Constance McEntire, Mrs. Golden and Misses Bradley and Jeannette Barnett.

Mmes. Noah and Blue Are Guests Of Club At Million Home

WPA Planning Completion Of Nine Projects

Jobs Due To Be Finished Before Period Expires June 30

An intensive program of work lies ahead for WPA in the two months remaining before the period's end on June 30.

Nine major projects are slated for completion within that time and by others are due to have contemplated work completed, although the project proper will not have been finished.

District Director R. H. McNew Wednesday said that efforts were to be concentrated on culminating projects intended for completion under the existing set up, but that a few would be continued over under the new program, if and when it goes into effect.

Among the jobs due for completion during the next two months are the Chalk road job in Howard county, now lacking only about one day's work of base laying plus the topping of more than six miles, the Glasscock and Ector counties underground water surveys, Midland paving job, Midland sewerage extension, Midland road project in the northeastern tip of the county, Ackerly loop road in Martin county, Big Spring to Gall road in Borden county, and the 29-mile road project from Brownfield to Tahoka.

Projects on which contemplated work will have been done by the period's end are the Big Spring city park improvement project and the Lameta to Stanton road project, particularly a three mile segment south of Lameta.

Most of the other projects on the WPA docket are the type which can be operated or halted without much ado, yet be complete at any stage. Many small projects such as library jobs will be finished in May. Women's projects will continue until June 30.

The rush to complete the bulk of existing projects will not leave the district without ample work in event the new work-relief program goes through, McNew disclosed. Commissioners courts and city officials from many of the 13 counties in the district have submitted proposed projects, considered by WPA authorities as some of "the soundest yet suggested."

Court Proposal Up For Action At Club Meeting

TULSA, Okla., April 28 (UP)—The prospective fireworks over a resolution endorsing President Roosevelt's supreme court reorganization proposal edged nearer today to the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The controversial resolution was up today for first reading. Tomorrow night Senator Burton K. Wheeler, of Montana, an opponent of the court proposal, and Assistant Attorney General Joseph B. Keenan, a proponent, will debate the question.

"After their fireworks," said Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson, president of the federation, "we may have some of our own."

All delegates avoided comment on the resolution off the floor but the intense interest of the women in constitutional questions was pointed out by Mrs. Jefferson J. Atwood, of Roswell, N. M., chairman of the citizenship committee.

"The privileges of free speech and franchise and the right of petition are almost wholly unused by a large proportion of the population," she said.

"The continued disuse of these and other vital functions of citizenship only can result in undermining the foundation principles of our government."

East Texan Is Crash Victim

Guy A. Blount Dies After Car Overturns On Curve

NACOGDOCHES, April 28 (UP)—East Texas today mourned the death of Guy A. Blount, wealthy lumberman and landowner, who died last night a short time after a car in which he was a passenger overturned at a sharp curve on the Dallas-Nacogdoches highway.

Overnight his body was held in an undertaking establishment at Kaufman and an ambulance had been sent there to return it to his Nacogdoches home.

Blount died in an ambulance rushing him to a Dallas hospital soon after the accident a mile from Kaufman. He died as the ambulance reached Seagoville. It then retraced its course to Kaufman.

Ford Simpson of Nacogdoches, driver of the car, escaped injury. He said the car was unable to make the sharp curve and rolled over. Previously the turn in the road has been the scene of serious accidents. Simpson returned to Dallas, where he said he believed Blount was not injured in the accident but died of a heart attack.

Blount, who would have been 51 next August, formerly was president of the East Texas chamber of commerce, from whose convention he and Simpson were returning. The convention, in Dallas, ended yesterday.

PROMPT ACTION ON FARM SHEETS URGED

County Agent O. P. Griffin Tuesday urged farm producers to file their work sheets with his office at the earliest date in order to insure getting the applications to the state board before May 15, latest date the board will receive them.

He said that May 1 had been fixed as a local deadline for the sheets and urged that farmers not delay in making application since it requires some time to prepare them for the state board.

Dry weather, he believed, should encourage many who have not filed in their work sheets to do so now since it offers an opportunity to cooperate in the farm program as late as July.

To date, only about 650 have filed work sheets, compared with around 900 for all last year.

TO HEAR ARGUMENTS ON AGE PENSIONS

WASHINGTON, April 28 (UP)—The supreme court arranged today to hear arguments early next week on the old age pension provisions of the federal social security act.

A final decision on the major administration legislation will be given before the justices adjourn for the summer early in June.

Arguments already have been heard on litigation involving the unemployment insurance provision of the federal act and on supplementary state legislation to aid the jobless.

Since the tribunal did not rule on the latter litigation during its session yesterday, some observers expressed the opinion that both cases might be decided at the same time.

STOLEN TAXICAB LOCATED IN OKLA.

SHREVEPORT, La., April 28 (UP)—A taxicab stolen from Ben Herr, driver for a local company, after he had been abducted and robbed Monday night, was found outside the city limits of Idabel, Okla., early this morning, by Idabel authorities, according to a long distance message to Lloyd Comings, general manager of the Yellow Cab company, from Deputy Sheriff Houston.

In the cab when found was Herr's cap, badge and receipts he had been robbed of, Deputy Houston said.

No trace of the tax driver's abductors, a man and a woman, had been found, the message said.

After robbing Herr, the couple took his cap and badge which Herr wore. The abductors forced Herr from the cab near Texarkana and fled in the taxi.

WPA CONFERENCE

Delegations from Ector and Dawson counties conferred with district WPA officials here Tuesday. In the Ector county group were representatives from the county commissioners court, the city commission and the chamber of commerce. Both delegations discussed projects.

CLIVE LEADER

Simpson is president of the Nacogdoches board of education and utilities manager there.

Blount for years had been in the East Texas civic forefront. He served as head of the Nacogdoches chamber and later became president of the East Texas chamber of commerce, a potent regional organization operative throughout the richest oil sector of the nation.

He came here in 1895, eleven years after his birth in San Augustine, Tex. He became a leader in the lumber industry of the region, well stocked with pine forests. At his death his land holdings were considerable and in addition he

WILL ATTEND SALES MEET AT FT. WORTH

Carl S. Blomfield, district manager of Texas Electric Service company, C. E. Cameron, manager of the Lamesa office, R. L. Wilmon, also of the Lamesa office, and Fritz Wehner of the local T.E.S. office, are leaving Thursday noon for Fort Worth, where they will attend a meeting of district managers and sales organization meeting to be held from the headquarters of the Texas Electric Service company building in Fort Worth. They will return Saturday afternoon.

Fuel Demand Holds Strong

TULSA, Okla., April 28 (UP)—Good business in motor fuel, accompanied by a rise of an eighth of a cent a barrel in the midwest tank wagon price and a steady demand was a bright spot today in the petroleum picture.

Otherwise, executives here were agreed, things were a bit dull with other factors joggling along placidly.

All interests hoped for better weather with a resulting rving in to the heavy consumption season.

As a whole, the industry fretted over the crude situation, hoping its preview of the unexpected demand were correct and that the unprecedented production, which reached another new peak of 3,663,400 barrels daily would not flood the market.

"Those who had held the market justified the production were gratified by the American Petroleum Institute figures showing that despite the crude increase, gasoline supplies had dropped to 82,803,000 barrels from 82,703,000 the previous week.

"I told you the market would absorb the production," said one operator. He said it should ease some tension here over Texas' May Allowable of 1,411,236 barrels daily, 70,436 barrels daily over the bureau of mines estimate.

"There was no immediate prospect of an increase in the basic price of crude oil though talk of its possibility was in the air.

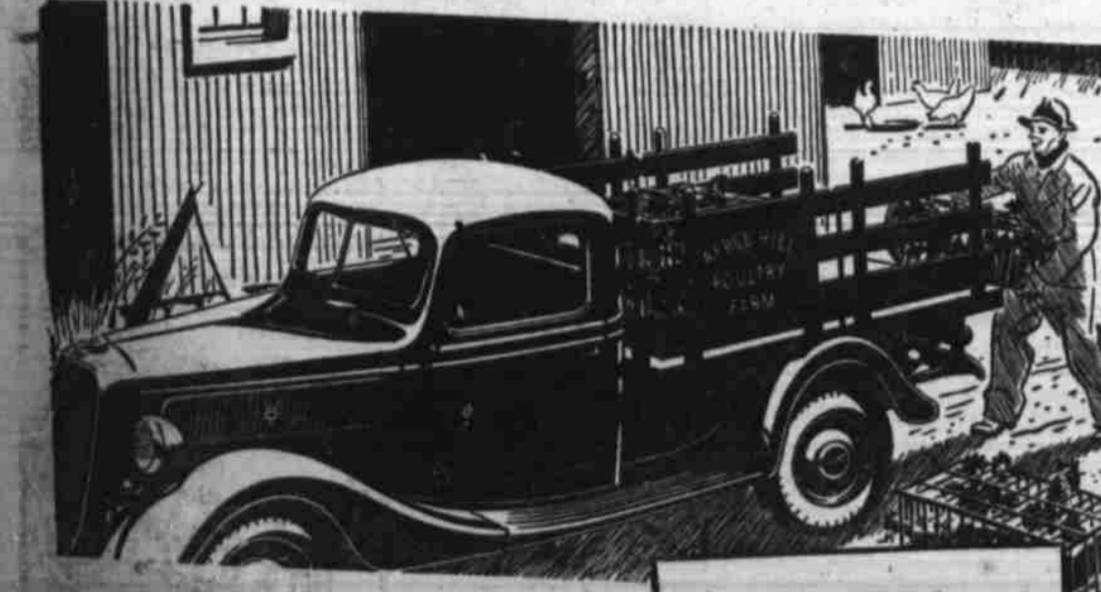

Field work continued at a steady pace with Texas leading the list of pool openers and extensions of producing areas. Spring weather intensified operations in the Rocky Mountain west.

The Oil and Gas Journal showed 377 wells completed in the nation for the week, 66 less than the previous week.
