GUARDS AND RANGERS ENFORCE ORDERS

COMPANY PROPOSES TO CUT RANGER WATER PUMPING POWER BILL ALMOST IN HALF

A proposal whereby the city of Eastland can make a saving of from a month on its power bill at the water pumping plant and as much as $150 a month during the summer months when more water is used, has been submitted to the commission by the General Engineering Corporation of Fort Worth.

The plan calls for the installation of an automatic pumping unit, which will consume much less power. The equipment will be paid for, according to the proposal, out of the saving effected each month and the plant will, before cost the city nothing, be paid for in from 11 to 12 months and the saving effected each month thereafter.

According to figures furnished by the company and confirmed by the city secretary, the city pumps 3,342,000 gallons during May this year at a cost of 3.1 cents per gallon or a total of $262.50 for the month. During June the cost was 3.2 cents per gallon for a total of $338.75. In July the cost was 3.2 cents per thousand for a total of $408.75, and in August the cost per thousand gallons was 3.2 cents for a total of $452.50.

According to figures furnished by the company the automatic pumping system would have cost $116.85 for May; $214.44 for June; $250.32 for July, and $270.60 for August. According to these figures the cost for the first four months under the present pumping system was $1,457.50, while with the new unit it would have been $858.66, or a saving of $598.84 for the four months, or an average of $149.71 per month.

The proposal of the company will furnish and install the 300-gallon-per-minute pump and motor complete with all automatic electrical equipment, install all equipment necessary to make the pump lift pumps automatic and increase the size of the chemical feeding machine to take care of the 24-hour charge, turning this unit over to you, ready for operation for the sum of $1,127.

If the entire plant was automatic, it would then only be necessary for the operator to be present once each day. At this time the operator would fill the chemical feeding tanks and if it was necessary, add back wash the filters. Other than occasional oiling of the pump bearings, no other attention need be given to this plant.

It is proposed by the company to install the plant and take their profit on the difference in the present power bill and the new power bill, thereby costing the city absolutely nothing for installation and furnishing pumping equipment. The present equipment would be kept as emergency machinery, which is required by the insurance department in order to maintain the present insurance for the city.

Not only would be plant pay for itself, through a saving of power, but it would release one man, who would be used for other duties in connection with the water system, according to the proposal made by the company.

The saving is proposed by installing a 300-gallon horsepower motor and a 300-gallon pump, which will

She Will Be A Bride Again

Eleanor Hunt, movie actress, is going to take a real bride's role again. But she isn't telling, yet, who her second husband will be. She announced her forthcoming marriage when she appeared in court to receive her divorce decree from Rex Lease, film player.

RANGER CITY COMMISSION VOTES BUDGET

The Ranger city commission met in executive session at the city hall Tuesday night and went into discussion on the bond and financial situation of the city.

After considerable discussion the tentative budget, as outlined at the two previous meetings, was adopted with several minor changes. The city secretary was instructed to incorporate the minor changes into the final draft of the budget and have it ready for publication as soon as possible.

The work of revising the figures in the tentative budget to conform with the figures as finally adopted by the commission, was being done today and Roy Jameson, city secretary, said that the rough draft of the tentative budget would be worked over into the final form, probably today.

During the discussions on some of the phases of the city's financial problems and the action that is to be taken by the commission, all visitors were barred from the room, including the city secretary.

It is expected that the final draft of the budget, including the changes voted at the meeting last night, will be available for inspection by the public and for publication.

Not I-o-Way, In-di-An-A!

Iowa isn't the only state where the tall corn grows. Here's evidence of Indiana's rivalry. William E. Johnston shows his giant stalk, picked from his farm near South Bend. The stalk measures 13 feet 9 inches.

U.S. POLICIES IN FAR EAST TO CONTINUE

By HARRY W. PRANTZ
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—United States Far Eastern policies likely are to be continuous, regardless of the outcome of the national elections Nov. 8, according to authoritative opinion here.

The next administration, Republican or Democratic, it is believed, will stand firm for the traditional Pacific policies.

The present policy toward the Manchurian situation, authorities here point out, was strictly a governmental policy, and in no sense partisan. It was not seriously criticized by any influential Senator or Representative of either party during the last session. It is believed to have been generally acceptable.

Since the efficacy of the present policy depends entirely upon public opinion, however, some authorities here see a possibility that in the event of a change in administration, the popular "reaction" to the Manchurian situation might manifest itself in new ways.

Discouraged Boycott

Both President Hoover and Chairman Borah of the Senate Foreign Relations committee discouraged all popular tendencies toward a boycott of Japanese merchandise. Some observers believe that in the event of a sweeping change in the control of foreign affairs, there might be a recurrence of public sentiment for an unofficial trade boycott.

In the realm of trade, a change of administration doubtless would give rise to much hope for a betterment in Pacific commerce. Tariff revision here would have a somewhat narrow effect on total national trade, for the reason that many important Far Eastern staples now pay no duty, while rates on agricultural commodities, hides and wool probably would not be changed.

Either Republican or Democratic administration, it is believed, will continue efforts for a limitation of armament. It is not improbable, however, that the next few years will witness a careful review of United States naval policies, although this could not be predicted with certainty until the outcome of present disarmament efforts and the future evolution of the Manchurian imbroglio are more definitely known.

Insular Policy

In insular policy, there are substantial differences in Republican and Democratic points of view, which would tend to react upon Far Eastern relations generally.

The Democratic platform advocates Philippine independence, the Republican made no mention of the Hawes-Cutting Bill, now on the Senate calendar, authorizing an autonomous government, with independence plebiscite about 19 years hence, was reported favorably by both Republican and Democratic controlled House at the last session voted 306 to 47 for the Hare Bill, proposing independence after a transition period estimated at eight years.

The form of government in the Territory of Hawaii also is at issue, though party lines have not been clearly drawn. The Republican platform favors continuation of the present "home rule," Democratic Chairman Williams of the House Territories Committee offered a bill at last session which would substantially modify the territorial legislative establishment.

Love Rival Held In Trolley Death

With downcast eyes, Emma Berger, 16 (top photo), sobbed to Philadelphia police the story of youthful jealousy and rage that brought the arrest of Joseph Majereck (lower photo), in connection with the "trolley death" of Benjamin Perkowski, 20, a rival for the girl's affections. The girl said the youths fought over her as they were taking her home from a party and that Majereck chased Perkowski away and came back alone. A few minutes later she saw a crowd around a trolley which had run over and killed Perkowski. Police named the trolley as the "instrument of death."

FLUSH WELLS SHUT DOWN BY GUARDSMEN

Mobilization of Troops To Require Three Days Is Belief.

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Oct. 26.—Armed national guardsmen and Texas rangers today took command in the rich East Texas oil field as Governor R. S. Sterling sought to maintain the state's right to curb crude petroleum production.

The state railroad commission has ordered that wells in the field be allowed to produce only 40 barrels daily, a measure designed to prevent physical waste.

"If necessary we can prevent physical waste by executive order of August of last year," Sterling said.

The executive order was a declaration of martial law over the field. The order remains in effect while his right to call out troops is pending before the United States supreme court.

Bankers, business men and oil leaders today declared in favor of a special session of the legislature to put "teeth" in the state's production laws and to remedy them.

By United Press.
KILGORE, Texas, Oct. 26.—Approximately 95 per cent of pipe line operators in East Texas are co-operating in efforts to uphold production orders, Col. L. S. Davidson, commander of state troops here, said today.

"The situation is well in hand," he said. "Seven wells reported opened last night will be shut down until surrounding wells catch up with production." Suits will be filed for damages.

Mobilization of troops probably will not be completed to three days.

By United Press.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 26.—Governor W. H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray today suggested that Governor Ross Sterling of Texas "stick federal judges in jail after giving them a military trial if the courts interfere with martial law enforcement of proration in the East Texas oil fields."

JURY ASKED TO DECIDE IF MAN IS DEAD

By United Press.
FORT WORTH, Oct. 26.—A jury in 48th district court here today was asked to decide whether Sidney B. Norwood, missing Cleburne banker, is dead.

In a suit against the Soutland Life Insurance company, Dallas, Mrs. Emma R. Norwood, wife of the banker, claims she is entitled to $100,000 insurance. Under Texas statutes a man is presumed to be dead when missing seven years.

Norwood's life insurance policy was issued in 1920. He left Cleburne in October, 1921, shortly before the bank he headed was closed. A federal grand jury in Dallas subsequently indicted him for alleged violation of the national banking laws.

Attorneys for the defendant are seeking to prove Norwood still lives.

D. W. Bursleson of Coleman today testified he visited Norwood twice in Saltillo, Mexico, in 1922, and again in 1923. On cross-examination he testified he heard Norwood had visited Cleburne in 1923, but denied having heard "a Mr. Chapple tell him of a visit Norwood made to Cleburne in 1920."

Testimony was to be continued in the case this afternoon.

Child Welfare Board of County Is Appointed

At the call of Judge Clyde L. Garrett, several women assembled in the commissioners courtroom, Oct. 25, at 9:30 a. m., to meet Mrs. Nettie S. Myers of Henrietta, Texas, an assistant in State division of Child Welfare, for the purpose of organizing the Eastland County Child Welfare Board.

The work was explained in detail by Mrs. Myers and the organization was immediately effected.

The board members are: Mrs. Saunders Greg, Ranger, chairman; Mrs. Phillip Pettit, Cisco; Mrs. E. C. Oldham, Gorman; Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, Eastland; Mrs. G. N. Howard, Rising Star; Mr. Walter Harwell, Ranger; Mr. Hart Agnew, Cisco.

The next meeting is called for Nov. 18, 2:00 p. m., in the courtroom at Eastland.

Eastland Lions Hear Talk On Education Week

The Lions Club was treated to a talk on classification in telegraphy by E. E. Randolph, of the Western Union, who held the attention of the members with the many unusual and interesting features described.

B. E. McGlamery followed, in a pointed talk on "Education Week," why and how it should be observed and also that a program would possibly be arranged in recognition of the occasion for some night next week.

A committee will be appointed later by G. M. Harper, president, to work in conjunction with McGlamery and Rotary Club committee in the making and giving of such a program.

The speaker also presented the desirability of securing the track meet for Eastland. On formal motion passed, Superintendent Little was instructed to extend a formal invitation on behalf of Lions club to the proper officials in charge and invite the track meet to Eastland.

Superintendent P. B. Rittle, made a report on the track meet as a postscript to McGlamery's speech.

This program was in charge of F. M. Kenny, and H. B. Randolph, program chairman for next week are Donald L. Kinnaird and Ira Hanna.

Two Candidates Preparing Last Intensive Drive

By United Press.
A reported decision of Senator William E. Borah to vote for President Hoover, bolstered republican hopes today as both presidential candidates squared off for final intensive drives in the election battle.

At noon today, however, Senator Borah indicated his mind was not definitely made up regarding presidential candidates.

President Hoover was concentrating on the address he will deliver Friday night at Indianapolis in his invasion of the doubtful middle west. Steaming up his campaign, the president will carry his attacks into Governor Roosevelt's home territory of New York next Monday.

Four Death Verdicts Are Confirmed

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Oct. 26.—Four death penalty cases were affirmed by the court of criminal appeals today, including that of Aaron Johnson, convicted in Waller county of cutting the throat of his own 11-month-old child.

The others were the cases of Carter Rollins, given a death verdict in Tarrant county on a charge of killing David L. Reed; Caselton Whitfield, given death in Austin county in the slaying of Oscar Holliday, and Hilton Bybee, who was given a death penalty on a robbery charge in Cottle county.

The court ordered a new trial for Currie Caldwell, who had been given a 12-year-sentence in Navarro county in the Robert Cerf kidnapping case.

Ex-Governor of Rotary Speaks to Club in Ranger

Ray H. Nichol, past district governor of the 41st district of Rotary International, was the speaker at the regular meeting of the Ranger Rotary club today.

He said that in times like these business men are thinking of conditions, either business, social or otherwise and that it might be well to take time to consider the factors that had involved these changes that have been taking place. He said that we had been passing through the most interesting times in the past few years because there was always the question of what would be next.

He said that conditions could not be blamed on any one man or party but on the intoxicating thoughts of the few years prior to 1928 and 1929 when we thought we had found a way for everyone to be prosperous. In these times, he said, one forgets the things that come with the wisdom of the ages.

He said that no one knew just how it happened that prosperity stopped so quickly and more than the people though such a thing was possible before it happened.

He said we were passing through a time of slowly liquidating business interests and the most important thing was thinking. From thoughts come our actions and we are beginning to rediscover old things and realizing they have certain values.

He said he believed the legislative problems of importance in the next few years would pertain to municipalities and their problems. He said the leaders of Texas a few years ago were talking in industrializing Texas, but he believed Texas would become industrialized when the Texas people have real buying power. The factories and commercial enterprises will come into the state, and when they do come they will settle in the smaller towns and cities because of the better living conditions there in comparison to the living conditions in the cities.

He said that there was need of a back to the land movement a few years ago because the people were leaving the farms and going to the cities. Now, he said, without any legislative action the people were going back to the farms.

He pointed out that Rotarians must be interested in their community as Rotarians should work for the town, not for greed or selfish interests but to make it the best that is possible. He concluded by saying that Rotary was offered a great opportunity to change conditions and improve on the new community life that is developing and will continue to develop, thereby stamping, indelibly, their service in the minds of the people.

Visitors were J. Pettit of Cisco, J. J. Kelley of Dallas, and Charles Smith of Plainview.

Eastland Flower Show Plans Are About Complete

Among the unique prizes announced by Mrs. James Horton, for awards in special Flower Show classification are one dozen paper white narcissus bulbs by Charles Subbrook of Ranger Floral company.

A novelty redwood hurl by S. L. Golden, Golden Florist, of Ranger. One half dozen rare white narcissus by Philpot Floral company, Cisco.

Judges of flowers will be these florists, from out of town.

Prizes to be given in addition are from Modern Dry Cleaners and the Parker Floral company. Several prizes from individuals have already been accepted and these awards with others to come, and the ribbon premiums, furnish a fair field of contest.

All in all everything points toward a very successful Flower Show Friday and Saturday of this week under the direction of Mrs. James Horton, assisted by Mrs. W. P. Leslie, with musical programs, Friday afternoon and evening, and Saturday afternoon, arranged by Program Chairman, Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins and Mrs. Art H. Johnson.

The civic parade announcing the Civic League Flower Show, the West Ward School Carnival, and South Ward School Carnival is announced by Mrs. W. A. Martin, chairman in charge to meet sharp at 9:30 a. m., Saturday at the Eastland high school building.

Organizations notified are the high school pep squad, Camp Fire Girls, Boy Scout Troops, Glee Clubs of all schools, Rotary bands, all schools, stunt performers, and Spencer kindergarten.

Elks Will Aid In Old Clothes Drive

In listing the organizations that are to aid in the old clothes drive of the Child Welfare club of Ranger, the name of the Elks club was omitted through an oversight.

On Monday morning two cars from the Rotary, Lions, Elks, Chamber of Commerce and American Legion post will assist in gathering up the old clothes in the town. The clothing will be stored in the Sam Houston Life Insurance building, where they will be distributed to the needy through the winter.

Mrs. Kuykendall To Direct Red Cross Roll Call

Mrs. P. M. Kuykendall, who was selected as chairman of the Annual Red Cross drive for the city of Ranger at the meeting held recently to make plans for this work, is to start on a short but intensive planning on a visit on November 14. It is expected that the Ranger quota of 300 members can be needed in that time with the co-operation of the entire committee with Mrs. Kuykendall.

The national drive is to start on November 11, but as this will be a holiday in Ranger, it was decided to start the work on November 14. Red Cross buttons, as used in previous years, will be used again this year during the roll call, each member being given a button.

Armstrong To Speak In Ranger

George W. Armstrong of Fort Worth, independent candidate for governor, will speak at Ranger at 3 p. m., Thursday, Oct. 27.

He advocates a state currency and credit system to supply the need for currency and credit; the adoption of a moratorium to suspend the collection of mortgages, debts and bonds; and graduated inheritance taxes to take the place of the state ad valorem tax. He also advocates the continuance of the building of good roads and the use of the highway funds for that purpose, and the use of the roads by trucks under reasonable regulations.

Ranger Man Saw a Salamander Parade

"Shorty" Woods, who lives near Ranger on the Caddo road, and who recently returned from a trip through the Texas Panhandle, reports seeing a swarm of salamanders crossing the street at Amarillo.

Woods said the little animals, brown with white stripes, covered the street so that it was almost impossible to drive a car because of skidding.

An account from an Amarillo paper about the salamanders said: "Thousands of salamanders, better known to plainsmen as waterdogs, migrating from a nearby lake, hampered traffic on East Tenth avenue leading to the Tri-State Fair grounds last night."

"The pavement became slick with carcasses of the tiny animals and motorists had difficulty negotiating a distance of several blocks."

"Old-timers were unable to offer an explanation."

Road Contracts to Total $5,000,000

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Oct. 26.—Contracts awarded by the state highway commission for road and bridge work at their October session will exceed $5,000,000, it was estimated today.

Hereafter counties will be required to furnish right-of-way but grading and culverts, the commission declared in laying down a new road building policy. Recently the commission abandoned the plan of asking counties to issue bonds to participate in road construction.

Eastland-Breck Reserved Seats Are Now on Sale

Reserve seat tickets for the Eastland-Breckenridge game, to be played at Breckenridge on Friday afternoon, were placed on sale in Eastland today at the Beatty, Corner and Toombs & Richardson drug stores.

The reserve seat tickets will be sold for 75 cents, which assure the purchaser a seat on the Eastland side of the field near the 50-yard line.

The game will start promptly at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon and the tickets will be on sale at the Eastland drug stores until 1 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Rev. Berrie Plans Appeal to Murray

By United Press.
MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 26.—The Rev. S. A. Berrie today planned to "protest my innocence" to Governor W. H. Murray, from the district court verdict decreeing a life sentence.

A jury of 11 business men and one farmer found the 52-year-old minister guilty on a murder charge late yesterday. The state accused him of poisoning his middle-aged wife so he could marry a 19-year-old Sunday school teacher, whom he courted with love lyrics.

Veterans Foreign Wars to Convene

A meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is to be held in the night of Pythias hall at Eastland tonight at 8 o'clock.

All ex-service men are invited to attend the meeting.

Freak Heifer Born, Looks Like a Deer

By United Press.
BIG SPRINGS, Mich.—The fairy tale about the cow that jumped over the moon may come true, if a yearling heifer here continues to grow in leaps and bounds.

The heifer, owned by C. E. Lindsey, already clears fences with ease and is jumping higher every day.

Farmers are skeptical about the heifer's parentage. They point to its slender legs, dainty hoofs and thin body.

A herd of deer sometimes grazes in the woods where Lindsey pastures his pure-bred Jerseys. Lindsey believes his acrobatic heifer may have been sired by a buck.

Student Did Not Travel So Far To Attend University

By United Press.
AUSTIN.—When a student travels from Vienna, Austria, to Austin to attend the University of Texas there usually is some reason—so a representative of the university daily publication undertook to find out from Guy Dudley Meadows, "Mr. Meadows, you are from Vienna, Austria, as listed in the student directory, are you not?" the reporter began. "Was it the climate, the hospitality, or just what was it that caused you to come so far to school?" "No," replied Meadows, "it's because I'm from Waco."

Meadows explained that he had listed his guardian's home in Vienna rather than his home in Waco.

WOMAN TO VOTE FOR FIRST TIME

By United Press.
NEEDHAM, Mass.—At 80, Mrs. Helen M. Lunsford, a native of Baltimore, Md., is preparing to vote for the first time in the forthcoming presidential election. She spent most of her life in the District of Columbia.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

BOAST NOT: Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. —Proverbs 27: 1.

FACES IN THE POLITICAL PICTURE

President Hoover has been forced by advisers to make a political junketing trip of Ohio and other states. They bluntly informed him that it was necessary for him to plead his own cause regardless of his pre-conceived opinions or plans.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt is ready for another swing around the circle. He will cover Pennsylvania and nearby states. He will invade the border states all along the battle line. He will invade Southern states which bolted to the Republican enemy four years ago.

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE with BILL MAYES

This morning's mail brought a letter from F. P. Brasher, secretary-treasurer of the Ranger Junior College athletic committee, saying: "You will find attached season pass to all Ranger Junior College football games, which we hope you will have the pleasure of attending."

We can assure Mr. Brasher that it will be a pleasure to attend, and not only attend, but write up the game to the best of our ability. We have had no concern over ways and means of getting into the Texas Ranger games like we have had over the Bulldog games because we have been taken care of in that respect long before game time.

So far we have heard little about the Rams, except that they have been winning ball games out in the sheep dip country right along and are branching out into the section that proved for years to be so disastrous to the San Angelo High School Bobcats.

However, we will stick to our practice of predicting outcome of all games after the games are played. We believe the Rams have a good team, but they realize they are up against stiff competition when they meet the Texas Rangers.

Sooner or later we can make anything Europe produces. The Kreuger; our Insull.

CERTIFIED
Cremo
same quality..same size
.. same shape .. now
5c straight . . 3 for 10c

We are very happy to make this important announcement to the millions of smokers who want a fine, long-filler cigar of modest price. Certified Cremo at 5¢ has for years been America's greatest cigar value. Now at 5¢ STRAIGHT—3 for 10¢, Certified Cremo ushers in a new and still greater cigar value. This is made possible by our tremendous reserve of fine long-filler tobacco, our modern up-to-the-minute methods of manufacture and our large volume sales.

Even Bound Pilgrims

The spirituals play and pageant presented by the colored folk of Eastland in city hall auditorium Tuesday night was splendidly given with fine chorus work heard to advantage in old-time religious songs. There was a small audience.

Marked Honor and Church Officials

The officials of the First Baptist church of Eastland were tendered a charming compliment by the pastor of the church, and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. O. B. Darby, in recognition of the splendid co-operation officers and officials are evidencing in the church and their associations with the pastor and family in the form of a reception and program given the church, Tuesday evening, from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Every handsome window of the church threw its lighted rays of welcome into the dark, and entering guests were greeted in the vestibule by J. A. Ross, who presided over the register, and were received within by Rev. and Mrs. Darby, in the church auditorium, which was artistically decorated with tall floor baskets holding beautiful chrysanthemums, low bowls of these blooms, intermingled with the ferns, and interspersed on the chancel rail, and bowls of chrysanthemum, repeating the floral note in placement on piano and tables.

The informal program, announced by Rev. Darby, was opened with invocation by Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne college, Brownwood.

Mrs. J. T. Cook was presented in violin, (a) "Love Sent a Little Gift of Roses"; (b) "Mighty Lak a Rose," with Miss Loraine Taylor at the piano.

Voite, Mrs. Cecil Nelson, "Do It For Jesus Today," with Mrs. Darby at the piano.

Dr. Darby introduced Dr. Taylor, speaker of the evening, whose subject, "Business, Politics and Religion," was a humorous, witty and pleasing talk that brought repeated ripples of laughter and applause from the audience.

Following the program the guests were received in the lower auditorium by Mrs. W. D. R. Owen, and a brief program of impromptu readings and speeches was presented under her direction, opening with two humorous selections by Mrs. Paul McFarland. Judge Burette W. Patterson told his opinion of the "Leading Lady," concluding that "I led her to the altar, but she has led me ever since."

Mrs. A. J. Campbell responded in a clever diatribe, "Husbands." W. D. R. Owen explained "Why Do Elephants Like Dill Pickles."

J. T. Cook gave an original idea on higher education for women, which smacked of domestic science.

Other brief and clever originalities were given by Judge Clyde L. Garrett, always good; Mrs. Frank V. Williams, Edward E. Layton, Rev. W. H. Muston, Mrs. R. L. Young, and Mrs. Clyde L. Garrett, as good as her better half.

The atmosphere of the assembly room was enhanced in beauty through the beautiful arrangement of flowers and autumn foliage. All decorations for the evening were provided by the P. L. Parker Floral company.

A delicious salad and lettuce plate was served with wafers, potato flakes, iced tea cakes and coffee by Mes. William Shirriffs, S. C. Walker, R. L. Slaughter, J. A. Ross, and Mrs. O. B. Darby, hostess.

Plate favors were cosmo, tied with black ribbons. Halloween colors were artistically carried out in all decorations.

Guests were Dr. Thomas H. Taylor of Brownwood; Mes. Paul McFarland, Cecil Nelson, R. L. Young, A. J. Campbell, Nora Andrews, James Drake, William Shirriffs, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Layton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCannies, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Satterwhite, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Carlisle, Frank Lovett, Eugene Witt, Miss Loraine Taylor, and host and hostess, Rev. and Mrs. O. B. Darby.

Talahi Group Plans Halloween Party

The Talahi group of Camp Fire Girls held their regular Tuesday meeting at their clubhouse and planned for their Halloween party which will be given tonight.

A letter was presented that had been received from Dr. H. B. Tanner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, thanking the Camp Fire Girls for collecting garments for the needy, and would be carefully distributed.

The girls had collected 43 pounds of tin foil, which they have sent to a home for crippled children, who make articles for sale out of this material.

Those present were Joyce Newman, Catherine Utz, Lurline Brawner, Edith Meek, Audrey Faye Taylor, Hazel Randolph, May Gates, Elizabeth Ann Harrell, Kathleen Cottingham, president, and Mrs. Tom Harrell, guardian.

Pretty Party Honors Daughter's Birthday

Mrs. R. L. Jones, 519 South Walnut, entertained with a delightful little party Monday afternoon in honor of the eleventh birthday of her charming little daughter, Elizabeth Jones, when games were the order of the pleasant hours. The lawn, echoing with the merry voices of the young people was the scene of frolics led by Elva Lee Jones.

Within doors, lovely bouquets of roses graced the rooms, and the birthday cake, white iced, and topped with 11 pink twinkling tapers, centered the attractively appointed table in the dining-room. Ice cream was served with the cake, and Halloween souvenirs were found in the popcorn balls.

Elizabeth received many lovely gifts from her friends, Mildred Ferrell, Marjorie Murphy, Fannie Samuels, Mary Faye Beskow, Teressa Samuels, Elva Lee Jones, Patsy Weigand, Catherine Carter, Alice Jones, Alma Williamson, Dorothy Perkins, Ida Lee Foster, Mary Elizabeth Carlisle, Dorothy Praty, Frances Beskow, Marjorie Yeager, Madge Hearn, Dixie Davenport, Ruth Hart, Anna Jane Taylor, and Charles Layton.

Membership committee reported in the room contest. Miss Sallie Bowlin big lead, and Miss Smith awarded premium for highest registration of 41 out of 46 mothers represented in the classroom.

The reward will be a party given by the P. T. A. The association now numbers 83 paid-up members.

Beware the Cough or Cold that Hangs On

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agents for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

What Has LIGHT To Do With Convenience?

Suppose Baby cries during the night—how handy it is to switch on a bed lamp right over your head or a boudoir lamp at your bedside, with the hall light switch within arm's length and the nursery light almost as near. Half-a-dozen steps and the bath, kitchen or living room is flooded with light. Light in-sufficient quantity everywhere it is needed. That is real convenience.

By the same token, convenience in the home depends largely on proper lighting by day as well as by night. Most kitchens, for example, need light all day long. Likewise baths, closets, halls and, more often than not, living rooms and dining rooms. No matter what household task you may be doing, proper lighting will help you tremendously. That, too, is real convenience.

HERE... AND THERE

By Elvie B. Jackson

The modern woman has her attention so distracted by a number of things, as Alice in Wonderland said, that it is surprising she can manage her home affairs with intelligence and thrift.

And these are the two essentials upon which a successful and happy home life is built and upon the foundation of the home family and home teaching of "Do as you would be done by" and "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

In this, our city, engaging affairs are scheduled for the balance of the week.

The annual Civic League flower show, on Friday and Saturday, a cultural display and public, civic co-operative effort, sponsored by the league, and that has been a chief attraction in the city's civic program the past eight years.

This flower show involves, as well, the activities of musical organizations in our city, and their presentation of a program during afternoon and evening hours of this annual show.

Then in addition, the schools, under direction of the Parent-Teacher associations, are putting on a brilliantly planned Halloween carnival, in downtown buildings on Saturday night, Oct. 29.

Next comes the excitement and activity consequent upon the voting in contest for a king and queen, to be crowned carnival night, as the principal attraction of the South Ward school Halloween festivities, and as the supreme feature of the West Ward school carnival.

Next on the list but far from last comes the Eastland county teachers' institute, which opens an all-day session Friday in the high school auditorium. School officials, P. T. A.'s, and county school officials will be busy engaged in caring for the out-of-town visitors, and entertaining them at the noon luncheon hour.

Hand in hand with all these engaging activities, are rehearsals for the "Ghost House," to be presented for sweet charity in high school auditorium, under the aus-

STAN BALL accuses ASPER DENYING father king of snobs, men shot who attempt to check up on his activities. He tells Delo he is making a check. Delo tells him he will see personally that he does not. Upon leaving Delo's office Ball saves DONA, Asper's daughter, from kidnapers and tells her he is STANLEY BLACK.

DUDLEY WINTERS, in love with Dona, goes with her to Three Rivers to get her father to give up his wild life with Ball. Dudley plans to marry Dona and gets a certificate signed. Ball is accused of killing a ranger and a number of crimes. He is supposed to have ambushed Delo and wounded him badly. Dona has to tell her father she is married to Dudley in order to quiet him and get him to give up the hunt. He agrees but backs out when the office is robbed. The posse surrounds them. They are headed by SWERGIN, Delo's timber boss who has taken a fancy to Dona.

Dona joins the hunt and is captured by Ball after attempting to shoot him. He takes her to a cave. Swergin discovers the cave while Ball is outside and captures him, releasing Dona and the other men start to lynch Ball, but Dona steps in and saves him. He takes her with him but lets her have his horse to ride to camp. She returns in that night and Dudley follows her. He tries to shoot Ball, but misses. Dona is contrite and agrees to marry Dudley who has been riding his horse a great deal. Dona agrees to marry him that evening. They ride out and Dona, who knows now that she cares for Ball, leads him to the cave. Dona thinks Ball has left, but Dudley finds her coils.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

horse do all the picking and he must be lost.

Dona smiled in spite of herself Dudley had been riding on Folly Mountain every day for 10 days and now he had lost a plain trail.

"I'll take you out," she smiled. "The roan is not such a dummy as your horse."

SHE headed at once for a high point that overlooked the surrounding slope. Dudley following her willingly. From the high vantage point they could see into the valley at their feet. Dona sat in her saddle and made a careful check of what lay below them. She suddenly ceased to be interested in the lost trail.

Undoubtedly they were looking into Pass Creek valley, but what interested her was what she saw far down in the canyon. A road wound out from the foot of the mountain, a new road. While they watched, two trucks loaded with lumber slid down the loop of road they could see.

"Know where we are?" Dudley asked impatiently.

"That is Pass Creek below," Dona pointed with her quirt.

"Let's get out of here and back to camp," Dudley was very evidently in a hurry to get on a familiar trail again.

"Don't worry. I can take you right out," Dona answered absently. She was intensely interested in the scene below.

"We better move on," said Dudley, who was not interested in roads. He wanted to get into camp and clean up.

Dona sensed a mystery; something told her that down in that valley lay the solution to the whole trouble on Folly Mountain. She was sure her father did not know about the operations on the far side of the ridge.

"Let's ride down to where those men are working," she said, smiling.

Dudley looked down into the canyon and frowned. "No sense in hiking clear down there if you know where the trail is," he said. "It would take us hours to climb out again."

Dona realized that Dudley was right. With Dudley along there would be little use in riding down into the canyon. He was still a novice and very much a tenderfoot. His freedom of movement while Ball was active must have been allowed by the cowboy. Likely, Stan Ball figured him harmless. Dona was beginning to suspect that

Dudley had never gotten far off marked trails.

SHE headed the roan back along the mountain and soon they struck the Pass Creek trail where it crossed the divide and dropped down into the valley they had been examining. Dudley had taken the wrong direction upon coming down from the cave.

"This is the trail we came up over," Dudley called up to her. There was relief and eagerness in his voice.

Dona smiled back at him and set the roan at a slow trot. She had many things on her mind, while Dudley was only concerned in getting back to camp and taking a bath after a hard ride.

Dudley finally pulled up beside her and began to set the pace. He cantered on ahead and left her to trail in at his heels. Dona was willing to do this as she wanted time to lay a few plans herself. She intended to find out about the work in Pass Creek. The question to be decided was whether or not she should demand an explanation from Swergin or make an investigation first.

Dona rode up to the corral and slid from her horse. Malloy was there to take the roan but she did not see Dudley. Very likely, thought she, he was under a shower already.

Asper was sitting out on the porch when she ran up the steps. Dudley was standing beside him.

"You're slow," Dudley greeted her. He had lingered a moment for a word before changing clothes.

Asper frowned at his son-in-law. He could not see anything favorable in such actions as Dudley displayed. In his honeymoon days he would have waited for his bride and walked up from the corral with her.

Dona laughed, a rippling laugh. Dudley was so impossible that it was amusing. "Run along and get under your shower," she said.

Dudley patted her hand and dashed off.

"WHERE have you been today?" Asper asked.

"Didn't Dud tell you?" Dona wondered how much Dudley had said.

Asper shook his head. "Dudley never says anything. Ball could have met him and talked to him. Likely he did."

Dona smiled in agreement as she remembered how Dudley had missed the significance of the trucks and the new road.

"How far south do the Delo contractors run?" Dona asked suddenly. "To the top of Pass Creek divide," he replied.

Asper's expression suddenly changed; he seemed to want to shift the conversation.

"So you rode a long way," he continued. "Better stay out of the Pass Creek district. I'm not so sure Ball has left or, if he has gone, that he won't come back."

"If he comes back I hope they get him," she said quietly.

Asper smiled grimly. "If Stan Ball broke his little promise to you, you'd be glad to have him hanged?" he said.

Dona flushed and remained silent.

"You women can see a lot in any bound that has the pack against him," continued Asper as he patted her arm. "I've given orders that if Ball returns and is caught he is to be brought in and taken to the county seat for trial."

"And you think the men will do that?" Dona shook her head as she remembered the mob she and Ball had faced together.

"Swergin knows he's through so far as I am concerned if he lets his men get out of hand," Asper spoke in his business manner.

Dona patted his hand. She knew he had done this for her. Kissing him on the cheek, she ran to her room.

DONA came out after a refreshing bath bright as a mountain flower. She looked about for Dudley but he was not waiting. A little frown of impatience puckered her soft lips. "Where's Dud?" she called to Asper.

"Went galloping down the hill about fifteen minutes ago," Asper answered sourly.

Dona did not say any more. She knew her father was very much displeased with the way Dudley acted and she did not want to add to his displeasure. Asper did not know just the position Dudley was in and could not be expected to understand his lack of attention.

Dona strolled out into the grove behind the office building. She began planning. She would not talk to Swergin but would investigate the workings on Pass Creek herself. Her father's eagerness not to discuss that district made her afraid of what she would find. But she had to know the truth.

JEWELLE JUDD, Editor

Judge Flewellen Addresses Student Assembly.

High school chapel was held Tuesday at 2 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

The opening song by the entire student body was led by R. L. Maddox, after which Principal H. S. Von Roeder read the honor roll and high honor roll for high school.

Judge Flewellen was present at the student assembly and addressed the student body, choosing as his subject, "True Patriotism."

This inspiring talk was enjoyed very much by everyone present.

All high school clubs met at 2 o'clock today for the regular weekly club meetings.

Senior Class Has Large Number On Honor Roll.

The senior class can boast of a large number of senior students who are on the honor roll.

P. G. Girls Initiate New Members.

The P. G. Club of Ranger Junior College initiated new members today. We will give you a brief view of some of the new members: Mildred Hill is a quaint, peasant girl, with pig-tails and brogan shoes.

Ruby Ray Mason is charming in her evening dress of Nile green, which incidentally Ruby Ray put on backward. She carried her books to school in her mother's Sunday wash bucket.

Dandelene Pate is as sweet as a faded summer flower. "Willie," her big doll is a favorite among the students.

Delna Shirley wears her mother's best dress and with a gay scarf around her head. She explains

Free From Pain Thanks To CRAZY CRYSTALS

For years I suffered agony with pains in my stomach, and with heart burn, caused from gall bladder trouble. It had been over fifteen years since I had been able to see the shape of my ankles they had been so badly swollen.

About four weeks ago I started using CRAZY CRYSTALS, and now I am perfectly easy, and free from pain. The swelling in my feet and ankles has almost entirely disappeared. I would like suffering people everywhere to know about CRAZY CRYSTALS.

LIQUOR FOUND TWICE IN METER

RICHMOND, Va.—Apparently a firm believer in the saying that lightning never strikes twice in the same place, an unidentified white man was again deprived of his whisky by insisting upon hiding it in a water meter. Recently, city policemen found five gallons of liquor in the meter. A few days later they discovered four and a half gallons in the same meter.

What Can You Do For The Pains Of Rheumatism?

Pain Ended In Few Minutes, This Way

It has now been discovered by thousands of rheumatic sufferers that the pains of that distressing disorder can be eased in as little as a few minutes... relief and comfort in almost as little time as it takes to tell!

Doctors advise two tablets of Bayer Aspirin taken with a full glass of water. Then a rest of a few minutes... and that is all. Pain is eased quickly—and sometimes almost unbelievably.

Relief comes so fast because of the peculiar quick-dissolving property of Genuine Bayer Aspirin. The tablets you take dissolve almost INSTANTLY in your stomach. And thus you get practically instant relief. The fastest, safe relief—it is said.

TAKE 2 BAYER ASPIRIN TABLETS

DRINK ONE FULL GLASS OF WATER

FOR ECONOMY Bottles of 100

FOR POCKET OR PURSE Tin Boxes of 12

Remember it is Genuine Bayer Aspirin which claims this quick-dissolving, quick-acting property. So be careful that you get the real article when you buy. See that any box or bottle you purchase is clearly marked "Genuine Bayer Aspirin." And that any tablet you take has the name "Bayer" stamped on it in the form of a cross. Then you will get quick relief.

Remember that when you buy, and remember, too, that Genuine Bayer Aspirin Does Not Harm the Heart.

Eight-Quart Windsor Cooker To Be Given Away At Close Of Ward's School.

Montgomery Ward will present absolutely free an 8-quart Windsor Pressure Cooker to some adult person in the audience at the 3 o'clock demonstration Saturday, October 29.

Lynn Harmon, factory representative, who is making the valuable demonstrations well worth while, prepared a delicious beef stew, cooked twelve minutes without water, and prepared a tasty apricot dessert at the interesting demonstration Tuesday afternoon.

Never a more opportune time could have been chosen than now for the consideration of food and fuel saving. Attractive, delicious and very different foods can be yours, by attending these pleasant afternoon sessions and see for your self the enticing manner in which you and others may profit by the splendid and clear manner in which these menus are prepared. A short time ago these demonstrations were begun at the local store and immediate meeting with so much success and radiating to much enthusiasm among housewives, that the Ward company has developed a field of looming and such similar projects throughout the immense group of popular Ward stores.

Aren't you among the many housewives in Ranger who truly prides herself and delights in knowing how to prepare foods to the very best advantage? A varied, well balanced and prepared meal is indicative to a truly capable cook and interesting housekeeper.

These demonstrations not only prove the worth of one's time spent in the kitchen but impress to a large degree, the importance and necessity of each and every dish prepared in the best manner for health's sake.

To the lady bringing the largest number of visitors, a prize will be presented each afternoon.

Spend one hour at Ward's school for the remainder of the week. The many who have already chosen wisely and invested in Windsor cookers be present for the school and garnish more interesting facts about preparing foods for your family, whose health and happiness depends on the food they eat.

Praise Is Given Mrs. Bryan For Wonderful Lecture.
Forty-one members of Hodges Oak Park Parent-Teachers association heard the wonderful lecture given by Mrs. Gid J. Bryan, Tuesday afternoon, when the fluent speaker chose as her subject, "World-Wide Citizenship."

The leader for the program, Mrs. E. C. Byars, gave a very splendid introductory, adding enthusiasm to the hour.

The fine points of the address were given in so smooth, colorful and impressive manner, the spell-bound attentive audience, approves it as being one of the very finest addresses of its kind ever to have been presented for the benefit of such an organization.

The group of hearers as a whole plainly admit the prominent ministers of Ranger churches have a competent rival in Mrs. Bryan, wife of Rev. Bryan, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Mrs. Bryan has favored various gatherings recently with outstanding lectures and has gained wide recognition as a Bible student. Her talks are a special and looked forward to feature at such Missionary society meeting at the First Methodist church on Monday afternoons.

Mrs. J. S. Reynolds, president of the P. T. A. will represent the body assembly of this ward at the State convention at Galveston in Nov.

Plans are still going forward for a delightful and successful carnival arranged for Saturday night. It will be definitely decided this afternoon if the Tharpe building on Main street will be occupied on this particular spook night.

Never in the history of the P. T. A. has there been a more complete program outlined for the entire year and never was there more enthusiasm and co-operative efforts put forth for every project.

DERRICK SHADOWS

By V. MARIE STEPHENS

This column is used as a feature and should not be construed as representing the editorial views of the paper. The expressions contained in the column are the views of one individual and do not reflect the policy of the paper.

I caught a brief glimpse of the Dr. Jeckyll and Mr. Hyde of my own life last night.

He came into my room about 8 o'clock and asked me to take a walk with him. His clothes were torn and his hair matted and uncombed, and the wistful look in his big brown eyes almost brought the tears to my own. And because I felt sorry for him, I consented to stroll and talk with him . . . this lonely, miserable little soul I call myself.

Arm in arm we wandered down the street. I looked at him with utter contempt.

"Why are you so little?" I asked the wretch.

"Because of you and our interests, and because we both love self-glory and I meditate on it secretly while you are going about in obvious social interest," he replied contentedly.

Whereupon, I commanded that the culprit forget his own existence and think on the ways of the world.

And silence reigned.

A coupe rushed past us, slowing down only within a few feet of the depot in order that a safe turn to the right be accomplished. I heard myself gasp at the recklessness of the younger generation, but silenced him with a wave of my left hand.

We hesitated as a couple passed in the dark of the night. Their muffled voices were indistinct, accompanied by the clear tap, tap, tap of the girl's heels, and the occasional laughter of the man. They walked slowly on down the street, and I felt lonely with only myself and Monsieur Silence. Both of them were moody and still. I dislike them with a passionate hatred instilled through a longing for something different.

Cars, cars everywhere. Lights dotting the darkness. Two little girls on skates grazed my skirts with alarming nearness. Their gay shrieks grated on my nerves. . . . Myself opened his unsightly mouth to agree with me that little ladies of 10 should be seen and not heard, but I frowned on his contemptible idea and he smiled instead. I was glad.

I felt the urge to window-shop, but the strange, foolish creature beside me wore such a sullen countenance I was ashamed of him and rushed madly past anyone who might know me.

We passed a drug store with a lot of do-do-de-o, te-dee-de-do music emitting therefrom. It simply made my flesh crawl, but when I saw that Monsieur Silence felt the same way about it, I decided it wasn't so bad after all.

Almost home again! The lights of the symbol derrick gleamed behind us and the cars were growing thinner as we passed beyond the realm of the "drag."

With a sudden light of understanding, I took myself by the hand and smiled into his miserable face. He returned the look gratefully, and I had a desire to put my arms about him and get better acquainted. What a world of in-

Hide Run-Away Marriage!

Frances Dee and Gene Raymond, in "The Night of June 13," escape parental supervision and marry. Their efforts to conceal the marriage add to the difficulties of Clive Brook, on trial for his life. Showing Thursday and Friday at the Arcadia.

"Murder Trial" Is Held In Ranger

"Murder Trial" was conducted at the First Baptist church of Ranger Tuesday night, with prominent members of the various churches of the city taking an active part in the trial. Members of the different churches had parts as judge, deputy sheriff, jurors, defendant and other figures usually seen at a murder trial.

The "trial" was held to teach two important lessons, one the penalty of crime and the other the evils of lax prohibition enforcement.

Dr. Atticus Webb, for many years a crusader in the cause of prohibition, assisted in the production of the trial.

Little Symphony To Play At Arcadia

The Ranger Little Symphony orchestra, under the direction of R. L. Maddox, will appear at the Arcadia theatre tonight at 9 o'clock, offering special music at the concert.

Those who have not heard the Little Symphony do not realize that Ranger has such an accomplished musical organization. Mr. Maddox has been working hard to get the orchestra in trim for this appearance and he promises the music lovers of the city and surrounding community a rare treat tonight.

What on earth are you up to now?

FINDING things out, smarty! I thought I'd examine the tobacco in a cigarette.

"Look here... this is Chesterfield tobacco. Notice its lighter color... you don't see any dark heavy types, do you? I guess that's why Chesterfields are milder.

"I'm told that uniformly lighter color is due to cross-blending. It sort of welds all the tobaccos into one.

"And here's something else. Notice that these long shreds are all cut the same width. It stands to reason they burn smoother and cooler.

"I don't pretend to be an expert but it looks to me as if they make Chesterfields right.

"Here, light one. That's the best test after all. They Satisfy."
