A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

FEAR DESTROYED: Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed; for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee, yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.—Isaiah 41: 10.

WHERE TAX DODGERS GO ON STRIKE

Chicago faces a strike of taxpayers. They owe in unpaid taxes $200,000,000. A recent United States supreme court decision holding the assessment of taxes legal gave the city of Chicago authority to collect unpaid taxes. Well, the supreme court of the United States says the last word. Now the taxpayers may continue to strike.

A reminder that on the platform as shining ornaments when President Hoover made his Chicago speech were William Hale Thompson and Len Small. Thompson ruled Chicago 12 years as the high republican boss. When he was thrown out the city was bankrupt. Now he is the big republican boss once more on the outside looking in. He is backing Len Small, who is the republican nominee for governor. Well, who is Len Small? First, he was elected state treasurer of Illinois. He served several terms. He placed the taxpayers' money in pet banks. He collected the profits. Then he was elected governor of Illinois. Suit was brought for the collection of the money of the people. A republican supreme court of Illinois handed down the decision that Small was responsible for the money which failed to return to the strongbox of the state government. Now he is the G. O. P. nominee for mayor and Big Bill who wrecked the finances of Chicago is his chief pilot.

Why do all the pointing at Jimmy Walker? Why not take a potshot at Big Bill? Why not introduce in the picture of eminent reformers, Len Small, a banker-treasurer who knew where to place the people's money and where he thought the interest would do the most good?

14 WETS DEMOS IN CONGRESS RACE

According to the Woman's Organization for National Prohibition Reform, the poll the organization is conducting shows wet candidates for the 73rd congress exceed the drys 11 to 1. Replies are tabulated of 607 candidates from 45 states. Fourteen from Texas are listed as wets. According to the poll made public, the organization classified 553 of these replying as wet and 34 dry. It is said to be significant that 333 democrats are standing on their national plank while 135 republicans, avowed repealists, have parted with the republican restrictive plank.

They may be wet in Texas but how wet? There are many submissionists who are not wets. They are willing to submit the so-called "burning issue" to the voters of the 48 states. As revisionists but not repealers the showing may point to the modification of the Volstead act. Regardless of all this, it is a long road to Tipperary. All the democratic states of the South that bolted four years ago are safely democratic this year and there has been a remarkable change in the so-called pro sentiment in many of the commonwealths below the Mason and Dixon line. A presidential election has never been won until the votes have been counted. This for the guessers; this for the gamblers; this for the voters.

CHICAGO TAXPAYERS LOSE THEIR HIGH COURT APPEAL

Chicago property owners, contesting real estate taxes assessed by Cooke county for 1929, were given a solar plexus blow by the supreme court of the United States when that august tribunal refused to review the petition of 2500 real estate owners asking that the court pass on the assessment. Now the 2500 will be compelled to walk to the office of the tax collector of Cooke county and deposit the back tax money on the barrel head. It is possible to get blood out of a turnip—in Chicago.

Pessimists are quite numerous, and wherever they are they make an awful noise.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

Nothing is as close to the heart of the real booster as the city in which he lives.

Home city boosters are always performing essential functions that are so necessary for the public welfare.

Home city boosters never buy out of town when they can secure products of equal merit that are manufactured in the home city.

The business men of the home city are the life-blood of the home city. Without them you would have no city. As they progress so will your city progress.

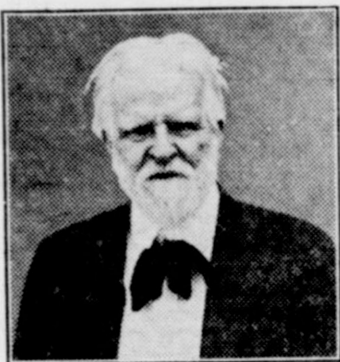

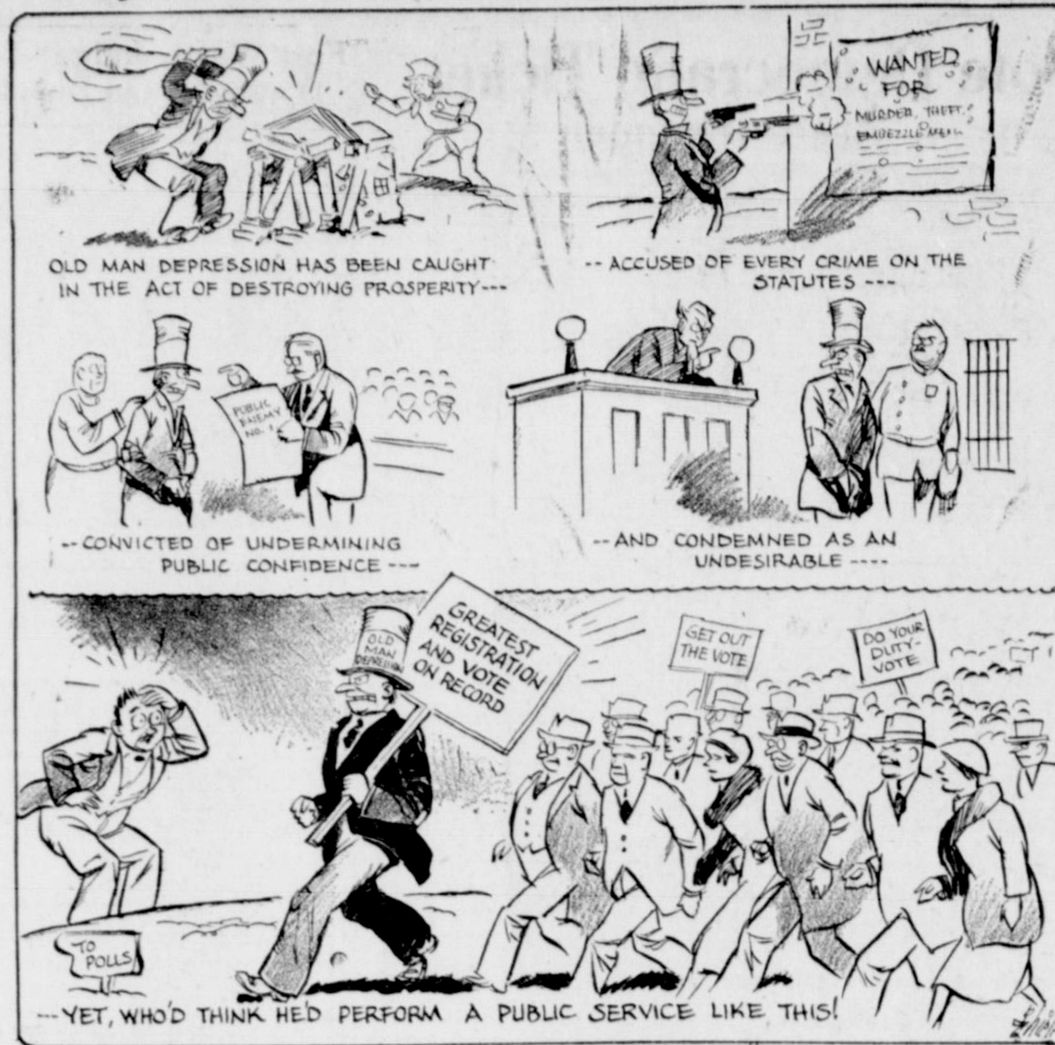

The more prosperous home city business men are the more prosperous your city will be.

If their business is poor, so will the chances of success for your city be poor.

Better business for the home city business men is the way to build your community into a bigger one.

Boost business for the home city.

EDWIN MARKHAM

Edwin Markham, author of "The Man With the Hoe," "Lincoln, the Man of the People," and other famous poems, has written a poem to "The Forgotten Man," dedicated to Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The Forgotten Man

By EDWIN MARKHAM

Dedicated to Franklin D. Roosevelt, after hearing his lofty and noble appeal for the Forgotten Man.

NOT on our golden fortunes builded high— Not on our boasts that soar into the sky— Not upon these is resting in this hour The fate of the future; but upon the power Of him who is forgotten—yes, on him Rest all our hopes reaching from rim to rim. In him we see all of earth's toiling bands, With crooked backs, scarred faces, shattered hands.

He seeks no office and he asks no praise For all the patient labor of his days. He is the one supporting the huge weight; He is the one guarding the country's gate. He bears the burdens on these earthly ways: We pile the debts, he is the one who pays. He is the one who holds the solid power To steady nations in their trembling hour. Behold him as he silently goes by, For it is at his word that nations die.

SHATTERED with loss and lack, He is the man who holds upon his back The continent and all its mighty loads— This toiler who makes possible the roads On which the gilded thousands travel free— Makes possible our feasts, our roaring boards, Our pumps, our easy days, our golden hours, He gives stability to nations: he Makes possible our nation, sea to sea. His strength makes possible our college walls— Makes possible our legislative halls— Makes possible our churches soaring high With spires, the fingers pointing to the sky.

SHALL then this man go hungry, here in lands Bled by his honor, builded by his hands? Do something for him: let him never be Forgotten: let him have his daily bread; He who has fed us, let him now be fed. Let us remember all his tragic lot—, Remember, or else be ourselves forgot!

ALL honor to the one that in this hour Cries to the world as from a lighted tower— Cries for the Man Forgotten. Honor the one Who asks for him a glad place in the sun. He is a voice for the voiceless. Now, indeed, We have a tongue that cries the mortal need.

Tyler Bowler Has a Perfect Score

By United Press.

TYLER, Texas.—What a hole in one is to the golfer, a home run with the bases full to the baseball player, or a touchdown from the kickoff to the gridiron, was accomplished in bowling here when F. M. Rogers had the bowlers perfect thrill of rolling 300 in a game on the local alleys.

It is the first time a perfect score has been made here, and one of the few times it is believed to have been made in the state. Rogers, rolling with O. U. Beasley in a match game, got 12 straight strikes, but reported he was pretty nervous along at the last.

Ancient Well Now An Old Landmark

By United Press.

FORT WORTH.—An old well in an alley here has been marked by the Six Flags Chapter, D. A. R., for the world to see.

"Frenchman's Well, 1857," reads a marker near a strange crypt of stone 10 feet high and shaped like a bee-hive. The 75-year-old well was built, or dug, by a man whose surname alone is unknown. Barbee, a stone mason, migrated to Texas with a French colony and settled at French Town five miles west of Dallas.

Barbee later moved here, built a stone schoolhouse and a home, probably the first structures in the present city of Fort Worth.

Aged Woman on Hitch-Hike Tour To Look For Job

By United Press.

FORT WORTH.—Lonely, unemployed, 64 years old, Mrs. Jane Yates set out four months ago with $10, on a hitch-hiking tour of the north and east.

Today she was back at her garage-home here, with $10, looking for a job. Four years ago she lost her real home. Her mother died. She became a widow in 1916. Except for a few brothers and sisters scattered over the nation, she had no one to look to.

Then the grey-haired woman determined the dreams of her girlhood should come true. She would see Niagara Falls. She would see the national capitol. She would see the ocean, with the surf booming on the shore.

Hot Springs, Ark., held no jobs for her, nor did St. Louis, Mo., Chicago, or Niagara Falls. "But the falls were beautiful," Hitch-hiking all the way, she finally arrived at New York city, only $3 of her savings left.

There she secured housework for $2 a week pay. She worked a while, then hitch-hiked to Philadelphia and Washington. At the capitol city a newspaper reporter saw the bent, stooped figure of a woman, shoes worn, trudging toward a highway. He stopped her. He brought temporary fortune to the wanderer. She was dined, shown the city, and a ride arranged to Asheville, N. C. Tourists were kind. She returned with $10.

Georgia Farmers Greet Roosevelt

This wasn't a scheduled stop on Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt's campaign swing through the south, but rather a pleasant one at the judgment from the smiles on the faces of the Democratic presidential candidate and the Georgia farmers who halted his car. The roadside reception was one of a series given Roosevelt as he drove from Atlanta to Warm Springs, Ga. It was in this community that he established the Warm Springs Foundation for the treatment of crippled persons soon after an attack of poliomyelitis had deprived him temporarily of his legs.

NOTICE TO WATER CUSTOMERS

In a general reduction of operating expenses the City it has been necessary to eliminate the services of one clerk in the office. It has been the custom in the past to send out second notices to delinquent water customers each month but owing to this reduction in clerical force this practice will be discontinued after November 1st. All water bills are due on the first and payable by the tenth of the month and if not paid by that time the service is subject to be discontinued at any time without further notice. We are asking that our customers cooperate with us in this manner and pay water bills promptly, thus enabling us to keep the expenses of the City down to the minimum.

The Mavericks defeated the Vernon Lions at Eastland Friday afternoon by a score of 6 to 0 in the first quarter. The outcome was doubtful up to the last whistle as each team made drives that were not topped until the opponents tend to what was reached. Each team of line is commonly known as night football throughout the state. Very few passes were attempted, one by Eastland was intercepted before it got away. Two were made by Vernon, but were completely, one was good for a yard and one was intercepted. Mackall, the last half of the game was played in a pouring rain. The Maverick touchdown came in the middle of the second half, Burgamy received a punt on the 50 yard line and returned to the 30 yard strip.

Fort Worth Judge Youngest On Bench

Fort Worth, Tex. (United Press.)—Hal Lattimore, judge of the court of civil appeals here, is the youngest appellate justice in Texas. "Good morning, son," he is greeted by Chief Justice Truman H. Conner, on the appellate bench for 34 years, and by Judge Irby Dunklin, his white-haired associate.

Out to Win By a Hair

Of course, all this cutting-up will be to no avail if Centenary College, Shreveport, La., turns in any hair-raising wins on the gridiron. But the freshman seem to think shins clipping is barred on the gridiron. It might work wonders when tried on their hair. Back in 1927 the freshmen graders had their heads clipped and the varsity won every game on its schedule. So they hope it works during 1932.

Four such fellowships, involving a $1,200 expense account, are offered each year to University of Texas students by the E. B. Farmer estate.

On the first play Mackall plunged through center and, with the aid of interference, made a backward field run for the necessary distance. Burgamy failed on his pass for the extra point.

Most of the first quarter was played in midfield. In this period the Lions did not get within Eastland's 30 yard line. Near the close of the quarter the Mavericks made bid for a touchdown and with tackle plays by Burgamy, line angles by Mackall and an end run by Brown reached the Lions' 15 yard line before they were held on downs. The quarter ended with a ball on the 50 yard line and was only necessary for the teams to change sides.

The second quarter produced no score scoring threats with the exception of the one that delivered suits for the Mavericks. On a line threat the Lions got to a point where they could see the Eastland goal line, but the Mavericks had no difficulty in stopping on the fifteen yard line. This drive was featured by punting through Daniel's outlasting Garner, later back for Vernon.

The half ended with the ball on Eastland's 40 yard marker in her possession. The Lions came back in the second quarter.

ond half with a rush and for a few minutes, as Garner ripped through on off tackle plays and around ends for long gains, it seemed that the Eastland lads might be swept off their feet again, but they said, "To the top yard line you come and go further." That held good throughout the game.

Vernon made her most serious threat for a touchdown during the third quarter. Starting on their own 10 yard line, where one of the Daniel variety of punts had been downed, marched steadily up the field with Garner and Thompson, half back and captain for the Lions alternately carrying the ball until they reached Eastland's 10 yard line. Here they failed only because one of the Maverick linemen hit Garner so hard that he forgot to hold on to the ball. Eastland recovered the fumble. Another similar threat was made in the fourth quarter.

Eastland made three bids for touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Starting on their own 35 yard line Burgamy, Mackall and Brown plunged and run the ball to Vernon's 8 yard line only to be held on downs. Garner punted to his own 40 yard line and Burgamy returned to the 10. But four tries failed to gain.

During the last minute of play Garner fumbled one of Daniel's long punts within ten yards of his goal and the ball was covered by Allison on the two yard line. One try by Mackall gained only half the distance and the final whistle blew.

Burgamy and Mackell were the shining lights for the Mavericks; Allison played a splendid game at center but not so outstanding as usual. Bagley at tackle showed up well in the second half. For Vernon, Garner at quarter was the star with Thompson a close second. In fact there were no bad players on the Vernon team.

'Faithless' at Lyric Well Acted Drama Of Modern Program Tallulah Bankhead and Robert Montgomery are the interesting personalities about whom the story of 'Faithless' now showing at the Lyric Theatre, Eastland 12.

The brilliant and thoroughly individual Miss Bankhead has a vehicle worthy of her talents in this timely drama of an heiress whose world collapses about her when the economic depression puts an end to her luxurious existence. Forced to stand on her own feet at last, the heroine of this realistic drama follows a colorful path in search of a way out of chaos.

Montgomery is excellent as the man whose fortitude in the face of obstacles helps Miss Bankhead to regain her emotional balance. Worthy support is given the two stars by Hugh Herbert, Maurice Murray, Louise Crosser Hale and others. The directing direction of Harry Beaumont also contributes to making 'Faithless' an effective piece of screen entertainment.

DAME FASHION OKAYS CHOCOLATE DESSERTS

By ALICE BLAKE
What a tyrant Dame Fashion is! A few years ago she dictated the straight up-and-down figure, no curves—all lines and angles.

But at last, the tyrant is giving the "human form divine" a chance. Curves are once more in fashion.

And now's our chance to once again enjoy those delicious desserts. Here is a chocolate dessert recipe that will delight man, woman and child.

Baked Chocolate Custard. 2 squares unsweetened chocolate, cut in pieces.

4 cups milk, 4 eggs, slightly beaten, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Add chocolate to milk in double boiler and heat. When chocolate is melted, beat with rotary egg beater until blended.

Party Is Held At Home of Mrs. Barney

Numbered among last week's social happenings filling a varied calendar of entertainment came a very pretty appointed function when members of the Julia Alexander grove No. 1954, of the Woodman Circle, were entertained at the home of Mrs. H. E. Barney from 2:30 until 5 o'clock.

Golden-toned chrysanthemums, embedded with lacy runners of fern, adorned each room where lively and entertaining games and contests were enjoyed during the hours complimenting this group of guests.

The affair is the climax and high point of a contest conducted this summer which covered a period of several weeks.

Mrs. Emily Hodges was winner of the only prize awarded, encased in white tissue and tied with ribbon to harmonize with the colors used in the motif.

CALL of the WEST by R. G. MONTGOMERY

STAN BALL, across ASPER DELO, timber king, of having men shot who try to check up on his activities.

"You can stand to ride up there, you ought to go," Swergin spoke with a trace of feeling.

"Go and get a horse and I'll ride up with you," Dona spoke weakly. The shock had been almost more than she could bear.

Swergin left the porch and strode toward the corral. When his back was squarely turned a fendish grin spread over his heavy features.

At the corral he found no attendant and had to do the saddling himself. This delayed him a few minutes.

Suddenly Dona's panic swept away from her and she became a tigress defending her own.

Worse, he was a fiend. At that moment she felt she could stand again under the tree on the ridge above and watch him hang without a touch of sympathy.

She wished Dudley was at her side. He had never been on hand when she really needed him and she wondered if it was always to be that way.

Swergin was leading two horses up the path. Dona watched him come and a feeling of loathing crept over her despite the anxiety that tugged at her heart.
