Bids Opened This Week for Vocation Shop

Bids were opened Thursday afternoon for a proposed vocational building for the Eastland Public School and seven contractors bid for the job. Low bid of $20,973 was submitted by E. B. McGown, Abilene builder, and high bid was $24,850, submitted by Gail Galbraith Co., also of Abilene.

The building is to be of concrete block construction with 3,300 square feet with classrooms, rest rooms and office facilities, as well as a shop. Roof will be flat, utilizing material owned by the school system.

It will be located just south of the tennis courts on High School Hill.

Bids were generally higher than anticipated, a school board member said. The board will meet this week to consider the bids. Provisions allow 30 days for the board to accept or reject any or all the bids.

Other bidders included three others from Abilene, and one from Dallas Kinnard-Beck Co., contractors on the elementary and gymnasium buildings, nearing completion, had specifications for the shop building, and who were expected to bid, but did not submit a bid because of lack of time to prepare an estimate, it was reported. Another bidder from Abilene submitted a bid, but was disqualified because his cashier check to guarantee performance had been mis-placed.

She was born in Little Rock, Arkansas on November 1, 1912. She attended school in Eastland and married Carl C. Foster in Cisco in 1922.

Survivors are her husband, one son, Carl, Jr.; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Quinn of Eastland; one brother, Guy Quinn Jr. of Breckenridge; and one sister, Mrs. A. W. McGrath of San Antonio.

Local Residents Up Water Usage During Drought

Eastland water consumption is up considerably this summer due unquestionably to the extreme drought conditions.

Consumption for June in Eastland was 23,112,000 gallons and increased in July to 30,650,000 gallons. That was a total of all water billed by the city hall. A large amount was used in addition to that figure by the city pool, the fire department and the water hydrants, all of which receive water free from the city since they are city owned and operated.

Water rates this summer are $3.65 for the first 3,000 gallons; 45 cents a 1000 gallons for the next 7,000 gallons and 30 cents a thousand gallons for all over 10,000 gallons. Last summer all over 10,000 gallons was 25 cents a thousand gallons.

Summer rates, which Eastland residents are being charged, continue through August with winter billing, which is 40 cents for all over 10,000 gallons, to begin with September billing.

Scrappy, Young Mavericks Begin Drills Monday at 8

When the aspiring Eastland Mavericks get together Monday morning at 8, it will be a get-acquainted session, Head Coach Millard Glass says — but after that, each drill session and workout will be a competitive round to see who earns slots on the coveted Mav team for the 1964 season.

A strong, though young team is expected, Coach Glass said. Six starters graduated last year — but an energetic group of freshmen are going to be called on for some help.

First game for the Mavericks will be on home soil when they clash with Comanche Sept. 4.

There'll only be four non-conference games this year and six battles for the District 10-A honors. Accustomed-to-winning Albany is being picked by the area pickers for the top spot, which is, if not a sure-thing, a reasonable assumption, but as district-watchers know, down the line and as the season progresses, things have a way of becoming surprising.

Lending Coach Glass valuable assistance and counsel again this year will be Coaches Denson Moody and Harold Price. After Monday's "get-together," sessions will be held daily at 7 a.m. and again at 5:30 p.m. (And the Mavericks are undoubtedly second only to the area farmers and ranchers in hoping for cool, damp weather.)

Senior stalwarts include: Wayne Waldon, Gaylon Griffin, Mickey Sargent, Mike Miller, Garry Rollins and Norman Rhodes.

The freshman line-up hasn't been compiled yet, but will be announced soon.

Schedule for the Mavs shapes up like this: Sept. 4, Comanche at Eastland; Sept. 11, Rising Star, there; Sept. 18, Cisco, here; Sept. 25, Dublin, there; Oct. 2, Albany, here; Oct. 9, Baird, there; Oct. 16, Clyde, here; Oct. 23, Ranger, there; Oct. 30, open; Nov. 6, DeLeon, here; Nov. 13, Cross Plains, there.

Last year Eastland won five (over Cross Plains, DeLeon, Gorman, Comanche and Rising Star) and lost five (to Albany, Baird, Cisco, Ranger and Clyde.)

EASTLAND'S TOURIST FAMILY OF THE WEEK

Arizona Family Feted As Tourists of the Week

An attractive Arizona couple and their lively seven year old son were named Tourist Family of the week in ceremonies Wednesday afternoon in Eastland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Burnam and Steve, 7, of Tucson, Ariz., were driving through town on their way home from a vacation visit with relatives in Alabama when a highway patrol car flagged them to a stop.

The couple admitted to being a little "scared" at being stopped by such formidable authorities, but things brightened up when the highway patrolman explained that they had just been selected "Tourists of the Week" by the Eastland Chamber of Commerce. They readily accepted the honor.

Mr. Burnam, an electronics technician at the Tucson Air Force Base, and his family were on their way back from a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Martin of Glencoe, Ala., and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burnam of Oxford, Ala.

The family said they were overwhelmed by Eastland friendliness and certainly appreciated efforts made to welcome them as symbolic of all tourists who are passing through this area.

Eastland merchants who honored the Burnams included an overnight stay at the Village Hotel, a complete automobile servicing by the McCracken Mobil Service Station, passes to the Majestic Interstate Theater, supper at Jordan's Drive-In, breakfast at the Village Hotel Coffee Shop, and a swimming treat at the Eastland City Park pool.

Mayor Frank Deaton was chairman of the chamber committee which arranged the event. C-C President James Smith made the welcome.

The couple said they were impressed with the opportunity to stay overnight free in Eastland, and added that the visit in the West Central Texas town would certainly help break up a monotonous trip.

All courtesies extended to this week's Tourist of the Week family were given by friendly Eastland merchants who are members of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, and are local residents' way of saying — "We're glad to have you. Come back soon!"

Girlstown Group Breakfasts Here On Vacation

Some 36 Girlstown residents breakfasted at the White Elephant Restaurant early Thursday morning en route back to their home at Whiteface after a 13-day vacation trip which included a trip to Fort Worth, Dallas and Six Flags.

The group was through Eastland, Cisco and Ranger earlier during the trip when they toured Cisco and Ranger junior colleges, and were guests of a number of county philanthropists.

Mrs. Marene Johnson was hostess to the breakfast at the White Elephant. Also attending was Jim Golden of Eastland, godfather of the girls from the school.

The girls include those from broken homes, orphans and from underprivileged homes. The girls were on their annual vacation aboard a bus and two station wagons.

H-SU Professor In First Baptist Pulpit Sunday

Dr. James W. Bennett, Hardin-Simmons University counselor and assistant professor of Psychology, will be guest preacher at the First Baptist Church in Eastland Sunday in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Haston Brewer, who is vacationing with his family in Oklahoma.

Dr. Bennett will speak at both the morning and evening services, it has been announced. The visiting preacher has held several pastorates and was for several years an Air Force chaplain.

Baptist RA Boys Are Home From Lueders Camp

Four young Royal Ambassadors from the First Baptist Church won hiker awards at annual junior RA camp held at Lueders Baptist Encampment Aug. 10-13, according to a report from the church.

Randall Treadwell, Jimmy McCullough, Steve Hart and Jimmy Sayre were the winners. Also attending were Scott Chance, Alan Jolly and Johnny Paul Grimes. Counselors who attended were Terry Treadwell and Ronald Barton.

Some 290 boys attended the annual district camp.

Larry Goldston returned to his home in Wichita Falls Friday after visiting briefly with his friend, Rudy Fambrough. Larry, a former resident of Eastland, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Goldston of Idabel, Okla. and formerly of Eastland.

Cattle Grazing Soil Bank Land As Emergency Program Begins

Drought-plagued livestock in Eastland County began grazing soil-banked acreage late this week in a U.S.D.A.-approved emergency measure to help farmers and ranchers during the dry spell.

The Agriculture Stabilization Conservation office at the courthouse was literally swamped all day Friday, and Office Manager Gilbert Meredith reported that the staff accepted applications as quickly as possible, and began granting approvals about 2 p.m. as land-owners signed statements to follow the rules of the program and payed the office for the right to graze the land. The U.S.D.A. has already paid the landowners for "laying the land by" and now, with scarcely little rain this summer, the owners are turning to the "saved" grassed lands for emergency help to keep stock fed.

It's costing the landowners a minimum of $1 an acre per month for land with poor cover. And $1.25 an acre per month for fair cover and $1.50 for good cover. The ASCS office has records of the type of cover, and field men will begin Monday making spot checks of the participating farmers.

Meredith warned against grazing of diverted acres before permission is granted and payments are made.

The office will continue to take applications, he said. The program was authorized by the Washington Department of Agriculture headquarters to extend through Oct. 31.

Gorman Liquor Vote Petition Is Issued

Sept. 19 is guesed to be the most-likely date for a wet election in Gorman with spokesmen from that town indicating that "they don't expect much trouble in getting their petitions signed."

The completed petitions probably will be presented to the county commissioners court Monday, Aug. 24, and that body must call the election in not less than 20 days and not more than 30, if the petitions are found to be in order.

An application for petition to legalize sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption in Gorman was filed Wednesday with Eastland County Clerk Johnson Smith by a delegation of Gorman residents.

The application bore 12 names, and only 10 were required. It was signed by some of the leading citizens of the community. The petition was issued at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Approximately 136 signatures will be required on the petition, which is 25 per cent of the qualified voters in the county precinct in which Gorman is located. The election is for the city limits of Gorman only.

A 30-day period is allowed for securing the required names. The petitions are to be returned to the clerk's office by Sept. 10. According to law, the Commissioners Court must order an election to be held not less than 20 days after the return of the petition nor more than 30 days.

Fire Department Burns Off Hazards

Eastland Fire Department burned off a number of fire hazards in Eastland Wednesday, according to a report from Fire Chief Guy Robinson.

The areas included a large dry grass area behind the White Elephant Restaurant.

Chief Robinson said the precautions were taken in an effort to avoid blazes caused by discarded matches or cigarettes in the extremely dry weather Eastland has been experiencing.

Summer cooking make your kitchen "like an oven"?

Change to cool flameless electric cooking

Women who cook electrically will tell you that there is a big difference in kitchen comfort during the summer months because flameless electric surface cooking uses direct metal-to-metal contact with utensil both heat through the utensils and into the food, no flame. Electric oven cooking is cooler, too. There's no heat and exhaust of air is needed to support combustion. Electric cooking is insulated all around, including the bottom, where it belongs. See your electric range cooking the cool, flameless electric way!

Miss Annye Kate Blair Weds Jackie Don Wheeler Aug. 8

Miss Annye Kate Blair and Jackie Don Wheeler were united in marriage in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church of Gorman at 8 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 8. Rev. Roy F. Johnson, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Hewitt, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marvin Blair of Gorman, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John Wheeler of Gorman and the late Mr. Wheeler.

Organist, Mrs. Leo Lambert of Andrews, presented the wedding music. She accompanied Miss Marjean Edger of Dallas, who sang "Oh, Perfect Love," "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a for-pump machine Lizziebeth borrowed from a good friend.

Lizziebeth's daughter, Mrs. Annie Hatten is a native and longtime resident of Eastland. She learned her mother's talented art of knitting, embroidering quilt making and eventually crocheting by the time she was 10 years old. She applied the talent to practical things, and today has a number of beautiful knitted afghans, crocheted bed spreads and embroidery work.

Mrs. Hatten, a lively, white-haired little lady who is in her mid-nineties and will celebrate still another birthday next month, is the mother of Mrs. R. E. Stearns of Overton, who is staying with her mother at the present time. Mrs. Stearns learned her mother's talent for needlework also, and Lizziebeth's talent was preserved in a traditional, family way.

Mrs. Stearns recently completed an afghan of delicate blue, pink and white diamonds. She also china paints, knits, crochets and embroiders. She is one of five of Mrs. Hatten's children. Mrs. Hatten, who married Billy Hatten in Marble Falls, when she was 19 years old, had five children, two girls and three boys. The other girl died in infancy.

Anyone viewing the attractive needleworks of three generations would certainly agree that a tradition of talent had truly been passed down in this family. However, it may end at that for a while. Mrs. Stearns' children are two boys — Raymond and Robert, both of California. Until some great great grandchildren — of the female type — come along, the needlework in the family will be done by the pros!

mal wedding gown of white peau de soie with a molded bodice, controlled bell skirt and cathedral length lace framed train. Her finger tip veil of bridal illusion fell from a cluster of peau de soie roses. She carried a white Bible with a bridal bouquet of white roses and gardenia upon it.

Miss Elizabeth Ann Parr, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Priscilla Beadle of Dallas and SaraBeth Greer of Fort Worth. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Catherine Parr, cousin of the bride.

Bridal attendants wore identical formal dresses of deep aqua peau de soie with scooped neckline, cap sleeves, empire waistline and floor length trains. Their headdresses were peau de soie roses and each wore short white gloves and carried bouquets of white roses.

Best man was William Latham of Denton. Groomsmen were Jerry Hoodenyle of Fort Worth and Lt. Max Pierce of Austin. Ushers included B. F. Azece of Dallas, Paul Bellows of Richardson, and Jerry Warren of Orange and Max Ferris of Denton also served as candlelighters.

The bride's mother wore a rose silk sheath dress with matching accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a slate blue lace dress with matching accessories and a gardenia corsage.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall and members of the house party were Mmes. William Latham of Denton, B. F. Azece and Charles Butler of Dallas, Misses Kiki Dixon of Denton, Carolyn Christian of Fort Worth, Marilyn Shell and Linda Shell, both of Gorman.

For her wedding trip to Mexico the bride chose an aqua silk linen suit with black accessories. She used a gardenia corsage taken from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Gorman High School and North Texas State University where she was a member of Chi Omega, ACE and SNEA. She has taught in the Andrews Public School System for the past two years.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Gorman High School and received his BBA and MBA degrees from North Texas State University where he was president of Blue Key National Honor Fraternity, Rho Psi Student Union and NTSU Student Body. He is listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities and is in Who's Who at NTSU in Management. He is employed as Assistant Personnel Manager of State Farm Insurance Company.

The couple will reside at 14040 Pevton Street, Dallas.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. John Wheeler was hostess for the rehearsal dinner at Lone Cedar Country Club.

Bonnie Daskevitch, who is visiting his parents, from the Air Force Academy in Colorado, visited friends in Eastland Thursday evening. His family is from Ranger.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Rice have returned from a trip to Colorado Springs and Denver, Colorado.

It's Almost Unbelievable —

. . . but statisticians tell us that we Americans go more places in our cars and trucks nowadays than ever before, with an increase of 30 million vehicles since 1954. Every extra mile is a hazard and the chance for another accident. So far 1964 promises to be the Big Daddy of them all! Since the driving public determines the insurance rates it must pay, higher rates are inevitable. Better begin revising your budget now to include the high cost of driving in modern '64.

erty Hill, Tex., who handed down a tradition of talent that has survived even today and is being used and displayed in many ways.

The ambitious little woman, who mothered 11 children before dying at the youthful age of 49, taught her daughters the artful craft of needlework and using their hands to advantage. She knew how to knit, embroider, make quilts and do all types of needlework. She made all her children's clothes and underwear, and in those days such a task included long skirts and tucked, embroidered underwear and long fancy undershirts.

Lizziebeth Wheeler started a beautiful "basket of flowers" quilt in 1881 and finished it the following year. The quilt was handed down to one of her daughters and will eventually be handed down to her granddaughter.

The talented seamstress and needleworker never owned a sewing machine until a year before her death, when her husband finally purchased a machine to help in the enormous task of making clothes for 11 children. The beautiful "basket of flowers" quilt was made from hundreds of pieces of green basket material and red rese material hand cut and pieced together. B. W. Robertsons Describe N.Y. World's Fair Experience

(ED. NOTE: Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Robertson, owners and operators of Robertson TV Sales and Service in Eastland, recently attended the World's Fair in New York City and at our request are sharing accounts of their tour here for those of us who may not make it to the Fair.)

By MR. AND MRS. B. W. ROBERTSON

We have been asked to describe our trip to New York City and the World's Fair. This was our first trip East of the Mississippi, and we hope that our friends, who have not visited the Fair, will receive some valuable information concerning New York City. We shall attempt to describe some details (and prices, too) that may enlighten you who have heard many misleading rumors about high prices, reservations being canceled, etc.

The trip was arranged through Fugazy Travel Agency, even to smallest detail, for about 60 people. The agency will arrange tours for one or one hundred persons. As our group was this large, a guide, George Giftos, was assigned; he stayed in our hotel and made every effort to see that we were comfortable and happy. George was a native New Yorker, and accepted our ribbing graciously about the "damn Yankees."

At Southwest Airmotive Terminal in Dallas, we joined RCA Victor dealers from San Antonio area and flew to La Guardia Field in 6 1/2 hours. As there were only 60 people in our party (not enough to charter a jet) we flew in a four prop Constellation. The time consumed in travel gave us an opportunity to get acquainted with couples from Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Wichita Falls and other cities. Each day we joined two couples for our tours and found this very interesting. The friendliness and warmth of the entire party was amazing (and also contagious.)

Upon arrival at La Guardia Field which is located in the Queens Section of New York City, near the World's Fair Ground, we were met by our guide and transported by chartered bus across the East River to the Savoy Plaza Hotel on 5th Avenue. We were among the lucky few of our party who had a suite overlooking Central Park. A cocktail party was planned in our honor that evening, and we were entertained by a combo which played request numbers. With a tip from someone, they serenaded B. W. and me with "The Anniversary Song" in observance of our 25th anniversary.

Everyone drank a toast to our future which added a personal touch to the party. We went to the famous Latin Quarter for dinner and the floor show which featured a new star, Sandy Scott and her Scotties. Sandy is a talented young singer and dancer on her way up to success. The floor show was entitled "Diamond Fair," and the young ladies wore scarcely anything except diamonds. The Latin cuisine was delicious and in generous portions. (By the way, for interested parties, the meal and floor show was $7.50 per person. You might expect a Texan to ask such prices.)

At 7 a.m. Thursday, August 6, we had room call; after a delicious breakfast in the Savoy Plaza dining room, we departed from the hotel via bus to the Long Island Railroad Station and to the Fair grounds. The first stop was a personally guided tour of the RCA Building and Exhibit. Our guide steered us past a waiting line which was about one-half mile long. (You should have seen the expressions on the faces in that line!)

Just inside the building we viewed ourselves individually on color cameras with color televisions projected from every angle. A color show was being produced and it was explained that the temperature under the flood lamps would reach 240 degrees if it were not refrigerated.

There were many other interesting highlights in this exhibit for us RCA dealers.

The rest of the day was spent seeing other exciting pavilions such as the DuPont show, Chrysler show, Better House of Living and the day concluded with our group having dinner at the Danish Pavilion.
