A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

FAITH AND WORKS: Trust in the Lord, and do good: so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.—Psalm 37: 3.

BORAH AND THE GOLD STANDARD

Senator Borah, the lone eagle of Idaho, is again in the picture. He is preparing legislation to reduce the purchasing power of the dollar. Speaking of farm legislation proposed this very independent and outspoken American statesman said the American farmer could not receive a fair price for his products with 33 nations off the gold standard. Yes, Rep. Marvin Jones of Texas, chairman of the house agriculture committee, rang the bell when he placed in the record "there can be no national recovery as long as we have 10 cent corn, 5 cent cotton, and 30 cent wheat." In the last analysis of legislation to come, the deflated dollar may be transformed into an inflated dollar for the benefit or alleged benefit of the thousands or millions who are carrying obligation which "must be paid in gold." There is a mighty West and many new faces will be in the new congressional picture. All will declare for legislation for the remonetization of the white metal. William Jennings Bryan is dead, but his silver dollar soul goes marching along. Bryan fought and dreamed and died. Gold always won.

WHY NOT CASH ON THE BARREL HEAD?

This is a grand old world. Why not cash on the barrel head for a tombstone to perpetuate the virtues of the departed? Why shouldn't Texas families adopt the cash and carry plan? Why not be a modern instead of an ancient? For instance: "Failure to pay for tombstones would make the stone subject to removal from a cemetery by a bill introduced in the Texas legislature." Under the bill the vendor of the tombstone would be given a lien that would make the stone subject to removal unless it was paid for. After meditation and prayer the cash and carry plan is very respectfully submitted as a substitute for the mortgage lien on the marker plan.

WHERE THE PEOPLE RULE

Cuba was made an independent nation by the army and navy of the United States. Now the Cuban government has ruled that all United States newspapers and magazines must be "approved" by an official censor in future before they may be placed on sale at a Havana newsstand. In addition to this the police have ordered the confiscation of all Spanish language newspapers published in the United States. Both Spanish and English language newspapers published in Havana are under strict censorship. And this is the way Uncle Sam made Cuba "safe for democracy," a free press and local self government.

WELL, PLACE THIS IN THE RECORD

A proposal of the state senate that members of the legislature work for $8 a day rather than $10 was hit on the nose by the house of representatives. They decided they would vote a limit of $10 a day by a vote of 111 to 34. So "that's that." A representative is responsible first to his constituents and next to his conscience. His constituents are responsible for him. It is their Texas privilege to reward him or reject him in future time. He is said to be responsible to the Almighty for his conscience—and again "that's that."

GOVERNOR HORNER CALLS FOR SALES TAX

Governor Henry Horner of Illinois is a democrat. He defeated Republican Len Small by a huge majority. He swept into office the members of a democratic legislature. He has recommended to his lawmakers the sales tax plan as the most equitable of all forms of taxation. Gov. Mike Sennett Connor of Mississippi is swinging around the Lone Star commonwealth telling of the virtues of his tax plan. Lame duck lawmakers grinding away, and buck-passing most of the time, smashed the sales tax proposal. They do not know where they are going, but they do know they are on the way.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

Those business concerns that are still living in fear, doubt and strange forbiddings and who harbor only the thoughts of hard times show a great lack of faith in their country. They should investigate themselves and their own business, for the fault may be theirs. Investigation might show them that in these times of keen competition it would pay them to first sell to themselves a belief in their own business and then go out and sell it to the public through newspaper advertising.

In the success of your home city you will get your share of success.

Weekly Sunday School Lesson

JESUS FORGIVING SIN

Text: Mark 2:1-12. The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Jan. 22.

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D., Editor of The Congregationalist. If there was amazement at the teaching that the carpenter gave to his fellow townsmen, the fame of this new and unconventional prophet of religion spread very rapidly; so that whenever he spoke crowds gathered round to hear him, and if he happened to be speaking in house or synagogue, those who gathered to hear were so many that the building could not contain them, nor could they even get near the door.

This was the case in Capernaum, where the events in our lesson took place. With the fame of the teaching of Jesus had gone the story of his wonder-working power, and sick people were brought to him to be healed. The important thing about this lesson, however, was not that Jesus healed the sick by some spiritual influence or magic power; it was the message of peace and forgiveness that he dared to utter.

The healing of disease and the removal of physical defects, through miracles, or spiritual power, is a problem that deeply concerns the minds of men even in this scientific age. The skeptically minded scoff at the possibility of miracles, and yet it must be evident to all thinking and observing people that there is a certain power of mind over matter, and a spiritual influence that has physical effects upon health and strength.

Careful scientific investigation of the phenomena of mental and spiritual healing, it is true, usually dissipates many extreme claims. It will be found, often, that the diagnosis was not accurate and that what was represented as serious or organic disease was some functional trouble; or it will be found, in many instances, that the supposed healing has been rather temporary and due to some strange exaltation of the moment.

But even when all such cases are taken into account, there is still a residue of reality in spiritual healing; and wise men may well recognize the fact.

It should, however, be remembered that Jesus never laid the great stress upon his power to heal the body. He never represented his "mighty works" as the great thing in his mission. The supreme thing was the truth that he came to declare. It was for this end that he said he had been born, that he had come into the world "to bear witness unto the truth." He also defined his mission as "to seek and to save the lost."

Hence it was that the deepest of all messages that Jesus had for men was the message of forgiveness through the love and grace of God. Any work of wonder that he performed was in testimony to the deeper power that he exercised over the souls of men as one who had come with the supreme purpose of bringing them salvation.

It is important that we should make these distinctions. To think of Jesus merely as a wonder-worker, bringing into the world some magical power, is not enough, in fact it is perhaps to obscure the deepest truth concerning him. There is no blessing that he can bring to us greater than the spiritual blessing of forgiveness and restoration through the redeeming power of God.

This is the heart and soul of the Gospel, it is the essence of the teaching of Jesus, re-enforced by all his life and example in everything that he did and in everything that he said.

To find through him forgiveness of our sins and redemption through grace, is to find the way toward all the blessings he has to bestow—and it is the only way.

Former Resident of Eastland County Dies in Louisiana

News has just reached Eastland that W. L. Calhoun of Rayville, La., died a few days ago at the age of 75 years.

Will Calhoun, with his brother, J. H. Calhoun, came to Eastland county in the early 70's, and embarked in the mercantile business, the latter following his profession as a lawyer. Will Calhoun was a devout member of the Methodist church, though liberal in his views of public matters and had a host of friends.

He married a Miss Callie Davis by whom he had five children. He and his wife left Eastland a few years prior to the boom days for Rayville, La., where he had inherited an interest in a large plantation.

His wife died several years ago. Will Calhoun is an uncle of Lizzie May Foxworth and Maude Anderson of Cisco, and Della Drewery of Dallas, all daughters of J. H. Calhoun.

Will, as he was familiarly known, was a person of high moral character and one of the pioneer builders of Eastland county, and was especially instrumental in the progress of Eastland.

Parents' Night

Troop 2 held a very successful Parents' night last Friday night with some 33 visitors in attendance. The meeting opened with a Scout leading in prayer. The regular troop meeting procedure followed, to give to the parents a knowledge of what the Scouts go through with at their troop meetings. The Fox and Flying Eagle patrols both put on entertainment, pretending to be Scouts. A number of the fathers and mothers gave little inspirational talks, commending Scoutmaster Gill on his work and expressing their appreciation for same. A very interesting history of Troop 2 was given by Senior Patrol Leader Earl Baker. After the meeting closed, refreshments were served by the Scouts.

One Meal Hike

Last Friday afternoon, Scoutmaster O. E. Winebrinner was seen going through the streets of Brownwood with his troop and on inquiry, the scribe found out that they were taking a "one meal hike." That is, they were hiking out to the old dam on the Pecan Bayou, where they cooked their supper, which was followed by a campfire and Mr. Winebrinner and some of the Scouts studied the stars, this being a part of the astronomy merit badge, others played games. Tired and happy, Scouts reached town about 9 p. m. They report that the next meeting is to be a "cooking hike" which they state that each Scout has to cook everything he takes along, with the exception of bread.

New Assistant Scoutmaster

Troop 1 is fortunate in having Mr. Harvey Mays to register as assistant scoutmaster. Mr. Mays is a former scout in Cub Scouts, and has several years' experience in the position. He will be in charge of the troop, "once a Scout, always a Scout." We extend to Mr. Mays our greetings and wish for him a most happy experience in Scouting.

Troop 115, Rising Star

A scout orchestra has recently been formed by members of Troop 115 of Rising Star under the direction of assistant Scoutmaster Benny Bushbee and rehearsals are being held weekly with the view of a public performance soon. The orchestra, made up of 11 members, and should be better than the average scout orchestra, because all of its members are accomplished musicians and the director, Benny Bushbee has had considerable experience with orchestra work. The first public appearance will probably be made next month.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NBA Service Writer

WASHINGTON.—Senator Huey Long is just someone you can laugh off. Lots of people in Louisiana and Washington, have thought they could laugh Huey off. They know better now.

Once there was a notion that the Senate, which prides itself on its brand of hazing, would soon tame him. But the "Kingfish" has been hazing the Senate almost ever since he arrived. And more than one old-timer who has swapped blows with him has come out of it with a few less tail feathers.

Few men have drawn larger crowds to the Senate galleries than Long in his spectacular filibuster against the Glass banking bill. The crowds may have regarded him as a curiosity, but no one left the galleries without being impressed in one way or another.

Nor could anyone laugh off the fact that he had important aid in his one-man act from other senators or the fact that he was temporarily the spearhead of a radical but important movement for farm and unemployment relief.

Even a few members of the House came to the Senate chamber to watch this show.

ALL dressed up, Huey was. His little bow tie poked its ends under a batwing collar and his suit was a sober dark gray, reducing the effect of corpulence which his lighter clothing accentuates. He was chewing either gum or tobacco and his large, unruly forelock of reddish brown hair waved bullishly as he told the Senate and the rest of the world what at the annual father and son banquet.

The mountain directly south of Rising Star has taken on a new complexion since blasters working on the Rising Star-Brownwood road have left it and consequently members of Troop 115 have found a new interest in it. Within all probability it will be used regularly by Rising Star Scouts on overnight hikes for the blasters have uncovered a spring of crystal clear water in unlimited supply and plenty of firewood. Things to explore will make it plenty interesting for the Scouts. The mountain has been the property of Rising Star boys for generations but the local scouts have been the first in many years to exploit its possibilities.

Under the direction of Scoutmaster Venable, the play published in the January "Scouting" is being whipped into shape and should be given at the father-son banquet and other public appearances of the scout troop.

"Where There's a Will" is the name of the play and it portrays scouting as it really is.

New Troop

A new troop was started Early High school last Friday with Messrs. Edwards, Hoover, and Gorman as troop committee, L. E. Boyd, scoutmaster, and Leroy Preston as assistant scoutmaster. Some 19 boys are in line for the troop.

Scoutmaster's Pow Wow

One of the best Pow Wows since the Brownwood district scouts have organized, was held Monday night of this week at the scout office. J. K. Wilkes, scoutmaster of Troop 7 presided at the meeting in the absence of Chairman O. E. Winebrinner. The theme of the program was "Running a Troop." Scoutmaster Otha Venable invited the next Pow Wow to be held in Rising Star. Scoutmaster Kellum moved, and seconded by Scoutmaster Jones of Blanket, that the Pow Wow meetings be rotated in the district. This motion was carried.

Suprise Banquet-Lampassas

Lloyd Smith, a member of Troop 15 of Lampassas who is at present attending Howard Payne College reported that Troop 33 of Lampassas gave a surprise banquet to Troop 15 and to their own scoutmaster. Neither scoutmaster knew anything of the banquet until they almost had the "turkey by the leg." The banquet was held at the Country Club. Dr. N. B. Taylor, District Chairman, Roy L. Walker, court of honor chairman, and others were on the program. Lloyd reports everyone had a most enjoyable time.

Training Course

A Scout leader's elementary training course will be started in Lampassas next Monday evening. The course includes six sessions. One will be held each week.

Agricultural Extension New

From the Office of the County Agent and Home Demonstration Agent

Seed, one of the most important points in good gardening. It is safest to purchase from a reliable seed house and give enough time and thought to the purchasing of the seed to be sure that the varieties selected are adapted to your locality.

Buy enough seed to make several successive plantings of the short lived vegetables such as bush beans, radish, lettuce, English peas etc. Get Extension bulletin B-70, "Gardening" from county and home demonstration agent's office and refer to the table on pages 8 and 9 for a list of varieties and the quantity to plant for a family of six.

The highest quality vegetables come from soil that has been plowed deep and thoroughly pulverized. Be sure to get the garden broken in January so you can begin planting lardy vegetables in February.

Fertilizer: Use 4 to 6 wagon loads of manure and add 50 lbs. of acid phosphate to each load for a garden of 1-4 acres. Be sure to work the manure into the soil at the time of application.

Early tomato plants: The tomato seed should be planted in the hot bed or house box not later than January 20th. One ounce of seed will produce enough plants to set an acre. Sow seed 5 to 7 per inch in rows 4 inches apart covering 1-4 inch deep.

Hot bed: The information for making hot bed is in the office of the County and Home Demonstration agents, or write to Mailing Room, Extension Service, College Station, Texas, for Farm and Home Hints No. 323, "Hot Beds and Home Gardens."

Tomato plants can be grown without a hot bed. It is safest to have a hot bed in which to grow the plants, but they can be grown in shallow indoor boxes. Place stones or crushed rock in the bottom of the box and cover with 4 to 5 inches of fertile loam soil. Sow the seed 8 to 10 weeks before the plants are to be set in the garden. Keep the box outside as much as possible when the temperature is above 50. Do not water plants too much. Transplant the plants to cold frame or larger box when the first pair of true leaves have developed. Set plants 4x4 to give plants more room and prevent them from being "spindly." If the weather continues wet and cold, the plants should be transplanted or the soil covered with 5x5.

The tomatoes recommended for Texas are Break O' Day, Earliana, and Early Detroit are good early varieties. Gulf State Market and Globe are early to mid-season varieties, and Marglobe comes along a little later. Marglobe is a variety that is well resistant and gives promise of being one of the best. Records indicate that it is a very heavy producer and fine for canning.

The Stool Pigeon Speaks

These Eastland boys seem to be giving Velma Brown and Ora Mae McGee the rush lately.

All the students are talking about the wall being built around the high school. Some students thought it was going to be built high enough to keep the kids in. Someone suggested they put bars on the windows.

Paul Bray is seen rather often with one of our little high school fens.

WOMEN'S SMART SHOES 1.69

"Major" Reid of Eastland seems to be very "fond" of some of our junior college students. No names mentioned.

"Moco" Love, ex-Ballard, was a visitor in high school Thursday. Glad to see you, "Moco." Come back often.

Carl Leclair of Eastland was also a Ranger high visitor Thursday. He came to see "Red" as usual.

Mary Shirden of Electra seems to be making quite a hit with all the students, both girls and boys, and teachers.

I wonder why Dia Tippins looks at Forrest Lyons and smiles for. I am just wondering if it will mean anything in a few days.
