

Auto License Extension May be Granted

MARCH 1 IS DATE SELECTED FOR PAYMENT

Measure Expected To Be Put Through Legislature Tomorrow.

AUSTIN, Jan. 31.—Automobiles may be run until May 1 on 1932 license plates...

The bill substitutes May 1 for Feb. 1 in the present license law. It will also release the motorist of the 20 per cent penalty for failure to pay his license before Feb. 1.

A hurried meeting of the House committee on highways and motor traffic was held this afternoon immediately after the house adjourned for the day.

Unanimous consent had been given for introduction of the bill as an emergency measure and its authors are hopeful of being able to suspend rules tomorrow and pass it finally in the House in one day.

Sponsors of the bill said that unless some relief is offered there will be thousands of automobiles left in garages tomorrow because the owners did not have cash available to take out 1933 license plates.

Tonight, midnight, is the deadline for payment under present law.

The work of planting the shrubbery is to be done under the direction of the reconstruction finance corporation relief committee.

CONGRESS IS PLANNING TO RELIEVE DEBTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The noisy wheels of congress are beginning to turn in the direction of reducing the staggering debt burden of impoverished American citizens.

The first major move was the action of the house in passing the bankruptcy reform bill. It is a complicated bill with a simple purpose. That purpose is to permit an individual, an industrial corporation or a railroad to go into court and get relief from boom-day debts, without necessarily being deprived of his last shirt in the process.

Other significant bills are being considered to revise farm mortgages downward and to refinance them with federal money at reduced interest rates.

Because of the agony which mortgage ridden farmers are undergoing, their problem is being given special consideration. Bills being studied by committees would provide for refinancing $8,500,000,000 of farm mortgages at lower rates of interest and in reduced principal amounts.

The "back" is no longer lost as Palm definitely announced that the Rotarians had challenged the Lions to this game, to be played for sweet charity, with dates and tickets settled later.

Horton announced program chairman for next week as Earl Bender and Dr. W. E. Chaney. The attendance was almost 100 per cent.

LONE STAR ENGINEER GETS RECOGNITION FOR IDEA

Joe Moore, engineer at Ranger Plant No. 4, has been awarded second prize by the American Gas Association for his recent invention of a valve chamber remover used on Cooper engines.

DR. P. M. KUYKENDALL IS ELECTED HEAD RANGER C. C.

At the meeting of the directors of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, held in the office of the secretary Monday night at 7:30, Dr. P. M. Kuykendall was unanimously elected as president to succeed W. D. Conway, who has held the position for the past four years.

Other officers elected were A. J. Ratliff, vice president, and W. C. Hickey, secretary.

At the opening of the meeting W. D. Conway urged the directors to elect a new president, saying that he thought he had held the office long enough and believed that it should be rotated. He thanked the directors for the whole-hearted cooperation he had received from them during the past four years, saying that without this co-operation he would have been seriously handicapped in his work as president.

Upon the election of Dr. Kuykendall as president, the retiring president urged the same co-operation for the new president that had been shown in the past four years and predicted a good administration and a year of many accomplishments if the new president was given the same support which has become so much a part of the work of the directors and officers.

W. C. Hickey, secretary, made reports on the federal crop production loans, livestock loans, reconstruction finance corporation relief work and the drive for membership in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. He called attention to the fact that Monday, Feb. 13, would be celebrated as Second Monday in Ranger and announced that $10 had been obtained for prizes to be distributed among the visitors to the city on that day.

He also announced that the rodeo and Second Monday grounds had been leased for another year and that additional ground had been leased from the Southern Ice & Utilities company for $1 a year for the purpose of adding more space to the present grounds, which were leased from the Texas & Pacific Railway company.

Ben Whitehouse, agricultural secretary, made a report on the outcome of the Oil Belt Poultry show, which was held in Ranger in December, showing by his report that the show has been self-sustaining, costing the organization approximately $5 in all. His report was well delivered and showed that much had been accomplished through the fifth annual exhibit.

W. D. Conway supplemented his remarks by stating that he had attended the East Texas fair at Tyler on two occasions and that the poultry exhibit there was nothing to compare with the Oil Belt show.

John Hassen spoke on the subject of cotton raising, urging it be stressed in this section as a cash crop for farmers and stating that the gin in Ranger could be made a decided asset to the town if more cotton was raised as the farmers would do the bulk of their trading in the town where they had their cotton ginned and if the ginning went to other towns Ranger would be the loser.

H. C. Anderson, who with C. B. Pruet of the retail merchants, is in charge of the program of the joint banquet to be held on Feb. 9, announced that Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls had been secured as the principal speaker of the evening.

The committee on arrangements and ticket sales reported that the plans were going forward for one of the best banquets ever held in the city. Charlie Moore urged all the directors to aid in the sale of the tickets and asked them not to rely on the committee to do all the work but to lend a helping hand. His request was heartily endorsed by the directors.

Those present at the meeting were W. D. Conway, Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, A. J. Ratliff, W. C. Hickey, John Hassen, Ben Whitehouse, C. E. May, J. E. Meroney, Charlie Moore, J. A. Thrower, H. V. Galloway, Walter Harwell, H. C. Anderson, H. P. Earnest and Calvin Brown. Announcement was made today that Rev. E. R. Stiles of Close City, who conducted the evening services at the Central Baptist Church of Ranger last Sunday night, would again be present and would deliver a message to the congregation on Wednesday night.

Rev. Stiles made quite an impression on the large congregation last Sunday, when he filled the pulpit in the absence of Rev. H. H. Stephens, who is on a vacation, and an equally large turnout of the membership is expected Wednesday night.

A cordial invitation to everyone has been extended and the members have been urged to be present to hear Rev. Stiles' message.

EASTLAND IS WINNER OF TOURNAMENT

The semi-finals and the finals of the invitation basketball meet were played here Saturday night, Eastland winning the final against Breckenridge by a score of 33 to 21. The same spirit of hard contesting that characterized the first and second rounds of the tournament prevailed through the final games, though the scores were not as close as some had been in the earlier playing.

In the semi-finals Eastland met the Carbon team and won the match by a score of 45 to 22. The Breckenridge Buckaroos, who had won the last game of the second round from Robinson Springs by a score of 24 to 14, went against the hard fighting team from Wylie in the semi-finals and defeated those boys by a score of 33 to 11.

These results brought the Buckaroos and Mavericks together for the final game with the result above mentioned.

It was announced at the beginning of the tournament that an all-star team would be named at the close of the contests; also that the best all round player would be chosen, and trophies awarded in each instance. However, it seems that this has not been done at this time.

Poll Taxes Can Be Paid At C. E. May Office, Ranger

T. L. Cooper, county tax collector, announced yesterday that he would have a deputy collector stationed in the Commercial State bank of Ranger all day today, but that due to the rush at the court house, he did not have a man available for this service.

All poll taxes can be paid in at the office of C. E. May, instead of at the bank, he stated, and Mr. May announced that the office would remain open tonight as late as there was any demand for poll taxes.

This is the last day on which poll taxes can be paid in order to be eligible to vote in any elections held in the city or state this year, though poll taxes must be paid with other taxes without the privilege of voting, if paid after today.

Several important city elections are to be held this year and the prohibition election will be held sometime this summer, according to present plans, it is expected that a large number of poll taxes will be paid today.

Texas Plans To Sue New Mexico On Water Division

AUSTIN, Jan. 31.—A bill appropriating $1,500 to finance a suit against the state of New Mexico over division of waters of the Pecos river was introduced in the Texas Senate today.

WOMAN SAYS HER SON WAS TRIGGER MAN

DALLAS, Jan. 31.—Ranger Sergeant Bert Whismund today claimed Mrs. Ida Hunsucker, mother of five sons, held on a charge of murder in the slaying of Deputy Sheriff Joe Brown at Rhome, had named one of her sons as the killer.

Glen Hunsucker, 19, and a man who used the name John Stanton are now sought as the two men who fled in an automobile with Mrs. Hunsucker after Brown was shot to death.

Officers indicated that charges against the two men would be filed late today.

Miss Faye Pennington, charged yesterday at Decatur as an accessory in the murder, was Glen's sweetheart, according to the story told by officers.

The girl's middle-aged father, taunted by charges that his daughter was involved in the crime, arrived here today to make her "talk."

"You bring her here," the father told deputy prosecutors. "I'll get her to talk. She's no 16 year old girl. She's 19 and has no business fooling around like this."

Prosecutors refused to divulge any information the father may have given today.

Meatime questioning of Mrs. Hunsucker and E. C. Hawthorne of Memphis, Texas, arrested with her Sunday, was continued by deputy sheriffs and prosecutors.

Doyle Meeks, who escaped from Rhome after the shooting to surrender later, is held incommunicado. He has been instrumental in leading to the arrests of the others.

Ranger Rifle Club To Meet Thursday To Elect Officers

The meeting of the American Legion Rifle club of Ranger, which was scheduled to be held Wednesday night of this week, has been postponed one day and will be held Thursday night instead, it was announced today.

All members of the club are urged to be present promptly at 7 and get to the meeting at the regular meeting of the American Legion.

Officers for the coming year are to be elected at the meeting, reports on the activities of the club during the past year are to be read and supplies ordered for the coming season.

In addition to these matters the outline of the year's activities of the club will be made out with tentative dates for the opening shoot and the other activities of the club set.

President Jim Ingram today urged that every member attend the session Wednesday and said that the meeting would be made as short as possible in order to let all the members out early.

McEun and Lewis Headliners on Ranger Mat Card

"Tiger Billy McEun" of Pasadena, Calif., and "Ed Kid Lewis" of Milwaukee, Wis., will meet in the last main event on the Elks Club Wrestling card here tonight. Last week these two boys took one fall each in the one hour time semi-windup and each will now have an opportunity to prove that he is the better man.

Benny Wilson, promoting the matches for the Elks Club cards, says that the other main event featuring "Bulldog" Roberts from Fort Worth and "Blackie" Blackburn from Kansas City may steal the show for he has seen both wrestle and believes that they can offer plenty of rough stuff for each other.

The preliminaries bring together "Sammy McLauren," who appeared here last week and "Sailor" Barrett. Barrett is a ju-jitsu expert and may make "Sammy" appear very eccentric. Wilson stated that wrestlers who had appeared in other cities against Barrett will meet with him in the second hour for the reason that he "gets the button" so often that it works for two or three nights.

C. Freshmen Rangers Will Meet In Cage Tilt

The game will be the first meeting of the two teams. A return game will be played in Abilene on Feb. 11.

F. D. AND HIS MERGER PLAN

President-elect Roosevelt, "away down in Georgia," is planning for the unification of the scattered federal agencies dealing with transportation, land and sea and air, under one authority. In other words, he is preparing for his governmental economy drive. It is alleged by an Associated Press correspondent that a similar grouping of the federal forces directing radio, telephone an telegraph, into a communication unit, is a part of the plan. Walker D. Hines was called to Warm Springs for a conference. Hines is a man with a history. He is one of the foremost lawyers of America. He was a director-general of the federal railroad administration in war days. He is said to have recommended that the government close the treasury for support of inland waterways. He voiced his opposition to the St Lawrence water-ways project and urged elimination of the recapture clause in the transportation act which limits railroad profits. It is said to be the Rooseveltian idea that the new transportation unit be a Reconstruction Inter-State Commerce commission; it is contemplated to give it executive, semi-judicial and regulatory powers. Why not consolidation of agencies of government under one head? Democrats are pledged to a reduction of a billion dollars in the cost of federal government. Party pledges must be redeemed by the democrats or else there will be another political revolt in the election of representatives and senators in 1934. Public servants may not realize it but American voters, regardless of past party affiliations, are forgetting all about bogus party trademarks. They demand action, they demand relief from excessive taxation, they demand that the cost of government shall "be cut to the bone." Mark the rumblings of discontent.

MILK PRICE FIXING BY LAW IN TEXAS

State Commissioner J. E. McDonald of the department of agriculture is for a fixed policy of milk prices throughout the state where producers and distributors solicit the aid of the state department of agriculture in settling price disputes. A reminder that Commissioner McDonald is quoted as having said he would act only as an official price fixer "when producers and distributors solicited the aid of his department in settling their problems." Furthermore, he said, "this is just a beginning of what the department expects to do along many lines," and he added "too long has industry been protected and agriculture neglected. An emergency exists right now and the department is ordering agreed prices in effect. Anyone caught discounting or evading on those prices will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law." In conclusion, he is quoted as having said, "The milk situation in Houston and over the state generally is jeopardizing agriculture." Thomas Jefferson preached the gospel that a people least governed were the best governed. This nation or its units are far from the ancient landmarks of the founders of the American republic. Regardless of this, evolution is the order of life and living.

We are all familiar with the post office pen. It has been productive of more bad language than anything we know of. Most of the time it does not function at all.

If a lot of people would spend half the time getting men back to work that they do in getting them out of work, better times would come sooner.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

One of the matters of outstanding interest of the moment is whether by inflating the currency can prices be raised sufficiently to re-start economic activities without destructive reactions.

Some people think that by inflating the currency the price of commodities can be raised to a selected level, not higher than that of the beginning of the depression, and be maintained at that level thereafter.

There is no question but money is not circulating freely as it should among the people, a feature thoroughly bad from the standpoint of the people as a whole, tending as it does to retard business greatly.

There is little question that if the destructive economy policies were stopped and currency inflated to a limited extent, it would do much to bring about a return to prosperity.

If prices could be increased by such methods, the enterprise now being conducted at a loss would become remunerative, purchasing capacity would be restored and buyers whose present policy is to "hold off" in anticipation of a further fall would buy, and in such manner the whole machine would be restarted.

Now, Are There Any Other Questions?

Plans To Restore Famed Ship Start

HARTFORD, Conn.—Plans to restore the famous old frigate Hartford, with the pennies of school children of the nation, and bring her to Hartford, where it would serve as a nautical museum, have been initiated here. The Hartford, which was Admiral Farragut's flagship in the Battle of Mobile Bay, probably is the most famous of the United States' fighting craft after the Constitution. It now is lying on the mud flats of Cooper river, Charleston, S. C.

While the ship's draught is between 15 and 16 feet, men who have served on her, and who know live here, feel sure she could be brought up the Connecticut river at freshest time, and anchored near here.

Saloon Keepers Organize to Fight High Licenses

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Saloon keepers of Milwaukee, preparing for the return of beer, have organized to fight high license fees and the "general public attitude that makes us crooks and criminals."

The official title of their organization is "the Wisconsin Refreshment Parlor Operators' Association," but to each other they are merely "we boys who run saloons." "We have been the victims of idiotic craziness of the last 12 years," Vice President M. E. Sostariash told the group at the organization meeting. "We have been the black sheep of the country. If we sell one lousy little drink of whisky we are sent to sit for six months and fined like ordinary murderers. There are no more crooks in our line of business than in any other."

The organization also plans to oppose "the power of the breweries over saloons."

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Orange juice, cereal, cream, scrambled eggs with bacon, rye bread, cocoa, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Cream of dried lima bean soup, bread sticks, spiced peas, snow pudding, milk tea.

Almond Cheese Cake
Two cups cottage cheese, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup butter, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 1 lemon, 3 eggs, 1/2 cup blanched and shredded almonds, 1/2 teaspoon salt, plain pastry.

Folkstone Cheese Cake
One and one-half cups milk, 3/4 cup sugar, 4 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup finely grated dried bread crumbs, 3 eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 lemon, 1/2 cup cleaned currants, plain pastry.

Heat milk with bread crumbs and cook over hot water for 15 minutes, stirring to make smooth. Add butter, sugar, grated rind of lemon, salt and eggs well beaten. Cook over hot water until mixture thickens. Let cool slightly and pour into a pie dish lined with pastry. Sprinkle with currants and bake until mixture is firm to the touch. WORKER HAS UNCANNY GIFT
RED WING, Minn. — Russell Warren, of a line crew, has an uncanny sense of detecting blooming flowers. He is always the first to find violets and buttercups in the spring. Recently he took members of the crew to a depression near the highway. He pointed. There in the culvert was a pussy willow, soft and gray, blooming in January.

Interesting Program
Mrs. W. M. S. Hour
Interesting topics filled the Women's Missionary society hour of the Methodist church to the brim Monday afternoon when a miscellaneous program was well rendered.

Opening song, "The Cross Is Not Greater" prefaced the splendid paper given by Mrs. B. A. Tunnell chosen from the "World Outlook." Mrs. Strong read the devotional preceding the play offered by Mrs. Fred Warren and Mrs. I. N. Griffin.

Articles from the Missionary Bulletin were furnished by Mrs. Tunnell, Mrs. Stanley McAnnelly, and Mrs. Harry Bishop.

The latter period of the program was turned over to the president, Mrs. Leslie Hagaman, who gave interesting details of the bake sale conducted by the society last Saturday. Thanks were expressed to the ladies who aided to a great extent in making this sale a success.

Time was taken for discussion on the new study book which will be given during the church hour, taking only a short period of each the morning and evening services.

Special numbers from the "World's Outlook" will fill the hour next Monday afternoon at the usual hour, 8 o'clock.

HERE--- AND THERE

By ELVIE H. JACKSON
Youth is a beautiful thing, and yet the one thing in all the world the most lightly and thoughtlessly prized by its possessor.

It is only when one reaches that point in life, where the mind and imagination recalls pictures of what we used to do, where we used to go, and what we once were interested in, that we realize that youth's appreciation of youth comes only when there is no longer youth.

Youth is prone to take every thing for granted, to think every thing is going to come out all right, and that everybody does what they do, just because it happened to be that way, and no effort has been required or made by older persons to have these things accomplished.

That is such a satisfying view to take of life, and in unconsciousness the unexpressed thought of youth that what is to be, will be. Perhaps we are all of us more or less fatalists, and as we travel along the road of life, and meet the varying experiences such travel brings, and look back from the mile posts that mark moments, tragic or supreme happenings along the road, we realize thoroughly that we could have acted differently at the time, of these various stages of our experience, which from the lapse of years we review and think had I done thus or so, had I made this turn, and taken this line of conduct, things would be so different today.

And that is just why, instinctively, we feel there must be fatalism or a set method of procedure along which we blindly stumble, groping for the light, and trying to forget those failures that beset us and reach forward only to the hope for better things to come.

Which all goes to prove that there is only one real or unchangeable thing in this life, and that is, will never be found in this world, as we know it, but in that other sphere of existence toward which every human soul is traveling. A world where we are always young and always happy.

PARIS STYLES
By MARY KNIGHT
United Press Staff Correspondent
PARIS—We've been telling you a lot about the clothes worn by Lady Mountbatten—that smart, exponent of British society whom Queen Mary doesn't approve of, but the Prince of Wales does, and who buys most of her clothes here. She is one of the ringleaders in what is known as the "Palace Gang." On a recent trip to Mexico she almost threw the natives into a panic by arriving with no less than 56 trunks—and she only intended to stay a few days. Like Jenny Dolly, she adores pearls and wears great ropes of them on all occasions.

Lelong has just made for the Countess de St. Phalle a delightful blown velvet evening gown with its only trimming consisting of bands of shirred velvet. These form the fairly wide shoulder straps and an extra strap across the back just about two or three inches above the belt which is also shirred velvet. The skirt is long and there is a panel down the back that continues into a train of about 10 or 12 inches.
