JUDGE GEORGE Davenport, first judge of 91st District Court, now retired and of Fort Worth, underwent minor surgery Tuesday at All Saints Hospital in Fort Worth and is reported to be in good condition following the surgery. He is in Room 404 and would appreciate cards and notes from his many friends in Eastland County, we'd bet.

MISS JAN TAYLOR, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Taylor of Eastland, and a journalism instructor in the Fort Worth public school system, was featured in a picture with members of one of her classes in a special section of the Star Telegram Sunday on Public School Week.

EASTLANDERS AWOKE Wednesday morning to find that about a quarter inch of snow blanketed most of the area. It fell heavily between 7 and 8 p.m. Tuesday — just about enough for a thin snowman and a couple of snow balls.

IF YOU'VE GOT some ideas about developing Ringling Lake, expect the Eastland Jaycees would appreciate hearing from you. Those young men are undertaking to develop that site and it's a darn good project. Just about everybody agrees it's one of the prettiest little lakes anywhere. (By the way, historians, does the name "Ringling" stem from the circus family?)

FRIDAY WILL be a school holiday for students but teachers will be attending the Oil Belt Teachers Association meet. In observance of Public School Week, the Telegram gifted all Eastland teachers with a new Shaeffer Smoothie Pen as a token of our appreciation for their good work and their fine cooperation.

AND IN CONNECTION, we reprint following a news release from the Texas State Teachers Association, which poses some interesting thoughts:

"Local School property taxes would have to be increased immediately under Governor John Connally's teacher pay proposal, a spokesman for the Texas State Teachers Association has said.

"L. P. Sturgeon, TSTA director of public relations, said local districts would pay 70 per cent of the $20 million annual salary program offered by the Governor in opposition to the TSTA '45 for '65' plan.

"The TSTA $45 per month salary increase proposal would provide $42 million for teacher salaries in 1965-66 and would be financed on the traditional 80-20 basis, with the state paying 80 per cent of the cost of the Minimum Foundation Program. This would be effective this September, while the Governor's full program for teachers would not materialize until ten years from now.

"The Governor's measure, introduced as Senate Bill 124 by Sen. Jack Strong of Longview and House Bill 446 by Rep. W. S. Healy of Paducah, calls for local districts to pay $14 million of the bill's $20 million annual cost.

"This is accomplished," Sturgeon explained, "by including the cost of textbooks and teacher retirement matching in the Minimum Foundation Program. This would require local districts

Olden Residents Meet Tonight To Discuss System

Olden residents will meet tonight at 7 p.m. at the Olden Gymnasium to discuss the Olden Water Supply Corporation.

Present to discuss the arrangements of the incorporation will be Homer Cole and Darrell Cooper, both of the Federal Housing Authority; Engineer Leon Decker; Attorney Dewey Cox; and water committee members, Travis Hilliard, Bill Hunter, Pat Moseley, Danny Woods, Gene Woods, L. By utilizing a 39-year loan from the Federal Housing Authority, the expense of this water system will be cut by some $22,440, and water bills, depending on the number of customers, are expected to be from $4.50 to $6 per month, reports state.

The signing up of 120 water customers in Olden is the goal of the corporation.

Public Invited To Jr. High For Special Exhibits

The public has been invited to visit Eastland Junior High School and view exhibits on display there created by students. Principal J. W. Bailey has announced.

The displays include projects which the students have been studying, and are being exhibited in connection with Texas Public School Week, this week, he said.

Mr. Bailey suggested that the best times to visit the school is between the hours of 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. Thursday or Friday.

Seats Being Readied For Livestock Show

Bleachers for the seating of several hundred spectators are under construction and will be ready for use March 11-13 at the annual Eastland County Livestock Show according to Sam Kimmell, Cisc.

Kimmell, president of the County Livestock Raisers Association, sponsor of the show, said that volunteers were working almost nightly getting the seats ready for the opening day.

He expressed thanks not only to the members of his organization who have been working but also to the various firms and oil companies who have contributed pipe and material, to the welders from the rock crushing concern and to the officials who did the leveling and grading work at the show grounds, a mile north of Eastland.

Junior Exhibitors including 4-H Club boys and girls and FFA members are expected to show nearly 400 animals from every nook and cranny of the county. The deadline date for entering their animals and getting their entry fees paid was February 11. Nearly $1800.00 will go to the young exhibitors of the prize animals.

Adult exhibitors from Eastland and adjoining counties may enter animals in the beef cattle and Angora goat divisions by bringing their animals in on opening day. All animals must be in their place in the show barns by 10:00 p.m. on March 11th according to Robert Kincaid, Morton Valley, general superintendent.

Several divisions of the animals will be judged the following day with a 4-H and FFA judging contest that night. On the last day the rest of the animals will be placed with the auction that night.

Don't try to carry the load of financial risks yourself against the hazards of these modern times, but shift it to your local agent and let Insurance do it. Your losses may be hours or years away but meanwhile Insurance will give you peace of mind and financial protection that is worth far more than it costs. 18 County FB Members Attend Abilene Forums

The Windsor Hotel in Abilene was headquarters for a series of leadership forums designed to provide complete training for County Farm Bureau committees, officers and secretaries March 3, according to Jack Cozart, president of the Eastland County Farm Bureau. The meeting was another step in the overall 1965 Farm Bureau Program of work designed to effectively operate a one hundred thousand member organization, Cozart stated.

The purpose of these training forums is three-fold: To help the County Farm Bureau develop a plan that will enable them to carry out a large scale program with the least amount of effort; to develop the area of responsibility of each committee; and to co-ordinate committee activities.

Extensive training was provided for the following committees and leadership: Policy Execution, Policy Development, Membership, Young People, Presidents, Information Marketing Services and Office Secretaries.

Those planning to attend from Eastland County are: Mitchell Campbell, R. L. Ricks, B. T. Graham, Herman Schaefer, Henry Fry, Sam Kimmell, Howard Wade, W. O. Cantwell, John Love, Albert Hendricks, Glenn Jordan, Mrs. Glenn Jordan, Cyrus Justice, Aubrey Easter, L. A. Harbin, Dora Schaefer, Mrs. Henry Fry and Ann Justice.

Arthur Bishop Is Buried In Wednesday Rites

Funeral services for Arthur Bishop, 58, a resident of Eastland County all of his life, were conducted at 10 a. m. Wednesday at the Rust Funeral Home chapel in Cisco. He died shortly after suffering a heart attack Sunday night at a Wichita Falls hospital.

The Rev. Mart Agnew, Baptist minister, were in charge of the services, assisted by the Rev. Luther Pryor, Nazarene minister. Burial was in the Oakwood Cemetery beside his late parents.

Mr. Bishop, who was born Nov. 18, 1907 in Gorman, came to Cisco at age six. He was the last surviving mem-

VETS QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q — My Government Life Insurance policy has a loan value. How much can I borrow? Would it be to my advantage to surrender the policy for a greater amount of money than the loan value?

A — You may borrow 94 per cent of the cash reserve of your policy. This is indicated in the table in the policy. Once your Government Life Insurance policy has been cash surrendered, there is no more insurance of this type available to you.

Q — How can I get an increase in my rate of compensation?

A — Submit your request for an increase and present medical evidence to show that your service-connected disability is more disabling than at the time of your last examination for compensation.

Q — I sent my change of address to the Treasury Disbursing Office, Chicago, Illinois. Why haven't my checks come to my new address?

A — Changes of address should be sent to the VA Regional Office having jurisdiction of your case. Disbursing Office officials would have no way to check addresses.

Q — Upon my discharge from the Armed Forces, I received a lump sum disability severance payment. Will I have to pay this back to the Government if I am awarded VA compensation for the same disability?

A — The law requires that VA monthly compensation payments be withheld until the amount recovered is equal to the amount of disability severance pay you received.

ber of his family and no near relatives were listed as survivors. He was well known here.

Named as pallbearers were W. V. Gardenhire, J. L. Thornton, W. W. Sawyers, S. A. Huestis, J. D. Lauderdale and Douglas Fry.

Truth is, you can have world-famous Carrier air conditioning in your home for about the same price you might pay for ordinary, compromise brands! And remember, we are air conditioning specialists, not general merchandisers. Our experienced installers know the job, do it right, and back it up with a written guaranty of performance. The result: through the years you enjoy the low operating costs that only fine equipment plus expert installation can provide.

'65 CHEVROLET
These great performers are the lowest priced models at our One-Stop Shopping Center!

Top to bottom: Chevy II 100, Corvair 500, Chevelle 300, Chevrolet Biscayne. All 2-door models.

Each of these beauties is the lowest priced in its line. But the ride doesn't show it. Or the interior. Or the performance.

That luxurious Biscayne is as roomy as many expensive cars, has color-keyed interiors, plush vinyls, fine fabrics, full deep-twelv carpeting.

Chevelle, America's favorite intermediate-size car, has clean new styling, wide doors, roomy, tasteful interiors and Chevrolet easy-care features.

Chevy II got a lot smarter for '65 — but stayed sensible! Still family-size, easy to handle, economical, and the lowest priced Chevrolet you can buy.

Or get a sporty rear-engine hardtop in a Corvair Sport Coupe or Sport Sedan for fun in the months ahead.

Chevrolet, Chevelle and Chevy II are available with the Turbo-Thrift Six for fuel economy, quick warmups, quiet idling. It's light, efficient, smooth and spirited.

Corvair's air-cooled rear-mounted Turbo-Air Six delivers the best balance and traction for this size car.

So be practical. Only you will know. Because it sure won't show!

"In Texas, the state has furnished free textbooks since the textbook program began in 1921. The state has paid the cost of matching teacher contributions to the retirement system since 1941.

"The Governor's Proposal," Sturgeon pointed out, "would shift part of this cost to local districts and establish new precedents which probably would lead to even heavier local tax burdens in the future."

"Local schools already pay the full cost of constructing and equipping local school buildings. They must finance this debt completely from local property taxes, their only source of local revenue, Sturgeon added.

"In many states the financing of buildings is part of the state's responsibility in the minimum foundation program," he noted.

struck Gourley, who sustained minor injuries.

Charges of aggravated assault with a motor vehicle will be filed against the driver of the auto, a San Angelo Junior College student, it is reported. Patrolman Jack Therwanger took statements from the young man and his companion.

Rogers was treated at Ranger General Hospital and transferred to Abilene.

Sgt. Roger Sosebee reported that the local office's new man will probably report about March 12. The office has been assigned the additional man, and he will complete a training course at Austin Friday. He is L. R. Perry of Fort Worth.

utes after reaching the hospital.

The soldier's westbound 1957 Chevrolet had met a 1956 GMC truck head-on, spun around, and was smashed between it and a truck driven by Bobby Dale Johnston of Boaz, Ala., who was uninjured. Driver of the GMC, William Brewer of Grand Saline, was treated at Ranger General for a knee injury and was released.

Damage to the GMC was estimated at $6,000 and to the other truck $1,000. The car was demolished.

Pfc. Cherry was a 1959 graduate of Eastland High School and attended Cisco Junior College, Ranger Junior College and Tarleton State College. He had been with the recruiting station since March, 1964. His mother, Mrs. W. W. Cherry, was buried here Christmas Day, 1964. Surviving are his father, W. W. Cherry of Cisco, and one brother, Vernon Cherry, of Fort Worth.

TOMORROW'S TEACHERS

(ED. NOTE: This is the second in a series of articles taken from a speech delivered by County School Supt. O. L. Stamey recently.)

People are in revolt against discrimination.
People are in revolt against feudalism—any sort of bondage that holds them to land or a job.
People are in revolt against low standards of living.
People are in revolt against illiteracy.
People are in revolt against established forms of economic and political organization.
People are in revolt against established value systems.
People are in revolt against war—they fear the possibilities of atomic warfare and the common people everywhere are voicing their hatred of war and their fear of another conflict.

And the people who are not citizens of the United States outnumber us 10 to 1!

The kind of world in which we live today makes necessary a greater understanding of human hopes and aspirations as well as the heartbreaks and worries which affect the lives of children and adults. Somehow our teachers must realize this—somehow we all must realize this. The teachers are key persons to discover problems and needs in their community and, in many cases, they are the only ones prepared to minister to them, but they are what we make them with our respect for them, our faith in them, and our financial and moral support unstintingly given to them.

Every learning experience in all of our grades should be examined thoroughly in search of opportunities to include material about the value systems of people in other parts of the world and new units specifically planned to encourage world understanding must be included in the curriculum of our schools. We must provide more opportunities for our teachers to learn the language and customs of people in other nations.

Dr. Clifford Hooker of the University of Minnesota says, "Practical and humanitarian considerations demand that we remove the blindfolds from the youth of America. Harmony among nations, which improves with world understanding must become an important goal of education."

From among the youth of today will come the teachers of tomorrow. It is our responsibility as parents, friends, and neighbors, to concern ourselves with the Teachers of Today. As free people continue the race for scientific and technological supremacy, they must strive also to win the hearts of men. Every person who believes in individual liberty and human worth must be concerned in this struggle.

Dr. Geneva R. Hanna, Education professor at the University of Texas, said recently, "At no time in American history has the need been so great for a highly educated citizenry. The quality of education depends upon the quality of teachers, and the quality of teachers depends upon their education, pre-service, their in-service, and upon the quality of the citizens they serve."

In our concern to improve education—to revise curriculum and develop new methods of instruction—let us not forget that the quality and character of the teacher is more important than subject matter. Let us place as much emphasis upon teacher selection and preparation as on the development of courses, methods, and teaching aids; and more on these than more quality in teachers and thereby receive more excellence in education! Tomorrow's education will be for survival.

What is meant by quality and excellence in education? To me, it is that training that meets the unique and individual developmental needs of each student in the various stages of his growth intellectually. The complexity of American education is due to the inherent nature of educational tasks in a democratic and free society.

We face a new day and for this day the teacher must find herself a magnetic power in leading the way to new skies, to help change fears, prejudices, and superstitions—and in their place develop new attitudes, new skills, new competencies. The teacher of tomorrow, as does the teacher of today and yesterday, needs that quality which enables a person to have a creative approach to teaching and learning. I truly think that teaching as a profession is at a crossroad—we are faced with a basic policy decision concerning our professional route to the future.

One path leads through the jungle of warfare over union versus professional organizations—over personal interests of wages and fringe benefits, over how to grab a larger voice in the control of schools from administration and school board... If the teachers follow that path, their image in the eyes of the people will surely suffer and their effectiveness will decay. In some communities and some states, teachers have chosen this way—we hope it isn't too late to turn back—to heal the scar and place the benefits at the disposal of our students. —(To Be Continued)

Cisco Farmer Loses Appeal Damage Suit

Rudie M. McGough, who farms near Cisco, lost his $6,487 damage suit against Massey-Ferguson, Inc., and its agent in Rising Star, G. A. Dunn, when the State Supreme Court in Austin turned down McGough's appeal "for want of jurisdiction."

McGough brought suit in 91st District Court at Eastland, charging that Dunn and Massey-Ferguson caused him to lose peanut and hegar crops two years ago when they failed to deliver farm machinery for which he had contracted. He put the loss at $4,500; and added costs of trips to Cisco and McKinney to see about the machinery, a $700 down-payment and loss of days which he had worked to arrive at the damage estimate of $6,487.

The defendants asked trial judge T. M. Collie to transfer the case to Dallas County, and when that motion was granted, McGough appealed to the Court of Appeals in Eastland, claiming local trial was proper because Massey-Ferguson conducted business there and Dunn lived there.

The Eastland Court stated that no written promise had been made by the company or its agents to perform any act in Eastland County and said no evidence of fraud had been alleged. It described the suit as one for breach of contract, an upheld the trial court's ruling.

The Supreme Court, by its ruling, affirmed the appellate court's decision.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

USTIN — Gov. John Connally's alternate teacher pay plan has drawn fire from Texas State Teachers Association. And Connally has threatened to veto the plan.

Connally wants less of an immediate pay raise than the 10 per cent the teachers ask. He wants to set up a 10-year program for steady and regular increases which in the long run would amount to greater pay for more experienced teachers.

House Speaker Ben Barnes and Rep. George Hinson of Dallas, who is sponsor of the bill, both called for a cool-off period. Compromise was unlikely due to strong feelings on both sides.

Jack Strong of Longview and Rep. W. S. Heatly of Paducah, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, introduced the Governor's plan.

An all-out war now would injure all educational efforts under consideration, Barnes emphasized.

Both houses of the Legislature overwhelmingly adopted a resolution calling for a federal constitutional convention to permit one legislative chamber to be apportioned on factors other than population.

Thirty-four states must adopt the identical proposal before Congress has to consider calling a convention on a specific amendment. Three-fourths of the states must ratify any amendment thus submitted.

At least half a dozen proposals for congressional redistricting have been filed so far, plus bills for Senate redistricting and House redistricting.

Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham told his House Committee on Congressional and Legislative Districts he will canvass all representatives for their views on reapportioning the state.

House members are trying to work out a cooperative House redistricting plan, taking into consideration those who do not plan to run next time and those who plan to run for other offices.

Other two — congressional and Senate — redistricting jobs will not be settled so amiably. As one legislator put it, "It's going to be a mean session."

Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas, Chairman of the House Revenue and Tax Committee, is pushing a bill to raise $15,300,000 under present tax laws.

Cancer Is Major Child Killer, Reports Head Of County ACS Unit

"More school children will die of cancer this year than from any other disease," said Sam Kimmell of Cisco, chairman of the Eastland County chapter of the American Cancer Society. "That's why so many mothers will be working on the Cancer Drive early in April."

"About half of the cancer deaths in children are from leukemia, which is a cancer of the blood-forming tissue, but this type of cancer is not primarily a disease of children. There is an increasing rate among adults," Kimmell reported.

"The American Cancer Society is currently supporting more research on leukemia than on any other form of cancer and many scientists believe that cures will be found for leukemia sooner than for any other cancer. We are seeing some progress now because we have drugs which can extend the lives of children with acute leukemia for many months and in some cases for as long as seven or eight years."

"Like adults, children should have regular physical examinations but there are some warning signs that should be called to the physician's attention if they persist longer than two weeks. We urge parents to watch for:

swellings, lumps, or masses in any part of the body; pains, or the persistent crying of a baby or child, for which no reason can be found; any change in the size or appearance of outward growths, such as moles or birthmarks; nausea and vomiting for which there is no apparent cause; a marked change in bowel or bladder habits; bloody discharge of any sort; blood in the urine; heavy spontaneous

CISCO LIVESTOCK SHOW IS PLANNED FOR MARCH 5-6

The Cisco Livestock Show, which will be held Friday and Saturday at the Humble camp, will feature show animals of 4-H Club and FFA chapter members attending the Cisco schools. Most of the animals will be in the county show at Eastland next week.

Sponsor Tommy Toland, Cisco VA teacher, reported that plans were nearing completion for the show. All animals must be in place by 6 p.m. Friday and remain until 4 p.m. Saturday. There will be a sifting committee to be sure all animals are a credit to the show, he said.

Judges for the show include O. B. Edmondson, Cross Plains VA teacher, and W. L. (Dub) Sims, Eastland VA teacher.

Approximately 100 animals are expected to be entered in the show in the various classes for sheep, goats, hogs and cattle.

"We are expecting a good show," Mr. Toland said. "We want everyone to make plans to attend the event. Our students have been working hard to prepare their livestock for the show, and we expect some fine animals to be shown."

Birthdays Are Celebrated By Kindergarten Children

Gail Swift, who was six years old Feb. 11, and Jerry Ables, who was six on the 14th of Feb., celebrated their birthdays at Green Kindergarten, where they are students. Mr. and Mrs. Gail Ables

The boats served as place cards for the children.

Valentine cookies and fruit punch were served as refreshments. Children kept their napkins, which were red and white, for their project book. All other appointments used were with Valentine theme.

The group sang "Happy Birthday Dear Jerry" and he chose to blow out a miniature candlelamp, while Gail chose to blow out a lighted "old fashioned" kerosene lamp as "Happy Birthday Dear Gail" was sung to her. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the party with games, program and a Valentine Post Office with exchanging of Valentines.

Each teacher was presented a lovely heart box of candy by Terry Don Alexander.

The children are enjoying a number of new records, which they love to sing along with, given to them by Mrs. Cushman.

Mrs. Maynard has been missed the past two weeks. She has been home with her family who had the flu "bug." Most of the little tots braved the 12 above weather Wednesday, Feb. 24, which was the coldest day of the season; however, classes resumed in the living room for the first two hours. Students played games.

The eleven children who are going to public school next year were thrilled recently when their Kindergarten Diplomas arrived. They will receive their diplomas March 25, the last day of kindergarten for this term. The school will re-open Oct. 1, with five of the group returning.

Children are reminded to bring this article for their scrapbook which they will take home March 25; also, mothers who plan to send their children to kindergarten next year are reminded to get their child's name on the list at once.

Postmaster Asks Assistance Of Rural Patrons

Postmaster Marene Johnson today appealed to postal customers on rural routes to help their rural carriers make winter weather.

The Eastland post office has two rural routes.

Mrs. Johnson said that at the same time she hopes all authorities concerned with rural routes where snow and other bad weather hampers the carriers will continue to cooperate to help the mailmen get through.

The Postmaster listed these points of particular concern:

1. Approaches to rural mail boxes must be kept open by customers.

2. Obstructions to delivery of mail on rural routes should be removed or minimized to the fullest extent possible.

Where rural boxes pose a problem, the carrier may leave form 4056, "Your Mailbox Needs Attention," a notice to keep box approaches clear by promptly removing all obstructions, including snow, which may make mail delivery difficult or impossible.

Unless approaches are cleared, it may be necessary to temporarily withhold delivery of mail, the Postmaster pointed out.

Rural carriers are not required to perform service on foot when roads cannot be normally used, but they are the Hedges Restaurant at expected to make every reasonable effort to serve as many of their patrons as possible without physical exertion or added financial cost, he explained.

If excessive detours are necessary to effect delivery of mail, customers should temporarily relocate their boxes on the new line of travel, arrange to receive their mail through other patrons' boxes, or make other arrangements for their mail until travel on the roads affected can be resumed.
