Cermak's Side MORATORIUM ON MORTGAGES PASSES HOUSE

AUSTIN, Feb. 21 .- A mortgage moratorium for a year was oted 79 to 31 in the Texas House of Representatives today. The bill lacked five votes for a needed 96 to suspend rules and pass finally. It must now be brought up again at another legislative day.

Rep. Joe Greathouse of Fort Worth, and Gordon Burns of Huntsville, both lawyers, assert that the bill successfully gets around the constitutional provi-sion against abridgement of contract rights by merely changing the froeclosure procedure.

Rep. J. D. Stinson of Dallas called it a "moratorium by sub-terfuge" and predicted courts will not sustain it Represent tive Burns asserted that unless relief is given from "money lenders and loan sharks" there will be a march of home owners on Austin. Stinson replied, "No, there will be no march on Austin. We are a law-abiding people. We are American, not Communists."

SPEAKING OF THE VERSAILLES TREATY

Financier Barney Baruch was an adviser to Woodrow Wilson in World war days. This is his 1932 admission: "The peace at Versailles was a peace dictated at the point of a gun. Its actions are failing." How will it be possible to revise the treaty? Let Uncle Sam do it?

Financeir Baruch has detailed outlines of his two farm relief proposals. His permanent plan for boosting prices and cutting production was based upon paying rentals of about $3 an acre to farmers on lands withheld from production which he esttimated would cost $160,000,000. He would obtain that amount by a tax on processing of all cereals of six and seven cents; of textiles of one-half cent; and meat products of one and one-half cents a pound.

His plan, he predicted, "would raise farm prices to pre-war levels." All of which reminded Connally of Texas that "a half dozen different bureaus and gaencies that you (Baruch) would set up to keep the farmer and home owner on his feet temporarily with government bonds have largely been tried and are merely putting the weak and helpless debtor in an increasingly more desperate condition as the products of his farm and his labor continue not to pay his living expenses."

Well, Roosevelt and Garner will be inaugurated March 4 and later along the new congress will be organized and democratic lawmakers will face the big problems of the lame duck president, altogether have failed to lift the pressure and will flounder out of office as they have been floundering with the reins of government in their hands for months and years, since the crash hit the American world leaving prosperity "just around the corner" and the poorhouse preparing to make its farewell bow to the social order.

This is not all. The measure would make it unlawful to drive a horse-drawn vehicle after dark without a red Montg Ward light. Another provision "includes farm machinery drawn M K by motor vehicles." Pedestrians are ever clamoring for their rights. Now they may be given the privilege to carry "red lanterns while walking along public highways at night."
