The big, new recreational facility for Rising Star and Cross Plains moved a step nearer completion Monday, when agreements were reached by the directors of the organization and Bowden Lumber Company of this city for contract revisions bringing the total cost to $101,500.

been $106,008, a sum slightly greater than the amount of available money.

Temporarily deleted from the specifications were a minature golf course, surfaced entrances and parking area, an outside fence and signs and revision in swimming pool It is pointed out, however, that these features will be built later with an additional loan to be secured through the Farmers Home AdminisPuzzle (of sorts)

What is it that: Runs errands ... saves time ... reaches friends ... gives protection ... wins business ... and is one of the biggest bargains you buy?

Clue: A man named Bell invented it.

The contractor was given 10 days to complete his performance bond and return signed acceptance of the agreement to directors. It will then be processed and forwarded to the state headquarters of FHA for acceptance.

COIN CLUB TO MEET

The Eastland Coin Club will meet Monday, Feb. 7, in the Texas Electric Reddy room at 7:30 p.m. in Eastland. All members are urged to attend this meeting and visitors are welcomed.

He invented a better way of living...electrical living!

Thomas A. Edison, whose birthdate each year signals the observance of National Electrical Week, brought electricity out of the laboratory and into practical use for the benefit of mankind. His invention of the first practical incandescent lamp, and his many other inventions in the field of electric power generation and distribution, created a new way of life and a new industry. Edison foresaw great things for electricity and for the electric industry he founded. And today > business-managed electric companies, like Texas Electric Service Company, are making his vision come true . . . constantly planning, building and working to provide more and better electric service . . . for continued progress and for better living.
