Two Die As Result Of Thursday Wreck

Two men were fatally burned when 20 cars of a 110-car Texas and Pacific freight train derailed near Gordon at 6:30 a.m. Thursday.

The victims were brought to Ranger General Hospital by a Strawn ambulance. Charlie Jones, 56, of Clarksville, Miss. died at 9:05 a.m. and Johnny Kale, 48, of Helena, Ark. died at 10:35 a.m. Both men suffered total body burns from sulphuric acid which leaked from a derailed tank car.

A Helena, Ark., funeral home is to take charge of the body of Mr. Kale, but thus far, no relatives of Mr. Jones have been located.

The men, both Negroes, were said to be transients who were apparently riding in an open auto trailer car. No railway personnel were injured.

A broken journal (axle) on one of the cars is blamed for the derailment.

Six bulldozers, 125 men and two track crains from Baird and Fort Worth were sent to clear the track. Traffic resumed Thursday night with general clean-up to continue.

Edwards Funeral Home, Strawn, is in charge of arrangements for the two victims.

Nephew Charlie and his wife are still arguin' 'bout whether to get a new car or a used car. Seems like one is a necessary luxury, the other a luxurious necessity.

Some folks don't like things that other folks like to do; not because it concerns them but because those doing it are enjoyin' themselves.

Out of the Bowling Bag

Something new for the men's summer league on Monday night, a three-man team bowling scratch and all bowlers and teams will bowl on an equal basis. Each man will be placed on a team by their average so the teams will equal when they start.

Tuesday housewives party was a dandy this week. We had 34 ladies present. Each gal who brings a new member now receives two free games.

My wife, Eleanor, decided she would do better at the bowling game last Tuesday night in the ladies league. She rolled her biggest score—a 198—very good.

The new summer league for the Thursday night couples league is getting off to a good start with eight teams going. Lou Dell Bryan gave it an extra boost by bowling a 255 game.

Six teams went to Breckenridge last Sunday for their match games.

We kinda got our ears trimmed over all, except our best team which consists of Leo Gann, Holman Bagwell, J. D. Johnson, Howard Langford. They did an excellent job by Breckenridge's best.

The Wednesday night ladies league elected new officers for the coming fall. They are as follows: Pat Turnipseed, president; of Ranger; Hattie Weathers, vice president, of Cisco; Sandra Holloway, secretary and treasurer; Lenora Alford, sergeant-at-arms.

The Cross Plains league finished the season Thursday night and the league champs are Gulf Oil Company, who won first place, Sisters Cafe took second place, and Odams Cafe came in third.

Paul Wright had a real high series this last night knocking

SENIOR ADULT CAMP LUEDERS, MAY 12-14

Something new and different in camping is being planned for May 12-14 at the Lueders Baptist Encampment, the Senior Adult Bible Camp. This camp is especially for people fifty years of age and up, particularly those who in the past have planned, promoted, and participated in the various camps held there each summer by the eight Baptist Associations supporting the encampment.

A program has been planned that will have a real meaning to each one attending this camp. The camp preacher will be P. D. O'Brien, well known in this West Texas Area as pastor and evangelist, who is retired now and lives in Houston. He is "retired" but is much in demand as a speaker and humorist among civic organizations and has conducted eighty revival meetings in the last four years. Leading the singing for the camp will be Joe Trussell, who for more than thirty years has been prominent among Texas and Southern Baptist as one of the great evangelistic singers. He and his charming wife, who accompanies him on the piano, have thrilled thousands with their messages in song. Their home is in Brownwood.
