Personality Is Like a Diamond, Students Told at Nurse Capping

One's personality is like a diamond in that it has many facets, said Mrs. M a r e n e Johnson Johnson, Eastland postmaster, as she addressed the 16 students of the Cisco Junior College vocational nursing class at their capping exercises Tuesday night in the Cisco Corral Room of the College Annex.

Mrs. Johnson said the facets of a personality, like those of a diamond, need polishing to bring out their brilliances. The key facet, or trait, of a personality is self control. Everyone is somebody's example, the postmaster of 11 years told the students and the approximately 100 other listeners. Although a nurse should be sober in thought, she should also mingle humor in her work.

The capping exercises are held following four months of study in the year-long course, which prepares students to take the state examination for licensed vocational nurse. Mrs. Veneta Mitchell, instructor, told the audience that the cap signifies humility, obedience and service. "A cap does not make a nurse," she emphasized. She said uniforms for nurses probably came into vogue during the Medieval Age. Those first uniforms were long robes, possibly trimmed with fur, the registered nurse said.

The first uniforms for nurses also had veils. It is thought something was put on the head to hold back the long hair that was then in fashion. At the Tuesday exercises CJC president Leland Willis welcomed the audience. Mrs. Fay Stephenson of Cisco sang two solos.

Members of the fourth CJC nursing class were capped by the directors of nurses at the hospitals where they are studying the clinical portion of the course. The hospital administrators called the names. Students and the affiliating hospitals are these: Eastland Memorial — Kathryn Brown, Earlene Burge, Ozona Harper, Norma Martin, Goldie Taylor.

Cisco Graham — Kay Boyd Sybil Boyd, Ann Dunn, Lucille Evans.

Ranger General — Evelyn Clark, Ruby Saint, Lou Wright.

Gorman — Lavelle Hallmark, Mary Jane Sain, Ethel Sutton, Jo Ann White.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Reynolds and daughter, Judy, of Gladewater spent three days last week with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Ramey.

CAPIED — Norma Martin, nursing student at Cisco Junior College, was capped Tuesday night by Eastland Memorial director of nurses, Mrs. Mary Sue Lee, in exercises in Cisco.

Traveling along on the Highways . . . .

One has an opportunity to observe many kinds of sights. It may be just a roadside collision or a modern farm home beautiful and inviting. If within a city it may be the sight of a huge explosion that has wrecked a great building, or a wooded park with happy children playing everywhere. Yes, one travels he cannot help but observe and surely realize the unseen presence of something strong and enduring which financially protects our journey and preserves our way of life, for better living. What is it?

Plentiful Foods Are Listed For Picnic Month

COLLEGE STATION — July is Picnic Month. And with July comes a variety of picnic foods in abundant supply, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Such fruits as fresh plums, peaches and watermelon make the perfect climax to the best picnics. Young chicken — fried and ready for the family outing — will provide the perfect main course. And there are lots of fresh vegetables, such as tomatoes, onions and fresh corn, that will make tasty additions to your picnic meals.

All these foods will be arriving at local markets in plentiful supply this month according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service.

This year's California plum production is estimated at 115,000 tons — slightly below crops of the two preceding years but 21 per cent greater than average. Since most of the crop is marketed fresh, you'll find lots of plums available for your eating pleasure this July.

Peach production is also estimated slightly below that of last year but well above average.

Barring adverse weather, July should be a prime month for watermelons. Watermelon acreage is almost up to last year, when large harvests went to market. Fresh vegetables will be present in abundance during this big summer vegetable month!

Burleson Speaks July 4 Weekend

ABILENE — Congressman Omar Burleson, 17th District representative, returned to the district Friday night for a long weekend over the 4th of July holiday. In the district during the brief recess of Congress, Burleson spoke at the opening of Abilene's new zoo on Saturday morning and went to Big Spring Sunday to participate in Independence Day and dedication ceremonies for a beautification program at the Veterans Administration Hospital. Veteran organizations and civic groups of Big Spring were sponsors of the program. The congressman visited briefly in a few other towns in the district during the congressional recess.

Of the current session of Congress, Burleson said, "It would appear that we have more problems ahead of us than we have behind us in this session." He made reference to "many of the so-called major pieces of legislation which have not yet been acted upon finally by the House and Senate." Burleson continued, "It is not realistic at this time to hope for an early adjournment of this session in view of the pending legislation, and also the crisis in Viet Nam which demands much time and attention from the congress."

When asked his opinion of the recent bombings of North Viet Nam, Burleson said, "This is a thing which, in my opinion, has certainly been delayed long enough. For more than a year I have felt we should be doing that which would give the greatest protection to American boys in South Viet Nam."

Alluding to a recent conference at the White House to which the President called all House Committee Chairman and the House leadership, Burleson said, "The President discussed with us last week the Viet Nam situation, primarily in the Hanoi and Haiphong areas of North Viet Nam and possible efforts to cripple the aggression of the Viet Cong by destroying its major oil supplies."

Burleson continued, "I feel that the President has leaned far over backward in offering every conceivable opportunity for conferences to settle the conflict peaceably. As the President has said, this is outright and unabashed aggression of a communist nation against its neighbor which means that without challenge, this aggression would, without a doubt, be committed against every nation of Southeast Asia, leaving exposed such nations as New Zealand, Australia, Japan and Formosa, nations with whom we have solid agreements to repel this sort of thing. The President has faced a tremendous decision and, of course, there are calculated risks. It is my feeling we did not go into South Viet Nam to be bogged down in the jungles and rice paddies until after the French finally dissipated themselves and had to leave. I feel the President is looking at the situation objectively and with a determination which should leave no doubt with the Viet Cong, Soviet Russia and the Chinese communists that, in the President's words in Iowa the other day, we are not going to tuck our tails and run."

The congressman added, "Unless we are firm and show that we are there to win and to win as early as we can, our position in other places around the world, where we have firm commitments, would not be worth very much. We have to reach the vital installations in and around Hanoi and Haiphong to really cripple North Viet Nam's aggression, and the President is making as sure as is humanly possible that the civilian population will not be subjected to any greater punishment than that which is unavoidable under the circumstances. We are trying to reach these vital supply points of oil storage, steel mills and military installations as we as their supply lines for arms furnished by the Chinese communists, Russians and communist nations of Eastern Europe."

Burleson concluded, "I support the President in this very difficult position."

The congressman added, "Unless we are firm and show that we are there to win and to win as early as we can, our position in other places around the world, where we have firm commitments, would not be worth very much. We have to reach the vital installations in and around Hanoi and Haiphong to really cripple North Viet Nam's aggression, and the President is making as sure as is humanly possible that the civilian population will not be subjected to any greater punishment than that which is unavoidable under the circumstances. We are trying to reach these vital supply points of oil storage, steel mills and military installations as we as their supply lines for arms furnished by the Chinese communists, Russians and communist nations of Eastern Europe."

Burleson concluded, "I support the President in this very difficult position."

Vets' Q&A

Q — What is the final deadline for World War II GI loan applications?
A — Individual World War II veterans face their GI loan deadline ten years from the date of discharge or release from service plus one year for each three months of active wartime service. However, the final deadline for all World War II veterans is July 25, 1967. Veterans discharged from service because of a service-incurred disability will be given until July 25, 1967, despite lack of qualifying length of service.

Q — I receive a nonservice-connected pension from the VA. Can I also receive Social Security benefits when I reach age 65?
A — A veteran may receive a nonservice-connected pension, if otherwise eligible, as long as his income without dependents does not exceed $1,800 or with dependents $3,000 per year. Ninety per cent of Social Security benefits are counted as income.

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Auto insurance rates in Texas may rise an average of $2.11 a year per motorist.

The Insurance Board is weighing testimony given at a public hearing on rates last week. Decision probably will be announced soon, since new rates usually are effective August 1.

Look for these rate changes if the Board follows staff recommendations:

- Liability (bodily injury and property damage) up 11.9 per cent.
- Private passenger $50 deductible collision, up 2.4 per cent.
- Full comprehensive coverage, up 0.3 per cent.
- Private passenger $50 deductible, comprehensive coverage, up 17.7 per cent.

Rates, of course, will vary widely among 26 rating districts.

Among strong recommendations to the Board were:

- A driving record classification plan to reward the safe driver with lower rates and hit the "bad" driver with higher premiums.
- A more flexible rate schedule for drivers under age 25 — with highest rates for young males of 17.
- A private passenger classification plan to produce a lower rate for drivers with less exposure to accident conditions.

A means by which a driver in the "assigned risk plan" could purchase additional coverage over normal $10,000-$20,000 limits.

Board earlier announced it was considering feasibility of requiring companies to write an equitable portion of all lines and classes of insurance in order to provide coverage for drivers over 65 and under 25 who face increasing difficulties keeping policies in force.

First Mediterranean Fruit Fly has been discovered in Texas — in Brownsville area. Agriculture Commissioner John White said the dangerous pest has been positively identified.

Medfly can cause economic loss by stinging or implanting eggs inside fruit, causing widespread spoilage.

Total of 15 inspectors from Texas Department of Agriculture and U.S. Department of Agriculture Plant Pest Control Service have been sent to the Valley to place an additional 1,000 traps and determine extent of infestation.

Write assured Valley citrus growers that treatment of any affected and susceptible orchards will follow immediately to insure complete eradication. He noted that past Medfly outbreaks in Florida have been successfully checked.

Because of gloomy testimony and statistics, the Texas Railroad Commission again has reduced Texas oil production after a state-wide prorating hearing.

July order will hold prorated wells to 33.3 per cent of total ability to produce. This is down 12 per cent from June's rate and 47 per cent below the April high of 35 per cent.

A recalculation of the actual oil production resulting from the July cut-back produced an estimate that it will be 2,734,835 barrels a calendar day from allowables of 3,113,042 barrels a day.

Translated into actual barrels of oil in the pipelines, the new production figure is just below the 2,749,135 the wells produced in January.

Prospects Good For Doves Over Most Of Texas

AUSTIN — Excellent prospects for both mourning dove and white-winged dove hunting this fall were reported by E. A. Walker, director for Wildlife Services of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Field surveys from the Rio Grande Valley indicate one of the highest whitewing breeding populations in the last eleven years with more than 800,000 nesting birds.

The mourning dove count was described as equally favorable with the Texas population up eight per cent and that of the Central Flyway up nine per cent over last year.

And 1965 was generally good for Texas mourning dove hunters. A factor in the promising reports from the Valley, said Walker, has been the rapid recovery of citrus groves damaged by a 1962 freeze.

He said the breeding population in that area has increased one-third over last year and nesting success should be assured as the nesting facilities in the citrus trees have substantial improved.

Walker said citrus acreage utilized by nesting whitewings from 10,500 in 1965 to 18,700 in 1966.

Ordinarily the whitewing season is held in early September. Likewise, the north zone for mourning dove hunting usually opens Sept. 1.

The Hensons and two nieces, Judy and Lyn Ramsey of San Antonio, are now visiting friends and relatives in Oklahoma and will return to Cisco next week.

Mrs. Amelia Govan has as guests her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dell Govan and daughters, Patricia LaDell and Sabrina Amelia of Los Angeles, Calif.

What's one of the most common types of home fires? According to research statistics, a flaming frying pan is a most common cause of fire in the home. It may result in serious burns or even the destruction of property.

Here are some fire-fighting guidelines to use, if a fire should start in a frying pan. Turn off the gas or electricity. Do not remove the pan from the burner. If a lid is handy, slide the lid over the top of the pan in a motion away from your body, and smother the flames. Do not lower a lid over the flames. This will cause flames to spread sideways and perhaps burn your arm or ignite your clothing or other nearby articles.

If a lid is not available, use salt or baking soda to smother the flame. Simply pour or throw either of the items directly on the flame, but be careful not to push the grease and flames outside the pan. Do not use flour, sugar, or water to try to put out the flames. Flour will explode, sugar will burn, and water will only push the fire out of the pan onto some other surface.

these simple hints good idea to have a fire extinguisher handy. Don't let slushy stockings spoil the well-groomed. Those slush splashes to wipe away with cloth once you've reached your destination—especially tuck a small plastic bag to carry handbag for emergency.
