EASTLAND, TEXAS 76448 — SUNDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1966

MAYOR DEATON THANKS BANK FOR SAFETY SIGNS

A total of 15 reflective signs will be installed at strategic points in Eastland soon, and Mayor Frank Deaton has issued a statement of appreciation to Eastland National Bank, which is furnishing the signs.

The attractive safety devices feature likenesses of children and can be seen by day and night, to warn motorists at dangerous corners and at points where children often cross busy thoroughfares.

Mayor Deaton said, "This is another of the many ways in which our bank, its officers and directors, assist and cooperate in worthwhile projects which help our city. As mayor, I want to publicly thank this civic-minded organization for its cooperation and assistance through the years, and particularly for such a good cause as the contribution of these attractive and expensive signs."

The signs will be installed in about 30 days it was reported.

Nov. 8 Election Ballot Is King-Sized Whopper

"Horse-blanket size" is the ballot for the Tuesday, Nov. 8 general election.

The official ballot measures 15 inches by 20 inches. The left side pertains to state, district, county, and in some instances, precinct races. The right side is devoted to the 16 proposed constitutional amendments.

Only contested race expected to cause much observation is that of United States Senator, which pits Democrat, former Attorney General Waggoner Carr and Republican Incumbent Sen. John Tower.

There are Democratic nominees from governor through county school superintendent, and in some precincts in Eastland County, county commissioners and justices of the peace.

Republican nominees are from governor down through state treasurer; and the Constitution Party lists nominees down through railroad commissioner. The Conservative party has only one candidate — for governor. (The Constitution Party is running one "Jesse Lee James" against Democratic Incumbent Jesse James for state treasurer.)

Wells Dalton's name will appear, unopposed, on the Eastland and Olden ballot for Justice of the Peace, as will M. D. Underwood's on the Ranger ballot.

Gorman, Carbon, Kokomo and Desdemona ballots will list Dick Foster as a candidate for County Commissioner from that precinct; and the Cisco — Scranton ballots will carry C. B. Dill's name as from that precinct. Mr. W. L. Lewis' name will also be on the Cisco — Scranton ballots, for JP.

Unopposed Democratic nominees on the district and county level are: Omar Burleson, congressman 17th district; Cecil C. Collings, associate justice court of civil appeals; Frank Sparks district judge, 91st district court; Tom Creighton, state senator, 22nd district; Burke Musgrove state representative 63rd district; Scott Bailey, county judge; Johnson Smith, county clerk; Ellen Justice, county treasurer; Roy L. Lane, district clerk; and O. L. Stamey, county school superintendent.

Write in space is provided for each office in which there are listed nominees.

P-TA Rosters To Be Mailed

Mrs. Shirley Frazier, P-TA membership chairman, has announced that all names of members must be mailed to national headquarters by October 31.

Those who have not yet joined are urged to do so this week.

Mrs. Frazier said that anyone is eligible to join and that many are helping in this organization who do not have children in elementary school.

Civic Theater Has Stellar Opening; Three More Performances on Tap

The Eastland Civic Theater opened its second "Evening of One-Acts" last night at Bell Hurst Playhouse. The opening performance had been "sold out" for more than two weeks.

Other performances will be at 2:30 today for the only matinee performance; and Monday and Tuesday, with curtain time set each night at 8 p. m.

Reservations are necessary (make them by calling MA 9-1097) because of the limited seating capacity of Bell Hurst Playhouse. All tickets are one dollar, and may be secured in the lobby prior to curtain time, or purchased in advance. Either way, you still must confirm your reservation.

A nursery is provided next door to the Playhouse with a 25c charge per family for those leaving children in the nursery.

Plays are "The Tenth Word" by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements. It is a comedy set in the garden of an exclusive girls' school. The first scene takes place in 1812 and the second scene is set in modern times. The all-girl cast includes Ann Boney, Carla Boney, Shannon Wilson, Donna Haynes, Victoria Wilson, Marilyn Pierson, Tania Faircloth, Marsha Hanna, Julia Hanna and Lisa Germany.

Stage manager is Catherine Germany and Stella Gann is choreographer. The costume committee members are Nettie Wilson, Annette Pierson, Betty Doyle, Nora Stokes, Johnnie Gallagher, Mildred Faircloth and Juanita Langlitz.

Second play of each performance is "The Pot Boiler" by Alice Gerstenberg. This melodrama depicts the frustrations of a playwright. Larry Sittler, Grey Pierson, Lou Ann Collins, Pat Wilson, Tom Stagg, Bob Day and W. Q. Verner compose the cast.

Rhett Smith serves as the stage manager with Nell Carter and Juanita Langlitz handling costume arrangements. The final play is "The Reign of Minnie Belle," written by ECT's director, Mrs. Virginia W. Russell. The comedy of an East Texas town in 1933 has been produced many times since its publication, but this is its premier in Eastland.

Playing the title role is Vallie Parker. Others in the cast are Francis Bond, Bill Hart, Boe Sanderson, Melissa Courtney, Annette Miller, Wanda Wright, Jane Day, Kathy Stevens, Rhett Smith, Kenneth Watson, Ralph Stevens and Rex Boney.

Nadine Bond, stage manager, and Juanita Langlitz, costumes, are the crew members. Workers for the entire production are Dick Dixon, Larry Early, and Tom Tucker, stage carpentry; Pete Chapman and Nita Hendricks, make-up; Lloyd Armstrong, photographer; Mary Watson, reservations; Mrs. E. G. Rice, ticket sales; and Ralph Stevens, Kenneth Watson, Jack Germany and Mike Collins, house managers.

12th Birthday Celebrated at ECT Rehearsal

Anything can happen during dress rehearsals at Eastland Civic Theater — and it often does.

Thursday night some 40 cast and crew members paused to wish "Happy Birthday" to Rex Boney.

Having already received family gifts at breakfast that morning, and been guest-of-honor at a movie and supper party at Majestic Theater, Rex thought the birthday fun was over when he reported to Bell Hurst Playhouse for a dress rehearsal of "The Reign of Minnie Belle."

The surprise party started when Mrs. Warren Chapman, make-up chairman for ECT, presented Rex a beautiful yellow and white cake.

After singing "Happy Birthday", and enjoying birthday cake, coffee, and Cokes, the actors, back-stage workers, and director returned to the business of getting ready for opening night.

Mrs. Bessie Williams of Nashville, Tennessee is spending the week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Hatie Baker.

MAVERICKS MAULED BY GRANBURY, 60-6

The District 7-AA high-riding Granbury Pirates brought their lofty clipper ship to Maverick Stadium Friday night and picked up a 60-6 cache.

The Mavericks had a night of experience with a capital "E", matched with the bigger, faster and more experienced Pirates. And the locals, who went into the game knowing they were going to be out-classed, profited from having played against such a potent team.

It was Dad's Night, and hardly had the proud Fathers found their seats along the sidelines, before the Granbury scoring machine went into action. Tailback James Hodges took the ball on the first play and galloped the distance for six points. Extra point try was good for two more.

And that was just the beginning for Mr. Hodges. Once more in the first quarter he scored, and added three in the second quarter. After the first Granbury tally, the Mavericks put together a little drive that netted two first downs but failed to go far enough, long enough. And just before the half ended, the Mavericks gained two more first downs.

In the opening round of the third, a new name in the person of End Jerrell Bolton grabbed himself an Eastland pass and galloped to the other end of six points. Then turned around two plays later and with a handoff from Quarterback Jerry Hodges, went over right end for another Granbury score.

Wing back George Baines took a handoff and ran the distance to add his name to the scoring columns.

Then in the fourth quarter, the Mavericks made their move — capitalizing on a 15-yard penalty on Granbury, the Mavs were on the 42, and a long pass from Quarterback Gene Wilson found waiting arms in End Jim Herridge, who ran a big, big foot race with a Granbury defender, and Jim won for the lone and only Eastland score.

Apparently wanting to ring the "60" mark, the Pirates moved relentlessly on and scored another TD in the fourth on a handoff from Hodges to Herman Mitchell, who went over.

It was a hardnosed game with the visitors amassing a whopping 13 yards on 14 penalties.

Sparkling on Eastland defense were Wilson, James McKinzie, Steve Wilson, Greg Emfinger, Wade Thomas, Bill Hoffmann, Boyd Porter, Fred Keith and Tony Lowrance.

UF Campaign Approaching 1/2-Way Mark

"Almost to the half-way mark," is the word from United Fund Drive Chairman J. T. (Buddy) Carter, as he reported for the current drive at weeks end.

A total of $3,292 has been collected, and "that's 45 per cent of our goal he said as he issued an urgent plea for workers and volunteers to work envelopes and make reports.

"We hope to wind this drive up very soon and each and every worker can do his part by making sure the cards and envelopes are worked as soon as possible," Carter said.

Total goal for the 1966 drive is $7,140, and some nine agencies benefit from this united drive.

UF President Jack Arrington stated earlier that "All we've got to do is show the people how many people are benefitted by these United gifts, and the drive will finish itself."

First 100 per cent employee firm is the Eastland National Bank, which reported 100 (Continued on page 4)

4th Annual Pecan Show in Rising Star Dec. 9-10

The 14th annual Eastland County Pecan Show will be held at Rising Star, December 9-10, according to A. D. Light, chairman of the Pecan Growers Association.

Details of the show were only completed at a meeting of officials of both pecan growers organizations and the Chamber of Commerce there, co-sponsors of the affair. It will be held here since that the show has been held in Rising Star, C. E. Smith, secretary of the growers who has a pecan grove there.

D. Jenkins, manager of Chamber of Commerce at Rising Star, said he will be building an exhibit in the building on south main street, which will be open to the public from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily. Exhibits of pecans will be shown in the regional show at Abilene. The date of the regional show has not yet been set, it was said.

Carter gained Emerson in his appeal to quick and generous contributions to the drive.

"The true test of a civilization is not the census, nor the size of cities, nor the crops, but the kind of man the country turns out."

At other, less diplomatic campaigns were ever heard this week, in a little more blunt quotation:

"People should give freely — we deplete the use of force."

SOME CALL IT MASS MURDER —

... which might be described, it is death on the loose. Whatever it is the Department of Public Safety officials predict that more persons will lose their lives in traffic accidents in Texas this year than any previous year on record. More and faster cars on crowded highways spell out trouble for those who use them. What should be done in the face of this warning? For one thing we can all drive carefully and be adequately insured.

Mrs. C. W. Hoffmann Jr. Is Creatively Busy in Sorority

Mrs. C. W. Hoffmann Jr. of the Zeta Pi Chapter, which she has served as president since 1964, is a busy woman. Her members enjoy social opportunities, and she has many friends. Mrs. Hoffmann is an Eastland native and can use only her own strength and energy to help the sorority. She has been hospitalized and treated for a heart condition since the 1960 car accident. Even the kitchen curtains were hand-made, although Ann says, "Now Mother and I made these and the sun room curtains together. I'm actually not a seamstress." Ann has recently made a yarn picture which is 45 inches by 30 inches; a plaster of paris family tree for the Hoffmann family; and the yearbooks for the Sorority. These yearbooks have jeweled paper-mache covers and are considered keepsake items by the members.

The Chapter helps support the International Funds, which are annually divided into donations to medical research in cancer, Cystic Fibrosis; scholarship and literary awards; and a number of other funds, including Girlstown at Whiteface.

The Chapter also contributes annually to a State Project, which is selected by all Zeta Sigma Phi chapters in Texas. Each chapter chooses a project and mails a ballot. The project receiving the most votes is announced at the State Convention. Last year, the Sorority donation was made to Crippled Children's Hospital in Dallas.

"Creative" offers a one-word description of Ann Hoffmann. A graduate of Monterey High School in Lubbock, she attended Texas Tech as an art major, studying both interior and fashion design.

She works with all phases of art. The round, tiled table in her kitchen is a "from the beginning" project. Ann made the tile, fired it, painted it & fired it again, before placing it on the table. Also in the kitchen is a three-dimensional plastic mural depicting, among other things, a rooster created from marbles.

Mrs. Cavanaugh Is Hostess

Mrs. Jess Cavanaugh was hostess to the Flatwood Home Demonstration Club Thursday, Oct. 20. Mrs. A. H. Brown, president, opened the meeting and Mrs. J. N. Taylor led the motto, pledge and prayer.

A scripture, Matthew 7:20, was read by Mrs. Cavanaugh. The club sang "America the Beautiful" with Mrs. Jack Lusk leading the singing.

Members answered roll call by naming their favorite piece of furniture. Mrs. J. S. Turner presented the program on outstanding women of Texas. She discussed many famous women of Texas history, and summed up by mentioning those women present.

A period of recreation was directed by Mrs. Fannie O'Brien. Mrs. Cavanaugh served refreshments to Mrs. Brown, Taylor, Lusk, Turner, O'Brien, J. A. Pogue, M. W. Greiger, E. W. Ballinger, May Rothrock, Janet Poe, and three visitors, Darla, Dugie, and Tracy Moore. The next meeting date will be announced later.

Officers Are Installed

Officers of the Bethel Baptist WMU were installed by Rev. Bill Goff, pastor of the church.

Rev. Goff used as his theme, "Make Me Like A Star." He read the poem of that name and challenged each group installed with specific qualities of a star.

A large blue poster held many stars and each new officer pinned on an additional star as she accepted office for the church year.

The first group installed included Mrs. J. C. Allison, president; Mrs. James Glenn, vice-president; and Mrs. Tom Clark, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Glenn led in a prayer that these leaders might be guiding stars.

Mrs. Harrison Curtis was installed as program chairman and challenged to be a good reflecting star, reflecting the life of Christ.

52 4 - H'ers, 10 Adults are Presented Awards at Banquet

The 1966 4-H Achievement Banquet was held Saturday night, Oct. 22, at 7:30 p. m. in the Cisco High School Cafeteria and gymnasium.

"VIVA LA 4-H" was the theme for the banquet. County Judge Scott Bailey presented awards to 52 4-H members and ten adult leaders.

Delegates from the 1966 Training Laboratory provided the program and entertainment for the event as well as the pre-planning, decorating and execution of the banquet. These lab delegates were: Bobby Williams, Sharon Harbin, Larry Williamson, Kat-

by Kincaid, Tommie Lee and Kay Green.

The highlight of the event was the announcement of the 1966 Gold Star Boy and Girl. This is the highest award given on the county level. This honor was bestowed upon Miss Barbara Williams, 14, of Gorman and Carter C. Hounsel, 14, of Rising Star. Barbara is a member of the Gorman Community 4-H Club and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams of Gorman. Carter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hounsel and is a member of the Rising Star Community 4-H Club.

Barbara has been an active member for five years during which time she has carried projects in clothing, junior leadership, foods, food preservation, swine, poultry, and beef cattle. She has been a very good junior leader under the leadership of her mother. Since she began the responsibility of junior leader of a clothing group, she has been busy leading and directing, thus she is a better and more active 4-Her than ever before. Not only is she an active 4-H member but is also an active church member, junior high cheer leader, and has been all-tournament in basketball for two years.

Carter has also been an active 4-H Club member. He has held many offices in his local club and has served on the County 4-H Council several terms. He has won many honors with his livestock projects in Houston, San Angelo, Fort Worth, Abilene, Abilene Fair, as well as in the Eastland County Show. He was awarded the Showmanship Award at the County Show in 1966 and has had a Grand Champion for the past two years at the County Show. From all of his hard work and hours spent, he now has his own herd which he has raised himself. All of the show cattle for 1966-67 will be stock from his own herd. Carter has also shown a duroc pig in the County Sears and Roebuck pig show. Not only is he active with his projects, but as a freshman in Rising Star High School he is actively engaged in sports and is doing very well academically.

Following a "Tribute To 4-H Leaders" by Bobby Williams, Silver Clover Awards were presented to H. L. Ferguson, Jimmie and Jeanne Lee, Irwin Pippen of Cisco, and Jasper Williamson, of Ranger for five years of service as an adult leader. Clover Certificates for one year of service was presented to Mrs. Major Farnsworth, Mrs. Claborn, and Mrs. Bob Ewew-Claborn, and Mrs. Bob Frowder.

The "I Dare You" Award and book for qualities of leadership were presented to Sharon Harbin and Tommie Lee with a challenge to aspire nobly, adventure daringly, and serve humbly. This award is made possible to encourage youth to strive to make the most of its talents to have high aspirations, to train for leadership and to accept the responsibilities of outstanding citizenship.

Other awards were presented to outstanding 4-Hers from the eight 4-H Clubs in the county as follows: Achievement, Teddy Jordan and Bobby Lee; Beef, Larry, Jerry and Lynn Williamson; and Cynthia Hounsel; Clothing, Barbara Williams, Lynne Pippen, Christa Fuller and Patsy Kincaid; Dairy Foods, Jo Ann Green; Dress Revue, Brenda Browder, Mila Kincaid; Foods - Nutrition, Bill Farnsworth; Food Preservation, Suzanne Harbin, and Caddye Lee; Home Improvement, Kathy Kincaid; Home Management, Dollie Moseley; Horticultural, Charles Marshall; Leadership, Bobby Williams, Photography, Patsy Moseley and Elaine Moseley; Poultry, Carol Massingill; Swine, Danny Snider, Jim Moseley, Kathy Miller, Carter Hounsel; Sheep, Tommie Lee, Frank Claborn, Bobby Ahles, Pam Claborn, Brit Ferguson, Becky Miller, and Scott Miller, and Tractor Operation, Robert Harbin.

Certificates were presented to the following 4-Hers for five or more years in club work: Kay Green, Tommie Lee, and Lynne Pippen, Cisco 4-H Club; Robert Harbin, Eastland; and Eddie Kincaid of Morton Valley, all for five years. Receiving awards for six years of club work were Andy Hamilton, Ranger, and Kathy Kincaid of Morton Valley. Bobby Williams, Gorman and Sharon Harbin, Eastland received awards for seven years of active 4-H Club work. All of these 4-Hers are to be commended for many years of active club work.

Out of the Bowling Bag

By Ralph Sittler

Well glad to be back and on the job again, went to Neosho, Missouri to see my Dad who was pretty sick but when I left the hospital Tuesday night he was setting up and feeling pretty foxy and giving the nurses a bad time so I up and came on home.

Looks like the leagues were doing pretty good while I was away and some getting some pretty good scores. Well all except the Monday night league and it seems the Secretary doesn't have the standings made out yet so I can't give them to you. But look in the Thursday issue, maybe then.

It looks like the Tuesday night ladies teams are having a good battle as they have two teams that are tied for first place. (Johnsons appliance, of Ranger), and the White Elephant Cafe of Eastland, but close behind is the Hollywood Vassar of Eastland and Smallwood Electric of Cisco. Also be sure and look over the high individual three game score as Mrs. Modelle Gann rang up a 542 series with one game of 202. Not bad for a little gal. That Hollywood Vassar team isn't doing so bad either as they had a 2844 series and a high game of 971. But guess who's coming to the front for some high games and who had a real good one this last week (212). None other than Charlotte Allen of Eastland.

or the Wednesday night Ladies, Scott's Bait House is out in front with 39 wins and 12 losses. Smith Plumbing is in second place with 28 and 20. Also, some of the others seem to be getting stronger so you may see a change this next week.

You should also notice that one of our better bowlers is still going strong. Lou Dell Bryan of Ranger had a real whizzer of a three game series by bowling a 565 and racking up one real high game of 222.

This week, we will add a new league to our news readers. For some reason, we seem to have forgotten our lovely ladies of the day league. The secretary is Mrs. Norvella Templeton of Ranger and recently of Abilene. Mr. Templeton works for the Southwest Machine Shop of Ranger.

Mrs. Alene Taylor, also of Ranger, is their president. She and Mr. Taylor are also from Abilene (lately) and he is with Southwest Machine, too.

In first place are the Sleepers with 36 wins and 12 losses and the Cisco Kids are in second place with 32 wins and 16 losses. The Cisco Kids took high three game series with a 617, and we come up again with that lady bowler from Ranger, Lou Dell Bryan, with another three game series of 566 and in the high individual games she dominates all three places with a 198, 186 and 181.

This week's housewives party was a huge success as we had a very nice gift to give from the Goodyear Service Store of Eastland. The manager, John Willis, is a good man to do business with, so, ladies, be at the party next Wednesday for the drawing of another dandy prize.

The Goodyear prize (an electric knife) was won by Mrs. Elaine Glenn of 313 N. Ammerman, Eastland.

STARTING OVER SOUP, IT GROWS & GROWS

In November of 1964, the Eastland Civic Theater consisted solely of hope and idea - filled aches spread across a kitchen table. Today, the Theater has more than 250 members and is in its fifth successful production.

The kitchen table was the scene of an informal 'soup and sandwiches' luncheon meeting of the Civic League and Garden Club's financial committee. Present were members of the committee, Mmes. J. T. Carter, chair-man; Virgil Seaberry, Jim Parks, and E. G. Rice; Mrs. Gene Boney, League President; and special guest, Mrs. Don Russell.

Mrs. Carter outlined the League's plans to present a stage play to raise money and, hopefully, to launch a little theater for Eastland.

Mrs. Russell accepted the committee's invitation to direct the play.

The first "Evening of One-Acts" opened in the Elementary School Cafeterium in February of 1965. At an all-cast party following the final performance, Eastland Civic Theater was organized as a separate club.

Directors and officers were elected and plans for a future production were made.

"The Nutt Family," first offering of the self-supporting ECT, opened in June 1965 at Eastland High School. The final performance party found members wishing for a building of their own.

The right building located on Director Virginia Russell's property east of Eastland, was re-modeled by members and "Junior Miss" opened there in February of this year. There was another party - and more work on the Playhouse. Seating capacity was enlarged and the floor was elevated for the seats nearer the lobby.

FOURTH SUNDAY SINGING

Music lovers are reminded of the regular 4th Sunday singing which will be held at Bullock beginning at 2 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 23. The public is cordially invited to attend.
