Mavericks Play Indians Friday

The Eastland Mavericks go into Indian territory this Friday night as they march to Comanche to do battle in Indian Stadium with kickoff at 7:30 p. m.

Eastland carries a better season standing, but both teams are winless in District 7-AA play. Each has lost two in district competition.

Granbury handed it to the Mavericks last week 60-6, and Hamilton won over Comanche, 16-6.

The Indians may be on the warpath after having suffered a 7-6 loss at the hands of the Mavericks last year. The Indians lost nine and won one in '65.

At the beginning of the season, Comanche's main weakness was listed as their line; their strength, "None," by the Abilene Reporter-News.

This season the Indians earned a 2-2 record in non-conference play, blanking Hamlin and Albany and carrying a 2-4 for the season.

The Mavericks have a 3-4 for the season.

Probable Offensive Starters for Comanche will be T. J. Cottrell and Richard Arthur, ends; Willie Bradshaw and Jerry Ellis, tackles; Jim Hall and Danny McKinzie, guards; Dudley (if ready) or Tommy Humphries at center; Billy Williams, quarterback; Ronnie Colcleasure and Billy Jack McDonald, halfbacks, and Dulane Colcleasure, fullback.

Defensive starters will be Arthur and Cottrell, ends; Jerry Williams and Ellis, tackles; Casey Bradshaw, nose guard; Dulane Colcleasure, Danny McKinzie and Billy Adams, linebackers; Ronnie Colcleasure, Jimmy Armstrong or Doug Bowden, halfbacks and Billy Jack McDonald, safety.

The Mavericks have for quite a few years opened their grid season against Comanche each year, but with the moving up into District 7-AA, find the Indians later in the season.

Former Bethel Pastor Accepts Abilene Church

Dr. James Flaming, former pastor of Bethel Baptist Church here, has accepted a call to become pastor of First Baptist Church in Abilene.

Dr. Flaming graduated Summa Cum Laude from Hardin Simmons University. He received the W. T. Connor award as the outstanding student in the School of Theology when he received the B. D. degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth in 1959. He was awarded the Doctor of Theology degree

CAPACITY CROWDS APPLAUD CIVIC THEATER'S ONE-ACTS

Eastland Civic Theater's second "Evening of One-Acts" drew some 375 people during performances of three one-act plays this week.

The plays were "sold out" both Saturday and Monday, with large crowds attending the Sunday matinee and Tuesday night's final performance.

A cast and crew party was held Sunday afternoon and also Tuesday night. Plays given were "The Tenth Word", a comedy in two scenes, with an all-girl cast which included Ann Boney, Carla Boney, Shannon Wilson, Donna Haynes, Victoria Wilson, Marilyn Pierson, Tanna Faircloth, Marsha Hanna, Julia Hanna and Lisa Germany.

UF DRIVE 52% GOAL

A total of $3,715.00, toward the 1966 Eastland United Fund goal of $7,140, had been collected at prestime, UF Treasurer James Reid reported.

This amounts to 52 per cent of the total goal. Only 100 per cent Employee groups reported to date are Eastland National Bank and Texas Electric Service Co., including the local distribution, sales, accounting and transmission departments. J. T. (Buddy) Carter, Drive Chairman, reports.

Workers are being urged to work their cards and envelopes, so that the drive may be concluded as soon as possible.

A last-minute push, which hopefully will put the drive over the top, is anticipated by UF officials here.

A total of nine agencies benefit from the local campaign, including United Service Organization and other military men-oriented agencies, it is being pointed out.

The play, which received its title from a line which says "Love is nothing but the tenth word in a telegram," drew contrasts between customs of 1812 and modern days. It also proved that "girls are girls and love is love" regardless of the century.

"The Pot-Boiler" allowed Larry Sittler, Grey Pierson, Lou Ann Collins, Pat Wilson, Tom Staggs, Bob Day, and W. Q. Verner to present talented appearances. This comedy involved the audience more than any play presented here, with Sittler, as a frustrated, conceited playwright strolling the aisles, and each character making side remarks to the audience.

The third play of each performance, "The Reign of Minnie Belle" was written by the theater's director, Virginia Russell. It showed the oil-wealthy "queen" of Texas, played by Vallie Parker of Cisco, and how her neighbors reacted to the boom. Others in this cast were Francis Bond, Bill Hart, Boe Sanderson, Melissa Courtner, Annette Miller, Wanda Wright, Jane Day, Kathy Stevens, Rhett Smith, Kenneth Watson, Ralph Stevens and Rex Boney.

Back stage workers for the production were Dick Dixon, Larry Early, and Tom Tucker, stage carpentry; Pete Chapman and Nita Hendricks, make-up; Lloyd Armstrong, photography; Mary Watson, reservations; Mrs. E. G. Rice, ticket sales; Ralph Stevens, Kenneth Watson, Jack Germany, and Mike Collins, house managers.

The lobby at Bell Hurst Playhouse was filled with contemporary art by Ben Karnes, and baskets of flowers sent by friends of the theater. The cast and crew members presented roses to Mrs. Russell at the close of Tuesday's performances, to express their appreciation for her work with Eastland Civic Theater.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson visited at Water Valley with his son, Rev. Howard Johnson, the past weekend.

ATTENTION ALL TEEN-AGERS: GET YOUR STUFFED ANIMALS

FOR TEEN-AGERS ONLY: THIS SHOULD NOT BE READ BY ANYONE ELSE:

STUFFED ANIMALS ARE AVAILABLE AT THE HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL!

Come on to the Carnival. Play bingo or darts and win a large beautiful stuffed animal you can put in your room, your car (or give to your girl-friend, however the case may be.)

We plan to let the young kids and the adults play bingo and darts (provided they have a dime for each game, of course) but really we'd prefer to see you teens walk off with the stuffed animals. These animals should be appreciated and we know how you are.

After you've played these two games, try your hand at basketball, fishing, throwing the bean bags, pounding nails. Take a cake walk, buy a bargain at the country store, and grab a sandwich from the food booth (you'll have to pay for it—you know how we are.)

If you're brave (or if you are not really, but like to scream anyway) go through the spook house.

Eastland County Democrats will meet Tuesday, Nov. 1, at the Commissioners Courtroom, for a planning meeting, Mike Collins of Eastland has announced.

Set to begin at 7 p. m., the meeting will include discussion of Democratic Waggoner Carr's campaign for United States Senator, and campaign material will be available.

Each town in the county will be represented, and an effort will be made to encourage a big turnout of voters on Tuesday, Nov. 8, Collins, County Chairman for Carr, said.

The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting, he added.

Lions Club Hears About Important Oil Industry

"One fourth of the gasoline tax money in Texas is used for public education, the balance for roads," E. G. Rice told the Eastland Lions Club at the regular meeting Tuesday noon.

Mr. Rice, an Eastland independent oilman, is Public Information Chairman for Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, and was in charge of the program. He presented a film "Non-Stop to Everywhere."

Emphasizing the importance of the oil industry, Mr. Rice pointed out that Texas royalty owners received $479 million from oil and gas production in 1965 and that Texas drilling and well service firms employed 43,500 workers in 1965 with wages of $272 million.

"Workers in Texas petroleum production total 54,500; and in petroleum refining 34,500," he said.

Mr. Rice spends quite a bit of time talking to school and other groups, explaining the importance of the oil industry.

President Ed Ethridge presided and one guest, Assistant County Agent Bob Cohen was introduced.

The club decided to have a "late round-up" candy sale Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. T. Gregory Is Hostess Meet of Xi Alpha Zeta

Xi Alpha Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met in the home of Mrs. J. T. Gregory Monday for a regular meeting.

Mrs. J. T. Carter presented the program on "Planning the Kitchen." Mrs. Carter said that a kitchen is such a highly personal room, each woman must plan her own to fit her needs and personality. The women in the kitchen was the main theme of the program. Using sources from the Bible to Averbach's "Handling Accident Cases," Mrs. Carter pointed out the importance of a wife and mother. She urged those present to preserve the God-given right to femininity and to realize its value. Mrs. Carter also discussed the many roles a woman must have and care for her family.

Mrs. Gregory served fresh apple cake, coffee, tea, mints and nuts to Mrs. R. T. Magness, Carter, Dick Johnson, Jack Arrington, Bill Leslie, Bill Walters, A. D. Taylor, Leon Tidmore, Jay Staggs, Ralph Stitler, and Don Vierger.

Xi Alpha Zeta's next meeting will be Monday, Nov. 14, in the home of Mrs. Tidmore. Mrs. Leslie will bring the program.

EDITOR:

After much thought I've decided to express my thoughts about something very important to me — and to other parents of Eastland boys.

Sports—and especially football—are enjoyed by young and old. Nothing helps more to build strong bodies and develop a sense of fair play.

We all know injuries can occur in any sport—and again—especially football. I am told that an injury suffered by a member of the Maverick "A" team is immediately checked by a doctor. Fine!

Why isn't this done with our "b" team and Junior High teams?

Are they less likely to be hurt? Shouldn't a careful examination be made immediately, with follow-up care taken of any injury?

We blame no one when an injury occurs—but when hours go by before a serious injury or broken bone is treated—then someone has to take the blame.

Let's take steps to see that every injury is examined by a doctor—without needless delays and needless pain and suffering.

Sincerely,
MRS. L. O. TROUT
1303 S. Lamar St.

SOME CALL IT MASS MURDER — ... while others described it as 'death' Whatever it is the Department of Public Safety officials predict that more persons will die in traffic accidents in Texas this year than in any previous year on record. More and more on crowded highways spell out trouble for those who use them. What should be done to prevent this warning? For one thing we can insure fully and be adequately insured.
