

Missouri Governor Condemns Lynching Negro

That reminds me...

Thanksgiving, once again. And millions have much to be thankful for since the last one.

However there are many more that can only keep on hoping that their day will come.

Criticism of praise and criticism of condemnation is flooding the nation regarding the lynching of the Harte kidnapers.

The aftermath of the meeting of the men of the Methodist church left an enthusiastic chain of evidence of what a fine meeting it was.

SAMUEL INSULL AND HIS FUTURE

Samuel Insull in far away Greece is passing sleepless nights. This government has notified the government of Greece "in strong terms that means much to be found to deport Insull, former Chicago utilities magnate."

Samuel had the world at his feet, so to speak. He piled up a fortune having a value of $100,000,000. Now he is a fugitive from justice.

A bird with a broken wing never flies high again. He was a marvelous developer. He had the confidence of millions of people. He gave employment to an army of wage workers.

SPEAKING OF THE PRODUCERS OF THE GOLDEN GRAIN

Wheat is said to be the staff of life. American farmers are large producers of the golden grain. They have not been over-looked in the acreage reduction campaign.

Spasmodic advertising does not bring the results that can be obtained by persistent advertising.

Unless you practice the principles of success in a small way first, you never can in a big way.

Newspaper advertising will have the effect of reducing any overstock of goods a merchant may have, but it takes continuous advertising to have any lasting effect.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

JACK WILLIAMS, Editor and Publisher of the Waycross (Ga.) Journal-Herald, says:

"Newspaper advertising is the strong right arm of business. American business supremacy is the result of fine ideals, energy and printer's ink."

"The mainspring of all business is advertising—and printing is the voice that carries the message to its market."

"Almost a quarter of a century ago A. F. Pears, the famous English soapmaker, was spending about one-quarter of a million dollars annually for advertising."

"About this time the directors of the company decided that since the concern was selling the entire output, the advertising could be dispensed with and it was accordingly stopped."

"This illustrates the memory of the public and the practical value of uninterrupted advertising."

"Advertising at the present time is on the threshold of far more daring and wonderful things."

HOOKS and SLIDES BY BILL BRAUCHER

Two Unnamed THIS is a little song dedicated to two football players who do not stand a great chance of being named All-America this year.

They are Mike Sebastian of Pitt and Ralph Kercheval of Kentucky.

Turning Point AND that game by the way, one of the greatest upsets in years, seemed to be the turning point for the worse for Notre Dame.

Again this year, against Nebraska, he was like a torrent continually writing against a levee of well-filled cornhusker jerseys.

Weekly Sunday School Lesson

Paul In Ephesus

Text: Acts 19:8-20

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Dec. 3

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D. Editor of The Congregationalist

The present lesson, though its events occurred in an ancient city, has a modern flavor and emphasizes some of our modern problems.

As was Paul's custom, he made the synagogue the center of his religious activity in Ephesus as long as he was permitted to speak there freely.

Here, we are told, he "reasoned" daily. And for a man whose ministry was mostly itinerant, he achieved the distinction of two years' settlement in one place.

The influence of his contact and teachings during those two years must have been both deep and extensive.

It is in the nature of any new teaching or movement to attract to itself not only the sincere and earnest people of open mind, but many of more fanatical or fraudulent tendencies, whose interest in a movement arises from ignorant zeal or from selfish motives.

It was so here in Ephesus. When some of these people found Paul performing miracles in the name of Jesus, they began to practice a sort of incantation, exercising evil spirits in the name of Jesus, though there was no manifestation of the spirit of Jesus in their work.

THE UNKNOWN BLOND

By Laura Lou Brookman

BEGIN HERE TODAY
Who killed TRACY KING, orchestra leader found dead in his apartment?

M'NEAL looked nettled. He was accustomed to doing the questioning himself. "We came," he said crisply, "to find out what you can tell us about Tracy King, the young man who was murdered upstairs."

M'NEAL's mounting annoyance showed in his tone. "Mr. Hollister," he said, "I'm Captain M'Neal and this is Mr. Bannister. We're from headquarters and I've been trying to find out from your sister what she knows about the shooting last night. So far I haven't learned much. Sit down, won't you? I'd like to hear your version of what happened."

FROM THE infection of her voice it seemed that Captain M'Neal should have wilted instantly. But Captain M'Neal did not wilt.

IT took an instant for Bannister's eyes to accustom themselves to the dim light. Then he saw that the woman before him was tall and rather squarely built. Pale eyes measured the two men from head to foot.

By United Press
SULPHUR SPRINGS, Ark.—An enterprise born of the depression is thriving in this Ozark village. Lack of employment in factories resulted in establishment of the Ozark Craftsmen's Guild, which is attracting national attention.

The guild is a practical undertaking in the utilization of the natural materials of the Ozarks made into novel and useful articles by the hands of skilled men and women.

A class of workers, who have been thrown out of work in factories and who found their age prevented them from securing similar employment elsewhere, are coming into the Ozark enterprise for the opportunity of once more becoming independent producers.

Walter R. Eaton, who for 12 years has been manager of the Ozark colony, local co-operative enterprise, is manager of the guild. "The basic idea behind this project is to provide work for arts

'Alfalfa Bill' Put On the Spot By Many Followers

By United Press
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 29.—Gov. W. H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray has been "put on the spot" politically, after ruling Democratic and state affairs in Oklahoma with an iron hand since 1930.

It started with Murray's determination to name a slate for the 1934 Democratic nominations to state office. Some of his staunchest followers balked. A couple quit. Twenty-six years ago, Murray was chairman of the convention which drafted the constitution for the state, when Oklahoma entered the Union.

Now that his own term will expire in 1934, with many of his policies still on trial or in formative stages, he would like, probably, to have another four years. He even considered resigning a few months before his term expired and then run in the next election, technically avoiding the

"THE UNKNOWN BLOND" By Laura Lou Brookman

"Morning, Aunt Kate!"
BANNISTER looked up then went on removing golden brown slices of French toast from a smoking skillet. "Morning," she said crisply. "Go on into the dining room. Breakfast'll be on the table in a second."

BANNISTER located the newspaper on the living room table and opened it to the page. There was plenty about the King murder, but there was nothing that Bannister did not know. It gave him a feeling of relief. He was glad to know nothing important had happened while he was asleep.

"David?"
It was his aunt calling and Aunt Kate would brook no delay at meal time.

"Where is she?"
BANNISTER grinned. He didn't mind being addressed as though he were a 14-year-old. "I was like old times. 'Important business,'" he told her. "I've got a job."

But she didn't mean that. There was no disappointment in her voice and none in her eager eyes as she asked a moment later, "David—who do you think did it?"

been re-appointed to serve the Methodist church here, a large crowd of members and friends of the church gathered Sunday morning to hear his first sermon of this conference year. Those who attended carried well-filled baskets and a most tempting and abundant dinner was served on tables arranged outside of the church. In the afternoon all went into the church and enjoyed a song service led by Mr. Trimble of Carbon who is a popular song leader. Another feature of the afternoon service was a talk on "The Ideal Layman," by B. E. McGlamery of Eastland. The audience appreciated very much the assistance of Mr. Trimble and Mr. McGlamery in the service. Not only did the friends want to express appreciation of Rev. Howell but also of his wife and children, who are all faithful church workers.

Desdemona football team won another victory Friday afternoon when they defeated Alameda. Coach Weldon Rushing and the boys in the team have worked hard in order to win from our nearby towns, nearly all opposing teams being a good deal heavier than the Desdemona boys.

W. C. Bedford drove over to Gorman on business Monday. Miss Irene Whitesoft left last Wednesday for her home, in West Virginia after having been here three weeks with her mother, Mrs. Clara Beamer, who is still improving at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballard and little daughter, Tootsie, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, Saturday. The many friends of Mrs. Ballard, who lived here several years, will be glad to know that she has entirely recovered from what was thought to be an incurable illness. She recently returned to her home at Brownwood after a few months stay in Little Rock, Ark., at the Research hospital.

Mrs. J. E. Heter, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. S. E. Snodgrass, Mrs. J. W. Griffin and Mrs. Guy Tidwell, drove down to Brownwood Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Roy Bullington of Corte Madero, Calif., who was visiting relatives at Brownwood and Hamilton. Mrs. Bullington and family lived in Desdemona several years and her many friends regret that she could not spare the time for a visit here.

Mrs. J. R. Buchanan and family went to Merriman Wednesday and attended the funeral of Mrs. Laney Brashears, great aunt of Mrs. Buchanan.

Married. At Dallas, Nov. 18, 1933, Miss Faye Cromer to Carroll Stover. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride with Rev. Sherrod Stover, brother of the groom, officiating. The happy couple will make their home at Olney, where the groom is an employe of the Humble company. Carroll Stover is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Stover and has spent a good deal of time here the past few years and his many friends wish him and his bride great happiness.

Mrs. I. N. Williams was hostess Monday afternoon to the members of the Methodist Missionary society and several other friends.

E. Barron then played a violin solo with Miss Edna Parks at the piano. D. E. Hoover, principal of the grammar school, made a very practical talk on "Living Together With the Family." Little Misses Ruth and Irene Harless then sang a harvest-time song and the next number was a piano solo by Miss Edna Parks. Mrs. C. W. Maltby was next on program and gave a humorous reading describing an irritable patient in a hospital. Pleta Hughes, Nettie Daniels, Nailon Hanson and Glenn Sparkman then sang a quartet with Mrs. Aaron Henslee at the piano. Piano solo by Frances Arnold was followed by a reading by Madeline Robert. Miss Ruth Crenshaw, in cowboy costume, sang "The Last Round-Up." Piano solo by Miss Nell Robert was followed by a song by the sixth grade, with Miss Dorace Roe at the piano. A very interesting one-act play was presented by pupils from the sixth and seventh grades. Two numbers, not on the printed programs, were readings by little Cleve Jean Bratton and a talk by W. E. Barron, who spoke for the board of trustees of which he is a member. Rev. Howell dismissed the audience with prayer. This splendid program was given without any admission fees or collection being taken and was appreciated by all. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hendrixson of Gatesville arrived Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Bruce. Mrs. Mattie Henry and Miss Emma Genoway attended the singing at Jakehamon Sunday. J. E. Heeter left Tuesday for Coahoma, where he is drilling an oil well for Mr. Clay of the Clay Lumber company. Mr. Heeter has been here since Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Howell and three little daughters, of Kilgore, arrived Sunday and will remain until Friday, visiting her mother, Mrs. J. E. Derrick, here and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Howell at DeLeon. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis and daughter, Mrs. Aaron Henslee, drove up to Eastland on business Tuesday of last week. MINERAL WELLS, TEXAS

YOUNGEST VET

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Colonel Frank Rene Sauliere of Cambridge believes he is the youngest World War veteran. Sauliere, colonel by virtue of his appointment to the staff of Gov. A. B. Chandler of Kentucky last March, enlisted at Bordeaux, France, Sept. 3, 1917, at 12 years, seven months and nine days. He fibbed about his age and was assigned to the 18th U. S. Engineers. Today he is 28.

102-YEAR-OLD CELEBRATED

VISALIA, Calif.—John (Scotty) Martitt was 90 when prohibition was voted, too old to change his opinions. That is why, police explained, they had to arrest the 102-year-old man when the 36th state voted to repeal the 18th amendment. They claimed Scotty "celebrated" a little too enthusiastically.

PLANE FLARE STARTED FIRE

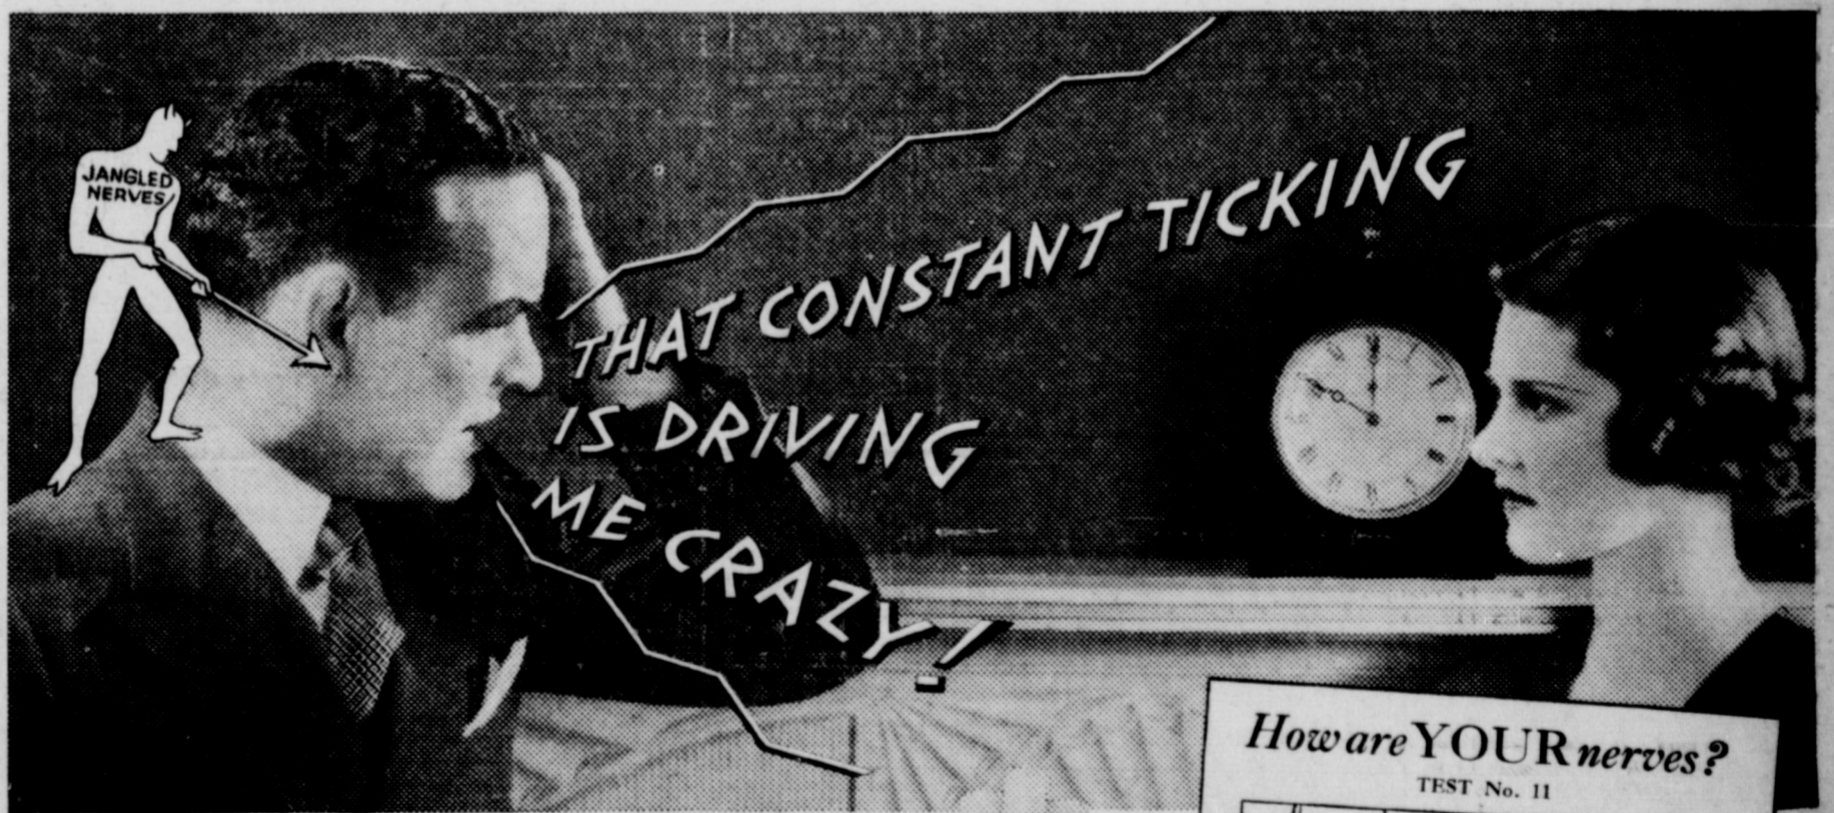

BAKERSFIELD, Calif.—A flare dropped from an army bombing plane, in distress because of engine trouble, was blamed today for a fire which swept over 25 acres of grass land on the Ricks ranch near here. The plane later made a forced landing at an emergency field. The fire was controlled before it did serious damage.

You don't see so many earmuffs on the streets in winter any more, because they're used inside during some of the radio programs.

Mob Mills As Prisoner Brought Out For Lynching

Photo taken during the fighting at the San Jose, Calif., jail, shows the crowd as one of the purported kidnapers was dragged from the jail for lynching. The men were beaten, kicked and stripped by the crowds. The prisoner was submerged in the attacking hordes.

Jangled nerves can make an evening at home a nightmare

An evening at home ruined by jangled nerves!...Rustling of papers, ticking of clocks, and other little things that ordinarily don't matter, driving one crazy! To get full enjoyment out of living your nerves must be under perfect control.

Watch your nerves... Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly. Find time for recreation. And smoke Camels—for Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

How are YOUR nerves?
TEST No. 11
TAKE 20 STEPS FORWARD IN A STRAIGHT LINE
Beginning with your left foot—place the heel of one foot in front of and against the toe of the other foot. Take twenty steps forward in a straight line. See how quickly you can complete this test. An average record is 12 seconds.
Irving Jaffee (Camel smoker), famous Olympic skating champion, can take the 20 steps in 7 seconds.
