INSANITY IS DEFENSE PLEA FOR H. BYBEE

THROCKMORTON, April 7. — Defense testimony, indicating the defendant was suffering from insanity, was introduced today in the trial of Hilton Bybee, charged with robbery with firearms.

Jeff Fowler, Bybee's attorney at previous trials, testified he believed the defendant was insane and said observations of Bybee's actions convinced him his belief was correct.

Mrs. Beulah Bybee, mother of the defendant, said that her son had exhibited symptoms of insanity since an infant. She said that when he was two years old he suffered a skull injury when he was dropped by a person carrying him.

The mother also said that Bybee's father had been found insane in 1926 and had served a year at the Austin asylum. Mrs. Bybee's testimony was substantiated by her daughter, Thelma, the defendant's sister.

Dr. C. W. Casley of Wichita Falls, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, examined Bybee today. The physician said testimony of witnesses indicated Bybee might be insane, but that he would not be able to give his official opinion for about 10 days. A motion to grant the physician that time was overruled.

TO CONDUCT REVIVAL

Reading left to right: Mrs. D. F. Tyndall, Miss Hortez Tyndall, and Dr. David S. Tyndall of Cisco. Dr. Tyndall, president of Randolph College and pastor of the First Christian Church, will conduct a two-week revival at the First Christian Church, Eastland, beginning April 8.

David F. Tyndall Begins Revival Christian Church

Rev. David F. Tyndall, president of Randolph College, Cisco, and pastor of the First Christian church at Cisco, begins a series of revival meetings at the Eastland First Christian church today. The meeting is to continue through the 22nd.

Rev. C. W. Lipsey, pastor of the First Christian church of Eastland, will have direction of the music for the revival. Services will begin promptly at 7:45 each evening. Members of other churches and the public in general are extended cordial invitations to attend this series of sermons.

Eastland Makes Good Showing at Breckenridge Meet

Friday, representatives of the Eastland schools had amassed 62 points towards Eastland having the all round championship of the district meet which was held at Breckenridge Friday and Saturday. They trailed Breckenridge one and one-half points.

In the debate contest, Doris Fields and Carolyn Cox won first position in the girls division. Edmund Herring and Edwin Stanford won third position in the boys division.

Joan Johnson won first place and Ralph Mahon third, in the extemporaneous contest, girls and boys division.

In the junior division of the declamation contest, Doris Lawrence won first, girls, and Frank Lovett Jr., third in the boys.

Eastland was eliminated in the volley ball contest by Throckmorton. Because of inclement weather, the tennis contest was postponed until Friday, April 13.

Friday, the plans for holding track and field events Saturday, were going ahead.

Estimates of the number attending the district meet vary from 500 to 600.

Eastland Rotarians On Moran Program

The Booster club of Moran had on their noon luncheon program, Wednesday, members of the Rotary club, asked to contribute the entertainment feature.

Dr. J. H. Caton gave a fine talk on public health, and Miss Onetta Russell of this city, a group of interesting readings.

Others attending were E. V. Williams, president of Eastland Rotary club, and Mrs. F. V. Williams.

CITIZENS MAY VOTE ON P. O. BUILDING SITE

Eastland citizens may be called upon to select by ballot a site for the proposed new federal building to house the Eastland post-office.

At least three and possibly four sites are being urged for the proposed building and it appears that no agreement can be reached on either of those offered and those representing the various interests are of the opinion that a vote is the only fair and equitable way to settle the matter.

At a meeting a few days ago, to which representatives of the press were not invited, failure to agree on a site was again registered although representatives for those interested in all sites were present and participated.

"I CAN FIGHT"
No not us. We've heard from students at an Abilene college that the two words are an invitation to engage in physical combat. Our informants states that when one says, "I can fight," the two go behind cover and the feathers fly.

LOCALITIES
Joe H., where did you get that chaser? "Fluke" Maynard, what caused you and "Half-Pint" to go to Fort Worth in the middle of the night last week? "Barkis is willing," anytime, L. W. "Muscle-Bound" Gary, the ladies at Cisco want you to come over. Polk R., we hear you're in "hog's heaven." "Bully" Simmons expects to go to Tyler soon.

SEPIANS GO TO TOWN

Maybe you saw it. The dance at the Elks ballroom at which the bellboys (colored) of Breckenridge were hosts and sponsors. They hit the high spots. Colored boys and girls from far and near proved themselves individual exponents and interpreters of the dance. One little lad, with a smile as wide as Joe E. Brown's. He was good. The feminine attendees at the dance shamed some of "burleyque beef trust" soubrettes and flash dancers. The orchestra was o. m. They played the deam of colored orchestras, theme song, Duke Ellington's "East St. Louis Toodleloo." The rendition of "Rocking in Rhythm" was excellent.

No Indictments By Grand Jury in "Armory" Case

The 88th district court grand jury, which was re-convened Monday, April 2nd, recessed late Friday without having returned any indictments in connection with the robbery of the Ranger National Guard armory, which was burglarized on the night of last March 19th, according to Criminal District Attorney Grady Owen.

The grand jury recessed after having returned nine true bills, all for minor felony charges, until April 30 unless called by the court to convene sooner.

The fact that no indictments were returned in connection with the Ranger armory robbery, however, does not mean that the grand jury made no investigation of the matter or does not intend to make still further investigation along that line.

A large number of witnesses appeared before the grand jury during the week.

CHARGES FILED IN SLAYING OF BILL JOHNSON

BRADY, April 7. — Murder charges were filed here today against L. G. Dueran and "Whit" Jones, suspected slayers of Bill Johnson, highway employe, fatally beaten in Concho county yesterday.

Sheriff Love Kimbrough filed the charges here because Johnson died in this county. Reuben Cordell, beaten unconscious at the same time and brought here, will recover.

The two accused men had spent the time at Melvin because swollen streams from recent rains made the highway impassable. Kimbrough said he had not yet determined what caused the difficulty in which Johnson was killed. He was to question Dueran and Jones.

Four Are Given Maximum Sentence For Mail Robbery

FORT WORTH, April 7.—The federal government today exacted maximum punishment for O. D. Stevens, W. D. May, M. T. Pettijohn and Joe Martin for the $71,000 Texas & Pacific railway station mail robbery here Feb. 21, 1933.

Federal Judge James Wilson sentenced Stevens, May and Pettijohn, alias M. T. Howard, to serve 25 years in prison for the robbery. He added a two year sentence and $10,000 fine to the term of each on a count of conspiracy to rob.

Martin, convicted only on the conspiracy count received the maximum two year sentence and $10,000. The four men, with Johnnie Carson, government witness, were found guilty by a federal district court jury. Carson was not sentenced. He is serving 10 years on another conviction.

Cabinet Closeups

HOMER S. CUMMINGS
Attorney General

By WILLIS THORNTON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON.—The attorney general is able to attend pretty much to the regular duties implied by the title of the job. He has fewer extra activities than most cabinet members.

He is the chief lawyer for Uncle Sam, representing him in court or giving legal opinions when requested by the president or department heads.

He may appear before the supreme court in grave cases, and all U. S. district attorneys and marshals in the various districts are under his supervision. He is constantly consulted by the president and other cabinet officers as to legality of proposed actions.

He is chief prosecutor for Uncle Sam of violations of such laws as anti-trust, security, patent, claims, tax, and customs cases.

He directs the very efficient bureau of investigation, which is supposed to ferret out all kinds of violations of federal laws. All federal prisons and their prisoners are under his supervision.

But he is also a member, since the New Deal, of the executive council, national emergency council, and federal emergency administration of public works.

The first two of these meet infrequently, and probably are not much drain on the time of Cummings. He also holds the inevitable Smithsonian Institution membership.

Cummings, a kindly and paternal gentleman of 63, was born in Chicago, but rose to prominence in municipal politics in Stamford, Conn.

He is tall, loose-jointed, and long-armed, and speaks slowly, deliberately, and only after long consideration of just what he wants to say.

Nicholas Kelley, attorney for the Chrysler Corporation, has been chosen representative for the manufacturers on the new three-man "peace board" for the auto industry, to settle disputes between employers and employes under the strike settlement plan. Kelley was prominent in the peace negotiations.

TELLS OFFICERS "LAW HAD HIM WRONG IT THAT"

Talks Freely To Kidnaped Officer; Bonnie Denies She Smokes Cigars.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., April 7.—Clyde Barrow denied the murder of two highway patrolmen near Grapevine last week, Police Chief Percy Boyd of Commerce, Okla., Barrow's unwilling prisoner for 15 hours, said today.

"He said the law had him wrong on that," Boyd said. "Barrow said he was not in on the job. He was as cool as you please and talked to me freely.

"There was a bottle of whiskey in the car but Barrow didn't drink any. He said he never drank.

"Barrow is the boss of that outfit. They are the coolest bunch I ever saw. Barrow gave orders and showed me he was the boss. They drove with guns in their laps. They didn't seem worried or excited.

"Bonnie was wearing a red dress. She, too, was as cool as a cucumber. I got to talking to her and she told me all those stories about her smoking cigars were wrong. She seemed real indignant about it and said it all started when Barrow stuck a cigar in her mouth once when they had a picture made.

"I sat in the back seat all the time with the man I'm sure was Hamilton."

Barrow and Bonnie admitted their identity.

Federal officers aiding in the hunt obtained information today that the bandit trio entered Kansas City before dawn. It was known they were in need of another car, authorities said.

Boyd, suffering from a minor scalp wound, received when his companion was killed by the outlaws, was released on a highway near here just before 1 a. m.

LANDSLIDE IN NORWAY KILLS FIFTY PERSONS

AALESUND, Norway, April 7. A tremendous mass of mountain rock which crashed into the narrow, deep Norddalsfjord today, caused three huge waves that overwhelmed the fishing villages of Tafjord and Fjoerra and killed, perhaps, 40 to 50 persons.

The peasant fishermen and their families who make up the towns were asleep when the rock crashed into the almost bottomless fjord at 3 a. m.

They thought the judgment day had come when the first great wave roared through the villages and struck their little homes. It emerged the power plant and plunged the valley into darkness.

Cries of drowning persons, groans of victims buried in debris of houses continued until there came a second wave, which swallowed up many who were calling for help.

Rangers to Patrol Roads In Search Of Clyde Barrow

DALLAS, April 7. — Ranger Captain D. E. Hamer today issued a warning to automobile drivers to stop on signal on highways if they wished to avoid trouble while hundreds of officers are hunting for Clyde Barrow, Raymond Hamilton and Bonnie Parker.

These officers have been given orders to shoot to kill and if they signal an automobile driver to stop and he fails to stop they are likely to shoot and ask questions later.

"Of course, I know this may be an aid to hijackers, but it is better to be a victim of a hijacker than get shot."

Several Are Given Rabies Treatment

AUSTIN, April 7. — Several carloads of San Marcos residents received treatment at the pasteur institute here today for rabies after a six-month-old German police dog ran amuck at San Marcos earlier this week.

Examination of the dog's head revealed he was mad. Laboratory technicians gave the victims anti-rabies serums. The institute's list of persons receiving treatment was incomplete.

At San Marcos it was reported 15 had been bitten by the puppy, which most people thought was merely "playful." Six children were included in the list bitten by the dog.

President Issues Warrant for Insull

WASHINGTON, April 7. — A presidential warrant for the arrest of Samuel Insull and his return to the United States, has been signed by President Roosevelt and the full text cabled to the Turkish authorities, the state department announced today.

Burton Berry, American vice consul at Istanbul, was named in the presidential warrant as the American agent to bring Insull back to this country.

The route which Berry and his prisoner will follow in leaving Turkey and what ship will bring them back to the United States are matters for decision by the American ambassador in Turkey and by Berry.

Curb Market Will Probe Transactions

NEW YORK, April 7. — The New York Curb exchange today followed the lead of the stock exchange of investigating recent unusual activity on various issues by sending out a questionnaire on four stocks.

The stocks are Arkansas Natural Gas Corp, class A; Arkansas Natural Gas com.; Nation Service company command and New Mexico & Arizona Land company.

All members of the exchange were requested to furnish the committee on arrangements, by Wednesday, April 11, with a list in duplicate, of all transactions in these stocks between March 20 and April 7.

SEN. WAGNER WILL REVIVE HIS LABOR BOARD BILL

Sen. Robert F. Wagner of New York is the foremost champion of labor, organized and unorganized, in the American congress. He has been responsible for a vast deal of labor legislation. He has a bill pending. It is known as the labor board measure. Many of the leading industrialists of America have been pounding the bill or certain provisions of the bill. Sen. Wagner is not a radical. He has changed front a bit. He is going to revise his measure. One change would permit employers to initiate the formation of company unions, providing "the intent was to be helpful to labor, and provided employer-control of the unions was outlawed." President Roosevelt carried a copy of the revised act on his pleasure jaunt "or a much needed recreation."

Sanity should govern all concerned. It should govern national lawmakers. It should govern employers and the employees. Give the republic of the fathers and all its industries and all its human atoms an opportunity for the readjustment of conditions which were precipitated not only by the world crash four years ago but by the crash in all the states of the union.

'WHAT WILL WE USE FOR MONEY?' IS THE NEW DEAL QUERY

Another problem was passed on to the New Deal administration when the senate and the house knocked out the veto of the President. Now administration leaders have a problem to solve—where to get another $228,000,000, the cost of the overthrow of the first major veto of the chief magistrate. By a three-vote margin the senate engraved on the statute books the $830,000,000 independent office appropriation bill. In it were the increased payments for veterans and government employes which had been the bone of contention. Republican senators, 35 in all must shoulder their share of the responsibility. They backed the bill to a finish and they voted to override the veto.

Now "what will we use for money?" is the query of the lawmakers of the nation who hold the purse strings and who must tap new sources of revenue before recess of the congress. Cash on the barrel head for the veterans and the employes of the government calls for quick action on the part of those who make the appropriations for the support of the government. All this means additional taxes. All this means that the President will ask congress to provide additional revenue "or the budget will not be balanced in 1936."

Americans are a peace loving people, but they won't stand long for any curbing of their personal freedom. They can be kidded along to do almost anything that is fair and square, but they can't be forced into doing anything that they don't want to do.

Factory Raises Its Factory Force Wages

Effective Monday the Chevrolet Motor company announced a 10 per cent increase to all factory employes. Prior to this increase, the average worker was paid 75 cents an hour or $5.60 per day. This wage was one of the highest in the industry and now that the average has become $6.30 per day, Chevrolet leads most manufacturers in the wage scale, says H. C. Howard, zone manager of the Dallas zone.

"Chevrolet's adherence to and fullest co-operation with NRA policies is indicated by the fact that in its own plants, exclusive of the General Motors units, who supply them with production parts, they now have 65,000 workers as compared with the peak production periods of 1928 and 1929," said Mr. Howard. "During 1930, through 1933, the average employment was only 30,000 men—better than a 120 per cent increase in the number of employed in 1934 over 1933."

"And now with the hours worked reduced from 40 to 36 per week there will be a further expansion in the number employed. "In the month of March, just closed, Chevrolet produced approximately 100,000 units and will produce in excess of 125,000 in April, the largest month's production since 1929. A shortage of Chevrolets still exists, but it is due to the tremendous demand for its product. Proof of this lies in the fact that in February, Chevrolet produced 72,273 units as compared with the next largest manufacturer's 59,357 and the third largest 84,709. Mr. Howard said the Dallas area of the northern half of Texas, his territory, sold in excess of 350 per cent in March, 1934, over the same period in 1933. March sales of approximately 3,000 cars was the largest month since May, 1929."

THE ROMANTIC RUNAWAY. BEGIN HERE TODAY. PABLITO, a handsome youth, becomes a fugitive when he sees Bea and Lottie, two thieves. Pablito has been accused of a murder he did not commit. MARCIA TREADWELL, socially prominent, could prove he is innocent but fears scandal. Lottie is in love with ESTELLE FIELD, daughter of rich JIM FIELD, in Havana, under the name "Juanito." She becomes celebrated as a boxer and he and Bea open a gymnasium. ESTELLE and Pablito's father, in searching for his son, employ BILLINGS, New York detective. Three years pass and then Pablito and Estelle meet. They admit their love for each other and agree to meet in Havana. Pablito may be the youth he is seeking and Estelle his daughter. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIII. THE gossip about Juanito and Estelle finally reached Lottie. "I'll spoil her face!" she promised shrilly as she stood, arms akimbo, looking down at Bea who lounged in a deep wicker chair. "Aw, show a little sense!" "It means we'll be kicked out here," Lottie said craftily. That night Bea, she thought. "A lot you're worryin' about that!" he commented. "Kid," he said easily, "we got our rake-off. I know how you feel about him, Lottie, but he don't lean your way an' that's all there is to it. You might as well make up your mind about it. It ain't your fault an' it ain't his."

The community club report was read. Brk. Sixth District convention given by Mrs. A. H. Johnson. Mrs. J. M. Perkins. Mrs. Fred L. Drago, chairman for Music Week, May 6-12, announced personnel of Music Week committee, with request they begin their work immediately.

The program on American radio and musical film had a fine preface by the leader, Mrs. Arthur Vaughn. "Outstanding Radio Concerts," was given in round-table and a group of Nevin numbers (voice) by Mrs. Howard McDonald.

Unusual musical films and voices was subject of a splendidly written paper by Mrs. W. E. Stalter. Texas State Federation of Music Clubs, April 26-28, in Galveston, Mrs. A. H. Johnson, delegate, was announced.

Tuesday Evening Bridge Club

Mrs. L. A. Cook entertained the Tuesday Evening bridge club at her residence on Thursday night, with three tables for game cleverly dressed in springtime appointments.

High club score favor was awarded Mrs. T. R. Cook, a handsome work-basket, a similar favor going to Mrs. Claud Maynard for high guest score.

Mrs. Beatty received the consolation favor.

The supper plate was of pimento sandwiches, fruit salad, cake, and iced punch.

Club personnel: Mmes. P. R. Cook, Edwina Raines, J. M. Wilcox, Beatty, Maxwell, L. A. Cook, guests, Mmes. N. H. Walden, Claud Maynard, Clarence Uffelman, Fred Michael, Clifton Horn, and Homer Norton.

Faithful Old Servitor Honored

Friends of Mrs. Virginia Bowles, pioneer settler of Eastland, gathered at her home last mid-week bringing generous presents in money, clothing, canned food and fruit, a big gray goose; a birthday shower honoring the 73 years of faithful "Jane," who was given by Mrs. Bowles' father, a Mississippi plantation owner, to his daughter, when the little colored child, Jane, was only three years old.

Fifty of her 73 years have been passed in Eastland with the Bowles family, and all her life with them.

For many years she was the only colored person in this city.

Honorable servitude, faithful kindness, has marked her devotion to Mr. Bowles and her family.

For many years she attended the "white folks" Methodist church, sitting quietly in a back seat intent on the services. Now she is too old and broken to venture these trips.

"Jane" was told to be dressed, as her mistress was to receive friends and Jane was to help serve them. So she was called into the dining-room to behold a white-iced birthday cake, topped with 16 lighted tapers and surrounded by beautifully wrapped packages, which she thought was a party for Mrs. Tom Harris, and was overwhelmed when she was greeted with happy birthday wishes, and told to cut the cake, served with hot chocolate and nuts.

The cake was made and given by Mrs. P. B. Bittle, and generous gifts have been pouring in ever since the party.

Lovely Affair Honors Bride and Bride-to-Be

Miss Margaret McLaughlin entertained with a bridge tea, at the family home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin at 4 p. m., in honor of Miss Sadie Brewer, bride-to-be, and Mrs. Earl Conner Jr., a recent bride.

Four tables were daintily dressed in springtime effects and at 6:30 p. m. a two-course tea was served of chicken roll, buttered beets, stuffed celery, salad with wafers, and a delicious torte with coffee.

Clusters of spring flowers adorned the rooms and tea tables.

A wonderful bridal shower was presented the honoree, the miscellaneous gifts including linens, silver and household furnishings.

Guests of this attractive affair were Mmes. W. B. Collie, Hamilton McRae, Hal Don Allen, Hubert Jones, Neal Day, Galand Fox, Jack Lewis Jr., Misses Elizabeth Davenport, Elizabeth Garrett, Elizabeth Day, Mary McCarty, Dorothy Day, Joe Martin. SEN. WAGNER WILL REVIVE HIS LABOR BOARD BILL

Sen. Robert F. Wagner of New York is the foremost champion of labor, organized and unorganized, in the American congress. He has been responsible for a vast deal of labor legislation. He has a bill pending. It is known as the labor board measure. Many of the leading industrialists of America have been pounding the bill or certain provisions of the bill. Sen. Wagner is not a radical. He has changed front a bit. He is going to revise his measure. One change would permit employers to initiate the formation of company unions, providing "the intent was to be helpful to labor, and provided employer-control of the unions was outlawed." President Roosevelt carried a copy of the revised act on his pleasure jaunt "or a much needed recreation."

Sanity should govern all concerned. It should govern national lawmakers. It should govern employers and the employees. Give the republic of the fathers and all its industries and all its human atoms an opportunity for the readjustment of conditions which were precipitated not only by the world crash four years ago but by the crash in all the states of the union.

'WHAT WILL WE USE FOR MONEY?' IS THE NEW DEAL QUERY

Another problem was passed on to the New Deal administration when the senate and the house knocked out the veto of the President. Now administration leaders have a problem to solve—where to get another $228,000,000, the cost of the overthrow of the first major veto of the chief magistrate. By a three-vote margin the senate engraved on the statute books the $830,000,000 independent office appropriation bill. In it were the increased payments for veterans and government employees which had been the bone of contention. Republican senators, 35 in all must shoulder their share of the responsibility. They backed the bill to a finish and they voted to override the veto.

Now "what will we use for money?" is the query of the lawmakers of the nation who hold the purse strings and who must tap new sources of revenue before recess of the congress. Cash on the barrel head for the veterans and the employees of the government calls for quick action on the part of those who make the appropriations for the support of the government. All this means additional taxes. All this means that the President will ask congress to provide additional revenue "or the budget will not be balanced in 1936."

Americans are a peace-loving people, but they won't stand long for any curbing of their personal freedom. They can be kidded along to do almost anything that is fair and square, but they can't be forced into doing anything that they don't want to do.

Chevrolet Raises Its Factory Force Wages

Effective Monday the Chevrolet Motor company announced a 10 per cent increase to all factory employees. Prior to this increase, the average worker was paid 75 cents an hour or $5.60 per day. This wage was one of the highest in the industry and now that the average has become $6.30 per day, Chevrolet leads most manufacturers in the wage scale, says H. C. Howard, zone manager of the Dallas zone.

Chevrolet's adherence to and fullest co-operation with NRA policies is indicated by the fact that in its own plants, exclusive of the General Motors units, who supply them with production parts, they now have 66,000 workers as compared with the peak production periods of 1928 and 1929," said Mr. Howard. "During 1930, through 1933, the average employment was only 30,000 men—better than a 120 per cent increase in the number of employed in 1934 over 1933." "And now with the hours worked reduced from 40 to 36 per week there will be a further expansion in the number employed." "In the month of March, just closed, Chevrolet produced approximately 100,000 units and will produce in excess of 125,000 in April, the largest month's production since 1929." A shortage of Chevrolets still exists, but it is due to the tremendous demand for its product. Proof of this lies in the fact that in February, Chevrolet produced 72,273 units as compared with the next largest manufacturer's 59,357 and the third largest 34,709. Mr. Howard said the Dallas area of the northern half of Texas, his territory, sold in excess of 350 per cent in March, 1934, over the same period in 1933. March sales of approximately 3,000 cars was the largest month since May, 1929.

The ROMANTIC RUNAWAY

BEGIN HERE TODAY PABLITO, a handsome youth, becomes a fugitive when he hears that his father has been arrested for a murder he did not commit. MARCIA TREADWAY, socially prominent, could love to be in love with PABLITO. ESTELLE FIELD, daughter of rich Jim Field, in Havana, under the name of "Juanita," he becomes celebrated as a boxer and he and her open a gymnasium. MR. UBBERS, an Englishman and Pablito's father, is searching for his son, who is carrying BILLINGS, New York detective. Three years pass and then Pablito sees Estelle again. They admit their love for each other and arrange secret meetings. BILLINGS, in Havana, suspects Pablito may be the youth he is seeking and calls Sir Ashby. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIII his boots, but he had no intention of mentioning the fact. He had won heavily on Juanito. "Ted Jeffries was no good anyway," Field thought as he rode home through the darkness, the scents and moving air that make a moonless Cuban night. No, he would not give Pablito away. But before the passage of an hour he had put a codicil to this decision. Carlito was in the hall with a letter in his hand as Field entered. Carlito showed his surprise and made the mistake of holding the letter behind him. "What have you there?" Field demanded. "Nothing, Sir." "No, he said. "It is a letter from the sweet heart of one of the servants. I take it to him." "I said let me see it!" Carlito answered bravely. "Mr. Field, it is a letter from a lady—" "Do you want me to knock you down?" Carlito felt Field's strong, blunt fingers tighten on his arm. A moment and the letter was in those same fingers. "A letter from one of the servants—addressed to my daughter?" Field sneered as he slit the envelope. He drew forth the folded sheet and began, "My own dearest," and ending, "Juanito."

Field laughed. "God!" he exclaimed, "this is a find! And I thought she was mild as milk!" The letter still in his hand, he pounded up the stairs and into his daughter's room. She was in her night things and a negligee, standing by a window. Field smiled on her with that smile he always gave those wholly within his power. "I have a letter that is directed to you," he said and his sense of strength was increased by her sudden palar. "How long has this been going on—and just how far has it gone?" he continued. Estelle did not pretend to misunderstand. Field's keen, sly eyes followed her. He heard her say in the dry, faltering way of those who are badly frightened, "I love him as I never thought I could love anyone."

"Ah!" he murmured. "Sit down. We must have a little talk." Trembling, she settled in a low chair and he dropped to one that faced it. She wished, shrinking, that he was not so near. There he laughed suddenly, elated by the feeling that she was, after all, his daughter. He himself had not been too particular in his gayest years. Here was the same streak in her; the streak that could let her love a prize fighter, a murderer and a thief. "You little devil!" he commented. "Well, I understand all this but I won't have it! How far has it gone? Where have you been meeting him?" "Usually at the park and the cathedral—" He guffawed. "You'll do better next time," he prophesied, "but next time it will be harder, too! I'm going to have you watched. Understand? And—I won't have this! I have other plans for you." HE sat back. "Estelle," he said. "I recognized Juanito tonight, Juanito!" She lost even more color. "I'm going to turn him over to the police if you ever see him again. That's all. Otherwise he can go his damned way without any interference from me. Is that clear?" "But he didn't do it, Father—" He smiled and raised his bushy eyebrows. "I don't care whether he did or not. I said I have other plans for you. And I also said that if you see him again I'll turn him over to the police who are still looking for him. Do you understand me?" "Yes." "Do you agree?" "No." He started, leaning forward. "Why not?" "I love him so!" "Is that all?" "What else?" she questioned with a little surprise. He relaxed, smiling once more. "Well," he said slowly, "if you can't give him up I can inform the authorities and let justice take its course. That will mean that your Juanito will go to prison for life—if he's lucky. Otherwise he'll sleep a few nights in the Death House and then—" He paused to search his pockets for a cigaret case, find it and light a cigaret. "I've always wondered," he went on, "whether the method they use is quite merciful. It sometimes takes three turns of the switch or button—whatever it is—to kill a man. Have a cigaret, child."

"No." "The young man's life is in your hands, Estelle. He hasn't a chance if I turn him over to the police. And he couldn't ride again. I shall have him watched until you tell me that I do not need to. It's for you to decide." She began to speak as he had known she would, to beg his mercy. She was still amazingly young, he thought, as he heard her. Her voice blurred, shook, broke as she repeated her petitions. "All this is interesting," he commented as she paused, breathing hard and shaking. "Interesting but not convincing. If you see him again I'll send him to the imprisonment or death. Have you ever known me to break my word?" She made no answer. Field took out his watch. "I shall give you," he said, looking at the watch, "five minutes in which to decide." He whistled a waltz tune that was being played at the cafe. The girl sat before him, her stricken eyes on his, her tense hands gripping the arms of the chair.

Little Interest In School Election

EASTLAND, Texas, April 7.—Slight interest was manifest in the school election held at the city hall in Eastland, Saturday, as figures received from the hall reported only 15 ballots had been cast at noon. Only two names were on the ticket for places on the school election, these being W. K. Hyer and J. Frank Sparks. Incumbents on the school board are Milburn McCarty, Frank Crowell, John Mouser, K. B. Tanner and Grady Pipkin. Those to be elected will replace Guy Parker and George Brogden, recently resigned.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Church of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 8. The Golden Text is: "The thoughts of the righteous are right but the counsels of the wicked are deceit" (Proverbs 12:5). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For though there be that are called gods... But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we inhabit..." (1 Corinthians 8:5, 6). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "We lose the high significance of omnipotence, when after admitting that God, or good, is omnipresent and has all-power, we still believe there is another power, named evil. This belief that there is more than one mind is as pernicious to divine theology as are ancient mythology and pagan idolatry" (page 469).

Music Study Club

The Music Study club presented a business session and a program that were equally interesting at their Friday afternoon meeting.

State federation dues of 50 cents per capita were reported paid.

The community clubhouse board report was read. Brief sketch of Sixth District convention was given by Mrs. A. H. Johnson and Mrs. J. M. Perkins.

Mrs. Fred L. Drago, chairman for Music Week, May 6-12, announced personnel of Music Week committee, with request they begin their work immediately.

The program on American radio and musical film had a fine preface by the leader, Mrs. Arthur Vaughn. "Outstanding Radio Concerts," was given in round-table and a group of Nevin numbers (voice) by Mrs. Howard McDonald.

Unusual musical films and voices was subject of a splendidly written paper by Mrs. W. E. Stallter.

Texas State Federation of Music Clubs, April 26-28, in Galveston, Mrs. A. H. Johnson, delegate, was announced.

Tuesday Evening

Bridge Club

Mrs. L. A. Cook entertained the Tuesday Evening bridge club at her residence on Thursday night, with three tables for game cleverly dressed in springtime appointments.

High club score favor was awarded Mrs. T. R. Cook, a handsome work-basket, a similar favor going to Mrs. Claud Maynard for high guest score.

Mrs. Beatty received the consolation favor.

The supper plate was of pimento sandwiches, fruit salad, cake, and iced punch.

Club personnel: Mmes. P. R. Cook, Edwina Raines, J. M. Wilcox, Beatty, Maxwell, L. A. Cook, guests, Mmes. N. H. Walden, Claud Maynard, Clarence Uffelman, Fred Michael, Clifton Horn, and Homer Norton.

Faithful Old Servitor

Honored

Friends of Mrs. Virginia Bowler, pioneer settler of Eastland, gathered at her home last mid-week bringing generous presents in money, clothing, canned food and fruit, a big gray goose; a birthday shower honoring the 73 years of faithful "Jane," who was given by Mrs. Bowler's father, a Mississippi plantation owner, to his daughter, when the little colored child, Jane, was only three years old.

Fifty of her 73 years have been passed in Eastland with the Bowles family, and all her life with them.

For many years she was the only colored person in this city.

Honorable servitude, faithful kindness, has marked her devotion to Mrs. Bowles and her family. For many years she attended the "white folks" Methodist church, sitting quietly in a back seat in the services. Now she is too old and broken to venture these trips.

"Jane" was told to be dressed, as her mistress was to receive friends and Jane was to help serve them. So she was called into the dining-room to behold a white-iced birthday cake, topped with 16 lighted tapers and surrounded by beautifully wrapped packages, which she thought was a party for Mrs. Tom Harris, and was overwhelmed when she was greeted with happy birthday wishes, and told to cut the cake, served with hot chocolate and nuts.

The cake was made and given by Mrs. P. B. Bittle, and generous gifts have been pouring in ever since the party.

Lovely Affair Honors

Bride and Bride-to-Be

Miss Margaret McLaughlin entertained with a bride tea, at the family home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin at 4 p. m., in honor of Miss Sadie Brewer, bride-to-be, and Mrs. Earl Conner Jr., a recent bride.

Four tables were daintily dressed in springtime effects and at 6:30 p. m. a two-course tea was served of chicken roll, buttered beets, stuffed celery, salad with wafers, and a delicious torte with coffee.

Clusters of spring flowers adorned the rooms and tea tables.

A wonderful bridal shower was presented the honoree, the miscellaneous gifts including linens, silver and household furnishings.

Guests of this attractive affair were Mmes. W. B. Collier, Hamilton McRae, Hal Don Allen, Hubert Jones, Neal Day, Galand Poe, Jack Lewis Jr., Misses Elizabeth Davenport, Elizabeth Garrett, Elizabeth Day, Mary McCarty, Dorothy Day, Joe Martin. The honoree, Miss Sadie Brewer, Mrs. Earl Conner Jr., and young hostess, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. R. McLaughlin.

Some, like Admiral Byrd, may confine themselves in solitary for seven months, while others go out and eat worms.

Sixth District Texas Federation Womens Clubs
All records were broken in attendance, in the 400 West Texas clubwomen, who attended the recent 19th annual convention of sixth district Texas Federation of Womens' clubs in Sweetwater, which was declared to be the best district meeting ever held.

The day was featured by a brilliant assemblage of state and district officers, chairmen, present at the executive board dinner, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Roberts at 6 o'clock with covers laid for 48 of several four-course tables, the affair honoring Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins of Eastland, president of sixth district.

An executive meeting followed the dinner, with Mrs. Perkins presiding.

Among notables interesting to our locale, Mrs. M. H. Hagaman of Ranger, chairman of department of education; Mrs. James Horton of Eastland, district secretary; Mrs. C. Q. Smith of Cisco, drama; Mrs. C. B. Kelley of Cisco.

Welcome addresses were given by the mayor, secretary of board of city development, and Mrs. Ledford, president of city federation, with response by Mrs. James Horton, Eastland, for officers, and Mrs. J. A. Haley of Midland for delegates and visitors.

Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins gave her outstanding and splendid address on the theme of the convention.

Assembly singing throughout the convention was directed by Mrs. Art H. Johnson of Eastland.

An outstanding feature of the convention was the tribute to the late Mrs. R. Q. Lee by Mrs. John J. Butts of Cisco.

Wednesday afternoon the City Federation honored Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, with a tea.

The fine arts evening Wednesday brought the music of the Dragoos ensemble, directed by Wilda Dragoos, with Olivette Killough and Jane Ferguson at piano, and three violin solos by Wilda Dragoos, accompanied by Mrs. Wanda Dragoos Beall. Miss Dragoos received an overwhelming ovation and the violin ensemble was enthusiastically accepted.

The Thursday session opened with Mrs. Perkins, president, and Meses, Rountree and Hoover presiding.

A brilliant program was presented including the division Indian welfare report by Mrs. Art H. Johnson, and Pageantry by Mrs. Clyde Davis of Ranger.

The program booklet included the district rally song written by Mrs. Norah Frances Mahon of Eastland.

NOTE OF SHERIFF'S SALE
Whereas, under an Order of Sale of the District Court of Eastland County, Texas, in cause No. 4274, styled J. E. Brewer et al. vs. Union Central Life Insurance Company; and

Whereas, said Order of Sale was issued pursuant to a Mandate from the Court of Civil Appeals in the Eleventh Supreme Judicial District of Texas in cause No. 1110, styled Union Central Life Insurance Company vs. J. E. Brewer et al., and a mandate has been filed with the clerk of the District Court in said cause No. 4274;

And whereas, it appears from the records in such mandate that the Union Central Life Insurance Company has secured in the said Court of Civil Appeals the reversal of the judgment of the District Court in said cause No. 1110, together with interest thereon from May 12, 1932, at a per cent per annum and together with all costs of suit; and

Whereas, it further appears from such Mandate and Order of Sale that said judgment of said Court of Civil Appeals is also a foreclosure of a Deed of Trust lien upon the property hereinafter described as such lien existed on the said property on the 6th day of February, 1916, and at all times thereafter, as against the said J. E. Brewer and John W. Clark and also against George Hallmark, Oil Well Supply Company and Continental Supply Company; and

Whereas, the said Order of Sale has been placed in my hands and pursuant to the said Order of Sale, I, Virge Foster, Sheriff of Eastland County, Texas, have on the 6th day of April, 1934, at 9 o'clock p. m., levied upon the following described land in Eastland County, Texas:

Being a part of the SE 1/4 of Sec. 26, 11th T. 33 S., 24 E., 2nd R., beginning at the SE corner of said Sec. 26, 11th T. 33 S., 24 E., 2nd R., a stone monument from which a P. O. has S. 20 W. 2 1/4 yrs.; thence north 1250 yards to a stake for NE corner, and SE corner of NE 1/4, from which a P. O. marked X has S. 85 W. 5 yrs.; thence west 500 yards to a stone mound in the ground; thence south 1260 yards to a stone mound; thence E. 560 yards to the place of beginning, containing 112 acres of land.

Therefore, Notice is hereby given that I, Virge Foster, Sheriff of Eastland County, Texas, by virtue of said Order of Sale and levy aforesaid, on the first Tuesday in May, 1934, namely being the 1st day of said month, at the court house door of Eastland County, Texas, in the City of Eastland, Texas, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m., will sell said described land at public auction for cash to the highest bidder, for the purpose of foreclosing the Deed of Trust lien and paying off the judgment heretofore mentioned.

Witness my hand on this 6th day of April, 1934.

Some of these days in the future irrigation will be featured throughout this entire section... when that comes to pass it will be just as much of a garden spot as anywhere in the country. It is possible... reasonable and in time will become a necessity.

Don't forget that your second installment of city taxes is now due. To pay them now means saving additional penalties later or after June first to be exact. It takes money to run a community... and besides a community can only progress when its citizens are interested enough to see that the taxes are paid.

Another killing is charged up to Clyde Barrow... how many more will this man kill (if he is guilty) before they check him... It was suggested by a citizen that every newspaper and magazine throughout the nation should have a photograph of Clyde Barrow... the front page... every day with the words... "This man is wanted as a murderer" and keep there until he is caught, in order that a deep impression may be made that he will be recognized no matter where he may be. That would be one way to find him and a good one. Traveling men tell us that they are afraid to travel at night... and we don't blame them. With criminals running loose of the type of Barrow no man, woman or child is safe... and an officer of the law is helpless when in the scope of his machine gun arsenal... It is high time that the nation and state governments should set up a solid protection against vicious criminals... and the petty criminal is a good seed for developing into a dangerous enemy to society... There should be no loopholes.

"CAT AND THE FIDDLE" BIG "APPRECIATION WEEK" ATTRACTION

After almost half a year of production "The Cat and the Fiddle" comes to the screen of the Lyric theatre starting Monday as one of the most pretentious offerings of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio for the current show season.

Ramon Novarro and Jeanette MacDonald are the co-stars. Each is not only a romantic favorite, but an accomplished singer. They are teamed for the first time in this production, but their success has been so instantaneous and outstanding that M-G-M is now reported to be seeking a new vehicle in which they may appear together.

"The Cat and the Fiddle" was adapted to the screen from the successful stage play by Jerome Kern and Otto Harbach. It had a long run in New York and has been presented in other large cities throughout the country. It is a romantic musical drama and includes such hit song numbers as "The Night Was Made for Love," "She Didn't Say Yes," "Try to Forget," "One Moment Alone," "A New Love Is Old" and "The Love Parade."

Lavish production went into the making of the picture, as is evidenced by the fact that it was almost six months in the making. Much of the action takes place in

Salute the Champion—The S-V-TYPE ENGINE. It holds every major record on land, on water and in the air.

It has the stuff that makes a winner in any grueling test... speed to go into the lead and the endurance to hold that lead to the finish. For it takes more than speed to win under the severest racing conditions. It takes efficiency of a rare order and the ability to keep going when the others drop out.

That's why record-breaking automobiles, speed boats and seaplanes use the V-type engine. And like these V-type engines, the Ford V-8 can take it.

Right there is the reason for the outstanding performance of the New Ford V-8. No other low-price car can match it on the road because no other low-price car has a V-8 engine. Fact is, you have to pay more than $2000 to get a V-type eight-cylinder engine in any other car but Ford.

We invite you to drive the New Ford V-8 and let it tell its own revealing story of performance, safety and comfort.

idea, dealing with riotous happenings during a salesman's annual jamboree at Atlantic City. Friend wife is likely to sit up and take notice if her husband happens to be one of those who attends conventions without her.

The action is said to be fast and frutious, beginning with the assembling of the salesmen and following them through a week of riotous escapades to a smashing climax in which a hotel, as well as reputations, is nearly wrecked. The dialogue by Robert Lord is said to be lively and sparkling and the situations hilarious with its multiple entanglements.

There is an all star cast headed by Joan Blondell as a gold digging chorus girl who dotes on conventions. Others include Adolphe Menjou, Dick Powell, Mary Astor, Guy Kibbee, Frank McHugh, Patricia Ellis, Ruth Donnelly, Hugh Herbert, Hobart Cavanaugh, Gordon Westcott and Grant Mitchell. Like "Union Depot," "Central Park" and "Grand Hotel," the scenes take place in one central location, practically all the sequences occurring in the Atlantic City hotel, the headquarters of the conventionists. Unlike them it is pure, unadulterated comedy, for while the situations are dramatic and heart rendering to the characters involved, they are rib crackers for the spectator.

Archie Mayo, ace comedy director, handled "Convention City."

MacDonald are the co-stars. Each is not only a romantic favorite, but an accomplished singer. They are teamed for the first time in this production, but their success has been so instantaneous and outstanding that M-G-M is now reported to be seeking a new vehicle in which they may appear together.

"The Cat and the Fiddle" was adapted to the screen from the successful stage play by Jerome Kern and Otto Harbach. It had a long run in New York and has been presented in other large cities throughout the country. It is a romantic musical drama and includes such hit song numbers as "The Night Was Made for Love," "She Didn't Say Yes," "Try to Forget," "One Moment Alone," "A New Love Is Old" and "The Love Parade."

Lavish production went into the making of the picture, as is evidenced by the fact that it was almost six months in the making. Much of the action takes place in theatre seating 2,000 people, which was constructed at the M-G-M studios in California as a duplicate of one of the best known showhouses of Paris.

Although there is a wealth of music throughout the play, it is not, strictly speaking, a musical picture. It is instead a story with music. Each of the numbers by the co-stars and members of the supporting cast has place in the story and adds to the interest of being enacted.
