

TODAY'S NEWS TODAY!

Eastland Telegram

Delivered To Your Home 10c WEEK

UNITED PRESS SERVICE BRINGS LATEST NEWS OF THE WORLD TO TELEGRAM READERS

EASTLAND, TEXAS, FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 27, 1934

PRICE FIVE CENTS

No. 140

Entire Town Aids Parents of Kidnaped Child

That reminds me...

Senator Clint Small was honored guest to representative business and oil operators of the Oil Belt district Thursday evening in the Petroleum club rooms of the Burch hotel.

Carpenter Breaks Up Robbery With His Deadly Fire

By United Press SAN ANTONIO, April 27.—One bandit was dead, another was believed dying and a third was in jail here today due to the expert marksmanship of Manuel Garcia, 40-year-old carpenter.

JAPAN REMAINS SILENT UPON EAST POLICY

By United Press TOKIO, April 27.—Japan will maintain silence until Great Britain announces views of its far eastern declaration.

Ray's Girl Friend

Mary O'Dare, sister of Odell Chambliss, and wife of Gene O'Dare, both serving time for bank robberies, has been identified as the companion of Raymond Hamilton.

IN DALLAS COUNTY DEATH CELL

Behind bars again is Raymond Hamilton, Texas No. 2 bad boy, in a picture that brings cheer to the hearts of the citizenry as well as peace officers of the Southwest.

Milton Day, Said To Have Received Blow, In Hospital

Milton Day, about 26, was taken to an Eastland hospital last night suffering from an injury to his head caused by a blow from a billiard cue.

OPPORTUNITY FOR CONTACTS IS OFFERED

Believe Hour Is Near For Return of June Robles of Tucson.

STRONG URGES AN OIL PROBE IN THE HOUSE

By United Press WASHINGTON, April 27.—The house rules committee voted today to give right of way on the floor to the Strong resolution for an investigation of the oil code administration.

Sermon Subjects Are Announced By M. E. Pastor

A series of "Better Sunday Night Services" have been planned at the Methodist church. At the morning hour Rev. Rosemond Stanford will preach on "The Kingdom Within."

HAMILTON IS DISGUSTED AS LOVE SPURNED

DALLAS, April 27.—Raymond Hamilton, a disgusted young man, paced the floor of the death cell at the Dallas county jail today, angry because he had been "double crossed" by the woman he loved.

Mrs. Maxey, Head Of Radiographers Has a Big Job

Responsibility of a great degree has been the lot of Mrs. Byrta Rose Maxey of Eastland, president of the Texas Society of Radiographers, in making arrangements which surround the convening of the body, May 3-5, at Dallas.

Texas Emergency Education Program Fund Is Approved

AUSTIN, April 27.—Texas emergency education program today was bulwarked by a federal grant of $486,000, State Relief Director Marie Dresden announced.

OFFICERS ON TRAIL OF GANG OF DILLINGER

SQUAW LAKE, Wis., April 27.—Five automobile loads of Department of Justice agents stalked the wooded slopes along Squaw Lake today on a vengeance hunt for members of the John Dillinger gang.

Good Crowd Attend Meeting at Breck

Honoring State Senator Clint C. Small, business men and oil operators of the Oil Belt district gave a formal luncheon for the occasion in the Petroleum club rooms at the Burch hotel in Breckenridge, Thursday evening.

Man Is Killed In Border Liquor Fight

EL PASO, April 27.—United States border patrolmen killed an unidentified man and wounded two more in a border liquor battle in the sand hills of southern New Mexico, 10 miles west of here, today.

Unintended Victims Of Kidnaping Are Found In Auto

LONGVIEW, Texas, April 27.—Willie May, 5, and Beatrice, 7, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Camp of Gladewater, were saved today after having been victims of what authorities believed was an unintentional kidnaping.

Burglars Enter a Store At Ranger

Burglars Thursday night entered the Higginbotham Bros. general mercantile store at Gorman and took merchandise of an estimated value of $1,000.

Man Who Helped To Stop Kidnaping Is Under Charges

TEXARKANA, Texas, April 27.—Gilbert McKee, Winfield filling station operator, whose wife captured two of the alleged kidnapers of C. M. Kella of Fort Worth Tuesday, today faced charges himself.

Stanberry Chief of Oil Gas Division

AUSTIN, April 27.—Laten Stanberry, chief of the gas utilities division of the state railroad commission, today was made chief supervisor of the oil and gas division to succeed R. D. Parker.

Stock Exchange Bill Goes Before House

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The house will begin consideration of the stock exchange control bill Monday under a wide open rule permitting amendments, the rules committee decided today.

Cannon Case Goes To Jury Today

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The conspiracy case of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., and Miss Ada Bouroughs, went to the jury today after nearly three weeks of testimony and arguments in District of Columbia supreme court.

Man Who Helped To Stop Kidnaping Is Under Charges

Other speakers who made short addresses were Judge Hunter of Abilene, C. W. Hoffman of Eastland, Porter Hinson of Graham, Messrs. George Dickey and Dr. C. A. Turner of Woodson, W. W. Wallace of Cisco, John Lauderdale of Harpersville, M. G. Cheney of Coleman, and Garland Eubanks of Throckmorton.

IS WINNER

Miss Margaret Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hart, according to information received from Galveston, won first place in a violin contest, one of a number of contests sponsored by the Texas Federation of Music Clubs.

SELL 666 TICKETS

Federated club women of Eastland sold a total of 666 tickets to the show at the Lyric Theatre Thursday. They received a 25 per cent commission amounting to better than $25.00.

SOFT BALLERS TO MEET

Managers of teams which are units of the Soft Ball league and enthusiasts will meet tonight at the Chamber of Commerce at 8 p. m., to make preliminary arrangements surrounding the commencement of the official season, Monday.

MANAGER OF SOFT BALL LEAGUE

Managers of teams which are units of the Soft Ball league and enthusiasts will meet tonight at the Chamber of Commerce at 8 p. m., to make preliminary arrangements surrounding the commencement of the official season, Monday.

MANAGER OF SOFT BALL LEAGUE

Managers of teams which are units of the Soft Ball league and enthusiasts will meet tonight at the Chamber of Commerce at 8 p. m., to make preliminary arrangements surrounding the commencement of the official season, Monday.

MANAGER OF SOFT BALL LEAGUE

Managers of teams which are units of the Soft Ball league and enthusiasts will meet tonight at the Chamber of Commerce at 8 p. m., to make preliminary arrangements surrounding the commencement of the official season, Monday.

MANAGER OF SOFT BALL LEAGUE

Managers of teams which are units of the Soft Ball league and enthusiasts will meet tonight at the Chamber of Commerce at 8 p. m., to make preliminary arrangements surrounding the commencement of the official season, Monday.

MANAGER OF SOFT BALL LEAGUE

Managers of teams which are units of the Soft Ball league and enthusiasts will meet tonight at the Chamber of Commerce at 8 p. m., to make preliminary arrangements surrounding the commencement of the official season, Monday.

MR. DILLINGER, IT'S IN THE BOOKS THAT YOU'RE GOING TO LOSE

CLASSES DEFEATED

The Chamber of Commerce softball team won the game played yesterday with the Filling Station men by a score of 16-8.

BUT THE SHOW WENT ON

CINCINNATI.—In full view of a packed auditorium at a matinee performance of a Shrine circus here, Mickey King, 20, feminine serialist, of Buffalo, plunged 15 feet to the stage when the rope she was climbing to reach a trapeze broke.

did a little cattle rustling on the side and baffled the bloodhounds as well as the posses. He broke loose from Oregon prison back in June, 1902, and started raising all kinds of hell over Oregon before the boys got him in a barley field on Aug. 5. Harry never came out of that barley, John.

a bad guy, all right. When he was 21

he went around bragging about how he killed one man for every year he had lived, and he said that his 22nd would be a sheriff by the name of Pat Garrett. That was down in New Mexico, in 1880, and one night Billy the Kid walked into Pete Maxwell's house, looking for a side of bacon for his supper, and who should he find sitting there but Pat Garrett. Billy was pushing up daisies thereafter, John.

mond, and how they blasted him out of bed with a machine gun in December, back in 1931, at a rooming house at Albany.

You knew, though, about Pancho Villa. He started out as a cheap sort of cattle rustler, got to robbing left and right, and pretty soon he was out putting the lug on his indiscriminately, even burning down whole towns. He and three of his pals were riding around in an automobile in July, 1923, when someone as playful as Pancho felt go with a fusillade and that was the end of Villa and his best friends. You just can't beat the game, the way I look at it, John.

pers lately you'll know about Andre "The Sword" Spada, the Corsican bandit. He's had people in his neighborhood scared stiff for a long time.

Now he's wandering around in the stir barefooted, with a cross hanging around his neck and with his hands trembling in fear of the guillotine, which he no doubt will get. John, damn it, you wouldn't even get by with it in China. Think of Chang Tso-Lin, one of the few bandits who ever became ruler of an empire. He made you and your gang look like mollycoddlers. He started out as a poor Manchurian swineherd, became famous as a robber and sold his gang to the Japanese as guerrilla warriors. After the Russo-Japanese war Japan helped Chang set himself up as ruler of Manchuria. He held the job until somebody bombed him to death near Mukden in the spring of 1928.

John, I could go on like this all day. But I don't think it'll do you any good. Several of us Indiana fellows around New York are pretty fed up with you. You didn't turn out well. But you can see from the above that our minds are going to be eased before long. In short, John, you're sunk. Well, stay out of the funny papers.

H. ALLEN SMITH

By H. ALLEN SMITH United Press Staff Correspondent NEW YORK, April 27.—Mr. John Dillinger, At Large (please forward).

WASHINGTON BOOK COSTLY

PHILADELPHIA.—A net profit of $7,673 on a $27 investment was made here recently. In 1876 Joseph Parrish bought four volumes of "The History of the Reign of Emperor Charles Fifth" for $27. His daughter, Mrs. Maryanna Parrish Kelley, of Radnor, sold the book at auction, after she discovered they bore the autograph of George Washington. They brought her $7,700.

EASTLAND TELEGRAM

Published every afternoon (except Saturday and Sunday) and every Sunday Morning

Member Advertising Bureau — Texas Daily Press League
Member of United Press Association

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC:

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporations which may appear in the columns of this paper will be gladly corrected upon being brought to the attention of the publisher.

Obituaries, cards of thanks, notices of lodge meetings, etc., are charged for at regular advertising rates, which will be furnished upon application.

Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Ranger, Texas, under Act of March, 1879

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Single copies $ .05 One year $ 5.00
One week .10 Six months 2.50

ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

BANKHEAD COTTON CONTROL BILL A STERN REALITY

Place it in the record that the house of representatives adopted the senate approved conference report, 235 to 105, and sent to the White House the measure to force farmers to keep cotton production in the coming crop year at 10,000,000 bales. Place it in the record that President Roosevelt recommended the bill in principle in a letter to Chairman Marvin Jones of Texas when the house agricultural committee was considering it. Chairman Jones made the closing speech in the final showdown of the controversy. He said: "Planless agriculture condemns our South and our farmers elsewhere to eternal poverty. Industry plans production to meet consumption needs and agriculture should do likewise."

As finally passed the provisions of the Bankhead measure may be extended for a second year by presidential proclamation if two-thirds of the land owners, sharecroppers and tenants desire. Long staple cotton is exempted in states in which production has not exceeded 250,000 bales in any one year in the last five years. It levies a tax of 50 per cent of the current market price on cotton produced in excess of the quota allotted on the basis of the average production in the past five years. The tax is not to be less than 5 cents a pound. Dirt Farmer George Terrell of the Texas piney woods country voted against the measure. Well, the showdown has come and the future will tell the real story.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

People continually complain of the difficulty in getting sufficient sleep at night, owing to the noise made by dogs. This nuisance is particularly distressing to invalids, and even those who can ignore the sound of machinery and traffic find their attention held by the kind of almost personal note in a dog's barking. When a dog barks or howls continually it usually means that he is suffering from hunger, thirst, or lack of warmth, and, therefore, the owner of the animal is really responsible for the nuisance. It is a curious fact that wild dogs do not bark, and that the domestic dog seems to have acquired the habit entirely through his association with man.

FRECKLES and HIS FRIENDS—By Blosser

OUT OUR WAY

BASEBALL

TEXAS LEAGUE

Standing of the Teams

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Galveston	7	3	.700
Oklahoma City	6	4	.600
Tulsa	5	4	.556
San Antonio	5	4	.556
Wallas	5	4	.556
Houston	4	6	.400
Beaumont	3	6	.333
Fort Worth	3	7	.300

Yesterday's Results

Fort Worth 10, Oklahoma City 1.
San Antonio 6, Houston 4.
Dallas 8, Tulsa 3.
Galveston 9, Beaumont 1.

Today's Schedule

Tulsa at Fort Worth.
Oklahoma City at Dallas.
Houston at San Antonio.
Galveston at Beaumont.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Standing of the Teams

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago	7	1	.875

New York 6 2 .750
Boston 5 3 .625
Pittsburgh 4 3 .571
Brooklyn 4 4 .500
St. Louis 2 5 .286
Cincinnati 2 6 .250
Philadelphia 1 7 .125

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Standing of the Teams

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Detroit	5	2	.714
Cleveland	4	2	.667
New York	3	2	.625
Auburn	4	4	.500
Boston	4	4	.500
Philadelphia	4	4	.500
Washington	4	4	.500
St. Louis	2	4	.333
Chicago	2	5	.286

Yesterday's Results

Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.
St. Louis at Chicago.
Brooklyn at Philadelphia.
New York at Boston.

Today's Schedule

Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.
St. Louis at Chicago.
Brooklyn at Philadelphia.
New York at Boston.

Cleveland at St. Louis, rain.
Philadelphia 3, New York 2.
Washington 10, Boston 7.

Today's Schedule

Chicago at St. Louis.
Cleveland at Detroit.
Boston at New York.
Philadelphia at Washington.

Markets

By United Press
Closing selected New York

stocks:

Am Can	101 1/2
Am P & L	8 3/4
Am & F Pwr	9 3/4
Am Rad & S S	15 3/4
Am Smelt	41 3/4
Am T & T	120 1/2
A T & S F Ry	68
Anacoda	16 3/4
Auburn Auto	41 3/4
Avn Corp Del	7 3/4
Barnsdall	8 3/4
Beth Steel	41 3/4
Byers A M	27 3/4
Canada Dry	28 3/4
Case J I	69 3/4
Chrysler	50
Comw % Sou	2 3/4

Cons Oil	12 1/2
Contl Oil	21 1/2
Curtiss Wright	4 3/4
Elec Au L	25 3/4
Elec St Bat	45
Fester Wheel	19 3/4
Fox Film	16 3/4
Freeport Tex	44 1/2
Gen Elec	22 3/4
Gen Foods	35 3/4
Gen Mot	37 3/4
Gillette S R	11 3/4
Goodyear	35 3/4
Gt Nor Ore	13 3/4
Gt West Sugar	29 3/4
Houston Oil	25 3/4
Int Harvester	29
Int Cement	41 3/4
Johns Manville	57 3/4
Kroger G & B	32 3/4
Liq Carb	34
Marshall Field	17 3/4
M K T Ry	11 3/4
Montg Ward	30 3/4
Nat Dairy	16 3/4
N Y Cent Ry	34 3/4
Ohio Oil	13 3/4
Packard Mot	45 3/4
Pennex J C	62 3/4
Penn Ry	34
Phelps Dodge	18 3/4
Phillips Pet	19 3/4
Pure Oil	12 3/4
Purity Bak	17
Radio	8 3/4
Sears Roebuck	49 3/4
Shell Union Oil	9
Socoxy Vac	16 3/4
Southern Pac	27 3/4
Star Oil N J	45 3/4
Studebaker	6
Texas Corp	26 3/4
Texas Gulf Sul	35 3/4
Texas Pav C & O	4 3/4
Und Elliott	43 3/4
United Carb	44
United Air & T	23 3/4
U S Gypsum	42 3/4
U S Ind Alc	51 3/4
U S Steel	48 3/4
Vanadium	29 3/4
Western Union	52 3/4
Westing Elec	39 3/4

Curb Stocks

Cities Service	3 3/4
Elec Bond & Sh	16 3/4
Ford M Ltd	7 3/4
Gulf Oil Pa	65 3/4
Humble Oil	45
Lone Star Gas	7 3/4
Niag Hod Pwr	6 3/4
Star Oil Ind	27 3/4
Total sales, 840,000 shares. Sterling, 85.14.

Daily Averages

30 industrials, 103.65; up .69.
20 rails, 29.26; off .06.
20 utilities, 25.60; off .02.

New York Cotton

Range of the market, New York cotton—

	High	Low	Close
May	1101	1071	1100
July	1116	1089	1111
Oct	1130	1105	1127
Dec	1142	1116	1139

A WORD TO THE WEARY . . . .

Are you sick and discouraged and so weary of all? . . . Would you like to just relax in a place that has a friendly, restful atmosphere coupled with the conveniences—an ultra-modern hotel? . . . You have reserved a light, airy, comfortable room especially for you at just the place you've been looking for.

CRAZY WATER HOTEL

Just take a few weeks or even a few days off from the old grind, and see what a completely new person you'll feel like when you leave here.

The mineral baths under courteous, efficient managers are refreshing, rebuilding. . . . Drinking at the Crazy Mineral Water you can, at the note Crazy Bar, or served to you in your room, will give you back your old pep and "go". . . . And the meals! If you haven't had much of an appetite for a long time, the food here, planned and prepared especially to whet lazy appetites, will surely tempt you. . . . What first attracts the attention of our guests is the comfort of the big, beautiful lobby and the drinking pavilion.

CRAZY WATER HOTEL

located in the heart of a beautiful, scenic country can be reached from all sides by paved highway and by train. You can get all this luxurious comfort for as low as $20.00 a week. Write for further details.

THE HOME OF CRAZY WATER

Mineral Wells, Texas

Chicago Grain

Range of the market, Chicago grain—

	High	Low	Close
May	44 3/4	43 3/4	43 3/4
July	47	45 3/4	46 3/4
Sept	48 1/2	47 3/4	48 3/4

Oats—

May	27 3/4	27 3/4	27 3/4
July	28 3/4	27 3/4	27 3/4
Sept	28 3/4	28 3/4	28 3/4

Wheat—

May	77 3/4	75 3/4	76 3/4
July	77 3/4	75 3/4	76 3/4
Sept	78 3/4	76 3/4	77 3/4

Dog's Mouth Was Canary Bird's C

By United Press
KANSAS CITY, Kan.—The no place like home, even if it is a canary cage. Mrs. L. C. Foggie pitied bird and opened the cage so could fly around the room. The canary flew about the for several minutes. Then it tired and alighted on Rex's nose. Rex opened his mouth the canary disappeared. Foggie, horrified, pried open dog's mouth. The bird flew out.

The way tobacco is cut has a lot to do with the way Chesterfield burns and tastes

There are many different ways of cutting tobacco.

A long time ago, it used to be cut on what was known as a Pease Cutter, but this darkened the tobacco, and it was not uniform.

The cutters today are the most improved, modern, up-to-the-minute type. They cut uniformly, and cut in long shreds.

The tobacco in Chesterfield is cut right—you can judge for yourself how Chesterfields burn and how they taste.

Everything that science knows is used to make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder . . . the cigarette that tastes better.

Chesterfield

the cigarette that's Milder
the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

ALLEY OOP

Baseball Manager

Horizontal and vertical crossword puzzle with clues and answers. Includes a small portrait of a man.

CARBON

CARBON.—Carbon is getting a nice rain at this writing, with a few warm days now crops and gardens will be growing nicely.

Bullock Will Have Preaching Sunday

There will be two preaching services at the Bullock Methodist church Sunday. At 11 a. m. the sermon subject will be "What It Is to Be a Christian."

STAFF

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Hazard and children of Graham were visiting with relatives in the community last Sunday and Sunday.

DESDEMONA

DESDEMONA.—Mrs. W. F. Jenne received a message Friday of the death of her brother-in-law, Arthur Howard in Los Angeles, Calif.

Ennis have moved to their farm home at Carbon. Mrs. Tilley was reared in Carbon and friends welcome the couple home.

SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. John Ivy of Ranger visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sparger, Sunday.

KOKOMO

Rev. Willie Skaggs filled his regular appointment here Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Reppeteo were in Gorman on business Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sparger motored up to Ranger Tuesday on business and visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Ferrin.

OAK GROVE

OAK GROVE.—W. M. McMillan and wife of New Hope community spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Jennie McMillan and she has returned home with them and will spend several days visiting with them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron and children spent Sunday with Ray Dunlap and family.

CROSS ROADS

CROSS ROADS.—Mrs. J. H. Ainsworth were in Ranger Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Car visited Grandmother Hale day.

Treasurer's Name On Cigaret Stamp

AUSTIN.—Under a magnifying glass Texas cigarette stamps reveal a letter, a lock and a key.

THIS TINY SCHOOL HAS PERFECT RECORD

FULTON, Mo.—Science school at Readville, near here, has a perfect record for the year just ended.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

Advertisement for Piggly Wiggly grocery store listing various products and prices like PEACHES, FRUIT SALAD, ORANGE JUICE, etc.

Are you in HURRY

Advertisement for groceries and meats with text: 'Then buy as you household needs... PIGGLY WIGGLY...'

Hectic Days Sleepless Nights

Advertisement for Dr. Miles Nervine medicine, including a portrait of a man and text: 'If you are nervous today, you probably will not sleep well tonight.'

TRY A WANT AD—IT ALWAYS PAYS

Guard HER Food!

GAS Refrigeration in homes where there are children is especially appreciated. When Dolly asks for her milk "sweet and cold," Mother has a deep satisfaction in knowing that it has been safely guarded in Electrolux. She knows that her new Air-Cooled Gas Refrigerator will thoroughly protect and preserve milk and other perishable foods no matter how warm it gets.

The exclusive two-temperature chilling unit of the Gas Refrigerator maintains a constant, uniform, low temperature. It automatically supplies additional refrigeration to take care of any sudden rises in room temperature. Even when defrosting the chilling process in Electrolux does not stop!

Truly, here is a refrigerator that will safeguard childhood's most important food at the least cost!

- Electrolux runs for 25¢ a week, or less
- Electrolux has no moving parts
- Electrolux needs no costly repairs
- Electrolux operates in absolute silence

Community Natural Gas Co.

Farm Families Off Relief Rolls to Be Given New Aid

AUSTIN.—Many farm families in Texas were cut off from various Federal Emergency Relief rolls on April 1, but a new program will be put into immediate effect for aid of a different and more business like kind, it was announced today by Director Marie Dresden of the Texas Relief Commission.

New relief for most families will be directed mainly toward helping them to become self-sustaining. Families not suited to farm projects may be continued on work projects, or, where no other course is open, will be given direct relief.

During the government's program relating to reduction of certain crops in Texas, many tenant farmers became displaced only to find themselves on the relief rolls of the state.

Director Dresden is of the opinion that many landowners who let tenants go, due to inability to care for them, would be now willing to have those same tenants, or an equal number of them, live on their farms under the jurisdiction of the Texas Relief Commission's rural rehabilitation division.

It has been pointed out that widespread misunderstanding of acreage reduction contracts has led to the release of many tenants. Officials of the administration believe that when brought to the attention of landowners, these misunderstandings will be cleared up and thousands of tenant-farmers will be given a few acres around their dwellings, upon which to raise those things necessary to self-sustenance.

The rural rehabilitation program will be open to families that have made arrangements for crop production and also to those who are being allowed by their landlord to live on land removed from crop production, as well as to families not now living on farms, but whose life experience has been agricultural.

The procedure will be directed to provide the family with such essential necessities of operating a farm as may not now be available to them. Food and clothing will also be supplied until the family's own efforts meet these needs.

Large-scale shifting of families from town to town, or from one part of the farming territory to another, is not contemplated. The first job, said Director Dresden, is to care for destitute families where they are.

To help the rehabilitation family make repayment of indebtedness to the relief agency, "work relief" will be initiated. These projects must be undertaken in such places, and to such an extent, as will meet the needs of the families to be rehabilitated. That is, the number of families to be aided and the time and manner in which they should be employed, for their own best interests, will be the fundamental consideration in determining the location and character of the projects.

State and local rehabilitation committees will be named to assist in putting the program into effect and it is expected that volunteer committees in each community will be chief factors. The county agricultural agent and home agents will be asked to advise in setting up practical plans of farm procedure for each family and supervision will be provided to see that the plans are effectively carried out.

Women will be expected to take an important part in planning and directing this progressive program. While the prime objective is to assure that destitute families are enabled to provide themselves with food and clothing, this is considered only the foundation upon which to build higher standards of rural life in all lines. Both individual and community interests will be fostered. Work projects, said Miss Dresden, may be directed toward beautifying the community, on the ground that the greatest poverty in many of the smaller towns is their poverty of beauty.

Director Dresden pointed out broad plans and studies are being made by Federal Emergency Relief Administration officials at Washington with this in view.

PLANS GAME COURSES
WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, PULLMAN, Wash.—Welfare of birds and other game in the state will be promoted under a plan of instruction and research in propagation of wild life this spring. Plans for the educational work were formed following conferences between Thomas A. E. Lally, chairman of the state game commission and representatives of the state college. Two and four years courses will be established which will deal with the scientific and practical side of game development.

One-fifth of our income goes for taxes, according to a survey, and if you can't account for your fifth, don't let your congressman know it.

Young Democrats Of Texas to Meet In Dallas May 4th

By ROBT. B. McCracken
CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex.—Inspired by their part in the New Deal and encouraged by the apparent early success of their organization, approximately 5000 Young Democrats of Texas will meet in their state convention at Dallas Friday and Saturday, May 4 and 5. One of the most interesting political get-togethers ever staged in the Lone Star state is certain to result, and the older heads of the party, long since realizing the potential strength of the youthful movement, are passing the word around, "Watch the Young Democrats and what they do in Dallas."

However, if the Young Democrats have anything up their sleeves, they are not passing the word around. At the earlier sectional conventions several political bombshells were exploded, the din was terrific, but no casualties were reported. The state meet is expected to produce the same results, but it will be watching.

During the past six months 175 counties out of 254 have been organized, according to present indications, each club in the state will have a strong representation at the convention. After discussing the matter pro and con, state officers have decided to allow each county, whether organized or unorganized, representation at the two day session, and all unorganized counties planning to send delegates have been requested to obtain recognition from MacDonald Leech, who may be reached by addressing him at the state headquarters, Corpus Christi, Texas.

This organization is the idea of young people, it is carried on by young people, and the program for the meet has been planned by its leaders. Inasmuch as it will be a radical departure from any political convention ever before held in Texas, it is recommended that all persons, regardless of age or party affiliations, make effort to be present for at least a part of the proceedings. They will undoubtedly have their eyes opened.

In the first place the convention comes at a time of the year that would prove a dynamited boomerrang to any other political group meeting. This summer the state elections will be held, and already the pot is beginning to boil.

This evidently does not bother the Young Democrats one iota. In fact they are taking advantage of the situation by inviting all candidates for state offices to be present and address the gathering on the opening night at Fair Park auditorium.

The Young Democrats, as it is widely known, have placed a taboo on the organization's mixing in inter party politics by uniting behind one candidate seeking nomination. Instead they have encouraged their members to pick and actively support any candidate he sees fit.

This Friday night session is strictly in keeping with this feature of the club. Also it will tend to spread the idea among the older voters, and many will leave Fair Park auditorium 100 percent

Political Announcements

This paper is authorized to announce the following candidates for office, subject to the Democratic Primary Election in July 1934:

- For Congress, 17th District: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For Representative in State Legislature, 107th District: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For County Treasurer: MRS. MAY HARRISON (Re-Election)
- For District Attorney: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For District Clerk: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For County Judge: W. D. R. OWEN
- For County Attorney: CLYDE L. GARRETT
- For County Attorney: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For Sheriff, Eastland County: VIRGE FOSTER
- B. B. (BRAD) POE
- For County Clerk: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For Tax Assessor and Tax Collector, Eastland County: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For County School Superintendent: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For Commissioner, Precinct No. 1: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For Commissioner, Precinct No. 2: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For Commissioner, Precinct No. 3: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For Commissioner, Precinct No. 4: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
- For Constable, Precinct No.—: ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?

represented 6.8 per cent of all employees, and in 1932, 9.1 per cent. The statistics were prepared in the Department of Commerce at the request of the United States Senate for data on national income, and reflect the striking way in which governments, after the coming of depression, broadened their range of functions.

This open meeting will be apart from the business sessions, the first of which will be held Friday morning at 9 o'clock. There are other scheduled meetings Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

The convention will be climaxed Saturday night with a full fledged Young Democratic banquet, and the program to be presented should be one of the most entertaining ever arranged for a similar occasion.

Heading the list of speakers who have already given definite assurance that they will be present are Richard F. Roper of Washington, D. C., executive secretary of the Democratic National Committee, and Cliff Woodward of Des Moines, Iowa, president of the national organization. Other invitations have been extended to J. K. Brim of Sulphur Springs, Texas, chairman of the state executive committee, and to Roy Miller of Houston and Corpus Christi, nationally recognized as a prominent state leader.

Depression Boosted Government Workers

WASHINGTON.—The number of government employees in 1932 was 3,122,000, representing 104 per cent of the 3,003,000 engaged in 1929. The total includes federal, state, county and city employees, and represents the situation preceding the Federal employment relief campaigns during 1933, when millions were employed with public funds.

The growth in government employment during the first three years of the depression contrasted with an extreme contraction in other branches of industry. The number of persons engaged in construction, for example, declined from 1,528,000 in 1929 to 678,000 in 1932, the latter figure representing only 44.1 per cent of the pre-depression level.

Employment in major categories of industry in 1932 represented the following percentages of employment in 1929: agriculture, 96.0; mining, 60.3; electric light and power and gas, 84.0; manufacturing, 62.4; construction, 44.1; transportation, 69.6; communication, 75.5; trade, 78.4; finance, 79.8; government, 104.0; service, 77.3; miscellaneous, 77.5; total, 77.5.

Government employees in 1929 on the ground of dissent and uncertainty in its makeup. Whether the state as a whole will raise the objection some counties have made to having "outsiders" sent to manage their relief is another question. Miss Dresden will have the year's necessary voting residence in Texas in August.

Only Two of Relief Officers Are Sure of Keeping Their Jobs

AUSTIN, Tex.—M. N. Chrestman, Dallas, and Earle P. Adams, Crockett, appear to be the only members of the State Relief Commission, beside the Governor, who are sure of retaining the jobs. The relief act specified that the chairman of the State Judicial Council and the chairman of the State Industrial Accident Board should be members of the relief commission. They occupy those places.

Ed Hussion, Houston, was appointed by the Governor. Any Governor's appointee may be removed by the Governor. B. E. Giesecke, Austin; W. A. Brooks, Jr., Dallas, and Carl Estes, Tyler, were appointed by Lieut. Gov. Edwar E. Witt. Robert L. Holliday, El Paso; Houston Harte, San Angelo and Jack Reed, Junction, were appointed by Speaker Coke R. Stevenson. Recently Stevenson removed Holliday and named Col. Julius Dorenfield, Amarillo, instead.

Whether Stevenson had this power is being contested by Holliday. If he has it, Lieut. Gov. Witt also has it as regards his appointees.

Four of the nine members already have had their eligibility questioned. The Governor questioned right of Chrestman and Adams to hold dual places. She was overruled. Giesecke's right to be on the commission and act for the PWA also was questioned. A ruling was asked but had not been given early this week. The respective rights of Holliday and Dorenfield await decision.

In this situation, selection of Miss Marie Dresden for Relief Director was an effective move. She has been recommended to the Texas Relief Commission by high officials of the national relief organization. So long as she is director Washington cannot well object to cooperating with Texas

PHILADELPHIA.—Channing Pollock, playwright and author, fired a withering blast at modern movies in an address before Temple University students here.

Pollock Knocks Modern Movies

"They are selling toy machine guns to children on the streets of New York," he said. "That is just one result of the vicious modern movie."

"Everyone connected with Mae West picture, 'I'm No Angel,' ought to be in the penitentiary. There seems to be a movement under way to throw overboard beauty, sacrifice, heroism and other virtues conspicuous in their absence from modern books, plays and motion pictures."

Pollock discussed what he called "filthy modern books" at some length. "We no longer can write filth on the bathroom walls, so we put it in books," he said. "But why buy a book when you can stand on the corner listening to the conversation of two truck drivers? In modern literature, if it isn't illicit, it isn't love. Today's 'best smellers' rob life of its greatest realities, truth and beauty."

"The hero has vanished from modern literature, and his place has been taken by the poor fish. The neuroses of life have a place in the clinic, but not in books."

Positive Relief For Smarting Itch

To end smarting skin itch, eczema, rash, letter, ringworm and foot-itch use Blue Star Ointment. It melts on the skin, sending tested medicines deep into pores where it kills germs and ends itching. Very soothing. Does not burn. Pleasant in odor. (adv.)

Arvin Takes Vacation at Tavern

BRILLION, Wis.—Five hundred 35-pound Arvin Giese, 17, a dancer and female impersonator, has taken a vacation from a touring circus and is visiting his parents here.

Most of his time he spends in father's tavern, quaffing huge cards of beer and picking at lunch. His "light lunches" consist of heaping bowls of potato and mammoth chunks of it, preferably pork. He puts a lot of "pass the time away" when all he had to do was go to Arvin's ham-like hand stifles

SHE REMEMBERED

By United Press
BINGHAM, Utah.—A lesson well taught by her father was responsible for the saving of the life of Viola McDonald. The 10-year-old girl sat alone in the family car as it was parked on a steep grade in this mining town. Suddenly the machine started rolling. As suddenly as it started, the car came to a halt, just short of crashing into a building. Frightened to tears, little Viola explained she had heard her daddy say to "pull that lever when you want to stop the car." That was what she had done.

Large-scale shifting of families

from town to town, or from one part of the farming territory to another, is not contemplated. The first job, said Director Dresden, is to care for destitute families where they are.

The Famous . . . GOODYEAR PATHFINDER low cut protected

4 FULL PLYS of spertwist Cord insulated with 5 up heat-resisting rubber.

Not one or two but FOUR or more HIGH-SPEED SAFETY PLYS in every Goodyear!

Blowout Protection That Lasts!

Per cent of original tensile strength remaining in cords after long use in tires:

Miles Run	Supertwist Tire Cords	Ordinary Tire Cords
8,000	93%	82%
16,000	81%	36%

Supertwist Cord—a Goodyear patent—stretches, absorbs shocks, and comes back strong! Thoroughly rubberized to resist heat, it gives lasting blowout protection in every ply. Ask us to demonstrate!

In every Goodyear — at every price — you get four or more full plies of shock-absorbing Supertwist Cord—four or more high-speed safety plies—four or more plies that hold most of their strength to the final mile. No wonder more people buy Goodyears than any other tire! Yet you pay nothing extra for this extra protection—the greater sale of Goodyears enables the greater value. Buy no tires until you see us!

Also, the Goodyear Speedway is blowout protected—yet costs as little as $4.10

HEAVY DUTY GOODYEAR PATHFINDER TRUCK TIRES better than the best of any makes, yet look at prices:

30x5	32x6	6.00-20
18 <sup>70</sup>	19 <sup>10</sup>	14 <sup>95</sup>

Prices subject to change without notice and to any State sales tax.

WASHING and GREASING

GOOD YEAR

GUY PATTERSON

ROAD SERVICE—Call 20
414 South Seaman

Good Used Tires $1.00 up

Guaranteed Tire Repairing

SMART FOOTWEAR

Designed FOR SUMMER

Shoe styles this season, as shown here, are more exciting than ever before! For every activity of the day or evening, you'll find here the correct shoe in a wide array of colors and leathers. And so appealingly priced that you won't be able to resist the impulse to buy at least two pairs! White dominates the season. Sizes AAAA to C.

$2.98 Pumps Ties to $5.95

Largest Selection of Sandals

Special group of broken sizes, values $3.95 to $4.95, closing out at $2.98

The FASHION

EASTLAND'S EXCLUSIVE LADIES STORE
North Side Square EASTLAND
STYLE - QUALITY - SATISFACTION

By the m
Ordi
tain
inesd
ms. B
reat
the de
supp
Th
ed a ching
es wa
ped t er we infor
te we
the Sp
t. Si
ayed d
hour
serv
esses
ente
rday
large sed ti
time.
r. and
ghter
e Satu
ack Gil visite
ney.
Mrs. El
in St
Mr. and visitors
s. Frank
Boyer of
Mrs. Ma
eral da;
daught
s family
Ollie La
uncle a
P. Lar
Ralph
as at Pe
Paul Pat
rgan Mi
and Mr
Mr. and
f. Addi
ckaby vi
Mrs. Fra

BEY
DONN
LINE S service
circus.
I was perf
years en
from th
a MIDDAL
A few
is the Madellie
has been spread th
Madellie
since. T
and from
BILL BIL
course fo
trading i talk in
dinner w
NOW GO

IN the d
was cha
the assist
west rider
alary by star perfor
rows litte
"How's thi
Donna s stool and
target slip soft sole
slipped fr
another.
partner's
beed to it
"It's fu
write to b
bigged Ma
maybe the sister?"
"They did
her. "Bea
sh alone."
"What's
demanded
were alone.
"What yo
sayed.
for dust, b
like him. I
I was fun
with embar
have suppe
now."
"I suppo
alm out of
"No, I d
all, bathing
hat tight
bing."
"Bathing
miffed. "Wh
we a woma
outside of
ent a place
size and a
swimming in
"That's no
suddenly not right. She dis
han she had
As he trip
rona Donna
of the rows
well that un
he could not al from any
Both girls
and slippers.
movements th
perfect body
that led to th
the was in t
he did like
without nets,
life and life

DONNA kn
bung berm
gramp it w
she could not say stood in

THURBER

The Newfangles (Mom 'n' Pop)

By Cowen

Tom Lang visited Thursday with Mrs. Jack White at No. 2 gasoline plant.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. West and little daughter Janice of Austin, passed through here Sunday en route to Abilene. Mrs. West is the niece of Mrs. Frank Whitworth and will be remembered as Miss Freda Martin.

Mrs. Tom Lang left Sunday for Carlsbad, N. M., to join her husband, who has employment there.

We hope them much happiness in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McKinnon had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Harry DeFord and Mrs. Ivey of Gordon.

Ruby Harris of Strawn is visiting with Miss Uraine Irvine.

Mrs. Babe Acapp visited in Ranger last week with her mother, Mrs. Emmie Warden.

Robert Whitworth has returned to Huntington Park, California, after several weeks visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitworth.

Demenick Kessler of Ft. Worth visited his many friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron White and children, Lora and Billy were Eastland visitors Saturday.

Miss Dottie Lane of Mingus visited Sunday with Mrs. Frank Arrendale.

Mrs. Annie Booth has returned to her home after a week's visit in Lubbock with her daughter, Mrs. Gayle Lawson and family. Mr. Lawson has been very ill but it reported doing nicely now.

MADISON, Wis.—A new variety of sweet clover discovered in China has proved successful in tests conducted at the Wisconsin agricultural experiment station here. The clover lacks the bitter taste that makes most varieties unpalatable to livestock.

NAMPA, Idaho.—At one time one of the most fearless and noted peace officers of the nation was C. B. "Con" Murphy, colorful lieutenant of the famed Bat Masterson during the gold boom days of the Old West. He died here recently. Murphy was born in Kentucky, Feb. 22, 1858. He married at Dodge City, Kan., but his wife died a year later and Murphy spent the rest of his life single, following major gold rushes of the west.

By LAW VA FENNER

The members of the Masonic Order of Eastern Star lodges gathered with a buffet supper Tuesday night at the lodge. Beautiful bouquets of bride-breath and verberna were used for decorations. Partners for supper were found in a unique way.

The ladies and gentlemen seated an inner and outer circle facing in opposite directions as the music was played, when the music ceased the couples facing each other were partners. After supper informal games were played. There were fifty-two present.

The Spanish club entertained at a picnic at the lake Friday. Singing and games were enjoyed during the evening. At a hour hot tamales and crackers served a large number.

Misses Lorene and Corene DeWitt entertained at their home Saturday evening with a dance. A large number present expressed themselves as having a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gibson and daughter Berniece were in Glenview Saturday.

Jack Gilbert of CCC camp, Dubuque visited Sunday with Thomas Wiley.

Mrs. Elza Marrs visited relatives in Strawn Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron White have visitors this week his sister, Frank Brown and son Frank Royce of Grandfield.

Mrs. Maggie Masters visited several days in Burk Burnett with daughter, Mrs. Mace Oyler and family.

Billie Lang of Georgia is visiting uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. P. Lave.

Ralph Wynne attended the picnic at Fort Worth Saturday.

Paul Patterson of CCC camp, Logan Mill, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wiggins of Addison Whitworth were Ekahy visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Arrendale and Mrs.

DONNA of the BIG TOP by BEULAH POYNTER

©1934 NEA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

DONNA SIDDAL, who will thrill you with her circus stunts, is the star of the new show. Her circus stunts are the most thrilling you have ever seen. She is a real show girl.

A few days before the circus is to play in her old home town Madeline receives a letter from her grandfather asking her to spread the word and tell him Madeline has Donna to go in her place. The two girls look alike and Donna considers it when BILL SIDDAL, Madeline's cousin comes for her. It is Donna pretending to be the sister who talks to him and later goes to dinner with him.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER II

IN the dressing room Madeline was changing her costume with the assistance of one of the wild riders who augmented her salary by acting as maid to the star performers. Madeline's eyebrows lifted at Donna's entrance. "How's the cousin?" she asked.

Donna sat down on a folding stool and kicked off the heavy carpet slippers that covered her "soft soles." Dusterously she slipped from one costume into another. "If she had heard her partner's question she gave no heed to it for she did not reply.

"It's funny your folks never write to but one of you girls," winked Madeline's assistant. "Or maybe they write to you together?"

"They do," Madeline informed her. "But it, Ruth, I can't do alone." Ruth disappeared.

"What's Bill like?" Madeline demanded when she and Donna were alone.

"What you'd expect. A young rascal. You'd never see him or dust, but," Donna smiled, "I like him. He was so embarrassed when I was going to have supper with him after the show."

"I suppose the tight's shocked him out of a year's growth?"

"No, I don't think so. After all, bathing suits are so common that tight's shouldn't mean anything."

"Bathing suits?" Madeline sniffed. "Where would Bill Sidal be a woman in a bathing suit? Outside of Little Creek there isn't a place to swim within 50 miles and no woman ever went swimming in Little Creek."

"That's our cue," Donna said suddenly not at all sorry to interrupt the discussion of the young man who had just met.

As she tripped lightly across the stage Donna gave a swift glance at the rows of seats, knowing full well that under the blazing lights she could not distinguish Bill Sidal from any other person.

Both girls discarded their elaborate slippers. With deft overhead movements Donna swung her little perfect body up a swinging rope that led to the flying trapeze. Once she was in position there, Madeline did likewise. The two worked without nets, a reckless disregard of life and limb.

DONNA knew that when she swung herself from the trapeze rope it was with her dexterous fingers an instant later, Con David at the top of the wing of the en-

Again and again Donna's thoughts returned to Bill Sidal. She wondered how the trapeze act appeared to him.

home for a girl raised among trees and flowers and with plenty of ground around.

They did not speak again until they reached a board walk leading towards the town. Then he said, "I wish I could persuade you to leave the circus and stay home with your grandfather. He's getting pretty old and he talks about you all the time."

"Maybe next winter—" Donna stammered. "Just now it would be impossible."

"I suppose show life is thrilling at least it looks that way, sitting where I did. But there can be a lot of interest around a farm, too. And it would only be while the old man is alive. I thought I'd hate the farm, and at first I did hate giving up what I was doing to settle down in the back woods. I'm sure, though, that if the place were mine I'd get a real kick out of trying to make it the best in the country."

"What were you doing?" Donna asked.

"Studying medicine. I'd have graduated this year if I hadn't quit. When Grandfather went blind some one had to be with him besides—"

"Blind," Donna gasped.

"Didn't you know? Didn't you get the letter?"

"No, I didn't know." She shivered.

HE looked at her sharply. "Mrs. Planter said she wrote you the same time she wrote me, but I don't trust that woman. She has her eye on Grandfather—I call him that and would like to marry him blind or not. Naturally she doesn't like me, for I see through her schemes."

"Who is she?"

"Why the housekeeper. Surely you remember her? When her husband was alive she lived up the road about three miles. After you left she came over to stay with Grandfather."

"The name or—slipped my memory."

Walking briskly, they reached the edge of the town. Flame houses with wide verandas, surrounded by well kept lawns and shade trees, gave Donna a touch of nostalgia for the life she had never known.

"It's such a pretty town," she murmured.

"Yes, Lebanon is attractive. And there are some fine people living here. I've made a lot of friends."

The public square was thronging with farmers and their families for Saturday in Lebanon was always a holiday. The circus had brought hundreds of persons from all over the county and the Central House, the principal hotel, had more patronage than it could accommodate.

BILL elbowed through the crowd and up the porch steps. "Got places for two?" he inquired of a bright-eyed little waitress, carrying a tray of dishes.

"Howdy, Mr. Sidal. Yes, I reckon we can find a place for you. That couple is leaving now."

Bill snatched at the vacant places, grinning boyishly at Donna as he held a chair for her. "I suppose it's the same all over the country. A circus draws everybody."

Just as the little waitress inquired if Donna would have steak or pork chops, another couple came up the stairs. Donna raised her eyes to meet the mischievous ones of Madeline whose curiosity had overcome caution. At a discreet distance, accompanied by Ned Trafford, the boss canvasser, she had followed her partner.

Donna could not suppress a gasp of dismay. In a frock very similar to her own and wearing a hat that was an exact replica of Donna's, the resemblance between the two girls was so striking that Bill could not help but notice it.

"What's the matter?" Bill asked.

"Nothing. I just saw my partner and I thought she—"

Madeline passed by. She grinned impishly, swept a keen glance toward Bill and, under her breath, whispered to Donna, "Con is roaring like one of his cats." Then with her arm linked in Ned Trafford's she continued down the aisle of tables.

It all happened so suddenly that Bill scarcely saw Madeline's face but he did hear what she said. Though his acquaintance with Donna had begun less than six hours previous he demanded, as if well within his rights, "Who is Con?"

"Oh, you saw him. He's in the animal act."

"Is he your sweetheart?" Donna laughed gaily. "Of course not."

"But he'd like to be, huh?"

"Perhaps."

(To Be Continued)

WARDS April Savings!

Smooth!

59c nose

- Pure silk
- Full fashioned
- Priced low
- Smart Shades

CHIFFONS exquisitely sheer and clear... with picot tops... and special attention paid to heels and toes that wear! SERVICE WEIGHTS with cotton tops and feet... Fashioned to last... and have a luxury look as well!

Rayon Panties

Cute new styles; lace and rayon applique. Save!

25c

Men's Shirts

Smart weaves. Also blue or white broadcloth.

79c

Toyo Hats

Men's dressy Toyo fibre in light, cool—looks smart!

$1.00

TWO DAY SALE

Plain Color BROADCLOTH

at only 11¢ a yard

Regularly 15¢! You can always save at Wards, but tomorrow and next day you can realize an added saving on sturdily constructed, tubbule colored and white broadcloth! Don't miss this value!

Fishing Tackle!

Made by Sportsman for Sportsman

Wards Reel 34

Level winding. Reversible. Pawl. Bakelite head.

$1.00

Tubular Steel Bait Rod... $1.30

Split Bamboo Casting Rod... $1.35

Black King Silk Line, 50 yds... 75c

Wards Famous Fish Ketcher Spoon... 19c

Wards Clipper Linen Line, 50 yds... 25c

Wards Tarpnet Walker... 29c

Wards Cable Wire Leader... 5c

1 Inch Automatic Tray Tackle Box... 95c

Lastex Girdles $1.00

Brassieres All popular uplift styles in varied fabrics. 19c

Wash Suits Flapper style blouse; broadcloth shorts. Self belt. 79c

MONTGOMERY WARD

RANGER, TEXAS TELEPHONE 447

Local--Eastland--Social

OFFICE 681      TELEPHONES      RESIDENCE 288

CALENDAR

Saturday

Junior Missionary Auxiliary, at 9:30 a. m., Baptist church.
Open House Simmons University, Abilene, honoring high school graduates.

Bluebonnet Club

Miss Ethel Fehl of Breckenridge was hostess to the Bluebonnet club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy L. Allen.

The pink and white color motif was carried out in all the details, and decorations in roses, snowballs and pinks, carried the old-fashioned theme noted in the bridge table appointments in quaint designs.

High score favor, a cut glass flower bowl was awarded Mrs. Allen, a similar favor going as guest high score to Mrs. Veon Howard.

The cut-for-all, a novelty lemon tray, was awarded Mrs. J. V. Freeman.

Dainty refreshments were served of delicious salad, wafers, potato flakes, small nut cakes, and iced tea, to club members, Mmes. Bernice Blowers, Joe Kraemer, W. E. Brasher, E. R. O'Rourke, James Beale, Roy L. Allen, and guests, Mmes. Bryan Johnson, John Fehl, G. C. Kimbrell, Veon Howard, J. O. Earnest, A. W. Fehl, J. V. Freeman, Dace Myers, R. L. Freeman and Joe Kaufman.

Charming Tea

Club Club Hostess
The attractive home of Mrs. P. G. Russell was the scene of a delightful tea at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Scott Key, president of Book club, whose members sponsored the affair in recognition of her recent

Look Young With Mello-glo

Beautiful women, admired for youthful complexions, use MELLO-GLO, the new wonderful French process face powder. Finest and smoothest powder known. Stays on longer. No flaky or pasty look. No grime or grit. Prevents large pores and never smart or feels dry. Blends naturally with any complexion. Demand MELLO-GLO. 50c and $1.

Texas Legion Will Take a Part In An Air Roundup

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Aerial routes are set, and Texas will participate in the nationwide aerial roundup of membership cards and dues of the American Legion on May 1, H. L. Plummer, assistant national adjutant at national headquarters of the Legion announced here today.

It is estimated that 50 planes will converge on Indianapolis about 2 o'clock the afternoon of May 1. This is two days in advance of the scheduled May meeting of the National Executive committee on May 3 and 4. This allows a day in which to have the membership cards counted in order that a report may be made to this governing body of the Legion. Last year when the first nationwide aerial roundup was held, 50,000 cards and dues were collected. It is estimated that 100,000 will be added to the rolls in this second event.

The package of cards and dues from the department of Texas will be brought to Indianapolis through regular air mail service, scheduled to arrive in Indianapolis on the afternoon of May 1.

There will be four main, or arterial, flights covering the United States in addition to the individual ones. The main ones are:

1. Plane leaving Los Angeles, passing through Winslow, Ariz., Albuquerque, N. M.; Kansas City to Indianapolis.
2. Plane leaving New York, contacting New Jersey at Newark, through Philadelphia and Columbus, Ohio, to Indianapolis.
3. Plane leaving New Orleans, through Jackson, Miss.; Memphis and Louisville to Indianapolis.
4. Plane leaving Portland, Ore., through Boise, Salt Lake City, Cheyenne, Omaha and Des Moines to Indianapolis.

In each of these main flights there will be a Legion messenger in charge of the cards and dues that will be picked up from various departments along the line of flight.

The evening of May 1 the pilots, messengers, other Legion officials and prominent figures in the world of aviation, will assemble at a banquet to be held in celebration of the roundup, and to be addressed by Edward A. Hayes, national commander. He will reveal, according to Mr. Plummer, important progress that is being made by aviation companies in contributions to the national defense of America.

triumph in receiving the sixth district T. F. W. C. prize in the poetry contest, and also as an established writer of verse, which has appeared in various magazines of poetry, and in book form.

Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Key received and were assisted through-out the afternoon by Mmes. W. E. Chaney, Harry Porter, Jack Lewis, Jr., and Mrs. L. E. Edwards of Albany.

Prior to the serving of tea, Mrs. Key read a group of poems, including the prize winning selections, "Neutral," prefacing the group in a delightful analysis of poetry and its classifications.

The reading was concluded following the serving of tea, from a charmingly appointed table, laid in imported linen, centered with a low bowl of orchid tinted flowers, flanked by triangle grouping of silver holders of tall yellow tapers.

Tea and coffee was poured by Mrs. C. A. Hertig and Mrs. W. I. Clark, the tea plate of sandwiches, tea cakes frosted in pastel shades, nut and mints, was passed by those assisting.

Tea room hostesses were in charming evening dress. The entire home was decorated in roses, larkspur, and sweetpeas, carrying the pastel shades.

Guest personnel: Mmes. J. R. McLaughlin, James Horton, O. F. Chastain, Kenneth Tanner, W. K. Hyer, Hall, F. M. Kenny, F. V. Williams, M. J. Pickett, John Hume, Charles Fagg, James A. Jarbee, Milburn McCarty, J. O. Brothers, A. H. Furse, V. T. Seaberry, Thomas Butler, Lloyd McEwen, Dixie Williamson, Bulb B. Connelley, J. H. Cheatham, Jr., Alex Clarke, Neal Day, Leslie Gray, Hubert Jones, Joseph M. Perkins, W. K. Jackson, Mrs. L. J. Weaver of Fort Worth, Mrs. Thomas McManus of Iowa City, Ia.; Mrs. Tompkins of Albany; Mrs. McMurray of Cisco, and Miss Elizabeth Garrett.

Miss Belle Wilson
Initiated
Miss Belle Wilson was a weekend visitor in Fort Worth, there to be initiated into the Delta Kappa Gamma society, national honor or fraternity in education.

The society is sponsored by Dr. Anna Webb Blanton of the state university faculty, and sister of Representative Thomas A. Blanton.

Major purposes of the fraternity are, elevating teaching profession, developing high ideals, and professional spirit among women teachers, and to aid in securing recognition of work of women teachers.

Membership is based on success in teaching, leadership, unselfish professional spirit and co-operative qualities.

Intermediate
R. A. and G. A.
Mrs. S. A. Green hostessed the intermediate Royal Ambassadors and Girls auxiliary of the Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon at her home, with session opened by their president, Miss Geraldine Terrell, in assembly song service followed by prayer.

A membership drive was planned, and two groups organized for this work, with Misses Dora B. Williams, and Wanda Lasseter, as opposing captains.

The study of the four gospels conducted by their director, Mrs. Green, formed a round table program.

The group will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Green. The hostess served refreshments of brick ice cream and small cakes, to Misses Andra Faye Taylor, Fern Lee Frost, Dora B. Williams, Wanda Lasseter, Joy Coplen and Geraldine Terrell.

Martha Dorcas Class Social Afternoon

Mrs. W. A. Martin and co-hostesses, Mrs. J. P. Hearn, Dee High, Guy Patterson, R. G. Porter, W. J. Peters, J. L. Roper, C. J. Germany and W. A. Whitley, received at the handsome Martin home, Wednesday afternoon, the membership of the Martha Dorcas class and several guests.

After registering, tea was served by Mmes. Hearn, nad Patterson, who presided at the services at either side of the charmingly arrayed table, laid in lace, centered with pastel sweetpeas, and set with lighted candles in silver sticks.

Silver trays of pimento cheese sandwiches, small cakes and mints in pastel hues, spaced the table. Plate favors were bouquets of spring flowers.

Incidental music was provided throughout the afternoon by Mrs. Germany.

The artistic registration book was hand-painted by Dee High, the artist, and bore a replica of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Martin presided over the program opened with a talk by her on better homes and its motif; Miss Betty Perkins was presented in a humorous reading, and Mrs. Howard McDonald in a group of voice numbers, who again sang later on the program.

Reading, Barron Butler; song, Midge Hearn; reading, Katherine Garrett.

The reading, "Homestead Law," by Mary Frances Hunter, concluded the interesting interlude.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. H. C. Satterwhite, president of the class. Rev. E. R. Stanford, pastor of Methodist church, announced the better homes service at the church, next Sunday night, 7:45 o'clock, and requested a committee chairman be appointed to cooperate with other chairmen of the church in inviting friends to attend this program.

Mrs. A. A. Martin was appointed to represent Martha Dorcas class, and chairman from other classes of the church will be named later.

Plans were discussed for the Mother-Daughter banquet, Friday May 11, in Methodist church.

All committees in the year book were notified to meet at the home of Mrs. H. O. Satterwhite yesterday, Thursday morning, to complete plans.

Those present in addition to hostesses and those on program: Mmes. R. E. Sikes, M. B. Griffin, J. C. Creemer, Fred I. Michael, C. H. McBee, P. E. Cook, D. C. Hawley, Virge Foster, Jack Noell, J. L. Fields, Ora B. Jones, B. O. Harrell, Francis M. Jones, D. J. Jobe, W. L. Van Geem, E. C. Satterwhite, T. J. Haley, Lilly Watson, E. M. Anderson, L. C. Walker, Dan McEachern, Z. Teague, C. W. Hoffmann, James Atchley, Ernest Harkrider, John Webb, C. E. Harvey, Ed T. Cox, Jr., W. C. Marlow, Noble Harkrider, W. O. Butler, Howard Brock, W. B. Harris, E. Hinrich, R. C. Ferguson, W. A. Keith, W. P. Leslie, J. E. Hickman, Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Stanford.

Former Eastland Girl Receives Honor

Miss Frances Cunningham of Corpus Christi, who frequently visits in this city where she formerly lived, is meeting with signal success in her third year in the University of Texas. She has just been congratulated by the staff of the dean of women on making the honor roll, with a wish that her success would continue throughout her school career, signed by the dean of women, and women members of the faculty.

Miss Cunningham carried her usual courses and a double course in English in which she is majoring.

Miss Cunningham graduated from the Eastland High school in 1931, and has a host of friends in this city.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom J. Cunningham formerly of Eastland.

Better Homes Program Taking Shape

The annual observance of Better Homes Week, opens Sunday, April 29, with a fair outlook for a suitable program through the week.

This will be the twelfth birthday of the movement, and the eleventh annual program put on in Eastland by the Better Homes committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. W. K. Jackson, who has held this office for Eastland, the past 11 years.

Mrs. Frank Lovett has been appointed chairman for the Baptist church observance; Mrs. James A. Beard, chairman for Christian church; Mrs. Joe C. Stephen, chairman for Methodist church, and

Teachers Criticize Accrediting Body

FORT WORTH.—Many classroom teacher organizations throughout the state charge the Committee on Classified and Accredited High Schools with failure to maintain higher standards. This is revealed in a study just completed by Dr. Lewis B. Cooper, Director of Research Department, State Teachers Association. Regardless of the fact that 89 per cent of the officers of classroom teacher organizations and 90 per cent of the superintendents expressed their approval of the ruling of the Accrediting Committee in setting up higher professional standards, many of the teacher organizations severely criticize the Committee for its inactivity and weakness in maintaining former standards.

They alleged that the committee failed to serve the needs of the children and the teachers of Texas by permitting larger classes to be organized and by allowing teachers to be assigned additional class work. All of this additional work has been placed on the teacher in the face of reduced salaries and the rapidly rising costs of commodities brought on by the depression and the New Deal they maintain. The Committee should take firm action they maintain, in reinstating former standards of instruction prior to the enforcement of the higher professional standards which involve further expense and require more of the teachers' time.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Seagoing Terror Deserts His Ship

PHILADELPHIA.—A white terrier dog has returned from a Mediterranean cruise to become a police station mascot.

"Rags" was presented to an Aquitania passenger as a joke just before the ship sailed, last February. The passenger refused to accept the pup, but Captain Robert Irving did.

After two cruises in the Mediterranean district, "Rags" found his sea legs and paced blithely about the quarter-deck. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Harvey became attached to him, and obtained permission from Captain Irving to present him to a police station here.

His likes and dislikes were violent, however. Patrolman Thomas Brown took him home to "teach him manners."

"Rags" now politely ignores tempting police shins, and is back in official favor.

Collector Urges A Stamp Pedigree

PHILADELPHIA.—A plan to pedigree postage stamps is urged by a Philadelphia collector.

H. L. Lindquist, who has one of the best collections of rare postage stamps in the United States, made the proposal at the first annual dinner of the Record Stamp Club.

"Collectors constantly are being duped by stamp counterfeiters," he said. "It is increasingly difficult for even experts to tell a good imitation from a genuine rare stamp."

"A solution would be to have every stamp of great rarity supplied with a complete pedigree, showing its past history and ownership, and carrying a photographic reproduction. The pedigree would be sold with the stamp."

That Reminds Me

(Continued from page 1)

sure to go. Who wouldn't mourn a dog like Hibbe?

The weather man promised us what we got today, colder, looks like old Sol will get a tough break also. Business hasn't been so good this week, but the thing to be remembered is that the farmers have been putting in lots of lost time, and they haven't had time to worry about the necessities around the house. Saturday should see almost a week's business in one.

200 Automobiles to Form Motorcade to Broadway Meet

DALLAS.—F. O. Mackey, president of the Broadway of America Highway association, today announced that more than 200 automobiles would form the two motorcades to the seventh annual convention of the association, meeting in Dallas May 8-9.

"From every indication, and the splendid spirit of cooperation which I found on my recent trip over the highway from Douglas, Ariz., to Minnville, Tenn., I feel safe in saying that the Dallas convention will be one of the most outstanding in the history of this great association," Mr. Mackey said.

"The Dallas convention will celebrate the paving of the first trans-continental highway in the United States. At this time there remains but 42.7 miles of unpaved road on the entire route. Every foot of this is under contract and will be completed not later than Sept. 15, this year."

"At the Dallas Convention, we will lay our plans for advertising this great snow-free and scenic route, that today is carrying the bulk of discriminating motor travelers."

The motorcade will reach Ranger at 3 p. m. May 7, departing at 3:10 for Dallas.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.

Another criticism that is made by classroom teachers is that their organization does not have fair and adequate representation on the Committee. It is pointed out that three-fifths of the teaching force of he school systems reported are employed on the elementary school level. Taking the state as a whole, this large group of 13,451 elementary school teachers is without direct representation on the Accrediting Committee. They want to know if this is a fair democratic deal. Although few teacher organizations were opposed to the requirements for the type of training program offered by the colleges of elementary school teachers comes in for a share of the constructive criticism. They suggest that a more nearly uniform professional degree on the elementary school level be recognized and that all higher institutions training teachers be compelled to conform to certain requirements under professional supervision.

"Hibbe" is dead. Shot as an act of mercy. Hibbe never had any hardships in life, he was just a good natured shepherd dog. He came to the shelter of his master years ago. He helped entertain the babies of the family, and was always on hand to retrieve the baseball for the boys, or even took part in the football kicking and throwing practices around the back yard. He was interested in golf, too. When he looked up at you, there was an understanding look in his eye and he had absolute confidence in humanity.

Hibbe's youthful days began to fade, something like 18 years, over the average dog's life began to make him wobbly, and his steps uncertain. He couldn't eat what a dog should eat to exist. He just got feeble, aged and diseased. He suffered, and since he was a dog there was no harm in putting him out of his misery. In fact it was a kindly act. The executioner of Hibbe was an outsider who didn't know all about his wonderful dog qualities, it had to be some one like that to do it, because none of Hibbe's masters would take the responsibility even though it was humane. There were real tears around the place at the Judge Scott Key home Thursday. So Hibbe, the good old dog that stayed and shared the families joys and sorrows, is now in the dogs' heaven, where all good dogs are.