The Muleshoe Fine Arts Boosters will meet Monday, August 23, at 8 p.m. in the Muleshoe High School Band Hall. This will be the first meeting of the year and new officers for the year will be elected.

In order for each Fine Arts Department to receive funds this year, there must be representatives from at least two families for each department represented at the meetings. Meetings will be scheduled on the fourth Monday of each month throughout the school year. The Fine Arts Boosters ask that all parents interested in Band, Speech or Art, to be present this Monday.

MULESHOE'S FIRST DIALYSIS MACHINE... Earl Ladd, Jr., relaxes as a machine takes over pumping his blood in a purifying process through a dialysis (kidney) machine. The machine, which is the first in Muleshoe, has been made a part of the Ladd home as Ladd is required to have treatments for five hours, three times a week, to take poisons from his blood.

Dialysis Machine Now Used In Local Home

Following a mini-medical course, along with psychological tests, a dietitian test, and mechanical tests, Earl Ladd Jr. has come home to Muleshoe with the first dialysis machine in Muleshoe.

After kidney failure from diabetes last October, Ladd became a patient at the South Plains Dialysis Center in Lubbock where he stabilized on the machine before he brought it to the Ladd home this week.

For five hours each time, three times a week, his blood is circulated through the machine and purified to remove poison and urea from the blood as he sits in a chair and waits.

As he trained at the dialysis center in Lubbock, Mrs. Ladd trained right with him as his "back-up." This was required, along with a three month stabilization, before he could come home.

The Ladds were both required to learn medical terms which explained complications which could arise from the use of the machine and how to handle them; mechanics for maintenance and quick repairs of the machine; a dietitian test to determine the very stringent diet required for Ladd and were given a psychological test to determine stability, emotional level and other factors in the use of the dialysis machine.

"The secret of success with the dialysis machine," commented Ladd, "is mental attitude and diet." He explained that both he and Mrs. Ladd had to learn how to insert the large needles, with one needle being used to remove the blood and the other to return the blood after it is cleaned in the special machine.

Ladd had to have special surgery on both forearms to allow sufficient blood flow to alternate arms in the frequent usage of the cleansing activity.

Each player and coach will be introduced and they will speak on the football prospects for the upcoming season. Also the dressing rooms will be open for inspection by the public at that time.

In this effort to boost the spirit for the beginning season, come out and Meet the Mules and enjoy and ice cream social following introductions.

This is the kickoff to regular Tuesday night meetings at 8 p.m. in the Muleshoe High School Cafeteria.

Also, this is the first of a series, as each season, as all sports begin, a similar Meet the Mules night will be scheduled.

Story hour will be from 10-11 a.m. in the basement of the Muleshoe Area Public Library. Librarian Camp asks that mothers prepare their small children by telling them they will be leaving them for only an hour to enjoy stories, films and games, and then will return to take them home.

Mrs. Camp said story hour will be conducted throughout the school year on the first and third Wednesday morning of each month. It is co-sponsored by the Library and the Muleshoe Young Homemakers and HECE of Muleshoe High School.

On alternate Wednesdays will be story hour for the Muleshoe Goodwill Center.

Muleshoe Jaycees Fail But Search Continues

Royce Harris of the Muleshoe Jaycees has reported to The Journal that the Jaycees have failed! That's right, Harris was emphatic in reporting a failure by the local civic organization.

In fact, Harris went on to say that although they had failed, they are continuing a search - search for that 'special someone' - a 'special someone' and a companion, who will board that magic flight and fly the Continental way to Hawaii.

Presently, the Muleshoe Jaycees are conducting an intensive campaign to enhance depleted coffers and replace some of the money contributed to the construction of the new hospital and to other civic projects.

They are asking for $5 contributions, and are presenting a ticket with each $5 contributed for a drawing to be conducted on Monday, September 6, which is Labor Day.

Included for the winner will be airline tickets for two on the Golden Tail of Continental to Hawaii, eight days and seven nights in a hotel, with all expenses paid, along with an interesting sightseeing tour and a welcome breakfast. Who could ask for more for $5.

Along with the offer, the Jaycees offer continuing projects designed to aid the entire community. Through the projects of this group of young and energetic citizens, you have such things as the Miss Muleshoe Pageant, designed to focus attention on Muleshoe and name a young lady to preside over official Muleshoe activities, as well as encouraging poise and decor with practical experience for the young women of the area.

Stopping the vehicle were City Patrolman Fabian Flores, accompanied by off-duty officer, Forrest Williams, Assisting in the arrest were City Officer J.R. Carpenter, Deputy Sheriff Alton Carpenter, and Texas Highway Patrolman Jim Williams.

Lamb County officials returned two of the four to Littlefield late Wednesday night, and released the two girls accompanying the young men.

Story Hour Beginning On September 1

According to Muleshoe Librarian Anne Camp, story hour for pre-school children will get underway on Wednesday, September 1, for all pre-schoolers above the age of three years.

Story hour will be from 10-11 a.m. in the basement of the Muleshoe Area Public Library. Librarian Camp asks that mothers prepare their small children by telling them they will be leaving them for only an hour to enjoy stories, films and games, and then will return to take them home.

Mrs. Camp said story hour will be conducted throughout the school year on the first and third Wednesday morning of each month. It is co-sponsored by the Library and the Muleshoe Young Homemakers and HECE of Muleshoe High School.

Criminal Justice Committee Sets Muleshoe Meet

Members from the 15-County Criminal Justice Advisory Committee, created by SPAG (South Plains Association of Governments) will hold their regular monthly meeting in Muleshoe this week.

The meeting will be Thursday, August 26, at 10 a.m. in the Muleshoe State Bank community room, said longtime chairman, Bailey County Judge Glen Williams.

The Criminal Justice Advisory Board was created to grant applications for law enforcement agencies, and serve in an advisory capacity to SPAG.

Judge Williams said the public is welcome to attend the meeting and see what the Advisory Committee does.

Legislation Causes Reduction Of Funds

Holding the 1976-1977 School Budget with only an increase of $3,648 over the 1975-'76 budget failed to make up the difference with the loss of some $29,940 in federal funds and $141,732 in state funds for Muleshoe Schools.

This was the final budget figures for the upcoming school year, as reported to the members of the Muleshoe Independent School Board of Trustees during the official budget hearing early Thursday morning.

As a result of the loss of state and federal funding, a school tax increase was necessary, explained the board as they raised taxing to the approximate book value of 100 percent and lowered the tax rate. The new rate is $1.04 which is a decrease of .80 in the rate and an increase of 55 percent in the assessment.

Overall, it means approximately a 25 percent increase in school taxes.

Formal Opening Set For Health Office

Giving brief comments at formal opening ceremonies for the new Texas Department of Health Resource office this week will be Dr. John P. Board, Jr., regional director of Texas Department of Health Resources, of Lubbock. Also presenting comments will be Bailey County Judge Glen Williams.

Formal opening and tours will be conducted starting at the new offices at 306 West Second Street at 2:30. Staff members from the local office include Mrs. Marshall (Joann) Head, RN; Jeanie McDonald, RN; Mrs. Kenneth (Sue) Nesbitt, LVN; Mrs. Jim (Shirley) Hartline, secretary; Janie Ramos, assistant secretary and Josie Alonzo, immunization aide.

Services available at no charge to the public at the office include immunizations, TB control, chronic disease screening, tests to detect chronic diseases, a crippled children's clinic, speech and hearing tests and a blood pressure clinic on doctor's prescription.

Mrs. Head said the entire area is invited to visit the offices and see the reception area, examining rooms and treatment rooms, along with nurses offices.

Expected to attend the formal opening ceremonies other than the two speakers and the office staff include members of the Bailey County Commissioners Court, City and School officials. Refreshments will be served during the opening and tour.

STRIPPED TOMATOES... J.K. Adams had an approximate two acres of green tomatoes until last Sunday, August 15. Late in the afternoon a mini-flood and hail storm hit the Muleshoe area. Here Monty Gartin looks over some of the stripped plants and ruined tomatoes. Most of the hail damage was confined to the immediate Muleshoe area, with tender vegetation being the most severely damaged.

dropped from Title I Federal Programs.

With the increase in local taxes, $243,685 is expected to be added to the school funds to compensate for the nearly $300,000 which won't be received from state and federal sources.

In other action during the early morning school board meeting, the superintendent announced that Thomas J. DiSalvio, who had contracted to teach Spanish and government at high school had broken his contract because of personal reasons and Mrs. Shirley Williams, Special Education Teacher at Mary DeShazo had resigned because of personal reasons.

Employment was approved for Mrs. Janet Kerr Buske, Spanish and Government teacher at high school. She earned her BA degree at Texas Tech University and studied at the Institute de Norte Americana, San Luis Potosi, Mexico.

Also approved was Mrs. Kathleen Jennings Hamilton as Title I Math and Reading Station, Mary DeShazo. She is a graduate of Muleshoe High School and Eastern New Mexico University.

Special Education teacher for Mary DeShazo is Mrs. Vernelle Craig, who earned her BS degree at Eastern New Mexico University. From Farwell, Mrs. Craig taught in the Muleshoe schools in 1967-68.

Also, meeting with members of the school board was Jack McCreary, of McCreary & Huey Attorneys at Law, Austin, and tax consultants for the Muleshoe Schools. He discussed in detail the alternatives available to equalize the school district's property tax rolls. This was a question and answer session with no action taken.

Approved by the school board was the dress policy for the school for the upcoming school year to conform with regulations set out in Title IX of the Education amendments of 1972, as required by the Civil Rights Division, Department of Health, Education and Welfare of Washington, D.C.

The dress policy is:
In the interest of Health, Safety, General Welfare, an educational atmosphere, dignity of the individual, decency and pride in our schools and community, the following Dress Policy for students will be followed:

1. No shorts or cut offs of any kind are to be worn by students.
2. Shirts tailored in the style of man's undershirts shall not be worn (No tank-style shirts) by students.

3. Shirts with advertising of such things as alcoholic beverages, tobacco, etc., or shirts with imprints of poor taste shall not be worn by students. Neatness in dress for the occasion for which it is used shall be appropriate at all times.

4. Hair must be well groomed, clean, out of the eyes and worn in a manner generally acceptable to general community standards prevailing in the school district.

5. Blouses and shirt tails designed to be worn inside of skirts or trousers must be worn in that manner. Blouses and shirt tails designed to be worn on outside of skirts or trousers must cover the "midriff" and backs in the standing, sitting, or bending position.

6. In the interest of each and every student's health, safety, and welfare, footwear must be worn.

7. Students will wear belts on trousers tailored with belt loops.
8. No conspicuous or ridiculous costumes can be worn that will distract other students' attention and detract from a learning environment.

9. The factors that should be considered in selecting clothing and determining over-all good grooming that will contribute to a good learning atmosphere are: Neatness, Cleanliness, Comfort, Trimness, Modesty, Discreetness, and Non-Embarrassment to the wearer or others.

10. This policy is not designed in an effort to make every look or dress alike. It is written in the belief that young people should be encouraged to take pride in their personal appearance, for it has been demonstrated many times that there is a direct relationship between dress and behavior. If young men and women take pride in their personal appearance, they will also take pride in their personal behavior, habits, and achievements.

Comptroller Gives July Collections

Comptroller Bob Bullock said the July enforcement program of his Lubbock district office totaled $110,667 in field collections and revealed through audits $48,041 in additional taxes owed the state.

Bullock said the office conducted 25 audits during July, yielding an average $105 in additional taxes owed per audit hour.

The Comptroller emphasized that collections by the Lubbock office are in addition to state taxes routinely paid from the Lubbock area directly to Austin. "This is money we can't put in the bank until we go out and get it," said Bullock.

Statwide field collections by the Comptroller's 36 district offices totaled $4.9 million during July, with the combined audit efforts producing $3.3 million in additional revenue owed the state.

Bullock said field audits alone totaled $15 million for the month - compared to $18.6 million for the entire calendar year 1974.

In-state audits during July totaled $11.7 million, while audits of out-of-state firms totaled $3.3 million, said the Comptroller.

"Investing in a sound, aggressive audit program is better than hitting it lucky on the stock market," said Bullock.

The Comptroller said field audits and enforcement officer desk examinations have turned up $88.6 million during fiscal 1976 so far, exclusive of field collections.

Also Friday, Bullock mailed checks totaling $14.5 million to 659 cities and towns as their August rebate check of the one-cent city sales tax they collect.

The August remittance checks brought the calendar year total of city sales tax rebates to $173.1 million, he said.

Machine

Referring to himself as a "Juvenile Diabetic" Ladd became diabetic more than 20 years ago, and since that time has virtually lost the sight of his right eye, but with laser beam treatment of his left eye, managed to save the sight in his one eye.

Since a kidney doctor moved to Lubbock approximately two years ago, some 38-40 patients are at the dialysis center at one time from throughout the southwest. The Ladds said that as far as they know, their home dialysis machine is the first in Muleshoe. In the past, for dialysis treatment, patients were required to go to Dallas or Albuquerque.

He will be on the machine permanently unless research comes up with something better he added, although he did say he had no complaints, as the alternative was to die from poisons collecting in his system. One corner of the living room in the Ladd home has been offset and converted to a dialysis treatment room, with the chair, a sink, closet to accommodate the special water required for the machine, wastebasket and table to hold the centrifuge. The centrifuge is used to check Ladd's blood, although he is required to report to doctors in Lubbock once a month for a thorough checkup.

When not on the machine, Ladd can do almost a day's work, although he does have lifting limitations because of the special arm surgery. He said that three or four years ago, cost for a dialysis treatment was some $375 for each treatment. Now treatments can be conducted at the center for $150 each treatment, but for such people as he, who takes the home training, costs are cut into approximately half the $150 required.

He issued a word of optimism for persons who have kidney problems. Ladd said there are several areas to check into for financial aid for the expense involved. They are through Medicaid, administered through Social Security, The Texas Kidney Foundation or the VA.

Ladd exhibited some of the things done in the event of an emergency with the machine, such as power failure. The machine has a pump which can be operated manually to return his blood to his body, it also has lights and buzzers in case of malfunction.

When the cleansing process is completed, a saline solution is run through the tubes to clean the tubes and prepare the machine for the next use. Approximately one teaspoon, or less, of blood is lost each time the machine is used, although he said he could lose up to a quart of blood in case of an emergency, such as a fire, and not be in a dire situation. In the event of an emergency, the Ladds were taught, clamp off the tubes, remove the needles and leave the machine.

They are optimistic and encouraged others who may face the same situation to check into the home dialysis treatments.

Mrs. Morris Perry

Miss Elaine King, Perry Exchange Nuptial Vows

Miss Elaine King and Morris Perry exchanged double ring nuptial vows at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, August 14 in the First Baptist Church, Sudan with Benny Benjamin of Lubbock, performing the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U.J. King of Sudan and the bridegroom is the son of Betty Bruggeman and the late Rev. Leon Perry of Portales, N.M.

Vows were exchanged before a bridal arched candelabra flanked by spiral candelabras decorated by green huckleberry foliage and baby's breath and blue carnations.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a traditional gown of white chiffon with flocked white flowers over white bridal satin made by the bride's sister, Tresa West. The bodice fitted above the natural waistline, featured a sheer tucked yoke accented with pearls. A band of satin attached the bodice to the softly gathered skirt. A scalloped chapel length train was attached above the waistline. The dress and train was hand sewn with over 1000 pearls. The dress had loose pleated long bishop sleeves with a six inch satin cuff accented with pearls and pearl buttons. Completing her ensemble was a satin and pearl caplette with a tiered bouffant illusion veil accented with lace and pearls, which fell below the waistline.

She carried a tapered bouquet of blue and white stephanotis, baby's breath, and a lift-out white cymbidium orchid atop a white Bible. Following tradition, something new was her bridal dress and veil; something blue, the blue satin and lace garter; something old, her mother's ring; and something borrowed, her sister's white Bible. She also wore in her shoes, pennies that were minted in the birth years of the couple.

Susan Cardwell was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Caroline Carpenter and Skokie King, sister of the bride, both of Sudan and Stephanie Sims, of Dallas, cousin of the bride. The attendants wore identical dresses fashioned of baby blue chiffon flocked with blue flowers. They featured gathered skirts attached to the bodice above the natural waistline. The formal length dresses had short sheep puffed sleeves, and rounded necklines, with blue satin ribbon trim.

They carried parrissos of baby blue chiffon with gathered ruffle applied with blue lace flowers.

Candles were lit by Ricky King and Gwenna King, brother and sister of the bride. Gwenna's dress was fashioned as those of the bridal attendants. She wore a blue wrist corsage.

Mrs. King, mother of the bride chose a pastel pink floor-length gown, covered with the pink lace coat and wore a white orchid corsage. Mother of the groom, Betty Bruggeman, wore a floor-length blue and white gown and an orchid corsage.

Heather West of Brownfield, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a dress fashioned after the other bridal attendants. She wore a blue satin ribbon with flowers in her hair.

She carried a parrisol overlaid with blue flocked chiffon, which was filled with flowers. James Abston of Hereford was best man. Groomsman were Kenneth Fender, of Muleshoe, Eddie Perry, Lawton, Okla., brother of the groom, and Shelby Oliver, of Lubbock.

Wedding music was presented by Jennette Hill, sister of the groom and Kelly of Hereford. They sang "Time In A Bottle" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride presented long stemmed white rose to her mother with a kiss, as she was escorted to the altar and to her mother-in-law as she was leaving the altar with her husband.

Mrs. Debbie Perry, sister of the groom, presided over the registration table, as guests were registered in the bride's book.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the church fellowship hall where the newlyweds and their parents greeted their friends and relatives. The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth over satin edged with pearls. The table was centered with a silver candelabra with blue candles and surrounded by miniature blue parrissos. The traditional three tiered white wedding cake was decorated with white grapes and topped with white doves, surrounded by greenery.

White sherbet punch was served from silver appointments, with Tresa West of Brownfield, sister of the bride, serving.

Sisters of the groom presided at the groom's table. Nuts and blue mints were made by Mrs. Wayne Doty. The groom's table was laid with a white linen cloth centered with a two layer chocolate cake, decorated with chocolate grapes, topped with a silver cross, with interlocking wedding rings. Coffee was served from a silver coffee service by the groom's sisters.

Rice roses of baby blue and white satin from a rose tree was given to the guests by the younger sisters of the groom.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. B.A. Beauchamp, Jr., Mrs. G.C. Ritchie, Mrs. Don Ham, Mrs. Glen Cardwell and Mrs. Wayne Doty.

YOU CAN BANK ON IT!

Bill Loyd, President
Muleshoe State Bank

Getting the total in your checkbook to agree with the figures on your bank statement can be either next to impossible or relatively easy. The process of making these figures agree is called reconciliation. Here are some tips to make it simpler.

1 - Don't wait around, do the reconciliation the day you receive your bank statement.
2 - Take your checks from the bank statement, put them in numerical order and compare them with your checkbook. Mark your checkbook to indicate which checks have cleared the bank (these will be in the statement).

3 - Subtract from the balance showing in your checkbook any bank charges or draft payments not shown in your checkbook.

4 - Now on the statement, add the total of any deposits you've made which are not shown on the statement to the last balance shown (on the statement).

5 - From this new total, subtract any checks written which are not listed on the statement. This should be the same figure as the adjusted total in your checkbook.

If your addition checks out but there is still a difference, come by and we'll be glad to help.

Miss Osborne, Mauney United In Marriage

Sheer camelot sleeves were banded with Venice lace just above the cuffs, and on the cuffs. A bandeau of organza daisies held a bouffant veil of illusion.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of blue daisies, stephanotis and baby's breath, surrounding a small white Bible for the ceremony. Mrs. Linda Somers, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Vicki Rudd, Miss Deania Pennington both of Milpitas, served as bridesmaids.

All For One, Or Nothing...?

GUEST EDITORIAL

Now that the curtain has come down on the Republican Convention and the delegates have chosen the team to lead them in battle against the Democrats, one big question still remains.

Put simply, it is: Can or will the two factions who have waged a bitter eight-month struggle now join forces for a two-month showdown with Jimmy Carter and Sen. Walter F. Mondale?

Or, worded a bit differently, are those who call themselves Republicans - of whatever conservative philosophy - willing to work together not only to perhaps win in November, but to "save" the party?

In choosing President Gerald Ford to head the ticket over the very strong bid of challenger Ronald Reagan, the Republicans have chosen wisely, in our estimation.

Mr. Ford, considering the circumstances in which he assumed the presidency, the fact that he has had to deal with a heavily dominated Democratic Congress and that he has had almost as much criticism within his party as from the Democrats, has done a most respectable job.

Basically, he has steered the nation on a steady course, both in the domestic and foreign areas.

He has managed to "tame" through his wise use of the veto and his appeal to a growing number of concerned Americans some of the irresponsible acts and legislation of a runaway Congress.

He has brought a wholesome approach to the White House, both as a family man and as one of the world's most powerful men. In brief, through a dignified and honest "partnership" with those he has served, he has attempted to restore confidence in the American way of life.

All of this may mean nothing to the disappointed backers of Ronald Reagan.

It will be that the Californian's supporters will follow him into political "retirement" and sit on their hands or stay away from the polls come November.

This would be suicide - for President Ford, for the Republican Party and perhaps even for the nation. The basic philosophies of Mr. Ford and Mr. Reagan are not that far apart. Mr. Reagan waged an intensive, honorable and forthright battle.

His efforts brought into focus some of the issues which needed to be discussed. In so doing, he performed a service to the Republican Party, and to the nation.

The zeal and organizational ability of the Reagan forces must be admired for the manner in which they turned the challenger's campaign around and made him a most viable candidate in midstream, so to speak.

But, if their efforts are to count for anything, if they are to gain any respectability as responsible Republicans and as American citizens, then they will throw that same effort behind President Ford. Anything less and the whole exercise of the past eight months, as well as their high-sounding pledges of wanting to help move America forward will go for naught.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN—The State Department of Highways and Transportation is inflation-strapped and cash-short and we must supply a transfusion if Texas is to maintain a level of repair on its roads and complete needed new construction.

If we do not support our highway system, then we will be impairing the economic vitality and mobility which we have in this state today. The resulting losses will be in jobs, new businesses, goods and services and above all the well-being of our people who use our highways and roads.

Therefore, I believe dedicating three-fourths of the motor vehicle sales tax to the Highway Fund has merit. It is a method I have suggested for several months and one with which Governor Briscoe agrees.

I would likewise support the governor's position on dedication revenues from taxes on items such as tires, parts and accessories.

Before we go further, however, we need to have a full accounting of what additional steps in supplying funds from general revenue would have on the state treasury.

I have commended the Highways and Transportation Department for first looking at itself and recognizing that there were many places where it could reduce itself and strip fat and cost.

The result has been a reduction in the size of the department and this has been good for the state. I would not want to see any new funds used to re-establish the department to its former size in number of employees. The department, along with other state agencies, should be looking closely at using the services of free enterprise whenever possible. One example is weed mowing on highway right-of-way. In-house cost of such an operation is much more costly than contracting for the same services in the private sector.

Another example is the in-house engineering capabilities of the Highway Department. In the past it has been the department's policy to staff for peak loads. When the work was caught up, the department was left with a huge tip of fat and nothing for the employees to do for long periods of time.

Historically it has been shown that the private sector can perform more economically than government. My research shows that in the instance of highway engineering, the private sector can perform highway engineering design for 8 to 11 per cent of construction cost.

By comparison, the estimated range for in-house design can run from 18 to 23 per cent of construction cost.

It would be more advantageous to staff for the normal course of work and call in the private sector when we reach peak periods.

It is my position that government should not be in competition with private business. I would much rather see additional job opportunities in the private sector than in government.

The web of our life is of a mingled yarn, good and ill together.

New School Lunch Policy Outline

Muleshoe Schools has long recognized the need for helping meet the nutritional needs of its students, said Superintendent Neal Dillman. The following schools, Richland Hills Primary, Mary DeShazo Elementary, Muleshoe Junior High and Muleshoe High School serve a well balanced nutritious lunch each school day. The charge to students who pay is 50 cents for Kindergarten, first and second grades; 55 cents for third, fourth and fifth grades; and 65 cents for the sixth through 12th grades. However, since some families find it difficult to pay this full price, the school will provide these lunches free of charge or at a reduced price to those children determined by the Director of Special Programs to be unable to pay the full price for their lunches.

Lazbuddie School Superintendent Sam Barnes has also released a school lunch policy identical to the one released by Muleshoe. The policy is required by all schools in the state and all schools are required to notify the school districts of the lunch policies as outlined.

Families who feel that their children may be eligible for free or reduced price lunches may apply. Copies of the application form were sent home in a letter to parents earlier this week. Additional copies may be obtained from each building Principal. The complete application, signed by an adult member of the family should be returned to the building Principal. Such applications will be reviewed promptly within 1-3 days the family will be notified as to the decision made. All information provided on the application will be held in the strictest confidence. Decisions for approval will be based on the following Income Scales:

THE RAPTURE
The Bible makes it clear that the first thing that will happen in the future, will be the "Rapture Of The Church". This event could happen in the very near future. We are told of the "Rapture Of The Church" many times in the Bible.
For our study today, we will use two of these verses, I. Thess. 4:16-18. "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout with the voice of the arch angel and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord."

As we look into what has been said in these verses, we find God's Promise of a time when Jesus Christ is going to appear in the skies. He is going to give a shout. His voice will be like the trump of God, and all of a sudden, every dead Christian will be resurrected from their grave. At the same moment every living Christian will be caught up and immediately taken to heaven with them.

This event is given more clearly in I. Corinthians 15:51-52 "Behold I show you a mystery; we shall not all sleep (die), but we shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible and we shall be changed."
So we see that the "Rapture" is a time when the Lord is going to come back and is going to transport His church from Earth up to Heaven. There are many today who think very little of the Church. When He comes for His church, they will be left behind.
At His coming, the dead who have been saved, will be immediately resurrected and in their new bodies will be taken up to Heaven. Those Christians who are alive on Earth will immediately be changed and taken up to Heaven, too. So when we mention the Rapture, we are talking about that time when in a moments time all saved Christians are taken from the earth up to Heaven. Thus leaving only the Christ rejectors and unsaved on the earth.

The Bible plainly teaches that the "Rapture Of The Church" will occur before the great Tribulation comes on the Earth. We are promised that before "World War III" comes (We can see how close that war is even right now) but before it comes, before the Nuclear Explosions, before the disaster of the Nuclear War, God's genuine converted followers will all be taken to Heaven, so that the horrible destruction will come only upon unbelievers.
There are many Scriptures that firmly teach that the Rapture happens before this great judgement comes to the Earth. I will call your attention to a few of these Scriptures: In Rev. 3:10 we find that God has promised to keep that faithful Church, this was the Church that kept the Word of God, that stood for old fashioned fundamentals of the faith, and in this verse we find God promising to keep them from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, try them, or to condemn them, that dwell on the earth. So we see that God has promised to keep His true Church from this hour of tribulation, or from the Tribulation period, we will be taken to Heaven first.

In Rev. 4:1-2 we find the Bible plainly teaching that after the church age ends, (which it ended in chapter 3) the next thing that happened, as John saw the future unfold, was that the Church was taken up to Heaven. Note what He said. (After this ... (in other words after the church age)... I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me;... (and of course you'll remember that at the Rapture the voice of Christ sounds as a trumpet) ... which said, Come up hither ... (now again we find the Church taken to heaven before the judgements come upon the Earth, though it may get bad and we may suffer some, we will be taken to Heaven before the judgements come upon the Earth.

If you look in the Bible, you will find one startling fact, that fact is ... God never punishes his people with the wicked.
If you turn to Gen. 6 you will find that before God sent the flood on the earth, He saw that Noah was safely in the ark.
In the middle of the book of Genesis, you will find the occasion where God rained FIRE AND BRIMSTONE upon Sodom and Gomorrah, but before this destruction came, Lot, that saved person, was taken out safely.
So it is throughout the Bible, God always delivers His people before destruction comes.

The Lieutenant Governor's Report By Bill Hobby

AUSTIN-The 64th Texas Legislature established an 18-member committee, the Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations, to review the functions and responsibilities of agencies of Texas government. This Committee, also referred to as the "Little Hoover Commission," is composed of nine citizens, seven legislators and two members of the executive branch. It is investigating ways to increase the economy and efficiency of state government and will submit its recommendations to the 65th Legislature which will convene next January.

Continued increases in the cost of state government and difficulties in monitoring and controlling the programs and operations of a state government with over 200 state agencies are two of the principal reasons for the creation of the Joint Advisory Committee.

State appropriations for the current 1976-1977 biennium reflect an overall increase of 25% over the previous biennium. Almost one-half of the current $12.1 billion appropriation is allocated for education. Colleges, universities, and associated institutions absorb $2.2 billion, or 18% of the Total budget, and the state's contribution to public school education accounts for an additional $3.7 billion, or 31% of the total.

Current appropriations for health, welfare, and rehabilitation services are $3.2 billion, or 26% of the total. The two other major budget items are highways and public transportation ($1.6 billion or 14% of the total) and executive and administrative agencies ($1.3 billion or 11% of the total).

In working for greater economy and efficiency in government, the Joint Advisory Committee will be faced with the problem of targeting areas where savings can be made without reducing needed services or passing on costs to other units of government. A large portion of the state's budget is allocated to other governmental units, particularly local school and community junior college districts. Changes in other state programs could also affect local government revenue and expenditure requirements.

Similar studies in other states have concentrated on organization and management. Most have favored consolidation of agencies with similar programs, usually under functionally integrated departments.

More limited efforts in many states have typically resulted in the consolidation of agencies under such headings as natural resources, environmental protection, transportation and administration. Other states have concentrated more specifically on management issues.

Although the Joint Advisory Committee may study major reorganization questions or issues concerning executive policy direction, the committee's early emphasis has been directed toward management and program evaluation questions. These include the identification of programs or activities that are unnecessary, inefficient, or duplicative and those whose goals conflict with other programs.
