Two Masked Men Kidnap California Man

ENTERED HOME AFTER PARTY TO SEIZE HIM

William F. Gettle Kidnaped And Friend Bound And Gagged.

LOS ANGELES, May 10.—Two masked kidnapers defied the iron gates and high walls of an exclusive Arcadia estate to kidnap William F. Gettle, 47, wealthy retired business man of Beverly Hills, and hold him prisoner today. Police were convinced Gettle was held for ransom rather than as a victim of revenge. Gettle was seized last night just as a swimming party was breaking up at his palatial home. He and James P. Wolff, a friend, were loitering in a party house in the rear of the grounds when the two abductors appeared. They covered Gettle and his guest with ropes and adhesive tape, then fled with Gettle as their hostage. In their haste to depart they dropped the 200-pound business man from the top of the high wall. Wolff was left behind, tied to a tree. "Listen, you, this is a kidnaping," Wolff was warned as the men disappeared over the wall. "Don't give the alarm for an hour if you know what is good for you." Trampled weeds and tire tracks in a narrow alley showed that the gunmen had escaped in an automobile. Although no ransom demands have been made, police are certain they will be.

PROOF IS SENT ROBLES FAMILY JUNE IS ALIVE

TUCSON, Ariz., May 10.—Tangible proof that June Robles, six-year-old kidnaped heiress, is still alive, was contained in a note delivered to the county attorney's office Monday night, it was learned today. The note, thrust under the door of the county attorney, contained answers to a set of questions June's father, Fernando Robles, propounded in a direct appeal to the kidnapers more than a week ago. The note, found in the prosecutor's office, contained satisfactory replies, it was said, to questions June alone could answer.

TO THE PUBLIC

The Eastland Daily Telegram and the Weekly Chronicle, having signed the Graphic Arts Code approved by Hugh Johnson under the Federal Recovery Act, is operating under that code and following it to the letter. The Graphic Arts Code authorities have approved a price schedule, and methods for arriving at the cost of commercial printing, which each and every commercial printer is bound under the code to comply with in making prices on commercial printing. The Daily Telegram and Weekly Chronicle, just like the other commercial printers of this county who are under the same code these papers are under, received these price schedules by collect express. The cost of administering this Graphic Arts Code is assessed against the commercial printers coming under it, and these newspapers have paid their assessments. We respectfully ask the cooperation of the people in putting this code into effect and living up to its rules and regulations. Eastland Daily Telegram. Eastland Weekly Chronicle.

The 9:45 Bible class is having a special program at the Sunday school hour, and a combined service of all departments will follow at the preaching hour. The Martha Dorcas class will occupy the choir and furnish special music.

S. J. Petty, football coach of the school, states that the initial employment of new rules, in Eastland, will be made during the procedure of the game. The new rules concern play around the goals and it is thought work for the benefit of the offensive teams. Because of streptom of fundamentals in spring training, the coach has advised the two teams will in all likelihood not play in smooth manner as little emphasis has been given to the actual playing of football.

An elaborate box of candy, donated by the Palace of Sweets, was presented to Nora Frances Mahon for all the losing contestants. A fine spirit of good sportsmanship was manifested throughout by all the contestants. The library netted the sum of $63.65 from the contest. The contest closed with a picnic and half holiday at the city park. The students brought sandwiches, potato chips, and cookies Friday morning. About 9:30 the mothers of the Parent-Teacher association came by the school and gathered up all the food and carried it up to the park. Especially do they want to thank those who donated gifts to be presented the winners of the contest, and those who donated articles of food for the picnic.

Disarmament Is Mourned As Dead

LONDON, May 10.—All over Europe today statesmen sadly were proclaiming the end of disarmament efforts, attempting to shift the blame on each other, fixing old-fashioned war-like alliances and selling munitions to future enemies. Many times disarmament has been pronounced dead, only to stagger weakly up from the grave. This time agreement seemed general death was a fact and that it could be revived only in a new incarnation. Great Britain was reported to have reconciled itself finally to failure, last of the great European powers.

Huge Tarantula Is Caught at Belton

BELTON, Tex.—John Dillinger was captured here—but not the murderer John you're thinking about. Policeman J. F. Vannoy made the capture, and exhibited John, in a quart fruit jar. John was a tarantula. He seemed to resent the treatment that was being accorded him as he was handled by many people and turned over so that better views of his hideousness could be obtained. He had a body and leg spread sufficiently wide to touch the bottom of the jar and the top at the same time without apparent exertion.

Habeas Corpus Is Denied to Insull

CHICAGO, May 10.—Judge Will M. Sparks of the United States circuit court of appeals today denied a writ of habeas corpus to reduce the $200,000 bond demanded for release of Samuel Insull from the county jail. Judge Sparks in denying the writ and ordering that the 74-year-old Insull remain in jail until his friends obtain the bail, said: "I do not want to make this court of appeals attractive for such petitions." Insull's attorneys argued that the one-time multimillionaire's friends could raise bond of only $150,000. Insull, confined to the hospital ward of the county jail, was not in court.

SENATE VOTES BILL TO ALLOW SMALL CREDITS

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The senate today passed, without debate, the bill to establish a federal credit union system for extension of credits to persons of small means at nominal interest rates. The bill now goes to the house. The credit union plan was sponsored by Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas. The bill provides for a federal organization to supervise operation of credit unions, described as a co-operative society enabling its members to save money in good times and borrow money at low interest in times of emergency.

Wheat Failure In Mid-West Is Aid To the New Deal

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Grasshoppers, dust storms and drought cooperated with the New Deal today in aiding a glutted wheat market. Experts receiving reports from 352 counties of 11 states where farmers are threatened with catastrophes, believed that even a crop failure would leave the country with an accumulated wheat surplus. Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace believes the mid-west drought condition is the worst since 1894 but is certain also the wheat surplus will be enough for all requirements.

Ripley Wants to Exhibit Old Rip At World's Fair

Though the fame of Eastland's horned frog, Old Rip, frequently flares anew, the old boy just can't be forgotten as is evidenced by a letter from J. C. Simpson, secretary to Robert L. Ripley, creator of the syndicated feature, "Believe It or Not," who wants to obtain Rip for exhibition in the "World's Fair in Chicago." The letter advises that Rip will be given the best of care and will be protected by insurance if he is allowed to be exhibited in the museum. The mummy of Old Rip has taken many trips, including a tour of the East at which time it was presented to President Coolidge. On another occasion the frog was taken to Florida.

AMARILLO, May 10.—Defense attorneys today prepared to file an appeal from the five-year sentence given Joe Moore, Amarillo attorney, following his conviction on a charge of murder without malice in connection with the death of three-year-old Shirley Pauline Palmeter, March 21. The child was killed as she played in the front yard of her parents' home when an automobile hurtled the street curbing and struck her. Moore was accused of driving the car while intoxicated.

Roosevelt Signs New Revenue Bill

WASHINGTON, May 10.—President Roosevelt today signed the 1934 revenue bill, which eases the burden on small income tax payers and is calculated to raise $417,000,000 yearly. The president signed the bill in the presence of the chairman of the fiscal committee of the senate and house.

Telephone Head Raps the Rayburn Bill at Hearing

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Assailing the Rayburn communications control bill as an attempt to set up a "regime of public management over private property," Walter Gifford, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, condemned the measure at hearings before the house interstate commerce committee today. The bill would take over control of all communications agencies, assuming present regulatory functions of the commerce and federal radio commission. "Federal control will wreck the telephone industry," Gifford declared. "Present decentralized operation would be transformed into rigid, centralized bureaucratic operation. This would devitalize the very principles of management which have been responsible for progress of telephony in this country."

AMERICAN PROGRESS AND AMERICAN METHODS

The chamber of commerce of the United States is holding its annual convention in the city of Washington. Henry I. Harriman is the retiring president. He will sound the slogan Wednesday in the opening address scheduled. He will speak on "American Progress and American Methods."

In a foreword the big chief of the national Chamber of Commerce declared the fundamental question "of the extent to which the nation still faces an economic emergency will be projected for a business man's answer." Furthermore, the answer to the question is regarded as basic because the attitude of the Chamber toward the Roosevelt administration may be determined by it. As officially stated, one question is emphasized: "To what extent has the upswing in business been due to governmental action and how much through the operation of natural economic forces?" This will be followed by the further inquiry: "What forces of business action and governmental policies affecting business does the situation now demand?" Furthermore, the purpose of the convention is further defined as "to bring the business thought of the country to bear on policies and measures necessary to insure the greatest possible degree of future economic stability. What legislative enactments should be made permanent? What should be amended and what should be dropped when the emergency is over?"

A nationwide election will take place in the fall of the year. There may come a realignment of American voters. Those who believe in the Roosevelt New Deal policies may be found in one camp, and those who are opposed to New Deal legislation may be found on the other side or rather in the camp of the opposition. May priaries the nation over may tell the story of the drift of the political mind in the secession of candidates for national lawmakers. Thirty or more United States senators will be elected this year. All members of the national house of representatives will be elected. The ballot is the thing and there are millions of voters more government-minded today than ever before in the history of this republic.

Sometimes a convenient memory comes in handy. Sometimes it brings you grief. It does not pay to hunt grief. It finds you soon enough.

and an outstanding mark of her physical features was a long, slender face. Lucas, after the couple had driven away, went to a station further east and queried attendants as to the appearance of the couple, but they had not stopped. Virge Foster, Eastland county sheriff, after being notified of the incident, asked Lucas as to the description of the drivers of the car in question and it tallied with a photograph of Barrow which later Foster showed Lucas. An investigation by Sheriff Foster of the appearance of the couple at filling stations between Eastland and Ranger failed to throw light on the episode. Sheriff Foster doubts if the couple was Barrow and the Parker woman.

1934 Maverick Eleven Includes Five Lettermen

S. J. Petty, football coach of Eastland high school, has for the past five weeks coached the nucleus of what in the football season will be the 1934 Eastland Mavericks. The coach, apparently is of the opinion that a good football team, as a house, must have a sturdy foundation, as he has stressed fundamentals over the other points of the game. There are five lettermen who will be included in the hold-overs from last year. These are: John Garrison, Clifford Cook, Darrel Tulley, D. C. Frost and Billie Joe Bagley. Squadmen who will be holdovers are: John Hart, Ben Mackall, Bob Sikes, A. G. Gary.

Billy Jones, Albert Martin, Truman Brown, Bill Shoopman, Andy Taylor, L. A. Dolberry, Aubrey Brawner, Jack Tranthom, Irving Cottingham and Horace Horton. Newcomers who have been out for spring training are Clyde Garrett, John Frank Williams, Johnny Fehl, Weslie and Bill Lane. Petty thinks the prospects are good this year for a better team than was had by the school last year. The boys have better spirit and more determination, which make it more evident that they are out for victory, according to Petty. The season for Eastland is complete except for the date of September 28, which will be played at Eastland.

Bullock Church To Have Mothers Day Services

After the Sunday school hour the Mother's Day program at the Bullock Methodist church will commence. In the forenoon Dr. C. Q. Smith will bring a Mother's Day message. If time permits, Brother Collins will make a brief talk. Special songs and special musical number will be sung. After dinner there will be two messages. Bert McGlamery of Eastland has been invited to speak upon the subject, "The Family and the Church." The final talk will be delivered by Mr. D. Joseph, a merchant of Ranger. He will tell about his trip and adventures in the Holy Land. His native home is Beysour, Syria, located 75 miles from the old city of Damascus and 295 miles from the ancient city of Jerusalem. The remainder of the time will be occupied in singing. All people interested in singing are urged to come and assist. Unless the Mt. Zion Methodist church folk come to the program at Bullock, the pastor will preach a Mother's Day message, "Motherhood and Calvary," at 3 o'clock at Mt. Zion.

Eastland Station Man Says Barrow Was In Eastland

C. T. Lucas, Eastland filling station operator on East Main street, thinks that a man and woman who drove into his station Wednesday afternoon in a car which tallied with the one reported to be driven by Clyde Barrow, was the desperado and his companion, Bonnie Parker. According to Lucas, the Ford V-8 was driven into the station at about 3 o'clock, both man and woman were smoking, description of the type of smoking material, he did not notice. The couple drove in fast and from his position in the office of the station their actions made it evident they desired to refill their gas tank, but without explaining their actions, quickly shifted into low gear and made a quick getaway. As they dashed from the station, both looked back, giving Lucas a better opportunity to observe them. The man driving the car had an unusually large head, and dark hair. The woman had auburn hair
