FAMED CARTOONIST IS DEAD

FEDERATION WILL LEAVE WAY OPEN FOR REUNION WITH CIO

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 30 (AP)—American Federation of Labor leaders have decided informally to leave the door open for a reunion with John L. Lewis' C. I. O. This was learned today in well-informed quarters which stated the federation's executive council started the second week of its meeting. Council members decided informally not to expell the ten C. I. O. unions they suspended last September 5, in answer to a demand from a few unions that they sever the last bond between Lewis and the A. F. of L. These council members it was learned, felt there was no use locking the door as long as there was any chance for a reunion. Some of them felt that the Lewis revolt was only a phase in the development of the American labor movement and that, some time, some movement, the movement would be reunited. At a press conference last night, William Green, A. F. of L. president, said that the C. I. O. had blocked the growth of the labor movement by its rebellion. If the A. F. of L. had not been torn apart by civil war, he said, its membership today would have been even greater than the combined membership of the A. F. of L. and C. I. O. This combined membership has been estimated at 6,600,000.

Many Arrested In Vice Raids

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 30 (AP)—The federal bureau of investigation, with 137 persons already held in Mercer county jail as a result of vice raids in three states, moved swiftly today in search of the "higher-ups" in its drive to wipe out white slave traffic. FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover, who directed the arrests Saturday night at establishments in Atlantic City famed as a seashore resort and Philadelphia and Wilmington, Del., said 37 of the prisoners were "principals, procurers and madames" and 100 inmates and "maids." Federal agents planned to bring here from New York for questioning today a man identified by Hoover as Harry Roth, who he said was "reputedly a member of the Charles (Lucky) Luciano gang." Luciano is serving a 30-year prison term for vice operations. Hoover said he believed there was "some connection" between Roth, also arrested Saturday night, and the bringing of girls to Atlantic City. Seventeen alleged houses of ill fame were emptied at Atlantic City by 40 G-men led personally by Hoover.

STATE OFFICIALS VISITORS HERE

W. A. Little, state director for the old age assistance commission, Orville Carpenter, chairman of the state unemployment commission, and Eugene Guthrie, assistant to Carpenter, spent Sunday night here. While in Big Spring, they conferred with George G. White, district director for the old age assistance commission. They left early Monday for Austin.

WATER PRESSURE

City crews, moving a water main from the center of W. 3rd street to the side for a dual system, experienced a lively time about 3 a. m. Sunday when a 12-inch line was opened. The main, near the lowest part of the city's distributing system, blew a heavy valve shortly after a string of the line had been cut loose for moving. Heavy pressure which blew the cut-off flooded the ditch before the flow was stemmed by another valve a short distance away.

Hull Orders Protest On Bombing

No More Merchant Vessels Likely To Call At Shanghai

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. (AP)—Secretary Hull said today he had instructed Ambassador Nelson T. Johnson at Nanking to make a strong protest to the Chinese government on the bombing of the liner President Hoover.

"Not Unusual" The secretary said he was under the impression that merchant vessels of the United States would not call at Shanghai.

"The bombing is to be very much deplored," Secretary Hull said. "It is one of those not entirely unusual incidents that occur in conditions such as exist in that area." Regarding American merchant vessel calls at Shanghai, Hull said Admiral Harry E. Yarnell, Asiatic fleet commander, had directed the President Hoover to go to Kobe, Japan, but that no definite instructions had been given that other Dollar line ships avoid the war-torn port.

His expressed impression that the port would be avoided, however, was taken to mean that Dollar line as well as the vessels of any other line probably would cease to call there.

This raised the question of how Americans remaining in the city would be evacuated. The secretary said it was possible navy vessels would be made available for that purpose. He added that no decision had been reached.

China Carrying A Protest To League

GENEVA, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Chinese delegation to the league of nations told the Associated Press today it was filing with the league a protest against "Japan's aggression in China."

The protest will be delivered tonight, the delegation said. It does not make an appeal under any specific article of the league covenant, but is "an informative communication for members of the league," they explained.

The communication also is intended for members of the advisory committee created by the league assembly in 1932 after the Japanese army occupied Manchuria. Thus the United States officially will be informed, because it participated in the meeting of the advisory committee.

ASKS SUPPORT FOR MEASURE TO BAN PROFITS OF WAR

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 30 (AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg urged America's war veterans today to insist upon immediate legislation to take the profit out of war. "It may be hard on our cash registers but it will be easier on our souls," the republican senator from Michigan told delegates to the national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Vandenberg said he sought "new rules which will take the dollar signs off our battle flags forever." Besides new laws to take the profit out of war, he advocated a ban on potential military partnerships, loans to belligerents, and munitions sales to belligerents.

TEXAS WOMAN DIES

HOUSTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Mrs. Eugenia Clay Porter of Houston died at a hospital here today. She was the widow of Captain Sam Porter, former mayor of Sherman and veteran of the war between the states. She was the mother of Dr. M. P. Porter, professor of mathematics at the University of Texas. Besides her son, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Tassie of Houston and Mrs. W. H. Vinson of St. Paul. Funeral services will be held here at 5 p. m. Tuesday. Burial will be at Sherman.

CALIFORNIA IS NO PARADISE, WORK HUNTERS WARNED

Destitute farm families of other states are being warned of the risks they run in going to California, expecting to support themselves by work in the crop fields, or if that fails to find free shelter and relief in Resettlement Administration camps, according to John Barbee, county rural rehabilitation supervisor. "Distorted reports, picturing California as a paradise for the dispossessed of other areas are now being circulated," Mr. Barbee said. "These stories hold out false hopes and are likely to lead to cruel disappointments and increased misery if they induce people without money or prospects of employment to move to California, expecting to find the easy living conditions pictured in these tales."

COTTON LOAN TERMS TO BE ANNOUNCED LATE TODAY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Agriculture department officials said they probably would announce late today terms of the cotton loan and subsidy program for this year's crop. This was taken to mean an agreement had been reached on the amount to be loaned on the crop.

PACIFISTS PICKET JAP EMBASSY

This group of demonstrators, representing the American League Against War and Fascism, is shown before the Japanese embassy on Massachusetts avenue, Washington. One placard-bearer who crossed the embassy side was hustled back by police, who stood guard over the demonstration.

High Winds On Florida Coast

Tropical Storm Due Soon To Blow Itself Out

DAYTON BEACH, Fla., Aug. 30 (AP)—Winds reaching 50 miles an hour velocity whipped the Florida east coast between here and St. Augustine today as a small tropical storm moved inland from the Atlantic where it had kicked up heavy squalls for a week.

The weather bureau at Jacksonville said the storm center crossed the coastline about 10 a. m. between Ormond Beach and Flagler Beach. Forecaster Grady Norton predicted the disturbance would blow itself out in rain squalls over Northeastern Florida this afternoon.

There were no reports of personal injury in this area and only minor property damage was done. High seas pounded the coast but the coast guard reported no distress calls. The rain and wind caused temporary failure of power and communication facilities but service soon was restored here and at other coastal points affected.

FRENCH RESIDENTS MAY BE EXPELLED BY INSURGENTS

SAINT JEAN-DE-LUZ, France, Aug. 30 (AP)—Spanish insurgent sources said today all French residents had been warned to be ready to leave insurgent Spanish territory on 24 hours notice. Insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco was reported to be considering the expulsion of all Frenchmen in retaliation for France's action in ousting a group of Spanish insurgents living along the French Basque coast. The action was taken after what was termed the "kidnaping" of a Spanish government oil tanker in French water by young insurgents and other purported evidence of illegal insurgent activity in France.

CHARGED 6TH TIME

Dee Clark, jailed during the week end by city officers for drunkenness, has had six similar charges filed against him in corporate and justice court this year. He has been arrested by the city four times and by the constable twice for drunkenness since the beginning of the year.

CHARGES IN CRASH

NEW BRAUNFELS, Aug. 30 (AP)—Harry Balmos of New Braunfels had been charged with negligent homicide today in the death of L. B. Holder, San Antonio. Hoided died yesterday of injuries suffered in an automobile accident Saturday night. Bond for Balmos was set at $1,000.

Full Apology Anticipated By Britain

Situation From The Wounding Of Envoy Due To Blow Over

LONDON, Aug. 30. (AP)—British diplomats were confident today that Japan would apologize fully for the machine gun attack on Sir Hugh Montgomery Knatchbull-Hugessen, Britain's ambassador to China, and thus dissolve the Anglo-Japanese diplomatic tension. Although the protest, textually disclosed last night after its delivery in Tokyo to Foreign Minister Koki Hirota, was firmly worded it was regarded here as moderate.

There were strong indications the situation would blow over unless Japan adopts the most provocative attitude. London in unmistakable terms demanded satisfaction for the virtually unprecedented international incident a Japanese airman created when he strafed the envoy's automobile with his machine gun last Thursday as Sir Hugh was traveling from Nanking to Shanghai. Despite its emphatic nature, studies of the note indicated Britain does not plan to pursue any belligerent course should the Japanese hedge on the apology and other redress demanded.

Crash Kills Louisianan

Two Others Slightly Injured In Mishap West Of Here

J. B. Rhodes, 42, Homer, La., died in a local hospital at 9 p. m. Sunday, three hours after the car in which he was riding collided with another machine 10 miles west of here. E. W. Borden, 44, also of Homer, riding with Rhodes, escaped with cuts and bruises. Orville Hall, 22, Stanton, driver of the second car, was injured only slightly. Officers said that an investigation showed that the Rhodes car rounded a hill, swerving into a culvert, possibly after having blown a tire. The car careened back across the center of the road, striking the Hall machine which was pulled partially off the road to avoid being hit.

Impact of the collision spun the Rhodes car around to where it was facing east, the direction from which it came. Rhodes was en route to Odessa from Houston, authorities learned. His sister, Mrs. R. Morrogh, El Paso, was en route here Monday to take charge of arrangements. The body was at the Eberley Funeral home. Hall, an employe of the Eiland Motor company of Stanton, was driving toward Big Spring when the crash occurred.

Oil Business Is Under Control, Thompson Says

AUSTIN, Aug. 30 (AP)—Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the interstate oil compact commission, said in a statement today the nation had not overproduced this month and that "we are going into the fall with the oil business under control." Thompson, a member of the state railroad commission, cited an article in an Oklahoma City paper Sunday which he said stated that two of Oklahoma's most spectacular fields, the Moore and Fitts pools, were "hard hit" with water and declining bottomhole pressures.

R. L. Bobbitt Is Injured

Highway Chief, Wife And Son Hurt As Car Overturns

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 30 (AP)—Robert Lee Bobbitt, chairman of the state highway commission, his wife and 16-year-old son were injured today when the automobile in which they were riding overturned on the Laredo highway three miles south of Devine. The three were taken to a San Antonio hospital by ambulance. Bobbitt was severely bruised about the body, while Mrs. Bobbitt received numerous contusions and a deep gash in her left leg. Robert Lee Bobbitt, Jr., the son, had a fractured left arm. All three were suffering from shock.

ALLRED PONDER'S SESSION DATE

AUSTIN, Aug. 30 (AP)—Gov. James V. Allred flipped the calendar today to September 27 and postponed about the advisability of postponing the start of the legislative session until that date. The chief executive found that if the legislature convened on September 27 and two full sessions were necessary the last day of the second session would be Thanksgiving. He earlier had indicated he would reconvene the lawmakers in time for them to be home by Thanksgiving. He said he probably would decide definitely on the convening date before the end of the week.

FLOOD CONTROL, DROUTH AID MEASURES SIGNED BY FDR

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 30 (AP)—President Roosevelt tackled a fast-moving session of bills for post-adjournment action today after having signed into law measures to buttress the vast Ohio valley against future floods and the arid west against dust storms and droughts. He still was studying the important sugar stabilization and low-cost housing proposals, although several days remain for him to act. Disposition of one or the other was anticipated shortly. Once he finishes the tedious task left him by congress he will prepare for a few days of fishing off Block Island and possibly look in on some of the sailboat races on Long Island Sound. The president approved the 1937 flood control bill with its Ohio valley authorizations Saturday, but announcement was withheld until

EFFORTS TO MOVE OUT AMERICANS ARE HALTED

Chinese Govt. Accepts Blame, Offers Redress For 'Regrettable Mistake'; Three Passengers Shell-Shocked

SHANGHAI, Aug. 30. (AP)—A swift fleet of four Chinese bombing planes blasted the big American Dollar liner President Hoover by mistake in the China sea today, wounding seven of her seamen and halting America's efforts to get United States women and children out of bloody Shanghai.

The national government of China, at Nanking, accepted full responsibility for the "most regrettable, unfortunate mistake." It offered "the fullest redress." "One pilot," the Chinese authorities said, bombed it was one of ten Japanese troop ships. Japanese destroyers were in the vicinity at the time.

Independent reports indicated there were four bombers.

CIO May Act To Halt War Shipments

Move Seen As Effort To Bring Neutrality Act Into Effect

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—C. I. O. threat of a strike to prevent an American ship from carrying war supplies to China added a new problem today to the difficulties raised for federal officials by the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

Ralph Emerson, legislative representative for the National Maritime union, predicted a sit-down strike by union seamen would prevent the government-owned freighter, Wichita, from reaching China with a cargo of bombing planes and barbets.

"I will never get past Manila," Emerson said. The National Maritime union is an affiliate of John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization. Emerson also expressed the opinion the maritime commission, finding itself in a delicate position by virtue of its ownership of the freighter, would take steps to end the Wichita's voyage.

The Wichita sailed from Baltimore Friday just before Secretary Hull received Japan's official notification of a blockade of Chinese ports. Japan's advice said her blockade would be aimed only at Chinese shipping and would not affect "peaceful commerce" of other nations.

Emerson's threat of a sit-down strike to prevent the Wichita from reaching China was regarded here as an unofficial move to put into operation one of the chief features of American neutrality law—a ban on shipment of war implements and supplies to warring nations.

Emerson said the seamen were extremely reluctant to engage in the hazardous service of carrying war cargoes even if suggestions of a $250 bonus for each crew member were carried out. If the Wichita crosses to China, with her cargo, observers of the Sino-Japan situation speculated on whether Japan would regard the movement of the vessel as "peaceful commerce." The Wichita scheduled to stop at San Pedro, Calif., is not due to reach China for several weeks.

MISHAP IS FATAL

TYLER, Aug. 30 (AP)—C. F. Tye, 46, of Tyler, brakeman for the Cotton Belt railroad, was killed under the wheels of a freight train on which he had been working about two miles south of Big Sandy today. The remains were found along a program of projects for construction and maintenance of ponds, reservoirs, wells, check dams and pumping installations in dry areas where it would promote "proper utilization" of lands.

The secretary could sell or lease, with or without money consideration, such water storage facilities and furnish financial assistance to individuals and agencies for their development. In the cooperative venture he could require enactment of state and local laws conforming to federal law, as well as contributions in money, services and materials to any operations conferring benefits

What Would You Do?

Butterfly Motif

By RUTH ORE PATTERN No. 466

It won't be long before summer slip-overs will have to come off, and reveal some spots on your favorite chairs. Begin now to make attractive chair sets to hide the bad places. Or if it's a brand new chair that you want to keep nice, the set will serve equally well. The usual flit is varied a bit by a panel of larger spaces in the center, and the butterflies are made daintier in the same way.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy to understand illustrated directions, with block and space diagrams to aid you; also what crochet hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 466, and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address Big Spring Herald, Needlework Department, P. O. Box 172, Station D, New York, N. Y.

Edward Fisher returned Friday from Camp Stewart, near Kerrville, where he has been for the past month.

Mrs. Jim Greene Is Bluebonnet Club Hostess

Mrs. Jim Greene was hostess recently to members and guests of the Bluebonnet Club of Colorado. Miss Frances Lepton of Colorado and Mrs. Joe Ponds, daughter of the hostess, were tea guests. At the close of a concession of bridge games, Mrs. Greene served a delectable plate of salad with an ice course.

Colorado guests included Mrs. F. C. Coleman, Mrs. Oscar Major, Mrs. R. E. Looney, Mrs. Frank Lepton, Mrs. E. A. Barcroft, Mrs. Harry Landers, Mrs. Byrne Burn, Mrs. Y. D. McMurtry, and Mrs. R. M. Motley.

Guests from Big Spring were Mrs. V. Van Gleason, Mrs. J. B. Young and Mrs. Joe Fisher.

Frances Bledsoe And J. E. Forman Recite Marriage Vows

Miss Frances Bledsoe of Big Spring and J. E. Forman of California recited their marriage vows Saturday evening about 10 o'clock in the home of Rev. C. E. Lancaster at 1709 South Main.

The couple was attended by parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Bledsoe of 406 Alford. They will make their home here.

WOMANLESS WEDDING TO BE PRESENTED

STANTON, Aug. 30.—Plans are being made for presentation of "The Womanless Wedding," to be sponsored by the Methodist Missionary society and presented at a near date, probably Sept. 10, at the school auditorium.

Arrangements for the play are under direction of a committee composed of Mrs. O. B. Bryan, Mrs. Morgan Hall, and Mrs. Raymond Van Zandt.

H. R. (Hank) Robb, Jr., of Pasadena, Cal., is visiting in the home of Mrs. Dall Hatch for a few days before continuing to Rowwell, N. M., where he is to resume his studies in the New Mexico Military Institute.

READING AND WRITING

By JOHN SELBY

"ENGLAND EXPECTS EVERY AMERICAN TO DO HIS DUTY," by Quincy Howe; (Simon & Schuster; $2).

This reader enjoyed Quincy Howe's "England Expects Every American to Do His Duty" and, naturally, even though he didn't believe all of it, Mr. Howe has lived abroad quite a lot, has worked since graduating in 1921 from Harvard at many things appropriate to a Harvard graduate. But proving the thesis that England is only manipulating the United States for her own selfish ends is a quite tough job.

Mr. Howe sees an Englishman, a man who is not only a debile in Downing street. He even finds that the Engineer president, Herbert Hoover, was really a British representative in the White House.

Mr. Howe discovers (by the way, he is editor of the house which publishes his book) that there exists today a British network of spies and propagandists even more efficient than the one which induced us to pull British chestnuts out of a world conflagration 20 years ago. Britain's position grows progressively weaker, Mr. Howe thinks, and her need of us grows stronger in similar ratio.

In fact, it's only a question of time until, in the new World war we shall be dragged into the arena to hold up what Mr. Howe calls Britain's "dead hand." This may be quite likely to be dangerous for us, and anyway, the proceedings would be futile in the main because an isolationist policy would serve to keep peace in the world so much better.

This goes on at a great rate. Mr. Howe writes so well one has to take hold of his convictions with both hands to avoid being persuaded against will and reason. And there is enough truth in what Mr. Howe says to justify taking his little book seriously, at that. Perhaps he has only exaggerated for dramatic emphasis.

Prather-Glickman Rites Read In Fort Worth

The marriage of Miss Ida Prather to Julius Glickman was solemnized August 24 in Fort Worth, it was announced here recently.

Mrs. Glickman is a nurse at the Big Spring hospital, a place she has held since coming to Big Spring from New Orleans in April. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Prather of Brookhaven, Miss.

The bridegroom has been a resident in this city for the past four years, coming here from Dallas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Glickman of Fort Worth and is employed at the LaMotte, ladies' dress shop.

The bride was married in a light blue suit with navy accessories.

Wilson-Patton Nuptials Are Solemnized By Rev. W. S. Garnett

Miss Mae Dell Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson, became the bride of E. Garrett Patton at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening in the study of Rev. W. S. Garnett, pastor of the East Fourth Street Baptist church, who performed the ceremony.

Announcement of the wedding to be revealed August 20 at a party given for Miss Wilson in the home of Mrs. Gene Cronshaw, when Mrs. Earl Wilson and Mrs. Arthur Caywood entertained.

Mothers of the bride and groom were present for the ceremony.

Fishers Expected Home From Tour Of East

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fisher and son, Albert, Jr., who have been touring in eastern states for the past month, are expected to return to Big Spring this evening. While in the east, Mr. Fisher was in the New York City markets for his store, the Albert M. Fisher company department store. Gilbert Gibbs of the local store left Saturday night to join Mr. and Mrs. Fisher at Texarkana.

O.E.S. NOTICE

The O. E. S. annual picnic will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the city park, it was announced. All members and their families are invited to attend and bring a basket. Mrs. Blanche Hall, Worthy Matron, encourages a large attendance.

Mellon Trust May Exceed That Of Famed Rockefeller Foundation

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30 (UP)—Andrew W. Mellon's millions, all to be spent in promotion of mankind's "well doing or well being," will go into a trust whose size may exceed that of the famed Rockefeller Foundation.

Disclosure of the surprising bequest came a few hours after the 52-year-old financier's frail body had been placed Saturday, in a vault beside that of his beloved brother, Richard B., who had helped him amass one of the world's great fortunes.

Donald D. Shepard, Mellon's attorney, said that with the exception of $180,000 to go to personal employes, Mellon's will directed the remainder to go to the A. W. Mellon Educational and Charitable trust.

DRAGHON STUDENTS RETURNS TO CANYON

Mrs. Opal Creighton Newton, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Creighton, left Sunday for her home in Canyon. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from West Texas State Teachers college recently.

SAYS CIVIL SERVICE PLAN GAINS FAVOR

FORT WORTH, Aug. 30 (UP)—The idea of civil service for all postoffice employees except those in policy making positions has gained favor with Congress, John J. Barrett of New York, president of the National Association of Postoffice Clerks, had declared here today.

Barrett, here for the thirty-fifth annual convention of his organization, opening today, said representatives and senators were realizing that dispensation of patronage in the postoffice department does them more harm than good.

"We find congressmen and senators have come to the realization that patronage often has been their downfall," said Barrett. "For every position they fill there are a thousand disappointed applicants."

He said the association was not satisfied with President Roosevelt's executive order placing postmasters under civil service, and would not be satisfied until legislation was enacted extending civil service to all but the policy-making posts.

SUSPECTS HELD IN UNANNOUNCED JAIL

TYLER, Aug. 30 (UP)—Whereabouts of two negroes accused of criminal assault on a Longview white woman, and the robbery of her husband, was a secret today to all but officers who transferred them from jail here for safekeeping.

Harrison County Attorney Benjamin Woodall said at Marshall the two brothers, Roscoe and Henderson Young, both in their teens, had made a statement, but its contents would not be revealed until the case was brought to trial, probably next month.

City Detective Jim Adams of Tyler said a pistol believed used in the Longview case led to arrest of the two, who signed statements admitting eight burglaries here.

The woman and her husband reported late last Sunday two negroes forced them to halt their automobile, drove to a side road, assaulted the wife, and robbed the husband of $144 and a watch.

Man Killed, Two Wounded In Roadhouse Fight

TEXARKANA, Aug. 30 (UP)—A gun battle in a roadhouse in the southwest tip of Miller county, Arkansas, today had led to the death of one man, the serious wounding of another, and the less serious injury of the dead man's stepdaughter.

Physicians gave Met Larey, 31, of Fouke, Ark., shot through his bladder, a slight chance to recover, but Donald McKinney, 38, unemployed trucker of Rodessa, La., died instantly after he was shot four times in the head, side and arm.

Larey admitted, Sheriff Tom Seward said, he fired the death shots, but declared he did so only in self defense and after McKinney had turned a gun on him after wounding the girl, Virginia (Billie) Heister, in the hip. Larey said he was attempting to prevent McKinney's shooting the girl, when he, himself, was shot.

The girl whose age is seventeen years, was under treatment in a hospital at Atlanta, Tex. Larey was brought to a hospital here.

Prosecuting Attorney Ned Stewart said investigation of the case had not yet developed information warranting filing of charges.

REBEL KILLED GUADALAJARA, Mexico, Aug. 30 (UP)—A rebel leader known only by his nickname "El Cocula," was killed yesterday in an encounter with federal troops near Agatlan de Juarez. Mortally wounded by the soldiers' bullets, an aide fell near El Cocula's body.

Death Probe Under Way

Woman And Brother Under Bond On Slaying Charge

ATHENS, Aug. 30 (AP)—Officers looked to chemistry today for a possible solution of the death of John Beckham of Tyler, while they charged his common law wife with murder.

Beckham died when he fell off a bridge into waters of Trinidad lake near here August 15, and officers said he pulled A. A. Jackson, a brother of his wife, in with him. Both were listed as drowned.

But later Beckham's body was exhumed, and the viscera carried to J. H. Arnett, chemist for the state public safety department at Austin, for an examination which Arnett said would not be completed for several days.

Mrs. Crystal Beckham, meanwhile, had departed for Corsicana after surrendering to Sheriff Jess Sweeten Saturday, posting bond of $5,000 and declaring "I am not guilty, and I am not afraid." Her brother, J. W. Jackson, arrested with her, was released on bond of $2,500.

Officers said Beckham had passed an examination for an insurance policy but they had not yet determined whether it was in force when he died.

Sheriff Sweeten said J. W. Jackson had made a statement that his sister had warned the brothers not to drink of whiskey her husband carried.

She admitted, officers said, she had not married Beckham, but started living with him in March, 1936, and they planned to marry in Colorado this summer.

Beckham raised chickens and had a small income from Oklahoma oil production, inherited from his first wife, an Indian.

CHINA'S ENEMIES ARE BEHEADED

SHANGHAI, Aug. 30 (AP)—Swift beheading was publicly prescribed—and demonstrated—by Chinese military authorities today for China's enemies among her own people.

These included such persons as agitators, spies, looters, incendiaries, rumor mongers and those who harbor traitors, poison water sources, secrete munitions or signal the Japanese enemy.

The public executioner, armed with a yard-long sword, put the order into effect yesterday in the Nankai quarter, lopping off the heads of two women and seven men.

The heads were promptly placed on picket fences as a terrible warning to others.

Scores of traitors have been beheaded or imprisoned, Chinese officials said, and others are being trailed in a counter-espionage campaign of nation-wide scope.

What To Do—

If War Breaks Out While You're Abroad

1. Hurry to the nearest American diplomat.
2. If warned in time, establish a bank account in a neighboring country that promises to be peaceful.
3. Lay in a week's food supply. Any more would be futile for no telling which way the bombing will turn.
4. Notify the nearest American foreign service man where you are so he can throw out the life-line if it becomes necessary.

By the AP Feature Service

Should war break out unexpectedly, says the United States state department, its every man for himself until he reaches the protective wing of the nearest American ambassador, minister, consul or vice-consul. Then it's up to the diplomat.

He will know local food handlers. He will know the military leader who moves in, and the people with autos and wagons, and with milk for the babies. He will be judge, parent, consoler, doctor and information service. He will get you safe passage to water and will have somebody's battleship waiting there. You will pile on with other war refugees and ride to the nearest safe spot in another country. At that point another American foreign service officer will be ready to cable the folks for a little cash to buy you a ticket home.

Tomorrow: If you get a severe sunburn.

An Early Cold Autumn, Or A Late Mild Autumn, If Signs Right

DALLAS, Aug. 30 (AP)—All of the signs point to an early and cold autumn and or a late and mild autumn this year in Texas.

The pet deer on the Lewis ranch near Clarendon is mowing in the meadows in a new winter coat 30 days earlier than last year—a sure sign of cold weather, said W. J. Adams, ranch manager. Arch McDougal at Bonham countered by quoting the Indian:

"Heap not long time cause geese not going south. Late autumn."

Jose Dillard, negro weather ward at Columbus who can tell you what the treacherous Colorado river is going to do two months in advance by watching the snails along its banks, agrees with the Clarendon deer:

"De ants is active and de moss is hangin' heavy on de trees. De saplings barkin' up heavy and de corn's got shucks like coats. Watch out for de norther early and cold."

Weather wisecracks in the post oak flats around Athens feel the cold creeping up their knobby legs. Creaking joints loud with pain tell them cold autumn nights will soon be here. This is true, they say, because the weather has been dry and otherwise there is no accounting for their aches.

Curley Hargrove, a Dallas sportsman whose business it is to know the weather adds to the legalistic and or flavor of the situation.

"It may be an early and a cold autumn," he ventured cautiously, "because the ducks have started moving in."

At Kerrville they found a prairie dog hiding in a sack of potatoes shipped from Colorado. The presumption was the rodent foresaw an early winter in plenty of time to hitch-hike south.

Jack Faulkner, Tyler minnow salesman, found 15 green-headed ducks barkin' up heavy and de corn's got shucks like coats. Watch out for de norther early and cold."

Sam Crowther, the weather forecaster at San Angelo, looked for a mild and late fall, saying, "the nights are too warm now for an early autumn."

From almost every point in the state crochets are reported in great numbers. This is variously interpreted as a sign of an early fall and a late fall.

FUGITIVE SLAIN AS HE HIDES IN TREE

INDEPENDENCE, Kas., Aug. 30 (AP)—A twig snapped in a giant mulberry tree, there was a volley of gunfire, and Frank Foster tumbled from the tree, dead.

A two-day search for the 57-year-old tenant farmer ended near here yesterday when the vanguard of a posse stopped near the tree.

Carl Harder, a state highway patrolman, heard the twig snap. He looked up and saw the fugitive, lying prone on a limb, a pistol in his hand. Foster began firing. Harder fired back and soon others of the posse joined in. Foster's body tumbled.

The scene was less than a mile from the place where Charles Casey, Montgomery county undersheriff, was wounded fatally Friday night in an attempt to arrest Foster.

TWO DIE IN CRASH

PORT ARTHUR, Aug. 30 (AP)—Officers today were investigating an accident on the beach highway east of Sabine Pass yesterday which took the lives of Hugh T. Morton, 29, and George Wiltz, 29, both of Port Arthur. Morton's automobile crashed with Wiltz's machine, which was parked, officers

Both Insurgents And Loyalists Claim Victory

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Aug. 30 (AP)—Both insurgent and government forces battling on the northeast Spanish front claimed victory today in a severe land and air battle near Belchite, 20 miles south of Zaragoza.

Insurgent dispatches declared the government offensive had been smashed by a thundering aerial attack of 150 planes, including 40 huge bombers, which took off from the insurgent stronghold at Zaragoza.

The government reported, however, that Belchite was completely surrounded and that insurgent control of Zaragoza was menaced by further government advances along the Aragon front.

A Valencia defense ministry announcement said that each side lost only one plane in the air battle.

Belchite was apparently the immediate government objective in an effort to score important gains before Generalissimo Francisco Franco could rush reinforcements from the Biscayan front near Santander to bolster his insurgent units which have defended Zaragoza since the civil war commenced.

MOTHER, 6 CHILDREN VICTIMS IN SLAYING

DENISON, Ia., Aug. 30 (AP)—Seven bodies—a mother and her six children—lay in a funeral home here today, victims of a farm home tragedy that Coroner John Gottburg said was murder and suicide.

The dead were: Mrs. Elsie Nollen, 30, Leona, 4, Viola, 2, Orvin, 11, Wilbert, 10, Pauline, 7, Earl, 6.

Leaving a suicide note which told of marital unhappiness, Mrs. Nollen took the lives of her children and herself by sending deadly automobile exhaust gas from the family car into a bedroom window of her home, west of here.

Her husband, Albert, 35, found the bodies early yesterday when he returned home.

2218 SHEEP SOLD

STANTON, Aug. 30—Sale of 2,218 head of sheep from the J. K. Barfield flock on his ranch northeast of Stanton was reported recently.

An even 900 of the animals were sold to Bill Neaf on the Quinn ranch in Howard county.

Jim Zimmerman bought 1,318 head to range in the Lenora community northwest of here.

Funeral arrangements had not been made for Morton, pending the arrival of his widow from Birmingham, Ala. His mother, Mrs. Alleyne Morton, resides in Marion, Ala.

Nobody Agrees On Question Of Who Lost In Past Congress

Lawmakers, President Or The Supreme Court?

What Washington officials are saying these days is largely off the record. Here is another article in which the Washington chief of bureau outlines the nature of that talk without hazarding any guesses as to the legitimacy of the arguments being presented or what the consensus might be. (Editor's note).

By MILO THOMPSON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—The question "Who lost face in the session of Congress just ended?" is today nearly as often on the tongues of Washington people who like to speculate about things political as the question "What is happening to the Democratic majority in Congress?"

Those who ask it usually are ready to answer it. But there is no unanimity in these answers. Those who look ardently upon the Roosevelt administration program say it was Congress.

Those who stress the portion of that program which failed of adoption or was postponed, including the Supreme Court matter, say it was the president.

Those who say they feel the Supreme Court was influenced by attacks upon it and became something less of a bulwark for the constitution (as these commentators interpret it) say it was the Supreme Court.

So also do some who deplore the things that were said about the nation's highest court in the heat of debate. They feel certain it will take a long time to restore old-time respect for that court. It is not for a reporter of news to say who is right; it is, however, his task to report what the warring political tongues are saying even though much of this is quite off-the-record.

And the tongues are saying two things about Congress. If the speakers believe that the Roosevelt cause and the need for action "now" was something of a holy crusade, they condemn Congress for having sidetracked or postponed essential parts of that program.

But others take a position similar to that voiced by House Majority Leader Rayburn in his farewell speech to the recent session. He said:

No Sit-Down
"When anybody, foreign or domestic, says that this session of Congress has been a sit-down Congress, that it has not worked and that it has not enacted a great program of legislation, they either are ignorant of the facts, or they want to distort them."

Supporters of this position assert that a Congress which appropriated more than seven and a half billion dollars to continue or start actions intended by their sponsors to improve national conditions, was scarcely a do-nothing Congress.

They also assert that it is only in comparison with what the president outlined that Congress failed to produce. They add that the thing which caused much delay and postponement of measures was itself a virtue, a desire to look carefully at both sides of each matter.

Congress has not lost face either in the opinion of those who are asserting a rubber stamp period has ended. The last-named group will tell you that Congress has gained importance.

Differences of Opinion

What has happened to presidential prestige, is similarly a matter for difference of opinion. One hears failure to obtain his court reform objective gave the president a black eye. Some say it disclosed he is less the brilliant strategist his supporters acclaimed. Many say a president who had to compromise after he had said he would not compromise, who had to take delay after promising more action with a resounding "now," and who has been forced to interrupt preaching his political gospel to aim epithets like "Tory" and "American Lord Macaulays" at his opponents is not so powerful a factor in his first term.

No less emphatic are those who see the opposite picture. They say the president is playing a long range game and expects to lose a few tricks. They say meeting an emergency to join any program promising action and relief was simpler than the president task: Deciding what part of the emergency program should be made permanent policy. They say that it is bound to stir up opposition, even inside the president's party. Every step, they go on, must be won in battle and therefore the president has shown his strength in driving ahead.

President Stronger?
Some Roosevelt supporters insist the president has become stronger in that he has kept all eyes on him during the battles and, has learned where his strength lies.

How the Supreme Court emerged from the controversy in which it had no part is obviously not so easy for the volunteer analysts.

Both friends and foes of the present court-set-up have been saying it is "too bad" a branch of the government so austere, so dignified and so final, should have become a figure in a political squabble.

But the friends are quick to add that the court has not been seriously affected. As they put it, it got a vote of confidence.

The contrary view expressed is that prestige has suffered to an extent which will wound some of the justices to their retirement in their graves.

South Africa Expands Airways
JOHANNESBURG (UP)—South Africa is engaged in the greatest airways expansion in history. By the end of the year the Union's civil air fleet will consist of 28 of the most modern airliners, capable of carrying 300 passengers simultaneously at an average speed of about 200 miles an hour.

PICTURE NEWS

THE YANKS ARE COMING, was the cry 20 years ago in the "war to end all wars," and today American troops are again headed across the sea. This time it's the Marines, ordered to Shanghai to protect American lives. Members of the sixth regiment, machine-gun battery, went through landing drills before departure from San Diego for the scene of Sino-Japanese hostilities in China. This preparedness keeps them in shape for possible eventualities there.

NO NIGHTSHIRT is this strange-looking garb worn by stern-faced Premier Mussolini, but a miner's outfit he donned in Sicily.

CROP CONTROL on a wholesale basis with old "Mother Nature" herself plowing under acres at a time is being witnessed by farmers near Buhl, Idaho. A whole valley is sinking, crumbling away fertile lands. Tiny figures (above) show the size of the gorge. Experts seem baffled by the phenomenon.

SPOTLIGHT

Fiery former Senator Tom Heflin of Alabama was quick to toss his hat into the ring for the seat of Hugo Black, now justice of the U. S. Supreme Court. Governor Bibb Graves appointed his wife, Dixie, to serve until the election next spring.

Chief threat to Alice Marble in defense of her national women's tennis singles crown is expected to be Helen Jacobs (left), former queen of the courts, who is making a strong comeback. She won her match with Kay Stammers in the Wightman Cup play to establish her bid.

Dapper former New York Mayor, Jimmie Walker, who looks more like 36 than 56, received virtual assurance of a lifetime pension when he was named assistant counsel of transit commission, just two weeks before he would have been disqualified for absence of five years.

Little attention had been centered upon Harry M. Woodring since he succeeded the late George Dern as war secretary until the present crisis in China. Since Sino-Jap hostilities broke out, the former Kansan, thrust into the center of a busy stage, conferred often with the President.

TWO CIGARETTES light the hearth-side of this 12-year-old girl, for she's Mrs. Linton Whittemire, Flowery Branch, Ga., child bride.

DOING 'THE BIG APPLE' is the latest dance craze of the south, but it seems to have gotten into the blood of Shortstop Appling of the Chicago White Sox. What he's really doing is tossing to first after putting out Hal Trosky of Cleveland who vainly slid for second base.

JUMPING SEASON'S WITHIN REASON if you just know how it's done. These MacAlester College, Minn., co-eds didn't wait for snow to start their skiing, but just started out on browned grass slopes. U. S. Olympic ski jump champion Sverre Fredheim is shown giving some pointers to Dorothy Eginton and Lorraine Beavens.

A DAY AT THE RACES at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., found Mrs. C. S. Howard of San Francisco discussing with Crooner Bing Crosby the pony pastime. Neither could complain over the financial aspect of the business, for Mrs. Howard's "Seabiscuit" is a top money winner this year, while Crosby's track in California showed a profit of $75,000 at the end of its first season.

CLOTHES MAKE THE MAN, at least the uniform and brass buttons of eight-year-old Bernard Blackwell of Atlanta, Ga., seem to carry a lot of weight with the ladies. The lad has just completed five years as a duly commissioned member of the city's police department.

BOLD AND SILENT Lt. Gen. Kiyoshi Katsuki, whose only words are commands, directs Japan's hopes and destiny in North China.

LIFE BEGINS at 140 for Om Mohammed El Cheikha, reported the world's oldest woman, who lives near Zagazig, Egypt, claims to be 143.

PILGRIMS' PROGRESS since the time of the Mayflower has brought this mighty sky slipper which will span the Atlantic between New York and London, starting next year. The diagram here shows: 1. Anchor hatch, 2. Seaman's compartment, 3. Bridge where flying controls are located, 4. First pilot, 5. Second pilot, 6. Radio direction finder loop, 7. Navigation compartment, 8. # THE SPORTS PARADE

BY HANK HART

Jim Walkup, who won the Midland invitational golf meeting yesterday afternoon, probably will not compete for the honors here, Jim, who intends to go back to school in September, will go to Fort Worth Friday to shoot or the meadowbrook title there.

Obie Bristow will be around, however, to try for the crown copped last year by Eddie Morgan. Bill Shafer, too, will be on hand.

Morgan, who was eliminated in the first round of the championship flight Saturday morning by the newest West Texas golfer, Floyd Williams, did a bit better in yesterday's play. He was two under par in defeating Louis Douglas for championship consolation. A oddity about that match was that Douglas had bought Morgan in the Calcutta pool Friday night and had he won, would have lost $37.50.

Jim Cantrell, former District Three football coach, was on hand for the meeting. Jim, who coached the Colorado Wolves when that team was in Class A football, is connected in the oil business with Bristow and works out of Colorado.

Another well known West Texas sports figure who dropped around Sunday was Tiny Reed, at present a prof in Eastern New Mexico Jr. College.

Tiny is trying desperately to line up Jack Wilson for the Portales school but he doesn't seem to be having much luck. The all-district guard has eyes only for Schreiner at the present time.

A total of 2,000 pairs of Mexican bob whites are being distributed in the county by the local Wild Life Federation and sportsmen here are raising money to buy more. There has been talk of preserving the game under law this season. Three hundred pairs was freed there two years ago.

Cleaning the cuff: Cotton Glover, former manager of the Ameras, N. M., baseball and football teams, passed through Big Spring Saturday night en route to Hobbs. He's been in Fort Worth. . . . Olie Cor-dill may play baseball in the Concho Basin league next year. . . . Jim Dykes was given a hefty raise when he signed his new contract with the Chicago White Sox a few days ago. . . . Little Johnny Stovall probably won't play over ten minutes in the All-Star game at Dallas Sept. 6.

Champions In Front

HOUSTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Five teams survived opening night play in the Houston Post semi-pro baseball tournament, but their victims were still in for elimination. . . . Barbors Hill Gushers, defending champions, won from Rosenberg Gulf Oilers 6-0, last night, while quickly in order, the Alvin Texas cubs humbled Bay City 7-3. . . . Brennan's Sunoco nosed out Grand Prize Brewers of Houston in 10 innings, and Houston Lighting and Power company defeated Pasadena Oil Workers 9-6. . . . Sixteen teams were entered, with two weeks of play scheduled. Two losses eliminate contenders.

Experts See Chance For Upset

Jacobs Expects A 40,000 Gate To Be On Hand

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—The good fairies, if any, that flit about and protect the boxing game from violent harm have a job ahead of them tonight at the Yankee stadium, providing Promoter Mike Jacobs doesn't think he smells rain again.

The game's little Pinkertons will need to be in sound shape, able to travel 15 rounds at a fast clip and to protect themselves at all times. Tommy Farr, the visiting problem child, is supposed to fight Champion Joe Louis that distance, and the little fellows had better be in there slugging on Joe's side every minute if they are to earn their keep.

Nobody wants the Welshman to get hurt—not seriously. Even Mike Jacobs would be willing to settle for a nice, comfortable Louis victory on points. But everybody seems agreed it would be a triple-act catastrophe if Tommy actually should stop the limb off behind all the experts and win the title, like he's been threatening.

Jacobs Behind Joe Although he has the Welshman sewed up tighter than a telephone booth, win or lose, Jacobs has been noticed to blanch slightly at the sight of Joe Louis.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—Joe Louis scaled 197 pounds today for his delayed 15-round heavyweight championship match with Tommy Farr in the Yankee stadium tonight. Farr scaled 204 1/2 pounds.

here suggestion that Farr might win. Joe Louis, as champion, is a meal ticket that Mike, by all rights, has only just begun to punch.

Mike has been gleefully predicting a crowd of 40,000 and a $400,000 gate tonight since new customers kept coming right along after last Thursday's postponement. That's higher than anyone else will go in the figures. . . . Various boxing commissions who think they've had trouble with some of the racket's more rollicking individuals, like Max Baer, had better get right into training for a bruising tussle if Tony-pandy Tommy gets his duke hoisted tonight. The willful Welshman, if all the yarns about him are only partially true, might insist that General Phelan wear full-dress uniform at all official weigh-ins and conduct board meetings in the champion's mother tongue.

Long Odds The 5 to 1 odds that Louis will retain his newly-won crown tonight reflect the young negro's personal popularity almost equally with the public's faith in the terrific punch that carried him to the top.

Except for that highly-debated knockdown in Farr's camp Friday, the four-day postponement, not produced nothing of moment, nothing calculated to increase interest in the bout or pull in the additional customers so devoutly wished for by the promoter.

All that remains is the sigh of relief that will arise from the ring-side pews if, and when, Louis clouts the tempestuous Tommy down. It will sound like a 40-mile wind hitting a cornfield.

Two-a-Day Drills Begin Today

Beginning their two-a-day workouts this morning on the high school grounds, the Big Spring high school gridders turned to heavier work this week. Blocking held the spotlight throughout the day. Coaches Murphy and Brandon will issue play charts later in the week after drilling the team on the fundamentals of blocking, they indicated.

Five players who reported at the beginning of the season were missing in this morning's workout but the mentors expect the entire squad to be on hand by the time school starts. Two of the hopefuls are with the Devils softball team in the national tournament.

Obie Bristow New Lubbock Champ THE PLACE AND THE THING

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—Facts and figures on tonight's heavy-weight title fight: Principals—Joe Louis, Detroit, world heavyweight champion, vs. Tommy Farr, Tony-Pandy, Wales, British empire champion. Place—Yankee stadium, New York. Length of bout—15 rounds to a decision. Time of bout—First preliminary 7 p. m. (E. S. T.); main bout 9 p. m. (E. S. T.). May be advanced if weather threatening. Probable weights—Louis 198 pounds, Farr 204 pounds. Weighing in—At New York State Athletic Commission office 11 a. m. (E. S. T.). Probable attendance—35,000. Probable receipts—$350,000 (including radio and motion picture rights). Broadcast—NBC hookup for main bout (starting not earlier than 8:15 (E. S. T.)). Preliminaries—Buddy Baer, Livermore, Cal., vs. Abe Simon, New York; Tiger Jack Fox, Indianapolis, vs. Steve Dudas, Edgewater, N. J.; Harry Balsamo, New York, vs. Chris de Rosa, Boston; Dave Clark, Detroit, vs. Charlie Messera, Pittsburgh, six rounds each; Joe Wagner, Newark, N. J., vs. Phil Sommers, New York; Johnny Pavlovich, New York, vs. Maxie Long, Dallas, Texas, four rounds each.

Bristow suffered a setback over his previous form and went 17 strokes over par on the 39 holes but he matched the shots of his opponent, gaining a lead on 17, losing it early in the afternoon round and then fired stroke for stroke until the break came.

On the par three thirty-ninth, Schaef laid one squarely to the pin for a standard but Obie held out from the frog hair for a birdie two. Schaef captured the advantage on the afternoon round and kept it until he hit the twenty-eighth when Bristow pulled back even. Obie won twenty-nine and then dropped two in a row before gaining the thirty-fourth. He won the thirty-fifth to apply the pressure. Schaef took advantage of a Bristow bluff to square the match on thirty-six.

+Standings+ Walkup Titlist At Midland Defeats Bill Shafer In Finals, Four And Two

BY HANK HART MIDLAND, Aug. 30—After trumping Shirley Robbins, Big Spring's last hope in the morning semi-final round, Jarring Jimmy Walkup, former Texas Christian stroking star, turned on the heat to vanquish Bill Shafer, 4 and 2 in the 18-hole finals of the annual Midland invitational golf tournament Sunday afternoon. Both of the finalists reside in Odessa.

Bristow's shot was handicapped by a bush and he came in with a five. Halves on thirty-seven and thirty-eight set the stage for Bristow's shot on the thirty-ninth. Lindsey Telford captured first flight honors from Loftin Burnett in the finals of that division, 3 and 2. Both hail from Lubbock. A championship consolation went to Bob Hale, Texas Tech.

STANTON — With the season's first workout scheduled for Monday morning, Aug. 30, Coach Bryan C. Henderson is expecting 20 or more candidates to come out for Stanton high school's grid team, the Buffaloes. He plans two workouts daily until school opens on Sept. 6.

Most of the practicing will be done off the field, he said, as the football ground has been reconstructed and re-soiled and will not be ready for much play at first. Several of last year's lettermen are expected to return to the field this year. Co-captains for the team are Eugene Graham and Wilbur Parker.

The Stanton eleven will face the Colorado Wolves in the opening game of the season, playing a night game at Colorado on Sept. 17.

Water Polo Match To Be Played Tuesday An exhibition water polo game will be played at the Municipal swimming pool Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Recreational Director H. F. Malone announced Sunday. Teams representing Joe Pickle's Troop Five and Walton Morrison's Troop One will line up against each other. Troop Three has also been invited to participate.

The games will begin a series of water events to be held at the city pool through the remainder of the season, Malone indicated.

Birdies 39th To Win Out, One Up

Suffers Letdown But Hangs On To Triumph

LUBBOCK, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Lubbock country club golf crown, taken by a New Mexican last year, left the home forces again Sunday afternoon as Obie Bristow, Big Spring, birdied a third extra hole in the scheduled 36-hole finals to defeat young Worland Schaef, Plainview.

Bristow suffered a setback over his previous form and went 17 strokes over par on the 39 holes but he matched the shots of his opponent, gaining a lead on 17, losing it early in the afternoon round and then fired stroke for stroke until the break came.

On the par three thirty-ninth, Schaef laid one squarely to the pin for a standard but Obie held out from the frog hair for a birdie two. Schaef captured the advantage on the afternoon round and kept it until he hit the twenty-eighth when Bristow pulled back even. Obie won twenty-nine and then dropped two in a row before gaining the thirty-fourth. He won the thirty-fifth to apply the pressure. Schaef took advantage of a Bristow bluff to square the match on thirty-six.

Bristow's shot was handicapped by a bush and he came in with a five. Halves on thirty-seven and thirty-eight set the stage for Bristow's shot on the thirty-ninth. Lindsey Telford captured first flight honors from Loftin Burnett in the finals of that division, 3 and 2. Both hail from Lubbock. A championship consolation went to Bob Hale, Texas Tech.

Don, Gene Face Prizes Posted For Sponsors At Midland

Girls' Event To Be In Connection With Rodeo Sept. 4-6

MIDLAND, Aug. 30—Prizes and trophies valued at $235 for winners in the annual cowgirl sponsors' contest at the Midland rodeo, September 4, 5 and 6, were placed on display at the Midland chamber of commerce offices last week. The prizes being the most beautiful and the most costly ever offered in a similar contest here. The prizes were brought from Fort Worth by Roy Parks, rodeo chairman, and were donated by firms and individuals of that city.

The cowgirl sponsors will appear in the opening day parade and at each rodeo performance from Saturday through Monday, September 4-6, with final judging on the last day. Awards will be given to the first five winners.

Prizes in the sponsors' contest are as follows: first, $115 western saddle, given by the Blackstone hotel; second, $45 Elizabeth Arden bag and make-up kit, given by The Fair; Fort Worth; third, $30 Elgin wrist watch, given by the First National bank of Fort Worth; fourth, $25 hand bag, given by Leon Cross of Fort Worth; fifth, $20 belt buckle set, given by Halton Jewelry company, Fort Worth.

Fifteen cowgirl sponsors have already been entered in the sponsors' contest, approximately 25 cowgirls being expected to compete for the attractive awards.

HUMBLE TO 'AIR' GRID GAMES

It was announced today that the Humble Oil & Refining company, sponsors of broadcasts of Southwest conference football for the past two years, will again sponsor these broadcasts during the 1937 season.

The broadcast will be over an extensive network of Texas stations, so that followers of conference football in all parts of the state will be able to follow their gridiron favorites without difficulty.

Due to the 10-game schedule adopted by the conference this season, broadcasts will be more condensed than heretofore. On most Saturday afternoons, the Humble company will broadcast as many as three games, and on several Saturdays as many as four, according to tentative schedules now being worked out. This will give radio followers of football a comprehensive picture of the conference season.

The announcing staff is already known to football fans. It will include Kern Tips, Cy Leland, Hal Thompson, Gene Wyatt, Tom Jacobs, Bill Hightower and others. Technical equipment, much of it bought new this year to take advantage of latest developments, will be unsurpassed.

Ray Harrell, an up-and-downer who hasn't been much help to the Cardinals this season, just missed a no-hitter by the margin of a sixth inning single as he pitched the Gas House Gang to a 3-0 win over the Boston Bees in their double nightcap, after the Bees took the opener, 3-2.

Bob Feller allowed only four walks and still lost the ball game to the five-hit pitching of young Kendall Chase, whose unexpected elbowing ability gave the Senators a 6-2 decision over the Indians, after the tribe clubbed out an 11-4 edge in their first game.

If the Giants, who have been fortunate in getting a combination of timely hitting and effective pitching of their own and obliging nose-divals, were as certain of their crown as the Yanks are, things would be simple. The Yanks moved 12 1/2 games in front yesterday with a 7-1 win over the Tigers as Lou Gehrig clouted homer No. 30 and Red Ruffing pitched victory No. 17.

Buck Nowsem turned in a four-hitter to give the Red Sox a 2-0 win over the Browns in the opener of a double-header, but the Browns belted three other guys, 8-3, in the nightcap.

The "dominant" is the name given the fifth note in any scale.

"More Than Protection"

American public opinion probably will not repudiate the statement of the secretary of state, Cordell Hull, that United States interests in China include more than the protection of American lives and property there. Here, then, is one of the paradoxes of the American attitude toward world affairs. An ordinarily isolationist public, frightened more by the prospect of a European conference than by the possibility of a European war ("America never lost a war, or won a conference," as Will Rogers used to say), yet is so sentimentally conditioned toward the Far East as to be willing to consider initiating a movement among world powers toward the delicate task of checking hostilities in that part of the world.

The readiness to aid peace is not of itself a fair target for criticism. It is its circumscription that is open to question. American peace is much more likely to be endangered by war in Europe than in Asia, as was recognized when the neutrality law was framed. But only in Asiatic war does American policy show an inclination to take a positive stand for peace.

The Hull statement offers no early hope that American ships or marines will soon be recalled from the danger area. On the contrary. Only by omitting all reference to them has it answered the questions of those Americans who are asking how long it will be necessary to leave the ships and men in range of gunfire, and thus in position to transfer those sparks of war emotion which fly so quickly to any country that has learned of loss of human life among its own citizens or soldiers in a war area. However, the shelling of the Augusta has brought the same encouragingly calm response among Americans as did the attack on the Kane in Spanish waters. Both events were handled by the authorities with that good sense which can fireproof even such tinders as battleships away from home may be.

American policy in the Far East continues as it began in this crisis—and indeed as it developed under Secretary Stimson when Japanese troops overran Manchuria—an invitation to other powers to co-operate to make effective an already crystallized world opinion. Meanwhile the level-headedness of the American people must be counted on to keep further possible casualties and property losses in their proper perspective, especially if ships and men are to be left in the Far East to protect American interests. If Americans wish merely to keep out of war, they know by now that their best chance of doing so is to keep out of war areas. If they insist on staying in those areas, they must decide to bear incidental costs philosophically.—(Christian Science Monitor).

+ Man About Manhattan +

NEW YORK—One of the perils of being delinquent with the rent in New York, if you live in a Bowery or a Times Square hotel, is that sooner or later you run head on into the jigger. A jigger is a sawed-off key inserted in the lock so that one's own key will not fit. This necessitates an embarrassing (if you have any shame) interview with the manager, and that is exactly what he wants. In this way he is brought face to face with the tardy payee and has a fighting chance to collect a part of the accumulated arrears, or at least of extracting a promise to pay.

We know an actor who remained five days in his room without once leaving so fearful was he of being jiggered out of the room. He didn't dare take a chance on being caught away from his belongings, so he sat pat, staving off starvation with several cans of beans which a confederate sneaked in to him.

Any mention of financial lapses always reminds us of the turf additor who visited the tracks and ran into a bookmaker who owed him some money. "Don't you want to see me?" he inquired significantly. "No, I don't," said the bookie candidly, "but I haven't forgotten that I owe you some scratch. Last night I made a list of my creditors in the order they are to be paid, and you are tenth. However, if you will lend me another $10, I'll move you up to third."

Cut-Throats' Hideaway
Minetta Lane and Minetta Brook are synonymous with an older New York which doesn't exist any more. They both still make furtive appearances and are indelibly woven into island legend, yet neither amounts to anything save as a curio or a bright publicity stunt.

Minetta Lane is a gnarled, narrow thread only a block in length. It juts into the Village and is now a row of apartment houses for "artists" and students. At one end is a patio where the Italians eat spaghetti and talk of Joe DiMaggio.

But in the older days it was a hideaway for a band of cut-throats whose misdeeds were so violent and numerous that the older inhabitants will speak of them in alarm. The worst of the mob was Old Black Cat. Another was "Bloodthirsty" Guinea Johnson, a third, regarded murder as a routine chore.

To Look At Only
As for Minetta Brook, that lovely rippling stream with the Indian name, used to flow through the lower part of the island and quench the thirst of early Dutch inhabitants. But today it is in almost total eclipse, bobbing up furtively as part of a fountain in the lobby of a hotel. Ben Collada is the latest to bring Minetta back. He has lured its crystal

Washington Daybook

By Preston Grover

WASHINGTON—It is simply amazing the amount of diplomatic toe-dancing that goes on because the United States has to go through the steps of getting out of the China war zone without really asserting publicly that it is a war. Of course there is carnage, and enough marching and counter-marching to drive the Spanish civil war off page one. Yet we have recognized Spain's war. Secretary Hull, who is an earnest man and sincere, quite evidently would like to step in with the good offices of the United States and bring an end to wars wherever they break out. But he may not say so publicly. In rejecting the League of Nations, and world court this country quite definitely said: "Devil take your foreign wars. Hereafter we are hands off."

Neutrality Theory
It was a blossoming of that spirit which brought on the so-called neutrality act under which the United States, in theory, must pull its neck turtle-like into a shell whenever the shot and shell begin falling any place in the world.

In theory it is that way. The theory may have worked in the case of Italy and Ethiopia and again in the case of Spain. But in the case of the Japanese-Chinese outbreak the state department is required to pile a theory upon a theory. It must hold to the theory that the neutrality act is in fact being followed when truly enough it is being side-stepped.

The neutrality act provides that upon the outbreak of war the president must proclaim the fact. The proclamation automatically shuts off all supplies of arms, munitions and implements of war to the belligerents and sets up a chain of procedure likely in time to lead to suspension of all trade with them.

But Mr. Hull wants to preserve peace. The neutrality act is not designed primarily to preserve peace. It is designed to keep the United States from getting in the way of enemy shells or torpedoes. Since the neutrality act leaves it discretionary with the president to decide when war actually begins, Mr. Hull, as the president's agent, will continue to work and plead for peace until the existence of war becomes so oppressive he can deny it no longer.

Thus you have Mr. Hull asking in his latest peace statement that China and Japan "refrain from hostilities." If he had said "suspend hostilities" it would have been an admission that there were hostilities. Such an admission would have required that the neutrality act be called into effect.

Unofficial War
All this time Mr. Hull must direct the evacuation of Americans from the scene of conflict. He must protest against too much shooting over Yankee property in the Orient. Yet the state department does not even refer to Shanghai as the "war zone."

But there is evidence that in the minds of some public officials there is a feeling that it is a "war zone" in fact. Senator Pittman of Nevada, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, defended at length Mr. Hull's position. He said there was nothing yet to indicate it was a really and truly war. But down in his speech he remarked that the present prime duty of the secretary of state was to remove our citizens from the "war zone."

"Oh, well, we can't all be so careful as the state department."

EXPECT BIG CROWD AT REUNION HERE NEXT SUNDAY
T. J. Robinson, one of the leaders in the Franklin county reunion, said a record attendance for the affair was in prospect here Sunday when former residents of the East Texas county convene for their third annual gathering.

He conferred with other leaders in the organization last week at Stanton on final plans for the reunion which is to be held at the city park. Former Franklin county residents from an area between Sweetwater and Monahans, Lubbock and San Angelo are expected to come here for the affair.

THIXTON TO JUDGE IN CYCLE RACES
Ceel Trixton, local Harley Davidson motorcycle dealer, has accepted an invitation from the Pan-American exposition to act as a judge and timekeeper at the 200-mile national championship T. T. motorcycle race to be held at the exposition in Dallas September 12. The race is sponsored by the Dallas Motorcycle club and Pan-American exposition.

Hungary Discovers Oil

Philip Wylie's DOUBLE WEDDING

CHAPTER IV

Ninety-nine girls out of a hundred, when accosted by a curbed artist, would respond (depending upon their station) with such phrases as, "No thank you," "Go peddle your papers," "Scram, Michael Angelo." Irene's background and up-bringing were such, however, that upon being given a forceful command she almost automatically obeyed—especially when that command was backed up by eyes that held the same sort of assurance as Margit's. She walked over to the easel. As she walked, the artist continued to talk and to look at her: "There's a little Mona Lisa in you—a little Garbo—and something all your own. Your hair curls naturally that way—a rare thing these days." He was sitting down on his camp stool. "Keep on holding your chin up," he began to draw. "Not a brain in your head, I can see. Good. I like that peevish expression." His hand was moving rapidly. A number of people were looking on with pleased impersonality. The cop was heating over his next move. Finally Irene said, "See here! I commissioned this man to paint my portrait. I wanted a picture of myself walking down the street with a lot of people in the background so we came down here to make some sketches. I guess I've got a right to do it. See that skyscraper?" She pointed to the nearest one. It wasn't even the building in which Margit had her office. The cop stared toward the edifice. "My uncle owns that one," Irene lied easily. "My aunt owns the one over there. All those little stores belong to my grandfather." She was running out of relatives but she continued with her invention. "These Madison Avenue buses are controlled by my nephew. He's four years older than I am. He's called the Bus King. Maybe you've heard of him. Stillwell B. Tracy. Have I or have I not the right to occupy a square yard of sidewalk?"

The policeman had turned a faint grey. He hid all his enthusiasm for making an arrest. Moreover, Irene's words had diverted the sympathy of the audience from himself. He summoned his last ounce of belligerence: "Why didn't you say so in the first place?" he asked. "Till you get away with it this time." He stroiled off, spinning his billy. Charlie, who had not assisted Irene in the defense of himself, now looked at her. She had expected a little gratitude and admiration. Instead his face was clouded with obvious disgust. "You make me sick," he said quietly and he began to fold up his easel.

Irene stared. "I make you sick, do I? I save you from thirty days in jail and I run the risk of going to jail myself—and that makes you sick? I guess you're about the most unappreciative man I ever heard of."

He looked up from his packing. His voice was calm and his eyes were disdainful. "All you rich snobs. You think you own the earth. You don't mind humiliating anybody. For a minute I thought you were my dream girl. I must be a little bit nuts today. Toxemia. Well—run along to your uncle and your grandfather and your nephews."

Irene gaped. "But I haven't any uncle or grandfather or nephew." "Huh!" "Only a sister—" "Sister?" "A great girl came in Charlie's eyes. Under his arm he thrust his faded case and his box of materials. Over the same arm he hooked his camp stool. His free hand seized her elbow. He turned her around jubilantly. Before she knew it, she was walking down the street with him. "It's amazing about one's first impressions! I wasn't toxic after all! Just stupid." "Very stupid," she agreed. "Right down there is my limousine."

"The one with the plum-colored chauffeur?" "That's Paul!" "Paul should wear dark green." "I think plum suits him perfectly." "No." "The policeman now reached the climax of his act. "Then I suppose you know what you are going to get?"

Charlie turned his full conscious attention for the first time on the man in uniform. "Get!" he repeated. The cop beamed maliciously. "Thirty days—for priddling without a license."

The crowd laughed delightedly. It's always funny when somebody else goes to jail for thirty days. Irene, however, did not laugh. She was used to authority—Margit's

Maybe some day he would become famous. He looked like the sort of person who would become famous.

And now it is Irene who is kicking over the traces. She has actually been picked up by a stranger. Will common sense on the line of adventure prevail? Don't miss tomorrow's unexpected developments.

SUB-STRATOSPHERE FLIGHTS ESSAYED IN ARCTIC HUNT

JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 30 (AP) - Sub-stratospheric flights in an effort to establish radio contact with Russia's six missing airmen are being made by Jimmie Mattern, American flier, as veteran Alaskan pilot and representative here of the Soviet government refuse to give up hope the lot fliers will be found alive.

Mattern, carrying special radio equipment, climbed to 25,000 and 26,000 feet on successive flights yesterday but brought his heavy plane down, his aerial mission unsuccessful.

He did succeed in tuning his radio equipment on the frequency of Igmund Levaneffsky's lost plane and will try again to establish contact from a great altitude. His third attempt may be made today.

Mattern had hoped the high altitude would permit reception which has failed on lower levels.

Experiments Conducted To Show Mind's Control Over Pain

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE, Associated Press Science Editor
MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 30 (AP) - New medical experiments showing that the mind can control effects of pain were reported to the American Association of Applied and Professional Psychologists here today by Ralph R. Brown, psychologist, and Victor H. Goulet, M. D., past assistant surgeon, both of the United States public health service.

They had four persons with tacks pricking their feet try to imagine they felt no pain. All continued to hurt, but the imagination caused unexpected physical modifications.

Without trying to will the pain away blood pressure tended to rise, pulses went up, breathing was faster, trembling greater and electrical potentials of the skin changed. These changes were involuntary.

But they became less when the patient tried to imagine there was no pain. This was verified by hypnotizing the same four with tacks pricking their feet. They had no memory of pain. But their bodies showed all the involuntary reactions of pain.

The reactions were smaller under the influence of hypnosis. But no smaller than when the patients tried to imagine there was no pain. "It appears," the health officials reported, "that in the subjects which we have observed, imagination in the normal waking state may be just about as effective with respect to influencing the physiological reactions to pain as that which may be observed following suggestion in the trance state (hypnotism)."

The finding lends support to the idea that psychological processes may play an important role in facilitating or inhibiting the physical functions concerned with maintaining or reestablishing physical health. The conscious and voluntary influences upon physiological function should be emphasized as having clinical significance, inasmuch as the influence of

'It Hain't Square'

LONDON, Aug. 30 (AP) - Charges the battle between Joe Louis and Tommy Farr "isn't a straight fight" appeared in the British press as England planned to spend a sleepless night at radio parties listening to the broadcast from Yankee stadium tonight.

Beverly Baxter, writing in the Sunday Graphic and the Sunday News explained he believed both fighters were above suspicion but said "the loading of the dice had been done by those who intend to keep the business of world champions in New York."

From the start of training London writers have resented the American opinion that Farr is an unworthy challenger. Consequently they have played up the villainy of New York's Eighth avenue and insisted that Tommy has been disgracefully treated.

unconscious activity upon those processes has perhaps been frequently over emphasized."

Today's meeting starts a week during which several hundred psychologists will gather at the University of Minnesota.

wounded when a shell struck the U.S.S. Augusta, flagship of the Asiatic fleet. Under Dolar liners, too, have been under Sino-Japanese crossfire.

International tension in the battle scarred city reached a new height.

The incident came just as Sir
Hugh Montgomery Knatchbull-Hugesson, Britain's ambassador to China, was reported recovering somewhat from bullet wounds suffered when a Japanese plane machine gunned his car Thursday.

On the warfront itself, Japan girded for a general offensive against Chinese troops about Shanghai by massing land and naval forces for a drive on defense lines.

Bombs and shells again fell near the international area.
The British cruiser Cumberland was the first to respond to the President Hoover's frantic calls for aid. She reached the vessel before the arrival of two United States destroyers.

General Onslaught
Japan meanwhile massed army and navy forces for a general onslaught against the estimated half million of Chinese Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's warriors who are about Shanghai and other cities of Kiangsu province.

Warfare came closer to the international area of Shanghai itself.
A huge shell, believed to have been fired by a Chinese gun, exploded in Japanese lines in northern Shanghai, close to the international settlement.

Many were killed; a wide area was in flames.
Fires broke out again in other districts when Japanese naval guns bombed Chinese troop concentrations at Kiangwan, and Japanese planes dropped bombs on Miahochong.

Throughout the day parts of Shanghai, the Chapel, Hongkew and Pootung districts were subjected to sporadic bombing and shelling.

French authorities increased their armed forces in the French concession, where most American residents of Shanghai live. With additional troop arrivals the concession will have a total of 7,000 regulars before the end of September.

The United States has 1,200 marines in Shanghai and Great Britain has about 9,000.

EXTENSIVE PROGRAM WITH TRENCH SILO
One of the most extensive trench silo programs being attempted in this area for 1937 is on the Oliver Daniels ranch, 12 miles south of Garden City.

Daniels, according to Glascock county Agent V. G. Young, has three large underground silos capable of storing 300 tons of feed.

He is grinding the feed and blowing it into the trench in the ratio of one load of higer to one load of corn.

The feed is coming off a lake bottom patch of some 300 acres. Daniels may do some lamb feeding with the millage.

DAUGHTER BORN
The nine pound daughter born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. James Alwood, 504 San Antonio street, has been christened Mary Nell. Mother and daughter are doing well.

CCC Ranks To Be Increased

Enrollees' Applications Will Be Accepted Here

Mrs. Ora Wood, assistant to the district relief administrator, said Monday that applications for CCC enrollment will be taken at the Howard county welfare office at First and Gollad streets.

A call for approximately 11,000 white and 1,200 negro boys to be enrolled in the camps during October has been issued by Adam R. Johnson, the district administrator. T. H. Lankham, Jr., San Angelo, said in a letter to Mrs. Wood.

The number far exceeds any former enrollment and is calculated to give almost all boys in the state an opportunity to enroll if they are unemployed, are in need, and whose parents are limited financially to the extent of not providing comparable training. The age span is between 17 and 23 years. The completion of two years enrollment and the reaching of the 24th year by some enrollees is necessitating heavy replacements.

Rules which have not allowed boys from other than the groups receiving or eligible to receive public assistance to be accepted have been modified. Such boys as have no dependents may allow two-thirds of their pay to remain on deposit and upon discharge, or completion of enrollment, receive the full accrued amount. Where there are dependents, an allotment will be made monthly. Through this source, $500,000 is brought to Texas each month, relieving needy who otherwise would be community burdens, State Administrator Johnson said.

TEXAN ON SHIP

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—The state department announced today H. J. Rehn, Austin, Tex., was included among United States citizens who left Shanghai Saturday on the President Lincoln for Manila and Hongkong.

DALLAS RESERVE'S REDISCOUNT RATE TO BE REDUCED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—The federal reserve board announced today it had approved a reduction from 2 to 1 1/2 per cent in the discount rate of the Dallas Reserve bank.

The reduction, which follows similar action in five other federal reserve districts, is designed to permit a freer flow of credit to meet fall borrowing demands.

Such a reduction permits reserve system member banks to borrow more cheaply from the reserve institutions, giving them ample funds to meet the needs of borrowers. The Dallas reduction, effective tomorrow, will apply to the district including Texas, southeastern Arizona, southern New Mexico and northern Louisiana.

CALVES DELIVERED, AFTER SOME GRIEF

County Agent O. F. Griffin mopped his brow today as he looked back upon the delivery of 40 head of calves Saturday to 4-H club boys and chalked it off as "one more experience."

Death claimed two of the calves, one from a broken neck and the other probably from the same cause. A third jumped through a narrow slit in the loading platform and was last heard of heading east. However, they were covered by a blanket insurance policy.

The calves were one of the wildest bunches ever loaded here.
