

Lone Star Annual Picnic to be Held Saturday

What reminds me...

When a citizenship is determined together and all work for something that is worth while to the community, nothing can stop them and there is no such thing as laying down on the job.

At the close of the days business Thursday the banking committee checking up the totals are all short at least $25,000 in the required number of signers of the depositors in joining the movement for applying for the distribution of dividends and the organization of the new bank.

For several months without any idea of compensation for their labor the committee, Messrs. J. A. Beard, P. L. Parker and Jess Williams, have worked unceasingly to bring success to the venture for the interests of the depositors themselves.

The following is a list of depositors whose addresses are unknown and who have an interest in the deposits but have made no claims against the state.

Johnnie Abbott, Barnheart & Ross, J. C. Baxley, C. C. Bryant, Emma Campbell, Edith M. Carp, S. A. Cooper, G. N. Donovan, Enoch Echols, Sarah E. Hearst, L. Hartman, J. G. Hendricks, Dorra Jackson, D. G. Jones (colored), J. L. Kuhn, Mrs. V. P. Lewis, W. W. Lutkin, Chas. McGraw, Catherine Maloney, Ovid Marquis, Claud Martin, Mrs. Grace Martin, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Martin, Mrs. Sara Minner, Mrs. R. Mosley, Roy Nelson, Virgil Northcutt, Mrs. Ruth Peck, Owl Cafe, H. N. Peters, Olive V. Peterson, T. L. Robinson, L. D. Swan, J. A. Temples, A. C. Thompson, Mrs. R. E. Thompson, Dr. H. J. Travelutte.

Small Home Owner Will Be Benefited By Housing Plan

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The small home owner or the working men who wants to become one will benefit most under the Housing bill, according to those who participated in drafting the measure.

While final details of procedure for those who wish to obtain the benefits of the act must wait administrative machinery now being set up, it will operate after this fashion:

The home owner who wishes to improve his property by a new roof, new plumbing, new heating equipment or other repairs to make it more habitable will be able to finance the work.

To do so he will first obtain a low bid from a responsible contractor. He will take this to his banker or to a recognized building and loan association. If the work and contract is approved the job will be completed and the contractor will receive his pay from the financing agency.

The home owner then will pay the debt off on the installment plan over a period up to five years, paying interest at 5 per cent. The government enters the picture by guaranteeing the loan.

If the homeowner wishes more extensive work, such as building an addition or additional building, such as a garage he will proceed in the same manner. The largest amount of work he may have done will be $2,000.

In event he already has a mortgage on his home it may be necessary to adjust this mortgage. Or he may be obliged to put up collateral. If the house is mortgage free he may be obliged to take one out. The lending institution may be allowed considerable latitude on this score.

Another section of the bill is designed to help those whose mortgages fall due and are unable to pay them. He may apply to the organization holding his mortgage for a new mortgage which is insured by a new government.

This new mortgage will run up to 20 years and the interest rate will be fixed at a nominal sum. In addition to interest and amortization he will pay a small sum each month which will go into a mortgage insurance fund.

The persons holding the mortgage can rediscunt it with the Home Owners Loan Corporation if a member or sell it to any of the proposed national mortgage association to be permitted to organize for dealing in mortgages.

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE IN TEXAS—AND CRIMINAL LAWYERS

"Criminal procedure in Texas courts will remain slow and costly to taxpayers as long as legislative committees on criminal jurisprudence are made up of criminal lawyers," remarked Atty. Gen. James V. Alfred facing an audience at Ranger. This is the finish: "There is an imperative need for reform. It should be taken as quickly as possible." He pointed out that for a long time the attorney general, judges of Texas courts, the state bar association and leading citizens have been urging reform in criminal procedure. His verdict: "Almost without exception their proposals have been pigeonholed in the musty files of our state capitol. The people of Texas should send to the legislature only those men who will pledge themselves unequivocally to support actively and make into law the progressive reforms which will make justice swifter, surer and less costly to the taxpayers."

Well, the lawmakers are not jurors. Reform in criminal procedure should come. But many criminals are turned loose by jurors who are either in ignorance of the law or the evidence or are sympathetic with the criminal on trial. It is important that criminals should be run down first and captured by the agents of the law; that they should be sent to trial; that if guilty they should be convicted and if innocent given their liberty. As for the high court of criminal appeals, the record shows that a large percentage of those who appeal from the trial courts are given scant sympathy unless there has been a miscarriage of justice "down below."

High class men should be sent to the legislature. Lawmakers enact laws. If they are weak and faulty, the courts of the state interpret the laws and toss them aside because they are unconstitutional or contain other grave defects—without the force of logic or based on common sense. There are many problems awaiting the lawmakers to be nominated and elected this year. The people are said to be the masters. If they haven't sufficient sense to pick the right men for state senators and representatives, then it will be their funeral and they will continue to pay the freight—speaking of the cost of government and the cost of crime in this commonwealth.

Your Chamber of Commerce has the facts about your city and its condition. If you are not posted, get posted. Don't be a dumb-bell.

SOPHIE KERR'S SUPERB LOVE STORY "STAY OUT OF MY LIFE!"

By Sophie Kerr

BEGIN HERE TODAY When JANE TERRILL and AMY LOWE see an attractive young man, a stranger, in Marburg, the small middle-western town where they live, they speculate about who he may be. Both girls are young. Jane, a real beauty, is less popular than Amy. Jane, who is an orphan, lives with her aunt, MISS ROSA TERRY. Amy's father is a professor. Jane hastily invents an excuse to leave her friend. A little later Amy learns from EDGAR MORELAND that the young man she and Jane saw is calling at the Terry house. Amy knows this is the reason for Jane's hurried departure. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER II JANE had known the stranger was like Capes, even at a distance, and it gave her the feeling of long acquaintance with him. She almost called him Mr. Capes though Miss Rosa had introduced him as Howard Jackson, son of a distant and practically forgotten relative. "You must stay and have dinner with us this evening," Miss Rosa said, cordially. "You're not going out anywhere, are you, Jane? Neither am I. It won't be a bit of trouble." "Then I will, and thank you very much." He had an engaging frank smile, and Miss Rosa warmed to it. "You go change your dress, Jane," she said, "and take Howard—I can't call you Mister, you are really too young—for a walk around the campus before dinner. It looks its best along about sunset." Jane flew to obey, thinking as she ran upstairs: "I'll put on my new black and red. No, that won't do for him. My white sash with the orange sash, my white coral beads—" She dropped her tennis things anywhere, left the shower dripping, dressed in a shorter time than she had believed possible. But she came down lightly, leisurely, one hand on the banister, made an effective entrance as the perfect ingenue. "I hope she keeps that up," thought Miss Rosa, watching them walk off together. Meanwhile Jane was asking Howard Jackson friendly, girlish little questions. It was something of a shock when she discovered that he wasn't anything very grand, a mere instructor in geology in a western university, for she didn't know that this university had a renowned School of Mines and that geology was distinguished there. Nor did Howard Jackson mention that fact. Presently, however, he said that he was going to study all summer with Professor Elliott for a thesis he had to do. Jane pounced on this. "That's wonderful! Have you met him yet? You'll love him!" she said, pausing and holding an arresting finger on Howard Jackson's arm. "Look at our class—I always stop here to see them. They stand there so grandly and their shades of light and free, instead of solid like the maples. They're like music, somehow. Like Schumann's 'Papillons'."

HE WAS UNCLOTHED GUEST

By United Press TOLEDO, O.—Henry Portman, of Columbus, knows how it feels to be stranded in a strange city without any clothes. When he arrived as a guest at the Community House, his clothes were placed in a fumigator. When he went to get them the next morning they were gone. While Portman, practically unclad, continued to enjoy the hospitality of the home, social workers hunted clothes for him.

State's Efforts at Paying Bills Are Quite a Problem

By GORDON K. SHEARER United Press Staff Correspondent AUSTIN, June 21.—Texas' efforts to get out of the hole financially are reminiscent of those of the fabled cat. Every time the cat got a foot nearer the top, it fell back two.

As quickly as State Treasurer Charley Lockhart scrapes together a considerable sum to apply on the state overdraft, he calls in outstanding warrants. The state expenditures, however, pile up the overdraft faster than Lockhart can cut down the deficit. It has not been reduced below $4,500,000 this year.

The latest call for outstanding warrants paid the state's expenses only up to March 12. It still is three months behind and now faces a period of slow tax receipts that will increase rather than decrease the deficit.

Treasurer Lockhart called in $633,115 outstanding warrants for payment on Feb. 28. On March 10 he called in an even $1,000,000. Another call for $300,249 on March 31 sent the state treasury into April with a general fund deficit of $5,249,637. April 16, Treasurer Lockhart had amassed $643,170 to apply on the state debts, but in the meantime the state spent so much that it still remained $4,969,220 in the red. Another payment of $1,035,165 on April 30 reduced the deficit by that amount to $3,934,055.

Another payment of nearly a million, $981,911, on May 15 made a little more headway in overtaking the debt, which was reduced to $4,493,652. In the next half month the state spent faster than it received money and the deficit jumped to $4,633,465 in spite of a $629,487 payment.

The latest state call for payment of outstanding warrants totaled $183,097. It left the state general fund at $4,848,412 in the red. That the deficit this summer will again go above $5,000,000 seemed unavoidable.

YSLETA, Texas.—Reports that the Mexican government had cancelled his concession for the Ysleta-Zaragoza international toll bridge across the Rio Grande for alleged failure to comply with provisions for construction of a concrete structure were denied by Alex Gonzales, county commissioner and owner of the bridge.

Gonzales said a Mexican official is expected to inspect the bridge in a few days and he feels confident that his period for making improvements will be extended.

He built the 507-foot bridge across the Rio Grande five years ago to connect Ysleta with the Juarez lower valley trade area.

Provisions for construction of a permanent type bridge to replace the present one were written into his original concession covering a 20-year period with concession payments monthly.

The temporary offices will remain open for the benefit of those who have not signed thus far. To assure success they must make up their mind to join their fellow depositors. There is nothing in sight at this time, as the situation of the Texas State Bank stands and if they fail to come in now then the thing stays like it is and every depositor is no better off than he was. If those who have not signed will do so, then and then only can they hope to realize the benefits of the dividends. That means that those who are just hanging back with the idea that it will go over any how and they will "hog" the whole thing are simply fooling themselves and will wake up sad but wiser people. But then it will be too late. NOW IS THE TIME TO DO THE THING NECESSARY TO HELP THEMSELVES.

NAZI TO REPLACE EAGLE BERLIN.—The automobile trucks, motorcycles, post boxes, stamp automats and other equipment of the German postal service will be painted the red color of National Socialism in the future. And will bear the Nazi symbol instead of the Reich's eagle, as hitherto. The changeover will not be made at once, but gradually, as the various equipment needs repainting, it will start in Berlin, Munich, and Nuremberg, the three headquarters of the party.

Tennessean Didn't Trust Traffic Light

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—L. H. Yancy came to a street intersection here, saw the traffic light showed green, and proceeded on his way—to a wreck in the next block. He was fined $5 for reckless driving when it was shown that the red light at the intersection hadn't been working for days.

The next day he came to the same intersection, and as before, the light was out of whack. He parked right there rather than pass the light at $5 a crack. Behind him the traffic piled up. Horns honked in a mighty chorus, but Yancy stood his ground until a reasonable time, then cleared traffic.

Education Board Moves to Stop Juggling of Bonds

AUSTIN, Tex.—The State Board of Education has moved to stop Texas school districts from "juggling" their bonded debts.

Attorney General James V. Allred was asked to prepare blank forms on which the true status of interest, sinking fund accounts, tax income and levy, and a record of taxable values, may be recorded for each school district.

The data, sworn to by district officials, will be required of every school district asking the state board to buy its bonds.

It has been reported that many school districts have levied necessary taxes for bond retirement, but have collected only about 30 per cent of the revenue. Others have reduced taxable values by half to so reduce their income as to be unable to pay interest and
