COTTON GINNERS ARE TO BE GIVEN A HEARING BY UNCLE SAM

Washington has made the announcement that a series of 12 hearings in various areas in the cotton belt on the proposed ginning industry are to be held. Their purpose is to acquaint cotton growers and gin operators with the proposed terms of the agreement as suggested by state associations of ginner.

There are thousands of cotton ginner in the Southwest. They are said to be on the rack. They are facing financial losses like all others in the agricultural and business world. The Bankhead act calls for the marketing of 10,000,000 bales of cotton of the crop of 1934.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK?

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

To say the development of a city revolves around a civic spirit is no idle dream.

The civic spirit of a city is the sum total of the spirit of its citizens.

Each citizen is a part of the city and it is up to every one of them to display civic patriotism. The future growth of the city depends entirely on the part its citizens play in every-day life.

A high spirit of loyalty must be developed and maintained. Cooperation among citizens for the benefit of the home city is what makes cities grow.

Loyalty of the citizens is the determining factor in expansion and development.

Every dollar earned in the home city should be spent in the home city so it will circulate for the good of all.

Every dollar that leaves the community weakens the resources of the home city and helps only the city in which it is spent.

The man who profits most is the man who spends his dollars at home.

Now is the time to make a good resolution. If you have been sending your money away from home to buy goods that can be bought in your home city, resolve that in the future you will spend every dollar at home!

British Rabbits Prove Menace To Farmers

LONDON.—Forestry work in Britain is being checked by rabbits, which have become almost a plague. According to a bulletin of the Forestry Commission, a single rabbit can do $50 worth of damage in a night to a plantation of young trees.

Soviet Specialists Get Easier Life

MOSCOW.—By a recent decree of the Council of Peoples' Commissars and the Central Committee of the Communist party in the Ukraine, the life of specialists on State and co-operative farms is to be made easier. The decree relieves them of all office routine, such as keeping accounts, making reports and writing plans. Also, they are to be furnished with horses, living quarters and gardens, to be plowed and attended by other workers.

The purpose of the decree is to enable these specialists—agronomists, animal husbandry experts and veterinarians—to concentrate more on their particular tasks.

Iowa Town Takes Up Fingerprinting

OSKALOOSA, Iowa.—Oskaloosa is the first town its size in the United States to institute fingerprinting of every man, woman and child within the town's corporate limits. Universal fingerprinting, it was pointing out by Police Chief Howard Allgood, has been a powerful deterrent to crime in Germany where it has been an accepted practice for more than a decade.

Greatest benefit of the fingerprinting, Allgood believes, will accrue to merchants, who annually are victimized by thousands of petty swindlers who might easily be traced through the medium of fingerprints.

NEW YORK-CHICAGO COMMUTER

CHICAGO.—The New York-Chicago airway is the world's busiest sky route. United Air Lines, which has just started the innovation of commuters' service with hourly planes, is flying every 24 hours a distance equivalent to one and one-half round-the-world flights. There are 16 planes in each direction every day.

DONNA of the BIG TOP by BEULAH POYNTER

BEGIN HERE TODAY DONNA GABRIEL, circus performer, falls from the trapeze and is injured. To please her partner, MADELINE SIDDAL, Donna goes to Madeline's home to recuperate, pretending to be her sister. She is ashamed of the deception but keeps it up, even when Bill SIDDAL, Madeline's cousin, asks her to marry him. Bill and Donna are divorced. MRS. PLANTER, housekeeper, discharged by Donna, is her enemy. AMOS SIDDAL, Madeline's grandfather, has a stroke. Meanwhile Madeline, who has married CON DAVID, a circus trainer, is killed. Con knows of Donna's deception and decides to blackmail her. He comes to the nearby town and Donna agrees to marry him. She is shocked and this and sends Bill an anonymous letter. When Donna reaches home after meeting Con she says she has been at a neighbor's. Bill knows she has not.

Next morning he goes to see Con who shows him the certificate of his marriage to Madeline. Bill thinks his wife has committed bigamy. During his absence, Grandfather Sidral dies. Bill tells Donna he "knew the truth and that he will leave immediately after the funeral. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY! CHAPTER XLV DONNA studied the contents of the clothes closet. What an accumulation of clothing she had—bungalow aprons, gingham dresses, her wedding shawl. There was a note tucked in one of the dresses. It was from New York. Her lips twisted as she smoothed the soft, silken folds of the garments she and Minnie had spent so much time making.

Then, because fame men, so little to her, because a career was the last thing she wanted, she dropped on the floor beside the bed and, hugging Bill's pillow in her arms, moaned her love for him. "Oh, Bill! Bill! If I'd never seen you—I if I just didn't love you so much! Why didn't you love me as I love you? Why wasn't I honest with you? I'd have lost you before we were married if I'd told you the truth, but it wouldn't have been so hard then. It's my heart I'm leaving behind, and I can't stand it!"

SHE decided to take only necessities in her traveling bag and made fairly good time. She discovered when she reached the public square that she had plenty of time to catch the 6 o'clock train. She drove the car into the garage adjoining the Central Hotel and asked Ben Goddard, the owner to see that it was returned to the Sidral farm.

"Going away?" Goddard asked. "Yes, to Chicago. Mr. Sidral couldn't drive me in. So I want you to take it back." "How's Grandpa?" Feeling any better?"

She dragged herself to her feet, bathed her swollen eyes and face and combed her disordered hair. She put on her hat and the heavy coat and mittens. Then, carrying the traveling bag, she descended the back stairs.

He too late she realized that she should have withheld the news "He died today," she explained. "My land! That's too bad. It must be something awful important that's taking you to Chicago when your Grandpa has just died." "It is. Will you send the car back right away. Mr. Goddard?" "Sure, sure. "No other death?"

"Spore you're going to catch the 6 o'clock?" "Feeling trapp 2 she said she was if she could get accommodations. To make good her word she walked toward the railroad station, carrying her luggage. Obviously, unless she wanted a worse scandal than the one sure to break, she could not stay overnight at the Central Hotel.

Wagons and machines had passed over the road since she had last traveled it and a dark ribbon was cut through the snow. She

ONLY WHITE HOUSE BABY REVEALED WIFE OF BRITISH WORLD WAR HERO

MILTON BRONNER
Staff Correspondent
Eng.—The only real White House baby, born the wife of a president in the use itself, is today a citizen, wife of a distinguished, and mother of two girls.

The only real White House baby as she looked, center, when she was little Esther Cleveland, 3½ years old, and was about to leave the White House where she was born. Above, as she is today (Mrs. W. S. B. Bosanquet), and at left standing before the Old Hall, their home in England's Yorkshire, in a district known, oddly enough, as Cleveland.

and child, to receive the ambassador in the Blue Room. The only real White House baby, born the wife of a president in the use itself, is today a citizen, wife of a distinguished, and mother of two girls.

day there, when we were waiting for the carriage to convey us to the railway station. "I remember the satisfaction with which I wore my little gloves in preparation for the journey. "There is one thing I do not remember, but which members of the family have told me. I was sitting there very primly, waiting to leave the White House, when one of the attaches said, teasingly: "Why are you leaving us?" "I am supposed to have replied: "Cause there can't be two presidents."

Engaged to Soldier
Young Bosanquet came back from the front in 1917, badly wounded, and when he went back to his regiment, he and Miss Cleveland were engaged. In 1918, during another leave for the young officer, they were quietly married in Westminster Abbey. A week after the wedding, he went back to the trenches for the last few savage battles that closed the war, winning the coveted Distinguished Service Order. Then he came home, and the two settled in Yorkshire, the captain turning to the iron and steel business, and the president's daughter to the rearing of Marian Frances, now 14, and Philippa Ruth, 13. Today, at 40, Mrs. Bosanquet is a tall, slender, youthful-looking woman with a mass of chestnut hair and gray-blue eyes. She has much of the charm and warm, human friendliness that made her mother so beloved a White House hostess.

Reunion in Yorkshire
This summer there will be a reunion in Yorkshire, with a visit to the Bosanquets by the former Mrs. Cleveland, now the wife of Prof. Thomas Jex Preston of Princeton. Mrs. Bosanquet takes no active part in politics, devoting herself to her home, her family, her gardens, and to personal service work among the unemployed of Yorkshire. Nevertheless she is a loyal, if passive, supporter of the Conservative party. She muses thoughtfully over this apparent change from the democratic politics of her distinguished father. "Yet I don't think father would mind," she muses. "After all, what did he stand for. Sound money, a dollar's worth of governmental service for a dollar's worth of taxes. "He insisted that public office should be a public trust. The best of British conservatives stand for the same things. And though the conservatives are a protective tariff party, while he gave us the slogan 'tariff for revenue only'—well, if he were alive today, he would probably change his mind. "Justifies Her Stand "With the whole world fighting for trade, with every country trying to keep its own people employed, he would probably agree that in 1934 theories of free trade have gone into innocuous desuetude—to use his own celebrated phrase. "But the woman who as a little girl sat on the lap of the daddy a nation knew as President Grover Cleveland; and smudged ink on the papers in his study, turns now not to politics, but to her garden, her soldier husband, and her own two bonny daughters. The peaceful, 200-year-old mansion known as "The Old Hall" seems, somehow, a lovely setting for the mature years of the only real White House baby.

Trapshooters To Plan Reno Meet

By United Press
RENO, Nev.—Leading trapshooters of the nation are expected to gather here June 26 for the fourth annual Grand Pacific Trapshooting Championship of the World and Handicap Tournament. The tournament will continue until July 1. It is sponsored by the Reno Trapshooting club, under auspices of the Pacific International Trapshooting association. Thousands of invitations have been sent to all parts of the country in anticipation of a record-breaking entry list. Two hundred or more sharpshooters are expected to attend. Among nationally known shooters already entered are the following: Frank Troeb, Portland, Ore., national champion; Ted Renfro, Dell, Mont.; E. F. Woodward, Houston, Texas; E. G. Coffee, president of the American Trapshooting association; O. N. Ford, Del Monte, Calif., president of the International Trapshooting association, and Henry Rosenbrock, 17-year-old Gardnerville, Nev., youth Nevada state champion. Seven championship events will be staged. They are: 16-yard five-man team championship of the world; 16-yard class championship; sliding handicap winner; preliminary handicap winner; Grand Pacific handicap winner; doubles world's championship. The first two days of the tournament will be devoted to target shooting.

New Oil and Gas Commission Is Being Discussed

By United Press
HOUSTON.—Advisability of creating an oil and gas commission to control Texas' fields, relieving the Texas railroad commission of the responsibility, was discussed in Houston oil circles today. Creation of such a commission is not a new idea. Three times bills to create an oil and gas commission have been introduced in the state legislature. Each time they have been defeated. Rumors are current here that a special session may be called this summer to create the new commission. Oil men said the Fergusons were in favor of the new commission. Under the present laws, the governor would have the appointive powers. Discussion of such a commission was said by some to have shown in effects already on the coming election, July 28. The race is for railroad commissioner, in which Lon A. Smith is running for re-election. He considers his most dangerous opponent to be Gregory Hatcher, former state treasurer. R. D. Parker, member of the commission's staff in the huge East Texas field, probably would throw his hat into the ring against his "boss" if it were not for the loud booming talk about this new commission, oil men say. Parker has been mentioned numerous times as one of the most likely appointees to the oil and gas commission if it were created. He recently was "demoted" from chief supervisor of the oil and gas division of the railroad

Beaumont Man May Become "Man Without a Country"

By United Press
BEAUMONT.—Mike Kouchoucas of Beaumont doesn't know whether he is a "man without a country" or a man of many countries, and Uncle Sam's immigration authorities are equally puzzled. Mike was ordered deported in a case that was carried to the United States circuit court of appeals. He became resigned to his fate. Then Henry S. Vreeland, local immigration and naturalization inspector, received word that the American minister at Athens ascertained that Mike could not be deported to Greece unless his Greek nationality was definitely established. Although of the Greek race, Mike was born on the island of Castellorizo, off the coast of Greece. At the time of his birth the island belonged to Turkey and since the World War the island has been under the sovereignty of Italy. The next step in Mike's case is in the hands of L. D. Crossman, Houston, inspector in charge at Beaumont, who will secure facts from the Italian consul as to the present political status of natives and former resident of Castellorizo. Subsequently similar information may be sought from Turkish authorities. Mike, who was first ordered deported in 1917, but who escaped from a detention camp and was not again taken into custody until last year, is free on bond of $2,000. Meanwhile, Mike is doing what he termed "a darn good fruitstand business."

Telephonic Operator Saved Woman's Life

By United Press
CINCINNATI, O.—Service beyond the line of duty on the part of two sisters, long distance telephone operators, probably saved the life of a recent bride. The sisters were the Misses Clara and Catherine Meehan, whose quick thinking and persistence rushed Mrs. Jean Luckey, 26, to General hospital after she was found unconscious in her apartment, suffering from poison. The woman's condition was discovered when she failed to answer after placing a long distance call to a small Illinois town. The party in Illinois became alarmed and signaled Miss Clara Meehan, the operator, who called her sister, Catherine, supervisor. The sisters found the janitor of the building, who forced his way into the young woman's apartment and sent her to a hospital. QUIT AFTER 4TH FAILURE

"I have driven my Ford V-8 car 26,000 miles and used only 128 gallons of gasoline."

"Our experience (with a fleet of cars) shows the Ford V-8 is the most economical."

V. V. Cooper Announces Candidacy For Commissioner Precinct No. 1

V. V. Cooper of Ranger, former commissioner from Precinct 1, has announced his candidacy for that position, subject to the action of the democratic primaries of July 28. Mr. Cooper served as commissioner from the precinct during the period when there was more activity in the county in building roads and other permanent improvements that were voted and carried out by the commissioner's court. When he first went into office $4,500,000 had just been spent on public roads in Eastland county, including the building of Highway 1 through the county. The roads were not in a completed state and $260,000 in warrants were issued by the commissioners court to complete this road work in order that they might be taken over by the state highway department. During the oil boom the rural roads had been neglected until many of them were in bad condition. When he went into office he put them back on their proper roadbeds, reshaped and rebuilt them, giving the precinct a good system of rural roads. The bridge over Colony Creek at Merriman, a concrete span that cost $6,000, was constructed under his administration. He personally supervised and constructed an 80-foot span over Lake Eastland, a project that was completed for $3,500 and a bridge of the same type over Colony Creek at Panhandle, which cost the same as the Eastland Lake span. In addition to this road work there were 550 small bridges and culverts installed along the rural and state roads that were completed under his administration, a total of approximately 300 miles of such roads being relocated and rebuilt, local labor being used and reasonable wages being paid for all the labor. The former commissioner has the good of the entire county that were originated, planned and carried out during his term in office, as he was actively engaged in each of the movements, and, if elected, plans to become just as keenly interested in the good of his entire district as he was during the years he served the people of his precinct. We asked Ford V-8 owners for the facts and received 53,448 letters and post-cards. They showed a total of 417,161,640 miles. 91.7 per cent reported complete satisfaction—a truly amazing percentage for any automobile. 34,954 of these Ford V-8 owners had driven their cars 272,815,970 miles without a single penny for repairs. Many of them reported twenty, thirty and sixty thousand miles without out trouble or replacements of any kind. Owners' figures on gasoline mileage are further proof of the economy of the Ford V-8. One owner in every four averaged 18, 19 or 20 miles a gallon. 18,420 averaged 15, 16 or 17 miles. Where mileage was less than that it was usually due to continuous driving at high speeds, lack of proper care of the car, extra-heavy loads, or many miles of traveling over mountains or in crowded city traffic. Where you drive and how fast you drive has a great deal to do with gasoline mileage. This data on gasoline mileage is for the 1933 Ford. The New Ford V-8 of 1934 does considerably better than that because of the new dual carburetion, waterline thermostats and new engine refinements. At the same time its power is even greater. We invite you to drive the Ford V-8 and let it tell you its own story of performance, comfort, safety and economy. You save when you buy and you save every mile you drive.

Attending Life Saving Institute
Clarence McKinney, assistant scoutmaster of Troop No. 1, Brownwood, is attending a seven-day Red Cross Life Saving Institute being conducted in Eureka Springs, Ark. After attending this institute and taking the necessary examinations, McKinney will become a regular life saving examiner, and can give instructions to others in both Junior and Senior Red Cross Life Saving. He will go with the Boy Scouts of the Comanche Trail area to the annual camp near Richland Springs in July, as one of the supervisors in water activities during the two weeks the camp is held.

Camp Billy Gibbons
Scout officials are looking forward to having one of the best water front activity programs that the Scouts of the Comanche Trail Council have ever had the opportunity of participating in. The activities this year will be under the supervision of Cliff Pounney and Clarence McKinney, who are both well versed in Red Cross Life Saving and First Aid work. Both will hold examiner's certificates.

All Scouts are being urged to bring their canoes and boats to camp this year as specialization courses will be given in camp this year.

The camp dates have been announced several times but for fear some have missed same—will give them again—first period begins with lunch July 10, closes with breakfast July 25. Camp fees $5.50 for one week—$10.00 for two weeks.

Troop No. 1 Wins First Place
Troop No. 1, Brownwood, took first place in the Boy Scout swimming meet held at Lakewood swimming pool Friday night in connection with the formal opening of the pool for the summer. Troop No. 1, also won the diving contests which were staged.

A demonstration of Life Saving was put on by Clarence McKinney, Red Cross life saving examiner. Hilton Gilliam gave a demonstration of fancy diving.

The scouts will stage another swimming meet on July 4.

Troop No. 2 on Hike
Scoutmaster Dan Gill and 14 of his scouts hiked to Lakewood late Friday afternoon. They took their supper and bedding with them. Several were participants in the swimming meet held there that night. All passed swimming tests, and some passed fire building tests. They spent the night in the open, and hiked back to town after having breakfast there.

Dillinger's Family Lead Quiet Life On Indiana Farm

By United Press

For brief, intermittent visits of law enforcement officers, life goes on tranquilly for members of John Dillinger's family at their farm home near here.

Despite the fact that law enforcement officers are seeking John Dillinger, his 70-year-old father and two young half-sisters live peacefully and quietly.

The girls, Frances, 10, and Doris, 15, attend school during the day, while the father, John W. Dillinger, tills the soil.

In the evening, after a dinner prepared by the father, they combine their efforts to complete the housework. When that is finished the elderly father reads aloud from the Bible. His favorite passage is the story of the return of the Prodigal Son.

On Sundays the girls attend Sunday school at the Quaker church, while the father stays at home and with the aid of a married daughter prepares dinner.

It was one of these dinners, with baked chicken the principal course, that the outlaw son ate on his last visit home with his sweetheart, Miss Evelyn Frechette, early in April.

The home is furnished simply. On the walls of the front room hang mottoes—"Be Kind to Each Other," and "God Bless Our Home."

The chief adornment of the kitchen is a wood-burning stove on which all the meals are prepared.

The elder Dillinger has been the chief cook since the death of his second wife a year ago.

"I am best at bacon and eggs, but I can fix up other meals pretty good," he says modestly.

Frances is the favorite of her outlaw brother.

"Whenever he comes home now he always plays with her and brings her a present," the elder Dillinger explained.

"She arrived back in 1924, before all this trouble started. Johnnie was going with a girl named Frances then and he insisted that the new sister be named the same."

"I remember at that time Johnnie said, 'It is the sweetest name in the world.'"

The Poles, commonly thought of as typical coal miners, entered the anthracite shafts when they immigrated to America, not from choice but by necessity.

They stified their inherent love for farming when they came to America. They lacked resources to engage in farming at that time, but now many of them are able to buy farms.

The earliest invasions of the countryside by the Polish-Americans generally. Their dancing of the lively mazurka and krakowiak on Saturday afternoons aroused criticism from the native farmers of Paderewski were viewed with disfavor.

Military service of the sons of the Polish farmers during the World War removed much of the resentment. The farmers' children have intermarried with natives, embraced educational opportunities, entered business and professional fields, and secured more prestige for the Polish folk.

State Gasoline Tax Returns Were Up During 1933

WASHINGTON—State gasoline taxes in the calendar year 1933 yielded a revenue of more than $519,000,000 as compared with $514,138,900 in 1932 according to reports collected from state authorities by the Bureau of Public Roads, U. S. Department of Agriculture. This figure does not include tax returns from the Federal gasoline tax.

Consumption of gasoline exceeded 14 billion gallons and was slightly less in 1933 than in the previous year. The weighted average tax rate was 3.65 cents per gallon. There was a noticeable increase in the diversion of funds to other than highway purposes and also an increase in funds allocated to local roads.

The total revenue was allocated as follows: To state highways, $27,517,371; to local roads, $111,109,158; to state and county roads, bond payments, $58,972,787; to city streets, $3,334,180; to costs of collection and administration, $2,727,801; and to other than highway purposes, $55,742,173.

Gasoline tax receipts in Texas amounted to $28,479,350 being the tax paid on 711,983,752 gallons of gasoline taxed at 4 cents a gallon.

WORLD FAMED PLAY "WONDER BAR" TO OPEN HERE SOON

Out-doing all previous sensational combinations of stars and spectacles, First National's long awaited international musical drama, "Wonder Bar," will be shown for the first time locally at the Lyric Theatre on Monday.

Kay Francis plays the leading feminine role opposite Al Jolson, who portrays the proprietor of the "Wonder Bar." Ricardo Cortez and Dolores Del Rio have the coveted parts of the two dancers, while Dick Powell and Henry Kolker have the roles of the American composer-orchestra leader and the husband of Kay Francis, respectively. Hal LeRoy, the sensational Broadway player, plays the role of himself in a thrilling dance sequence.

Guy Kibbee and Hugh Herbert play the two American tourists with Ruth Donnelly and Louise Fazenda as their wives, in important character and comedy roles. Robert Barratt has the part of the army officer, who drives his auto over a cliff and unconsciously covers up a murder. Fifi O'Orsay and Merna Kennedy will be seen as the two flirtatious hostesses in the fashionable Parisian night club.

As "Wonderbar," this unique musical proved an international sensation a few years ago. It played for months in all of Europe's capitals and was brought to this country as a stage starring vehicle for Al Jolson. He took it on the road after a season in New York and no production since "The Miracle" has been so generally and generously welcomed. A few months ago First National acquired the screen rights to the production and proceeded at once to make extensive plans for its presentation as the greatest film spectacle of modern times.

It is said that the screen version of "Wonder Bar" returns to some extent to the European script which was considerably altered for the American stage production. This increases the importance of the roles played by the long list of stars assigned to the picture.

Busby Berkeley, creator of the musical numbers that featured "Gold Diggers of 1933"—"42nd Street" and "Footlight Parade," created and staged the special musical spectacles on a scale never before attempted even in these previous successes. Berkeley's ability for sensational departures from the ordinary in camera work has made screen history in the past year.

FILM REVEALS STORY NEVER BEFORE TOLD

For months critics have been predicting that Spencer Tracy would soon emerge as a full-fledged star. All that was needed, they said, was a part strong enough to bring out his latent dramatic talent.

That part has come at last in the role of Murray Golden in the Fox picture, "Now I'll Tell You by Mrs. Arnold Rothstein," which opens at the Lyric theatre on Sunday. Winfield Sheehan, who produced the picture, came to that decision when filming was about half completed and announced that Tracy would be starred in this and future pictures.

The film is a cavalcade of New York's sporting and night life. The city's most exciting years, from 1910 to 1932, are lived again in this powerful story of a woman's great love for a strange man. It's a story that has never been told before, revealing intimate details of a fascinating life, and the dramatic events that led up to its tremendous climax in the man's tragic, mysterious death.

The fact that Tracy won stardom on the strength of his portrayal of Murray Golden is a good advance tip on the power of his performance. In the picture in real life, Golden's credo was "to live every minute I'm alive and die when I'm dead . . . to get all the fun there is out of life . . . be the head of the parade." This is the stuff from which Tracy creates a great characterization.

Helen Twelvetrees plays the important role of Virginia, the wife of Murray Golden. She is a girl of refinement who marries Golden and, because she loves him, overlooks his vices until she learns he has been unfaithful.

And the blonde charmer with whom Golden carries on a secret love affair for several years is portrayed by Murray Golden is a swept to overnight fame by her portrayal of Ruby Vallee's sweetheart in George White's "Scandals." As a night club entertainer, she sings "Foolin' With the Other Woman's Man."

Others in the excellent supporting cast are Robert Glecker, Henry O'Neill, Hobart Cavanaugh, G. P. Huntley Jr., Vince Barnett and Shirley Temple. Edwin Burke of "Bad Girl" fame wrote the dialogue and also directed the picture under Mr. Sheehan's personal supervision.

DOLORES DEL RIO, KAY FRANCIS SEEN IN GORGEOUS GOWNS

Sartorial success, from the Hollywood actress' view, is measured by the amount of brilliance in her formal garb.

Gone are the days when a trim little frock of wash cotton received honorable mention from style conscious ladies. Practical fabrics are now seen and worn only in the daytime. Evening brings forth an array of glamorous, colorful, shiny fabrics, enhancing the charms of the lovely features who wear them, especially for the screen.

Kay Francis and Dolores Del Rio, the two dark haired beauties who perform the leading feminine roles in the First National picture, "Wonder Bar," which comes to the Lyric Theatre on Monday, appear in several ravishing gala costumes designed by Orry-Kelly.

Beaded fabrics lead the group—Miss Del Rio wearing two sequin crowns, one gold and one black, while Miss Francis wears a white beaded gown, showing an extreme low décolletage, with an enveloping cape of black velvet also richly embroidered with beads.

"Wonder Bar" is the international famous musical drama with an all star cast, others being Al Jolson, Ricardo Cortez, Dick Powell, Hal LeRoy, Guy Kibbee, Hugh Herbert, Louise Fazenda, Fifi O'Orsay and Merna Kennedy.

The picture is set amid the gay revelries of a Parisian night club with spectacular musical and dance numbers created and staged by Busby Berkeley in which 300 beautiful girls take part. Music and lyrics are by Harry Warren and Al Dubin while Lloyd Bacon directed.

TO THE PROPERTY OWNERS TAX PAYERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY

PAY NOW--and Save

It being our desire to relieve as much of your tax burden as possible we wish to call your attention to the fact that the special law providing for extension and reduction of penalties, costs and tax costs on delinquent taxes expires June 30, 1934.

After that date we will be required to collect ten per cent penalty, six per cent interest per annum and two dollars cost for each year your taxes are in arrear.

Therefore, we are anxious for you to know these facts and have an opportunity to pay your taxes before the mentioned additions are added which on small amounts will be very on account of the two dollar per year tax cost required by law which cannot omit without an act of the legislature.

For example: If your delinquent taxes for 1931 were Ten Dollars, and paid on or before June 30, 1934, a $60 penalty will be required, making the total amount $10.60, but if paid after June 30, and on or before June 30, 1935, a $1.00 penalty, $2.25 interest and tax cost, will be added, making the amount $15.25.

From the above illustration you readily see that it will be a great advantage to you to take care of your delinquent taxes on or before June 30th, and doing so we will gladly render you every possible service.

Afterward, an extemporaneous debate on "Resolved, that a wooden leg is more useful than a glass eye," with Clifford Stiles and Curtis Terrell representing the senior group, versus J. A. Ross and Terrell Coleman for adult group, the seniors and wooden leg winning out.

Linger Not Club
 Mary Faye Beskow, Louise Jones and Mrs. C. O. Fredregill were co-hostesses to the Linger Not Club Friday afternoon, which met at the Lerner clubhouse for a short business session, opened by their little president, Marilyn Lerner.
 Patsy Bond a new little girl whose parents have recently moved here from Mineral Wells, was voted in, and the club immediately adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bond to inform the new member of her addition to the club.
 Little Miss Bond was introduced to the group by Marilyn. Mrs. Bond motored the girls to the City Park, where after several games, the young hostesses and Mrs. Fredregill refreshed them with iced cream and cake.
 Present: Edna Clarke, Virginia Garrett, Elizabeth Ann Sikes, Gloria Fredregill, Marilyn Lerner, Patsy Bond, Mary Faye Beskow, Louise Jones, and Mrs. Fredregill.

Hospitable Entertainment Honors Mrs. Thomas Butler
 Mrs. Bula R. Connelley was hostess to two beautiful functions this week-end in an affair for Mrs. Thomas Butler, who leaves next Tuesday for Longport, near Atlantic City, N. J., for the summer months, and who has been honored of several social functions, tendered by various friends within recent days.
 Mrs. Connelley's luncheon was marked for the exquisite flowers that centered the lace-laid table, and the appointments in gold-banded green-floated crystalware.
 Tall tapers in matching colors flanked the floral arrangement that centered the table. Place cards, the clever work of Miss Jane Connelley Whittington, were facsimiles of a traveling bag, with the owner's label, M. Butler, attached to handle and destination. Longport, on pennant, with name of guest at foot.
 The menu of cantaloupe cocktail, had luncheon plate of baked chicken, lyonnaise potatoes, corn in green pepper ramekins hot biscuits, iced tea, congealed vegetable salad, rose radishes, and last

Pageant of the Wedding Gown
 Plans are being made for a presentation on June 28 at 8:00 p. m. of the "Pageant of the Wedding Gown," which will have a word setting in the romance of a wedding gown read by Mrs. E. R. Stanford.
 Mrs. J. E. Hickman is chairman of the committee to solicit gowns. She is being assisted in securing the bridal robes by Mesdames P. B. Bittle, W. E. Coleman, D. J. Jobe, Frank Castleberry, W. P. Leslie and others whose names may be added later.
 The unique decorations will be in charge of Mrs. W. A. Martin and the Merry Marthas circle. Mrs. D. F. Houle is chairman of ushers, who will be young men. The bridesmaids and flower girls are being selected by Mrs. Wayne Jones.
 The plans announced for a free will offering have been changed and an admission charge of 15 cents will be made.

Banquet Honors Visiting Officers
 The Pythian Sisters Temple entertained in a K. P. Hall this week-end, with a banquet, at 8:00 p. m. honoring Mrs. Jeannette Hensley of Brownwood Temple, and Mrs. Lula Johnson, Past Grand Chief of Texas.
 The colors of the Brownwood Temple 119, orange and gold, were employed in orange candles in gold containers, a gold bowl of shasta daisies that centered the table, and yellow dints of menu.
 Mrs. Milton Newman was toast-mistress. The welcome was given

ARCFORM SHIP IN PORT
 BOSTON. — For the first time that this type of boat ever came to the United States an arcform ship, owned by Sir Joseph Iserwood, came into port here from Nicolaieff, Russia. The famed ship is capable of riding mountainous seas without reducing its speed, rolls little, and takes little water on board. It had 6,614 tons of coal aboard.
 The fact that half the houses in some American cities have no bath is a pity, we're not so bad, after all. At least that many families never made gin.

Camera Highlights Of The New Lyric Hit

This cameraman has caught the mood, spirit and tempo of the First National mammoth musical drama, "Wonder Bar," coming to the Lyric Monday with an all star cast and 300 Busby Berkeley dancers.

course of angel food, peach ice, and cafe noir.
 After luncheon a delightful visit was enjoyed by the group of intimate friends, who appreciated the original verse of Miss Whittington, published in the C. I. A. official magazine, and her own verses read by Mrs. W. K. Jackson.
 Personnel of guests, Mmes. O. P. Chastain, V. A. Weaver, Earl Conner Sr., J. F. Little, G. L. Davison, W. T. Garrett, W. K. Jackson; honoree, Mrs. Maud Butler; Miss Zillah Garrett of Gorman, Mrs. J. J. Butts of Cisco; Mrs. M. H. Hagaman of Ranger.

The second affair, a charming breakfast at 9 o'clock, had two tables arranged, the hostess presiding in the dining room and Miss Whittington in the sunroom.
 The colonial appointments in dining-room were matched by the old-fashioned bouquet centering table.
 A blackberry and orange cocktail and breakfast plate of shirred egg on toast, baked red cinnamon apple, bacon, hot biscuit, coffee, strawberry marmalade carried the color note.
 The round table seating 12, in the living-room, had appointments in gold-banded crystal, and a gold note, carried out in all appointments and place cards.

A lovely bouquet of gladioli on round mirror plateau, centered the handsome damask cloth.
 Guests were Mmes. Scott W. Key, W. E. Chaney, P. G. Russell, Harry Porter, W. K. Hyer, Allen D. Dabney, J. D. McRae, John Turner, V. T. Seaberry, Hamilton McRae, J. R. McLaughlin, Walter I. Clark, Curtis A. Hertz, Homer Boushfield Jr., E. R. Townsend, Charles Terrell, Mrs. Edward Horgan of Houston, Mrs. J. J. Butts, Miss Mary Jane Hutto, and Mrs. Forest Wright of Cisco; Mrs. Leslie Hagaman of Ranger and honor guest, Mrs. Thomas Butler, for whom Mrs. Key proposed a charming toast in the wish that she would love Eastland better than her old home and be glad to return to Eastland friends.

Mrs. Wood Butler will spend the next five week in Dallas with her son, Wood Jr., who is taking a cultural course in a school of drama.
 Mr. Adieu Parker of Austin accompanied Miss Marjorie Davison, summer student at State U., for a week-end visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Davison, who are also entertaining Miss Marjorie's other guest over the week-end, Miss Penna Burch of Houston.
 Mrs. Joe H. Jones, her daughter, Alice and small son Joe Jr., are spending from Thursday to today with Mmes. Allen D. Dabney, Wilbourne B. Collier and J. Leroy Arnold.
 Miss Ora Fay Hefley, who has been visiting Miss Wilda Drago, left Saturday for Abilene.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mullings and son, Ward, left Saturday to spend the week-end in Stamford.
 Mrs. A. M. Allen of Gorman visited in Eastland Saturday.
 George Bittle was a Ranger visitor Friday.

Boxing Shakeup Is to Be Urged
 BINGHAMTON, N. Y.—Boxing commissions should arrange matches, to insure "clean" bouts, D. Walker Wear, member of the New York state athletic commission, believes.
 He declared that President Roosevelt's "New Deal" must be applied to boxing "if this sport is to keep pace with times."
 "The day of fabulous purses and unscrupulous managers is over," he said. "A $25 top for a heavyweight bout would be very unpopular, and the juggling of boxers by their managers cannot be tolerated."
 "Professional boxers and their managers must face the fact that in order to prosper they must deliver clean boxing. To accomplish this it is necessary to classify boxers by their performances, and after the classification the commissions make the matches."

 A movement is in progress, he said, to effect an agreement whereby rules and decisions will be unanimously accepted by the various boxing commissions in the United States.
 "The movement some day will be successful, and the widespread interest in the art will enable the commissions to control participants without the existence of unscrupulous managers."

Scientific Pair Growing Cancer Cells In Rats
 By United Press
 NEW YORK.—Scientific observation of deadly cancerous cells grown in the stomach of rats by feeding certain nematode worms, and in their livers through the feeding of tapeworms larvae will, it is hoped, provide scientists with additional information in their battle against cancer.
 The story of this medical offensive against cancer and allied malignant growths forms part of a recent report issued by Dr. Warren H. Lewis and Mrs. Margaret R. Lewis, both of the Carnegie Institution in Washington.
 In their laboratories, these two scientists produced not only cancer cells in the rats' stomachs and livers but, in addition, developed

Eastland Personals
 Sam Butler Jr. and chauffeur, accompanied by P. G. Russell and his daughter, Geraldine, left Eastland Friday morning for the East. The Russells will spend his two weeks vacation with his mother, Mrs. H. Colcott, at her home in New Haven, Conn., and after his departure Geraldine and her grandmother will spend the summer in Mrs. Colcott's summer home in Madison. Young Butler will go on to Longport, near Atlantic City, N. J., to join his grandmother, Mrs. Butler, and sister Helen, for their summer's stay.
 Mr. W. H. McDougal of Lamesa arrived Wednesday, called by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. E. A. Parsons, aged 77 years.
 Mrs. Wood Butler will spend the next five week in Dallas with her son, Wood Jr., who is taking a cultural course in a school of drama.
 Mr. Adieu Parker of Austin accompanied Miss Marjorie Davison, summer student at State U., for a week-end visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Davison, who are also entertaining Miss Marjorie's other guest over the week-end, Miss Penna Burch of Houston.
