AS D. HAMLIN OF FARWELL NEW WTCC HEAD

Angelo is host to the West Chamber of Commerce this evening. Among the things that are being discussed is the possibility of a new set-up for the relief of the unemployed. The present set-up is being questioned from every section of the state. It is not from the standpoint of denying those who are in need of help, but in some manner always been the case. About the biggest expense, foolishness we have ever seen. The organization alone is costing millions of dollars. SOIL EROSION PROJECT TO BE STARTED SOON

WASHINGTON, May 16.—A soil erosion project on the watershed of Duck creek in Smith county, Texas, embracing approximately 25,000 acres, was announced today by Director H. H. Bennett of the soil erosion service. Experiments made now affect a 33,000,000-acre section of sandy lands, extending from East Texas into southeastern Arkansas and northwestern Louisiana. Annual loss of soil in that section is proceeding at the rate of 19 tons of soil per acre, measurements at the Tyler erosion station have indicated. That loss has perturbed Uncle Sam for two reasons: (1) Millions of tons of top-soil, valuable to agriculture, swept into the gulf each year by rains that gully across the state, represent a tremendous economic loss. (2) By storing the rain where it falls, instead of letting it run off, the soil erosion service can materially aid the national flood control program. Nearly 20 per cent of an East Texas rain is lost. Slopes and hillsides are shredded with gullies. The federal government proposes to experiment with four methods of erosion control in East Texas: 1. Plant steep slopes in the Duck creek watershed with trees and grasses. A cover of grass reduces the loss of soil to one-fifth of a ton per acre, and the runoff of rain to 1 1/2 per cent. 2. Encourage the rotation of crops. 3. Strip cropping, terracing and contour plowing will be urged for less steep slopes. 4. Check dams and similar devices will be installed at strategic points. No special effort will be made to restore gully-washed lands to farming. The soil erosion hopes that replanting trees and thick vegetative growths will lead to a restoration of game and bird life. The Duck creek project will be directed by Louis P. Merrill, native Texan and graduate of John Tarleton and Texas A. & M. college. Prior to appointment as regional director of the erosion project, Merrill was agricultural director of the Tyler Chamber of Commerce.

KINGCADE WELL RESPONDS TO NITRO SHOT

CISCO, May 16.—Shot Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with 80 quarts, the Lone Star Gas company's No. 1 Kingcade well, north of Cisco, Texas, was being cleaned out Tuesday with the prospect it will be completed for about a 75-barrel well. Gas flow was increased from about 200,000 feet to an estimated million feet by the shot. The well responded with two strong flows over the derrick after the time bomb set off the nitro-glycerin, and then bridges 32 feet off bottom. The well is bottomed in Marble Falls lime after passing a broken Lake sand formation without show. It picked up oil and gas showing at about 3,591 and was drilled to 3,608.

Officer Discredits Barrow's Claim He Was In Missouri

FORT WORTH, May 16.—Police Identification Superintendent Barney Finn today discredited Clyde Barrow's claim he was not in Texas on the date of the slaying of two highway patrolmen near Grapevine. Finn pointed out that in police files here is a whisky bottle found near the bodies of the officers which bears Barrow's fingerprints. The fingerprints are dim, but undoubtedly Barrow's, Finn said. The bottle has been packed away in cotton for evidence against Barrow when and if he is captured.

BODY URGES NEW SETUP FOR STATE RELIEF

LAWMAKERS ASKED TO REMOVE TECHNICALITIES IN CRIMINAL PROCEDURE. SAN ANGELO, May 16.—James D. Hamlin of Farwell today was named president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of directors of the organization. Ray H. Nichols, Vernon, was named first vice president and C. M. Caldwell of Abilene, second vice president. F. E. Morrow, treasurer, was re-elected, as was D. A. Bandeen, manager of the organization. Selection of the 1935 convention city was slated for later in the day. A resolution was adopted condemning the present system of distributing relief in Texas, charging administrative costs were too high. The convention proposed a new setup whereby volunteer county agencies would administer relief funds, whatever their source. The regional organization asked for reaching changes in state government in other resolutions. It particularly asked lawmakers to remove from the criminal code trivial technicalities, elimination of a "virtual unlimited pardon powers" now held by the governor.

KIDNAPERS OF GETTLES GIVEN LIFE VERDICTS

LOS ANGELES, May 16.—Prison walls closed about the kidnapers of William Gettles today, a week after James Kirk, Roy Williams and Larry Kerrigan planned the ransom abduction of the Beverly Hills millionaire. Swift justice was meted the trio last night. On their pleas of guilty they were sentenced to life under California's new kidnaping law, under which, as interpreted by Judge Charles Fricke, the trio will be doomed to life in prison, but "with the possibility of parole." They agreed to plea guilty to escape a possible death penalty, permitted only if a victim has been harmed. Gettles said he was not. Two women, arrested with the gang, remained in jail, uncertain if they might be charged with conspiracy to kidnap. The kidnapers will be transferred to San Quentin prison late today.

FORT WORTH, May 16.—State and federal relief director today predicted unprecedented distress if the state should disband its present setup as demanded by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. "West Texans are not familiar with the relief situation in cities," C. W. Woodman, head of the U. S. employment service, said. "There are thousands out of work with no prospects but work relief. What does the West Texas Chamber of Commerce offer as a substitution?"

Baptists to Unite In Fight Against 'Social Injustice'

FORT WORTH, May 16.—A call to arms of all religious denominations to unite in a fight against "social injustice" and atheism was sounded here today by Dr. M. E. Dodd of Shreveport, La., at the annual Southern Baptist convention. "In a day when the battering winds of atheism and infidelity are being hurled against all religions, we Southern Baptists should form any possible union with others in holding the line against a common enemy. "We cannot evade the responsibility of properly positioning ourselves in the midst of an order when social and economic inequities and injustices are brought to our attention daily."

Announcement has just been received from G. N. Quirl, scout executive for the Comanche Trail council, which includes Stephens, Eastland, Erath, Comanche, Brown, Mills, San Saba, and Lampasas counties, that the annual summer camp will start July 10. Special courses will be presented in swimming and life saving. The troop unit plan of camping will be carried on as heretofore. There will be something new for the old camper and lots of things for the new camper. Mr. Quirl states that with the co-operation of scouts and scouters this will be the outstanding camp of the southwest during this season.

The annual appeal of the Salvation Army is to be made in Eastland county this week. W. D. Pedigo, campaigner from headquarters office, who has been coming here for the past several years will be in charge. The campaign will be made under the supervision of the county advisory board as follows: The estimate has been set at $50,000 for the county. Funds derived from the campaign will be used to carry on the extensive Christian service in this section and the Texas division. They operate without regard to class or creed, and appeal to all who are interested in the neglected or suffering. Every effort to administer the affairs of the work as economical as possible is made. During the past year in this division, meals were served to 476,000 transients, jobs were found for 4,000 men and women; 97,000 families were given general relief; clothing furnished to 6,000 and more than 200 girls were cared for in maternity homes and hospitals. A good percentage of the service is shared by the rural towns and communities. This appeal is for the entire year. No other authorized canvases will be made.

Agents Seek Kidnapers of June Robles

TUCSON, Ariz., May 16.—Ace federal and state investigators today pushed for the kidnapers of six-year-old June Robles as their child victim rapidly recovered from imprisonment from a hot, desert hole. Experts from Washington joined Arizona authorities in examining clues and running down leads imparted in the little girl's own story in 19 terrible days she spent in the kidnapers' hands. Federal agents pursued a warming trail in the search with the identification of two garbage cans found in the desert cave from which June was liberated. Two unnamed suspects, both with police records, were said to be under surveillance.

Reed defeated Gov. Gifford Pinchot, an ardent Roosevelt supporter. This is the issue of the New Deal vs. the Old Deal will be squarely joined in the coming election. Joseph Duffey, whose chief campaign plea was that "I'm for Roosevelt," won the democratic primary contest and will oppose Reed.

Millions Are Urged For Public Roads

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Chairman Wilbur Cartwright, Democrat, Oklahoma, of the house roads committee, today told the United Press he will lead a fight in the house to earmark for construction at least $200,000,000 of the funds asked for by President Roosevelt in his message to congress. Under the present draft of the new bill submitted by the president the stipulation is made not more than $100,000,000 shall be used for this purpose. Cartwright said he believed there is enough sentiment in both house and senate in favor of earmarking a large sum for road work.

Trans-Ocean Flight Ends In Ireland

LAHINCH, Ireland, May 16.—George Sabelli and George Pondret, seaman and eager to continue their adventure, surveyed their monoplane Leonardo da Vinci in a field two miles from here today and prepared to resume their New York to Rome flight. The flyers, listed among the fortunate ones who barely made the trans-Atlantic flight that has cost so many lives, believed they could easily repair the slight damage to the plane's undercarriage and fix the balky gasoline and oil feed lines. The balky oil and gasoline feed lines, coupled with a fog, forced them down. Their plane struck a fence and was damaged.

TO THE PUBLIC

The Eastland Daily Telegram and the Weekly Chronicle, having signed the Graphic Arts code approved by Hugh Johnson under the Federal Recovery Act, is operating under that code and following it to the letter. The Graphic Arts Code authorities have approved a price schedule, and methods for arriving at the cost of commercial printing, which each and every commercial printer is bound under the code to comply with in making prices on commercial printing. The Daily Telegram and Weekly Chronicle, just like the other commercial printers of this county who are under the same code these papers are under, received these price schedules by collect express. The cost of administering this Graphic Arts Code is assessed against the commercial printers coming under it, and these newspapers have paid their assessments. We respectfully ask the co-operation of the people in getting this code into effect and living up to its rules and regulations. Eastland Daily Telegram, Eastland Weekly Chronicle.

that reminds me...
Angelo is host to the West Chamber of Commerce this evening. Among the things that are being discussed is the possibility of a new set-up for the relief of the unemployed. The present set-up is being questioned from every section of the state. It is not from the standpoint of denying those who are in need of help, but in some manner always been the case. About the biggest expense, foolishness we have ever seen. The organization alone is costing millions of dollars. There are jobs for many of the hands who are out of work. They will get busy and put to work. As long as the industry doesn't seem to be about it much. It must be remembered that all the dollars have been scattered out and a for a while made business good in many smaller sections. It will have to be paid back by somebody is no one but the ones that got it. It is something worth out to the pay back. So it was massive money that made the register ring.

complaints continue to in from the fact that Eastland has no bank. Just how is going to work out we know... but there is one certain and that is it is up to the citizens of Eastland to do something about it. This is here... and its now... costly business of not having a bank is placing us below par in business world... and we did look to our condition with an effort to overcome it.

Little June Robles, and William F. Gettles, both appealed for ransom which was necessary to pay. Peculiar that they both have been on the same day just what was done with the kidnapers is to be seen. Naturally that no money was paid and law was directed to the places the kidnapers in one instance a little different angle on it. The other instance they were in a trap... and probably had continued to demand ransom... We don't know if should be done in either instance. It is worse than murder because any one... yet no were taken and no money made over... so there you are strictly a matter of a jury's science now.

commented the other day on price advances... one said that wheat went from 30 cents a bushel to fifty cents and immediately flour went to a dollar and forty cents... eight pound sack. Cotton up to ten cents a pound and immediately overalls went up from nine cents to a dollar and fifty cents. The price of flour went to a dollar and a half that later went down to six bits and money in wages and prices for shirts for the dollar and a half that they did for the lower end. And it was that way all around. The only time that was a pound cut a figure is when some is taken into consideration profits can be shaved off of the item by the reason of increased sales. A trip Tuesday to the Hot Water Well at South just 50 miles north of Eastland on the Graham-Breckenridge highway, found there one of the health resorts we have seen many a day. Also found and to people who have been cured of many ills particularly skin diseases. The well came in from a peculiar angle. First an 8000 ft. oil well came in with a million feet of gas. Then all of a sudden it changed to water with a temperature of 100 degrees Fahrenheit. It was considered useless at first and then purely by accident it was discovered that the water had God given healing powers and those who have been cured have gone on and told others until now thousands of people go there every week from every section of the state. The hotel and cottages facilities take care of transients. It kept immaculately clean. Mr. Stoval is always on hand to see that everybody who comes receives a courteous welcome and is shown all through wonderful properties that are located there. 4,000 acres of beautiful prairie ground surround it and each side there are scenic views to add to the enjoyment. The drive is pleasing and the roads are wonderful.

Enriched by Tradition

Fine beer can't be made over night. Behind fine beer must be age—and tradition. BUDWEISER is richly endowed with both. Anheuser-Busch began brewing in 1859. BUDWEISER was created in 1876. Its unforgettable quality was so outstanding that in the International Exposition in Paris in '78 it won first honors from all the brews of the world. It was awarded the gold medal at the World's Fair in Philadelphia in 1876, at Amsterdam in 1883, at New Orleans in 1885 and Chicago in 1893. BUDWEISER's greatest distinction never has been matched by any other brew anywhere—the biggest selling bottled beer in history.
