

Roosevelt's New Tactics Emphasize Split In Democratic Ranks

By NATHAN ROBERTSON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—President Roosevelt's aggressive legislative program—evidence anew in his Roanoke Island speech—emphasized today the potentialities of the split which has developed within his party during this session of congress.

The chief executive followed up his selection of liberal Senator Black (D-Ala) for the supreme court with a fighting speech yesterday at Roanoke Island in which he characterized his critics as "American Lord Macaulays" who do not believe in democracy.

These two developments within the past week culminated a series of events which have completely changed the political picture since the president began his second term seven months ago today.

The Black appointment in itself was evidence of the changing political shift in senate leadership, in which the death of Senator Robinson of Arkansas was only a part.

At the outset of the session, Robinson and Senators Harrison of Mississippi and Byrnes of South Carolina were the acknowledged senate leaders and Roosevelt spokesmen on Capitol Hill.

Suddenly, younger and more liberal senators took their places. Barkley of Kentucky became the majority leader by one vote over Harrison, and Senators Schwelb of Washington and Minnow of Indiana, together with Black, formed the new inner circle.

The session began with 76 almost united democrats forming the largest party majority in the senate ever had seen. It is ending with 75 democrats divided into nearly equal factions on some of the Roosevelt legislative proposals.

Thus the democrats on some issues have turned the balance of power over to the numerically weak republican minority, not only in the senate, but in the house.

Even Vice President Garner's status has changed. At the outset he was regarded as a stalwart behind-the-scenes negotiator for all presidential policies. Although still friendly and loyal to the president, he has been the spearhead of opposition to some administration plans.

President Roosevelt's court reorganization proposal is credited generally with creating the party friction. But close observers have noted many contributing causes, some nearly as fundamental.

Harrison and Byrnes supported the court bill, but they along with Garner and others in the party were critical of the president's handling of the sit-down strike during the winter.

They clashed also with the president on his spending policies, first in private, and when that failed to gain results, in public. The "last straw" for many of the critical democrats, particularly those from the southern wing of the party, was the wage-hour bill.

The court row did not develop the factionalism in the house that it did in the senate, where it centered. But the wage-hour bill did.

Picnics and dinners held to smooth over party differences have been in vain. The day after a "harmony" dinner in honor of Barkley, the democrats divided fiercely over anti-lynching legislation.

Privately, leaders of both factions have agreed the differences were too fundamental to be so easily smoothed over. But few have been willing to forecast the outcome of the split.

Observers have talked freely of a new political alignment resulting from the situation. Perhaps the difference can be ironed out. President Roosevelt in his address yesterday, however, gave no sign of surrender. Referring to the "modern Macaulays," he said:

"They love to intone praise of liberty, to mouth phrases about the sanctity of our constitution—but in their hearts they distrust majority rule because an enlightened majority will not tolerate the abuses which a privileged minority would seek to fast upon the people as a whole."

Observers noted that the most conspicuous defense of liberty and the constitution in recent months came from democratic framers of the adverse committee report on the Roosevelt court bill.

While the president did not disclose whether he had those men in mind, his words hinted he might be ready to take his policies to the nation in a life-and-death battle for political supremacy.

State Men Ordered To Dallas To Put End To Violence

AUSTIN, Aug. 19 (AP)—Gov. James V. Allred today ordered the public safety department to send 25 men to Dallas to put a stop to the beating of persons and other violence there.

The governor acted after reading of reported threats against George Baer, official of the United Hatters and Milliners union, who was abducted recently and flogged by a group of men.

He sharply denounced the violence and declared that if 25 men were not enough to prevent recurrence he would send more. "My information is that threats of violence are continuing," Governor Allred said.

"This business of beating and kidnapping has got to stop," Capt. Homer Garrison, director of the safety department in the absence of Col. H. H. Carmichael, said he intended to issue orders to all the men by noon.

"The men sent to Dallas will be gathered from ranger companies in all parts of the state," he said. A few days ago the governor posted a reward of $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons connected with the tarring and feathering of the public safety department to join the investigation.

At that time he asserted that if local officials were unable to find the guilty persons and prevent violence the state would step in.

He said rangers still were on duty at Fort Worth in connection with a strike at the plant of the Lone Star Gas company.

Crops In Area Benefited By Showers

Fall Varying From Half-Inch To Two Inches Reported

Timely thunderstorms Wednesday evening checkered the Big Spring area, bringing relief to parched fields and ranges, and practically assuring crops in some sections.

At Big Spring, where the average amount was recorded, the U. S. weather bureau at the airport reported .76 of an inch and the U. S. experiment farm .54 of an inch.

Coahoma had little more than a light shower while parts of the country surrounding R-Bar received as much as half an inch. Rainfall in the Elbow community was estimated between three-quarters and an inch, and similar reports came from the country south to the Glasscock county line.

Garden City measured .80 of an inch and had reports of an inch to an inch and a half in the western part of the county. The east half received about as much as the county seat. The rain was enough to be of temporary benefit to ranges.

Ackerly was visited by light showers, hardly enough to make water run in ditches, but south in the Brown community of Martin county as much as two inches was reported. East of Knott an area experienced a two and half inch downpour.

Stanton registered heavy showers and the Courtney community eight miles northwest had three-quarters of an inch. Lenora, in northeastern Martin county, had moisture ranging from an inch and a half to three inches. The northern half of the county generally received a substantial amount of precipitation which was added to two inches falling in separated areas the night before.

In the southern part of the county the fall was more spotted and lighter with reports of a quarter to half of an inch being received. Reports of possibly scattered showers tonight and Friday gave hope that most of this section would be visited by enough moisture to insure the production of crops. Most farmers, who missed the heavier showers, said a lack of moisture would turn the trick.

Dan Reid, department of commerce inspector of airports, accompanied by City Manager E. V. Spence, left Thursday morning for San Angelo to check with district WPA officials on the local airport project.

Spence said that the original project had been checked by WPA and returned for changes, and that he was taking the revised and final form of the project to San Angelo for checking by the district staff.

Since in the early spring Reid has maintained a watchful eye on the Big Spring project and has offered technical advice on the preparation of plans.

Tentative plans call for the installation of catch basins on the runways, the work to be done on a section basis. Looking toward the project, the city purchased a heavy duty maintainer to be divided between the airport and street departments. Thus far it has been utilized on street construction work.

Eventual object of the local airport project is surfaced runways and relocation of the terminal building.

DEBT TO NEW PEAK WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—The public debt reached a new record peak of $36,891,415.07 August 17.

A treasury report showed today this figure compared with $33,410,520.689 on the corresponding date last year.

Child-Labor Bill Voted By Senate WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—The senate passed the Wheeler-Johnson child labor bill by unanimous consent today and sent it to the house.

The measure would prohibit interstate commerce in goods made by children under 16 years of age, and in the case of hazardous industries under 18.

The same language was incorporated in the wage and hour bill which passed the senate, but the senate passed the separate measure today when Chairman Wheeler (D-Mont) suggested that action might result in approval of that part of the wage-hour measure at this session of congress.

The wage-hour bill has been shelved for the session.

LAMB'S WIDOW FREED AT HOT SPRINGS HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Aug. 19 (AP)—Sheriff Marion Anderson said he had released from custody today Mrs. Lorena Feaster Lamb, widow of Alfred "Bonny" Lamb, escaped Texas convict slain here Sunday night.

A charge against her of harboring a criminal was dismissed in municipal court today on motion of Prosecuting Attorney Gibson Witt, Jr.

Sheriff Anderson said the woman left immediately with Lamb's mother and brother for Berryville, Ark.

Forces Driven Back To Near River's Edge

Reinforcements From Tokyo Arrive As Battle Continues

SHANGHAI, Aug. 19 (AP)—Japan's heavily reinforced army was in imminent danger of being split in two and driven back into the Whangpoo river tonight by a surging Chinese drive.

Pushed toward river After fighting off a full day of repeated Japanese stab attacks, the Chinese thrust a powerful wedge into the broken Japanese lines, pushing their foe to within 900 yards of the murky river.

The Japanese positions were shattered just a mile below the Astor House hotel in the heart of the Japanese area of the international settlement.

With the water at their backs the Japanese were battling hard to keep from being cut in two. The Chinese thrust came amid Japan's first major offensive, in the Kiangsu area of north Shanghai where Shanghai's great civilian center is located. There, the Chinese apparently were holding their own against Japanese infantry, artillery, naval and air attacks.

Heavy reinforcements of regular army troops from Japan heartened the attackers in this sector. Seven transport loads of men, munitions and artillery were landed; 16 Japanese troop ships, carrying 22,000 men, lay off the mouth of the Yangtze.

Bombs Miss Mark The Japanese sought to cut off the Chinese in Shanghai from help from the Yangtze, to the north. There were reports that 800,000 Chinese were concentrated at Nanking, the capital up the Yangtze, to reinforce the more than 100,000 already fighting about 25,000 blue-jackets here.

Japanese air bombs missed their mark and smashed at the American Southern Baptist mission in the Chapel quarter in north Shanghai and at the American Mission hospital at Nankingow, up the Yangtze in Kiangsu province. The mission suffered heavily, and the fate of its 20 Americans was not known.

American consular authorities took a firm stand against a Japanese naval plan to take complete control of the river Whangpoo, by which foreigners must be evacuated to the sea.

Must Keep River Open United States Consul General Clarence E. Gauss decisively told Japanese naval authorities traffic through Shanghai and Woesung—the gateway to the sea and safety for thousands of Americans—must be absolutely unrestricted.

Other foreign authorities were understood to have taken a similar stand. The American consulate learned See JAP FORCES, Page 5, Col. 1

Other Blocks Included For Paving Work

Signatures Completed For Improvement On East Park Street

Two more blocks have been added to the city's fiscal year paving program, and with eight blocks virtually assured on Goliad street, the schedule of 20 blocks for the 12 month period apparently is exceeded before the halfway mark.

The two blocks completely signed Thursday are on E. Park street between Scoury and Lancaster, connecting the pavement on Scoury with surfacing in Edwards Heights.

The paving mapped for Goliad is between Third and Eleventh streets, and when signed will give the city a total of 22 blocks of paving. Work has been started on 14 of the blocks.

Scheduling of the year's quota does not mean that the city will not line up other paving jobs, E. V. Spence, city manager, said Thursday. He urged people interested in securing paving to inquire at the city hall.

Paralleling the city's paving program, the contractors on state highway No. 1 have started installation of structures on the western end of Third street. The street is closed to traffic from the Douglas street to the west city limit. As soon as the structures on that section are in, the laying of curb and gutter on the 50-foot street will start.

Absentee Voting In Bond Election Ends Saturday

With only two days left in which to cast absentee votes, 32 persons had cast such ballots in the city's $50,000 bond issue election slated for a week from Thursday.

Absentee voting on the issue officially ends Saturday evening.

A check of those who rendered property prior to the convening of the board equalization Monday against the poll tax list showed Thursday that 730 persons would be qualified to cast ballots in the election to determine if the city will finance purchase for a site for the West Texas hospital for insane.

Abstracts on three of five pieces of land included in the tract offered by Big Spring to the board of control for the hospital location are in Austin for examination by the attorney general. Two others were to be dispatched from here Thursday evening.

SLEEPING SICKNESS ATTACKS HORSES

FORT WORTH, Aug. 19 (AP)—A seasonal outbreak of sleeping sickness among horses in the Panhandle, with losses in some instances running as high as 50 per cent, was reported today by Dr. Leon G. Cloud, assistant state veterinarian of the livestock sanitary commission.

The greatest area of infection includes farms and ranches between Lubbock and Amarillo, Dr. Cloud said.

The veterinarian estimated there are 150 horses now affected in Northwest Texas counties. Last year the disease was reported by inspectors in the vicinity of San Angelo, Big Spring and Vernon but in no other area in the state has equine encephalomyelitis broken out this summer.

The malsity is transmitted from diseased animals by flies and mosquitoes, Dr. Cloud said.

B'SPRING WINS NEXT DRUGGISTS' MEET

Big Spring Thursday was awarded a major regional convention for 1938, winning the next semi-annual gathering of the West Texas Pharmaceutical association.

Word of the druggists' decision, made at the group concluded at fall convention at Lubbock, was telephoned to The Herald by Shine Phillips, one of a local delegation attending the Lubbock meeting.

Others there were Charles Frost, local drug store proprietor, and Cal Boykin, manager of the Crawford hotel.

Frost was named to the association's executive committee. Phillips appeared on the convention program, responding to the welcome address as the session opened at Lubbock. The three Big Spring men were expected back later in the day.

West Texas druggists meet semi-annually, and their Big Spring convocation will be held in March. The meetings regularly draw several hundred druggists from over a wide section of the state.

Tighter Tax Law Passed

Administration Measure Quickly Disposed Of By Senate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—The senate passed today the administration's tax avoidance bill, designed to plug loopholes through which the government has lost about $100,000,000 revenue annually.

Approved after a brief and almost perfunctory debate, the non-controversial measure was sent back to the house for consideration of minor senate amendments.

Chairman Harrison (D-Miss) of the senate finance committee told his colleagues the legislation would check the use of personal holding companies, foreign corporations, the multiple trusts, and incorporation of personal talents to avoid income tax liability.

It was drafted at the president's request after a joint congressional committee had investigated scores of corporate devices used to escape taxation.

The bill was adopted without a record vote a few minutes after the house convened. Not a single provision was questioned.

Governor's Wife Ready To Take Senate Post

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Dixie Graves, 65, wife of the governor of Alabama, was in the capital today, ready to serve her state as senator if appointed by her husband.

Governor and Mrs. Graves arrived by airplane from Montgomery last night. Both refused to say whether she would be selected to fill the vacancy that will be created when Senator Hugo L. Black resigns to join the supreme court.

Alabama congressmen, however, said Mrs. Graves would get the appointment.

The governor arranged to visit President Roosevelt, presumably to discuss a successor to Black, whose term expires in January, 1939.

At the Alabama capital it was said Graves probably would call a special election to fill the remainder of the term next August 1.

Tried To Force Plane Ride, Now Faces Aerial Kidnaping Charge

HOUSTON, Aug. (AP)—Boysack Hamerly, who "wanted to fly off somewhere to look for work," awaited a preliminary hearing today on charges he kidnaped an airplane pilot while 9,000 feet in the air.

The hearing will be held Monday before Justice of the Peace J. M. Ray, before whom complaints were filed charging 19-year-old Hamerly held up a taxi-cab driver and kidnaped Pilot Bob Hunt.

Detectives Arch Spradley and Ira Williams related the youth admitted he tried to force Hunt to take him to Laredo, where he wanted to find a job. Pilot Hunt meanwhile was

Slash In Oil Quotas Seen

Testimony At Hearing Reveals Decline In E-Tex Pressure

AUSTIN, Aug. 19 (AP)—The railroad commission, conducting a statewide prorotation hearing, heard a report of its engineers today that gas pressure in the big East Texas oil field had declined sharply in the last month.

E. V. Cottingham, chief engineer, testified the average bottomhole pressure on August 12 was 1,141.35 pounds, which represented a decline of 13.71 pounds from July 12, or an average drop of .925 pound per million barrels of allowable production.

He expressed the opinion the decline was excessive and withdrawals of oil were too great. If the present factor on which the allowable is computed should be continued, he said, there would be an accelerated pressure reduction.

"An efficient allowable would be between 425,000 and 450,000 barrels daily," Cottingham testified. "On August 16 it was 473,465 and it probably will be more than 475,000 by the end of August."

East Texas is allowed to produce 2.22 per cent of the average hour potential this factor having been in effect for many months.

Some operators saw in Cottingham's report a strong probability the allowable of the field would be curtailed. Ernest O. Thompson, commission member, previously had indicated the allowable for the whole state would be reduced because of anticipated seasonal decline in demand.

The commission also received the report of the federal bureau of mines estimating Texas share of the national demand for crude oil production in September at 1,412,000 barrels daily. The estimate was an increase of 15,400 barrels over that for August and 108,500 barrels less than the current estimated production of 1,520,400.

Lake Deaths A Mystery

Bodies Of Man And Wife, Drowning Victims, Recovered

FORT WORTH, Aug. 19 (AP)—The depths of Eagle Mountain lake today gave up the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Hovey Durlinger, but there was no ready answer to the riddle of why the couple had suddenly disappeared from their small boat before a witness' eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Durlinger were married in 1935. Court records today disclosed that Durlinger's mother filed an annulment suit Aug. 5.

Yesterday, Mrs. Anna May Taylor, a friend the Durlingers had asked to go fishing with them, said they were in the boat on the choppy lake when Hovey, 34, decided he would go in the water to "cool off."

She said he swam for a while and returned to the craft. Ten minutes later, she said, Durlinger jumped from one side of the boat and his 28-year-old wife from the other. While she frantically sought to maneuver the boat the couple disappeared.

Several hours later Mrs. Taylor drifted ashore and notified authorities.

WANTS A TEN-CENT LOAN ON COTTON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Senator Bankhead (D-Ala) asked President Roosevelt today to authorize a government loan of 10 cents a pound on cotton.

The senator, saying Secretary Wallace had advocated a 9-cent loan, told newspapermen 10 cents would be best for both the government and the farmer because the farmer actually was "going to get 15-cent cotton anyway."

The president recently was reported to have agreed with the cotton bloc in congress, to order loans on this year's cotton to farmers who pledged compliance with crop control legislation which will be enacted next session.

ROBS BANK OF $500

PERRY, Okla., Aug. 19 (AP)—A middle-aged robber walked into the Exchange Bank here today, held customers and clerks in their places with a revolver, scooped up between $500 and $600 in currency and fled north in an automobile.

A posse, raced in pursuit of the fleeing car but its trail was lost.

READING AND WRITING

By John Selby

"THE PRESS AND WORLD AFFAIRS," by Robert W. Desmond; (Appleton-Century; $4).

This department lost itself in the numerous pages of Robert W. Desmond's "The Press and World Affairs" and read therein much longer than it should. This reading was not consecutive, however, but the opposite; wherever an attractive subject raised its head, there we read.

Well—Mr. Desmond has written an excellent treatise, not alone because he agrees with us. He does not come to any exciting new conclusion, because this is quite impossible in his field. He does, however, survey afresh the familiar pastures, and find there some opposite truths.

It is always difficult for a writer to say what he really feels about something he knows intimately. Mr. Desmond apparently dislikes saying things too harshly, because he fears being misunderstood. He intimates, for example, that one thing much the matter with newspapers is a change in the mentality of their owners and editors; that newspapers once were editorially minded, now they are business.

The shift from a profession to a business standard, in other words. This gentleness should not obscure the fact that the larger shift is not this at all, but one from the domination of a government or a clique such as almost always supported the early papers, to the undeniable present fact that a paper lives on advertising.

Mr. Desmond also analyzes the sad truth that the readers themselves devalue a paper and its presentation of news. Only in news of the arts and sciences and sports, the thinks, is reader domination inoperative. Editors who think ahead of their readers are likely to find their road pretty difficult, even today, in Mr. Desmond's opinion. And yet those who merely go along are unlikely to make much impression on their profession.

There is a lot besides opinion in "The Press and World Affairs," however. Mr. Desmond has summarized excellently the technique of news gathering and distribution, and he knows the mechanics of the feat very well.

Useful Hints May Benefit Housewife

To prolong the lives of children's books apply a thin coat of colorless shellac to the covers.

Small weights sewed on the hems of glass or wraw curtains will help keep them hanging straight.

Tomato juice put up in glass jars should be stored in a dark, dry place to preserve its color and flavor.

To remove iodine stains soak the stained area in two cups of warm water and soap suds in white one tablespoonful of household ammonia has been dropped.

To prepare dates so they will blend better with other ingredients in cooked dishes, cover them with a little hot water or milk. That will soften them.

A weekly waxing, requiring only a few minutes, will greatly lengthen the lives of hardwood floors. It also will save work, since the wax fills the pores in the wood and keeps out dust.

Bread should be cooled thoroughly before it is stored. In hot weather, especially, each loaf should be inspected daily — for mold. The bread box also should be cleaned and aired frequently and kept in as cool a place as possible.

To remove candy or cake stains from upholstered furniture apply warm water and soap suds on a sponge. Rub the stained section quickly and then dry it with a soft cloth. If the stain is large rinse it with clear warm water after the soapy mixture has been applied.

Weather Bars Plane Hunt

Airmen Of Three Nations To Search For Missing Russians

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Aug. 19 (AP)—Airmen of three nations watched today for a favorable turn in the weather that would allow them to launch a search for six soviet transpolar fliers missing since last Friday.

Veteran Arctic aviators of the United States, Canada and Russia were ready to take to the air as soon as rains and clouds, that have kept them grounded for days, are dispelled.

The soviet plane, piloted by Sigismund Levenefsky, was last heard from Friday shortly after it had passed the North Pole on a 4,000-mile flight from Moscow to Fairbanks.

While Pilot Bob Randall waited at Point Barrow for orders to resume the search, Jimmy Mattern, who flew here from California to join the hunt; Joe Crosson, noted Alaskan pilot, and other U. S. fliers were ready to scour the country.

Soviet fliers planned to hop from Russia over Levenefsky's route in hopes of finding a trace of the missing aviators.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—A new rescue expedition, headed by Sir Hubert Wilkins, veteran Arctic and Antarctic explorer, prepared to wing northward today in search of the six missing soviet transpolar fliers.

Herbert Hollick-Kenyon, Canadian flier who accompanied Wilkins on the Lincoln Ellsworth Antarctic expedition, directed mechanics as they labored hurriedly to equip the 17-ton flying boat Guba for the first lap of its long journey, an overland flight to Toronto Harbor on Lake Ontario.

Decline In Wholesale Meat Prices May Mean Future Relief For The Consumers' Pocketbook

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 (AP)—Meat consumers' pocketbooks now being burned by last year's drought, may get substantial relief before the year ends, livestock market diagnoses indicated today.

Recent declines in wholesale pork prices, market experts said, may pressure lower meat costs soon for retail buyers.

White figures on butcher shop windows throughout the nation disclose prices of some beef and pork cuts are the highest in seven years or more. Material reduction in prices, market observers agreed, depended upon increased receipts at slaughtering centers this fall and winter.

Although it has been a year since the broiling sun was burning up livestock feed and rains since have drenched the grain belt, the full financial effect of the drought just now is being felt in the city. Last week prices of hogs and cattle were highest in 11 and nine years respectively.

There are factors in the trade, experts said, which might stimulate livestock marketings. This week hogs have taken the sharp tumble in months, dropping $1 per hundredweight from last week's top. Best fresh pork loin cuts, for example, have declined 3 1/2 cents per pound wholesale from last week's highs and some beef cuts also have been lowered.

Experts said the possibility of a general recession in meat hinged largely on the harvest of big grain crops this year. Resistance of consumers to normal purchases, they said, will tend to keep prices in check but no material downturn was in prospect until receipts were increased.

This might occur through normal marketing gains in the fall and winter.

The country dipped into its reserve supplies of meat heavily last month and out stocks to the third smallest for August 1 since the World war. Supplies have declined 46 per cent in five months.

Tending to restrict livestock marketings, however, will be producers' desire to build up their animal supplies with increased feed available this year. There are 29 per cent fewer cattle on feed in the middle west than a year ago.

Lisbon Govt. Breaks With Czechs

Little Republic Criticized For Failure To Ship Arms

LISBON, Aug. 19 (AP)—The authoritarian Portuguese government announced formally today it had severed diplomatic relations with the republic of Czechoslovakia over an unfilled order of machine guns.

At the same time Portugal accused Czechoslovakia of yielding to the "influences and pressure" of an unidentified "third party" in blocking fulfillment of the arms order.

The newspaper Diaro De Noticias promptly declared, in interpretation of the move, that Czechoslovakia had received "instructions from an eastern power not to supply arms to a country which was a sure guarantee against a communist Iberian peninsula."

In the same comment, the newspaper declared "Czechoslovakia is the Russian stronghold in central Europe and perhaps the soviet's largest air base."

"Portugal's attitude is a noble one," it added.

The official Portuguese communique stated that the government had decided to restrict livestock marketings, however, will be producers' desire to build up their animal supplies with increased feed available this year. There are 29 per cent fewer cattle on feed in the middle west than a year ago.

Ferguson Praises FDR, Is Silent On Wife's Plans

QUITMAN, Aug. 19 (AP)—Former Gov. James E. Ferguson stood staunchly behind President Roosevelt today but was quiet on his wife's political intentions.

He spoke here yesterday at the Wood County Old Settlers' union, and in a speech he insisted was non-political endorsed new deal policies, aid for tenant farmers and old-age pensions to persons over 65.

Of the president, Ferguson said "maybe he has made mistakes, but he has done something and I am for him." The Roosevelt administration may have wasted money, he said, but "I had rather see money thrown away than to hear the cry of a single hungry baby or the moan of a grief-stricken mother."

Ferguson recently indicated his wife, Miriam A. Ferguson, could be induced to seek the governorship of Texas again if the electorate were insistent enough.

Beside advocating a liberal pension system Ferguson came out for a two per cent sales tax on "every commercial sale."

RESULT OF WAR
LONDON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Portugal's rupture of diplomatic relations with Czechoslovakia, stood today as Europe's first official "outside" break resulting from the Spanish war.

Authorities recalled that Portugal, Italy and Germany severed diplomatic relations with the Madrid-Valencia government of Spain last fall; but this remained the case of rupture between two countries, neither of which was a party to the Spanish war.

Portugal's charges of a "third party" influence in the alleged Czechoslovakian refusal to fill Portuguese armament orders was regarded as the possible key to the dispute.

ASTONISHMENT
PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Aug. 19 (AP)—The Czechoslovakian government today voiced astonishment over the Portuguese decision to break diplomatic relations because of a munitions dispute.

The foreign office issued a communique explaining that the Portuguese government sometime ago negotiated with a Czechoslovakian arms concern for delivery of a certain type of weapon. When it developed this concern could not fill the order—the plant operating in Czechoslovakia government order—the Portuguese government was offered a different type of weapon. This was refused.

The upshot was the withdrawal of the Portuguese minister. The Czechoslovakian minister is remaining at his Lisbon post.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or sooty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 47 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

These hot Summer days are the days for bargains. This is the time when the merchant seeks to attract the customer by drastic price reductions. This is the time when the man and the woman in the street are being courted by the marts of trade.

The answer lies in the advertisements in your newspaper. Read them. They are addressed to you. They are intended, in these "dog days," to apprise you of unusual offers. They comprise the day's news of high quality and low cost.

CHICAGO CUBS COLLAPSE AS THEY SUFFER FIFTH BEATING IN ROW

Giants Gain By Copping Bee Game

Yanks Stretch Lead In Other Circuit As Tigers Lose

By SID FEDER (Associated Press Sports Writer) That once lengthy lead on which the Chicago Cubs were riding in the National League is disappearing with all the speed and completeness of a hot dog in the hands of a fan with that eighth-inning hunger.

The Cubs pinned the fifth straight setback on the injury-jinxed windy city wallpapers yesterday, winning 7-6 with a two-run rally in the ninth, to climb back into a virtual tie for third place.

During a recent regional sandlot tournament at Carrollton the husky backstop of Georgia's champs signed with St. Louis of the National. His coach, Herb Thomas, promptly persuaded him to join Detroit.

Then Bill went home and with the approval of his parents signed with Boston's Red Sox. The Pirates victory was also the Bucs' fifth in a row, and made it look like the Pittsburghers may finally be coming out of their sleep-walking habits of recent years.

The Pirates victory was also the Bucs' fifth in a row, and made it look like the Pittsburghers may finally be coming out of their sleep-walking habits of recent years.

While the Giants were taking the second division Phillies and Bucs during their current winning streak, the Pirates have run into the tougher sockers from St. Louis and Chicago, with the same results.

Meantime, the Yankees are slugging along on an 11 1-2 game lead in the American League, waiting for the rival circuit to decide whether it'll be another New York subway series, or whether Chicago, Pittsburgh or St. Louis will be the party of the second part.

The Indians and Browns broke even in a double bill, Cleveland coming through 5-2 in the opener and then dropping an 11-6 clouting contest. The Dodgers and Phils were rained out and the Cards and Reds took the day off.

Right was none other than Red, the Texas underdog hotshot. The Chicago White Sox lost twelve games on their last road trip.

TEXAN SECOND IN BAIT CASTING

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 19 (AP)—The national bait casting championships turned to accuracy today with scientist anglers and plain lucksters trying to see which could break the most records.

Richard G. Miller, Huntington Beach, Calif., hung up a new salmon fly record with an average of 178 feet in three casts, beating the old record by almost four feet.

Walter Willman, Kansas City, Mo., carried off the distance honors when he laid down three casts that averaged 307 feet for a 5-8 ounce plug.

The five leaders in salmon fly casting: Ave. Longest

Richard G. Miller, Huntington Beach, Calif., 176 177

My four dollar and a quarter hollow Calcutta cane pole did me fine service in competing with the big-time boys who were using professionally made rods costing up to $150 in the salmon fly casting event.

My best cast was 185 feet. The fly popped off and it cost me first place and a world's record. R. G. Miller of Huntington Beach, Calif., took first with an average cast of 178 feet.

The effort of throwing the line nearly 200 feet practically tied my good cane pole into knots, but I wouldn't trade it for all the fancy sticks on the Atlantic seaboard.

Today I am going out after the dry fly accuracy record. We have to shoot a tiny fly at a target and what the wind or an air-pocket can do to a set-up of that kind footed the best of them.

Consistency counts in these matches, and barring accidents, I wouldn't be at all surprised if some records are established today. Naturally, I wouldn't mind hanging up a couple of marks myself for the whizzes to shoot at, and by the way, the man who can lay a fly down in the right manner—accurately—where a fish is waiting, is usually the fellow who brings home the longest string.

Of course this tournament is parlor stuff and catching fish is another matter. But we've all got fishing—for fish, not records—in the backs of our heads.

Beaumont jumped on the last-place Dallas team, 9 to 3, although four Series errors helped to make the victory easy.

Houston's lowly Buffs found Tulsa easy pickings behind Jimmy Lyons' effective knuckle-ball twirling. The left-hander got credit for a 3-0 shutout.

He evidently didn't tell them enough last year because the pros went down in defeat, 7-6, before the charges of Bobby Wilson, Jim Lawrence and the boys. He's telling them again.

The game will be played in the Cotton Bowl.

Needing the victory to mark up their tenth win of the current season, the Cosdens Oilers will ring down the curtain on 1937 play in a game with the Continental Oilers on the Foran diamond Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p. m.

The Cosdenites, who have been vacationing for three weeks, have lost twelve games this season, including a shutout defeat at the hands of Bill Brown and the Conoco nine.

The 8-0 blanking Brown plastered on the locals several weeks ago was the third suffered by the Martinis this year.

Manager Martin will send his forces into the fray in a weakened condition but hopes to cap the '37 season successfully with the aid of the speedy right arm of Pat Stacey.

The Cosdens will need replacements at second base, third base and behind the plate.

Batteries for the game are expected to be Stacey and Underwood for the locals and Brown and Scott for the Foranites.

SCHMELING ON LOUIS 'WAGON'

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—Max Schmeling, who knows the Atlantic ocean as well as most people know their front yard, is back in town to start another installment of his bid for the heavyweight championship of the world.

The big German completed his fifth trans-Atlantic trip within little more than a year yesterday, and immediately went into a huddle with newspapermen, who emerged with the not-to-starting news the Ulan considers Tommy Farr a pushover for Joe Louis.

Sometimes today, Schmeling will talk with Mike Jacobs concerning a bout with Louis. There is bound to be an argument. Jacobs is willing to put on a bout between the Farr-Louis winner either in New York or Philadelphia but he wants Schmeling to take 20 per cent of the gate and sign under his banner for two years. Max wants 30 per cent and says he has no intention of giving Jacobs an exclusive option on his services.

The black Ulan's reply to a question "What's Farr got?" was short and sweet. "Exactly 208 pounds—nothing else," replied Max. "Louis will kill him."

Pitching assignments will fall either to Bobby Savage or L. D. Cunningham. Savage was beaten in Sweetwater even though he pitched runless ball during the last five innings.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—Four seasoned Americans went through brief workouts today preparatory to beginning defense of the Wightman tennis cup against the threat of a British team combining youth and a sturdy leaven of veteran players.

The United States decided yesterday to rely upon four veterans of Wightman cup play to defend the cup it has held continuously since 1920.

Against them the British will send four veterans, Kay Stammers, Ruth Hardwick, Evelyn James and Evelyn Dearnman, and two newcomers, Margot Lamb and Joan Ingram.

The entire series will consist of five doubles and two singles matches with the cup going to the nation taking four matches or better. The United States has won all but four matches since the competition began in 1923.

The two under consideration are Pat Murphy, Abilene, and Doyle Coe of Goose Creek. Whether it be the former 31 Paso mentor or the Texas Texan the board selects, the athletic program for the coming season is expected to expand on a greater scale than it ever has before.

With the opening game of the season less than a month away the training sessions of the Steer squad is expected to begin within five days after the coach is named.

Two New Points

—now play a part in banking policy.

- Public psychology has lost those elements of fear which produced such uncertainty during critical periods in recent years. Public confidence has returned, particularly in respect to the banks throughout the country. As a result bankers know that their deposits will be stable, subject only to the normal currents of inflow and outflow. These changed conditions have enabled banks to return to a broader loaning policy toward their customers.
- This return to normal sound banking conditions has been fortified in several respects by provisions in newly enacted banking laws. Without going into the technicalities, we might say that they create facilities which give the banks more "elbow room" in respect to utilizing their resources in granting sound loans to their customers.

that Japanese planes had bombed the American Mission hospital school and one American residence at Natingehou, up the Yangtze river in Kiangsu province, August 17. All Americans were safe, according to information reaching the American consulate here.

Chinese artillery batteries opened the seventh day of unrelenting but terrible war for Shanghai at dawn, shelling Japanese land positions and warships in the Whangpoo river with a heavy barrage fire believed to be preparatory to a major offensive.

But before the expected Chinese land attack could be launched the Japanese attack was launched behind a counter-barrage that swept both sides of the Whangpoo. The industrial city of Footung, on the east bank across from Shanghai proper, was in flames.

Exceptionally numerous casualties were reported on both sides. The shelling of the Japanese troops east of Kiangwan was murderously heavy.

Fires were ranging all over the area, throwing up a giant curtain of smoke between Kiangwan and Shanghai. The flagship of the United States Asiatic fleet, the cruiser Augusta, in the foreground of the Whangpoo river, presented a majestic picture against the fire-enveloped Kiangwan and Woosung sector in the distance.

Japanese reports said a Chinese powder magazine and arsenal at Nanking had exploded when it was bombed by raiding Japanese planes. A fire was said to be raging in the capital.

This great metropolis of 3,500,000 persons went to a truly wartime basis today. Public utilities supplying the essentials of the city's life and activity ordered utmost conservation of their services.

Consul General Gauss ordered all women members of his staff to leave Shanghai on the liner President Hoover, which will sail from Woosung Friday after a record trip from Manila with 400 reinforcements for the marine squad.

The Hoover will carry at least 1,000 American and Filipino women and children to safety. If necessary the liner can carry 1,500 refugees. Almost 1,000 Americans have already been evacuated.

SHANGHAI WATERFRONT SWEEP BY FLAMES AFTER BOMBARDMENT

This aerierv of the Shanghai battle area shows the customs jetty (A), where American women and children were put on tenders to proceed amid shellfire down the Whangpoo river, as indicated by black line, to American ships waiting at the river's mouth. Latest battle lines were drawn from the area north of Shanghai centering on North Seche-wan Road, (B), through the fringes of Hongkow (S)—scene of scores of fires—to the Whangpoo and across the river in Footung industrial area (G), where 35,000 Chinese troops were entrenched with artillery which peppered Hongkow and Japanese warships across the river front. The Japanese sprayed western sections of the international settlement (3), and fires raged in the Chinese section of Chapel (4), before the famous Astor House (C), could be closed, the Japanese military quartered 1,500 Japanese refugees there, virtually ejecting the management and taking over the property. Bursting shells shook the heart of the French concession (2), just north of the Chinese native city of Nantao (1). Japanese bombers dropped explosives on the junction of the Shanghai-Nanking and the Shanghai-Nanking line is shown as it comes into North Station (D).

Light Vote Is Indicated On Amendments

Only Three Absentee Ballots For Next Monday's Election

Absentee voting in the constitutional amendments election of Monday ceased here Thursday with only three ballots cast, the smallest number on record in years.

The amendment proposals will be listed in the following order on the ballot to be used in Howard county: Removal of double liability of state bank stockholders; assistance to destitute children; return to the fee system; control of tax assessments against excess of market value of property; permit Harris county to levy a direct road tax; provide assistance to needy blind.

Who Squirted That Champagne On The Mayor Of Cannes?

PARIS, Aug. 19 (AP)—The Surete Nationale, France's central police agency, stiffly declined today to discuss the possibility of an investigation to determine just who squirted the champagne on the mayor of Cannes.

John Roosevelt, 21-year-old son of the president of the United States, said he didn't do it—that it must have been two other fellows whom Mayor Pierre Noguere took for Roosevelt and his traveling companion at Cannes last Sunday.

But the mayor, whose suit was ruined, told U. S. Ambassador William C. Bullitt by telephone: "I was told that my attacker was young Roosevelt although I had never seen him before. I regret to say that I am certain now it was Mr. Roosevelt. I wish the whole affair were ended."

Housing Bill Is Approved

Last Big Controversial Topic Wiped Off The Slate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—House passage of the $328,000,000 low cost housing program removed today the last big controversial feature of the waning congressional session.

The senate bill, authorizing federal loans and grants for state and municipal housing projects, was changed drastically by the house before it voted approval last night, 274 to 86.

As a result, a committee must adjust the differences in the house and senate versions before the bill can go to the White House.

The housing program was the final measure on the Roosevelt program which democratic leaders decided could be salvaged. Much of the administration legislation—crop control, wage-hour, and government reorganization—has been deferred to the next session.

In brief, the housing measure as passed by the house provides:

Loans to state and municipal agencies for developing low-rent housing or slum clearance projects, with communities putting up 15 per cent of construction costs. The senate fixed the amount at 5 per cent.

Capital grants up to 25 per cent of developments costs. Annual subsidies, of which communities would contribute 25 per cent.

An initial appropriation of $28,000,000 and a $500,000,000 bond issue covering the next three years. The senate approved a $700,000,000 bond issue.

Limitation of cost to $5,000 a dwelling unit. The senate set a $4,000 limit, with a maximum of $1,000 a room.

Limitation of funds for one state to 10 per cent of the total. The senate figure was 20 per cent.

Advertising Based On P.T. Barnum's Assumption Is Under Fire From The Federal Trade Commission

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (UP)—You can't learn to croon in 10 days, live forever, or "pack a 16-inch arm in your sleeve." The benevolent federal trade commission says so.

The commission has been quietly moving in to combat improper advertising and the various forms of still games built on P. T. Barnum's assumption that "There's a sucker born every minute." These are some of the results:

The commission has obtained an agreement from a Florida dentist to cease representing that artificial teeth purchased from him by mail

Wisconsin, pioneer in the income tax, workmen's compensation and unemployment insurance, enacted its job insurance law early in 1932—more than a year before the New Deal assumed power.

Wisconsin still is the only state in the nation now paying unemployment benefits. Payments will begin, however, in many other states next year. Every state, including Alaska and Hawaii, has been provided with an unemployment compensation law as a result of the federal social security program. Approximately 21,000,000 workers in every state and territory are enrolled under the program.

Under this state's job insurance law weekly benefits for total unemployment are paid to eligible workers only after they have registered for work and benefits at a public employment office and have served the three-week waiting period prescribed by law. The minimum weekly benefit an employee can receive is $5, the maximum $15. Longest period during which an employe may draw consecutive benefits is 26 weeks or approximately six months.

Benefit Fund Earmarked

The underlying principle of the Wisconsin law is the individual employer responsibility. Employers' contributions under the mandatory payroll tax are entered in a fund earmarked for benefit payments to his employes only. In many other states contributions of all employes go into a common fund from which benefit payments are made to any worker who comes under the law.

The administrator of the Wisconsin law is Paul A. Raushenbush, son-in-law of Associate Justice Louis D. Brandeis of the U. S. Supreme Court. Raushenbush believes firmly in the individual reserve situation over the so-called "pooling" plans of other states. He contends the chief objective of unemployment compensation should be to regularize employment and to soften the effects of fluctuation in employment on the workers.

Raushenbush further contends that "no economic system can afford to accent wide fluctuations of employment as permanently necessary and unavoidable."

Full Load On Employers

"On the contrary," he explains, "every effort must be made to reduce and prevent irregularity. The great bulk of hiring and firing in this country is done by private industry. If employment is to be stabilized, each management must tackle the job and be given inducement to smooth out the peaks and valleys. Hence the Wisconsin law requires employers alone to pay for unemployment compensation, in such a way that they will

A Worcester, Mass., oil company from guaranteeing that its fuel powers Gar Wood's and Sir Malcolm Campbell's engines and runs the Graf Zeppelin.

And finally, much to the distress of hopeful alcoholics, the commission clamped down on two concern who tried to convince the reading public they could, for a small price, buy products which "would overcome the effects of drinking alcoholic beverages."

definitely gain by providing steady work."

The incentive for employers to stabilize production and employment is provided in the rate of contributions. All employers will pay 2 per cent of payroll until Jan. 1, 1938, but thereafter rates vary from zero to 4 per cent, depending upon the individual employer's capacity to maintain his reserve by stabilizing employment.

Raushenbush explained that although 4,300 employer accounts now are potentially liable for benefits, fewer than 2,000 of these reserve accounts have paid benefits to date. He said that about 1,700 employers, or about 40 per cent, apparently have given their employes sufficiently steady work so that they have had no benefits to pay.

The state federation of labor and the Wisconsin Manufacturers' Association have collaborated in helping the law to function properly. The state federation has supported the Wisconsin measure despite the fact that the American Federation of Labor has condemned the individual employer reserve principle of the law.

Job Insurance A Year Old, Is Growing

Wisconsin Leads Way In New Capital-Labor Relationship

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 19 (UP)—A year ago today Wisconsin paid a jobless engraving company employee the first unemployment compensation check in American history and opened new relationship between capital and labor.

The first check under Wisconsin's pioneering job insurance law went to Neils B. Ruud, a Madison engraver, on Aug. 17, 1936. Since then, more than 180,000 unemployment benefit checks totaling $1,080,000 have been paid to 52,000 Wisconsin workers.

The right to receive benefit payments if they should be thrown out of a job by conditions over which employes had no control was inherited by more than 400,000 Wisconsin workers on July 1, 1936. On the same day 4,300 employers accepted the responsibility of paying "part of the social cost caused by their own irregular operations."

Employers began building individual unemployment insurance accounts under a compulsory 2 per cent payroll tax on July 1, 1934. After three years of contributions and one year of benefit payments to unemployed workers, the net balance of the Wisconsin unemployment reserve fund exceeded $25,000,000.

Only 4 Per Cent Paid Out

The $1,080,000 that has been paid out in benefits to workers during the last year represented a sum equal to 4 per cent of the total contributions of employers since July 1, 1934.

Wisconsin, pioneer in the income tax, workmen's compensation and unemployment insurance, enacted its job insurance law early in 1932—more than a year before the New Deal assumed power.

Liver Main Item For Dishes Delicious And Healthful

By MARTHA LOGAN

It has always seemed unfortunate to try to make grownups and children eat some food "because it is good for you." Why not make that special food so good that we can rather say, "I'm sure you want some of this delicious casserole (or omelet or whatever the name)."

We have been planning some good combinations, using liver as the main item. Of course, we all know that liver is a healthful food. It is one of the best sources of iron and copper—so necessary in keeping our blood supply in good condition. Liver, too, contains an extra supply of those important little vitamins that are so rich in appetite and growth promoting factors—especially vitamins A and G—although B, C and D are also found in liver. From this it is seen that liver is a fine food to serve once or twice a week for health's sake. But let's not over-emphasize that fact at the table. Let us rather prepare the liver dishes in such a tempting way that they "sell themselves." Liver is delicate in flavor and combines so well with bacon, vegetables and many other food flavors.

First of all, let us dispell the old idea that sliced liver should be scalded before using. There is no reason at all for putting liver in either hot or cold water first. However, if liver is to be ground, it is well to scald it first—then the liver slices are easier to handle. Another old idea that should be exploded is that only calves' liver is good. Fresh beef or pork liver is equally nutritious, although the flavor is more pronounced. For baked, stuffed liver, liver loaf and many other combinations, the greater flavor is desirable so that the less expensive liver may be used to advantage.

Liver, bacon and onions have long been a classical combination, so we choose several ways of combining these flavors other than the usual fried liver, bacon and onions.

Liver Special
1-2 pound sliced liver,
Seasoning,
Flour,
1-2 pound bacon,
2 cups cooked tomatoes,
2 cups cooked lima beans.
Cut liver in one-inch pieces. Season. Roll in flour. Pan fry bacon cut in one-inch pieces. Remove bacon and keep hot. Pan fry liver in bacon drippings until well browned. Add lima beans, tomatoes and bacon. Season and heat thoroughly. Serve on toast, cooked macaroni, or rice.

Liver Patties
1-2 pounds liver, beer or pork (in one piece),
4 tablespoons bacon drippings,
1 cup cracker crumbs,
1-4 cup grated onion,
1-4 teaspoon pepper,
1-2 teaspoon poultry seasoning,
1 teaspoon salt,
2 eggs.
Parboil liver about 3 minutes and put through a meat chopper. Mix thoroughly with other ingredients and shape into patties. Wrap with strips of bacon, fasten with tooth-picks, and broil until bacon is crisp and patties are browned.

Liver Loaf
1-2 pounds beef or pork liver,
1 medium sliced onion,
1 teaspoon salt,
3-4 cup milk,
1 cup cracker crumbs,
1 egg,
Sliced bacon.
Wipe liver, cut into slices, then run through the food chopper together with the onion. Add crumbs, moistened with the egg and milk. Mix well and pour into a buttered baking dish. Set in a pan of water, cover with sliced bacon and bake for 1-2 hours in a moderate oven (325 to 350 degrees F.).

Liver en Brochette
Metal skewers strung with pieces of sliced calves' liver, alternating with pieces of sliced bacon, make delicious individual brochettes served on buttered toast. Broil as for broiled liver. Other combinations are:
1. Liver, fresh mushrooms, bacon.
2. Liver, veal steak, bacon.
3. Liver, beef sirloin, bacon.

Double Heart Ranch Rodeo Scheduled For Sept. 4-6

SWEETWATER, Aug. 19—The seventh annual Double Heart ranch cowboy and cowgirl roundup is to be held at the ranch, 10 miles south of here, September 4, 5 and 6.
Ollie Cox, owner and manager, has arranged a full three-day program including a dance each evening in addition to the regular rodeo events, which events are restricted to amateurs only—cowhands actually employed on West Texas ranges. Professionals are barred.

As in the past, the sponsors' vent is to hold a top spot on the three-day program. Already a number of West Texas entries have been received, the name, along with picture having been sent to Mrs. Ollie Cox, manager of the event. Big Spring, through one of its civic organizations has been invited to send an entry. The winner is to receive a $100 hand made saddle; second place, $25 pair hand made cowgirl boots; third place, $10 cash. Winners in the bronco riding con-

Farmers Aided In Adjusting Of Debts

Big Saving Recorded Through Efforts Of Federal Agency

Savings amounting to $1,380,949 were effected for 1,302 farmers in the five-state area served by Region No. 11 of the Resettlement Administration in the past year, John Barbee, county supervisor, announced following advices from William Klein, chief of the agency's farm debt adjustment section.

By reason of these adjustments, it was reported that taxes were paid in the amount of $76,546. Adjusted indebtedness for the region was just short of four million, a reduction of 34 per cent.

According to Barbee, the adjustments have been instrumental in preventing unjust eviction of farmers from their homes, and creating a spirit of confidence. The adjustments are brought about by discussions between creditor and debtor. The voluntary settlements, it was said, have resulted in savings not only to the debt-ridden farmer, but in liquidating many thousands of dollars in "frozen assets."

In 47 West Texas counties, the adjustments amounted to $612,755 on original indebtedness of $1,493,644, and payment of $25,088 in taxes. The service, Barbee explained, is free to any farmer. He asked that farmers needing help in adjusting debts get in touch with him.

Black A Leader In Childhood Days

DALLAS, Aug. 19 (AP)—Flinn-spoken Hugo Black of Alabama, the supreme court's newest member, wasted none of his childhood years in proving he was undisciplined leader of his playmates. "He was the youngest of six children and he had them all under his thumb at the age of four," said J. C. Toland of Dallas, reminiscing of the days when he and his now-famed cousin, were growing up.

"We fought a lot, as boys will. That was Hugo's worst fault—he liked to fight. But he never held a grudge and we would be good friends five minutes after knocking the tar out of one another."

Toland said he was a better wrestler than Black and could outrun him, but "when it came to a knock-down fist-fight the odds were about even."

Balanced against the new justice's "meanest habit" of running off from home without parental consent was his coolness in time of stress, Toland said.

"To show you how adult he was, one time when he was seven his little cousin, about four, fell in the creek. There was a forked stick there and Hugo hooked it in her collar and pulled her out."

"He wasn't excited. He said: 'Don't ever go in there again. That's over a man's head.'"

Taxation, Utility Regulation On Tap For Session

AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 19 (AP)—Taxation and utility regulation stood out today as chief subjects for consideration at a special session of the legislature expected to be called in September.

Governor James V. Allred said he thought the legislature could deal with those matters in one 30-day session but whether it would be something else again.

There appears to be little demand for soil conservation legislation, one of the knottiest problems at sessions of the legislature last winter and spring.

"I haven't heard any hue and cry on that subject," the governor commented.

APPOINTMENTS
AUSTIN, Aug. 19 (AP)—On recommendation of the board of water engineers, Governor James V. Allred today appointed Tom Miller of George West and B. Wildenthal of Cotulla as directors of the Nueces river conservation and reclamation district.

TO ATLANTIC CITY
AUSTIN, Aug. 19 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred has accepted an invitation to address the governor's conference at Atlantic City Sept. 15 on interstate cooperation in criminal control.

tests are to receive day money of $25, $15 and $10; calf roping, day money of $50, $30, $20, $10 and $5, with grand prize of $100 hand made saddle, $25 hand made boots, $10 hat to three best three-day averages. Day money in the wild cow milking event is $25, $15, $10 and $5.

NEGRO ATTACKER TO FACE INDICTMENT

LIVINGSTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Early grand jury action on a criminal assault charge against Bob White, 27-year-old negro accused of attacking the wife of a prominent farmer August 11, appeared probable today.

County Attorney Ernest Coker, who said White had made a statement concerning the attack, announced the grand jury would be called into session shortly. The negro, meanwhile, was taken to the Jefferson county jail.

No evidence was visible today of the high feeling in the community a week ago when officers were rounding up suspects.

Black Bass Fishing Worth Time

AUSTIN, Aug. 19 (AP)—The average angler might well charge up $3 worth of time and enough energy to cut a cord of wood for each black bass he catches.

So says Will J. Tucker, secretary of the game commission, who delved into textbooks and found expert opinion agrees that the time required, plus an average of 5,760 casts, to snag one wary bass is worth $3, based on minimum labor costs.

In California the fisherman could hike the price 25 cents, the amount of state tax on each pound of black bass taken from certain waters of that state.

Tobacco Chewing Art On Decline; Paved Roads, Autos Factors

ATLANTA, Aug. 19 (UP)—The fine art of tobacco chewing promised to become a lost art today as the number of chewers in the nation declined steadily and there was little hope of rebuilding the chewing tobacco market.

Officials of major tobacco companies reported an increasingly sharp decline in chewing tobacco sales this year.

At the same time, big company buyers in Georgia's tobacco belt laughed at the decrease in demand for chewing tobacco and blamed it on paved streets and speedy automobiles.

One buyer with a large Virginia company said, "A man just naturally doesn't like to expectorate on a paved street." He said the expectation necessitated by tobacco chewing was not so noticeable on dirt streets and roads, but that modern paving was making tobacco chewers self-conscious.

He also pointed out that chewing in a fast moving automobile has its disadvantages. A wagon, he said, is the proper vehicle in which to chew tobacco if you must ride while chewing.

Other buyers in Georgia—most of them from Virginia and North Carolina—said today's younger generation was being encouraged to smoke cigarettes.

A few years ago, a young boy in a small rural village did not reach manhood until he could chew and squirt tobacco juice through a knot hole 10 or more feet away.

Now, however, the buyers report that when a chewer dies, the chewing tobacco industry loses another customer and there are few replacements.

Prison Paper 50 Years Old STILLWATER, Minn. (UP)—The Mirror, Minnesota state prison publication, has observed its 50th anniversary with an enlarged edition. The paper was printed in black and gold and is a reminder of the Younger brothers, who accompanied Jesse James on the Northfield bank raid in 1876.

ROUNDUP, Mont. (UP)—A Minnesota tourist, who refused to divulge his name, returned to his home town with a souvenir of the old west. The easterner was struck in the back by a .22-caliber rifle bullet during the recent '49'er celebration here. The missile penetrated his clothing and lightly scratched his back.

SINGIN' SAM FEATURED ON KBST PROGRAM

Singin' Sam, famous radio personality and old-time vaudeville minstrel, has the featured spot on the program of "Refreshment Time" broadcast on station KBST daily, Mondays through Fridays, at 12:45 o'clock. And Singin' Sam he certainly is, because he has spent his life entertaining people with his songs.

His career started many years ago when he and three schoolmates organized "The Belfast Quartette" and secured an engagement at $90 a week for the four songbirds in a theatre in Nashville, Tenn. "We lasted two weeks," chuckles Sam as he reminisces about his early days in the show business, "and we're still waiting for those two weeks' salary."

He deserted the footlights for radio in 1930, and today he has one of the largest followings of any individual on the air. His present program, sponsored by the Texas Coca-Cola Bottling company of Big Spring, follows the regular pattern

Local Scouts Will Attend Water Meet

Annual Council Affair Slated At Midland Next Tuesday

More than 40 Big Spring Boy Scouts are expected to leave here early next Tuesday morning for Midland where the annual council water meet will be held.

According to the program of events released by Al J. Stiles, area executive, the water meet has been developed into a more rounded sport day program than in any of its previous seasons. Beside the swimming and diving events, several fun event competitions and handicraft contests have been included.

After a general swim, the meet is to get underway at 9:30 a. m. At noon Midland scouts will furnish another of their popular barbecue luncheons, with several barrels of lemonade and an abundance of ice cream. Scouts will be hustled off to a show while the "cats" settle.

Finals in the various events will be held in the afternoon in time to permit return of the scouts to their towns before night.

David F. Wilson, field executive, will be here the remainder of the week seeking to arrange transportation and other details as well as cooperate in the Cub Day program here Saturday.

Two Governors May Attend Midland's Cowboy Contest

MIDLAND, Aug. 19—Possibility that governors of two states may meet here Saturday, September 4, to officially open the annual Midland Cowboy Contest, September 4, 5 and 6, was expressed this week with the office of Gov. Clyde Tingley of New Mexico reporting he was doing all possible to arrange the date.

Gov. James V. Allred previously had accepted an invitation to be here for the opening day festivities.

It is believed that the meeting of the two governors and the mingling of citizens along the borders of the two states will do much to further cement the relations of Texas and New Mexico as well as to provide a gala occasion for the Labor Day weekend.

Definite acceptance by 11 sponsors, representing towns of West Texas and New Mexico have been received by the chamber of commerce. It was expected that when all arrangements are completed, at least two dozen will be in the colorful cowgirl sponsors contest for which the top prize will be a $100 western saddle.

Martin Road Gets Endorsement of Dist. Engineer

STANTON, Aug. 19—Additional hope for the building of the proposed Stanton-Lamesa highway was found in the announcement of District Engineer G. B. Finley that he had recommended granting of a farm-to-market road project on that part of the proposed north-south highway lying between the Dawson county sector on the north and that part of the road from Stanton which has been based, on the south.

Finley's report was made at a meeting of commissioners of Andrews and Martin county at Andrews recently. Discussion of the proposed Big Spring-Andrews road showed that the Martin county group does not oppose the east-west route but would welcome it, with the proviso that the north-south road be built first.

Standerfer presided at the meeting which was attended by 22 farmers.

SOCIAL SECURITY PROGRAMS WILL REQUIRE FINANCING

By RAYMOND BROOKS

AUSTIN, Aug. 19—New financing for two vast state ventures in the social security field will be projected in the fall sessions of the Texas legislature along with Gov. James V. Allred's emergency demands for more taxes to meet state spending and to trim the $10,000,000 deficit.

One, taxation to pay the state's share of the teacher pension system, will have a militant, organized and powerful political group behind it, with the pensions already approved by voters at the polls, a board already set up, teachers ready to contribute, and only the lack of taxes blocking full operation of the system.

The second, to pay the state's share of benefits to the needy blind and to needy children, is expected to be adopted by voters August 23, and the state committee for human welfare, the welfare and civic organizations, women's clubs and other groups supporting it will build up a case for putting this cooperative system into effect at the earliest moment.

A third step will be necessary to keep from losing ground, before the lawmakers start the advance on the emergency situation.

Peace Revenue Source

That will be to replace about $1,000,000 a year revenue lost when the legalized betting, with its taxes, was abolished.

These three steps must be taken to break even. Beyond that, the question of meeting approximately $15,000,000 a year new appropriations, with new revenues from the omnibus bill estimated up in the range of 9 to 11 millions; the further question of furnishing all the money necessary for old-age pensions on whatever basis pensions finally settle down, and of dealing with the substantial deficit will be on the docket.

A special session can consider only what the governor submits.

DALLAS, Aug. 19 (AP)—The golfing legerdemain of four Dallasites gives Texas its greatest opportunity in years to reap honors from the national amateur tournament at Portland, Ore., next week.

On the West Coast preparing for engagements are Reynolds Smith, Walker Cup member; Don Schumacher, Trans-Mississippi champion; Jack Munger, former southern title-holder, and Harry Todd, Texas Open, Western Junior, and Dallas city champion.

These men, with possible exception of Smith, are at the top of their games now. Smith's game has suffered a few shocks lately, principally at the hands of his arch rival, Schumacher. He scored a one-over-par 71 on the Tacoma, Wash., country club course, however, and probably will regain his little touches of tournament genius before the chase begins.

Schumacher, bidding for a Walker Cup team berth, has performed brilliantly this season and proved in the Trans that his nerves are iron-tough. He came from far back to win his final match.

Todd, a hot tip among the local

Six teams of the Texas League last year each drew less attendance than the New Iberia club of the little Evangeline league in Louisiana has drawn already this season. Brilliant backfielding should be commonplace when the Chicago Bears meet the college all-stars here Sept. 6. Signed up with the amateurs are Sammy Baugh, Sam Ager, Vanderbilt fullback, Johnny Stovall of North Texas Teachers, and Al Londe, Missouri captain of last year. Strings are out for Buzz Buivid of Marquette, Bill Crass of Louisiana State and Buck Friedman of Rice. The pros, of course, will have a host, including Sam Francis of Nebraska and Beattie Feathers.

J. F. Rawe, Refugio catcher-outfielder, won the Coastal Bend baseball league batting title with the healthy mark of .488. Who's this guy DIMAGGIO? There's not a player on John Holland's Oklahoma City baseball team who is not the outright property of the club. No player is there on option. In the mail comes a copy of the Southwestern Sports Magazine, newsworthy periodical born this month. G. A. Boone is the editor; it's published in Waco.

Communism Target At KC Convention

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 19 (AP)—Communism and the Mexican government's attitude toward the Catholic church provided meat for debate today for delegates to the International Knights of Columbus convention.

The resolutions committee, intimated Chairman Luke E. Hart of St. Louis, had drafted vigorous protests for delegates to vote on. One condemned the closing of Mexican Catholic churches, and restriction of priestly activities in Mexico. The other proposed a formal protest of the existence and growth of communism in the United States.

Today's session was the last of the convention.
