Greater New Deal is Outlined by Roosevelt

What reminds me...
Determined interest dominated the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors and members at a meeting held Thursday afternoon, regarding the proposed organization of a new bank in Eastland using the assets of the Texas State bank through the depositors as a background for the project. A committee of five consisting of Earl Bender, H. C. Davis, O. E. Harvey, Grady Pipkin and Frank Williams was appointed by President H. C. Rhodes to work with the depositors committee in getting the signatures necessary to take the matter up with the state department and with the Reconstruction Finance committee at Washington. Other committees working with the depositors committee are from the Rotary club, B. Johnson, Roy Speed and T. R. Richardson. From the Lions club, George Harper, F. M. Kenney and W. O. Butler. All civic organizations have gone into the matter thoroughly and have given their unqualified endorsement to the plan as presented.

Perhaps it has been many a day that Eastland has faced such a crucial moment as right now as to establishing a financial background that is the meat and bread to feed the future of the community. A bank is our most important need, and needed acutely. Its possibilities are right here at our door provided that the depositors of the Texas State bank and the citizenship get together wholeheartedly on the project. It takes the support and cooperation of every depositor. None can remain on the sidelines without endangering their own interests as well as making it impossible to complete the preliminary details so essential at this time. Regardless of what prejudices one may have had as to their past relations with any bank... This is one time that they can throw aside their bad humor and go hand in hand with their fellows. Banks are run entirely different in this day and time than in former years.

Stock in a National bank is absolutely non-assessable. Depositors are guaranteed up to $2500 on their individual deposits. There has not been a bank failure in the United States this year. Every bank regardless of how shaky and weak they may have been before the moratorium is now in a much more liquid condition that they had been for years. The R. F. C. has been responsible for putting new life and protection to the depositors in every bank in existence today. Bankers in this city and time do not have to stand at the door of their institution fearing a mob that may form and make a run on their bank. Those are a thing of the past. There are many things to be done before we can establish a bank in Eastland. Primarily and of major importance at this time is for those who have not agreed to join the proposal under the plan submitted to do so at once. It would be unreasonable to think that with the things we have all gone through in the past three years that a citizenship would encourage is neighbor to go into anything that would be to his disadvantage. The plan is clear, cut, clean and unselfish. No individual has a selfish motive in asking to incorporate by giving the committee power of attorney to represent their interests. It is simply a formal procedure necessary to complete the details to make a bank in Eastland people.

to ask "If we want a bank" is a foolish question. Of course not only want one but we must want it to enhance our own interests. There is a way to have one. There is a way to put several thousand dollars in the pockets of the depositors... there's a way to have a bank whose stock will be worth your man's consideration. To be a part of the financial structure of a community is not only a healthy service but one that establishes confidence in a community. There is only one thing that those who have any doubts about the possibility to do all in their power to get into the thing seriously so there will be no misunderstanding.

DILLINGER MAY BE DEAD IS AN AGENT'S BELIEF

By United Press
WATERLOO, Ia., June 8.—"Hick town" policemen chalked up another victory today over the hard-boiled John Dillinger gang, with Dillinger's ace machine gunner in a morgue and rumors that Dillinger is dead substantiated by a deathbed statement. The gang's most feared killer, Tommy Carroll, died last night, a few hours after two city detectives knocked a gun from his hand and shot him as he fled. Learning over a hospital cot, Federal Agent O. H. Dewey asked him: "Where did you bury John?" Carroll rolled his head to look the agent defiantly in the eye. "I hid him," he mumbled, then died. Dewey was not certain whether Carroll meant Dillinger was alive or buried, dead.

SECURITY FOR ALL PROMISED BY PRESIDENT

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 8.—The pattern of a greater new deal—a social order promising security for all through insurance against unemployment and old age and planned use of natural resources, was presented to congress today by President Roosevelt. Regarded as one of the most important documents ever transmitted to capital hill by this administration, the message encompassed the whole economic picture and charted for the next congress the new reforms Mr. Roosevelt seeks. Security for the individual, the family, the home, was the tenor of the communication through which the president wove the pattern of his greater new deal. He suggested guarantees for the aged and jobless after reviewing legislation since 1933, calling attention to necessity for additional emergency measures that this session, and finally bluntly warning the lid on the "pork barrel" had been nailed down to stay. "Next winter we may undertake the task of furthering the security of the citizen and his family through social insurance," he said.

Insurance Against Unemployment and Old Age Plan Is Message

"Hence, I am looking for a sound means which I can recommend to provide at once security against several of the great disturbing factors of lives—especially those relating to unemployment and old age. "I believe there should be a maximum of cooperation between the states and the federal government. I believe the funds necessary to provide this insurance should be raised by contribution rather than by an increase in general taxation. "Above all, I am convinced that social insurance should be national in scope, although the several states should meet at least a portion of the cost of management, leaving to the federal government the responsibility of maintaining and safeguarding the funds, constituting the necessary insurance reserve." Mr. Roosevelt explained that he had commended to make the actuarial and other studies necessary for consideration in the 74th congress.

Garden and Yard Hints From Club Women of County

Care of shrubs through the dry summer months is perhaps the biggest problem women face in yard improvement, especially in the rural sections. The plants must have moisture to survive, and usually watering a yard in the country is more than a matter of turning on the hydrant. But fortunately there are methods we can use that make watering effective even when it is done less often. In fact, suppose the beds were in proper shape to begin with, there are four points that need to be considered in summer care of shrubs; removal of annuals from shrub beds, frequent shallow cultivation, proper watering and mulching.

Removal of annuals is necessary—even though you may feel that it leaves your beds looking bare—for the annuals grow so fast that they use all of the food and moisture that the shrubs, especially if they are new and not well established, need. As a result shrubs are stunted in growth if they survive at all. If the shrub beds do look a bit bare this summer, remember that the better start shrubs have the sooner they will make an effective planting that has some permanent value the year round.

Frequent shallow cultivation is quite as important as watering because it puts the soil in shape to receive and to hold the moisture applied. Like a sponge, a loose soil take up water and holds it, but like a brick, a baked crusted soil sheds water and dries out quickly. So, after every rain as soon as the top soil will crumble, it should be stirred about one to two inches deep with a rake—I say a rake because there's no danger of your working too deep with it. Remember this shallow cultivation is meant to conserve moisture—not to stimulate the plant. The ground should be stirred often enough that a crust never forms and that a dust mulch is kept on top—that will mean every three to ten days—depending on the soil and amount of rainfall. Though it is necessary to work the soil after every rain, it should not be dug while wet because it may sour and it gets cloddy and loses moisture.

Everybody realizes the necessity of watering—but it really is surprising how many folks do not water right. It's possible to do more harm than good at watering. Whatever method we use, to be effective, must get the water down into the soil far enough that the roots are encouraged to go deep for a drink. You may use a system of sub-irrigation so the water never reaches the top soil, or you may pour water down by the root of a plant through a pipe inserted into a depression in the soil around the plant and apply bucketful of water, watching it soak in two or three times until the soil there seems to have drunk in all it wants. At any rate, when you water, soak the plants. A little bit of water put on top will cause the plant rootlets to come to top of the ground for water—which condition means that the hot sun or the dry winds or the winter freezes will kill the plant easily. Instead of dabbling on a little water each day, save your water, your energy, and your plants by watering thoroughly every week or ten days, and cultivating properly as already indicated. Unless you have a gardener whose sole duty is to look after the yard, plants should not be watered more than one or two inches, for such treatment would stimulate a sappy growth that could not stand the reverses of sun and wind and freeze. For most of us, the best policy is to withhold any cultivation, fertilization, pruning or watering after September that might encourage fall growth, so that the spring and Manner growth will have a change to harden and mature before first freeze.

The fourth thing to consider in summer care is mulching. With soils that lose moisture quickly or that have a tendency to crust over quickly a good mulch should be used. After the bed has been watered and cultivated, a three or four inch layer of leaves, straw, pine needles, moss, etc., or an inch layer of leaf mold or well rotted fertilizer can be spread all over the top of the beds. This mulch is meant to prevent the excessive evaporation of moisture from the soil, it performs the same duty that the dust mulch does, but since a dust mulch is hard to keep on some soils, a mulch of other materials becomes necessary. Incidentally, as the mulch disintegrates, it makes a fine addition to the soil itself.

There is no hokus pokus way of having a lovely yard—but the simplest methods patiently applied bring happy results. Summer is the time to take a good gardener; but if you adhere strictly to removal of all annuals from shrub beds, frequent shallow cultivation, SOAKING plants when they need water, and applying a special mulch to soils that lose moisture

Grass Lawn Without Using Bermuda Grass

Running mesquite grass is quite as good as Bermuda for a lawn. It has the advantage of being more drought resistant, grows more closely to the ground, requires less frequent mowing and is easier to get rid of when or if it should get into the fields or garden. Since the reasons given for not using Bermuda grass are that it takes water, mowing and gets into the fields, there is no reason now for not having a grass lawn. Miss Hallie Hill, yard demonstrator of Okra, has put the mesquite grass on the yard and it grows well in this county, being a native grass. There are two mesquite grasses, the curly mesquite which grows in bunches and not flat. The running mesquite grass is sometimes called Buffalo grass. Carpet grass, or San Augustine grass, makes good lawns, but is rather coarse in texture. It is good in the shade and stands drought just fairly well.

The mesquite grass roots should be started in the yard in the fall when the rains start, this in order to get a good start or good root system before spring and summer. Three Chicago women lost a total of 32 pounds on a 30-day banana and skim milk diet. They'd better watch one another, or one could gain the entire weight back in less time.

Officers tried several keys, but none worked. Then Diederick forced the lock with a "jimmy."

THE HOME OF CRAZY WATER

Mineral Wells, Texas
Henry Love, Mgr.

Everybody realizes the necessity of watering—but it really is surprising how many folks do not water right. It's possible to do more harm than good at watering. Whatever method we use, to be effective, must get the water down into the soil far enough that the roots are encouraged to go deep for a drink. You may use a system of sub-irrigation so the water never reaches the top soil, or you may pour water down by the root of a plant through a pipe inserted into a depression in the soil around the plant and apply bucketful of water, watching it soak in two or three times until the soil there seems to have drunk in all it wants. At any rate, when you water, soak the plants. A little bit of water put on top will cause the plant rootlets to come to top of the ground for water—which condition means that the hot sun or the dry winds or the winter freezes will kill the plant easily. Instead of dabbling on a little water each day, save your water, your energy, and your plants by watering thoroughly every week or ten days, and cultivating properly as already indicated. Unless you have a gardener whose sole duty is to look after the yard, plants should not be watered more than one or two inches, for such treatment would stimulate a sappy growth that could not stand the reverses of sun and wind and freeze. For most of us, the best policy is to withhold any cultivation, fertilization, pruning or watering after September that might encourage fall growth, so that the spring and Manner growth will have a change to harden and mature before first freeze.

"I've just bought an ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR."

"I've just bought an electric refrigerator—I can't afford to take chances with the food my family eats—I want to be sure that it is fresh and wholesome all of the time and that there is no danger of undermining health with food that looks, tastes and smells all right, but which in reality, due to improper refrigeration, is unfit for use."

And so it goes—electric refrigerators by necessity have been built for Texas' climate and will maintain constant temperatures of 50 degrees or less when the thermometer reads 100 in the shade for days on end. When you buy your electric refrigerator you are not experimenting—you know that regardless of how hot the weather may be, your food is kept at just the right temperatures all of the time and that it is perfectly safe to eat.

They also visited other points of interest on their trip, including San Jacinto battlefield and Houston.

G. S. Bruce went to Eastland Monday to serve on the Grand Jury. While he is away Johnnie Hammond of Comanche has charge of the Sanitary Market and is greeting his many old friends.

O. A. Koutz and Tom Nabers drove up to Eastland Friday night and attended a meeting of F. E. R. A. workers.

Miss Lodessa Harper of Post is visiting her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Genoway.

E. M. Howard of Rising Star was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Williams Friday.

Alton Brown visited his sister, Miss Alva Brown, who is still in a hospital in Dallas, and also his brother, Dr. Audie Brown and wife who live there. We are glad to report that Miss Alva Brown is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Williams drove up to Ranger Saturday and brought home their little grandson, Bobby Williams of Midland, who had spent a week with his other grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson. They also brought home with them, their son Max, who is a welder in the Bob Burns Machine Shop and who usually comes home for Sunday.

Max had just been to the West Texas Clinic and Hospital and had a steel sliver removed from one of his eyes.

Born, June 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Brown, a son, weighing 8 pounds. Mother and son are getting along nicely at the Blackwell Sanitarium at Gorman.

On Thursday night at the Masonic hall the Desdemona Eastern Star chapter held public installation of officers for the coming year. As members and visitors entered the reception room down stairs they were greeted by Meses. A. C. Robert, M. F. Williams and D. E. Hoover, who served, fruit punch from a beautifully decorated table. After the crowd had gathered upstairs, I. N. Williams, as master of ceremonies, announced the numbers on the program as follows: entering march by retiring officers; singing of "America" by audience; reading, "Follow the Star," Adell Maltby; installation of officers. Mrs. C. W. Maltby was installing officer with Mrs. E. Heeter as marshal.

Mrs. Mattie Henry as chaplain and Mrs. Carl Baker as organist. The officers installed were: Mrs. Roy Ashburn, worthy matron; R. J. Krapf, worthy patron; Mrs. Clarence Ragland, associate matron; Joe Merrill associate patron; Mrs. Roy Rushing, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Jackson, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Welder, conductress; Mrs. A. C. Robert, associate conductress; Mrs. J. E. Heeter, wardien; Mrs. R. J. Krapf, marshal; Clarence Ragland, sentinel; Mrs. M. P. Williams, chaplain; Mrs. Carl Baker, organist; Mrs. D. E. Hoover, Adah; Mrs. I. N. Williams, Ruth; Mrs. Joe Merrill, Esther; Mrs. Gid Tarpley, Martha; Mrs. C. W. Maltby, Electa.

After the installation Miss Nell Robert played a beautiful piano solo. Ceremonies were then given in honor of the retiring and incoming worthy matrons. Mrs. Roy Ashburn, the incoming matron was presented a beautiful bouquet of flowers and Mrs. W. C. Stark, the retiring matron was given a past matron's pin by the chapter. Both matrons gave well worded addresses. The closing number was a vocal quartette by Ed Parks, T. L. Acres, Sam Roberts and Mrs. D. E. Hoover, who sang "Day Is Done." One interesting fact of the installation was that it was the tenth time for R. J. Krapf as patron.

Weldon Rushing and his mother, Mrs. J. H. Rushing Sr., left Tuesday morning for a visit with relatives at Arp, Tyler and other East Texas towns.

Ed Curry of Pioneer was here Monday in the interest of his campaign for representative from the 107th district, composed of Callahan and Eastland counties.

John Dill of Pioneer was here on business Monday.

Cecil Lotief of Cross Plains was here Thursday in the interest of his campaign for re-election as representative from the 107th district, composed of Callahan and Eastland counties.

On Monday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock at our local cemetery the last sad rites were held over the remains of Otis Peake, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Stone Peake, who lived here a number of years before moving to Brownwood in September. Otis was 17 years old and was quite popular with his school mates here, all of whom as well as his numerous other friends were grieved to hear of his death from an attack of pneumonia. Floral offerings were beautiful. Sympathy is extended to the parents.

CAGNEY CAST WITH BETTE DAVIS FIRST TIME IN SAME FILM

James Cagney and Bette Davis head an exceptionally talented cast in the Warner Bros. picture, "Jimmy the Gent," which comes to the Lyric theatre on Sunday. This is the first time in which the fiery, red-headed Jimmy and the tall, willowy and blonde Bette have played opposite each other as screen lovers.

It is notable that Jimmy, while he is plenty rough with other members of the cast, never once lays his hands on Bette. It is she who does the socking in the picture, Jimmy being on the receiving end of two smart blows to the jaw, plauted just as hard as Bette's tiny fist can plant them.

Cagney's more recent pictures include "Lady Killer," "Footlight Parade" and "The Mayor of Hell." Bette at the same time was appearing in "Fashions of 1934" and "Ex-Lady."

Alice White, who appeared with Cagney in "Picture Snatcher," in which she is the recipient of a knock-out punch, is another member of the cast of "Jimmy the Gent," but this time she escapes any mauling. Together with Allen Jenkins, her sweetheart, she supplies no end of "mushy" comedy.

Others in important roles include such well known players as Arthur Hohl, Alan Dinehart, Philip Reed, Hobart Cavanaugh, Mayo Methot, Ralfe Harold, Philip Faversham and Nora Lane.

The picture is a lively comedy romance based on the story by Laird Doyle and Ray Nazarro, and reveals a strange racket in which phoney heirs are dug up to collect large estates left unclaimed.

Michael Curtiz directed the picture from the screen play by Bertram Milhauser.

Unique Slogan Business Getter

"Carwin Wins Cars" is the slogan adopted by two Eastland boys who have just engaged in the filling station business here. Carwin is also the name of the filling station they operate.

Carroll and Winston Allison wanted a job but couldn't find one, so they decided to create a job for themselves. They secured a lease on the filling station at the corner of West Main and South Walnut streets, known as the Nash building and the present location of the Baughn Ford agency, and went into the filling station business. Taking the first three letters of Carroll's name and the first three letters of Winston's name, they combined them into the word "Carwin" and gave this name to their station.

They are doing business and gaining new accounts daily, so in reality "Carwin Wins Cars."

BUT I'M RUNNING IT BECAUSE 2 OF THESE PRODUCTS WILL SAVE YOU PLENTY. AND ONE OF THEM, THE GOLDEN PLY, MAY EVEN SAVE YOUR LIFE

EVERY year thousands are killed or injured by accidents due to blow-outs. When you travel 40, 50 or 60 miles an hour, terrific heat is generated inside your tire. Rubber and fabric begin to separate—a blister starts—grows bigger and bigger until suddenly BANG! A blow-out! You can't steer, you can't stop.

But now every new Goodrich Silvertown has the Life-Saver Golden Ply that resists heat. Rubber and fabric don't separate, thus blisters don't form. Blow-outs are prevented by overcoming their great, unseen cause.

Silvertowns don't cost a penny more than other standard tires and they give you months of extra wear besides. Play safe. Let us put a set of these Golden Ply Silvertowns on your car.
