Renew Efforts To Terminate Steel Strike PLAN INVOLVES A LOTTERY, RULING OF HIGH TRIBUNAL

CITY WILL CRACK DOWN ON LOCAL TRAFFIC VIOLATORS

A "go get 'em" order on traffic violators came out of Tuesday night's city commission meeting, and members of the police department Wednesday had instructions to issue tickets instead of admonitions.

Declaring that traffic rules in the city were too commonly violated, members of the board told City Manager E. V. Spence that there would have to be a clamping down. Spence passed the word along to traffic officers and patrolmen.

Officials declared that speeding, running off stop signs, failure to slow before a right turn at traffic light intersections and cutting of corners constituted the most common violations. Accordingly, policemen were instructed to campaign vigilantly against those infractions of the rules.

The city in recent months has kept a close check against overtime parking downtown. Now, officials said, as vigorous a campaign will be waged on other violations.

AUDITORIUM AT SCHOOL IS HELD UNSAFE FOR USE

Condemnation Action Voted By Board; Corrective Measures Studied

Gymnasium-auditorium of the Big Spring senior high school was condemned by the board of trustees in session Tuesday evening.

Members of the board took the action after they had made an inspection of the condition of the gymnasium wing and noted structural defects which they believed left the building unsafe for further play activities.

Setting of the building on a fill to the east end of the extension constructed in 1928, together with continual vibrations originating from the gymnasium, has caused the floor to sag as much as an inch from the original level in many places. Walls have cracked badly and one stair case has cracked all completely.

Ceiling Collapse—Several years ago a ceiling in a classroom beneath the gymnasium collapsed a few minutes after pupils had been dismissed and sent tons of debris crashing down on desks.

An inspection Wednesday disclosed collapse of plaster and metal lath in store room, serious wall fractures in the auditorium and flaws in the eastern foundations due to settling of soil.

Following the condemnation of the gymnasium, the board considered plans for correcting the condition in keeping with recommendations made by Miss Sue B. Mann, deputy state superintendent. She had urged ample buildings "designed to care for the first six grades, another unit for the junior high school, and a third for the senior high school organization." She also urged that a gymnasium be provided which will permit a full day schedule for teaching physical education.

Remodeling Considered—Board members studied plans which would remedy the defects in the gymnasium and convert it into six classrooms and a library. Other remodeling was considered for the lower floor which would provide a class room and a study hall, leaving the entire basement for seventh grade students.

Conversion of the South Ward school into a 12 room unit, the offering of six grades at the present junior high school building and the construction of a gymnasium-auditorium building, useable for physical education during school hours, were talked.

Miss Mann's recommendations concerning the salary schedule were also studied by the board. She had seen a need for the scheduled revision, "especially for elementary teachers, some of whom are receiving less than teachers employed in rural schools." She added that "unless Big Spring board of education can provide a better salary schedule than that set by the state board of education for state aid teachers, it is recommended that the state schedule be adopted." Miss Mann urged "that at least a living wage be paid all teachers in the system."

Ship Blast Is Blamed On Rebel Mine

British Govt. Dispatches Protest To Insurgent Regime

By the Associated Press

Great Britain blamed the Spanish insurgents today for the death of eight British seamen and the wounding of 24 on May 13, when the British destroyer Hunter struck a mine off southeastern Spain.

The London government ordered its ambassador to Spain, Sir Henry Chilton, to protest to Generalissimo Francisco Franco's administration at Salamanca and reserved the right to claim damages.

It said the explosion was "accidental," but a spokesman declared the government understood the insurgents had laid mines in the high seas off Almeria, the scene of the blast, and in other places, and that the Hunter hit one of them.

No Withdrawal—Incidents of similar nature were in part responsible for withdrawal of Italy and Germany from the international neutral naval patrol of Spain. But there was no indication Britain would follow their example.

Instead, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden was working to bring both the fascist powers back into the neutrality group. In Berlin, official sources predicted Germany and Italy would rejoin the naval patrol by the end of the week.

They left the international organization May 31, the day German warships shelled Almeria, Spanish government port. The previous week, the German pocket battleship Deutschland and the Italian auxiliary vessel Barletta had been combed by Spanish government planes.

On the Spanish war front, government soldiers strengthened newly won positions on the north-western edge of Madrid, besieged since last November.

Along the Mediterranean coast, the government stationed a special vigilance fleet and anti-submarine defense on the heels of two days' shelling of coastal points by insurgent warships.

DENIES NEW CLUES IN TAYLOR MYSTERY

LOS ANGELES, June 9 (AP)—Published reports that indictments will shortly be asked in connection with the 15-year-old slaying of William Desmond Taylor, ace screen director, today drew this comment from District Attorney Byron Fitts:

"We are as close to an arrest in the Taylor case as we were when Taylor was murdered 15 years ago."

Joe Taylor, assistant chief of police, said no arrests were imminent.

$30,000 DAMAGE IN GEORGETOWN FIRE

GEORGETOWN, Tex., June 9 (AP)—Fire wrought $30,000 damage to four business buildings here last night. The blaze, apparently originating in a dry goods store, spread to a theater, grocery and a law office. Firemen from Austin and Taylor were summoned.

Republic Plant To Be Opened In Face Of Labor Warnings

By the Associated Press

Ohio's governor called a conference in an effort to settle an extensive steel strike while union leaders at Chicago drafted an appeal to the national labor relations board today in hopes of winning a written agreement with one of the three large strikebound producers.

One Settled—A Michigan strike of Committee for Industrial Organization workers was settled, it was announced in Washington by John L. Lewis but more than 300,000 residents of the Saginaw valley remained without electric service because of the dispute at the Consumers Power company.

Gov. Martin L. Davey invited representatives of the striking union and Republic Steel corporation and Youngstown Sheet and Tube company to a meeting Friday. The Chicago move was directed at the Inland Steel company.

A Republic subsidiary plant at Monroe, Mich., planned to open tomorrow in the face of warnings from union members that they would resist the attempt. Monroe's mayor said if peaceable efforts to settle the dispute should fail he would ask military trained civilians to act as special police.

Twenty-two hundred men were thrown out of work at Baltimore by a strike at the Fisher Body plant that also closed Chevrolet Motor company assembly factory.

To Use Civilian Force—In New York, 1,500 more truck drivers and checkers joined a walk-out in 200 warehouses, bringing the total number to 2,500.

The announcement of Mayor Daniel A. Knaggs of Monroe that he would use a volunteer civilian force to enable the Newton Steel company plant to reopen tomorrow drew from Committee for Industrial Organization's strikers a warning they would resist any such effort with the aid of 8,000 to 10,000 fellow unionists from Detroit.

At Flint and Bay City, Mich., the second electric power strike in three weeks crippled activity, but an agreement granting a wage increase was reached by company officials and C.I.O. leaders. The agreement is subject to ratification by union employees. Nearly 60,000 industrial employees were idle in the

Storm Hits Texas Town

Several Buildings At Perrin Destroyed; Hail Does Damage

MINERAL WELLS, June 9 (AP)—Citizens of Perrin labored today clearing the wreckage wrought by tornadic winds, hail and rain.

Repair crews from nearby centers worked to restore telephone and telegraph lines around the small town, which is 14 miles north of here. T. P. Beardson, general manager of the Home Telephone and Telegraph company at Baird, said all lines in the community were torn down in the twisting wind.

The tornado destroyed a gin, the Holiness church and a 50-year-old two story ranch house which was considered a landmark. No one was known to have been injured. Residents rushed to storm cellars and the more substantial buildings when the storm approached.

Roofs were torn off many homes and business establishments. Few windows survived intact and nearly every structure in the town suffered damage. Crops suffered greatly, the ripening wheat being blown and beaten from its shocks.

Hail elsewhere in Texas did a less concentrated but wider damage, ruining crops in scattered areas. Huge stones were reported during a half-hour downpour at Knox City, near Abilene. Scattered hail fell with rain in Knox and Haskell counties. The precipitation was an inch and a half.

Wheeler county crops suffered under the battering of hailstones, with the Shattuck area bearing the brunt of the elemental attack.

Convict Is Killed By Prison Officer

HUNTSVILLE, June 9 (AP)—P. N. Long, dog sergeant at the Ferguson farm of the Texas prison system, killed Dave Ladd, negro convict, late yesterday when the inmate attempted to attack him with a hoe, it was announced today at the penitentiary offices.

Capt. J. P. Hamilton, in charge of the farm, said in a report that Ladd, urged to return to work after he laid down the implement to get a drink of water, attempted to assault the guard.

Long shot him through the head. Hamilton's report said. Statements from two other guards said the killing was unavoidable, Hamilton said.

Ladd was sentenced to serve two years from Chambers county for forgery and passing. He was received at the prison May 24.

Friends Pay Tribute To Jean Harlow

Only Close Associates Admitted To Funeral Services

GLENDALE, Calif., June 9 (AP)—Grey, heavy-laden skies, with darkening clouds, matched the heart tones of the close friends of Jean Harlow who gathered at her bier to say farewell.

Through the misty dawn the bronze casket, inlaid with silver, sped the 10 miles from Los Angeles to the Memorial park here, escorted by police motorcycles.

Three hours later, at 9 o'clock, a thousand persons gathered in hushed silence outside the high iron fence of Forest Lawn, a thousand yards from the gate, in the Wee Kirk o' the Heather, was the casket. It rested in breath-taking banks of flowers. It was blanketed with 1,500 lilies of the valley, and 500 gardenias, which the mother, Mrs. Marino Bello, and her sweet-heart, William Powell, provided.

Gardenias were her favorite flower.

A silver plate on the casket bore an engraving of the signature of the 26-year-old glamor girl of the films, cut down at the very height of her career by uremic poisoning.

One of the first to appear in the little chapel of farewells was Warner Baxter. Soon after him came Carole Lombard, then Clark Gable, leading man in her unfinished picture. Next was Nelson Eddy, whose tribute in the simple services was the singing of "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life." With Eddy was his companion Jeanette MacDonald, in sad but rich voice saying her farewell in Jean Harlow's favorite song, "Indian Love Call."

Soon the 250 dear friends had passed through the gate. That was all the police permitted within the Memorial park.

Brief was the Christian Science service read by Mrs. Genevieve Smith, for seven years confidante of the actress.

The pallbearers escorting the casket to the mausoleum were those with whom the glamor girl had worked—Clark Gable, Edward J. Mannix, M-G-M executive; Hunt Stromberg, producer; Jack Conway and W. S. Van Dyke, directors; and Ray June, cameraman.

APPOINTMENTS FOR NOTARIES MUST BE MADE BY THURSDAY

All persons who have been appointed notaries public must qualify not later than Thursday if they wish their appointments to hold good for the next two years. Mrs. Beulah Carrick, deputy county clerk said Thursday.

Appointments will have no valid effect unless qualifications are satisfied by Thursday.

WAGER REPEAL BILL GOES TO GOVERNOR

AUSTIN, June 9 (AP)—The bill repealing the Texas horse race betting law moved to Governor James V. Allred's office today after Robert W. Calvert, speaker of the house, signed it.

Allred indicated he might withhold his signature until Monday due to the absence of two of the senate supporters, whom he wished to include in a picture.

The speaker affixed his signature under protest due to a certificate attached to the bill by senate officers. The certificate mentioned that a point of order was raised against consideration of the proposal.

GENERAL LABOR INQUIRY IS ASKED BY SENATE MEMBER

WASHINGTON, June 9 (AP)—ping and other major industries as Senator Copeland (D-NY) called today for a general senate labor investigation, covering not only the strike-troubled steel industry but other major industries as well.

The New York senator said the investigators should seek a solution to general labor problems along the lines of the railway act as applied to the specific problems of railway labor.

Copeland was commenting to reporters on a request by Philip Murray of the Steel Workers Organizing Committee for a senate inquiry into the steel strike.

The senator said he approved the idea that it should include ship-

More Liberal Water Rate To Go In Effect

Former Schedule For Volume Users Ordered By Commission

NEW PRICE VOTED ON 'IRRIGATION' PLAN

Supply Outlook More Favorable, Benefits Are Passed On

Big Spring's water outlook is brighter, and the city commission is passing on the benefits to users.

The board voted, at its meeting Tuesday night, to offer a more liberal summer irrigation rate to those water customers who signed earlier in the summer for such a schedule. The new rate, identical with that of last summer, will be effective with this month's statements. Here's the rate:

A $3.50 minimum for the first 10,000 gallons; any part of the next 10,000 at 30 cents a thousand; any part of the next 10,000 at 25 cents a thousand; all over 30,000 at 40 cents a thousand.

T & P Lake Full—The irrigation rate since April has been a $3.50 minimum for the first 10,000 and 40 cents per thousand for all additional. The new schedule represents a sizeable reduction for larger users of water. Some 500 customers had signed for the irrigation schedule, offered by the city each year to promote beautifying of lawns, and will benefit from the new rates.

Recent rains and opening of additional city wells made possible the reduction, city officials declared. The Texas & Pacific railroad's lake supply is sufficient to last for a year, rains having filled the lake, and the railroad will not draw on the city's supply. Last summer, it was the heaviest water user. With that demand gone and additional well supplies, municipal officials said the situation justified the lower irrigation rate.

In furthering its contemplated general paving program, the commission Tuesday evening gave instructions to proceed with surfacing of two blocks on Sixth street, between Main and Gregg, a sector where practically all property owners have signed for participation. If owners on other streets sign, the city hopes to keep paving operations in continuous motion. Representatives of Washington boulevard were before the board concerning projected surfacing of that street.

First Car Of Wheat Sells For 91 Cents

Howard county's first carload of wheat reached the market today.

A pool car of grain, grown by C. E. Prather and Sneed Sneed was sold to the Cooperative Grain & Supply company, for shipment to Fort Worth, 1,100 bushels, a bushel No. 1, brought 91 cents a bushel. There were about 1,200 bushels in the consignment.

The car was the first of an expected large movement of wheat in the county. The grain yield is unusually good this year. The Prather-Sneed output ranged from 12 to 20 bushels an acre, Grady Acuff, manager of the Cooperative company, said.

Need States' Aid On Taxes

WASHINGTON, June 9 (AP)—Treasury officials said today states would have to join the federal government in a reciprocal tax program if millions in revenue now lost through exemptions are to be channeled into public treasuries.

President Roosevelt told his press conference he always had favored removing income tax exemptions which are granted federal and state employees.

Two other developments helped make taxation a major topic of capital discussion.

1. The house approved a resolution for an inquiry into tax dodging, but voted to restrict publicity. The senate must agree to the limitations or seek a compromise.

2. United States chamber of commerce officials predicted business spokesmen would seek modification of the new undistributed profits tax.

The president, discussing the removal of exemptions, said a constitutional amendment probably would be necessary.

Treasury officials reported the government could make its future security issues taxable simply by enactment of a law. They added, however, that unless all states and political subdivisions took similar action, interest rates on federal obligations would rise to exorbitant levels.

PLAN INVOLVES A LOTTERY, RULING OF HIGH TRIBUNAL

Unanimous Decision On Test Case From Bonham; Indirect Consideration For Participation Is Cited

AUSTIN, June 9 (AP)—The court of criminal appeals, the state's highest tribunal in criminal cases, ruled today that theatre bank nights were lotteries and therefore illegal.

The court had been considering a test case from Bonham for more than a year. The supreme court ruled several months ago that bank nights were against public policy but did not pass on the important question of whether they were lotteries.

The decision was unanimous, although Judge F. L. Hawkins wrote a separate opinion giving different reasons for concurring. The main opinion was written by O. S. Lattimore.

The decision upheld the fine of $100 assessed H. S. Cole, Bonham picture show proprietor, on a charge of violating the lottery law.

Don't Have To Pay—Cole contended a bank night was not a lottery because a person did not have to pay to have a chance at the prize.

"We think it does not materially affect the scheme," Lattimore said, "that there be a possibility that some one might get a prize who had not paid for a ticket, x x x. The appellant's purpose and plan—as frankly admitted by him—was to increase the patronage of his show. No sane man would believe for a moment that appellant would continue for an extended period to operate a scheme the result of which would or could lose him money."

Hawkins pointed out that courts of other states had differed on the questions of whether a bank night drawing was a lottery.

He held there was indirect consideration for participation in the drawing because persons paying admission to the theatre were in better position to receive the prize than those not there.

Conclusion—"The writer is impressed with the view," he said, "that where the present scheme has been held in other states not to be a lottery, the cases have turned upon a failure to show a direct consideration from the participants, or at least from a part of them, in the drawing for the prize."

"Unless our reasoning be faulty there does appear to be an indirect consideration moving from the registrants in the book in the purchase of admission to the theatre, thereby obtaining a more favorable situation to claim the prize than the outside registrants enjoy."

Bank night operations have been widespread in Texas. A bill to make certain they were illegal had been introduced in the legislature but the decision today apparently eliminated the need for its passage.

No Refund—The state has collected a 20 percent levy on bank night awards since Nov. 1, 1936, and the comptroller's department reported that through June 6 it totalled $92,411.02. The money already had been spent, department officials said.

845 Cars Are Checked In Safety Lane

In three hours Wednesday morning, 845 automobiles passed through the state highway patrol safety lane operated here on Johnson between Second and Third streets.

Of the number 280 had one or more mechanical defects and 565 were given blue stickers for safe vehicles.

The percentage of safe vehicles was considerably higher than when the patrol held its safety lane here a year ago.

On Main St., Thursday

During Wednesday afternoon to 5 p. m. the lane was to be conducted at the same place. Thursday the lane site will be shifted to Main between Third and Fourth streets.

Sgt. Hammett Vance, in charge of the lane here, urged people to have their cars checked for defects so that unsafe conditions could be corrected.

During Wednesday morning one man, who said his home was in Monahan, sought to dodge the lane, according to officers, tried the brake test and went sailing over a curb and plowing into City Traffic Officer C. A. Atkins' motorcycle.

MAN IS KILLED ON SANTA ANNA STREET; ASSAILANT UNKNOWN

SANTA ANNA, June 9 (AP)—J. D. Rhodes, 34, long time resident of Brown and Coleman counties, was shot and killed this morning about 9 o'clock on the main street of Santa Anna. While the shooting occurred in front of Walker's pharmacy with some eight or 10 persons about the store, the identity of the assailant remains a mystery. Sheriff Frank Mills of Coleman is investigating.

Dr. E. D. McDonald, Santa Anna mayor, was first to reach the body. None of the bystanders could offer a reason for the gun play. Rhodes farmed and ranched at the Weaver ranch near here.

Despite the fact that they garnered only two hits off L. D. Cunningham, the Fincher Roadrunners defeated the Owens Gassers, 6-3, Tuesday night and advanced with in half a game of the league leading Couden Octanes.

Cunningham's wildness, coupled with some loose fielding, gave the winners most of their runs.

The Roadrunners marked up two more runs in the third when Ace Underwood and Joe Pickle came home and then led the game by tallying in the following two frames.

Grovelle Malone limited the Gassers to one lone single. The ball clock came in the fourth when C. Cunningham drove two runs across the plate.

Marshal Is Killed In Pistol Battle

SHAW, Miss., June 9 (AP)—Night Marshal E. C. Harrington was killed late last night in an unexplained pistol battle that took place in the drug store of Claude Vance, 40-year-old member of a prominent Bolivar county family.

County Attorney E.H. Green said Vance shot the marshal but refused to make any statement.

Vance's daughter, Grace, a Louisiana State university co-ed, was wounded in the hip during the exchange of shots.

Police Chief John Almond said Marshal Harrington had arrested Vance's negro porter on a drunkenness charge prior to the shooting and "apparently this is what started the argument."

Miss Vance ran from the store, wounded, got into an automobile and drove to her home before being taken to a hospital at Cleveland, nearby. Vance was not wounded. He made no statement to officers, Green said.

Green said that Miss Vance, twice chosen as one of U.S. U.S. six prettiest co-eds, was the only eyewitness to the shooting.

The Vance family moved to Shaw four years ago from Tyler, Tex., where her father operated a drug store.

Judge S. P. Marshall of Nacogdoches and Dan Gilliam, Campi, La., guide, in the boat with Land, were rescued by another boat.

Comeaux Franklin, also of Campi, guide in Woodard's boat, was also rescued.

The storm lasted about 19 minutes.

Will Submit Plea For Inquiry Into The Steel Strike

WASHINGTON, June 9 (AP)—Senator Bridges (R-NH) agreed today to submit to the senate post-office committee a labor organizer's request for a broad steel strike investigation.

He said he would not expand his own resolution for an inquiry into alleged censorship and interference with mail in the strike area.

Philip Murray, chairman of the Steel Workers Organizing Committee at Pittsburgh, had asked Bridges to include in the inquiry "the moral conduct of both parties to the strike" and alleged illegal transportation and use of firearms and strike-breakers by the steel companies.

Chairman McKeelar (D-Tenn) of the postoffice committee indicated meanwhile that a session on Friday would constitute a preliminary investigation of Bridges' charges. At his request, postal officials were compiling a report about alleged refusal to accept parcels of food for mailing into the strike-belt plants.

FACES CHARGE OF PERJURY IN FILING AGE OF DAUGHTER

SULPHUR, Okla., June 9 (AP)—Charles Rucker, 47-year-old Murray county farmer, faced a perjury charge today in the marriage of his 18-year-old son to 13-year-old Dorothy Lee Thomas of Corsicana, Tex.

Rucker pleaded innocent to a charge that he swore Dorothy was 18 years of age when he obtained a marriage license last Wednesday.

The girl and her son, Thomas Rucker, are both from Sulphur.

Jess Dunn, Murray county attorney, said he filed the information on complaint of the bride's sister, Mrs. Lorene Bearden of Davis, Okla. Mrs. Bearden told Dunn her sister was only 13 years of age.

Mrs. Bearden said the girl left the home of her parents at Corsicana last March and had been staying with her sister.

Justice of the Peace S. W. Frost set Rucker's bond at $1,500 and preliminary hearing for 10 a. m. Saturday.

MEXICO OIL WORKERS RETURN TO POSTS

MEXICO CITY, June 9 (AP)—Eighteen thousand striking Mexican oil workers were ordered "back to work at noon" today to end the walkout which has virtually paralyzed transportation-dependent industries since May 28.

The workers had been ordered to return yesterday but refused because of a last minute hitch between strike leaders and the government labor department. Agreement was again reached later.

Workers agreed Monday night to submit their demands for higher wages, shorter hours, vacations and pension benefits to the federal arbitration board.

SLIDES HINDER HUNT FOR CRASH VICTIMS

SALT LAKE CITY, June 9 (AP)—Snow and rock slides threatened serious injury or death today to searchers for bodies of seven persons who died in a December air crash.

One falling boulder struck a civilian observation corps enrollee yesterday. He was injured seriously. Great precautions were ordered as a result.

The hazard increased difficulties, forcing officials of Western Air Express, owner of the transport, to the reluctant conclusion the search may extend many weeks.

Tail-End Dallas Steers Drub Second-Place Beaumonters, 3-2

Where they play today:
Dallas at Beaumont (day).
Fort Worth at San Antonio (night).
Oklahoma City at Houston (night).
Tulsa at Galveston (night).

It may look paradoxical at first glance but six out of eight teams won Texas league games in yesterday's contests.

The catch is that two doubleheaders were divided. And in the six-game program the lower division clubs came out slightly ahead, winning four.

The tail-end Dallas club suddenly found life in its bats going into the eighth inning against the second-place Beaumonters. Johnny Johnson had pitched run-less ball for seven innings but in the eighth he had to keep ducking while the Steers went berserk in a six-run rally. The score was 6 to 3 for Dallas.

San Antonio tried hard to extend their winning streak to five games but Ed Greer of Fort Worth's fifth-place Cats still had the Indian sign on them, 3 to 2. Greer allowed the Padres five hits while Liebhart was granting Fort Worth nine.

Down in Houston the pitchers he'd the spotlight in a doubleheader. In the first game Mike Cvenegros of Houston pitched four-hit ball to beat Oklahoma City 5 to 0. Ash Hillis came back in the eighth to repeat that feat and defeat Houston 5 to 1. Cvenegros has not been scored on in 20 innings.

Tulsa and Galveston divided the other doubleheader by identical scores, 4 to 2, the Oilers taking the first.

Giving people more mileage

I like people to know that I'm not just hired at my station. I'm the proprietor, making my living, all on my own. Naturally I'm choosy about anything I recommend, so no matter how close you might check whatever I say about mileage and performance, I can always look you square in the eye. And that goes double for my Conoco Germ Processed oil. It is the only kind that can Oil-Plate your engine. The patent Germ Process, you might say, gives this oil a real strong "yen" for metal. The oil actually joins up with every working part, always leaving a durable, slippery Oil-Plating that cannot run down, whether your car is stopped or hitting it up. Then you can start up a thousand times a day, or streak along from morning till night. But Oil-Plating will still be there, heading off wear, and letting you skip a lot of stops you used to make for oil. You'll be back here saying even more than me, about all your mileage and performance from Conoco Germ Processed oil.

READING AND WRITING

By John Selby

MURDER IN G-SHARP

Here's what should be one of the best murder books of the year. That it isn't is due, probably, to the carelessness of the publisher, who is a professor of philosophy at one of our more populous New York universities and a person of charm and intelligence.

The plain fact is that the good professor, ought probably to write something a cut above mysteries. Mysteries are all right, up to a point.

Anyway, "Murder in G-Sharp" is brilliant and inept by turns. Mr. Steel writes about Manhattan and the Manhattanese with the wide-eyed wonder of a child from Saskatchewan. He has his hard-bested detective stop twice under the George Washington bridge to be overcome publicly with the beauty of it all; he also has him wrick his head off for a girl he can't trust, a slippery person named Nan Er-rant, and then turn over the $10,000 thus earned to a sloopy playwright who wants to keep a show open.

He has this detective (his name is Hyer) speak to Nan always as "my little complotometer," or "my little bow and arrow," and point less things of the sort. He writes that Hyer "stared at the man a long instant," which we hereby offer as the week's slick trick. He has his people drink 30 and 40 drinks a day, in the "Appointment in Samarra" manner. He has a man be a Norwegian on page 145 and a Swede on page 146, and has him talk the most incredible of dialects on both pages. He has Hyer know, literally, everybody in New York. It is downright ludicrous that this dick should know everybody in every section of Greater New York, when men have spent lifetimes trying to remember the people in just one ward.

So much for that. The plot is amusing, barring some unneccessary voodoo monkey business, and too many red herring characters. Some of the dialogue is excellent, a number of scenes have bite and snap. Most of the characters have life, but it must be confessed that some of the central ones do not. The locale is excellent; more could have been made of it with profit to all concerned. And that's all there is to say.

THE SPORTS CIRCUIT—VFW To Back Jr. Softball Tournament

By TOM BEASLEY

WITHIN THE next few days Ben Daniel expects to have all arrangements made to enter his junior softball team in tournament play sponsored by the V.F.W. as part of a national youth program.

Ten years ago the game was practically unknown. Today there is hardly a playground in America that does not hold its daily softball games, and thousands of adult teams are entered in the organized sport.

The Amateur Softball association itself was not organized until 1933 and had an original membership of 17 teams. Last year there were no less than 96,000 teams—1,728,000 players—who were members of the association and taking part in recognized amateur softball.

The first championship tournament was held in Chicago in 1933 under the auspices of the Century of Progress. Seventeen teams competed for the men's world's amateur softball championship in 1934.

In 1936 the championships moved into the great Soldiers' Field in Chicago and 72 state and metropolitan champions—including 24 women's teams—competed for the championships. The association now estimates that the number of teams entered in the sport in 1937 will come close to doubling the 1936 membership.

Ben is not sure just how the tournament will be handled. Regional tournaments may be held in some localities. It will narrow down to the selection of a state champion, and the state winners will compete for the national championship.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

NEW YORK, June 9 (AP)—Agony column: Six defeats for the Yankees in eight starts has the front office here panicky.

NEW YORK, June 9 (AP)—Now that War Admiral, the "triple crown" winner, and Pompoon, his erstwhile shadow, are on the sidelines for at least two months, Maxwell Anderson's Sceneshifter and Mrs. Ethel V. Marx' Reaping Reward figure to dictate the outcome of the three-year-old stakes.

Sceneshifter will start in the mile of the $50,000 Shevlin Staker race, Earl Sande, trainer of the J. E. Widener castoff, will ship him into the Reaper's backyard for the American derby.

Reaping Reward is more heavily engaged in the Saratoga and Belmont Stakes for Widener thought so little of Sceneshifter that he did not keep the Sande-trained colt eligible for the races before selling him last winter.

WHITE SOX TIE YANKS FOR LEAD

By BILL BONI (Associated Press Sports Writer) It's a press agent's dream, that double-header the New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals are scheduled to play today at the Polo Grounds.

Even if anything, the buildup has been even better than for the original. Of course, Hubbell no longer is trying to extend that fabulous winning streak, as he was back on May 19, when last they met in St. Louis.

The prospect of the Dean-Hubbell clash cast the events of yesterday into the shade, even the fact that the Chicago White Sox ran their winning streak to ten straight to tie the Yankees for the American League lead.

INDUSTRY LEADERS THINK OIL PRICE BOOST NOT JUSTIFIED

Makes A Plea For Safety On Highways
Up To Citizens To Stop Traffic Deaths, Local Club Is Told
TULSA, Okla., June 9 (AP)—The oil industry leaders today issued a plea for safety on highways, saying that a price increase in the price of crude oil went the rounds in the petroleum industry. Acknowledged hopeful signs, among them a 15-cent increase in Pennsylvania crude, a slight decrease in the week's production and the first net withdrawal of crude stocks since Jan. 23, together with reduced state allowances, had started the talk of another general advance.
"It is unjustified at this time," said one authority who withheld his name.
"The stage certainly is not set for it immediately. It will take a lot more reducing of stocks and production to justify a price increase in this territory. When you consider that we've added upwards of 20,000,000 barrels of crude to storage since the first of this year, a rise just now hardly seems the thing."
A major purchaser declared that "crude actually is backing up on us. Some other operators are over-supplied. There's plenty of crude to be had."
Producers still hoped for an advance.
The palvering over the price was natural, one observer agreed because time was when it was the rule that Mid-Continent crude followed the trend in the East. Competitive conditions that led to the Pennsylvania increase and the East Texas 8-cent advance before that do not obtain generally.
But there was no lack of optimism among oil men. A drop of about 35,000 barrels daily in the flow of crude out of the ground was tangible evidence of the curtailment programs projected in heavy producing states to offset the steady succession of new production peaks chalked up since the first of the year.
Spot demand and heavy shipments at slightly stronger prices made good news for marketers of motor fuel, kerosene and natural gasoline.
Field operators increased their work to the tune of 42 more well completions this week than last. The Oil and Gas Journal listed 684 completed wells for the week which brought the year's total to date to 12,410, compared to 10,128 of the same period in 1936.
Some disappointing results, which brought abandonment of a number of Kansas wildcats was offset by a nice strike in Neosho county, Kas., where the Oriental Oil company of St. Louis, Mo., had struck a new 18-25 well in the Mississippi lime at 4,380 1-2 feet and was flowing high gravity oil with the pay barely scratched.
A new field appeared to be in the making in the Centrahoma district, Coal county, Okla., with a Carter Oil company well making a good showing and other tests near completion.

REPEALISTS AHEAD IN GEORGIA VOTE

ATLANTA, June 9 (AP)—Mounting returns from yesterday's prohibition referendum in Georgia increased the lead of repeal advocates to 9,811 votes today.
Late unofficial tabulations also added to the big majorities for 26 state "new deal" constitutional amendments sponsored by Governor E. D. Rivers.
The count at 9:45 a. m. showed 70,229 for repeal and 60,418 against, but neither side was confident of the outcome because the vote closely paralleled the 1935 situation when Georgia remained dry by 245 votes.
The vote was based on returns from 844 of the state's approximately 1,700 precincts, in 155 of the 159 counties.

3 LIFE SENTENCES UPHELD BY COURT

Also affirmed were the cases of C. L. Jackson of Nueces county, 46 years for burglary; J. C. Evans of Potter county, 10 years for robbery and Eddie Jones of Upshur county, five years for the murder of Will Peoples on June 4, 1935.

SEARCH UNDERWAY FOR MISSING PLANE

SALT LAKE CITY, June 9 (AP)—Two army fliers from Boston were lost in the Great Salt Desert west of here yesterday, and today army airplanes scanned the barren miles for the easterners' plane.
Major Clarence Hodge, commander of the 26th division air service of the Massachusetts national guard, radioed the Elko, Nev., airport, 200 miles west of here, at 12:45 p. m. yesterday he was lost. That was the last heard from the Boston-bound ship.
Not until early today did it become known Major Hodge had a passenger, Lieutenant Joseph L. McNeil of Boston.

ADDITIONAL DAMAGE TO OKLAHOMA CROPS

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 9 (AP)—Oklahoma's grain and garden crops, judged by agricultural experts the best in six years, suffered additional damage today as hailstones and heavy rains continued to hammer away at scattered areas.
A rainstorm in the northeastern section was so hard farmers reported many stands of wheat injured and garden crops beaten into the ground.
A wind and electrical storm ripped lines from trees and damaging power and communication lines over an area 50 miles wide. Accompanying rainfall ranged up to 2.25 inches.

APPROPRIATION BILLS SIGNED BY GOVERNOR

AUSTIN, June 9 (AP)—Governor James V. Alford signed two more of the major appropriation bills today, those making provision for eleemosynary institutions and rural schools in the next biennium.
He made no changes in either measure. The rural aid bill appropriated $11,000,000, an increase of $1,000,000 over the regular appropriation for the current two years, and the eleemosynary bill $14,131,615, an increase of $2,654,524. In addition to the regular appropriation of $10,000,000 for rural schools made two years ago, however, the legislature approved a $1,400,000 deficiency. This brought the total for rural aid this biennium to $11,800,000.

Take Testimony On Wage-Hour Bill

WASHINGTON, June 9 (AP)—A joint congressional labor committee heard testimony for and against the Black-Connery wage and hour bill today.
Among the first of opponents to the measure, fixing working conditions for goods shipped between states, was Harvey Willson, manager of the National Upholstery & Drapery Textile association.
He said the bill was "wholly unworkable" and would "result in confusion in industry far exceeding that connected with the NRA which was bad enough."
Roy A. Cheney of New York, director of the underwear Institute attacked the measure as "giving too much power" to an administrative board under control of the president.

5 PCT. TAX ON OIL CITED BY MARLAND

NOERMAN, Okla., June 9 (AP) — Gov. E. W. Marland, in a statement he termed a "little bombshell," declared yesterday it will be necessary to initiate a five per cent severance tax on petroleum if the price of crude oil is not hiked 50 cents a barrel by fall.

Speaking at a luncheon meeting of the University of Oklahoma Alumni association, the governor said the five per cent severance tax would bring in $13,000,000 a year for maintenance of state colleges and common schools.

The tax presumably would be in addition to the present five per cent gross production tax levy.

STANTON, June 9—Sight, unusual in this vicinity, of a wheat combine in action, is attracting numbers of visitors to the W. A. Kaderli farm west of Stanton where threshing is in progress.

The wheat land will fulfill a triple service before the year is out, according to Kaderli's plans. As pasturage, the young wheat fattened 13 calves. The matured grain is yielding about 13 bushels an acre in the threshing. And the land is to be immediately replanted to forage grains for fall harvesting.

H. S. Blocker's combine, one of four now owned in Martin county, is doing the threshing. Other combines are owned by Andy Brown and J. K. Barfield. Barfield has 500 acres in wheat recently purchased from E. Petree.

Kaderli's wheat harvest represents a triumph of perseverance. Four times he has planted wheat in Martin county but this is the first time he has harvested and threshed a crop.

Miss Mary Ellen Farrar is in Colbert, Okla., where she will spend several weeks visiting her aunt, Mrs. Perry Sims.

Texas Spends Oil Royalties On University

School Will Have $17,500 President And $15,000 Football Coach

AUSTIN, June 9 (UP) — The University of Texas will open next fall as a "big time" school. The modern institution with a 27-story administration building, a $17,500-a-year president, a $15,000-a-year football coach and 7,500 students will be far removed from the small state college that, not many years ago, hired cowboys to herd cattle on its campus.

The $17,500-a-year administration building was completed this week, marking the end of a $9,000,000 campus building program for which oil royalties were pledged. The Texas legislature, housed the salary for the university president more than 100 per cent in advance of a desire to attract a big name educator to fill the chair left vacant by death of Harry Yandell Benedict, alumnus president.

Highest Paid State Official As a result, regents found themselves with authority to offer a president $17,500 a year in addition to residence and utilities. He will be the highest paid state official. His pay will exceed the $15,000 year the university's athletic association has promised Dana X. Bible as football coach and athletic director.

The new president will head an institution which already has exceeded by far anything dreamed by the Texas pioneers who listed as a cause for their declaration of independence Mexico's failure to provide public education. The original 40-acre campus has been expanded to 200, furnishing sites for 22 buildings. A medical branch is maintained at Galveston; a mining school at El Paso. Far from the hubbub of campus life, out on the high, bleak peak and clear atmosphere of Mt. Locke in the Davis mountains, the university has another million-dollar project. It is the W. J. McDonald observatory.

To Have Huge Lens The astronomical laboratory in which one of the world's large reflectors will be placed, is nearly completed. The huge glass still is in the process of cooling and polishing.

Aid to the University of Texas rapid growth is oil. Its oil and gas properties are estimated conservatively to be worth $20,000,000. Oil men have estimated their potential value at double that. The oil lies in a vast domain given to the university in its earliest days as a state grant. First well on university owned land produced oil in 1923. Now there are 500 producing oil and gas wells furnishing an income of $75,000 monthly. All this is not immediately usable by the university. It is deposited in a permanent fund and only the current interest from the $72,000,000 fund may be expended. The fund had its inception in 1872 when the university sold surface rights on 42,400,000 acres. Mineral rights were retained.

UNNECESSARY AMENDMENT

Ratification of the child labor amendment, subject of political controversy for some 13 years, may now prove unnecessary to achieve the purpose sought by the majority of its proponents. The apparent realignment in the Supreme Court coupled with the retirement of one of its conservative members offers Congress an excellent opportunity to meet the problem of child labor through exercise of its powers over interstate commerce. Prohibition of goods made by child labor from interstate commerce may well be the solution to the problem.

Congress back in 1916 proceeded along just such lines, passing a law forbidding transportation of goods made by children under 14. But the Supreme Court knocked down the act by a 5-to-4 decision, interpreting it not as regulation of commerce but of industry and labor, an invasion of states' rights.

The late Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes objected forcefully to the majority opinion. He felt the court was overstepping its judicial function, that it was imposing its own legislative views over the will of Congress.

The Constitution clearly says: "The Congress shall have power . . . to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states."

Congress has passed laws forbidding and regulating the shipment in interstate commerce of narcotics, diseased cattle, stolen autos, women for immoral purposes, adulterated foods. And these laws have been upheld.

"It would not be argued today that the power to regulate does not include the power to prohibit," wrote Holmes in his now famous dissent in the child labor case, Hammer vs. Dagenhart. "Regulation means the prohibition of something, and when interstate commerce is the matter to be regulated, I cannot doubt that the regulation may prohibit any part of such commerce that Congress sees fit to forbid. . . I should have thought that if we were to introduce our own moral conceptions where in my own opinion they do not belong, this was pre-eminently a case of upholding the exercise of all its powers by the United States." Three other justices agreed with Holmes, among them Brandeis. That was in 1918.

Today, Congress is due to enact child labor legislation once more, depending upon the tenor of recent decisions to develop into a confirmation of views expressed 19 years ago by the great liberal judge, Holmes. In that event we may well look to an early reversal of the Hammer vs. Dagenhart case, and to probable abandonment of the whole movement for artification of the child labor amendment.

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—The Big Town: St. Patrick's cathedral, once a landmark in the city, is now completely dwarfed by Radio City. . . It was just 58 years ago that the cathedral was built. . . There won't be another theatrical first night of importance until August. . . Only 368 ball players will be in the major leagues after the 23-man-limit goes into effect next month. . . It seems surprising that there should be more than 10,000 horses racing on American tracks and only five or six hundred jockies. . . That was a dramatic occasion that took place at the American theater conference. . . After the producers and stars extolled the virtues of the theater a young girl sprang up and demanded a hearing. . . "What do you mean by this," she cried, "I've tried several years to get into the theater. . . I can't even belong to Equity. . . I can't even get into stock, to gain experience. . . That made everybody drop back into their seats. . . They were flabbergasted. . . But, it achieved rich results. . . Several producers have guaranteed her a hearing. . . And she'll be given an opportunity to act, if she can act."

Joe Cook has an unusual way of entertaining his guests. . . He has a number of slot machines on hand, and he furnishes the nickels for his guests to play. . . What is more if you hit the jackpot, the money is yours to keep. . . The name of Cook's country estate is, appropriately enough, Sleepless Hollow. . . American journalists catch plenty of grief in Hector Bollich's biography of former King Edward. . . He puts the blast on them early and attributes much of what happened during the constitutional crisis to their genius for scandal-writing. . . The best portrait of Edward is by John St. Heller Lander. . . Ward Morehouse, who flew to California on Friday was back the following Monday, returned with a check for $20,000 in his pocket. . . That's what they gave him for the screen rights to his play, "Miss Quix."

BEHIND THE NEWS

By MALLOTT PAUL

Unusual features mark new power bill.
Relief in the law required of appointees.
Bonding provision included to curb lawsuits.
Identity of author hidden in mystery.

WASHINGTON, June 9—Everything gets hot in Washington after June 1, and this does not mean only the weather. Humidity of legislation increases as the temperature rises.

It is an old political custom for the directors of affairs to hold back their warmest bills until the legislators become slightly groggy from the summer heat. Congress is less inclined to be meticulous when the thermometer is 90 per cent in the shade. That is the time when lobbyists, official and private, get in their best work.

Thus, the season's heat record for legislation has been established in the new Mansfield power bill, introduced a few days ago as an administration measure. The bill was written downtown by unknown authors who seem to know a thing or two about stoking a legal furnace in June. Among the feverish provisions they proposed in the bill are these two following propositions:

Oaths

No person can be appointed as director, administrator or member of the proposed new regional TVA's "Unless he professes belief in the wisdom and feasibility" of this proposed law. In other words, officials of this new government agency will be required presumably to take an oath that they think the law is wise and workable.

Such a provision of law has never been thought of in any of the thousands of laws which have been passed, including prohibition. All other government officials of all other departments are required only to perform their duties and to uphold the constitution, but the new regional planning agents must guarantee personally that the writers of the law were wise and efficient.

Suits

However, that is only a cool gust compared with the provision designed to prevent lawsuits such as those by which the TVA has been tied up. The unknown authors decree that no one can sue unless he furnishes bond to pay all damages, loss of time through delay, etc., which might be suffered by the government or anyone else under an injunction issued by the courts. And they say that these damages for all losses and expenses to the government must be paid if the plaintiff must pay all damages unless he wins the suit.

In short, it means, no suits. By legislative fiat, it is proposed to command allegiance to the law and to prevent suits against the law. This may have been proposed in connection with some other law in history, but the oldest legislative clerk cannot remember it.

Note: The bill is supposed to have been written by the unofficial attorneys general Cohen with the help of TVA attorneys, but this supposition is being denied in congress. There the word is being passed around that nobody knows who wrote the bill.

Cool

Mr. R. is standing the weather much better than the legislators. Callers from congress found him last week wearing apparently old trousers and no coat. His shirt was tieless and open at the neck. He was dressed about the same as for a yachting trip.

The White House cooling system was working at about 70 degrees, and so was he.

Visitors

Four well dressed persons, using a broad "A" and identifying themselves as British bankers, have been seen around Washington within a week. They were not together and apparently were not officially calling upon government authorities. Outwardly they seemed to be merely vacationing in Washington at the particular moment of the latest gold scare in London.

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau has been insisting daily that no coronation services for gold are contemplated by him, and most observers believe him.

The general presumption is that the visitors are working unofficially on gold cooperation methods between Washington and London.

Legislative Excursion

The following disclosure of how lobbyists win friends and influence people was posted on the bulletin board in the house as an official announcement:

The group sponsoring government ownership of Federal reserve banks are (a) making a boat trip June 6th. It is a good-will, get-together trip. Among the distinguished guests present will be Mr. Dale Carnegie, author of the best book ever, "How to Win Friends and Influence People"; several United States senators; Col. Lawrence Westbrook of Texas and Washington; Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale U., 25 commissioners of agriculture from 25 different states; and many others. More than 100 members of congress have arranged to make the trip. The boat will leave at 10:30 a. m. and return at 5:30

CHAPTER XVIII
Tweet—tweet—tweet— chirped a sparrow on the window sill of Duke's room the next morning. He opened his eyes and gazed at the bird. He could hear a clock striking five. He wanted more sleep. But the sparrow had other ideas.
"Same to you," said Duke. "And perhaps you're right in making yourself an alarm clock. This is the biggest day in my life—so far—I shouldn't lose one moment of it."
He jumped out of bed. Then he noticed the other bed had not been slept in.
"Doubly right," said Duke to the sparrow. "Tip'll be coming in soon and he'd wake me up, anyway. Your method is pleasanter."
He banged down the receiver and turned to Tip.

"Strict orders not to be disturbed until her breakfast tray is taken to her at eleven o'clock. And they added they never give out numbers of rooms. So it's me to pound on every door day."
"She's in 218—a few doors down," said Tip. "I saw her when she came in last night. But what if she is? Where—"
Duke did not answer. He stopped only to put his feet into bedroom slippers before running from the room. He rapped on the door of 218. When there was no answer, he rapped louder.
"Just a minute, please," came a sleepy voice.
He heard her come to the door, unlock it, open it. She had taken time only to put on her slippers, and to throw a negligee over her shoulders.
"Duke!" she gasped. "I thought it was my breakfast."
"Let me in!" he demanded.
"You can't come in."
"Say who?" he answered, pushing

Hollywood

Sights and Sounds
By Robin Coons

HOLLYWOOD—Mervyn LeRoy was directing an intimate love scene between Gloria Dickson and Edward Norris, but his final instructions was to the set-workers behind the camera, not to the players.

"Please move over, everybody—out of their line of vision."
George Fitzmaurice was directing William Powell and Luise Rainer in a not-so-intimate scene, and he said the same thing, directing his remarks, "I'm afraid, at least, that the man who was not in their line of vision anyway. I remember thinking at the time Fitzmaurice was just an excitable crank, that Mr. Powell didn't give a hoot about his line of vision anyway.

And I left the set before finding out what Mr. Powell thought, but since then I've learned that many actors have trouble with the things they see while emoting.

Distracts Actors
Ian Hunter, no ham, vouchsafed that he does.

"It's most distracting," he explained. "To lay my soul bare to Kay Francis, when out of the corner of my eye I see a little lady from Kankakee, a visitor on the set, nudge her husband and grin. She was doing a love scene with George Brent once, and Brent was saying 'Look at me and you will see the love in my eyes.'"

"I looked. Over his shoulder I saw, not the live in his eye, but a prop man biting off a big chew of tobacco."

The surroundings of a movie set are not exactly inspiring. People on the sidelines, looking in, see the camera's eye and looking out, see the camera, the microphone boom man in which to receive a caller, don't you think the hour and our rather conspicuous lack of clothing would justify me in asking you to go?"
Duke continued his frenzied pacing, as if he had not spoken.
"It's one week, one short week," he moaned, "is all I wanted. It wouldn't have mattered to him nor to you. And to me!"
"Now I must be actually rude," Carol said, "as you have paid no attention to my rather broad hints. Will you please go at once?"
Suddenly Duke stopped, eyes wide open, a questioning look on his face. Carol turned in alarm to the door. There was certainly a light tapping on it. Chilled with fright Carol and Duke looked at each other. Had some one heard them? Had some one in the next room complained of noise? What could they do?

There was only one thing to do and Carol did it. Her heart was beating with fear she felt her throat constricting, but she did force herself to speak, and she said: "What is it? Who's there?"
"It's I dear," said Madison. "Will you open the door a minute?"

Carol certainly is in a spot—and once again it's Duke's fault! How will she find an out? Don't miss tomorrow's exciting installment.

Hitler Speech In Prussia Awaited

MARIENWERDER, East Prussia, June 9 (AP)—Adolf Hitler is coming to strategic East Prussia on June 19 to make an important party speech from the historic castle of Marienburg, seat of Teutonic knights, it was reported on apparently good authority today.

The speech, insofar as could be learned in the secrecy that envelops Der Fuehrer's plans, will deal with frontier problems. It will be made before the oldest and highest leaders of the Nazi party and, in all likelihood, will be kept confidential.

An indiscreet county Nazi leader first disclosed the "surprise Saturday" coming of the Fuehrer and 600 high Nazis and started a wave of speculation involving the future of both the free city of Danzig and Polish Silesia.

Coincident were reports of military massings in East Prussia and just off the Polish corridor that divides the Nazi reign.

On the day prior to the address, Rudolf Hess, Robert Ley and other sub-leaders of Germany will visit the free city. Hitler himself will not go there.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Robinson and little daughter left Monday for a vacation trip to East Texas.

Missing Girl Is Located

British Model Will Be Questioned Concerning Disappearance

LONDON, June 9 (AP)—Scotland Yard sought today to learn Diana Baity's own story of her strange eight day disappearance that ended in sobbing collapse on a London doorstep.

The wealthy 21-year old society girl was found early today, slumped on a step next door to the home of her fiancé, Michael Asquith.

"She was not able to give an account of what had happened to her," said a friend of the family in relating what "Didi," as her intimates knew "England's most photographed beauty," seemed on the verge of a nervous collapse. She was placed under doctors' care.

Young Asquith had disclosed to police that he had received a letter containing a threat to 'remove' Diana unless he took better care of her.

Apparently the socialite photographer's model, who had aspired to motion picture stardom, had been walking the streets of London while police scoured the British Isles for her.

There was some speculation that the two may have had a lovers' quarrel and "Didi" returned after seeing an advertisement which Asquith put in the personal columns of several newspapers yesterday.

Automobiles in the United States burned approximately 434,897,000 barrels of gasoline in 1935.

NEW INSTRUMENT TO LOCATE SOUNDS IN THE HUMAN BODY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 9 (AP)—Expectant fathers can be warned in the future to prepare themselves for one, two or five children two University of California physicians said today, by use of a new instrument similar to the sound detectors used by the army to locate enemy airplanes.

The instrument is a stethoscope, called a "symbalophone" by its inventors, Dr. William J. Kerr and Dr. A. M. Basset. With it the physician for the first time can determine the exact location of sounds inside the human body. They demonstrated the device today before the American Medical association.

Road Project Will Be Aired

Stanton Citizens To Discuss Big Spring-Andrews Connection

STANTON, June 9—Mass meeting of Stanton citizens will be called next Monday to find whether the public sentiment is in support of the project of a highway from Big Spring to Andrews, with a hard-surfaced road from Stanton to intersect it, or in favor of a proposed road from Lamesa to Stanton. It was announced following a meeting of the Stanton Service club at noon Tuesday.

A petition favoring the Big Spring-Andrews project has already been signed by three county commissioners but lacks the signature of the fourth and of County Judge C. E. Story.

The Service club favors the Lamesa-Stanton roadway, a club official said.

Trades days, which have been sponsored by the club, were also discussed, with L. H. White reporting that additional money is needed for prizes in rodeos here, if interest in the events is to be more than localized.

Fruit Party Theme For Meeting Of The Deuce Bridge Club

The home of Mrs. R. H. Miller was scene of a fruit party Tuesday afternoon, when she was hostess to the Deuce Bridge club.

At games Mrs. H. E. Bickerson was given guest prize; Mrs. Watson Hammond, bingo and Mrs. George Crosthwait, floating gifts. Prizes were bunches of various kinds of fruit. Decorations for the entertaining rooms were in keeping with the occasion.

WHEAT HARVEST IS DELAYED BY RAINS

KANSAS CITY, June 9 (AP)—Heavy rains in southern Kansas delayed the start of the state's most promising wheat harvest in several years today, damaged the crop in some areas and caused minor overflows.

A severe hail storm 15 miles west of Hutchinson ruined several sections of wheat.

Rain of near cloudburst proportions, high wind and a severe electrical storm struck near the Parsons area last night, producing four inches of moisture. Further damage was expected.
